and when thou walkeſt by the way, and when thou lieſt down, and when thou riſeſt up. 8 And thou ſhalt bind them for a ſign upon thine hand, and they ſhall be as frontlets between thine eyes. 9 And thou ſhalt write them upon the poſts of thy houſe, and on thy gates. 10 And it ſhall be when the Lord thy God ſhall have brought thee into the land which he ſware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Iſaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities which thou buildedſt not, 11 And houſes full of all good things, which thou filledſt not, and wells digged which thou diggedſt not, vineyards and olive trees which thou plantedſt not, when thou ſhalt have eaten and be full; 12 Then beware leſt thou forget the Lord which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage. 13 Thou ſhalt fear the Lord thy God, and ſerve him, and ſhalt ſwear by his name. 14 Ye ſhall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you: 15 (For the Lord thy God is a jealous God among you) leſt the anger of the Lord thy God be kindled againſt thee, and deſtroy thee from off the face of the earth. 16 Ye ſhall not tempt the Lord your God, as ye tempted him in Maſſah. 17 You ſhall diligently keep the commandments of the Lord your God, and his teſtimonies, and his ſtatutes which he hath commanded thee. 18 And thou ſhalt do that which is right and good in the ſight of the Lord: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayeſt go in and poſſeſs the good land which the Lord ſware unto thy fathers; 19 To caſt out all thine enemies from before thee, as the Lord hath ſpoken. 20 And when thy ſon aſketh thee in time to come, ſaying, What mean the teſtimonies, and the ſtatutes, and the judgments which the Lord our God hath commanded you? 21 Then thou ſhalt ſay unto thy ſon, We were Pharaohs bond-men in Egypt, and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 And the Lord ſhewed ſigns and wonders, great and ſore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh and upon all his houſhold, before our eyes: 23 And he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he ſware unto our fathers. 24 And the Lord commanded us to do all theſe ſtatutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our good always, that he might preſerve us alive, as it is at this day. 25 And it ſhall be our righteouſneſs, if we obſerve to do all theſe commandments, before the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us.

And it ſhall be our Righteouſneſs] In the Hebrew it is, Righteouſneſs ſhall be to us; that is, we ſhall be owned and pronounced by God to be truly righteous and holy Perſons, if we ſincerely obey him, otherwiſe we ſhall be declared to be unrighteous and ungodly Perſons, and all our Profeſſion of Religion will appear to be Hypocriſy. In the Greek it is, Mercy ſhall be to us, or with us. For, as the Hebrew Word, rendered Righteouſneſs, is very often put for Mercy, as Pſ. xxiv. 5. and xxxvi. 10. and li. 14. Prov. x. 2. and xi. 4. Dan. ix. 16, &c. So this Senſe ſeems beſt to agree both with the Scripture Uſe of this Phraſe, in which Righteouſneſs, ſeldom or ever, but Grace or Mercy frequently, is ſaid to be to us, or with us, as 2 Sam. xv. 20. Pſ. lxxxix. 24. Prov. xiv. 22. Gal. vi. 16. and with the foregoing Verſe and Argument, God, ſaith he, Ver. 24. commanded theſe Things for our Good, that he might preſerve us alive, as it is this Day. And, ſaith he in this Verſe, this is not all; for, as he hath done us Good, ſo he will go on to do us more and more Good, and God's Mercy ſhall be to us, or with us, in the Remainder of our Lives, and forever, if we obſerve to do all theſe Commandments, before the Lord our God, as he hath commanded us.

CHAP. VII.

Iſrael commanded to deſtroy the ſeven Nations of Canaan, and to hold no Communion with them, for Fear of falling into their Idolatry.

Ver. 1. WHen the Lord thy God ſhall bring thee into the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it, and hath caſt out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgaſhites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebuſites, ſeven nations greater and mightier than thou; 2 And when the Lord thy God ſhall deliver them before thee: thou ſhalt ſmite them, and utterly deſtroy them, thou ſhalt make no covenant with them, nor ſhew mercy unto them: 3 Neither ſhalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou ſhalt not give unto his ſon, nor his daughter ſhalt thou take unto thy ſon. 4 For they will turn away thy ſon from following me, that they may ſerve other gods: ſo will the anger of the Lord be kindled againſt you, and deſtroy thee ſuddenly. 5 But thus ſhall ye deal with them; ye ſhall deſtroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. 6 For thou art a holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath choſen thee to be a ſpecial people unto himſelf, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. 7 The Lord did not ſet his love upon you, nor chooſe you, becauſe ye were more in number than any people (for ye were the feweſt of all people) 8 But becauſe the Lord loved you, and becauſe he would keep the oath which he had ſworn unto your fathers, hath the Lord brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the houſe of bond-men, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. 9 Know therefore that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keep his commandments, to a thouſand generations; 10 And repayeth them that hate him, to their face, to deſtroy them: he will not be ſlack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face. 11 Thou ſhalt therefore keep the commandments, and the ſtatutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them. 12 Wherefore it ſhall come to paſs, if ye hearken to theſe judgments, and keep and do them; that the Lord thy God ſhall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he ſware unto thy fathers. 13 And he will love thee, and bleſs thee, and multiply thee: he will alſo bleſs the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increaſe of thy kine, and the flocks of thy ſheep, in the land which he ſware unto thy fathers to give thee. 14 Thou ſhalt be bleſſed above all people: there ſhall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. 15 And the Lord will take away from thee all ſickneſs, and will put none of the evil diſeaſes of Egypt

Egypt (which thou knoweſt) upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. 16 And thou ſhalt conſume all the people which the Lord thy God ſhall deliver thee, thine eyes ſhall have no pity upon them: neither ſhalt thou ſerve their gods, for that will be a ſnare unto thee. 17 If thou ſhalt ſay in thine heart, Theſe nations are more than I, how can I diſpoſſeſs them? 18 Thou ſhalt not be afraid of them: but ſhalt well remember what the Lord thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt; 19 The great temptations which thine eyes ſaw, and the ſigns, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the ſtretched-out arm, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: ſo ſhall the Lord thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid. 20 Moreover, the Lord thy God will ſend the hornet among them, until they that are left and hide themſelves from thee, be deſtroyed. 21 Thou ſhalt not be affrighted at them: for the Lord thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible. 22 And the Lord thy God will put out thoſe nations before thee by little and little: thou mayeſt not conſume them at once, leſt the beaſts of the field increaſe upon thee. 23 But the Lord thy God ſhall deliver them unto thee, and ſhall deſtroy them with a mighty deſtruction, until they be deſtroyed. 24 And he ſhall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou ſhalt deſtroy their name from under heaven: there ſhall no man be able to ſtand before thee, until thou have deſtroyed them. 25 The graven images of their gods ſhall ye burn with fire: thou ſhalt not deſire the ſilver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, leſt thou be ſnared therein: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God. 26 Neither ſhalt thou bring an abomination into thy houſe, leſt thou be a curſed thing like it: but thou ſhalt utterly deteſt it, and thou ſhalt utterly abhor it, for it is a curſed thing.

Ye ſhall deſtroy their Altars, and break down their Images, and cut down their Groves, and burn their graven Images with Fire] The Reaſon of this was, leſt any Remains of their Idolatry ſhould prove Snares to ſeduce the Sons of Jacob, whoſe Minds were very tractable on this Head, from the Service of Jehovah, or tempt them to mingle their Adorations of the true God, with the Service of thoſe Pſeudo-Deities (which afterwards they actually did) and, the more ſtrongly to impreſs this important and ſo often repeated Point upon them, he tells them, that they were a choſen and peculiar Nation, holy to the Lord; not ſelected for any Merit of their own, but taken purely thro' the Mercy and loving-kindneſs of God, who was graciouſly pleaſed to make certain Promiſes to their Fathers, which in a wonderful Manner, he had, and would continue, to perform to them; but ſtill on Condition that they kept his Covenant, and did thoſe Things which he commanded them; for that ſuch a Protection only was conſiſtent with the Divine Nature. Jehovah being infinitely juſt, as well as infinitely merciful and powerful; pouring forth Bleſſings continually, on ſuch as religiouſly obeyed him, and puniſhing, with the utmoſt Severity, thoſe who wickedly contemned, deſpiſed or neglected his Inſtructions ſo graciouſly given.

CHAP. VIII.

Iſrael exhorted to Obedience in Regard of God's gracious Dealings with them.

Ver. 1. ALL the commandments which I command thee this day, ſhall ye obſerve to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and poſſeſs the land which the Lord ſware unto your fathers. 2 And thou ſhalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee theſe forty years in the wilderneſs, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldeſt keep his commandments, or no. 3 And he humbled thee, and ſuffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna (which thou kneweſt not, neither did thy fathers know) that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live. 4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot ſwell theſe forty years. 5 Thou ſhalt alſo conſider in thine heart, that as a man chaſteneth his ſon, ſo the Lord thy God chaſteneth thee. 6 Therefore thou ſhalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. 7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that ſpring out of valleys and hills, 8 A land of wheat and barley, and vines, and fig-trees, and pomegranates, a land of oil-olive, and honey, 9 A land wherein thou ſhalt eat bread without ſcarceneſs, thou ſhalt not lack any thing in it, a land whoſe ſtones are iron, and out of whoſe hills thou mayeſt dig braſs. 10 When thou haſt eaten and art full, then thou ſhalt bleſs the Lord thy God, for the good land which he hath given thee. 11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his ſtatutes, which I command thee this day: 12 Leſt when thou haſt eaten and art full, and haſt built goodly houſes, and dwelt therein; 13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy ſilver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou haſt is multiplied: 14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God (which brought thee orth out of the land of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage; 15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderneſs, wherein were fiery ſerpents, and ſcorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint; 16 Who fed thee in the wilderneſs with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end) 17 And thou ſay in thine heart, My power and the might of my hand hath gotten me this wealth. 18 But thou ſhalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may eſtabliſh his covenant which he ſware unto thy fathers, as it is this day. 19 And it ſhall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and ſerve them, and worſhip them, I teſtify againſt you this day, that ye ſhall ſurely periſh. 20 As the nations which the Lord deſtroyeth before your face, ſo ſhall ye periſh: becauſe ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God.

One would think it was impoſſible that the Iſraelites ſhould ever forget the wonderful Things God had done for them; and therefore a Repetition of theſe Things ſhould ſeem needleſs. But the Prophet knew very well the Pride of Heart, Wilfulneſs and Stubbornneſs of the Iſraelites, and had Recourſe to various Arguments, ments, and a Multitude of Incitements, to engage them to a ſteady Perſeverance in well-doing. We find him therefore in this Chapter earneſtly exhorting them to remember, when they ſhould come into, and poſſeſs that good Land, which, according to his Promiſe, God was about to give them, how, for forty Years together, they had been led up and down in the Wilderneſs, to humble them and debaſe their Spirits, to try and prove them, by the miraculous Protections, Deliverances, Proviſions and Inſtructions which God gave them, and withal the frequent and ſevere Puniſhments of their Diſobedience, that they might diſcover to themſelves and others, that Infidelity, Hypocriſy, Inconſtancy, Apoſtaſy, Rebellion and Perverſeneſs, which lay hid in their Hearts; the Diſcovery whereof was of ſingular Uſe both to them, and the Church of God in all ſucceeding Ages.

CHAP. IX.

Moſes forewarns the People, that having ſubdued their Enemies, they ſhould by no Means conceive, that by their own Righteouſneſs they had merited ſo much Kindneſs at the Hand of God, but rather an Effect of his gracious Promiſes to their Forefathers. A Rehearſal of ſeveral of their Rebellions.

Ver. 1. HEar, O Iſrael: Thou art to paſs over Jordan this day, to go in to poſſeſs nations greater and mightier than thy ſelf, cities great and fenced up to heaven, 2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knoweſt, and of whom thou haſt heard ſay, Who can ſtand before the children of Anak! 3 Underſtand therefore this day, that the Lord thy God is he which goeth over before thee as a conſuming fire: he ſhall deſtroy them, and he ſhall bring them down before thy face: ſo ſhalt thou drive them out, and deſtroy them quickly, as the Lord hath ſaid unto thee. 4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Lord thy God hath caſt them out from before thee, ſaying, For my righteouſneſs the Lord hath brought me in to poſſeſs this land: but for the wickedneſs of theſe nations the Lord doth drive them out from before thee. 5 Not for thy righteouſneſs, or for the uprightneſs of thine heart doſt thou go to poſſeſs their land: but for the wickedneſs of theſe nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord ſware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob. 6 Underſtand therefore, that the Lord thy God giveth thee not this good land to poſſeſs it, for thy righteouſneſs; for thou art a ſtiff-necked people. 7 Remember, and forget not how thou provokedſt the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderneſs: from the day that thou didſt depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious againſt the Lord. 8 Alſo in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to wrath, ſo that the Lord was angry with you, to have deſtroyed you. 9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of ſtone, even the tables of the covenant which the Lord made with you, then I abode in the mount, forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water: 10 And the Lord delivered unto me two tables of ſtone written with the finger of God, and on them was written according to all the words which the Lord ſpake with you in the mount, out of the midſt of fire, in the day of the aſſembly. 11 And it came to paſs at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the Lord gave me the two tables of ſtone, even the tables of the covenant. 12 And the Lord ſaid unto me, Ariſe, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou haſt brought forth out of Egypt, have corrupted themſelves: they are quickly turned aſide out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. 13 Furthermore, The Lord ſpake unto me, ſaying, I have ſeen this people, and behold, it is a ſtiff-necked people. 14 Let me alone, that I may deſtroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. 15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. 16 And I looked, and behold, ye had ſinned againſt the Lord your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aſide quickly out of the way which the Lord had commanded you. 17 And I took the two tables, and caſt them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes. 18 And I fell down before the Lord, as at the firſt, forty days and forty nights; I did neither eat bread nor drink water, becauſe of all your ſins which ye ſinned, in doing wickedly in the ſight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. 19 (For I was afraid of the anger, and hot diſpleaſure wherewith the Lord was wroth againſt you to deſtroy you) But the Lord hearkened unto me at that time alſo. 20 And the Lord was very angry with Aaron to have deſtroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron alſo the ſame time. 21 And I took your ſin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and ſtamped it, and ground it very ſmall, even until it was as ſmall as duſt: and I caſt the duſt thereof into the brook that deſcended out of the mount. 22 And at Taberah, and at Maſſah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the Lord to wrath. 23 Likewiſe when the Lord ſent you from Kadeſh-barnea, ſaying, Go up and poſſeſs the land which I have given you; then you rebelled againſt the commandment of the Lord your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. 24 You have been rebellious againſt the Lord, from the day that I knew you. 25 Thus I fell down before the Lord forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the firſt; becauſe the Lord had ſaid he would deſtroy you. 26 I prayed therefore unto the Lord, and ſaid, O Lord God, deſtroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou haſt redeemed through thy greatneſs, which thou haſt brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 27 Remember thy ſervants Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob; look not unto the ſtubbornneſs of this people, nor to their wickedneſs, nor to their ſin: 28 Leſt the land whence thou broughteſt us out, ſay, Becauſe the Lord was not able to bring them into the land which he promiſed them, and becauſe he hated them, he hath brought them out to ſlay them in the wilderneſs. 29 Yet they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughteſt out by thy mighty power and by thy ſtretched out arm.

This Chapter ſeems to be the Beginning of a new Speech, that is, the Beginning of another Day's Con-

ion. Moſes obſerves to them, that now the Time hey had ſo long wiſhed for, was indeed come, or at eaſt at Hand, when they ſhould finiſh their long and wearifome Journeyings through the Deſart, and ſhould o over into the Land of Promiſe; where, however, hey were to fight againſt various, numerous, and warlike Nations, who were not only uſed to give Batle in the Field, but alſo to defend themſelves in their Cities and Places of Strength, which were well fortified, nd capable of making a long and ſtout Reſiſtance. This the Prophet adds, partly, that they might not e ſurprized when they found them to be ſuch; partly hat they might not truſt to their own Strength, but wholly rely on God's Help, for the deſtroying of them, and, after the Work was done, might aſcribe the Praiſe nd Glory of it to God alone, and not to themſelves.

CHAP. X.

Moſes repeats God's Mercy in reſtoring the two Tables of the Law, and exhorts them to Obedience.

Ver. 1. AT that time the Lord ſaid unto me, Hew thee two tables of ſtone like nto the firſt, and come up unto me into the nount, and make thee an ark of wood. 2 And will write on the tables the words that were in he firſt tables which thou brakeſt, and thou ſhalt ut them in the ark. 3 And I made an ark of hittim-wood, and hewed two tables of ſtone ke unto the firſt, and went up into the mount, aving the two tables in mine hand. 4 And he rote on the tables, according to the firſt writing, he ten commandments, which the Lord ſpake nto you in the mount, out of the midſt of the re, in the day of the aſſembly: and the Lord ave them unto me. 5 And I turned my ſelf nd came down from the mount, and put the bles in the ark which I had made, and there ney be, as the Lord commanded me. 6 And he children of Iſrael took their journey from eeroth of the children of Jaakan, to Moſera: here Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his ſon miniſtred in the prieſts office in is ſtead. 7 From thence they ſojourned unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land f rivers of waters. 8 At that time the Lord ſepaated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to ſtand before the Lord to miniter unto him, and to bleſs in his name, unto this day. 9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: the Lord is his inheritance, according as the Lord thy God promiſed him. 10 And I ſtayed in the mount, according to the firſt time, forty days and forty nights, and the Lord hearkened unto me at that time alſo, and the Lord would not deſtroy thee. 11 And the Lord ſaid unto me, Ariſe, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in, and poſſeſs the land which I ſware unto their fathers to give unto them. 12 And now Iſrael, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to ſerve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy ſoul, 13 To keep the commandments of the Lord, and his ſtatutes which I command thee this day for thy good? 14 Behold, the heaven, and the heaven of heavens is the Lords thy God, the earth alſo with all that therein is. 15 Only the Lord had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he choſe their ſeed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day. 16 Circumciſe therefore the foreſkin of your heart, and be no more ſtiff-necked. 17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not perſons, nor taketh reward. 18 He doth execute the judgment of the fatherleſs and widow, and loveth the ſtranger, in giving him food and raiment. 19 Love ye therefore the ſtranger: for ye were ſtrangers in the land of Egypt. 20 Thou ſhalt fear the Lord thy God; him ſhalt thou ſerve, and to him ſhalt thou cleave, and ſwear by his name. 21 He is thy praiſe, and he is thy God that hath done for thee theſe great and terrible things which thine eyes have ſeen. 22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threeſcore and ten perſons; and now the Lord thy God hath made thee as the ſtars of heaven for multitude.

In this Chapter Moſes repeats ſeveral Inſtances of God's peculiar Favour towards them; which he cloſes with a very pathetick Exhortation, which, if dreſſed in modern Language, would run thus: In Return for all theſe Benefits, ſays he, what is it that the Lord requires? Or on what Terms does he offer you the Continuance of his Protection? Why, only that you ſhould fear him, ſerve him with all your Heart, love him with all your Soul, and walk carefully in thoſe Ways which he has appointed for your Good. Theſe are the Things required of you, to render you acceptable to God, who knows the Secrets of the Mind, and judges Men by the Sincerity of their Actions; therefore let your Thoughts as well as your Deeds, be holy: Circumciſe therefore the ſuperfluous Foreſkin of your Hearts, and be no more ſtiff-necked; that is, reſt not in your bodily Circumciſion, but ſeriouſly ſet upon that ſubſtantial Work which is ſignified and deſigned thereby: Cleanſe your Hearts from all Filthineſs and Superfluity of Naughtineſs, which may be fitly compared to the Foreſkin, which if not cut off, make Perſons profane, unclean, and odious in the Sight of God.

CHAP. XI.

Moſes exhorts the People to Obedience, from the Conſideration of the great Things God had done for them, and for the Excellency of the Inheritance which he had promiſed them; warns them againſt Idolatry, and appoints Mount Gerizzim a Place for Bleſſing, and Ebal for Curſing.

Ver. 1. THerefore thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God, and keep his charge, and his ſtatutes, and his judgments, and his commandments alway. 2 And know you this day: for I ſpeak not with your children which have not known, and which have not ſeen the chaſtiſement of the Lord your God, his greatneſs, his mighty hand, and his ſtretched-out arm, 3 And his miracles, and his acts which he did in the midſt of Egypt, unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land, 4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horſes, and to their chariots, how he made the water of the Red-ſea to overflow them as they purſued after you, and how the Lord hath deſtroyed them unto this day, 5 And what he did unto you in the wilderneſs, until ye came into this place. 6 And what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the ſons of Eliab, the ſon of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed them up, and their houſholds, and their tents, and all the ſubſtance that was in their poſſeſſion in the midſt of all Iſrael. 7 But your eyes have ſeen all the great acts of the Lord, which he did. 8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments, which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land whither you go to possess it: 9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give unto them, and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey. 10 For the land whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs: 11 But the land whither ye go to possess it is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven: 12 A land which the Lord thy God careth for: the eyes of the Lord thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year, even unto the end of the year. 13 And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul; 14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. 15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattel, that thou mayest eat and be full. 16 Take heed to your selves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them: 17 And then the Lords wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit, and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giveth you. 18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. 19 And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. 20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: 21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the Lord sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth. 22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you to do them, to love the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him; 23 Then will the Lord drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations, and mightier than your selves. 24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread, shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea, shall your coast be. 25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the Lord your God shall lay the fear of you, and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you. 26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse: 27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you this day: 28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods which ye have not known. 29 And it shall come to pass when the Lord thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal. 30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champian over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh? 31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the Lord your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it and dwell therein. 32 And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

For the Land whither thou goest in to possess it, &c. as the Land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy Seed, and wateredst it with thy Foot, as a Garden of Herbs] In Egypt they took great Pains to water the Ground, by going up and down to fetch Water, and dispersе it, with digging Furrows with their Feet, and using Engines for dispersing the Water, which Engines they thrust with their Feet. For, tho' the River Nile did once in a Year overflow the Ground, and made them fruitful, yet it often failed or scanted them; and then they were put to great Pains about their Ground; and when it did overflow sufficiently, and left its Mud upon the Earth, yet that Mud was in a little Time hardened, and wanted another Watering, and much Digging and Labour both of the Hands and Feet, especially in Places somewhat higher, or more remote from that River, which Inconvenience Canaan was freed from.

A Land which the Lord thy God careth for; the Eyes of the Lord thy God are always upon it, from the Beginning of the Year, even unto the End of the Year] The Land of Canaan was, undoubtedly, at that Time, productive of all Kinds of Blessings that were necessary for the Pleasure or Support of human Life; but its Fruitfulness was suspended upon the Obedience of the People; and therefore 'tis no Wonder that the Land of Canaan is now, (as Travellers report) in a great Part of it, a barren Soil; which is so far from being an Objection to the Authority of the holy Scriptures, in which its Fruitfulness is declared, that it is a great Confirmation of it; its Barrenness being but an Effect of that Threatning, that would turn a fruitful Land into Barrenness, for the Wickedness of those that dwell in it, Ps. cvii. 34. and elsewhere; and the Wickedness of the Israelites in succeeding Ages being notorious, it is but just and fit that the Barrenness of their Land should be as evident as they were infamous.

Take heed to your selves, that your Heart be not deceived] The People are commanded to beware of themselves, and not to be deceived by the specious Pretences of Idolaters, who would plead the general Consent of all Nations, except the Hebrews, for the Worship of Creatures, and that they worship in and by them: This, and the like Arguments, being commonly alledged by the Heathens for their Idolatries, as their own Writers declare, might possibly seduce an unwary Israelite; and therefore they are here cautioned against such Deceit; and withal it is implied, that if a Man's Mind be corrupted and deceived, so as he believes Idolatry to be lawful, this will not excuse him in the Sight of God.

CHAP. XII.

All Relicts and Monuments of Idolatry are to be destroyed, and the Worship of God to be performed only in the Place of his Appointment. Blood forbidden to be eat.

Ver. 1. THese are the statutes and judgments which ye shall observe to do in the land which the Lord God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess poſſeſs it, all the days that ye live upon the earth. 2 Ye ſhall utterly deſtroy all the places wherein the nations which ye ſhall poſſeſs ſerved their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree. 3 And you ſhall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire, and you ſhall hew down the graven images of their gods, and deſtroy the names of them out of that place. 4 Ye ſhall not do ſo unto the Lord your God. 5 But unto the place which the Lord your God ſhall chooſe out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even unto his habitation ſhall ye ſeek, and thither thou ſhalt come: 6 And thither ye ſhall bring your burnt-offerings, and your ſacrifices, and your tithes, and heave-offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will offerings, and the firſtlings of your herds, and of your flocks. 7 And there ye ſhall eat before the Lord your God, and ye ſhall rejoice in all that you put your hand unto, ye and your houſholds, wherein the Lord thy God hath bleſſed thee. 8 Ye ſhall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatſoever is right in his own eyes. 9 For ye are not as yet come to the reſt, and to the inheritance which the Lord your God giveth you. 10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the Lord your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you reſt from all your enemies round about ſo that ye dwell in ſafety: 11 Then there ſhall be a place which the Lord your God ſhall chooſe to cauſe his name to dwell there, thither ſhall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt-offerings, and your ſacrifices, your tithes, and the heave-offerings of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the Lord. 12 And ye ſhall rejoice before the Lord your God, ye and your ſons, and your daughters, and your men-ſervants, and your maid-ſervants, and the Levite that is within your gates: foraſmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you. 13 Take heed to thy ſelf that thou offer not thy burnt-offerings in every place that thou ſeeſt. 14 But in the place which the Lord ſhall chooſe in one of thy tribes, there thou ſhalt offer thy burnt-offerings, and there thou ſhalt do all that I command thee. 15 Notwithſtanding thou mayeſt kill and eat fleſh in all thy gates whatſoever thy ſoul luſteth after, according to the bleſſing of the Lord thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roe-buck, and as of the hart. 16 Only ye ſhall not eat the blood; ye ſhall pour it upon the earth as water. 17 Thou mayeſt not eat within thy gates, the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oyl, or the firſtlings of thy herds, or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou voweſt, nor thy free will-offerings, or heave-offerings of thine hand: 18 But thou muſt eat them before the Lord thy God in the place which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe, thou and thy ſon, and thy daughter, and thy man-ſervant, and thy maid-ſervant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou ſhalt rejoice before the Lord thy God in all that thou putteſt thine hands unto. 19 Take heed to thy ſelf that thou forſake not the Levite as long as thou liveſt upon thy earth. 20 When the Lord thy God ſhall enlarge thy border, as he hath promiſed thee, and thou ſhalt ſay, I will eat fleſh (becauſe thy ſoul longeth to eat fleſh) thou mayeſt eat fleſh whatſoever thy ſoul luſteth after. 21 If the place which the Lord thy God hath choſen to put his name there be too far from thee; then thou ſhalt kill of thy herd, and of thy flock, which the Lord hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou ſhalt eat in thy gates whatſoever thy ſoul luſteth after. 22 Even as the roe-buck and the hart is eaten, ſo thou ſhalt eat them: the unclean and the clean ſhall eat of them alike. 23 Only be ſure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life, and thou mayeſt not eat the life with the fleſh. 24 Thou ſhalt not eat it; thou ſhalt pour it upon the earth as water. 25 Thou ſhalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou ſhalt do that which is right in the ſight of the Lord. 26 Only thy holy things which thou haſt, and thy vows, thou ſhalt take, and go unto the place which the Lord ſhall chooſe: 27 And thou ſhalt offer thy burnt-offerings, the fleſh and the blood, upon the altar of the Lord thy God: and the blood of thy ſacrifices ſhall be poured out upon the altar of the Lord thy God, and thou ſhalt eat the fleſh. 28 Obſerve and hear all theſe words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doeſt that which is good and right in the ſight of the Lord thy God. 29 When the Lord thy God ſhall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs them, and thou ſucceedeſt them, and dwelleſt in their land: 30 Take heed to thy ſelf that thou be not ſnared by following them, after that they be deſtroyed from before thee, and that thou enquire not after their gods, ſaying, How did theſe nations ſerve their gods? even ſo will I do likewiſe. 31 Thou ſhalt not do ſo unto the Lord thy God: for every abomination to the Lord which he hateth, have they done unto their gods: for even their ſons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. 32 What thing ſoever I command you, obſerve to do it: thou ſhalt not add thereto, nor diminiſh from it.

But unto the Place which the Lord your God ſhall chuſe of all your Tribes to put his Name there; even unto his Habitation ſhall ye ſeek, and thither thou ſhalt come] In fixing the Sacrifices to one Place, and ſo frequently ſhewing a Diſpleaſure againſt ſacrificing in high Places, we may contemplate the wonderful Contrivance of Providence. Jeſus Chriſt was to ſuffer, and to give his Life a Ranſom for them and all Mankind in Jeruſalem; ſo that when that City and their Temple ſhould, for their Sin, be deſtroyed, there was an End of all legal Sacrifices; there could then be no more Sacrifices for Sin, as the Apoſtle obſerves; which Conſideration induced all well diſpoſed People among the Jews, to embrace the Goſpel.

CHAP. XIII.

Directions how to behave to a falſe Prophet. Enticers to Idolatry to be ſtoned to Death. An idolatrous City to be burnt.

Ver. 1. IF there ariſe among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a ſign or a wonder. 2 And the ſign or the wonder come to paſs, whereof he ſpake unto thee, ſaying, Let us go after other gods (which thou thou haſt not known) and let us ſerve them; 3 Thou ſhalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your ſoul. 4 Ye ſhall walk after the Lord your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you ſhall ſerve him, and cleave unto him. 5 And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams ſhall be put to death (becauſe he hath ſpoken to turn you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the houſe of bondage, to thruſt thee out of the way which the Lord thy God commanded thee to walk in) ſo ſhalt thou put the evil away from the midſt of thee. 6 If thy brother the ſon of thy mother, or thy ſon, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy boſom, or thy friend, which is as thine own ſoul, entice thee ſecretly, ſaying, Let us go and ſerve other gods (which thou haſt not known, thou, nor thy fathers; 7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth, even unto the other end of the earth) 8 Thou ſhalt not conſent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither ſhall thine eye pity him, neither ſhalt thou ſpare, neither ſhalt thou conceal him. 9 But thou ſhalt ſurely kill him; thine hand ſhall be firſt upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. 10 And thou ſhalt ſtone him with ſtones, that he die: becauſe he hath ſought to thruſt thee away from the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the houſe of bondage. 11 And all Iſrael ſhall hear, and fear, and ſhall do no more any ſuch wickedneſs as this is among you. 12 If thou ſhalt hear ſay in one of thy cities, which the Lord thy God hath given thee to dwell there, ſaying, 13 Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, ſaying, Let us go and ſerve other gods (which ye have not known) 14 Then ſhalt thou enquire and make ſearch, and aſk diligently: and behold if it be truth, and the thing certain, that ſuch abomination is wrought among you: 15 Thou ſhalt ſurely ſmite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the ſword, deſtroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattel thereof, with the edge of the ſword. 16 And thou ſhalt gather all the ſpoil of it into the midſt of the ſtreet thereof, and ſhalt burn with fire the city, and all the ſpoil thereof every whit, for the Lord thy God: and it ſhall be an heap for ever, it ſhall not be built again. 17 And there ſhall cleave nought of the curſed thing to thine hand: that the Lord may turn from the fierceneſs of his anger, and ſhew thee mercy, and have compaſſion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath ſworn unto thy fathers; 18 When thou ſhalt hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

If there ariſe among you a Prophet, or a Dreamer of Dreams, and giveth thee a Sign or a Wonder, and the Sign or the Wonder come to paſs --- thou ſhalt not hearken unto the Words of that Prophet] For, when ſuch a Sign or Wonder foretold, did not follow or come to paſs, it was a Sign of a falſe Prophet, as is ſaid, Deut. xviii. 22. yet when it did come to paſs, it was no ſufficient or infallible Sign of a true one, eſpecially in ſuch a Caſe, when he brings in new Gods. The Reaſon of this Difference is, becauſe many Cauſes muſt concur to make a Thing good and true, but any one Failure is ſufficient to make a Thing bad or falſe. Particularly, there are many Signs, ſuch as Men may think to be Wonders, which may be wrought by Evil Spirits, God ſo permitting it, for divers wiſe and juſt Reaſons, not only for the Trial of the Good, as it here follows, but alſo for the Puniſhment of ungodly Men, who would not receive divine Truths, tho' atteſted by many evident and unqueſtionable Miracles, and therefore are moſt juſtly expoſed to thoſe Temptations to believe Lies.

But was not God's permitting of evil Men, and evil Spirits to do Signs and Wonders, a hard Trial upon the People? Not in the leaſt; becauſe they had numerous Miracles to convince them, that the God they worſhipped was the true God; and therefore they would be inexcuſable, if they ſhould be led into Idolatry by any Signs which God might permit for the Trial of their Sincerity.

CHAP. XIV.

Heatheniſh Rites of Mourning prohibited, and the eating of any abominable Thing. Of Tithes.

Ver. 1. YE are the children of the Lord your God: ye ſhall not cut your ſelves nor make any baldneſs between your eyes for the dead. 2 For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath choſen thee to be a peculiar people unto himſelf, above all the nations that are upon the earth. 3 Thou ſhalt not eat any abominable thing. 4 Theſe are the beaſts which ye ſhall eat: the ox, the ſheep, and the goat, 5 The hart, and the roe-buck, and the fallow-deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg, and the wild ox, and the chamois. 6 And every beaſt that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud amongſt the beaſts; that ye ſhall eat. 7 Nevertheleſs theſe ye ſhall not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you. 8 And the ſwine, becauſe it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye ſhall not eat of their fleſh, nor touch their dead carcaſe. 9 Theſe ye ſhall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and ſcales ſhall ye eat: 10 And whatſoever hath not fins and ſcales, ye may not eat: it is unclean unto you. 11 Of all clean birds ye ſhall eat. 12 But theſe are they of which ye ſhall not eat: the eagle, and the oſſifrage, and the oſpray, 13 And the glede, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind, 14 And every raven after his kind, 15 And the owl, and the night-hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind, 16 The little owl and the great owl, and the ſwan, 17 And the pelican, and the gier-eagle, and the cormorant, 18 And the ſtork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat. 19 And every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: they ſhall not be eaten. 20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat. 21 Ye ſhall not eat of any thing that dieth of it ſelf: thou ſhalt give it unto the ſtranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it, it, or thou mayeſt ſell it unto an alien: for thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God.. Thou ſhalt not ſeethe a kid in his mothers milk. 22 Thou ſhalt truly tithe all the increaſe of thy ſeed, that the field bringeth forth year by year. 23 And thou ſhalt eat before the Lord thy God, in the place which he ſhall chooſe to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oyl, and the firſtlings of thy herds, and of thy flocks: that thou mayeſt learn to fear the Lord thy God always. 24 And if the way be too long for thee, ſo that thou art not able to carry it, or if the place be too far from thee which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe to ſet his name there, when the Lord thy God hath bleſſed thee: 25 Then ſhalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and ſhalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe. 26 And thou ſhalt beſtow that money for whatſoever thy ſoul luſteth after, for oxen, or for ſheep, or for wine, or for ſtrong drink, or for whatſoever thy ſoul deſireth: and thou ſhalt eat there before the Lord thy God, and thou ſhalt rejoyce, thou and thine houſhold. 27 And the Levite that is within thy gates, thou ſhalt not forſake him: for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee. 28 At the end of three years thou ſhalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increaſe the ſame year, and ſhalt lay it up within thy gates. 29 And the Levite (becauſe he hath no part nor inheritance with thee) and the ſtranger, and the fatherleſs, and the widow, which are within thy gates, ſhall come, and ſhall eat and be ſatisfied; that the Lord thy God may bleſs thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doeſt.

Thou ſhalt truly tithe all the Increaſe of thy Seed, that the Field bringeth forth Year by Year] This is to be underſtood of the ſecond Tithes, which ſeem to be the ſame with the Tithes of the third Year, mentioned Ver. 28. and Deut. xxvi. 12. and to confirm this Opinion (tho' I would not lay too great a Streſs on Criticiſms) yet I cannot but obſerve, that this Tything is ſpoken of only as the People's Act here, and Deut. xvi. 12. and the Levites are not at all mentioned in either Place as Receivers or Takers of them, together with the Owners, and therefore they are ſo ſeverely charged here upon their Conſciences, thou ſhalt truly tithe all thine Increaſe, becauſe the Execution of this was left wholly to themſelves; whereas the firſt Tithes were received wholly by the Levites, who therefore are ſaid to take or receive thoſe Tithes, Numb. xviii. 26. Neh. x. 38. Heb. vii. 5.

CHAP. XV.

The ſeventh Year a Year of Releaſe to their Brethren only. God promiſes to bleſs them in the Land of Canaan, and commands them to lend freely to the Poor. The Firſtlings to be ſanctified and eaten before the Lord.

Ver. 1. AT the end of every ſeven years thou ſhalt make a releaſe. 2 And this is the manner of the releaſe: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour, ſhall releaſe it, he ſhall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother, becauſe it is called the Lords releaſe. 3 Of a foreigner thou mayeſt exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother, thine hand ſhall releaſe: 4 Save when there ſhall be no poor among you: for the Lord ſhall greatly bleſs thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to poſſeſs it: 5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to obſerve to do all theſe commandments which I command thee this day. 6 For the Lord thy God bleſſeth thee, as he promiſed thee, and thou ſhalt lend unto many nations, but thou ſhalt not borrow; and thou ſhalt reign over many nations, but they ſhall not reign over thee. 7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren, within any of thy gates, in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou ſhalt not harden thy heart, nor ſhut thine hand from thy poor brother: 8 But thou ſhalt open thine hand wide unto him, and ſhalt ſurely lend him ſufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. 9 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, ſaying, The ſeventh year, the year of releaſe is at hand, and thine eye be evil againſt thy poor brother, and thou giveſt him nought: and he cry unto the Lord againſt thee, and it be ſin unto thee. 10 Thou ſhalt ſurely give him, and thine heart ſhall not be grieved when thou giveſt unto him: becauſe that for this thing the Lord thy God ſhall bleſs thee in all thy works, and in all that thou putteſt thine hand unto. 11 For the poor ſhall never ceaſe out of the land: therefore I command thee, ſaying, Thou ſhalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor and to thy needy, in thy land. 12 And if thy brother an Hebrew man or an Hebrew woman, be ſold unto thee, and ſerve thee ſix years; then in the ſeventh year thou ſhalt let him go free from thee. 13 And when thou ſendeſt him out free from thee, thou ſhalt not let him go away empty: 14 Thou ſhalt furniſh him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy wine-preſs: of that wherewith the Lord thy God hath bleſſed thee, thou ſhalt give unto him. 15 And thou ſhalt remember that thou waſt a bond-man in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day. 16 And it ſhall be if he ſay unto thee, I will not go away from thee (becauſe he loveth thee and thine houſe, becauſe he is well with thee) 17 Then thou ſhalt take an aul, and thruſt it through his ear unto the door, and he ſhall be thy ſervant for ever: and alſo unto thy maid-ſervant thou ſhalt do likewiſe. 18 It ſhall not ſeem hard unto thee when thou ſendeſt him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired ſervant to thee in ſerving thee ſix years: and the Lord thy God ſhall bleſs thee in all that thou doeſt. 19 All the firſtling males that come of thy herd, and of thy flock, thou ſhalt ſanctify unto the Lord thy God: thou ſhalt do no work with the firſtling of thy bullock, nor ſhear the firſtling of thy ſheep. 20 Thou ſhalt eat it before the Lord thy God year by year, in the place which the Lord ſhall chooſe, thou and thy houſhold. 21 And if there be any blemiſh therein, as if it be lame or blind, or have any ill blemiſh, thou ſhalt not ſacrifice it unto the Lord thy God. 22 Thou ſhalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean perſon ſhall eat it alike, as the roe-buck, and as the hart. 23 Only thou ſhalt not eat the blood thereof: thou ſhalt pour it upon the ground as water.

Every Creditor that lendeth ought unto his Neighbour, ſhall releaſe it] The Creditor was not abſolutely and finally to forgive the Debtor, but forbear it that Year; as may appear, 1. Becauſe the Word doth not ſignify a total Diſmiſſion or acquitting, but an Intermiſſion for a Time, as Exod. xxiii. 11. He ſhall not exact it; that is, he ſhall not force it from him by Courſe of Law or otherwiſe, viz. that Year, which is eaſily underſtood from the whole Context. 2. Becauſe the Perſon releaſing is called a Creditor, and his communicating to him what he deſires and needs, is called here lending; whereas it would be giving, and the Perſon giving could be no Creditor, but a Donor, if it were to be wholly given. 3. Becauſe the Reaſon of this Law is temporary and peculiar to that Year, wherein there being no Sowing or Reaping, they were not in a Capacity to pay their Debts. 4. Becauſe it ſeems unjuſt and unreaſonable, and contrary to other Parts of Scripture, which require Men to pay what they borrow, as Pſ. xxxvii. 21. In Caſe of Poverty, indeed, the Debt was to be wholly forgiven, but then it was not by Virtue of this Law, but of other Commands of God, for his Honour, and as an Acknowledgment of his Right in their Eſtates, and of his Kindneſs in giving and continuing them. If they were unwilling to releaſe their Debts for their Brother's Sake, they were to do it for the Sake of God, their Lord, their chief Creditor.

Save when there ſhall be no Poor among you] Theſe Words ſeem an Exception to the laſt Clauſe of the foregoing Verſe, viz. That which is thine with thy Brother, thy Hand ſhall releaſe, and ſo are reſtrained to the Poor, and imply, that if his Brother was rich, he might exact his Debt of him in that Year. And indeed this Law ſeems chiefly, if not wholly, deſigned and given in Favour of the Poor, and to the Borrower, as is manifeſt from Ver. 6. to 11. But the Words are and may be rendred thus, as in the Margin of our Bibles, To the End that there may be no Poor among you. And ſo they contain a Reaſon of this Law; namely, that none be impoveriſhed or ruined by a rigid and unſeaſonable Exaction of Debts. They may alſo be tranſlated thus; Nevertheleſs of a Truth, or aſſuredly, (as the Particle Chi is often uſed) there ſhall be no Poor among you; and the Senſe may be this: Tho' I impoſe this Law upon you, which may ſeem hard and grievous, yet the Truth is, ſuppoſing your Performance of the Conditions of God's Covenant, you ſhall not have any great Occaſion to exerciſe your Charity and Kindneſs in this Matter, for God will greatly bleſs you, &c. So as you ſhall be in a Capacity of lending, and few or none of you will have need to borrow, and thereby to expoſe his Brethren to the Inconvenience of this Law. Thus the Connexion is plain and eaſy, both with the foregoing and following Words.

But it is ſaid, Ver. 11. the Poor ſhall never ceaſe. That is alſo true, and affirmed by God; becauſe he foreſaw they would not perform their Duty, and therefore would bereave themſelves of the promiſed Bleſſings.

CHAP. XVI.

The Feaſt of the Paſſover, the ſeven Weeks and their Weeks, and the Feaſt of Tabernacles, how to be obſerved. All the Males to appear before the Lord three Times in a Year. Judges and Officers appointed. Groves and Images forbidden.

Ver. 1. OBſerve the month of Abib, and keep the paſſover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night. 2 Thou ſhalt therefore ſacrifice the paſſover unto the Lord thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the Lord ſhall chooſe to place his name there. 3 Thou ſhalt eat no leavened bread with it: ſeven days ſhalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction: (for thou cameſt forth out of the land of Egypt in haſte) that thou mayeſt remember the day when thou cameſt forth out of the land of Egypt, all the days of thy life. 4 And there ſhall be no leavened bread ſeen with thee in all thy coaſts ſeven days, neither ſhall there any thing of the fleſh which thou ſacrificedſt the firſt day at even, remain all night until the morning. 5 Thou mayeſt not ſacrifice the paſſover within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee. 6 But at the place which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe to place his name in, there thou ſhalt ſacrifice the paſſover at even, at the going down of the ſun, at the ſeaſon that thou camſt forth out of Egypt. 7 And thou ſhalt roaſt and eat it in the place which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe: and thou ſhalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents. 8 Six days thou ſhalt eat unleavened bread, and on the ſeventh day ſhall be a ſolemn aſſembly to the Lord thy God: thou ſhalt do no work therein. 9 Seven weeks ſhalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the ſeven weeks from ſuch time as thou beginneſt to put the ſickle to the corn. 10 And thou ſhalt keep the feaſt of weeks unto the Lord thy God with a tribute of a free-will-offering of thine hand, which thou ſhalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the Lord thy God hath bleſſed thee. 11 And thou ſhalt rejoyce before the Lord thy God, thou, and thy ſon, and thy daughter, and thy man-ſervant, and thy maid-ſervant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the ſtranger, and the fatherleſs, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God hath choſen to place his name there. 12 And thou ſhalt remember that thou waſt a bondman in Egypt: and thou ſhalt obſerve and do theſe ſtatutes. 13 Thou ſhalt obſerve the feaſt of tabernacles ſeven days, after that thou haſt gathered in thy corn, and thy wine. 14 And thou ſhalt rejoyce in thy feaſt, thou, and thy ſon, and thy daughter, and thy man-ſervant, and thy maid-ſervant, and the Levite, the ſtranger, and the fatherleſs, and the widow, that are within thy gates. 15 Seven days ſhalt thou keep a ſolemn feaſt unto the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord ſhall chooſe: becauſe the Lord thy God ſhall bleſs thee in all thy increaſe, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou ſhalt ſurely rejoyce. 16 Three times in a year ſhall all thy males appear before the Lord thy God, in the place which he ſhall chooſe: in the feaſt of unleavened bread, and in the feaſt of weeks, and in the feaſt of tabernacles: and they ſhall not appear before the Lord empty. 17 Every man ſhall give as he is able, according to the bleſſing of the Lord thy God which he hath given thee. 18 Judges and officers ſhalt thou make thee in all thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee throughout thy tribes: and they ſhall judge the people with juſt judgment. 19 Thou ſhalt not wreſt judgment, thou ſhalt not reſpect perſons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wiſe, and pervert the words of the righteous. 20 That which is altogether juſt ſhalt thou follow, that thou mayeſt live, and inherit the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. 21 Thou ſhalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the Lord ord thy God, which thou ſhalt make thee. 22 either ſhalt thou ſet thee up any image, which he Lord thy God hateth.

In order to inforce the Duty of keeping the Sabbath, oſes tells them, Ver. 1. God brought them forth out Egypt by Night; whereas they came out of Egypt Day, and in the Morning, as appears from Exod. ii. 22. and xiii. 3. and Numb. xxxiii. 3. Anſw. They re ſaid to be brought out of Egypt by Night, becauſe the Night Pharaoh was forced to give them Leave depart, and accordingly they made Preparation for eir Departure, and in the Morning they perfected the Work.

Judges and Officers ſhalt thou make thee in all thy ates] The Adminiſtration of Juſtice being a Point the utmoſt Conſequence, Moſes directs, that in each their Cities, they ſhould have chief Magiſtrates to amine and determine Cauſes and Differences, and fficers inferior and ſubordinate to the other, to bring auſes and Perſons before them, to acquaint the People ith the Mind and Sentence of the Judges, and to ecute their Sentence. Theſe the Prophet ſtrictly enins to take juſt Care of themſelves, and not to fail the ſtrict Performance of all that their Offices requir; particularly, that they ſhould not, by any Means, ke Gifts; becauſe a Gift will blind the Eyes of the Wiſe, and pervert the Words of the Juſt; but, in eir Judgment, avoiding all Prejudices and Partiality, ey were to decide equitably between ſuch as preſent Suits before them; not to give Sentence according the Quality of the Perſons before them, his Riches Poverty, Friendſhip or Enmity, but according to e Juſtice of the Cauſe: For ſuch Deciſions were not mply good Deeds and pleaſing to God, but alſo Inruments of publick Bleſſings, and the beſt Means for nciliating the Favour of the Lord to their whole lation; by which, as they obtained, ſo now, by it, a Tenure, they were to hold the promiſed Land; at is, the Land of Canaan; of which here, and elſehere, he gives his Audience frequent Notice.

CHAP. XVII.

eir Sacrifices to be without without Blemiſh. The Puniſhment of idolatrous Worſhippers. Dubious Points to be reſolved by the Judges. The Election and Duty of a King.

er. 1. THou ſhalt not ſacrifice unto the Lord thy God any bullock, or ſheep, wherein is blemiſh, or any evil-favouredneſs: for that s an abomination unto the Lord thy God. 2 If here be found among you within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giveth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickedneſs in the ſight of the Lord thy God, in tranſgreſſing his covenant, 3 And hath gone and ſerved other gods, and worſhipped them, either the ſun, or moon, or any of the hoſt of heaven, which I have not commanded; 4 And it be told thee, and thou haſt heard of it, and enquired diligently, and behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that ſuch abomination is wrought in Iſrael: 5 Then ſhalt thou bring forth that man or that woman (which have committed that wicked thing) unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and ſhalt ſtone them with ſtones, till they die. 6 At the mouth of two witneſſes, or three witneſſes, ſhall he that is worthy of death, be put to death; but at the mouth of one witneſs he ſhall not be put to death. 7 The hands of the witneſſes ſhall be firſt upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people: ſo thou ſhalt put the evil away from among you. 8 If there ariſe a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between ſtroke and ſtroke, being matters of controverſy within thy gates: then ſhalt thou ariſe, and get thee up into the place which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe; 9 And thou ſhalt come unto the prieſts the Levites, and unto the judge that ſhall be in thoſe days, and enquire; and they ſhall ſhew thee the ſentence of judgment. 10 And thou ſhalt do according to the ſentence which they of that place (which the Lord ſhall chooſe) ſhall ſhew thee, and thou ſhalt obſerve to do according to all that they inform thee: 11 According to the ſentence of the law which they ſhall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they ſhall tell thee thou ſhalt do: thou ſhalt not decline from the ſentence which they ſhall ſhew thee, to the right hand nor to the left. 12 And the man that will do preſumptuouſly, and will not hearken unto the prieſt (that ſtandeth to miniſter there before the Lord thy God) or unto the judge, even that man ſhall die: and thou ſhalt put away the evil from Iſrael. 13 And all the people ſhall hear, and fear, and do no more preſumptuouſly. 14 When thou art come unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, and ſhalt poſſeſs it, and ſhalt dwell therein, and ſhalt ſay, I will ſet a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me: 15 Thou ſhalt in any wiſe ſet him king over thee whom the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe: one from among thy brethren ſhalt thou ſet king over thee: thou mayeſt not ſet a ſtranger over thee, which is not thy brother. 16 But he ſhall not multiply horſes to himſelf, nor cauſe the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he ſhould multiply horſes: foraſmuch as the Lord hath ſaid unto you, Ye ſhall henceforth return no more that way. 17 Neither ſhall he multiply wives to himſelf, that his heart turn not away: neither ſhall he greatly multiply to himſelf ſilver and gold. 18 And it ſhall be when he ſitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he ſhall write him a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the prieſts the Levites. 19 And it ſhall be with him, and he ſhall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the words of this law and theſe ſtatutes, to do them: 20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aſide from the commandment to the right hand or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom; he, and his children in the midſt of Iſrael.

And thou ſhalt come unto the Prieſts the Levites, and unto the Judge that ſhall be in thoſe Days, and enquire] The Judge was either, 1. The ſupreme civil Magiſtrate, who was appointed by God the Keeper of both Tables, and by his Office was to take Care of the right Adminiſtration both of Juſtice and Religion, and to determine Cauſes and Suits by his own Skill and Authority in civil Matters, and by the Prieſts Direction in ſpiritual or ſacred Cauſes. But it's objected, that this Judge was obliged to dwell in the Place of God's Worſhip, which the civil Magiſtrate was not, and frequently did not. Therefore others ſuppoſe, 2. That this Judge was one whoſe Office it was to expound and teach others the Law of God, as Ver. 11. and therefore not the civil Magiſtrate. Or, 3. The High-Prieſt, who was obliged to live in this Place, to whom it belonged to determine ſome, at leaſt, of thoſe Controverſies mentioned, Ver. 8. and to teach and expound the Law of God. And he may be diſtinctly named, tho' he be one of the Prieſts, partly, becauſe of his Eminency and Superiority over the reſt of them; and, partly, partly, to ſhew, that amongſt the Prieſts he eſpecially was to be conſulted. But to this it is objected, that the High-Prieſt is never, in Scripture, called the Judge, but is generally ſtiled the Prieſt, the High-Prieſt, or the Chief Prieſt, or the like; beſides, divers Controverſies were not to be decided by the High-Prieſt, but by other Perſons, as appears, Exod. xviii. 22. Deut. i. 16, 17. Or, 4. The Sanhedrim, or the Supreme Council, which had the chief and final Determination of all the above ſaid Controverſies, was a mixed Aſſembly conſiſting of wiſe and good Men, ſome Eccleſiaſtical and ſome Secular; as it was highly reaſonable it ſhould be, becauſe many of the Cauſes brought before them were of a mixed Nature. And tho' the Word Judge be in the ſingular Number, and may ſeem to denote one Perſon, yet it is only an Enallage, and Change of the ſingular Number for the Plural, Judges, which is moſt frequent, as Gen. iii. 27. and xliii. 6. 1 Sam. xxxi. 1, &c. And this Senſe ſeems the more probable, becauſe for the Judge here, is put the Judges, Deut. xix. 17. where we have the ſame Phraſe uſed upon the ſame or a like Occaſion; the Men between whom the Controverſy is, ſhall ſtand before the Lord, before the Prieſts and the Judges which ſhall be in thoſe Days. And it's very reaſonable, that ſo many Perſons, united all in one Body, to give Judgment or Sentence by the Conſent of All, or the major Part, ſhould be here called by the Name of one Judge, as indeed they were; and for that Reaſon the Prieſts are ſpoken of in the Plural Number, becauſe they were many, as alſo the other Members of that Aſſembly were; and the Judge in the ſingular Number, becauſe they all conſtituted but one Judge.

Neither ſhall he greatly multiply to himſelf Silver and Gold] The King was forbidden to amaſs great Sums of Money and vaſt Riches; leſt this ſhould lift up his Heart in Confidence and Pride, which God abhors, and beget in him a Contempt of his People; and leſt it ſhould induce or engage him to burden his People with immoderate Exactions. They are not ſimply forbidden to be rich, if God made them ſo, either by the voluntary Gifts of their Subjects, or by the Spoils of their Enemies, which was the Caſe of David, Solomon, Jehoſaphat, &c. but they are forbidden either inordinately to deſire, or irregularly to procure great Riches, by grinding the Faces of their poor People, or by other wicked Arts and Courſes, as the Manner of their neighbouring Kings was.

It has been a Matter of ſome Diſpute among the Learned, Whether the Laws and Conſtitutions of other Nations, were not as agreeable to Reaſon and natural Equity, as thoſe promulged by Moſes? To which it has been anſwered, That there is this eſſential Difference between the Laws delivered by Moſes, and thoſe which have been compiled by other Legiſlators; that the former were not only adapted to the Condition of the People to whom they were given, in a Country, to the Poſſeſſion of which they were to come after the Death of the Prophet, but alſo to the various Alterations which happened to that Nation, and their Affairs in the Courſe of ſucceeding Ages; whereas, Conſtitutions the beſt contrived by human Wit, in the Space of far leſs Time, betray many Imperfections, and make Room for various Accidents, to diſorder and at laſt to overturn them. This, if duly conſidered, will be thought no inconſiderable Proof of the divine Inſpiration of their Divulger; ſince it belongs to him alone, who formed the Minds of Men, and governs the Univerſe, to know and provide for the Diſpoſitions of a People, at ſuch a Diſtance of Time.

CHAP. XVIII.

God is the Inheritance of the Prieſts and Levites; their Due from the People. Chriſt promiſed. The preſumptuous Prophet to be puniſhed with Death.

Ver. 1. THE prieſts the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, ſhall have no part nor inheritance with Iſrael: they ſhall eat the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and his inheritance. 2 Therefore ſhall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the Lord is their inheritance, as he hath ſaid unto them. 3 And this ſhall be the prieſts due from the people, from them that offer a ſacrifice, whether it be ox or ſheep; and they ſhall give unto the prieſts the ſhoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. 4 The firſt-fruit alſo of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thy oil, and the firſt of the fleece of thy ſheep ſhall thou give him. 5 For the Lord thy God hath choſen him out of all thy tribes, to ſtand to miniſter in the name of the Lord, him and his ſons forever. 6 And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Iſrael, where he ſojourned, and come with all the deſire of his mind unto the place which the Lord ſhall chooſe; 7 Then he ſhall miniſter in the name of the Lord his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which ſtand there before the Lord. 8 They ſhall have like portions to eat, beſide that which cometh of the ſale of his patrimony. 9 When thou art come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou ſhalt not learn to do after the abominations of thoſe nations. 10 There ſhall not be found among you any one that maketh his ſon or his daughter to paſs through the fire, or that uſeth divination, or an obſerver of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, 11 Or a charmer, or a conſulter with familiar ſpirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12 For all that do theſe things are an abomination unto the Lord: and becauſe of theſe abominations, the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee. 13 Thou ſhalt be perfect with the Lord thy God. 14 For theſe nations which thou ſhalt poſſeſs, hearkened unto obſervers of times and unto diviners: but as for thee, the Lord thy God hath not ſuffered thee ſo to do. 15 The Lord thy God will raiſe up unto thee, a prophet from the midſt of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me, unto him ye ſhall hearken. 16 According to all that thou deſiredſt of the Lord thy God in Horeb, in the day of the aſſembly, ſaying, Let me not hear again the voice of the Lord my God; neither let me ſee this great fire any more, that I die not. 17 And the Lord ſaid unto me, They have well ſpoken that which they have ſpoken. 18 I will raiſe them up a prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and he ſhall ſpeak unto them all that I ſhall command him. 19 And it ſhall come to paſs, that whoſoever will not hearken unto my words, which he ſhall ſpeak in my name, I will require it of him. 20 But the prophet which ſhall preſume to ſpeak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to ſpeak, or that ſhall ſpeak in the name of other gods, even that prophet ſhall die. 21 And if thou ſay in thine heart, how ſhall we know the word which the Lord hath not ſpoken? 22 When a prophet ſpeaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not nor come to paſs, that is the thing which the Lord hath not ſpoken, but the prophet hath ſpoken it preſumptuouſly: thou ſhalt not be afraid of him.

And they ſhall give unto the Prieſt the Shoulder, and the two Cheeks, and the Maw] But how does this agree with other Texts, in which the Shoulder and the Breaſt, and thoſe Parts only, are the Prieſt's Due, not the the Cheeks and Maw? To this it might be ſufficient to anſwer, who ſhall tie God's Hands? What if he makes an Addition, and enlarges the Prieſts Commons? Nothing more uſual than for one Scripture to ſupply what is lacking in another, and for a latter Law of God to add to a former. But farther; the Breaſt may be here omitted, becauſe it is comprehended under the Shoulder, to which it is commonly joined, and with which it was waved before the Lord. Again, the Hebrew Word, here render'd Maw or Stomach, which the Antients reckon'd among their Dainties, is not, to my Remembrance, uſed elſewhere; and therefore it may have another Signification; and ſome render it the Breaſt; others take it for the uppermoſt Part of the Stomach, which lies under the Breaſt.

The Lord thy God will raiſe up unto thee a Prophet from the Midſt of thee, of thy Brethren, like unto me; unto him ſhall ye hearken] Theſe Words may be underſtood ſecondarily concerning the Succeſſion of Prophets, which God would raiſe for the Succeſſion of his Church, both becauſe this is alledg'd as an Argument why they need not conſult with Diviners, &c. becauſe they ſhould have Prophets at Hand, whenſoever it was needful, to adviſe them, and becauſe this Prophet is oppoſed to the falſe Prophet, and a general Rule is given, for the Diſcovery of all ſucceeding Prophets, whether true or falſe, as in Ver. 20, 21, 22. But they are chiefly to be underſtood of Chriſt, as the following Words ſhew, which do not fully agree to any other; particularly, where he is ſaid to be like unto Moſes, which ſimply is denied concerning all other Prophets, Deut. xxxiv. 10. And therefore it is not probable, that it ſhould be affirmed concerning all true Prophets ſucceeding him. But Chriſt was truly and in all commendable Parts like him, in being both a Prophet, King, and Prieſt, and a Mediator as Moſes was, in the Excellency of his Miniſtry and Work, in the Glory of his Miracles, in his familiar and intimate Converſe with God, &c. And this Place is expounded of Chriſt alone by God himſelf in the New Teſtament, Acts iii. 22. and vii. 37. John i. 45. and vi. 14.

CHAP. XIX.

Three Cities of Refuge appointed, and under what Regulations. No old Land-marks to be removed. The Puniſhment of falſe Witneſſes.

Ver. 1. WHen the Lord thy God hath cut off the nations, whoſe land the Lord thy God giveth thee, and thou ſucceedeſt them, and dwelleſt in their cities, and in their houſes; 2 Thou ſhalt ſeparate three cities for thee in the midſt of thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to poſſeſs it. 3 Thou ſhalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coaſts of thy land (which the Lord thy God giveth thee to inherit) into three parts, that every ſlayer may flee thither. 4 And this is the caſe of the ſlayer, which ſhall flee thither, that he may live: whoſo killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time paſt, 5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour, to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a ſtroke with the ax to cut down the tree, and the head ſlippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he ſhall flee unto one of thoſe cities, and live: 6 Leſt the avenger of the blood purſue the ſlayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, becauſe the way is long, and ſlay him, whereas he was not worthy of death, in as much as he hated him not in time paſt. 7 Wherefore I command thee, ſaying, thou ſhalt ſeparate three cities for thee. 8 And if the Lord thy God enlarge thy coaſts (as he hath ſworn unto thy fathers) and give thee all the land which he promiſed to give unto thy fathers; 9 (If thou ſhalt keep all theſe commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, and to walk ever in his ways) then ſhalt thou add three cities more for thee, beſide theſe three: 10 That innocent blood be not ſhed in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and ſo blood be upon thee. 11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and riſe up againſt him, and ſmite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of theſe cities: 12 Then the elders of his city ſhall ſend and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. 13 Thine eye ſhall not pity him, but thou ſhalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Iſrael, that it may go well with thee. 14 Thou ſhalt not remove thy neighbours land-mark, which they of old time have ſet in thine inheritance which thou ſhalt inherit, in the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee to poſſeſs it. 15 One witneſs ſhall not riſe up againſt a man for any iniquity, or for any ſin, in any ſin that he ſinneth: at the mouth of two witneſſes, or at the mouth of three witneſſes ſhall the matter be eſtabliſhed. 16 If a falſe witneſs riſe up againſt any man, to teſtify againſt him that which is wrong: 17 Then both the men between whom the controverſy is, ſhall ſtand before the Lord, before the prieſts, and the judges, which ſhall be in thoſe days. 18 And the judges ſhall make diligent inquiſition: and behold, if the witneſs be a falſe witneſs, and hath teſtified falſly againſt his brother: 19 Then ſhall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: ſo ſhalt thou put the evil away from among you. 20 And thoſe which remain ſhall hear, and fear, and ſhall henceforth commit no more any ſuch evil among you. 21 And thine eyes ſhall not pity, but life ſhall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

I find nothing in this Chapter, but what is plain and eaſy to be underſtood; and as I ſhall never meddle with any Thing but what I apprehend has ſome Difficulty as to its true Meaning, the Senſe dubious, or what I think may be farther illuſtrated by the Sentiments of learned Men; and as nothing of this Kind occurs here, let us proceed to the next Chapter.

CHAP. XX.

The Prieſt directed to encourage the People when they go forth to Battle. The Officers Proclamation with Reſpect to ſuch as were to be diſmiſſed from the War. Peace to be offer'd to a City before attacked. What Trees to be cut down in a Siege.

Ver. 1. WHen thou goeſt out to battle againſt thine enemies, and ſeeſt horſes and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. 2 And it ſhall be when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the prieſt ſhall approach and ſpeak unto the people, 3 And ſhall ſay unto them, Hear, O Iſrael, you approach this day unto battel againſt your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified becauſe of them. 4 For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you againſt your enemies to ſave you. 5 And the officers ſhall ſpeak unto the people, ſaying, What man is there that hath built a new houſe, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his houſe, leſt he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. 6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him alſo go and return unto his houſe, leſt he die in the battle and another man eat of it. 7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his houſe, leſt he die in battle, and another man take her. 8 And the officers ſhall ſpeak further unto the people, and they ſhall ſay, What man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? let him go and return unto his houſe, leſt his brethrens heart faint as well as his heart. 9 And it ſhall be when the officers have made an end of ſpeaking unto the people, that they ſhall make captains of the armies to lead the people. 10 When thou comeſt nigh unto a city to fight againſt it, then proclaim peace unto it. 11 And it ſhall be, if it make thee anſwer of peace, and open unto thee, then it ſhall be that all the people that is found therein ſhall be tributaries unto thee, and they ſhall ſerve thee. 12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war againſt thee, then thou ſhalt beſiege it. 13 And when the Lord thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou ſhalt ſmite every male thereof with the edge of the ſword. 14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the ſpoil thereof, ſhalt thou take unto thy ſelf: and thou ſhalt eat the ſpoil of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath given thee. 15 Thus ſhalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of theſe nations. 16 But of the cities of theſe people which the Lord thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou ſhalt ſave alive nothing that breatheth: 17 But thou ſhalt utterly deſtroy them, namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebuſites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee: 18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods, ſo ſhould ye ſin againſt the Lord your God. 19 When thou ſhalt beſiege a city a long time, in making war againſt it to take it. thou ſhalt not deſtroy the trees thereof by forcing an ax againſt them: for thou mayeſt eat of them, and thou ſhalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is mans life) to employ them in the ſiege. 20 Only the trees which thou knoweſt that they be not trees for meat, thou ſhalt deſtroy and cut them down; and thou ſhalt build bulwarks againſt the city that maketh war with thee, until it be ſubdued.

What Man is there that hath built a new Houſe, and hath not dedicated it] A Houſe was dedicated by Feaſting and Thankſgiving to God; therefore if any Man had failed to do it, he was to return, leſt his Heart ſhould be ſet upon it, and he thereby be negligent or timorous in the Battle, to the Scandal and Prejudice of others; and ſo he ſhould loſe, and another get the Fruit of his Labours, which might ſeem unjuſt or hard; thus God provides even for Mens Infirmities. But this and the following Exception, of Planting a Vineyard, are underſtood only of a War allowed by God, not in a War commanded by God, not in the approaching War with the Canaanites, from which even the Bridegroom was not exempted, as the Jewiſh Writers note.

When thou comeſt nigh unto a City to fight againſt it, then proclaim Peace unto it] This ſeems to be underſtood, not of the Cities of the Canaanites, as is manifeſt from the 16th, 17th, and 18th Verſes of this Chapter, who were under an abſolute Sentence of utter Deſtruction. When a City was taken, the Women and Children were to be ſpared on Account of their Sex and Age, as not involved in the Guilt, or being unlikely to revenge the Quarrel.

CHAP. XXI.

The Manner of expiating an uncertain Murder. The Uſage of a Captive taken to Wife. The Firſt-born is not to be diſinherited upon private Affection. A ſtubborn Son to be ſtoned to Death. He that is hanged is accurſed of God.

Ver. 1. IF one be found ſlain in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to poſſeſs it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath ſlain him: 2 Then thy elders and thy judges ſhall come forth, and they ſhall meaſure unto the cities which are round about him that is ſlain. 3 And it ſhall be that the city which is next unto the ſlain man, even the elders of that city ſhall take an heifer which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke. 4 And the elders of that city ſhall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor ſown, and ſhall ſtrike off the heifers neck, there in the valley. 5 And the prieſts the ſon of Levi, ſhall come near (for them the Lord thy God hath choſen to miniſter unto him, and to bleſs in the name of the Lord) and by their word ſhall every controverſy and every ſtroke be tried. 6 And all the elders of that city that are next unto the ſlain man, ſhall waſh their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley. 7 And they ſhall anſwer and ſay, Our hands have not ſhed this blood, neither have our eyes ſeen it. 8 Be merciful, O Lord, unto thy people Iſrael, whom thou haſt redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Iſraels charge. And the blood ſhall be forgiven them. 9 So ſhalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou ſhalt do that which is right in the ſight of the Lord. 10 When thou goeſt forth to war againſt thine enemies, and the Lord thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou haſt taken them captive, 11 And ſeeſt among the captives a beautiful woman, and haſt a deſire unto her that thou wouldeſt have her to thy wife: 12 Then thou ſhalt bring her home to thine houſe, and ſhe ſhall ſhave her head, and pare her nails. 13 And ſhe ſhall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and ſhall remain in thine houſe, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that, thou ſhalt go in unto her, and be her huſband, and ſhe ſhall be thy wife. 14 And it ſhall be if thou have no delight in her, then thou ſhalt let her go whither ſhe will, but thou ſhalt not ſell her at all for money, thou ſhalt not make merchandiſe of her, becauſe thou haſt humbled her. 15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firſt-born ſon be hers that was hated; 16 Then it ſhall be when he maketh his ſon ſons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the ſon of the beloved firſt-born, before the ſon of the hated, which is indeed the firſt-born: 17 But he ſhall acknowledge the ſon of the hated for the firſt born, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his ſtrength, the right of the firſt-born is his. 18 If a man have a ſtubborn and rebellious ſon, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that when they have chaſtened him, will not hearken unto them: 19 Then ſhall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place: 20 And they ſhall ſay unto the elders of his city, This our ſon is ſtubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard. 21 And all the men of his city ſhall ſtone him with ſtones, that he die: ſo ſhalt thou put evil away from among you, and all Iſrael ſhall hear and fear. 22 And if a man have committed a ſin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree: 23 His body ſhall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou ſhalt in any wiſe bury him that day (for he that is hanged, is accurſed of God) that thy land be not defiled, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

In the nine firſt Verſes of this Chapter, is ſhewn the Manner of expiating an uncertain Murder committed in the Field; and the Ceremony uſed on this Occaſion might inſinuate ſuch Inſtructions as theſe, viz. that the Heifer was a fit Repreſentative of the Murderer, in whoſe ſtead it was killed, who by this Act hath ſhewn himſelf to be a Son of Belial, who would not bear the Yoke of God's Law. The Heifer was to be conducted to a rough Valley, neither eared nor ſown, to repreſent the hard, unprofitable, untutored Heart of the Murderer, and that ſuch a deſart and horrid Place might beget a Horror of Murder and of the Murderer. The Heifer's Head was ſtruck off, to ſhew what the Murderer deſerved, and what the People would have done to him, if they had found him.

By their Words ſhall every Controverſy and every Stroke be tried] Not of all Manner of Controverſies that could ariſe, as if their (the Prieſts) Word were to determine whether there were a God or Providence or no, whether God ſhould be worſhipped, and his Commands obſerved; whether Moſes was a true Prophet or an Impoſtor; whether apoſtate or idolatrous Iſraelites were to be puniſhed or no; which is apparently abſurd and ridiculous: But every ſuch Controverſy as might ariſe about the Matter here ſpoken of; nothing being more uſual than to underſtand univerſal Expreſſions in a limited Senſe; and indeed this is limited and explained by the following Words, and every Stroke, the Particle and being put expoſitively; of which Inſtances have been formerly given; that is, every Controverſy which ſhall ariſe about any Stroke, ſuch a mortal Stroke as is here ſpoken of; a Murder, which may well be called a Stroke, as to ſmite is often uſed for to kill, as Gen. iv. 15, &c.

If a Man have a ſtubborn and rebellious Son — then ſhall his Father and his Mother lay hold on him — and all the Men of his City ſhall ſtone him] Here is a ſufficient Caution to preſerve Children from the Malice of any hard-hearted Parents, becauſe the Elders of his City were firſt to examine the Cauſe with all Exactneſs, and then to pronounce the Sentence. The Conſent of both Father and Mother is required, to prevent the Abuſe of this Law to Cruelty; and it cannot reaſonably be ſuppoſed, that both would agree without manifeſt Neceſſity, and the Son's abominable and incorrigible Wickedneſs; in which Caſe it ſeems a fit and righteous Law; becauſe the Crime of Rebellion againſt his own Parents, was ſo high in itſelf, and did ſo fully ſignify, what a pernicious Member and Son of Belial he would be in the Common-wealth of Iſrael, who had diſſolved all his Ties of filial Duty.

The Puniſhment allotted to the Offender, was to be ſtoned, which was the Puniſhment appointed for Blaſphemers and Idolaters; which if it ſeems ſevere, it is to be conſidered, that Parents are in God's ſtead, and entruſted in a great Meaſure with his Authority over their Children, and that Children are the Matter and Foundation of the Church and Common-wealth, and they who are bad Members and rebellious Children do commonly prove the Bane and Plague of the Publick, and therefore they ought to be nipped in the Bud.

His Body ſhall not remain all Night on the Tree] This Puniſhment was not inflicted but only for great and publick Offences, which provoked the Wrath of God upon all the People, and were to be purged by the Puniſhment of the Guilty, or of thoſe Perſons whom God himſelf had pointed out; (Numb. xxv. 4. Joſh. x. 26. 2 Sam. xxi. 6.) and the Bodies of ſuch ought to be taken away out of the Sight of Men, as execrable and blaſted by God's Judgment. Now all this was a Figure of Chriſt, made a Curſe for us, that we might be freed from that of the Law, (Gal. iii. 13. who therefore made Choice of this Kind of expiatory Death, and was alſo buried the ſame Day (Matt. xxvii. 57.) after he had yielded the Satisfaction due to God's Juſtice, John xix. 30.

CHAP. XXII.

Of a Humanity towards a Brother's Cattle. Laws about Apparel. Of Birds and their Neſts. Battlements of Houſes. Of Seeds. Of Adultery; Rape; Fornication, and Inceſt.

Ver. 1. THou ſhalt not ſee thy brothers ox or his ſheep go aſtray, and hide thy ſelf from them: thou ſhalt in any caſe bring them again unto thy brother. 2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou ſhalt bring it unto thine own houſe, and it ſhall be with thee until thy brother ſeek after it, and thou ſhalt reſtore it to him again. 3 In like manner ſhalt thou do with his aſs, and ſo ſhalt thou do with his raiment, and with all loſt things of thy brothers, which he hath loſt, and thou haſt found, ſhalt thou do likewiſe: thou mayeſt not hide thy ſelf. 4 Thou ſhalt not ſee thy brothers aſs or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thy ſelf from them: thou ſhalt ſurely help him to lift them up again. 5 The women ſhall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither ſhall a man put on a womans garment, for all that do ſo are abomination unto the Lord thy God. 6 If a birds neſt chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones or eggs, and the dam ſitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou ſhalt not take the dam with the young. 7 But thou ſhalt in any wiſe let the dam go, and take the young to thee, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayeſt prolong thy days. 8 When thou buildeſt a new houſe, then thou ſhalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine houſe, if any man fall from thence. 9 Thou ſhalt not ſow thy vineyard with divers ſeeds: leſt the fruit of thy ſeed which thou haſt ſown, and the fruit of thy vineyard be defiled. 10 Thou ſhalt not plow with an ox and an aſs together. 11 Thou ſhalt not wear a garment of divers ſorts, as of woollen and linen together. 12 Thou ſhalt make thee thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy veſture, wherewith thou covereſt thy ſelf. 13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her, 14 And give occaſion of ſpeech againſt her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and ſay, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid: 15 Then ſhall the father of the damſel and the mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damſels virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate. 16 And the damſels father ſhall ſay unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her, 17 And lo, he hath given occaſions of ſpeech againſt her, ſaying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet theſe are the tokens of my daughters virginity: and they ſhall ſpread the cloth before the elders of the city. 18 And the elders of that city ſhall take that man and chaſtiſe him. 19 And they ſhall amerce him in an hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and give them unto the father of the damſel, becauſe he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Iſrael: and ſhe ſhall be his wife, he may not put her away all his days. 20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damſel: 21 Then they ſhall bring out the damſel to the door of her fathers houſe, and the men of her city ſhall ſtone her with ſtones that ſhe die: becauſe ſhe hath wrought folly in Iſrael, to play the whore in her fathers houſe: ſo ſhalt thou put evil away from among you. 22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they ſhall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: ſo ſhalt thou put away evil from Iſrael. 23 If a damſel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her: 24 Then ye ſhall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye ſhall ſtone them with ſtones that they die; the damſel becauſe ſhe cried not, being in the city; and the man becauſe he hath humbled his neighbours wife: ſo thou ſhalt put away evil from among you. 25 But if a man find a betrothed damſel in the field, and a man force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her ſhall die. 26 But unto the damſel thou ſhalt do nothing, there is in the damſel no ſin worthy of death: for as when a man riſeth againſt his neighbour and ſlayeth him, even ſo is this matter. 27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damſel cried, and there was none to ſave her. 28 If a man find a damſel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found: 29 Then the man that lay with her, ſhall give unto the damſels father fifty ſhekels of ſilver, and ſhe ſhall be his wife, becauſe he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days. 30 A man ſhall not take his fathers wife, nor diſcover his fathers ſkirt.

The Woman ſhall not wear that which pertaineth unto a Man, neither ſhall a Man put on a Womans Garment] The promiſcuous Uſe of Apparel was forbidden the two Sexes for Decency's Sake, that Men might not confound, nor ſeem to confound thoſe Sexes which God hath diſtinguiſhed, and that all Appearances of Evil might be avoided; ſuch Change of Garments carrying a manifeſt Umbrage or Sign of Softneſs and Effeminacy in the Man, of Arrogance and Impudence in the Woman, of Lightneſs and Petulancy on both. Beſides this Practice opens a wide Door to the Commiſſion of many and abominable Crimes.

Thou ſhalt not take the Dam with the Young] This is a Document of Humanity, not to deprive the poor Dam of her young ones, and of her Life at one Time; and of Equity, Moderation and Goodneſs, leaving the Dam alive (whoſe little ones thou haſt taken away) to bring forth young ones for others.

When thou buildeſt a Houſe, thou ſhalt make a Battlement for thy Roof] The Roofs of Houſes in thoſe Days were open Terraſſes for Meetings. See 1 Sam. ix. 25. Neh. viii. 16. Jer. xix. 13. Matt. x. 17. Luke xvii. 31. Therefore the Fence or Breaſt-work was to be ſet up, to prevent any Man's falling over, and to hinder any dreadful Miſhap in the Houſe, whereby the Owner, through Careleſſneſs, might bring a Judgment upon himſelf and Houſe.

Thou ſhalt not ſow thy Vineyard with divers Seeds] Either, firſt, with divers Kinds of Seeds mixed and ſowed together between the Rows of Vines in the Vineyard, which was forbidden to be done in the Field, (Levit. xix. 19.) and here in the Vineyard; or, ſecondly, with any Kind of Seed differing from that of the Vine, which would produce either Herbs, Corn, or Fruit-bearing Trees, whoſe Fruit might be mingled with the Fruits of the Vine. This and the two following Precepts, tho' in themſelves ſmall and trivial, are given according to the Time and State of the Church, for Documents and Inſtructions in greater Matters; and particularly to recommend to them Simplicity and Sincerity in all their Carriage towards God and Men, and to forbid all Mixture of their Inventions with God's Inſtitutions in Doctrine or Worſhip.

Thou ſhalt make thee Fringes upon the four Quarters of thy Veſture] This was to bring the Commands of God to their Remembrance, as it is expreſſed, Numb. xv. 38. and as a publick Profeſſion of their Nation and Religion, whereby they might be diſcerned and diſtinguiſhed from Strangers, that ſo they might be the more circumſpect to behave themſelves as became the People of God, and that they ſhould not be aſhamed to own their God and Religion before all the World.

But if this Thing be true, and the Tokens of Virginity be not found for the Damſel; then they ſhall bring out the Damſel to the Door of her Father's Houſe, and the Men of her City ſhall ſtone her with Stones till ſhe die] Becauſe this is not now evident, the Enemies of Scriptures take Occaſion to quarrel with this Law, as unreaſonable and unjuſt, and ſuch as might oppreſs the Innocent, and hence take Occaſion to reject the Holy Scripture. It were much more reaſonable for thoſe Men either to expound this Place metaphorically of producing thoſe Proofs and Teſtimonies of her Virginity, which ſhould be as ſatisfactory as if that Cloth was produced, as ſome of the Jews underſtand it, or modeſtly acknowledge their own Ignorance in this, as they are forced to do in many other Things, and not imprudently conclude it is inſoluble, becauſe they cannot ſolve it.

But there is no need of ſuch general Anſwers, many Things may be particularly ſaid for the Vindication of this Law; as, 1. That it was neceſſary for that People, becauſe of their Hard-heartedneſs towards their Wives. 2. That either this Trial, or at leaſt the Proof of her Virginity, was to be taken preſently after the Day of Marriage, and that Proof was afterwards to be admitted upon Occaſion. 3. That this Law was ſeldom or never put in Execution, as the Jews remark, and ſeems to be made for Terror and Caution to Husbands and Wives, as many other Laws have been in like Caſes. 4. That the God who gave this Law, did by his Providence govern all Affairs, and rule the Tongues and Hearts of Men, and doubtleſs would therefore take Care ſo to order Matters, that the Innocent ſhould not ſuffer by this Means, which he could prevent many Ways. 5. That there is a great Difference in Times and Climates. Who knows not that there are many Things now by our Moderns thought uncertain or falſe, which by the antient Phyſicians were thought and affirmed to be true and certain in their Times and Countries; and that many Signs of Diſeaſes, and and other Things, do generally hold true in thoſe more ſouthernly and warmer Parts of the World, which are oftentimes deceitful in our northern and colder Climates. 6. That this very Way of Trial of Virginity hath been uſed not only by the Jews, but alſo by the Arabians and Egyptians, as is affirmed by divers learned Writers, among whom it was yet more doubtful and hazardous than among the Jews, who might promiſe to themſelves, that God would guide the Execution of his own Law to a good and juſt Iſſue. 7. That this Sign, if it was uncertain in Perſons of riper Years, yet it may be reaſonably thought certain in Virgins of young and tender Age; and that the Jews did ordinarily marry their Daughters when they were about twelve or thirteen Years old, as is confeſſed, and making haſte to take away that Reproach which they thought there was in an unmarried State.

But why ſhould ſhe die, when her Crime was only Fornication, which was not puniſhed in a Woman with Death, as appears from Exod. xxii. 16, 17? Becauſe there was not only Fornication in this Caſe, but it was accompanied with deep Diſſimulation and Injury to her Huſband, in the falſe Profeſſion of her Virginity; and it might be preſumed ſhe committed this Folly after ſhe was betrothed to him, and therefore ſo obſtinately denied it, as knowing the Danger of it in that Caſe. Or, God ſo ordered it for the Honour and Safeguard of the Matrimonial Bed, that ſhe, who being defiled before ſhe was married or betrothed, and therefore not puniſhable by Death, yet preſuming to carry her Defilement into the married State, with a Pretence of Virginity, ſhould then be put to Death.

CHAP. XXIII.

Who might, and who might not, enter into the Congregation of the Lord. Laws concerning fugitive Servants; Filthineſs; abominable Sacrifices; Uſury, and Vows.

Ver. 1. HE that is wounded in the ſtones, or hath his privy member cut off, ſhall not enter into the congregation of the Lord. 2 A baſtard ſhall not enter into the congregation of the Lord: even to his tenth generation ſhall he not enter into the congregation of the Lord. 3 An Ammonite or Moabite ſhall not enter into the congregation of the Lord; even to their tenth generation ſhall they not enter into the congregation of the Lord for ever: 4 Becauſe they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and becauſe they hired againſt thee Balaam the ſon of Beor of Pethor of Meſopotamia, to curſe thee. 5 Nevertheleſs, the Lord thy God would not hearken unto Balaam: but the Lord thy God turned the curſe into a bleſſing unto thee, becauſe the Lord thy God loved thee. 6 Thou ſhalt not ſeek their peace, nor their proſperity all thy days for ever. 7 Thou ſhalt not abhor an Edomite, for he is thy brother: thou ſhalt not abhor an Egyptian, becauſe thou waſt a ſtranger in his land. 8 The children that are begotten of them, ſhall enter into the congregation of the Lord, in their third generation. 9 When the hoſt goeth forth againſt thine enemies, then keep thee from every wicked thing. 10 If there be among you any man that is not clean, by reaſon of uncleanneſs that chanceth him by night, then ſhall he go abroad out of the camp, he ſhall not come within the camp. 11 But it ſhall be when evening cometh on, he ſhall waſh himſelf with water: and when the ſun is down, he ſhall come into the camp again. 12 Thou ſhalt have a place alſo without the camp, whither thou ſhalt go forth abroad. 13 And thou ſhalt have a paddle upon thy weapon: and it ſhall be when thou wilt eaſe thy ſelf abroad, thou ſhalt dig therewith, and ſhalt turn back, and cover that which cometh from thee. 14 For the Lord thy God walketh in the midſt of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee; therefore ſhall thy camp be holy, that he ſee no unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee. 15 Thou ſhalt not deliver unto his maſter, the ſervant which is eſcaped from his maſter unto thee. 16 He ſhall dwell with thee, even among you, in that place which he ſhall chooſe, in one of thy gates where it liketh him beſt: thou ſhalt not oppreſs him. 17 There ſhall be no whore of the daughters of Iſrael, nor a Sodomite of the ſons of Iſrael. 18 Thou ſhalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog into the houſe of the Lord thy God for any vow: for even both theſe are abomination unto the Lord thy God. 19 Thou ſhalt not lend upon uſury to thy brother, uſury of money, uſury of victuals, uſury of any thing that is lent upon uſury. 20 Unto a ſtranger thou mayeſt lend upon uſury, but unto thy brother thou ſhalt not lend upon uſury; that the Lord thy God may bleſs thee in all that thou ſetteſt thine hand to, in the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it. 21 When thou ſhalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou ſhalt not ſlack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will ſurely require it of thee; and it would be ſin in thee. 22 But if thou ſhalt forbear to vow, it ſhall be no ſin in thee. 23 That which is gone out of thy lips, thou ſhalt keep and perform; even a free-will-offering, according as thou haſt vowed unto the Lord thy God, which thou haſt promiſed with thy mouth. 24 When thou comeſt into thy neighbours vineyard, then thou mayeſt eat grapes thy fill, at thine own pleaſure; but thou ſhalt not put any in thy veſſel. 25 When thou comeſt into the ſtanding-corn of thy neighbours, then thou mayeſt pluck the ears with thine hand: but thou ſhalt not move a ſickle unto thy neighbours ſtanding corn.

A Baſtard ſhall not enter into the Congregation of the Lord, even to his tenth Generation] This Law, tho' ſeemingly harſh and ſevere, will not appear ſo, if we conſider, 1. That it was an Excluſion from Government, which was a tolerable Burden. Or, 2. That it was a neceſſary Caution to prevent and brand the Sin of Uncleanneſs, to which the Jews were exceſſively prone. But Pharez and Jepthah, both Baſtards, were advanced to great Honour and Authority. To this it's anſwered, That God gives Laws to us, and not to himſelf; and therefore he might, when he ſaw fit, confer what Favour or Power he pleaſed upon any ſuch Perſon, as he did to theſe. But ſome add, that the Hebrew Word Mamzer ſignifies not every Baſtard, but one born of a ſtrange Woman, as the Word may ſeem to intimate; and as ſuch Perſons generally ſeem to have been, becauſe of that general Proviſion, that there ſhould be no Whore of the Daughters of Iſrael, as it is here, Ver. 17.

By the Congregation of the Lord may be underſtood, either, 1. That they ſhould not be incorporated into the Body of Iſrael, by Marriage; for ſo this Phraſe may ſeem to have been underſtood by the whole Congregation of Iſrael, Nehem. xiii. 1, 2, 3, &c. altho' at that Time the Government was partly in the Hands of ſuch Perſons as are here mentioned, Ver. 3. or of their Children, ſince it is apparent from Ezra x. that many Prieſts and Levites, and other Officers and Rulers lers of Iſrael were married to ſtrange Women, whoſe Iſſue are, by this Law, excluded from all Share in the Government, and that among other Reaſons Nehemiah ſeparated them from Iſrael, by Virtue of the Law here following. Or, 2. That they ſhould not be admitted to Honour and Offices, either in the Church or Commonwealth of Iſrael; and ſo the Congregation of the Lord does not here ſignify, as it uſually does, the Body of the People, but the Society of the Elders, or Rulers of the People, who, as they repreſent the whole Congregation, and act in their Name, and for their Service, ſo are they called ſometimes by the Name of the Congregation, as Numb. xxxv. 12, 24, 25, &c. and of the Congregation of God, as it is in the Hebrew of Pſ. lxxxii. 3. But as they are often called the Congregation, they may very well, in a ſpecial Manner, be called the Congregation of the Lord, becauſe they were appointed by God, and acted in his Name and Stead, and for his Work and Service, and did often aſſemble near the Tabernacle, where God was eminently preſent. Add to this, that the Hebrew Word Kahal, generally ſignifies a Congregation, or Company met together; and therefore this cannot ſo conveniently be meant of all the Body of the People, which could never meet in one Place, but of the chief Rulers, who frequently did ſo. Nor is it ſtrange, that Eunuchs are excluded from Government, partly, becauſe ſuch Perſons are commonly obſerved to want that Courage which is neceſſary for a Governor, Exod. xviii. 12. and, partly, becauſe, as ſuch Perſons were ordinarily deſpicable, ſo the Office and Authority in their Hands was likely to be expoſed to the ſame Contempt.

Thou ſhalt not deliver up unto his Maſter, the Servant which is eſcaped from his Maſter unto thee] This is not to be underſtood univerſally, as if all Servants that fly from their Maſters, tho' without any ſufficient Cauſe, or Colour of Juſtice, might be detained from them by any Perſon to whom they fled for Refuge; for this is apparently contrary to all the Laws of Religion, Juſtice, and Charity, and would open a Door to infinite Diſorders and Miſchiefs; but it is to be underſtood, 1. Of the Servants of Strangers, becauſe it follows, he ſhall dwell with you, even among you, which ſhews that he had dwelt with and belonged to another People. 2. Of ſuch as belonged to the Canaanites, or other neighbouring Nations, becauſe if he had lived in remote Countries, it is not probable he would fly ſo far to avoid his Maſter, or that his Maſter would follow ſo far to recover him. For the Canaanites this Sentence was moſt juſt, becauſe they and theirs were all forfeited to God and Iſrael, and whatſoever they enjoyed was by ſpecial Indulgence. For the other Neighbours it may ſeem juſt likewiſe becauſe ſome of them were within the larger Limits of the Land, belonging to Iſrael, by God's Grant, or Deed of Gift, Gen. xv. 18. Joſh. i. 4. Beſides, by their hoſtile Carriage, they had given Iſrael a Right to much more of theirs, than a few Servants who might poſſibly run away from their Maſters; and eſpecially becauſe both Servants and Maſters of theſe and other Nations are unqueſtionably at the Diſpoſal of the Lord their Maker, and ſovereign Ruler. 3. Of ſuch as upon Enquiry appear to have been unjuſtly oppreſſed by their Maſters, as is implied by that Phraſe of his, making an Eſcape, which ſuppoſes a Deliverance from Danger or Vexation. Now it is not ſtrange or unjuſt, if the great God, who hates all Tyrants, and ſtiles himſelf the Refuge of the Oppreſſed, does interpoſe his Authority, and help to reſcue ſuch Perſons from their cruel Maſters, who otherwiſe would be too ſtrong for them. 4. Of ſuch as came to them out of a Deſire to embrace the true Religion, which poſſibly his Maſter perceiving, endeavoured by Force to reſtrain him from, as it may be probably thought by his chuſing and liking to live among the Iſraelites. Now if this great and ſupreme Maſter, to whom all other Maſters are but Servants, and they and theirs are abſolutely in his Power, ſhall receive and protect one who gives himſelf up to his Service, againſt the Will of the Under-maſter, who in this Caſe rebels againſt his ſovereign Lord, what Shadow of Injuſtice is there in the Caſe?

Thou ſhalt not lend upon Uſury to thy Brother. Unto a Stranger thou mayeſt lend upon Uſury] The Reaſon of this Law ſeems to be, That the Iſraelites generally employed themſelves in the Management of Land and Cattle, and therefore could not make any Advantage of borrowed Money, to ballance the Uſe they ſhould pay for it, and conſequently it might be preſumed that they would not borrow Money upon Uſe, but for Want and Poverty; and in that Caſe, and principally for that Reaſon, Uſury ſeems to be forbidden to them, as may be thought from Levit. xxv. 35, 36. But the Strangers made uſe of their Money in way of Trade and Traffick with the Iſraelites, which was more gainful, and could much better bear the Burden of Uſury, and reap Advantage from Money ſo borrowed; and thoſe Strangers here ſpoken of, are ſuppoſed to be competently rich, and not poor, as may appear by comparing this Place with Levit. xxv. 35. where they are to leſs forbidden to take Uſury of a Stranger, than of a Brother, in Caſe of Poverty.

CHAP. XXIV.

Of Divorce; Pawns and Pledges; Man-ſtealing; Leproſy; Day-wages. None to be puniſhed for another's Offence. Of Juſtice and Love towards Widows, Fatherleſs, and Strangers.

Ver. 1. WHen a man hath taken a wife and married her, and it come to paſs that ſhe find no favour in his eyes, becauſe he hath found ſome uncleanneſs in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and ſend her out of his houſe. 2 And when ſhe is departed out of his houſe, ſhe may go and be another mans wife. 3 And if the latter huſband hate her and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and ſendeth her out of his houſe: or if the latter huſband die, which took her to be his wife; 4 Her former huſband which ſent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that ſhe is defiled: for that is an abomination before the Lord, and thou ſhalt not cauſe the land to ſin, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance. 5 When a man hath taken a new wife, he ſhall not go out to war, neither ſhall he be charged with any buſineſs: but he ſhall be free at home one year, and ſhall cheer up his wife which he hath taken. 6 No man ſhall take the nether or the upper millſtone to pledge: for he taketh a mans life to pledge. 7 If a man be found ſtealing any of his brethren of the children of Iſrael, and maketh merchandiſe of him, or ſelleth him; then that thief ſhall die; and thou ſhalt put evil away from among you. 8 Take heed, in the plague of leproſy, that thou obſerve diligently, and do according to all that the prieſts the Levites ſhall teach you: as I commanded them, ſo ye ſhall obſerve to do. 9 Remember what the Lord thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt. 10 When thou doſt lend thy brother any thing, thou ſhalt not go into his houſe to fetch his pledge. 11 Thou ſhalt ſtand abroad, and the man to whom thou doſt lend ſhall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee. 12 And if the man be poor, thou ſhalt not ſleep with his pledge: 13 In any caſe thou ſhalt deliver him the pledge again when the ſun goeth down, that he may ſleep in his own raiment, and bleſs thee: and it ſhall be righteouſneſs unto thee before the Lord thy God. 14 Thou ſhalt not oppreſs an hired ſervant that is poor and needy, whether he be thy brethren; or of thy ſtrangers that are in thy land within thy gates. 15 At his day thou ſhalt give him his hire, neither ſhall the ſun go down upon it, for he is poor, and ſetteth his heart upon it: leſt he cry againſt thee unto the Lord, and it be ſin unto thee. 16 The fathers ſhall not be put to death for the children, neither ſhall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man ſhall be put to death for his own ſin. 17 Thou ſhalt not pervert the judgment of the ſtranger, nor of the fatherleſs, nor take a widows raiment to pledge. 18 But thou ſhalt remember that thou waſt a bond-man in Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing. 19 When thou cutteſt down thine harveſt in thy field, and haſt forgot a ſheaf in the field, thou ſhalt not go again to fetch it: it ſhall be for the ſtranger, for the fatherleſs, and for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bleſs thee in all the work of thine hands. 20 When thou beateſt thine olive-tree, thou ſhalt not go over the boughs again: it ſhall be for the ſtranger, for the fatherleſs, and for the widow. 21 When thou gathereſt the grapes of thy vineyard, thou ſhalt not glean it afterward: it ſhall be for the ſtranger, for the fatherleſs, and for the widow. 22 And thou ſhalt remember that thou waſt a bond-man in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

Then let him write her a Bill of Divorcement, and give it in her Hand, and ſend her out of his Houſe] This is not an abſolute Command to divorce them, as ſome of the Jews underſtood it, nor an Allowance and Approbation, as plainly appears, not only from the New Teſtament, Matt. v. 31, 32. and xix. 8, 9. but alſo from the Old Teſtament, Gen. ii. 24. Mal. ii. 16. it merely a Permiſſion or Toleration of that Practice, for Prevention of greater Miſchiefs and Cruelties of that hard-hearted People towards their Wives, and this only for a Seaſon, even until the Time of Reformation, as it is called Heb. ix. 10. that is, till the Coming of the Meſſias, when Things were to return to their firſt Inſtitution, and pureſt Condition. The Huſband is not here commanded to put her away, but he is commanded to write and give her a Bill of Divorcement, before he ſend her out of his Houſe. And tho' it be true, as our Saviour obſerves, that Moſes did ſuffer theſe Divorces, that is, without puniſhing them, which alſo is here implied, yet it muſt be acknowledged, that if we conſult the Hebrew Words, thoſe three Verſes may only ſeem to be a Suppoſition; and the Words rendered, then let him write her, in the Hebrew runs thus, and hath written her; and ſo it follows, Ver. 2. and ſhe is departed out of his Houſe, and be gone, and become another Man's Wife; then follows, Ver. 3. which, even according to our Tranſlation, carries on the Suppoſition, And if the latter Huſband hate her, &c. Then follows the Poſition or Prohibition, Ver. 4.

Judges muſt act uprightly. Stripes not to exceed forty. The Ox that treads out the Corn not to be muzled. Of raiſing Seed to a Brother. The Puniſhment of an immodeſt Woman. His Weights and Meaſures. The Memory of Amalek to be blotted out.

1 IF there be a controverſy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them, then they ſhall juſtify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. 2 And it ſhall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge ſhall cauſe him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number. 3 Forty ſtripes he may give him, and not exceed: leſt if he ſhould exceed, and beat him above theſe with many ſtripes, then thy brother ſhould ſeem vile unto thee. 4 Thou ſhalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. 5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead ſhall not marry without unto a ſtranger: her huſbands brother ſhall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an huſbands brother unto her. 6 And it ſhall be that the firſt-born which ſhe beareth, ſhall ſucceed in the name of his brother, which is dead, that his name be not put out of Iſrael. 7 And if the man like not to take his brothers wife, Then let his brothers wife go up to the gate, unto the elders, and ſay, My huſbands brother refuſeth to raiſe up unto his brother a name in Iſrael, he will not perform the duty of my huſbands brother. 8 Then the elders of his city ſhall call him, and ſpeak unto him: and if he ſtand to it, and ſay, I like not to take her: 9 Then ſhall his brothers wife come unto him in the preſence of the elders, and looſe the ſhoe from off his foot, and ſpit in his face, and ſhall anſwer, and ſay, So ſhall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brothers houſe. 10 And his name ſhall be called in Iſrael, The houſe of him that hath his ſhoe looſed. 11 When men ſtrive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her huſband out of the hand of him that ſmiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the ſecrets: 12 Then thou ſhalt cut off her hand, thine eye ſhall not pity her. 13 Thou ſhalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a ſmall. 14 Thou ſhalt not have in thine houſe divers meaſures, a great and a ſmall. 15 But thou ſhalt have a perfect and juſt weight, a perfect and juſt meaſure ſhalt thou have: that thy days may be lengthned in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. 16 For all that do ſuch things, and all that do unrighteouſly, are an abomination unto the Lord thy God. 17 Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt: 18 How he met thee by the way, and ſmote the hindmoſt of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou waſt faint and weary; and he feared not God. 19 Therefore it ſhall be, when the Lord thy God hath given thee reſt from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, to poſſeſs it, that thou ſhalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou ſhalt not forget it.

Forty Stripes he may give him, and not exceed] It ſeems not a ſuperſtitious, but a prudent Caution, that the Jews ſhould not exceed thirty nine Stripes, 2 Cor. ii. 24. leſt through Miſtake, Forgetfulneſs, or Eagerneſs, they ſhould go beyond their Bounds which they were commanded to keep, but they were not obliged to go to the utmoſt Extent of them. Beſides, exceſſive Beating would render an Iſraelite contemptible to his Brethren, as if he were a Slave or brute Beaſt; alſo the Danger of Deformity, or Infirmity of the Body, which cruel Uſage might effect.

Thou ſhalt not muzzle the Ox when he treadeth out the Corn] The Ox is ſaid to threſh, when he is made to tread out the Corn with his Feet, or (as the Jews ſay)

ſay) to draw the Harrow, which, at the Bottom of it, was full of hard Knobs, Branches, or Notches, about over it, to ſeparate the Corn from the Straw, and to make the Straw to be Food for the Beaſts. Hereby God taught them Humanity and Kindneſs, even to their Beaſts that ſerved them, and much more to their Servants or other Men who laboured for them, and eſpecially to their Miniſters, 1 Cor. ix. 9.

Her Huſband's Brother ſhall go in unto her, and take her to him to Wife] In the Eaſt dying childleſs, and conſequently having one's Name left out in the Genealogies, was looked upon as the greateſt Misfortune that could befal a Man; and therefore it was ordained, that the Brother of him who died childleſs, ſhould take his Widow for a Wife, and that the Firſt-born of this Marriage ſhould be accounted the Child of the Deceaſed, that his Name might not be blotted out of Iſrael.

And looſe his Shoe from off his Foot, and ſpit in his Face] The looſing of the Shoe was a Sign of the Man's Reſignation of all his Right to the Woman, and to her Huſband's Inheritance: For as the Shoe was a Sign of one's Power and Right, ſo the parting with the Shoe was a Token of the Alienation of ſuch Right, and that he would not, nor might not henceforth enter upon his Brother's Land; and partly as a Note of Infamy, to ſignify that by this unnatural and ungenerous Action, he was unworthy to be among Freemen, and fit to be reduced to the Condition of the meaneſt Captives, who uſed to go barefoot. The Woman ſpit in the Face of the Man, in Token, that as he ſcorned to take her to Wife, ſhe deſpiſed him, and renounced him for ever, by that publick Indignity.

Firſt fruits to be offered on their entring the promiſed Land, with the Confeſſion, Thankſgiving and Rejoicing of the Offerer. The Third Year's Tithes how to be beſtowed. The Covenant between God and his People ratified.

Ver. 1. AND it ſhall be when thou art come in unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritamce, and poſſeſſeſt it, and dwelleſt therein. 2 That thou ſhalt take of the firſt of all the fruit of the earth, which thou ſhalt bring of thy land that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and ſhalt put it in a baſket, and ſhalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God ſhall chooſe to place his name there. 3 And thou ſhalt go unto the prieſt that ſhall be in thoſe days, and ſay unto him, I profeſs this day unto the Lord thy God, that I am come unto the country, which the Lord ſware unto our fathers for to give us. 4 And the prieſt ſhall take the baſket out of thine hand, and ſet it down before the altar of the Lord thy God. 5 And thou ſhalt ſpeak and ſay before the Lord thy God, A Syrian ready to periſh was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and ſojourned there with a few, and became there a nation great, mighty, and populous. 6 And the Egyptians evil intreated us and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage. 7 And when we cried unto the Lord God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppreſſion. 8 And the Lord brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an out-ſtretched arm, and with great terribleneſs, and with ſigns and with wonders. 9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey. 10 And now behold, I have brought the firſt-fruits of the land, which thou, O Lord, haſt given me: and thou ſhalt ſet it before the Lord thy God, and worſhip before the Lord thy God. 11 And thou ſhalt rejoice in every good thing which the Lord thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine houſe, thou, and the Levite, and the ſtranger that is among you. 12 When thou haſt made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increaſe, the third year, which is the year of tithing, and haſt given it unto the Levite, the ſtranger, the fatherleſs, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled: 13 Then thou ſhalt ſay before the Lord thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine houſe, and alſo have given them unto the Levite, and unto the ſtranger, to the fatherleſs, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments, which thou haſt commanded me: I have not tranſgreſſed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them. 14 I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away ought thereof, for any unclean uſe, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkned to the voice of the Lord my God, and have done according to all that thou haſt commanded me. 15 Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bleſs thy people Iſrael, and the land which thou haſt given us, as thou ſweareſt unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey. 16 This day the Lord thy God hath commanded thee to do theſe ſtatutes and judgments: thou ſhalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart and with all thy ſoul. 17 Thou haſt avouched the Lord this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his ſtatutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice. 18 And the Lord hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promiſed thee, and that thou ſhouldſt keep all his commandments: 19 And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praiſe, and in name, and in honour, and that thou mayeſt be an holy people unto the Lord thy God as he hath ſpoken.

A Syrian ready to periſh was my Father] Jacob was a Syrian, partly by Original, as being born of Syrian Parents, for ſuch were Abraham and Rebecca, both of Chaldea or Meſopotamia, which was Part of Syria largely ſo called, as is confeſſed by Strabo and Pliny; partly by his Education and Converſation, for the ſame Reaſon as Chriſt is called a Nazarite and Capernaite; and partly by his Relations, his Wives being ſuch, and his Children too by their Mothers.

But was Jacob ever in the Condition here ſpoken of, ready to periſh? Jacob was undoubtedly more than once, reduced to very great Streights; ſee Gen. xxvii. 11, 20. and xxxii. 10. alſo when he was under terrible Apprehenſions of his Brother Eſau, and likewiſe from the Treachery and Cruelty of Laban his Father-in-law.

Nor given ought thereof for the Dead] The Jews had a Cuſtom, that when any was newly dead, the Kinſmen, Acquaintance, and Neighbours, went to be Partakers of the Mourning, and carried Food ready dreſſed to the Poor Man's Family, to comfort and refreſh them, exhorting them to take Food, and not give themſelves over to Grief ſo far as to neglect the Care of their own Perſons. Now, all theſe Meats, and whoſoever did participate thereof, were unclean for ſeven Days, by Reaſon of that dead Body, Num. xix. 11, 14. and therefore the Uſe of theſe Tithes in ſuch Caſes had been a double Fault, both for the defiling of ſacred Food, and the employing thoſe Proviſions upon ſorrowful Occaſions, which by God's expreſs Command were to be eaten with Rejoicing, Deut. xiv. 26.

CHAP. XXVII.

Israel ordered to set up Stones on the Banks of Jordan when they had passed it. Blessing to be pronounced from Gerizzim, and Cursing from Ebal.

Ver. 1. AND Moses with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day. 2 And it shall be on the day when you shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister. 3 And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey: as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee. 4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister. 5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the Lord thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them. 6 Thou shalt build the altar of the Lord thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt-offerings thereon unto the Lord thy God. 7 And thou shalt offer peace-offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the Lord thy God. 8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law, very plainly. 9 And Moses, and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel, this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God. 10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the Lord thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day. 11 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying; 12 These shall stand upon mount Gerizzim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. 13 And these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. 14 And the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice, 15 Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place: and all the people shall answer and say, Amen. 16 Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother: and all the people shall say, Amen. 17 Cursed be he that removeth his neighbours land-mark: and all the people shall say, Amen. 18 Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way: and all the people shall say, Amen. 19 Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow: and all the people shall say, Amen. 20 Cursed be he that lieth with his fathers wife; because he uncovereth his fathers skirt: and all the people shall say, Amen. 21 Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast: and all the people shall say, Amen. 22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother: and all the people shall say, Amen. 23 Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law: and all the people shall say, Amen. 24 Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbour secretly: and all the people shall say, Amen. 25 Cursed be he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person: and all the people shall say, Amen. 26 Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do them: and all the people shall say, Amen.

And thou shalt write upon them all the Words of this Law] By this Law, is meant either, 1. All the Words of this Book of Deuteronomy; but that seems too large for this Place. Or, 2. The Blessings and Curses here following. But they are mentioned as a different Thing. Or, 3. The Law properly so called; that is, the Sum and Substance of the Precepts of the Laws of Moses, especially such as were moral and general, as may be conjectured from the following Part of the Chapter, where the Curses pronounced against all that confirm not all the Words of this Law to do them, are particularly applied unto the Transgressions of moral Laws only, Ver. 15, 16, &c. and especially the Decalogue, which often goes under that Name.

These shall stand on Mount Gerizzim to bless the People — and these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse] The Tribes that were to stand on Mount Gerizzim were the Descendants of the free Women, Leah and Rachel, to shew both the Dignity of the Blessings above the Curses, and that the Blessings belong only to those who are evangelically such, as this is expounded and applied, Gal. iv. 22, &c. even to those that receive the Spirit of Adoption and Liberty. Joseph is here put for both his Sons and Tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, which here are reckoned as one Tribe, because Levi is here numbered; but when Levi is omitted, as it is where the Division of the Land is made, there Manasseh and Ephraim pass for two Tribes.

Of those Tribes that stood on Mount Ebal to curse, four were the Descendants of the Bond-women, to shew, that the Curse belongs to those of servile and disingenuous Spirits and Behaviour towards God. With these are joined Reuben, who by his shameful Sin fell from his Dignity, Gen. xlix. 4. and Zebulun, as the youngest of Leah's Children, who was necessary to be joined with those, that the Numbers might be equal.

But can any Reason be given, why this Practice of pronouncing a Set of Curses, should be continued in the Christian Church, as it is every Ash-wednesday? The Reason is, because Christians are as liable to the Curses of the Law as the Jews were; and therefore they ought to acknowledge this Solemnity, as they hope to escape the divine Vengeance.

However, this pious Office hath been traduced as a wicked and a foolish Thing; but I believe it hath not been considered, that God himself commanded this Manner of answering. And tho' some Circumstances in reciting these Curses among the Jews might be ceremonial; yet the Main of the Duty, and the End for which it was prescribed, was truly moral, tending to the Honour of God and his Laws, and the promoting of true Piety. And the saying Amen, does not here signify wishing, but affirming and declaring the Truth of what God hath revealed; and thus Amen is often in the Gospel translated verily; and Jesus, who is the Truth, is called Amen; so that Amen is no more than a Declaration, that he whom God blesseth is blessed, and he whom God curseth is cursed: And these Curses are like our Saviour's Woes in the Gospel, not Procurers of Evil, but compassionate Predictions of it, in order to prevent it.

It is true, our Saviour, by Virtue of his Sacrifice, made Satisfaction for Sin, and bore that Curse which belonged to us; and thereby acquitted and cleared all those that believe in him from the Guilt of those Sins, for which there was no Way of Expiation provided by the Law of Moses, that is, of presumptuous Sins for which there was no Sacrifice, but the Man was to be cut off. But still this Redemption that was purchased for us, was upon the Condition of Repentance; so that impenitent Sinners are still the Object of God's Wrath; and tho' Pardon and Forgiveness of Sins was procured for us by the Death of Christ, yet Repentance is ne-ceſſary to qualify us to receive the Benefit of it. It being certain ſtill, that Sinners, while they remain ſuch, are really accurſed; and to convince them of this, and make them own it, is the trueſt Bleſſing the Church can procure for them.

CHAP. XXVIII.

The Bleſſings of Obedience promiſed; and Curſes on Diſobedience threatned and foretold.

Ver. 1. AND it ſhall come to paſs, if thou ſhalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to obſerve and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day; that the Lord thy God will ſet thee on high above all nations of the earth. 2 And all theſe bleſſings ſhall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou ſhalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God. 3 Bleſſed ſhalt thou be in the city, and bleſſed ſhalt thou be in the field. 4 Bleſſed ſhall be the fruit of thy body and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increaſe of thy kine, and the flocks of thy ſheep. 5 Bleſſed ſhall be thy baſket and thy ſtore. 6 Bleſſed ſhalt thou be when thou comeſt in, and bleſſed ſhalt thou be when thou goeſt out. 7 The Lord ſhall cauſe thine enemies that riſe up againſt thee to be ſmitten before thy face: they ſhall come out againſt thee one way, and flee before thee ſeven ways. 8 The Lord ſhall command the bleſſing upon thee in thy ſtore-houſes, and in all that thou ſetteſt thine hand unto: and he ſhall bleſs thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. 9 The Lord ſhall eſtabliſh thee an holy people unto himſelf, as he hath ſworn unto thee, if thou ſhalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, and walk in his ways. 10 And all people of the earth ſhall ſee that thou art called by the name of the Lord, and they ſhall be afraid of thee. 11 And the Lord ſhall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the Lord ſware unto thy fathers to give thee. 12 The Lord ſhall open unto thee his good treaſure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his ſeaſon, and to bleſs all the work of thine hand: and thou ſhalt lend unto many nations, and thou ſhalt not borrow. 13 And the Lord ſhall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou ſhalt be above only, and thou ſhalt not be beneath: if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the Lord thy God, which I command thee this day to obſerve and to do them: 14 And thou ſhalt not go aſide from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods, to ſerve them. 15 But it ſhall come to paſs, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to obſerve to do all his commandments and his ſtatutes which I command thee this day; that all theſe curſes ſhall come upon thee, and overtake thee. 16 Curſed ſhalt thou be in the city, and curſed ſhalt thou be in the field. 17 Curſed ſhall be thy baſket and thy ſtore. 18 Curſed ſhall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increaſe of thy kine, and the flocks of thy ſheep. 19 Curſed ſhalt thou be when thou comeſt in, and curſed ſhalt thou be when thou goeſt out. 20 The Lord ſhall ſend upon thee curſing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou ſetteſt thine hand unto, for to do; until thou be deſtroyed, and until thou periſh quickly; becauſe of the wickedneſs of thy doings whereby thou haſt forſaken me. 21 The Lord ſhall make the peſtilence cleave unto thee, until he have conſumed thee from off the land, whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it. 22 The Lord ſhall ſmite thee with a conſumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the ſword, and with blaſting, and with mildew: and they ſhall purſue thee until thou periſh. 23 And thy heaven that is over thy head ſhall be braſs, and the earth that is under thee ſhall be iron. 24 The Lord ſhall make the rain of thy land powder and duſt: from heaven ſhall it come down upon thee, until thou be deſtroyed. 25 The Lord ſhall cauſe thee to be ſmitten before thine enemies: thou ſhalt go out one way againſt them, and flee ſeven ways before them: and ſhalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth: 26 And thy carcaſe ſhall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beaſts of the earth, and no man ſhall fray them away. 27 The Lord will ſmite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the ſcab, and with the itch, whereof thou canſt not be healed. 28 The Lord ſhall ſmite thee with madneſs, and blindneſs, and aſtoniſhment of heart. 29 And thou ſhalt grope at noon-days, as the blind gropeth in darkneſs, and thou ſhalt not proſper in thy ways: and thou ſhalt be only oppreſſed, and ſpoiled evermore, and no man ſhall ſave thee. 30 Thou ſhalt betroth a wife, and another man ſhall lie with her: thou ſhalt build an houſe, and thou ſhalt not dwell therein: thou ſhalt plant a vineyard, and ſhalt not gather the grapes thereof. 31 Thine ox ſhall be ſlain before thine eyes, and thou ſhalt not eat thereof: thine aſs ſhall be violently taken away from before thy face, and ſhall not be reſtored to thee: thy ſheep ſhall be given unto thine enemies, and thou ſhalt have none to reſcue them. 32 Thy ſons and thy daughters ſhall be given unto another people, and thine eyes ſhall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there ſhall be no might in thine hand. 33 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, ſhall a nation which thou knoweſt not, eat up; and thou ſhalt be only oppreſſed and cruſhed alway: 34 So that thou ſhalt be mad, for the ſight of thine eyes which thou ſhalt ſee. 35 The Lord ſhall ſmite thee in the knees, and in the legs with a ſore botch that cannot be healed, from the ſole of thy foot unto the top of thy head. 36 The Lord ſhall bring thee, and thy king which thou ſhalt ſet over thee, unto a nation which neither thou, nor thy fathers have known; and there ſhalt thou ſerve other gods, wood and ſtone. 37 And thou ſhalt become an aſtoniſhment, a proverb, and a by-word among all nations whither the Lord ſhall lead thee. 38 Thou ſhalt carry much ſeed out into the field, and ſhalt gather but little in: for the locuſt ſhall conſume it. 39 Thou ſhalt plant vineyards and dreſs them, but ſhalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes: for the worms ſhall eat them. 40 Thou ſhalt have olive-trees throughout all thy coaſts, but thou ſhalt not anoint thy ſelf with the oyl: for thine olive ſhall caſt his fruit. 41 Thou ſhalt beget ſons and daughters, but thou ſhalt not enjoy them: for they ſhall go into captivity. 42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land ſhall the locuſt conſume. 43 The ſtranger that is within thee ſhall get up above thee very high; and thou ſhalt come down very low. 44 He ſhall lend to thee, and thou ſhall not lend to him: he ſhall be the head, and thou ſhalt be the tail. 45 Moreover, all theſe curſes ſhall come upon thee, and ſhall purſue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be deſtroyed: becauſe thou hearkenedſt not unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep his commandments and his ſtatutes which he commanded thee. 46 And they ſhall be upon thee for a ſign and for a wonder, and upon thy ſeed for ever. 47 Becauſe thou ſervedſt not the Lord thy God with joyfulneſs and with gladneſs of heart, for the abundance of all things; 48 Therefore ſhalt thou ſerve thine enemies which the Lord ſhall ſend againſt thee, in hunger, and in thirſt, and in nakedneſs, and in want of all things: and he ſhall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have deſtroyed thee. 49 The Lord ſhall bring a nation againſt thee from far, from the end of the earth, as ſwift as the eagle flieth, a nation whoſe tongue thou ſhalt not underſtand: 50 A nation of fierce countenance, which ſhall not regard the perſon of the old, nor ſhew favour to the young. 51 And he ſhall eat the fruit of thy cattel, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be deſtroyed: which alſo ſhall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the encreaſe of thy kine, or flocks of thy ſheep, until he have deſtroyed thee. 52 And he ſhall beſiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou truſtedſt, throughout all thy land, and he ſhall beſiege thee in all thy gates, throughout all thy land which the Lord thy God hath given thee. 53 And thou ſhalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the fleſh of thy ſons and of thy daughters (which the Lord thy God hath given thee) in the ſiege, and in the ſtraitneſs wherewith thine enemies ſhall diſtreſs thee: 54 So that the man that is tender among you and very delicate, his eye ſhall be evil towards his brother, and toward the wife of his boſom, and toward the remnant of his children which he ſhall leave: 55 So that he will not give to any of them of the fleſh of his children whom he ſhall eat: becauſe he hath nothing left him in the ſiege, and in the ſtraitneſs wherewith thine enemies ſhall diſtreſs thee in all thy gates. 56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to ſet the ſole of her foot upon the ground for delicateneſs and tenderneſs, her eye ſhall be evil towards the huſband of her boſom, and towards her ſon, and towards her daughter, 57 And towards her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and towards her children which ſhe ſhall bear: for ſhe ſhall eat them for want of all things ſecretly in the ſiege and ſtraitneſs wherewith thine enemy ſhall diſtreſs thee in thy gates. 58 If thou wilt not obſerve to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayeſt fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD. 59 Then the Lord will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy ſeed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and ſore ſicknеſſes, and of long continuance. 60 Moreover, he will bring upon thee all the diſeaſes of Egypt, which thou waſt afraid of; and they ſhall cleave unto thee. 61 Alſo every ſickneſs, and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, them will the Lord bring upon thee, until thou be deſtroyed. 62 And ye ſhall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the ſtars of heaven for multitude: becauſe thou wouldeſt not obey the voice of the Lord thy God. 63 And it ſhall come to paſs, that as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you: ſo the Lord will rejoice over you to deſtroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye ſhall be plucked from off the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it. 64 And the Lord ſhall ſcatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou ſhalt ſerve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and ſtone. 65 And among theſe nations ſhalt thou find no eaſe, neither ſhall the ſole of thy foot have reſt: but the Lord ſhall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and ſorrow of mind. 66 And thy life ſhall hang in doubt before thee, and thou ſhalt fear day and night, and ſhalt have none aſſurance of thy life. 67 In the morning thou ſhalt ſay, Would God it were even: and at even thou ſhalt ſay, Would God it were morning, for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou ſhalt fear, and for the ſight of thine eyes which thou ſhalt ſee. 68 And the Lord ſhall bring thee into Egypt again, with ſhips, by the way whereof I ſpeak unto thee, Thou ſhalt ſee it no more again: and there ye ſhall be ſold unto your enemies for bond-men and bond-women, and no man ſhall buy you.

In this Chapter we find a long Roll of Curſes, which ſeem to be but little more than a Repetition of what he had before declared to them on ſeveral Occaſions. This he did for the following Reaſons. 1. If the headſtrong, ſtubborn, and rebellious Nature of this People, to whom Moſes ſpoke, be conſidered, we cannot wonder at his taking frequent Occaſions of applying the only Remedy which ſeems to have worked any good upon them; for, as they were inſenſible of the Mercies afforded by the gracious Providence of God, ſo they were never recovered to a juſt Senſe of their Sin, but by feeling the Weight of his Vengeance; whence it follows, that the Threatnings of dreadful Plagues and devouring Peſtilences were the only Means, which, in all Probability, could be expected to reſtrain them from falling into the ſame Courſes, in future Times.

2. If we reflect on the Command given, as to the ſolemn Benedictions and Execrations, which were to be pronounced by the Prieſts, and aſſented to by the People, we ſhall eaſily perceive, that it has nothing to do with the Time preſent; but was in the Nature of a Covenant, whereby as, on the one Hand, Iſrael laid Claim to the Bleſſings which were promiſed by the Lord, ſo on the other Hand they ſubmitted to his Curſes, in Caſe they walked contrary to his Commandments: Wherefore, Moſes being now near his End, and every Thing he ſaid being more regarded than at any other Time, he with great Propriety, lays before his Nation, the dreadful Evils which the Almighty would ſhower down, if on the Performance of his Promiſes, they relapſed into Tranſgreſſion.

3. Theſe Threatnings were to remain, as the ſtrongeſt Arguments of the divine Inſpiration of him, by whom they were delivered, ſeeing, at a vaſt Diſtance of Time, they have been fully and exactly fulfilled, in the Babyloniſh Captivity, the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem by the Romans, and now in their laſt and long Diſperſion.

CHAP. XXIX.

Ver.

Ver. 1. THeſe are the words of the covenant which the Lord commanded Moſes to make with the children of Iſrael, in the land of Moab, beſide the covenant which he made with them in Horeb. 2 And Moſes called unto all Iſrael, and ſaid unto them, Ye have ſeen all that the Lord did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, unto Pharaoh, and unto all his ſervants, and unto all his land; 3 The great temptations which thine eyes have ſeen, the ſigns and thoſe great miracles: 4 Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to ſee, and ears to hear, unto this day. 5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderneſs: your cloaths are not waxen old upon you, and thy ſhoe is not waxen old upon thy foot. 6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine, or ſtrong drink: that ye might know that I am the Lord your God. 7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heſhbon, and Og the king of Baſhan, came out againſt us unto battle, and we ſmote them. 8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manaſſeh. 9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant and do them, that ye may proſper in all that ye do. 10 Ye ſtand this day all of you before the Lord your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Iſrael, 11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy ſtranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water: 12 That thou ſhouldeſt enter into covenant with the Lord thy God, and into his oath, which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day. 13 That he may eſtabliſh thee to day for a people unto himſelf, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath ſaid unto thee, and as he hath ſworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Iſaac, and to Jacob. 14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath; 15 But with him that ſtandeth here with us this day before the Lord our God, and alſo with him that is not here with us this day: 16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations which ye paſſed by. 17 And ye have ſeen their abominations, and their idols, wood and ſtone, ſilver and gold, which were among them) 18 Leſt there ſhould be among you man or woman, or family, or tribe, whoſe heart turneth away this day from the Lord our God, to go and ſerve the gods of theſe nations; leſt there ſhould be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood, 19 And it come to paſs when he heareth the words of this curſe, that he bleſs himſelf in his heart, ſaying, I ſhall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenneſs to thirſt: 20 The Lord will not ſpare him, but then the anger of the Lord, and his jealouſy ſhall ſmoak againſt that man, and all the curſes that are written in this book ſhall lie upon him, and the Lord ſhall blot out his name from under heaven. 21 And the Lord ſhall ſeparate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Iſrael, according to all the curſes of the covenant, that are written in this book of the law: 22 So that the generation to come of your children that ſhall riſe up after you, and the ſtranger that ſhall come from a far land, ſhall ſay, when they ſee the plagues of that land, and the ſickneſſes which the Lord hath laid upon it; 23 And that the whole land thereof is brimſtone, and ſalt, and burning, that it is not ſown, nor beareth, nor any graſs groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord overthrew in his anger and in his wrath: 24 Even all nations ſhall ſay, Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger? 25 Then men ſhall ſay, Becauſe they have forſaken the covenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: 26 For they went and ſerved other gods, and worſhipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them. 27 And the anger of the Lord was kindled againſt this land, to bring upon it all the curſes that are written in this book. 28 And the Lord rooted them out of their land in anger and in wrath and in great indignation, and caſt them into another land, as it is this day. 29 The ſecret things belong unto the Lord our God: but thoſe things which are revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

The great Temptations which thine Eyes have ſeen, the Signs, and thoſe great Miracles: Yet the Lord hath not given you an Heart to perceive, and Eyes to ſee] Here it is ſaid, thine Eyes have ſeen; and it is added, the Lord hath not given you a Heart to perceive, and Eyes to ſee; which ſeems a manifeſt Contradiction. To reconcile this, we are to conſider, that the laſt Clauſe comes in by Way of Correction, or Exception, to that foregoing, in this Manner; Ye have ſeen, &c. but I muſt recall my Words, for in truth ye have not ſeen; in ſeeing you have not ſeen, and perceiving you have not perceived: You have perceived and ſeen them with the Eyes of your Body, but not with your Minds and Hearts; you have not ſeen them to any Purpoſe; you have not yet rightly learned to underſtand the Words and Works of God, ſo as to know them for your Good, and to make a right Uſe of them, and to comply with them.

But if the Lord had not given them a Heart to perceive, &c. wherein were they culpable? But this did not excuſe their Wickedneſs, but was partly a Direction to them what Courſe to take, and to whom they muſt have Recourſe for the amending of their former Errors, and for a good Underſtanding and Improvement of God's Works; and, partly, to aggravate their Sin, and to intimate, that altho' the hearing Ear, the ſeeing Eye, and the underſtanding Heart, be the Workmanſhip of God, Prov. xxii. 12. and the Effects of his ſpecial Grace, Deut. xxx. 6. Jer. xxxi. 33. and xxxii. 39, &c. yet their Want of this Grace was their own Fault, and the juſt Puniſhment of their former Sins; their preſent Caſe being like thoſe in Iſaiah's Time, who firſt ſhut their Eyes and Ears that they might not ſee and hear, and would not underſtand, and then of the tremendous, but righteous Judgment of God, had their Hearts made fat, and their Eyes and Ears cloſed that they ſhould not be able to ſee and hear, and underſtand, as is manifeſt from the Hiſtory of their Behaviour in the Wilderneſs.

And I have led you forty Years in the Wilderneſs, your Cloaths are not waxen old upon you] The Jews who ſometimes love to magnify Miracles beyond their proper Bounds, have a current Tradition, that the Childrens Cloaths grew bigger, according as the Children themſelves increaſed in Bulk and Stature. But there is no Occaſion for any ſuch Suppoſition as this, ſince the Younger, in their proper Degrees, might ſucceed to the Veſtments of the Elder, and the Miracle ſtill remain wonderful enough, that God ſhould pre-ſerve theſe Veſtments from decaying, or their Feet, by ſo long travelling in hot and ſtony Places, from ſwelling (as it is Ch. viii. 4.) or being callous (as ſome tranſlate it) for the Space of forty Years. Some indeed will have the Phraſe to denote, that their Feet were not ſenſible of any Uneaſineſs, or Fatigue, through the whole vaſt Length of their Journey; but this Conſtruction is plainly repugnant to the Scripture Account we have of their Travels. And therefore the eaſier Interpretation will be, if, by Way of Metonymy, we take the Shoe for the Foot, and make the latter agree with the former Part of the Verſe, and bring the Whole to this Meaning, viz. that as their Cloaths, which covered the whole Body, did not become uſeleſs through Age; ſo neither did their Shoes decay, or burſt, or grow out of Shape, (for in all theſe Senſes may the original Word be taken) though they were engaged in ſo tedious a March.

It is to be obſerved however, that the Hebrews wanted neither Flocks nor Herds in the Wilderneſs; and the Hangings, and other Works belonging to the Tabernacle, ſufficiently ſhew, that they were no Strangers to the Art of Weaving. But, ſuppoſing they did not manufacture their own Cloaths, they might however purchaſe them from the Arabians, and other neighbouring Nations, and could therefore be under no Want of a ſufficient Supply of this Kind of Neceſſaries: And from theſe Conſiderations a learned Commentator concludes, that the Senſe of the Words thy Raiment waxed not old upon thee, muſt be — that, in the Deſarts of Arabia, the Iſraelites had ſo great a Plenty of Cloaths, and ſo many Changes of Raiment, that they were under no more Neceſſity to wear them tatter'd, or thread-bare, than if they had lived in one of the moſt plentiful, rich, and cloth-working Countries. And thy Feet did not ſwell, or grow callous, as poor People's Feet are wont to do, when the Soles of their Shoes are worn out, and they forced to tread on the hard Ground; for ſo it is explained here, thy Shoe did not wax old upon thy Feet, i. e. thy Poverty did not oblige thee (as poor People do) till they were old and grown ſo thin, that, in hard and ſtony Ways, they hurt thy Feet, and made them ſwell. Poverty, we know, neceſſarily occaſions Meanneſs of Apparel, but Men of large Fortunes have a Variety of Suits, and commonly caſt their Cloaths off, before they are too far worn: And, in like Manner, the Hiſtorian's Deſign is (in this Inſtance of Raiment) to ſignify to us, that the Iſraelites, while they abode in a barren Wilderneſs, lived like Men of Affluence, for the Lord their God was with them (as he tells us elſewhere) and they lacked nothing.

The ſecret Things belong unto the Lord our God; but thoſe Things which are revealed, belong unto us, and to our Children for ever, that we may do all the Words of this Law] Having juſt mentioned the dreadful and amazing Judgments of God upon the whole Land and People of Iſrael, and foreſeeing by the Spirit of Prophecy their utter Extirpation and Deſtruction for their Wickedneſs, he breaks out into this pathetical Exclamation, either to bridle their Curioſity, who, hearing this, would be apt to enquire into the Time and Manner of ſo great an Event; or to quiet his own Mind, and ſatisfy the Scruples of others, who perceiving God to deal ſo ſeverely with his own People, when in the mean Time he ſuffered thoſe Nations which were guilty of groſſer Atheiſm and Idolatry, or Impiety, than the Generality of the Jewiſh People were, to live and proſper in the World, might thence take Occaſion to deny or reproach his Providence, or queſtion the Equity of his Proceeding. To this he anſwers, that the Ways and Judgments of God, tho' never ſo ſeemingly unjuſt, are often ſecret and hidden from us, unſearchable by our ſhallow Capacities, and are the Objects of Admiration, rather than of our curious Enquiry. But the Things that are revealed by God and his Word, theſe are the proper Subjects of our Enquiry and Studies, that thereby we may come to the Knowledge of our Duty, by the Practice whereof we may be kept from ſuch terrible Puniſhments and Calamities as theſe now mentioned.

CHAP. XXX.

A gracious Promiſe of Deliverance to the Jews upon their Repentance. The Law of God manifeſt and juſt. Life and Death ſet before them.

Ver. 1. AND it ſhall come to paſs when all theſe things are come upon thee, the bleſſing and the curſe which I have ſet before thee, and thou ſhalt call them to mind among all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath driven thee, 2 And ſhalt return unto the Lord thy God, and ſhalt obey his voice, according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoul: 3 That then the Lord thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compaſſion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations whither the Lord thy God hath ſcattered thee. 4 If any of thine be driven out unto the utmoſt parts of heaven, from thence will the Lord thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee. 5 And the Lord thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers poſſeſſed, and thou ſhalt poſſeſs it: and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. 6 And the Lord thy God will circumciſe thine heart, and the heart of thy ſeed, to love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoul, that thou mayeſt live. 7 And the Lord thy God will put all theſe curſes upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which perſecuted thee. 8 And thou ſhalt return and obey the voice of the Lord, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day. 9 And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the Lord will again rejoyce over thee for good, as he rejoyced over thy fathers: 10 If thou ſhalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God to keep his commandments and his ſtatutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy ſoul. 11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. 12 It is not in heaven, that thou ſhouldeſt ſay, Who ſhall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? 13 Neither is it beyond the ſea, that thou ſhouldeſt ſay, Who ſhall go over the ſea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? 14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayeſt do it. 15 See, I have ſet before thee this day life and good, and death and evil. 16 In that I command thee this day to love the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his ſtatutes, and his judgments, that thou mayeſt live and multiply: and the Lord thy God ſhall bleſs thee in the land whither thou goeſt to poſſeſs it. 17 But if thine heart turn away, ſo that thou wilt not hear, but ſhalt be drawn away and worſhip other gods, and ſerve them: 18 I denounce unto you this day, that ye ſhall ſurely periſh, and that ye ſhall not prolong your days upon the land whither thou paſſeſt over Jordan to go to poſſeſs it. 19 I call heaven and earth to record this day againſt you, that I have ſet before you life and death, bleſſing and curſing: therefore chooſe life, that both thou and thy ſeed may live: 20 That thou mayeſt love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayeſt obey his voice, and that thou mayeſt cleave unto him (for he is thy life, and the length of thy days) that thou mayeſt dwell in the land which the Lord ſware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Iſaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

This Commandment which I command thee this Day] He either ſpeaks of the Law in general, or of that particular Command of loving or obeying God, mentioned here, Ver. 2, 6, 10, 16. which is the Sum of the Law, of which yet he does not here ſpeak ſimply, or as it is in itſelf, but as it is mollified and accompanied with the Grace of the Goſpel, whereby God circumciſes Mens Hearts to do this, as is expreſſed, Ver. 6. The Meaning is, that altho' the Practice of God's Law, ſtrictly and ſeverely, be now far from us, and above our Strength, yet, conſidering the Advantage of Goſpel Grace, whereby God, in ſome Meaſure, enables us to do our Duty, and accepts of our ſincere Endeavours inſtead of Perfection, and imputes Chriſt's perfect Righteouſneſs unto us that believe, now it is near and eaſy to us. And ſo this Place well agrees with Rom. v. 6, &c. where St. Paul expounds or applies this Place to the Righteouſneſs of Faith; by which alone the Law is ſuch as it is here deſcribed.

It is not hidden from thee] In the Hebrew it is, is not too wonderful for thee, as Deut. xvii. 8. Prov. xxx. 18. Jer. xxxii. 17. that is, not too hard for thee to know and do; the Will of God, which is but darkly manifeſted, Acts xvii. 27. is clearly and fully revealed unto thee; thou canſt not pretend Ignorance or invincible Difficulty; it is not far off, that is, out of thy Reach.

CHAP. XXXI.

Moſes declares his approaching Death, and encourages the People and Joſhua. His Charge to the Prieſts. Joſhua inveſted in his Office. The future Diſobedience and Miſery of the People foretold. Moſes's Charge to the Levites.

Ver. 1. AND Moſes went and ſpake theſe words unto all Iſrael. 2 And he ſaid unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: alſo the Lord hath ſaid unto me, Thou ſhalt not go over this Jordan. 3 The Lord thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will deſtroy theſe nations from before thee, and thou ſhalt poſſeſs them: and Joſhua, he ſhall go over before thee, as the Lord hath ſaid. 4 And the Lord ſhall do unto them as he did to Sihon, and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he deſtroyed. 5 And the Lord ſhall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you. 6 Be ſtrong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee, he will not fail thee, nor forſake thee. 7 And Moſes called unto Joſhua, and ſaid unto him in the ſight of all Iſrael, Be ſtrong and of a good courage: for thou muſt go with this people unto the land which the Lord hath ſworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou ſhalt cauſe them to inherit it. 8 And the Lord, he it is that doth go before thee, he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forſake thee: fear not, neither be diſmayed. 9 And Moſes wrote this law, and delivered it unto the prieſts the ſons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto all the elders of Iſrael. 10 And Moſes commanded them, ſaying, At the end of every ſeven years, in the ſolemnity of the year of releaſe, in the feaſt of tabernacles, 11 When all Iſrael is come to appear before the Lord thy God, in the place which he ſhall chooſe: thou ſhalt read this law before all Iſrael, in their hearing. 12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy ſtranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and obſerve to do all the words of this law: 13 And that their children which have not known any thing, may hear and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to poſſeſs it. 14 And the Lord ſaid unto Moſes, Behold, thy days approach that thou muſt die: call Joſhua, and preſent your ſelves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moſes and Joſhua went, and preſented themſelves in the tabernacle of the congregation. 15 And the Lord appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud ſtood over the door of the tabernacle. 16 And the Lord ſaid unto Moſes, Behold, thou ſhalt ſleep with thy fathers, and this people will riſe up and go a whoring after the gods of the ſtrangers of the land whither they go to be amongſt them, and will forſake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. 17 Then my anger ſhall be kindled againſt them in that day, and I will forſake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they ſhall be devoured, and many evils and troubles ſhall befall them, ſo that they will ſay in that day, Are not theſe evils come upon us, becauſe our God is not amongſt us? 18 And I will ſurely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they ſhall have wrought in that they are turned unto other gods. 19 Now therefore write ye this ſong for you, and teach it the children of Iſrael: put it in their mouths, that this ſong may be a witneſs for me againſt the children of Iſrael. 20 For when I ſhall have brought them into the the land which I ſware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they ſhall have eaten and filled themſelves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and ſerve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant. 21 And it ſhall come to paſs when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this ſong ſhall teſtifie againſt them as a witneſs: for it ſhall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their ſeed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now before I have brought them into the land which I ſware. 22 Moſes therefore wrote this ſong the ſame day, and taught it the children of Iſrael. 23 And he gave Joſhua the ſon Nun a charge, and ſaid, Be ſtrong and of a good courage: for thou ſhalt bring the children of Iſrael into the land which I ſware unto them: and I will be with thee. 24 And it came to paſs when Moſes had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finiſhed; 25 That Moſes commanded the Levites which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, ſaying, 26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the ſide of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witneſs againſt thee. 27 For

For I know thy rebellion, and thy ſtiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious againſt the Lord; and how much more after my death? 28 Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may ſpeak theſe words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record againſt them. 29 For I know, that after my death ye will utterly corrupt your ſelves, and turn aſide from the way which I have commanded you: and evil will befall you in the latter days, becauſe ye will do evil in the ſight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands. 30 And Moſes ſpake in the ears of all the congregation of Iſrael the words of this ſong, until they were ended.

At the End of every ſeven Years --- thou ſhalt read this Law before all Iſrael] Nothing could be more wiſe and prudent, in the Eyes of human Underſtanding, than this Statute concerning the rehearſing of the Law; for, as the ſeventh Day was a Day of Reſt unto the Lord, that is, a Day wherein they abſtained from Labour, and dedicated themſelves to his Service, ſo the ſeventh Year was a ſabbath of Years, wherein the Land was to lie untilled, and the People had, thereby, Leiſure given them to aſſemble in the Place choſen by Jehovah, there to hear his Law read from the very Original, written by the Hand of Moſes, who received it from the Mouth of God. The People were at this Time freed from Debts and Troubles, and the Cares of the World, and therefore fitted to attend upon God and his Service.

CHAP. XXXII.

Moſes's Song. His Exhortation to the People. He is order'd to go up Mount Nebo, to view the promiſed Land.

Ver. 1. GIve ear, O ye heavens, and ſpeak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. 2 My doctrine ſhall drop as the rain: my ſpeech ſhall diſtil as the dew, as the ſmall rain upon the tender herb, and as the ſhowers upon the graſs. 3 Becauſe I will publiſh the name of the Lord: aſcribe ye greatneſs unto our God. 4 He is the rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment; a God of truth, and without iniquity, juſt and right is he. 5 They have corrupted themſelves, their ſpot is not the ſpot of his children: they are a perverſe and crooked generation. 6 Do ye thus requite the Lord, O fooliſh people and unwiſe? is not he thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and eſtabliſhed thee? 7 Remember the days of old, conſider the years of many generations: aſk thy father, and he will ſhew thee, thy elders, and they will tell thee. 8 When the moſt high divided to the nations their inheritance, when he ſeparated the ſons of Adam, he ſet the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Iſrael. 9 For the Lords portion is his people: Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. 10 He found him in a deſart land, and in the waſte howling wilderneſs: he led him about, he inſtructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. 11 As an eagle ſtirreth up her neſt, fluttereth over her young, ſpreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings; 12 So the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no ſtrange god with him. 13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increaſe of the fields, and he made him to ſuck honey out of the rock, and oyl out of the flinty rock. 14 Butter of kine, and milk of ſheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Baſhan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat, and thou didſt drink the pure blood of the grape. 15 But Jeſhurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatneſs; then he forſook God which made him, and lightly eſteemed the rock of his ſalvation. 16 They provoked him to jealouſy with ſtrange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. 17 They ſacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. 18 Of the rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and haſt forgotten God that formed thee. 19 And when the Lord ſaw it, he abhorred them, becauſe of the provoking of his ſons, and of his daughters. 20 And he ſaid, I will hide my face from them, I will ſee what their end ſhall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith. 21 They have moved me to jealouſy with that which is not God, they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealouſy with thoſe which are not a people, I will provoke them to anger with a fooliſh nation. 22 For a fire is kindled in my anger, and ſhall burn unto the loweſt hell, and ſhall conſume the earth with her increaſe, and ſet on fire the foundations of the mountains. 23 I will heap miſchiefs upon them, I will ſpend mine arrows upon them. 24 They ſhall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter deſtruction: I will ſend the teeth of beaſts upon them, with the poiſon of ſerpents of the duſt. 25 The ſword without, and terror within ſhall deſtroy both the young man and the virgin, the ſuckling alſo with the man of gray hairs. 26 I ſaid, I would ſcatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to ceaſe from among men: 27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, leſt their adverſaries ſhould behave themſelves ſtrangely, and leſt they ſhould ſay, Our hand is high, and the Lord hath not done all this. 28 For they are a nation void of counſel, neither is there any underſtanding in them. 29 O that they were wiſe, that they underſtood this, that they would conſider their latter end! 30 How ſhould one chaſe a thouſand, and two put ten thouſand to flight, except their Rock had ſold them, and the Lord had ſhut them up? 31 For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themſelves being judges. 32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their cluſters are bitter. 33 Their wine is the poiſon of dragons, and the cruel venome of aſps. 34 Is not this laid up in ſtore with me, and ſealed up among my treaſures? 35 To me belongeth vengeance and recompence, their foot ſhall ſlide in due time; for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that ſhall come upon them make haſte. 36 For the Lord ſhall judge his people, and repent himſelf for his ſervants; when he ſeeth that their power is gone, and there is none ſhut up, or left. 37 And he ſhall ſay, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they truſted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their ſacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink-offerings? let them riſe up and help you, and be your protection. 39 See now that I, even I am

he,

he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal; neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. 40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever. 41 If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me. 42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood (and my sword shall devour flesh) and that with the blood of the slain, and of the captives from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy. 43 Rejoice, O ye nations with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people. 44 And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea the son of Nun. 45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel: 46 And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day; which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. 47 For it is not a vain thing for you: because it is your life; and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it. 48 And the Lord spake unto Moses that self-same day, saying. 49 Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession. 50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people: 51 Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel, at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel. 52 Yet thou shalt see the land before thee, but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

In this divine Song of Moses, God himself, and his exceeding great Mercies to the Israelites are exalted, and on the contrary, their abominable Unthankfulness and stubborn Temper are most vehemently rebuked, God's Wrath and future Judgments are propounded, yet without sparing the Abominations of the Enemies of his People. The Almighty again comforts his People, promising to be revenged on his and their idolatrous Enemies, to reconcile his Church unto himself, to clear, to enlarge, to extend it wide among the Heathens. Moses concludes with calling upon the Nations to rejoice, and bless God for his Favours, and especially for the last wonderful Deliverance, which shall be given to the Jews, when they shall be converted unto the Gospel, in the last Days; which they have all Reason to do, not only from that Sympathy which they owe to all People, and especially to God's antient People, whereby they are to rejoice with them that rejoice, but because of that singular Advantage and Happiness which all Nations will have at that Time, and upon that Occasion.

CHAP. XXXIII.

The Majesty of God. Moses blesses the Twelve Tribes. The Excellency of Israel.

Ver. 1. AND this is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. 2 And he said, The Lord came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came with ten thousands of saints: from his right hand went a fiery law for them. 3 Yea, he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they set down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words. 4 Moses commanded us a law: even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob. 5 And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel were gathered together. 6 Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few. 7 And this is the blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, Lord, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him, and be thou an help to him from his enemies. 8 And of Levi he said, Let thy Thummin and thy Urim be with thy holy one, whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah; 9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him, neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant. 10 They shall teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy law: they shall put incense before thee, and whole burnt-sacrifices upon thine altar. 11 Bless, Lord, his substance, and accept the work of his hands: smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again. 12 And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the Lord shall dwell in safety by him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between his shoulders. 13 And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the Lord be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath, 14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, 15 And for the chief things of the antient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills, 16 And for the precious things of the earth, and fulness thereof, and for the good will of him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren. 17 His glory is like the firstlings of his bullock; and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together, to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh. 18 And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and Issachar, in thy tents. 19 They shall call the people unto the mountain, there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand. 20 And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlarged Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head. 21 And he provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the law-giver, was he seated; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the Lord, and his judgments with Israel. 22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a lions whelp: he shall leap from Bashan. 23 And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the Lord: possess thou the west and the south. 24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oyl. 25 Thy ſhoes ſhall be iron and braſs; and as thy days, ſo ſhall thy ſtrength be. 26 There is none like unto the God of Jeſhurun, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the skie. 27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlaſting arms: and he ſhall thruſt out the enemy from before thee, and ſhall ſay, Deſtroy them. 28 Iſrael then ſhall dwell in ſafety alone: the fountain of Jacob ſhall be upon a land of corn and wine, alſo his heavens ſhall drop down dew. 29 Happy art thou, O Iſrael: who is like unto thee, O people ſaved by the Lord, the ſhield of thy help, and who is the ſword of thy excellency! and thine enemies ſhall be found liars unto thee, and thou ſhalt tread upon their high places.

Moſes the Man of God] By this he means the Servant, or Prophet, or Miniſter of God, as this Phraſe ſignifies, 1 Sam. ix. 6, 7. 1 Tim. vi. 11. to acquaint them that the following Prophecies were not his own invention, but divine Inſtitutions.

Moſes, in bleſſing the Tribes, omits that of Simeon; either, 1. In Deteſtation of their Anceſtor Simeon's bloody and wicked Behaviour, for which Jacob alſo gives that Tribe a Curſe rather than a Bleſſing, Gen. xlix. But as for Levi, who was joined with him in that Curſe, and particularly bleſſed for a ſingular and valuable Reaſon, expreſſed Ver. 8, 9. whereas Simeon's Tribe had been ſo far from expiating their Father's Crime, that they added new ones, their Prince being guilty of another notorious Offence, Numb. xxv. 6, 14. and his Tribe concurring with him too much in ſuch Actions, as Interpreters gather from the great Diminution of the Numbers of that Tribe, which were 59,300 in Numb. i. 23. and but 22,000 in Numb. xxvi. 14. which was near forty Years after. Or, 2. Becauſe that Tribe had no diſtinct Inheritance, but was to have his Portion in the Tribe of Judah, as he had Joſh. xix. 1. and therefore he muſt needs partake with them in their Bleſſings.

The Lord came from Sinai, and roſe up from Seir] That is, he appeared, or ſhewed himſelf, as the Sun does at his Riſing --- Seir, i. e. from the Mountain or Land of Edom, which is called Seir, Gen. xxxii. 3. and xxxvi. 8. Deut. ii. 4. to which Place the Iſraelites came, Numb. xx. 14, &c. and from thence God led them on towards the Land of Promiſe, and then glorioufly appeared for them in ſubduing Sihon and Og before them, and giving their Countries unto them. Which glorious Work of God is particularly celebrated, Judg. v. 4. But becauſe the Land of Seir or Edom is ſometimes taken more largely, and reaches even to the Red-Sea, as appears from 1 Kings ix. 26. and therefore Mount Seir was near to it, and becauſe Paran, which here follows, was alſo near Sinai, as being the next Station to which they came from the Wilderneſs of Sinai, where that glorious Light which ſhone upon Mount Sinai, and, very probably, directly ſcatter its Beams into adjacent Parts, ſuch as Seir and Paran were; and ſo is this only a poetical and prophetical Variation of the Phraſe and Expreſſion of the ſame Thing in divers Words; and God coming, or riſing, or ſhining from, to, or in Sinai, and Seir, and Paran, note one and the ſame illuſtrious Action of God, appearing there with ten thouſand of his Saints or holy Angels, and there giving a fiery Law to them, as it here follows. And this Interpretation may receive ſome Strength from Hab. iii. 4. where this glorious March of God before his People is remembered, only Teman, which ſignifies the South, is put for Seir, which is here poſſibly to ſignify that the Seir here mentioned was to be underſtood of the ſouthern Part of the Country of Seir, or Edom, which was that Part adjoining to the Red-Sea. Others refer this Appearance of God at Seir to the Brazen Serpent, that eminent Type of Chriſt, which was erected in this Place.

Who ſaid unto his Father and to his Mother, I have not ſeen him, neither did he acknowledge his Brethren, nor knew his own Children; for they have obſerved thy Word, and kept thy Covenant] I have not ſeen him; that is, I have no Reſpect unto them; for ſo Knowledge is often uſed, as Job ix. 21. Prov. xii. 10, 11. 1 Theſſ. v. 12. The Senſe is, who (namely Levi) followed God and his Command fully, without any Reſpect of Perſons, Ex. xxxii. 26, 27. This ſeems better than to refer it, either to their not mourning for their next Kindred, for that was allowed to all but the High-Prieſt in the Caſe of the Death of Father or Mother, and that was only a ceremonial Rite, and no Matter of great Commendation; or to their Impartiality in executing the Judgments committed to them, Deut. xvii. 9. of which they had as yet given no conſiderable Proof. For they have obſerved thy Word, and kept thy Covenant; that is, when the reſt broke their Covenant with God by that foul Sin of Idolatry with the Calf, that Tribe kept themſelves more pure from that Infection, and adhered to God and his Worſhip, and Service, as appears from Exod. xxxii. 26, 28.

Thy Shoes ſhall be Iron and Braſs] This may note, 1. Their great Strength, by which they ſhould be able to tread down, and cruſh their Enemies; as Chriſt's Feet, for this very Reaſon, are ſaid to be of Braſs, Rev. i. 15. Or, 2. The Mines of Iron and Copper which were in their Portion, whence Sidon their Neighbour was famous among the Heathens for its Plenty of Braſs, and Sarepta is thought to have its Name from the Braſs and Iron which were melted there in great Quantity. See Deut. viii. 9. Or, 3. The Strength of its Situation, and ſo ſome Antients and Moderns render the Words thy Habitation, or thy Encloſure, ſhall be Iron and Braſs, that is, fortified, as it were, with Gates of Iron and Braſs, being defended by the Sea on one Side, by their Brethren on other Sides, as alſo by Mountains and Rivers.

CHAP. XXXIV.

Ver. 1. AND Moſes went up from the plains of Moab, unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Piſgah, that is over againſt Jericho: and the Lord ſhewed him all the land of Gilead unto Dan, 2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manaſſeh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmoſt ſea, 3 And the ſouth, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm-trees, unto Zoar. 4 And the Lord ſaid unto him, This is the land which I ſware unto Abraham, unto Iſaac, and unto Jacob, ſaying, I will give it unto thy ſeed: I have cauſed thee to ſee it with thine eyes, but thou ſhalt not go over thither. 5 So Moſes the ſervant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord. 6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over againſt Beth-peor: but no man knoweth of his ſepulchre unto this day. 7 And Moſes was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated. 8 And the children of Iſrael wept for Moſes in the plains of Moab, thirty days: ſo the days of weeping and mourning for Moſes were ended. 9 And Joſhua the ſon of Nun was full of the ſpirit of wiſdom; for Moſes had laid his hands upon him, and the children of Iſrael hearkened unto him, and did as the Lord commanded Moſes. 10 And there aroſe not a prophet ſince in Iſrael like unto Moſes, whom the Lord knew face to face: 11 In all the ſigns and wonders which the Lord ſent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his ſervants, and to all his land, 12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terrour which Moſes ſhewed in the ſight of all Iſrael.

And Moſes went up from the Plains of Moab, unto the Mountains of Nebo, to the Top of Piſgah] The Mountains of Abarim were a Ridge of Hills between the two Rivers Arnon and Jordan. One Part of theſe Mountains was diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Nebo, as appears from Deut. x. 32, 49. and comparing this with the Words here, we ſhall find that Nebo and Piſgah were one and the ſame Mountain, and, that if there was any Diſtinction between the Names, it was probably this, that the Top of the Mountain was more peculiarly called Piſgah, becauſe it comes from a Root which ſignifies to elevate, or raiſe up, and ſo may very properly denote the Top, or Summit of any Mountain. Not far from Nebo, was Beth-peor, which probably was ſo called from ſome Deity of the ſame Name, that was worſhipped there. But, of all theſe Mountains it muſt be obſerved, that, tho' they are ſaid to be in the Land of Moab, yet they really ſtood in the Territories of Sihon, King of the Amorites; however they retained their old Names, becauſe once they belonged to the Moabites, Numb. xxi. 26.

And Moſes the Servant of the Lord died there] Nothing can be plainer from the Text, than that Moſes did die, and was really buried; nay, Joſephus tells us, that the Scripture affirms, that he died, leſt People ſhould think, becauſe of the Excellency of his Perſon, that he was ſtill alive and with God. And yet notwithſtanding this, ſome of the Jewiſh Doctors do poſitively affirm, that he was tranſlated into Heaven, where he ſtands and miniſters before God. And of thoſe who admit of his Death, and that his Soul and Body were really ſeparated, the major Part will not allow that he died a common Death; for their Notion is, that his Soul departed with a Kiſs, becauſe he is ſaid to die, al pi, at the Mouth (as it is literally in the Hebrew, i. e. according to the Word) of God. But if there be any Senſe in the Expreſſion, it is, that he parted with his Soul with great Chearfulneſs and Serenity of Mind.

But no Man knoweth of his Sepulchre unto this Day] This was done to prevent the People from idolizing him after his Death; and this very Reaſon we have in R. Levi Ben Gerſhom. 'Future Generations, ſays he, 'might have made a God of him, becauſe of the Fame 'of his Miracles: For do we not ſee how ſome of the 'Iſraelites erred in the brazen Serpent which Moſes 'made? And what then would they not have done, had 'they known where his Remains had laid? For this Reaſon, very likely, it was, that how much ſoever Moſes was in Love with Canaan, he did not deſire to be carried thither, to be buried with his Anceſtors, as Joſeph did; becauſe his Interment in that Country might have proved of dangerous Conſequence, if in their Diſtreſs, (eſpecially in the Captivity of the Land) the Children of Iſrael ſhould have run to his Sepulchre, and begged of him to pray for them, whoſe Prayers and Interceſſion, in their Behalf, they found in his Life-time ſo very prevalent?

But, notwithſtanding all this Precaution taken by God, the Chriſtians boaſt that they have diſcovered the Sepulchre which has been kept ſecret for ſo many Ages. For in the Year 1655, ſome Goats, that were ſeparated from the reſt of the Flock, went to feed in a certain Place, in the Mountain Nebo, and returned from thence ſo odoriferous and perfumed, that the Shepherds, aſtoniſhed at ſo wonderful a Prodigy, ran preſently to conſult with the Patriarchs of the Marozites, who ſent thither two Monks from Mount Lebanon, and they diſcovered a Monument, on which was this Inſcription, Moſes the Servant of the Lord.

And Moſes was an hundred and twenty Years old when he died; his Eye was not dim, nor his natural Force abated] It cannot well be accounted an impoſſible Thing, for God to ſhew Moſes the Land of Canaan, from the Top of Nebo. The Jews indeed have a Notion, that God laid before him a Map of the whole Country, and ſhewed him therein how every Part was ſituated; where each Valley lay, each Mountain ſtood, each River ran, and for what remarkable Product each Place was renowned: But if this had been all, we cannot ſee for what Reaſon Moſes was ordered to go upon the higheſt Part of the Mountain, ſince in the loweſt Plains of Moab, he might have given a Demonſtration of this Kind every whit as well.

It was for ſome Purpoſe therefore, that the ſacred Hiſtorian has informed us, that, tho' Moſes was an hundred and twenty Years old, yet his Eyes were not dim: And if we ſuppoſe, that, upon this Occaſion, God ſtrengthened them with a greater Vigour than ordinary, to enable him to make a larger Proſpect of the Country, ſo that, from the Eminence, he might ſee Dan and Mount Lebanon to the North; the Lake of Sodom, and the City of Zoar to the South; the Mediterranean Sea to the Weſt; and (as the Town and Country of Jericho were juſt at Hand) he might eaſily diſcern the Land of Gilead to the North-eaſt. This indeed may be a Compaſs above the Stretch of human Sight; but if God was pleaſed to aſſiſt his viſive Faculties a little, the Matter might eaſily have been done: And accordingly ſome of the Jewiſh Doctors have been wiſe enough in putting together both the natural Clearneſs of Moſes's Eyes, and the additional Strength which God, at this Time, vouchſafed to give them: 'For 'God ſhewed him, ſay they, the whole Land, as in 'a Garden-plat; and gave his Eyes ſuch Power of 'contemplating it, from the Beginning to the End, 'that he ſaw Hills and Dales, what was open, and 'what was encloſed, remote or nigh, at one ſingle 'View, or Intuition.'

There has been ſome Diſpute among the Learned as to the Perſon who wrote the Concluſion of this Chapter, ſince 'tis certain Moſes did not. Both Philo and Joſephus are of Opinion, that the Account of Moſes's Death and Burial, of the Mourning which the Iſraelites made for him, and of the Character which in the Concluſion of Deuteronomy, we find recorded of him, was penned by Moſes himſelf, in Conſequence of the Preſcience which God was pleaſed to communicate to him; and the Reaſon which Joſephus gives for his thus relating the Circumſtances of his Death beforehand, is, that the People, out of the great Veneration they had for his Perſon, might not imagine that he was tranſlated.

But ſuppoſe this Account to have been written after the Death of Moſes, by Joſhua, Eleazar, or the ſeventy Elders, or (as ſome imagine) much later, or even by Eſdras himſelf, who, after the Babyloniſh Captivity, made a Reviſal of the ſacred Books: Suppoſe it, I ſay, to have been written by any other Hand whatſoever, yet this can no way affect the Authority of the reſt of the Pentateuch, or imply that Moſes was not the Writer of it, unleſs we will be ſo perverſe as to ſay, that the Addition of ſome few Lines, or even of a whole Page, as an Appendix to another Man's Work, makes the Book no longer his.

There is another Opinion, which ſeems very conſonant both to Reaſon and Matter of Fact; and that is, that the laſt of the Books of Moſes, viz. the Book of Deuteronomy, ended with his prophetick Bleſſing upon the Twelve Tribes, Happy art thou, O Iſrael, who is like unto thee, O People, ſaved by the Lord, &c. and that what makes now the firſt Chapter of Joſhua, was thence removed, and adjoined to it by Way of Supplement.

Before the Invention of Sections, and other Diviſions, or ſo much as Pauſes and Points of Diſtinction; and, when ſometimes ſeveral Books were connected together, and followed each other upon the ſame Roll (as the antient Method of Writing was) it is no hard Matter to conceive, how eaſily the Beginning of one Book might be transferred to the End of another, and in Proceſs of Time, make that be reputed the Concluſion of Deuteronomy, which was originally intended for the Introduction to Joſhua, and which was, in Reality, wrote by a later Hand than Moſes: But then, by whom whomsoever, or what Time soever, these Passages were wrote, whether before or after the Destruction of the first Temple, they can no ways invalidate the other Parts of the Book of Deuteronomy, to which imprudently, and by way of Mistake perhaps, they came to be annexed; nor can the Canonicalness of these very Passages be called in Question, since it is agreed on all Hands, that they were written by a Person of a prophetick Spirit, and had, in all Ages, the Sanction of the great Synagogue.

This History, contained in the Pentateuch, or five Books of Moses, takes in the Space of 2552 Years; and comprehends a Series of Events, the most wonderful and important; Events delivered to us by the Direction of God, and dictated by his Holy Spirit; Events which are no where else to be found; because those Nations, among whom in latter Ages History, when it became an Art, was most improved, were now themselves rude and unpolished; a History wherein Things are traced from the very Beginning, in which the Wisdom of Providence is displayed in rescuing Man from the Evil he had brought upon himself, by promising, and, in the Fulness of Time sending, the Messias; from whence we learn the Cause of the Depravity in our Nature, which the Heathens observed, but could no way account for; from whence we are informed of that dreadful Destruction by Water, which the Wickedness of the Antideluvian World provoked the divine Justice to pour down upon them; for we are instructed, how this Globe was peopled, and how from the Loins of Noah, the present Race of Men are sprung; from whence we perceive, how the epidemic Corruption of Morals, in a short Time after the Flood, caused the electing Abraham to become the Father of the Faithful; and from whence we are taught, how the Law, through Moses, was given to Israel, and, at length, revealed to the Gentiles, that it might bring us unto Christ; Passages not lightly to be run over, but to be weighed and considered, as Things which nearly concern our Salvation; and, in the reading of which, we ought most earnestly to entreat the divine Assistance.

Jesus, the Author of the Christian Faith, discoursing with the Jews concerning their Infidelity, and observing how many different, and all of them conclusive Proofs he had given them of his Mission, at length took Notice of that Opinion which swayed them most, viz. their Adherence to the Law, by which they doubted not to be excused for their Unbelief in him: But this Christ informs them was a grievous Mistake, and instead of a Mediator, Moses would become their Accuser; and then he renders them the Reason why in these Words: (John v. 46, 47.) If ye had believed Moses, ye would have believed me, for he wrote of me; But if ye believe not his Writings, how shall ye believe my Words? This is so full to the Purpose, that all who are true Christians must assent to this Point, if not on other Authority, yet on the express Declaration of God himself. Jesus, after his Resurrection, appearing to two of his Disciples who were going to Emmaus, and entering into a Conversation with them about the Evidence of his own Messiahship, explained to them the Scriptures which proved it, beginning at Moses, and going thro' all the Prophets, Luke xxiv. 27. From whence it is clear, that our Saviour admitted not only that the Writings which the Jews ascribed to Moses were his, but also owned the same Thing of the Writings ascribed to the Prophets. Indeed he often made his Appeal thither, and tho' he sometimes spoke of the mighty Works which he did, yet he always desired such as were inclined to believe on him to search the Scriptures, John v. 39. This was, and is the true Basis of the Christian Faith, and therefore those who would subvert it, have very cunningly endeavoured to sap this Foundation, knowing well that the Fall of the Superstructure would follow of Course. On this the Disciples first grounded their Belief, and from this Topick we find them persuading others. Philip when he would bring Nathaniel to Christ, tells him, We have found him of whom Moses and the Prophets did write. In fine; as the Son of God taught that Moses composed the Law, and that by the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit, so the Apostles and their Successors have all borne Testimony to the same; it is a Point that was never doubted of among Christians, till of late Days, when the Champions of Superstition, to raise the Credit of their Traditions, and the Enemies of divine Revelation have raked together various Objections against a Point, without the Destruction of which their Schemes cannot take Place. In this Respect, these Men have out-gone Mahomet the Founder of the Turkish Religion, who never offered to deny the Mission, or the Writings of the Hebrew Prophet, but, on the contrary, mentions him in the Alcoran with great Respect; pretending, in his romantic Account of his Journey to the Throne of God, that he found Moses in the fifth Heaven, which he says was made of Adamant; as in the sixth, he found John the Baptist, and in the seventh, Christ our blessed Saviour and Redeemer.

The Obligation of the Law was to determine when another Prophet like to Moses arose, of whom all the following Prophecies spoke; and accordingly, the whole Frame of the Jewish Government, Civil and Ecclesiastical, so wonderfully protected by divine Providence, is now utterly dissolved; and those plain and direct Prophecies of Moses, as to the latter State of the Hebrews, fully accomplished.

A N

AN EXPOSITION OF The Book of JOSHUA.

The ARGUMENT.

In this Book are related the wonderful Works which the Lord wrought in Confirmation of the Truth and Faithfulneſs of his Promiſes after the Death of Moſes; in what Manner he (under the Conduct of Joſhua) brought the Iſraelites into Canaan, cauſing them to paſs over Jordan dry-ſhod, and delivering into their Hands all the Canaanitiſh Kings, with their Territories, Cities, and Towns, which Joſhua divided amongſt the nine Tribes and an Half.

This Joſhua was as well by Name, as by Place and Calling, an expreſs Figure of Jeſus Chriſt, who introduces his own (which Moſes could not do, the Law bringing nothing to Perfection) to the Place of their true Reſt, the heavenly Canaan.

This Hiſtory contains what paſs'd during the Space of ſeventeen Years, and bears the Name of Joſhua, as chiefly treating of thoſe illuſtrious Acts which were atchieved by him. It is not certain who was the Penman of it. Some think it was wrote by ſome Prophet that lived afterwards; others, by Eleazar the High Prieſt; and others, (with more Probability) by Joſhua himſelf, except that Part which concludes the Book, concerning his own Death, and that of Eleazar, God having made uſe of him to execute the great Things therein related; and alſo having inſpired and guided him by his Spirit in recording of them for the Edification of the Chnrch.

The whole Book of Joſhua may be fitly divided into three Parts. The firſt 12 Chapters ſet forth the great and miraculous Victories obtained by Joſhua, under the Influence of the Divine Bleſſing; and from the 13*th Chapter to the* 22*d, the Diviſion and Allotment of the Land among the Tribes of* Iſrael, is very particularly ſet down. And laſt of all here is recited the ſolemn Leave given by Joſhua to the two Tribes and an Half, to return to their Station and Inheritance allotted them beyond Jordan, and likewiſe the pious and earneſt Exhortation of Joſhua to all the People, together with the Hiſtory of his Death, as alſo of that of Eleazar.

CHAP. I.

Joſhua being commanded to lead the People into the Land of Canaan, he orders them to be ready for their Journey and Paſſage over Jordan. He reminds the two Tribes and a Half of their Promiſe to Moſes; they declare themſelves ready to perform their Promiſe; and all the Tribes ſhew their Willingneſs to obey him.

Ver. 1. NOW after the death of Moſes the ſervant of the Lord, it came to paſs, that the Lord ſpake unto Joſhua the ſon of Nun, Moſes miniſter, ſaying, 2 Moſes my ſervant is dead; now therefore, ariſe, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Iſrael. 3 Every place that the ſole of your foot ſhall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I ſaid unto Moſes. 4 From the wilderneſs, and this Lebanon, even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great ſea, toward the going down of the ſun, ſhall be your coaſt. 5 There ſhall not any man be able to ſtand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moſes, ſo I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forſake thee. 6 Be ſtrong and of a good courage: for unto this people ſhalt thou divide for an inheritance the land which I ſware unto their fathers to give them. 7 Only be thou ſtrong and very couragious, that thou mayeſt obſerve, to do according to all the law, which Moſes my ſervant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayeſt proſper whitherſoever thou goeſt. 8 This book of the law ſhall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou ſhalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayeſt obſerve to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou ſhalt make thy way proſperous, and then thou ſhalt have good ſucceſs. 9 Have not I commanded thee? Be ſtrong and of a good courage, be not afraid, neither be thou diſmayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee, whitherſoever thou goeſt. 10 Then Joſhua commanded the officers of the people, ſaying, 11 Paſs through the hoſt, and command the people, ſaying, prepare your victuals; for within three days ye ſhall paſs over this Jordan, to go in to poſſeſs the land which the Lord your God giveth you to poſſeſs it. 12 And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe

Joshua, Chap: V. Verses, 13. 15.

And it came to pass when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lift up his Eyes & looked, and behold, there stood a man over against him, with his Sword drawn in his hand. Loose thy Shoe from off thy Foot, for the place whereon thou standest is Holy.

Joshua, Chap: VI. Verses, 15. 16.

And it came to pass on the seventh Day that they rose early about the Dawning of the Day & compass'd the City after the same manner seven times. And it came to pass at the seventh time when the Priests blew with the Trumpets Joshua said unto the people Shout for the Lord hath given you the City.

Chap. 4.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass when all the people were clean passed over Jordan, that the Lord spake unto Joshua, saying, 2 Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, 3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging-place where you shall lodge this night. 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man. 5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the Lord your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: 6 That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean you by these stones? 7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever. 8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the Lord spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. 9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day. 10 For the priests which bare the ark, stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the Lord commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over. 11 And it came to pass when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the Lord passed over, and the priests in the presence of the people. 12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them: 13 About forty thousand prepared for war, passed over before the Lord unto battle, to the plains of Jericho. 14 On that day the Lord magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life. 15 And the Lord spake unto Joshua, saying, 16 Command the priests that bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan. 17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan. 18 And it came to pass when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, were come up out of the mids of Jordan, and the soles of the priests feet were lift up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all his banks, as they did before. 19 And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. 20 And those twelve stones which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal. 21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones? 22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. 23 For the Lord your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye have passed over, as the Lord your God did to the Red-sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: 24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the Lord, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the Lord your God for ever.

And these Stones shall be for a Memorial unto the Children of Israel for ever] It has been a Custom in all Nations, says Patrick, to erect Monuments of Stone, in order to preserve the Memory of Covenants, Victories, and other great Transactions; and tho' there was no Inscription upon these Stones, yet the Number of them, and the Place where they lay, which (not at all stony) was sufficient to signify some memorable Thing, which Posterity would not fail to hand down from one Generation to another.

And the People came up out of Jordan on the tenth Day of the first Month] That is, Nisan, or March, and forty Years, wanting five Days, from their coming out of Egypt. And this was very seasonable for the taking up of the Lambs which were to be used four Days after, Exod. xiii. 3, 6.

And those twelve Stones which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal] Gilgal, the Place where the Israelites encamped for some Time, after their Passage over the River Jordan, was so called, because here the Rite of Circumcision, which had long been diffused, was renewed: Whereupon the Lord said unto Joshua, this Day have I rolled away the Reproach of Egypt (i. e. Circumcision) from off you, wherefore the Name of the Place was called Gilgal (i. e. rolling) unto this Day, Ch. v. 9. From this Expression the Place received its Name, and if we look into its Situation, we shall find, that, as the Israelites passed over Jordan right against Jericho, Ch. iii. 16. and encamped in Gilgal, in the East Border of Jericho, 'tis plain that Gilgal must be situated between Jordan and Jericho; and therefore, since Josephus tells us, that Jericho was sixty Furlongs distant from Jordan, and the Camp of Gilgal was fifty Furlongs from the same River; it hence follows, that Gilgal was ten Furlongs (i. e. about a Mile and a Quarter) from Jericho Eastward. But as some learned Men have observed, that five of the Furlongs, used by Josephus, make up an Italian Mile, so the Distance between Gilgal and Jericho will be just two Miles; which exactly agrees with the Testimony of St. Jerome, who makes it two Miles distant from Jericho, and a Place held in great Veneration by the Inhabitants of the Country, in his Days. See Wells's Geogr.

CHAP. V.

The Amorites and Canaanites are terrified at the News of the Israelites Passage over Jordan, Circumcision revived. The Passover celebrated. Manna ceases. A Vision of an armed Man appears to Joshua.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan west-ward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the Lord had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel until we were passed over, that their heart melted; neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. 2 At that time the Lord said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time. 3 And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the fore-ſkins. 4 And this is the cauſe why Joſhua did circumciſe: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war died in the wilderneſs by the way, after they came out of Egypt. 5 Now all the people that came out, were circumciſed; but all the people that were born in the wilderneſs by the way, as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumciſed. 6 For the children of Iſrael walked forty years in the wilderneſs, till all the people that were men of war which came out of Egypt, were conſumed, becauſe they obeyed not the voice of the Lord: unto whom the Lord ſware that he would not ſhew them the land which the Lord ſware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey. 7 And their children, whom he raiſed up in their ſtead, them Joſhua circumciſed: for they were uncircumciſed, becauſe they had not circumciſed them by the way. 8 And it came to paſs when they had done circumciſing all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole. 9 And the Lord ſaid unto Joſhua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you: wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day. 10 And the children of Iſrael encamped in Gilgal, and kept the paſſover, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, in the plains of Jericho. 11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the paſſover unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the ſelf-ſame day. 12 And the manna ceaſed on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land, neither had the children of Iſrael manna any more, but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. 13 And it came to paſs when Joſhua was by Jericho, that he lift up his eyes and looked, and behold, there ſtood a man over againſt him, with his ſword drawn in his hand: and Joſhua went unto him, and ſaid unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adverſaries? 14 And he ſaid, Nay, but, as captain of the hoſt of the Lord am I now come. And Joſhua fell on his face to the earth, and did worſhip, and ſaid unto him, What ſaith my lord unto his ſervant? 15 And the captain of the Lords hoſt ſaid unto Joſhua, Looſe thy ſhoe from off thy foot, for the place whereon thou ſtandeſt, is holy: and Joſhua did ſo.

Make thee ſharp Knives, and circumciſe again the Children of Iſrael the ſecond Time] And, after the Rite was performed, God ſaid, This Day have I rolled away the Reproach of Egypt from off you, Ver. 9. Both of which Paſſages have given no ſmall Trouble to Commentators. The ſharp Knives are allowed to be (what our marginal Notes call them) Knives of Flint, which Stones could not but be plentiful in the Mountains of Arabia, and, when made very ſharp, were the Knives commonly made uſe of in the Eaſtern Countries. But St. Jerome himſelf (as great an Hebraiſt as he was) could not find out, what was this Circumciſion, which was to paſs upon the Iſraelites the ſecond Time. Some of the Jews, from theſe Words of Jeremiah, I will puniſh the Circumciſed, that has a Fore-ſkin, Ch. ix. 25. have undertaken to prove, that it was poſſible to bring the Fore-ſkin again by Art, which the Iſraelites had done, during their Abode in the Wilderneſs, and for this Reaſon were ordered to be circumciſed afreſh; and thoſe Chriſtians, who have embraced this Notion, pretend to ſupport it by the Words of St. Paul, If any Man is called, being circumciſed, nè epiaſpatho, let him not get a Fore-ſkin again, or, as we render it, let him not become uncircumciſed. But whether the Recovery of a Prepuce be a Thing probable or not, 'tis certain, that all the Difficulty of the Words, ariſes from miſunderſtanding the Idiom of the Original, and may eaſily be removed, if they were tranſlated or paraphraſed thus, — Let the Ceremony of Circumciſion, which has been ſo long diſcontinued, be renewed, as it was once heretofore. While the Iſraelites lived in Egypt, we do not read of any Neglect of this Rite of Circumciſion among them; but, while they abode in the Wilderneſs, there are ſeveral Reaſons that might oblige them to omit it, until they arrived in the promiſed Land, when they were to renew the Ordinance of the Paſſover, and, previous to that, were all to be circumciſed; becauſe no uncircumciſed Perſon, nor any one who had a Son, or a Man-ſervant in his Houſe uncircumciſed, was capable of being admitted to it, Exod. xii. 43.

The rolling away the Reproach of Egypt, is ſuppoſed, by ſome, to relate to the Reproaches which the Egyptians uſed to caſt upon the Iſraelites, viz. that the Egyptians, ſeeing the Iſraelites wander ſo long in the Wilderneſs, reproached and flouted them, as if they were brought to be deſtroyed there, and not conducted into the promiſed Land, from which Reproaches God now delivered them, when, by enjoining Circumciſion, he gave them Aſſurance, that they ſhould ſhortly enjoy the Country, which no uncircumciſed Perſon might inherit. Our learned Spencer thinks the Reproach of Egypt, to be the Slavery to which they had long been there ſubject, but were now fully declared a free People, by receiving a Mark of the Seed of Abraham, and being made Heirs of the promiſed Land. But the moſt common Opinion is, that, by the Reproach of Egypt, is meant nothing elſe but Uncircumciſion, with which the Iſraelites always upbraided other People, and particularly the Egyptians, with whom they had lived ſo long, and were beſt acquainted; and, admitting this to be the true (as it is the moſt unconſtrained) Senſe, this Paſſage is a plain Proof, that the Iſraelites could not learn the Rite of Circumciſion from the Egyptians, (as ſome pretend) but that the Egyptians, contrariwiſe, muſt have had it from them. See Univ. Hiſt. Spencer, Patrick's Com. and Shuckford's Connect.

And it came to paſs when Joſhua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his Eyes, and looked, and behold, there ſtood a Man over againſt him, with his Sword drawn in his Hand] Who this Perſon was that appeared to Joſhua, is not ſo well agreed among Commentators. Some are of Opinion, that it was an Angel, who, becauſe the Hebrew calls him Gebir, is ſuppoſed to be Gabriel; but there are ſeveral Reaſons, in this very Account of his Apparition, which denote him to be a divine, and not a created Being. For, in the firſt Place, beſides his aſſuming the Title of the Captain of the Hoſt of the Lord, (an Image under which God himſelf is frequently repreſented in Scripture) Joſhua's calling him Jehovah, or the Lord, a Name, which neither Joſhua ſhould have given, nor he accepted of, had he been no more than an Angel; his falling down, and worſhipping him, which he durſt not have done, (ſince he alone is to be ador'd) nor would the other have permitted, but rather have reproved him, as we find one of them did St. John, Rev. xxii. 10. are the ſureſt Evidence of the Divinity of his Perſon. For, when inſtead of reproving him for doing him too much Honour, we find him commanding him to do him more, by requiring him to looſe his Shoes from his Feet, inſiſting upon the higheſt Acknowledgment of a divine Preſence, that was uſed among the Eaſtern Nations, we cannot but think ourſelves obliged (with a learned Rabbin) freely to confeſs, that this Angel, who ſuffered himſelf to be worſhipped, and by whoſe Preſence the Place where he appeared was ſanctified, ſo that Joſhua was commanded to put off his Shoes, no doubt was the very ſame, whom all the Angels of Heaven do worſhip. See Joh. à Coch. upon the Gemara of the Sanhedrim, Vol. 3. Jericho ſhut up; is taken, and accurſed. Rahab and her Kindred ſaved. A Curſe denounced againſt him who ſhould rebuild Jericho.

ver. 1. NOW Jericho was ſtraitly ſhut up, becauſe of the children of Iſrael: none went out, and none came in. 2 And the Lord ſaid unto Joſhua, See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour. 3 And ye ſhall compaſs the city all ye men of war, and go round about the city once: thus ſhalt thou do ſix days. 4 And ſeven prieſts ſhall bare before the ark ſeven trumpets of rams horns: and the ſeventh day ye ſhall compaſs the city ſeven times, and the prieſts ſhall blow with the trumpets. 5 And it ſhall come to paſs that when they make a long blaſt with the rams horn, and when ye hear the ſound of the trumpet, all the people ſhall ſhout with a great ſhout: and the wall of the city ſhall fall down flat, and the people ſhall aſcend up every man ſtraight before him. 6 And Joſhua the ſon of Nun called the prieſts, and ſaid unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let ſeven prieſts bear ſeven trumpets of rams horns before the ark of the Lord. 7 And he ſaid unto the people, Paſs on, and compaſs the city, and let him that is armed paſs on before the ark of the Lord. 8 And it came to paſs when Joſhua had ſpoken unto the people, that the ſeven prieſts bearing the ſeven trumpets of rams horns, paſſed on before the Lord, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the Lord followed them. 9 And the armed men went before the prieſts that blew with the trumpets, and the rere-ward came after the ark, the prieſts going on, and blowing with the trumpets. 10 And Joſhua had commanded the people, ſaying, Ye ſhall not ſhout, nor make any noiſe with your voice, neither ſhall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you ſhout, then ſhall ye ſhout. 11 So the ark of the Lord compaſſed the city going about it once: and they came into the camp and lodged in the camp. 12 And Joſhua roſe early in the morning, and the prieſts took up the ark of the Lord. 13 And ſeven prieſts bearing ſeven trumpets of rams horns before the ark of the Lord, went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them, but the rere-ward came after the ark of the Lord, the prieſts going on, and blowing with the trumpets. 14 And the ſecond day they compaſſed the city once, and returned into the camp: ſo they did ſix days. 15 And it came to paſs on the ſeventh day, that they roſe early about the dawning of the day, and compaſſed the city after the ſame manner, ſeven times: only on that day they compaſſed the city ſeven times. 16 And it came to paſs at the ſeventh time, when the prieſts blew with the trumpets, Joſhua ſaid unto the people, Shout, for the Lord hath given you the city. 17 And the city ſhall be accurſed, even it and all that are therein, to the Lord: only Rahab the harlot ſhall live, ſhe and all that are with her in the houſe, becauſe ſhe hid the meſſengers that we ſent. 18 And you, in any wiſe keep your ſelves from the accurſed thing, leſt ye make your ſelves accurſed when ye take of the accurſed thing, and make the camp of Iſrael a curſe, and trouble it. 19 But all the ſilver and gold, and veſſels of braſs and iron, are conſecrated unto the Lord: they ſhall come into the treaſury of the Lord. 20 So the people ſhouted when the prieſts blew with the trumpets: and it came to paſs when the people heard the ſound of the trumpet, and the people ſhouted, with a great ſhout, that the wall fell down flat, ſo that the people went up into the city, every man ſtraight before him, and they took the city. 21 And they utterly deſtroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and ſheep, and aſs, with the edge of the ſword. 22 But Joſhua had ſaid unto the two men that had ſpied out the country, Go into the harlots houſe, and bring out thence the woman, and all that ſhe hath, as ye ſware unto her. 23 And the young men that were ſpies, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that ſhe had: and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Iſrael. 24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the ſilver and the gold, and the veſſels of braſs and of iron, they put into the treaſury of the houſe of the Lord. 25 And Joſhua ſaved Rahab the harlot alive, and her fathers houſhold, and all that ſhe had; and ſhe dwelleth in Iſrael even unto this day: becauſe ſhe hid the meſſengers which Joſhua ſent to ſpy out Jericho. 26 And Joſhua adjured them at that time, ſaying, Curſed be the man before the Lord, that riſeth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he ſhall lay the foundation thereof, in his firſt-born, and in his youngeſt ſon ſhall he ſet up the gates of it. 27 So the Lord was with Joſhua, and his fame was noiſed throughout all the country.

And ſeven Prieſts ſhall bear before the Ark ſeven Trumpets of Rams Horns] In the Conqueſt of Jericho ſome have imagined, that Rams-horns were not proper Materials, whereof to make Trumpets; that they are not ſo eaſily perforated, nor can they ever be brought to make a Sound, ſhrill and extenſive enough for their particular Purpoſes; and therefore they conceive, that Braſs, or Silver, or any other Metal had been more convenient for this Uſe; whereupon they derive the Word Jobal, in the Singular, (which we render a Ram's-Horn) not from the Arabick, which ſignifies a Ram, but from Jubal, the Name of him who was the firſt Inventor of muſical Inſtruments: And, according to this Senſe, the Trumpets which the Prieſts upon this Occaſion uſed, may be ſaid to have been faſhioned according to thoſe which Jubal firſt invented.

This Interpretation of the Words (which is no bad one, ſays Stackhouſe) removes all the Incongruity that may ſeem to ariſe from the Matter whereof theſe Trumpets were compoſed: But then it is to be conſidered, that, as the firſt Inſtruments of this Kind were probably made of Horns, ſo has the Notion of the Impoſſibility of boring a Ram's-horn been ſufficiently confuted by our learned Spencer. The Truth is, every one knows, that in the Inſide of it, there is a ſofter Part, which may be drawn out by Art; after which it is hollow all the Way up, except four or five Inches towards the Top, Part of which is ſawed off, to make it broad enough for the Mouth, and then the reſt is eaſily bored. But whether there is any Foundation for that Fancy of the Jews, that theſe Horns were retained in the Proclamation of ſome of their greateſt Feſtivals, in Memory of Iſaac's being reſcued from his Father Abraham's Knife by the Subſtitution of a Ram in his Stead, is a Point that we leave to the Speculations of the Curious.

Whatever Materials theſe Trumpets were made of, it it is impoſſible to conceive that there ſhould be any Power in their Sound to demoliſh Cities; and tho' the Noiſe of a great Number of People might be very loud, yet ſtill it would require a Miracle in Joſhua to know, what the juſt Proportion was between their Noiſe, and the Strength of the Walls of Jericho, ſince the leaſt Deviation in this Reſpect would have defeated the whole Experiment.

What the Effect of Gunpowder, or of other ſulphurous Matter fir'd under Ground, or in the Bowels of the Earth, is, no one, that has ſeen the Springing of a Mine, or felt the Convulſions of an Earth-quake, needs be told; but that no Stratagem of this Kind could be employed in the Siege of Jericho, is manifeſt, becauſe the Invention of Gunpowder is a novel Thing, nor had the Iſraelites been long enough on the Weſtern Side of Jordan, to have undermined its Walls, even tho' they had the Secret of ſome inflammatory Stratum, to have lodged under them. On the contrary, the whole Proceſs of this Siege (if we may ſo call it) was managed at ſuch a Rate, as plainly diſcovered the Expectance of a Miracle to be wrought: For had not this been the Caſe, inſtead of ſauntring about the Walls for ſeven Days, they ſhould have been working in their Trenches, and carrying on their Approaches, as we now call it.

The Art of War was then but in its Infancy; and, as the Manner of undermining and blowing up the moſt ponderous Bodies was what the Antients were unacquainted with, ſo was the Battering-ram, an Invention of a later Date than ſome imagine. Pliny, indeed, ſeems to ſay, that Epeus firſt made uſe of it at the Siege of Troy; but, in all Probability, Ezekiel is the earlieſt Author that mentions this Machine, and perhaps the firſt Time that it was employed was under Nebuchadnezzar, at the Siege of Jeruſalem.

But there is no need to ranſack Hiſtory, for the Confutation of this Syſtem, which they, who propoſe it, do nevertheleſs acknowledge, that, tho' the Walls of Jericho might have fallen, without any extraordinary Act of the divine Power, yet, by the Circumſtances of the whole Account, it appears, that this Event was altogether miraculous. Nor ſhould Joſhua's denouncing an Anathema over the vanquiſhed City be thought a Thing unprecedented, or a Token of a furious implacable Spirit, ſince the like Practice has been obſerved by ſome of the greateſt Generals of other Nations; for as much as Agamemnon, after he had taken Troy, denounced a Curſe upon thoſe who ſhould, at any Time, attempt to rebuild it; the Romans publiſhed a Decree of Execration againſt them who ſhould do the like to Carthage; and when Craſſus had demoliſhed Sidon, (which had been a lurking Place to the Tyrant Glaucias) he wiſhed the greateſt Evils imaginable upon the Head of that Man, who ſhould ſo much as build a Wall about the Place where it once ſtood.

Curſed be the Man before the Lord, that raiſeth up and buildeth this City Jericho: He ſhall lay the Foundation thereof in his Firſt-born, and in his youngeſt Son ſhall he ſet up the Gates of it] 'This Anathema, (ſays Maimonides) was pronounced, that the Miracle of 'the Subverſion of Jericho might be kept in perpetual 'Memory, for whoſoever ſaw the Walls ſunk deep in 'the Earth (as he underſtands it) would clearly diſcern, that this was not the Form of a Building de'ſtroyed by Men, but miraculouſly thrown down by 'God.' Hiel however, in the Reign of Ahab, either not remembring, or not believing this Denunciation, was ſo taken with the Beauty of its Situation, that he rebuilt Jericho, and (as the ſacred Hiſtory informs us) laid the Foundation thereof in Abirom, his Firſt-born, and ſet up the Gates thereof in his youngeſt Son Segub, according to the Word of the Lord, which he ſpake by Joſhua the Son of Nun, 1 Kings xvi. 34. However, after that Hiel had ventured to rebuild it, no Scruple was made of inhabiting it; for it afterwards became famous upon many Accounts. Here the Prophet ſweetned the Waters of the Spring that ſupplied it, and the neighbouring Countries: Herod built a ſumptuous Palace: It was the Dwelling-Place of Zaccheus; and was honoured with the Preſence of Chriſt, who vouchſafed likewiſe to work ſome Miracles here. CHAP. VII.

Achan takes of the accurſed Thing; for which God is angry with Iſrael, and ſuffers them to be defeated before Ai; their Aſtoniſhment thereupon. Achan taken, he confeſſes his Crime and is executed.

Ver. 1. BUT the children of Iſrael committed a treſpaſs in the accurſed thing: for Achan the ſon of Carmi, the ſon of Zabdi, the ſon of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accurſed thing: and the anger of the Lord was kindled againſt the children of Iſrael. 2 And Joſhua ſent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beſide Beth-aven, on the eaſt-ſide of Beth-el, and ſpake unto them, ſaying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai. 3 And they returned to Joſhua, and ſaid unto him, Let not all the people go up, but let about two or three thouſand men go up and ſmite Ai, and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few. 4 So there went up thither of the people about three thouſand men, and they fled before the men of Ai. 5 And the men of Ai ſmote of them about thirty and ſix men: for they chaſed them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and ſmote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted and became as water. 6 And Joſhua rent his cloaths, and fell to the earth upon his face, before the ark of the Lord, until the even-tide, he and the elders of Iſrael, and put duſt upon their heads. 7 And Joſhua ſaid, Alas, O Lord God, wherefore haſt thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to deſtroy us? Would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other ſide Jordan. 8 O Lord, what ſhall I ſay, when Iſrael turneth their backs before their enemies! 9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land ſhall hear of it, and ſhall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name? 10 And the Lord ſaid unto Joſhua, Get thee up, wherefore lieſt thou thus upon thy face? 11 Iſrael hath ſinned, and they have alſo tranſgreſſed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accurſed thing, and have alſo ſtolen, and diſſembled alſo, and they have put it even amongſt their own ſtuff. 12 Therefore the children of Iſrael could not ſtand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, becauſe they were accurſed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye deſtroy the accurſed from amongſt you. 13 Up, ſanctify the people, and ſay, Sanctify your ſelves againſt to morrow, for thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, There is an accurſed thing in the midſt of thee, O Iſrael: thou canſt not ſtand before thine enemies, until you take away the accurſed thing from among you. 14 In the morning therefore ye ſhall be brought according to your tribes: and it ſhall be that the tribe which the Lord taketh, ſhall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the Lord ſhall take, ſhall come by houſholds; and the houſhold which the Lord ſhall take, ſhall come come man by man. 15 And it ſhall be, that he that is taken with the accurſed thing, ſhall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: becauſe he hath tranſgreſſed the covenant of the Lord, and becauſe he hath wrought folly in Iſrael. 16 So Joſhua roſe up early in the morning, and brought Iſrael by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: 17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken: 18 And he brought his houſhold man by man; and Achan, the ſon of Carmi, the ſon of Zabdi, the ſon of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah was taken. 19 And Joſhua ſaid unto Achan, My ſon, give, I pray thee, glory to the Lord God of Iſrael, and make confeſſion unto him; and tell me now what thou haſt done, hide it not from me. 20 And Achan anſwered Joſhua, and ſaid, Indeed I have ſinned againſt the Lord God of Iſrael, and thus and thus have I done. 21 When I ſaw among the ſpoils a goodly Babyloniſh garment, and two hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and a wedge of gold of fifty ſhekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them, and behold, they are hid in the earth in the midſt of my tent, and the ſilver under it. 22 So Joſhua ſent meſſengers, and they ran unto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the ſilver under it. 23 And they took them out of the midſt of the tent, and brought them unto Joſhua, and unto all the children of Iſrael, and laid them out before the Lord. 24 And Joſhua and all Iſrael with him, took Achan the ſon of Zerah, and the ſilver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his ſons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his aſſes, and his ſheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor. 25 And Joſhua ſaid, Why haſt thou troubled us? the Lord ſhall trouble thee this day. And all Iſrael ſtoned him with ſtones, and burned them with fire after they had ſtoned them with ſtones. 26 And they raiſed over him a great heap of ſtones unto this day: So the Lord turned from the fierceneſs of his anger: wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor, unto this day.

And the Anger of the Lord was kindled againſt the Children of Iſrael] Yet Achan was only in the Tranſgreſſion, why then ſhould the Lord be angry with all the People? — All of them were puniſhed for their own Sins, whereof each had a ſufficient Proportion; but God took this Occaſion to inflict the Puniſhment upon the whole Society; partly, becauſe divers of them might be guilty of this Sin, either by coveting what he actually did, or by concealing of his Fault, which, as is probable, could not be unknown to others; or by not ſorrowing for it, and endeavouring to purge themſelves from it; partly, to make Sin the more hateful, by being the Cauſe of ſuch dreadful and publick Judgments; and, partly, to oblige all the Members of every Society to be more circumſpect in the ordering of their own Actions, and more diligent to watch over one another, and prevent the Miſcarriages of their Brethren; which is a great Bleſſing to them, and to the whole Society, and worthy to be purchaſed by a ſharp Affliction upon the whole Body.

And Joſhua ſent Men from Jericho to Ai] We have this Place mentioned in the Hiſtory of Abraham, who, both before and after his going into Egypt, pitched his Tent between Bethel and Ai, or Hai, as it was then called; and, from both Gen. xii. 8. and Joſh. vii. 2. it appears, that this City lay to the Eaſt of Bethel, about three Leagues from Jericho, and one from Bethel, as Maſius informs us; and the Reaſon why Joſhua ſent ſo ſmall a Detachment againſt it was, becauſe the Place in itſelf was neither ſtrong nor large. For, when it was taken, the Number of the Slain both in it, and Bethel, which, as ſome think, was confederate with it, were but twelve thouſand, both of Men and Women, Joſh. viii. 25. The Providence of God, however, was very viſible in ſending ſo ſmall a Party againſt Ai: For, if the Flight of three thouſand Men put the Iſraelites into ſuch a Conſternation, as we read here, Ver. 5, 6. what a Condition would they have been in, if all the People had been diſcomfited, as doubtleſs it would have happened, while the Guilt of Achan's Sacrilege remained unpuniſhed? See Well's Geogr.

When I ſaw among the Spoils a goodly Babyloniſh Garment] In the Original, this Robe is called a Garment of Shinar, i. e. of Babylon; and the general Opinion is, that the Richneſs and Excellency of it conſiſted not ſo much in the Stuff whereof it was made, as in the Colour whereof it was dyed, which moſt ſuppoſe to have been Scarlet, a Colour in high Eſteem among the Antients, and for which the Babylonians were juſtly famous. Bochart, however, maintains, that the Colour of this Robe was various, and not all of one Sort; that the Scarlet Colour the Babylonians firſt received from Tyre, but the Party-colour, whether ſo woven, or wrought with the Needle, was of their own Invention, for which he produces many Paſſages out of Heathen Authors. However this be, 'tis certain, that the Robe could not fail of being a very rich and ſplendid one, and therefore captivated either Achan's Pride, or rather Covetouſneſs; ſince his Purpoſe ſeems to have been, not ſo much to wear it himſelf, as to ſell it for a large Price. See Bochart's Phaleg. L. 1. C. 9. and Saurin, L. 3. Diſſ. 3.

And all Iſrael ſtoned him with Stones, and burnt them with Fire, after they had ſtoned them with Stones] Since the Law againſt Sacrilege condemns Tranſgreſſors to the Flames, and God commanded the Perſon here guilty to be burnt accordingly; and, whereas it is ſaid in the Text, that he was ſtoned, they think that this was done, not judicially, but accidentally by the People, who were ſo highly provoked, that they could not forbear caſting Stones at him, as he was led to Execution.

But was it not cruel and unjuſt to involve Achan's Children in their Father's Puniſhment? It is a Law of God's own enacting, that the Fathers ſhall not be put to Death for their Children, neither ſhall the Children be put to Death for the Fathers, but every Man ſhall be put to Death for his own Sin: But then we are to conſider, that this Law was given to Man, and not to God, who had certainly more abſolute Right and Sovereignty over Men, than one Man has over another. Upon the Suppoſition then, that Achan's Family were not acceſſary to their Father's Crime, yet God, who gave them Life, had undoubtedly a full Power to take it away, at what Time, and in what Manner he thought fit; and if, in Caſes of High-treaſon among Men, it is thought reaſonable to devolve ſome Part of the Parents Penalty upon the Children, there is this farther Argument why Achan's Family ſhould be made to ſuffer with him, becauſe God could not expreſs his Severity againſt Sin, or take their Lives away at a more convenient Opportunity, than in the Beginning of a new Empire, and when each Man's Right and Property was going to be ſetled; that ſuch a dreadful Example of his Indignation againſt Stealth, might deter others, if not for their own, at leaſt for their dear Children's Sake, to abſtain from ſuch dangerous and pernicious Practices: The Jews have a Maxim, that he, who is an Accomplice in any Crime, is as culpable as the Perſon who commits it; and therefore, if we ſuppoſe that Achan's Family was privy to what their Father had done, and did conceal it, there could be no Injuſtice in including them in the Puniſhment. It may be pretended perhaps, that ſome of them were Infants, and ſo muſt be deemed Innocent; but the Text ſays nothing of this;

this; it only calls them Sons and Daughters, and, conſidering that Achan, in all Probability, was an old Man, as being the fifth Deſcendant from Judah, it ſeems moſt likely, that his Children were grown up, and ſo capable of knowing, and of either concealing or diſcovering the Fact.

But, after all, there is no Occaſion for our running ourſelves into any Difficulties. The Text does not ſay, neither is it any ways implied, that Achan's Sons and Daughters were executed with him. In the Sentence denounced againſt him, we find no Mention made of them, and why then ſhould we ſuppoſe, that they were Partakers in his Puniſhment, any other ways than as they were brought out to be Spectators of it? And a piercing Sight no doubt it was, for Perſons, ſo nearly related, to behold the ſad Fate of their Chief, firſt ſtoned to Death, and then with all his Goods and Chattels, as well as the accurſed Things, for which he was condemned, and committed to the Flames. His Oxen, and Aſſes, and Sheep, are here taken Notice of, to let us ſee, that Achan was a wealthy Man, and therefore inexcuſable in committing this Fact: And, tho' they were not capable of Sin, nor conſequently of Puniſhment, properly ſo called; yet, as they were made for Man's Uſe, they might fairly die for his Inſtruction; viz. to convince him of the ſad and contagious Nature of Sin, which even involves innocent Creatures in its Plagues; and emblematically to ſhew him, how much ſorer Puniſhments were reſerved for Man, who, having a Law given for the Conduct of his Life, and the Gifts of Reaſon and Will to reſtrain him from the Tranſgreſſion of it, will adventure upon Things forbidden, and thereby contract greater Guilt, and draw upon himſelf ſeverer Expreſſions of the divine Wrath.

Joſhua being encouraged, renews his Attempt upon Ai, which he takes by Stratagem, makes the King Priſoner, deſtroys the Inhabitants, the Plunder given to the Soldiers, and the King hanged. Joſhua *builds an Altar, and writes the Law upon Stones. Ver. 1. AND the Lord ſaid unto Joſhua, Fear not, neither be thou diſmayed: take all the people of war with thee, and ariſe, go up to Ai: ſee, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land. 2 And thou ſhalt do to Ai and her king, as thou didſt unto Jericho and her king: only the ſpoil thereof, and the cattle thereof ſhall ye take for a prey unto your ſelves: lay thee an ambuſh for the city behind it. 3 So Joſhua aroſe and all the people of war, to go up againſt Ai: and Joſhua choſe out thirty thouſand mighty men of valour, and ſent them away by night. 4 And he commanded them, ſaying, Behold, ye ſhall lie in wait againſt the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready: 5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: And it ſhall come to paſs when they come out againſt us, as at the firſt, that we will flee before them. 6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will ſay, They flee before us, as at the firſt: therefore we will flee before them. 7 Then ye ſhall riſe up from the ambuſh, and ſeize upon the city: for the Lord your God will deliver it into your hand. 8 And it ſhall be when ye have taken the city, that ye ſhall ſet the city on fire: according to the commandment of the Lord ſhall ye do, See, I have commanded you. 9 Joſhua therefore ſent them forth; and they went to lie in ambuſh, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the weſt-ſide of Ai: but Joſhua lodged that night among the people. 10 And Joſhua roſe up early in the morning and numbred the people, and went up, he and the elders of Iſrael, before the people to Ai. 11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north-ſide of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai. 12 And he took above five thouſand men, and ſet them to lie in ambuſh between Beth-el and Ai, on the weſt-ſide of the city. 13 And when they had ſet the people, even all the hoſt that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the weſt of the city: Joſhua went that night into the midſt of the valley. 14 And it came to paſs when the king of Ai ſaw it, that they haſted and roſe up early, and the men of the city went out againſt Iſrael to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he wiſt not that there were liers in ambuſh againſt him, behind the city. 15 And Joſhua and all Iſrael made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderneſs. 16 And all the people that were in Ai, were called together to purſue after them: and they purſued after Joſhua, and were drawn away from the city. 17 And there was not a man left in Ai, or Beth-el, that went not out after Iſrael: and they left the city open, and purſued after Iſrael. 18 And the Lord ſaid unto Joſhua, Stretch out the ſpear that is in thy hand, toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joſhua ſtretched out the ſpear that he had in his hand, toward the city. 19 And the ambuſh aroſe quickly out of their place, and they ran as ſoon as he had ſtretched out his hand: and they entred into the city and took it, and haſted, and ſet the city on fire. 20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they ſaw, and behold, the ſmoke of the city aſcended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderneſs turned back upon the purſuers. 21 And when Joſhua, and all Iſrael ſaw that the ambuſh had taken the city, and that the ſmoke of the city aſcended, then they turned again, and ſlew the men of Ai. 22 And the other iſſued out of the city againſt them, ſo they were in the midſt of Iſrael, ſome on this ſide, and ſome on that ſide: and they ſmote them, ſo that they let none of them remain, or eſcape. 23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joſhua. 24 And it came to paſs, when Iſrael had made an end of ſlaying all the inhabitants of Ai, in the field, in the wilderneſs wherein they chaſed them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the ſword, until they were conſumed, that all the Iſraelites returned unto Ai, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword. 25 And ſo it was that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thouſand, even all the men of Ai. 26 For Joſhua drew not his hand back wherewith he ſtretched out the ſpear, until he had utterly deſtroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. 27 Only the cattle and the ſpoil of that city, Iſrael took for a prey unto themſelves, according unto the word of the Lord, which he commanded Joſhua. 28 And Joſhua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a deſolation unto this day. 29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until even-tide: and as ſoon as the ſun was down, Joſhua commanded that they ſhould take his carcaſe down from the tree, and caſt it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raiſe thereon a great heap of ſtones that remaineth unto this day. 30 Then Joſhua built an altar unto the Lord God of Iſrael, in mount Ebal. 31 As Moſes the ſervant of the Lord commanded the children of Iſrael, as it is written in the book of the law of Moſes, an altar of whole ſtones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt-offerings unto the Lord, and ſacrificed peace-offerings. 32 And he wrote there upon the ſtones a copy of the law of Moſes, which he wrote in the preſence of the children of Iſrael. 33 And all Iſrael, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, ſtood on this ſide the ark, and on that ſide, before the prieſts the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, as well the ſtranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over againſt mount Gerizzim, and half of them over againſt mount Ebal: as Moſes the ſervant of the Lord had commanded before, that they ſhould bleſs the people of Iſrael. 34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the bleſſings and curſings, according to all that is written in the book of the law. 35 There was not a word of all that Moſes commanded, which Joſhua read not before all the congregation of Iſrael, with the women, and the little ones, and the ſtrangers that were converſant among them.

And Joſhua choſe out thirty thouſand mighty Men of Valour, and ſent them away by Night] Some are of opinion, ſays Patrick, that this Detachment of 30,000 made up the whole Force that was employed in this Expedition againſt Ai; and that, out of theſe five thouſand were ſent to lie in Ambuſh, that, at a convenient time, they might ſet fire to the City: But this is ſo directly contrary to God's Command of Joſhua's taking all the People of War with him, which accordingly, Chap. 8. 3, 11. we are told he did, that there is no Foundation for it. And therefore it is reaſonable to ſuppoſe, that the whole Body, deſigned for the Ambuſcade, conſiſted of 30,000 Men, and that the 5000 mentioned Ver. 12. was a ſmall Party, detached from theſe, in order to creep cloſer to the City, while the 25,000 kept themſelves abſconded behind the Mountains, until a proper Signal was given, both from the City, when this ſmall Party had taken it, and from the grand Army, when they had repulſed the Enemy, that then they might come out from their Ambuſh and intercept them as they were making their Flight.

And he wrote there upon the Stones a Copy of the Law of Moſes] It is a Queſtion among the Learned, ſays Patrick, what it was that was written upon the Stones? (beſides other Conjectures already enumerated, ſee Note on Deut. xxvii. 8.) ſome think it not unlikely to have been a Copy of the Covenant, by which the Children of Iſrael acknowledged, that they held the Land of Canaan of God, upon Condition, that they obſerved his Laws, to which they and their Poſterity had obliged themſelves; for this was the third Time, that the Covenant between God and his People was renewed, and therefore the Contents of that Covenant might be very proper, at this Time, to be thus monumentally recorded.

CHAP. IX.

The Kings of Canaan, hearing of Joſhua's Exploits, confederate againſt him. The Gibeonites Stratagem to ſave themſelves; the Deceit diſcovered, but the Articles are confirmed on the Part of Iſrael; but for a Puniſhment are condemned to perpetual Slavery.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs, when all the kings which were on this ſide Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coaſts of the great ſea over againſt Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebuſite, heard thereof; 2 That they gathered themſelves together to fight with Joſhua, and with Iſrael, with one accord. 3 And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joſhua had done unto Jericho, and to Ai, 4 They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had been embaſſadors, and took old ſacks upon their aſſes, and wine-bottles, old and rent, and bound up, 5 And old ſhoes and clowted upon their feet, and old garments upon them, and all the bread of their proviſion was dry and mouldy. 6 And they went to Joſhua unto the camp at Gilgal, and ſaid unto him, and to the men of Iſrael, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ye a league with us. 7 And the men of Iſrael ſaid unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us, and how ſhall we make a league with you? 8 And they ſaid unto Joſhua, We are thy ſervants. And Joſhua ſaid unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye? 9 And they ſaid unto him, From a very far country thy ſervants are come, becauſe of the name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt. 10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Shion king of Heſhbon, and to Og king of Baſhan, which was at Aſhtaroth. 11 Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country, ſpake to us, ſaying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and ſay unto them, We are your ſervants: therefore now make ye a league with us. 12 This our bread we took hot for our proviſion out of our houſes on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy: 13 And theſe bottles of wine which we filled, were new, and behold, they be rent: and theſe our garments, and our ſhoes are become old, by reaſon of the very long journey. 14 And the men took of their victuals, and aſked not counſel at the mouth of the Lord. 15 And Joſhua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation ſware unto them. 16 And it came to paſs at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. 17 And the children of Iſrael journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day: now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim. 18 And the children of Iſrael ſmote them not, becauſe the princes of the congregation had ſworn unto them by the Lord God of Iſrael: and all the congregation murmured againſt the princes. 19 But all the princes ſaid unto all the congregation, We have ſworn unto them by the Lord God of Iſrael: now therefore we may not touch them. 20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, leſt wrath be upon us, becauſe of the the oath which we ſware unto them. 21 And the princes ſaid unto them, Let them live, (but let them be hewers of wood, and drawers of water unto all the congregation) as the princes had promiſed them. 22 And Joſhua called for them, and he ſpake unto them, ſaying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, ſaying, We are very far from you? when ye dwell among us? 23 Now therefore ye are curſed, and there ſhalt none of you be freed from being bond-men, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the houſe of my God. 24 And they anſwered Joſhua, and ſaid, Behold it was certainly told thy ſervants, how that the Lord thy God commanded his ſervant Moſes to give you all the land, and to deſtroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were ſore afraid of our lives becauſe of you, and have done this thing. 25 And now behold, we are in thine hand: as it ſeemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do. 26 And ſo did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Iſrael, that they ſlew them not. 27 And Joſhua made them that day hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the Lord, even unto this day, in the place which he ſhould chooſe.

It is a Queſtion among the Caſuiſts, whether the Gibeonites could, with a good Conſcience, pretend that they were Foreigners, and tell a Lie to ſave their Lives? And to this Puffendorf thus replies. 'The Artifice of 'the Gibeonites, ſays he, had nothing blameable in it, 'nor does it deſerve the Name of a Lie: For, what 'Crime is there in making Uſe of an innocent Fiction 'in order to elude the Fury of an Enemy, that would 'deſtroy all before them? Nor did the Iſraelites in-'deed properly receive any Damage from this Impo-'ſture: For what does any one loſe, in not ſhedding 'the Blood of another, when he has it in his Power 'to take from him all his Subſtance, after having ſo 'weakened and diſarmed him, that he is no more able 'to rebel againſt him?' But the Opinion of this great Man ſeems to be a little erroneous in this Caſe. Had the Iſraelites indeed been a Pack of common Murtherers, who, without any Commiſſion from Heaven, were carrying Blood and Deſolation into Countries where they had no Right; or had the Gibeonites been ignorant, that a miraculous Providence conducted theſe Conquerors; the Fraud which they here put upon them, might then be deemed innocent: For there is no Law that obliges us, under the Pretence of Sincerity, to ſubmit to ſuch Incendiaries, and mercileſs Uſurpers, as are for ſetting Fire to our Cities, and putting us and our Families to the Edge of the Sword. But the Caſe of the Gibeonites was particular; and if, in other Things, they went contrary to Truth, in this they certainly adhered to it, when they told Joſhua, We are come, becauſe of the Name of the Lord thy God, for we have heard of the Fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt, and all that he did to the two Kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, &c. Ver. 9, 10. The Idea which they had conceived of the God of Iſrael, ſhould have put them upon ſome other Expedient, than that of Lying and Deceit. They ſhould have enquired (as far as the obſcure Diſpenſation they were under would have permitted them) into the Cauſe of God's Severity againſt them. They ſhould have acknowledged, that it was their grievous Sins which drew down this heavy Judgment upon their Nation; and, after they had repented thereof in Sackloth and Aſhes, they ſhould have committed the reſt to Providence, never doubting, but that he, who had changed the very Courſe of Nature to puniſh the Guilty, would always find out ſome Means or other, to ſave the Penitent: But this they did not do, and therefore were culpable. See Saurin, Vol. iii. Diſſ. 4.

And theſe Bottles of Wine which we filled, were new, and behold, they are rent] Theſe Bottles were not of Glaſs, or Clay, as thoſe among us, but were made of Leather, or Skins, in which they formerly (and even now, in ſome Countries) kept their Wine.

But all the Princes ſaid unto all the Congregation, We have ſworn unto them by the Lord God of Iſrael; now therefore we may not touch them] 'Tis reaſonable to imagine, ſays Stackhouſe, that, after the Fraud of the Gibeonites was diſcovered, the Princes of Iſrael might reflect upon their Neglect, in not conſulting the Divine Oracle before; and, as the Peace, which they had entered into, was plainly repugnant to God's Command of exterminating all the Canaanites, the Queſtion was, What they ſhould do in this Caſe? Whether abide by the Treaty, and ſo poſtpone the Command; or execute the Command, and ſo diſannul the Treaty? The whole Streſs of the Queſtion turns upon this:— Whether God commanded the Iſraelites to deſtroy all the People of Canaan abſolutely, and without Exception; or whether he allowed them to ſpare ſuch as voluntarily ſubmitted themſelves, and came to implore their Pity and Protection? The Words of the Injunction in this Caſe are full, and expreſs enough; Deut. xx. 10, &c. When thou goeſt nigh unto a City to fight againſt it, then proclaim Peace unto it, &c. But here ſome great Writers have obſerved, that this utter Extinction of the Canaaniti∫h Nations, conſidering the Reaſons that are given for it, both here and elſewhere, is to be looked upon as a Permiſſion, rather than a poſitive Command, and ſhould at leaſt be underſtood with this Limitation; unleſs they immediately ſubmitted, renounced their Idolatry, and did every Thing that was enjoined them. And to this Purpoſe the Jews have a Tradition, that Joſhua, before he declared War againſt the ſeven Nations, wrote Letters to them, wherein he offered them three Conditions. — That, if they were minded to depart, they ſhould quit the Country immediately; if they were deſirous to make Peace, they ſhould come and treat with the Iſraelites; but that, if they intended to fight it out, they might betake themſelves to their Arms: And they farther add, that the firſt of theſe Conditions the Girgaſhites embraced, and fled into Egypt; the ſecond the Gibeonites accepted, and made a League with Joſhua; and the third the Confederates made their Choice, when they took up Arms againſt the Iſraelites, and were all defeated.

But this is no more than a bare Hypotheſis, invented on Purpoſe to ſolve the Difficulty, and ſeems not to have near ſo good a Foundation, as that, which ſuppoſes, that the Princes of Iſrael, remembring their former Omiſſion, and their Inſecurity in acting upon their own Bottom, might, in this Perplexity, have Recourſe to God for Advice, and that his Anſwer might be, that the League ſhould be ratified. Of this indeed we have no expreſs Mention in Scripture; but in ſo ſhort a Hiſtory of ſuch a Variety of Tranſactions as that of Joſhua is, we may well imagine, that ſeveral Tranſactions are omitted. For, that ſome ſuch Ratification of this Treaty was determined by God, we have great Preſumption to believe from the ſevere Puniſhment which he afterwards inflicted upon the Iſraelites, and the Poſterity of Saul for his having ſlain ſome of the Deſcendants of theſe Gibeonites (not improbably at the Sacking of the Town of Nob.) For, tho' this Action of Saul's was cruel and inhuman, becauſe the Decree for the Extirpation of the Canaanites was now extinct; yet, what made it more heinous and provoking to God, was, the Infraction of the Treaty, which had ſubſiſted about four Ages, and which coſt the Lives of ſeven of that Prince's Sons, and Grandſons to atone.

The Heathens, it muſt be owned, had no ſmall Reſpect and Veneration for Oaths: Whenever they took one it was in the moſt ſolemn and religious Manner. They looked upon the Gods as Inſpectors, and Witneſſes of what they ſaid, more eſpecially at ſuch a Time as this. The

They believed that the Furies were appointed to be Avengers of all Perjury; and that, as Diſgrace attend-d it in this World, ſo Deſtruction would purſue it in he next. And, as this was the general Notion of noſt heathen Nations, ſo the Gibeonites, who had hi-herto conceived a good Opinion of the God of Iſrael, would have been ſtrangely ſcandalized, had they found is People prevaricating with their Oaths, even tho' hey were made upon a falſe Suppoſition. For fear herefore, leſt any Diſhonour ſhould fall ultimately upon hat Divine Majeſty, whoſe Servants they were, the Princes of the Congregation unanimouſly agree, (and here ſeems to be ſomething of a divine Inſpiration in his their Unanimity) and declare it as their joint Opi-ion, We have ſworn unto them by the Lord God of Iſ-ael, and therefore, without breaking our Oath, or for-eiting his Favour, we may not touch them.

CHAP. X.

Five of the Canaanitiſh Kings confederate againſt the Gibeonites; are defeated, and hide themſelves in a Cave. The Storm of Hail-Stones. The Sun, at Joſhua's Command, ſtands ſtill; ſeveral Places taken, and Joſhua returns with his Army to Gilgal.

ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs when Adoni-zedek king of Jeruſalem had heard ow Joſhua had taken Ai, and utterly deſtroyed (as he had done to Jericho and her king, ſo e had done to Ai and her king) and how the habitants of Gibeon had made peace with Iſrael nd were among them; 2 That they feared reatly, becauſe Gibeon was a great city, as one f the royal cities, and becauſe it was greater en Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty. Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jeruſalem, nt unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto iram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king f Lachiſh, and unto Debir king of Eglon, ying, 4 Come up unto me, and help me, that e may ſmite Gibeon: for it hath made peace ith Joſhua, and with the children of Iſrael. 5 herefore the five kings of the Amorites, the ng of Jeruſalem, the king of Hebron, the king f Jarmuth, the king of Lachiſh, the king of glon gathered themſelves together, and went p, they and all their hoſts, and encamped before ibeon, and made war againſt it. 6 And the en of Gibeon ſent unto Joſhua, to the camp to ilgal, ſaying, Slack not thy hand from thy rvants; come up to us quickly, and ſave us, d help us: for all the kings of the Amorites at dwell in the mountains are gathered together ainſt us. 7 So Joſhua aſcended from Gilgal, and all the people of war with him, and all e mighty men of valour. 8 And the Lord ſaid nto Joſhua, Fear them not: for I have delivered em into thine hand; there ſhall not a man them ſtand before thee. 9 Joſhua therefore me unto them ſuddenly, and went up from ilgal all night. 10 And the Lord diſcomfited em before Iſrael, and ſlew them with a great ughter at Gibeon, and chaſed them along the ay that goeth up to Beth-horon, and ſmote em to Azekah, and unto Makkedah. 11 And came to paſs as they fled from before Iſrael, d were in the going down to Beth horon, that e Lord caſt down great ſtones from heaven upon em unto Azekah, and they died: they were more hich died with hail-ſtones, then they whom the ildren of Iſrael ſlew with the ſword. 12 Then ſpake Joſhua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Iſrael, and he ſaid in the ſight of Iſrael, Sun, ſtand thou ſtill upon Gibeon, and thou moon, in the valley of Ajalon. 13 And the ſun ſtood ſtill, and the moon ſtayed, until the people had avenged themſelves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jaſher? ſo the ſun ſtood ſtill in the midſt of heaven, and haſted not to go down about a whole day. 14 And there was no day like that, before it or after it, that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Iſrael. 15 And Joſhua returned, and all Iſrael with him, unto the camp to Gilgal. 16 But theſe five kings fled, and hid themſelves in a cave at Makkedah. 17 And it was told Joſhua, ſaying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah. 18 And Joſhua ſaid, Roll great ſtones upon the mouth of the cave, and ſet men by it for to keep them: 19 And ſtay you not, but purſue after your enemies, and ſmite the hindmoſt of them, ſuffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hath delivered them into your hand. 20 And it came to paſs when Joſhua and the children of Iſrael had made an end of ſlaying them with a very great ſlaughter till they were conſumed, that the reſt which remained of them, entered into fenced cities. 21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joſhua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue againſt any of the children of Iſrael. 22 Then ſaid Joſhua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out thoſe five kings unto me out of the cave. 23 And they did ſo, and brought forth thoſe five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jeruſalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachiſh, and the king of Eglon. 24 And it came to paſs when they brought out thoſe kings unto Joſhua, that Joſhua called for all the men of Iſrael, and ſaid unto the captains of the men of war, which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of theſe kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. 25 And Joſhua ſaid unto them, Fear not nor be diſmayed, be ſtrong and of good courage: for thus ſhall the Lord do to all your enemies againſt whom ye fight. 26 And afterward Joſhua ſmote them, and ſlew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. 27 And it came to paſs at the time of the going down of the ſun, that Joſhua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and caſt them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great ſtones in the caves mouth which remain until this very day. 28 And that day Joſhua took Makkedah, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and the king thereof he utterly deſtroyed, them and all their ſouls that were therein, he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah, as he did unto the king of Jericho. 29 Then Joſhua paſſed from Makkedah, and all Iſrael with him, unto Libnah, and fought againſt Libnah. 30 And the Lord delivered it alſo, and the king thereof, into the hand of Iſrael, and he ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and all the ſouls that were therein: he let none remain in it, but did unto the king thereof, as he did unto the king of Jericho. 31 And Joſhua paſſed from Libnah, and all Iſrael with him unto Lachiſh, and encamped againſt it, and fought againſt it. 32 And the Lord delivered Lachiſh intó the hand of Iſrael, which took it on the ſecond day, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and all the ſouls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah. 33 Then Horam king of Gezer, came up to help Lachiſh; and Joſhua ſmote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining. 34 And from Lachiſh Joſhua paſſed unto Eglon, and all Iſrael with him, and they encamped againſt it, and fought againſt it. 35 And they took it on that day, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and all the ſouls that were therein he utterly deſtroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachiſh. 36 And Joſhua went up from Eglon, and all Iſrael with him, unto Hebron, and they fought againſt it. 37 And they took it, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the ſouls that were therein: he left none remaining (according to all that he had done to Eglon) but deſtroyed it utterly, and all the ſouls that were therein. 38 And Joſhua returned, and all Iſrael with him to Debir, and fought againſt it. 39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and they ſmote him with the edge of the ſword, and utterly deſtroyed all the ſouls that were therein, he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, ſo he did to Debir, and to the king thereof, as he had done alſo to Libnah, and to her king. 40 So Joſhua ſmote all the country of the hills, and of the ſouth, and of the vale, and of the ſprings, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly deſtroyed all that breathed, as the Lord God of Iſrael commanded. 41 And Joſhua ſmote them from Kadeſh-barnea, even Gaza, and all the country of Goſhen, even unto Gibeon. 42 And all theſe kings, and their land did Joſhua take at one time: becauſe the Lord God of Iſrael fought for Iſrael. 43 And Joſhua returned, and all Iſrael with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

The Lord caſt down great Stones from Heaven upon them] The learned Calmet (as Stackhouſe obſerves) in a Diſſertation prefixed to his Commentary upon Joſhua, has taken a great deal of Pains to ſhew, that the Stones, which the Lord is ſaid to have caſt upon the Amorites, were not ordinary Hail-Stones, (ſince it would be incongruous, as he thinks, to intereſt God in ſo common an Occurrence) but real ſolid Stones, which he ſuppoſes might have been engendered in the Air by a Whirlwind carrying up Sand or Gravel into a Cloud, and there mixing it with ſome ſuch oily or nitro-ſulphureous Matter, as might conſolidate, and form it into a combuſtible Body; that ſo, when, by frequent Agitation, it came to be fired, it might burſt through the Cloud, and, ſcattering itſelf upon the Exploſion, might fall down upon the Earth in the Nature of a perfect Shower of Stones.

That great Quantities of Stones have, in this Manner, been diſcharged from the Clouds, is evident from ſeveral Hiſtories. Diodorus Siculus informs us, that, as the Perſian Army was on their March to plunder the Temple of Delphos, Thunder and Lightning, and a violent Storm of Stones fell in their Camp, and deſtroyed a great Number of Men. In the Reign of Tullus Hoſtilius, when News was brought to the Government, that it had rained Stones upon Mount Alba, thoſe who were ſent to enquire into the Matter, brought Word, not only that the Fact was true, but that theſe Stones had fallen from the Skies with an Impetuoſity equal to the moſt violent Storm of Hail. Not long after the Battle at Cannæ, the ſame Author aſſures us, that a Storm of the ſame Kind fell on the ſame Mountain, which laſted for two whole Days; and Events of this Nature, atteſted by the ſame Authors, have been ſo frequent at Rome, at Capua, at Livinium, and ſeveral other Places in Italy, that a Man muſt be deſtitute of all Modeſty, who pretends to deny them abſolutely.

Nay, not only great Quantities of ſmaller Stones, but ſometimes Stones of a prodigious Size have been known to fall from the Clouds, whereof this learned Author, among many others, gives us ſeveral Inſtances, both of antient and modern Date. But then it is juſtly to be queſtion'd, whether theſe Authors have not ſuffer'd themſelves to be impos'd upon by the too confident Narrations of others. We may ſuppoſe indeed, that Whirlwinds or Hurricanes may raiſe the Sand or Gravel, and carry it on high, or ſome ſudden Irruptions of ſubterraneous Fire may diſcharge great Quantities of Cinders or Aſhes into the Air, where, meeting with ſome Exhalations of a ſulphureous, oily, or nitrous Quality, they may, by the Preſſure of the Clouds, be condens'd, or harden'd into a ſtony Subſtance; yet, how any Cloud ſhould be able to ſupport ſuch a Quantity of ſmaller Stones, much more of vaſt maſſy ones, as would be neceſſary to deſtroy the Army of the five confederate Kings, and to continue falling down upon them from Beth-horon to Azekah, Places which lay in different Tribes, and can hardly be ſuppos'd leſs than twelve or fourteen Miles diſtant (to ſay nothing of the many Apertures in the Earth, which muſt have been ſeen afterwards in theſe Parts, upon Suppoſition that the Thing was effected by Volcano's) is a Matter not altogether ſo credible.

The Truth is, there is no Reaſon for carrying this Miracle ſo high, ſince a Shower of Hail-ſtones will not only do the Work every whit as well, but ſeems to be the genuine Import of Joſhua's Words; who, having acquainted us, that the Lord caſt down great Stones upon the Amorites, adds, by way of Explication, that they were more that died by the Hail-Stones, than by the Sword; where it is reaſonable to ſuppoſe, that had there been great Stones, as well as Hail, the Death of the greater Number of thoſe that periſhed, would not have been attributed to the Hail only.

It is ſome Confirmation of this Expoſition, that we find the Septuagint, in both Places of the Text, tranſlating it Lithous Chalazes, which Joſephus calls a violent Tempeſt of Hail-Stones of a prodigious Size; and the Author of Eccleſiaſticus thus recounts the whole Matter; with Hail-Stones of a mighty Power, he made the Battle to fall violently upon the Nations, and, in the Deſcent of Beth-horon, he deſtroy'd them that reſiſted, Ch. xlvi. 6.

The Prophet Ezekiel, in his Predictions againſt Gog, introduces God as threatning, that he would plead againſt him with Peſtilence, and with Blood, with an overflowing Rain, and great Hail-Stones, Fire and Brimſtone, Ch. xxxviii. 22. And, in another Place, ſpeaking of falſe Prophets, who ſeduced his People into an Opinion of their Security, as if they had been fortified within a Wall, he purſues the Metaphor, and tells thoſe who daubed it with untempered Mortar, that it ſhould fall, for there ſhall be an overflowing Shower, ſays he, and ye, O great Hail-Stones, ſhall fall, and a ſtormy Wind ſhall rent it, Ezek. xiii. 11. So that from theſe, and ſeveral other Paſſages of the like Nature, we may learn, that, in executing his Judgments upon the Face of the Earth, Hail-Stones are very frequently Arrows in the Hands of the Almighty: And of what Force they are ſo to do Execution, we are advertized in what befel the Egyptians, when (as the Hiſtory has related it) the Lord ſent Thunder and Hail, and the Fire ran along upon the Ground, &c. Exod. ix. 23, &c. Nor are there Examples of a later Date wanting (eſpecially in our Philoſophical Tranſactions) of the vaſt Havock and Deſtruction, that Hail-Stones (from one to five pounds Weight) have done in ſeveral Places; killing both Man and Beaſt, and laying the whole Country waſte, for ſome ſixty, or ſeventy Miles round. And nd therefore, ſince it is agreed on all Hands, that ail-Stones have frequently fallen, large enough to de-roy never ſo great a Number of People, naked and efenceleſs againſt their Blows, what need is there for aving Recourſe to any other Solution?

A Shower of Hail indeed, may be ſuppoſed to pro-ed from a more natural Cauſe: But, when the Event appened at the very Inſtant, wherein God promiſed aſſiſt his People againſt their Enemies; when, tho' might have annoyed either Army, it fell only on at which God had before determined to ruin; and ll ſo very heavily upon it, as to deſtroy more than the word of the Conquerors had done; ſuch an Event as is, I ſay, cannot but be looked upon as a miraculous terpoſition of Providence, how fortuitous ſoever the oncourſe of ſecond Cauſes may be. In working of iracles, God uſually employs natural Cauſes and roductions. He does not create any new Thing for e Purpoſe, but makes uſe of what is already created, a new and extraordinary Manner: And therefore, o' the Shower of Hail, and probably the Wind too, hich made it fall with ſuch Impetuoſity, were both them natural; yet the ſending them at the very ick of Time, and directing them to fall upon the nemy only, in this there was manifeſtly the Hand of od, and ſomething ſupernatural.

Sun, ſtand thou ſtill upon Gibeon, and thou Moon, in e Valley of Ajalon] For the better underſtanding theſe ords, ſays Stackhouſe, we muſt obſerve, 1. That othing is more common in Scripture, than to expreſs hings, not according to the ſtrict Rules of Philoſophy, t according to their Appearances, and the vulgar Ap-ehenſion concerning them. The Sun and Moon, for ſtance are called two great Lights, Gen. i. 16. but, owever that Title may agree with the Sun, 'tis plain, at the Moon is but a ſmall Body, the leaſt that has yet en diſcovered in the planetary Syſtem, and that it has Light at all, but what it borrows, and reflects from e Rays of the Sun; and yet, becauſe it is placed near it appears to us larger than other heavenly Lumi-ries, and from that Appearance, the holy Scriptures ve it that Appellation. And, in like Manner, be-uſe the Sun ſeems to us to move, and the Earth to at Reſt, the Scriptures ſpeak a great deal of the Pil-rs, and Baſis, and Foundations of the Earth, and of e Sun's rejoicing, like a Giant, to run its Race, Pſ. x. 5. Whereas it is certain, that if the Sun were ade to revolve about the Earth, the general Law of ature would be thereby violated; the Harmony and oportion of the heavenly Bodies deſtroyed; and no all Confuſion and Diſorder brought into the Frame the Univerſe: But, on the contrary, if the Earth, rning upon its own Axis every Day, be made to go und the Sun in the Space of a Year, it will then rform its Circulation according to the ſame Law which e other Planets obſerve; and (without the leaſt Ex-ption) there will be a moſt beautiful Order and Har-ony of Motions, every where preſerved through the hole Frame of Nature. As therefore the Scriptures ere deſigned to teach us the Art of holy Living, and t to inſtruct us in the Rudiments of natural Know-ge, it can be deemed no Diminution either to their erfection, or divine Authority, that they generally eak according to the common Appearance of Things, d not according to their Reality, or philoſophic Truth. he plain Matter of Fact is, that in the early Ages, th before and long after the Days of Joſhua, the oſt learned Aſtronomers had no Notion of the Improve-ents which our modern Profeſſors have ſince attained . They never once dreamt of the Earth's Rotation on its own Axis; but, according to common Ap-arance, were fully perſuaded, that the Sun and Moon d their reſpective Courſes. Upon this Suppoſition ey formed their Schemes, and thought themſelves able anſwer every Phænomenon by them. And there-re if God had prompted Joſhua to deſire the Prolon-tion of the Day, in a Manner more agreeable to our w Aſtronomy, or to record the Miracle in Terms ore ſuitable to it; this would have been a plain Con-ariety to all the Rules of Science then in Uſe. The People, who heard him utter the Words, Earth, reſt upon thy Axis, would have thought him diſtracted, and thoſe who read his Account of what had happened, if related in ſuitable Expreſſions, would have decried it as falſe in Fact, or paſſed it by with Contempt and Diſregard, as a wild Fancy or Blunder of his own.

2. In Relation to the Places, over which the two heavenly Bodies were to ſtand, the Sun over Gibeon, and the Moon over the Valley of Ajalon, we muſt obſerve, that (even upon the Suppoſition of the Sun's Motion) the Jewiſh General cannot be thought to ſpeak in a proper and philoſophic Senſe. For, ſince the Sun is almoſt a Million of Times bigger than the Earth, and ſome Millions of Miles diſtant from it, to juſtify the ſtrict Senſe of the Words, a Line, drawn from the Center of the Sun to that of the Earth, muſt exactly paſs by Gibeon, which we know it cannot do, becauſe no Part of the Holy Land lies within the Tropicks: And therefore we muſt conclude, that Joſhua here ſpeaks according to the Appearance of Things, which makes the Senſe of his Words plain and intelligible.

Wherever we are, (if ſo be we are not hindered by Objects immediately ſurrounding us) we can caſt our Eye upon Part of the Surface of the Earth, and, at the ſame Time, take into our Proſpect ſome ſmall Extent of the Firmament of Heaven, which ſeems, as it were, to cover the other; and each celeſtial Body, which we perceive in this Extent above, appears to us to be directly over ſuch and ſuch Part of the Earth, as we alternately turn our Eyes to: And 'twas thus, that the Sun, when Joſhua ſpake, ſeemed to him, to be over Gibeon, and the Moon to be over the Valley of Ajalon. This Valley, in all Likelihood, took its Name from ſome adjacent Town; but then, as there are three Ajalons mentioned in Scripture, one in the Tribe of Ephraim, another in Zebulun, and another in Dan, it is reaſonable to think, that the Place here ſpoken of, was in Dan, the moſt remote Province from Gibeon; for we muſt ſuppoſe, that theſe two Places were at ſome conſiderable Diſtance; otherwiſe Joſhua could not ſee the Sun and Moon both appear at the ſame Time, as it is probable they were both in his Eye, when he uttered theſe Words.

3. In Relation to the Time when this Miracle began, and how long it laſted, the Scripture's Expreſſion is, that the Sun ſtood ſtill in the Midſt of Heaven, and haſted not to go down about a whole Day: Which Words can import no leſs, than the Sun ſtood ſtill in the Meridian, or much about Noon, and that in this Poſition it continued for the Space of a civil or artificial Day, i. e. for twelve Hours. But Maimonides is of Opinion (and in this he is followed by ſome Chriſtian Writers) that there was no ſuch Ceſſation of the Sun and Moon's Motion, but that the whole Purport of the Miracle was this: — 'That God, at Joſhua's Re-'queſt, granted him and his Soldiers ſuch a Degree of 'Spirits, Activity, and Diſpatch, as to enable them to 'gain a complete Victory, and do as much Execution 'in one Day, as might otherwiſe have taken up two.' But this is a Conſtruction ſo repugnant to the genuine Senſe of the Words, as to need no formal Confutation.

There is ſomething more, however, to be ſaid to the Notion of other learned Men, who, with Regard to the Time, when Joſhua might ſend up his Requeſt, and the Miracle begin, think it more probable, that he ſhould pray for a longer Day, when he perceived the Sun juſt going to leave him, than when it was in its Height. But Joſhua, no doubt, had Reaſons for what he did: He was an old experienced General, eager for a complete Victory, and able to compute what Time it would take to atchieve it; ſo that his Fear of loſing any Part of the preſent Advantage, might make him pray that the Day might be thus prolonged, until he had obtained the Whole. If the Sun, in its Declenſion, had ſtopped its Courſe, it might have anſwered his Purpoſe perhaps; but then it had given a juſter Handle to the Suggeſtions of thoſe, who would deny the whole Merit of the Miracle. For, if the Retardation of the Sun had not happened until it was a going to ſet, Spinoſa might, with a much better Grace, have attributed the extraordinary Length of this Day to the Refraction of its Rays from the Clouds, which at that Time were loaded with Hail; or Peirerius to ſome Aurora Borealis, or Parelium, which, after the Setting of the Sun, might appear about the Territories of Gibeon, and ſo be miſtaken for the Sun's ſtanding ſtill: But now, by fixing it in its meridian Point, all theſe Cavils are effectually ſilenced; and God, no doubt, who heard him ſo readily, inſpired the Hebrew General with that Wiſh or Prayer, which otherwiſe perhaps would never have come into his Head.

4. In Relation to the Book of Jaſher, (or of juſt and upright Men) which Joſhua quotes as a Voucher of the Truth of this Miracle, the Opinions of learned Men are much divided. Some think that it was the Book of Geneſis, which is here ſo called, becauſe it treats of the Lives of Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob, three of the moſt righteous Men that the World then knew. The Targum of Jonathan calls it the Book of the Law, as containing not only the chief Precepts which God gave his People, but ſeveral Promiſes likewiſe of the Wonders which he intended to work for them. Joſephus, and ſome Interpreters after him, will have it to be certain Annals of the Lives, and particular Adventures of ſome Jewiſh Worthies, and of other Things remarkable that happened to that Nation; tho' others again ſuppoſe, that this was only a Collection of ſome Verſes, which the Iſraelites thought themſelves concerned to learn by Heart, the better to remember the Miracles which God had been pleaſed to vouchſafe them. But whatever the Subject of this Book was, or whether it was compoſed in Proſe or Verſe, 'tis a groundleſs Conjecture to ſay, that it was wrote in a figurative and hyperbolical Style, or that the Quotation, which Joſhua takes from it, is ſo to be underſtood. The Deſign of the Quotation is only to confirm what Joſhua had ſaid concerning the Retardation of the Sun; and therefore, if the Book of Joſhua affirms that the Sun did ſtand ſtill, that of Jaſher (in what Style ſoever it was written) muſt neceſſarily be ſuppoſed to do the ſame; otherwiſe it would have been to no Purpoſe to have cited it.

It cannot be denied indeed, but that upon ſome Occaſions, the ſacred Penmen do uſe Figures, and poetical Expreſſions; but then the Senſe and Chain of the Diſcourſe do eaſily diſcover it, when they do ſo. Whenever they pretend to expreſs themſelves in a figurative Manner, there is uſually ſomething going before, which prepares the Reader for it; and beſides that figurative Expreſſions cannot be long continued, there is always ſomething apparently in them, that can by no means be reduced to a literal Senſe. But now, in the Scripture Account of this Tranſaction, where do we perceive any Thing like this? Joſhua, ſeeing the Enemy put to the Rout, begs of God to give him a complete Victory, and, at the ſame Time, out of the Zeal and Fervour of his Mind, commands the Sun and Moon not to advance any farther until he had effected his Deſire. The ſacred Hiſtorian tells us, that, at his Command, theſe heavenly Luminaries actually did ſtand ſtill; and to evince the Credibility of a Thing ſo marvellous, having produced the Teſtimony of another Author, that makes Mention of the ſame Event, he thereupon concludes, that there was no Day like that, before it or after it, that God hearkened to the Voice of a Man, Ver. 14. Here, we ſee, are all the Tokens imaginable of a ſimple, literal, and hiſtorical Narration: And the Reader therefore muſt be ſtrangely prejudiced againſt the Belief of all Miracles whatever, who can poſſibly diſtort ſuch plain and uniform Expreſſions into any figurative or metaphorical Senſe, in order to evade the Force of this.

CHAP. XI.

Divers Kings conſederate together, and fight with Iſrael, and are overcome at the Waters of Merom. Hazor is taken and burnt. The Anakims cut off.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard thoſe things, that he ſent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achſhaph, 2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains, ſouth of Cinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor, on the weſt; 3 And to the Canaanite on the eaſt, and on the weſt, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebuſite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon, in the land of Mizpeh. 4 And they went out, they and all their hoſts with them, much people, even as the ſand that is upon the ſea-ſhore in multitude, with horſes and chariots very many. 5 And when all theſe kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight againſt Iſrael. 6 And the Lord ſaid unto Joſhua, Be not afraid becauſe of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all ſlain before Iſrael: thou ſhalt hough their horſes, and burn their chariots with fire. 7 So Joſhua came, and all the people of war with him, againſt them by the waters of Merom ſuddenly, and they fell upon them. 8 And the Lord delivered them into the hand of Iſrael, who ſmote them, and chaſed them unto great Zidon, and unto Miſrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eaſtward, and they ſmote them, until they left them none remaining. 9 And Joſhua did unto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horſes, and burnt their chariots with fire. 10 And Joſhua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and ſmote the king thereof with the ſword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all thoſe kingdoms. 11 And they ſmote all the ſouls that were therein with the edge of the ſword, utterly deſtroying them: there was not any left to breathe; and he burnt Hazor with fire. 12 And all the cities of thoſe kings, and all the kings of them did Joſhua take, and ſmote them with the edge of the ſword, and he utterly deſtroyed them, as Moſes the ſervant of the Lord commanded. 13 But as for the cities that ſtood ſtill in their ſtrength, Iſrael burned none of them, ſave Hazor onely; that did Joſhua burn. 14 And all the ſpoil of theſe cities, and the cattle, the children of Iſrael took for a prey unto themſelves: but every man they ſmote with the edge of the ſword, until they had deſtroyed them, neither left they any to breathe. 15 As the Lord commanded Moſes his ſervant, ſo did Moſes command Joſhua, and ſo did Joſhua: he left nothing undone of all that the Lord commanded Moſes. 16 So Joſhua took all that land, the hills, and all the ſouth-country, and all the land of Goſhen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Iſrael, and the valley of the ſame: 17 Even from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baalgad, in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and ſmote them and ſlew them. 18 Joſhua made war a long time with all thoſe kings. 19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Iſrael, ſave the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon; all other they took in battle. 20 For it was of the Lord to harden their hearts, that they ſhould come againſt Iſrael in battle, that he might deſtroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might deſtroy them, as

And Iephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances, and she was his only child: beside her she had neither son nor daughter.

Judges Chap. XI. Ver. 34.35

And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter, thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and I cannot go back.

And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

Judges Chap. XI. Ver. 38.39.

And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel, as the Lord commanded Moſes. 21 And at that time came Joſhua and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Iſrael: Joſhua deſtroyed them utterly with their cities. 22 There was none of the Anakims, left in the land of the children of Iſrael: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Aſhdod, there remained. 23 So Joſhua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord ſaid unto Moſes, and Joſhua gave it for an inheritance unto Iſrael, according to their diviſions by their tribes. And the land reſted from war.

Much People, even as the Sand that is on the Sea-ſhore in Multitude, with Horſes and Chariots very ma-ny] Their whole Army, according to Joſephus, was computed to amount to 300,000 Foot, 10,000 Horſe, and 2000 Chariots; and, to oppoſe againſt theſe, the Iſraelites had no Horſe in their Armies, becauſe God had interdicted them, (Deut. xvii. 16.) leſt a Traffick into Egypt for that Sort of Cattle ſhould be a Snare to entangle them in Idolatry; or leſt, having a Quantity thereof, they ſhould put their Confidence rather in them, than in the divine Aſſiſtance; for which Reaſon the Prophet denounces a Woe upon them that go down into Egypt for Help, and ſtay in Horſes, and truſt in Chariots, becauſe they are many, and in Horſemen, becauſe they are ſtrong, but they look not to the Holy One of Iſrael, neither ſeek they the Lord, Iſa. xxxi. 1.

The Chariots, which the antient Hiſtorians uſually call Currus Falciferi, Covini Falciferi, Quadrigæ Falcatæ, &c. are deſcribed after the following Manner: 'The Beam to which the Horſes were faſtened, was armed with Spikes and iron Points, which projected forward; the Yokes of the Horſes had two cutting Falchions of three Cubits length; the Axle-trees had fixed to them two iron Spits, with Scythes at their Extremities; the Spokes of the Wheels were armed with Javelins, and the very Fellows with Scythes, which tore every Thing they met with to Pieces. 'The Axle-tree was longer, and the Wheels ſtronger than uſual, that they might be the better able to bear a Shock, and the Chariot leſs liable to be overturned.' The Charioteer, who was covered all over with Armour, ſat in a Kind of Tower, made of very thick Wood, about breaſt-high, and ſometimes Men well armed were put into the Chariot, and fought from thence with Darts and Arrows. So that a dreadful Slaughter theſe Machines muſt at firſt have made, when they met with the Enemy's Troops; but, in Time, when Men came to find out the Way of defeating them, they did not do ſo much Execution, and were conſequently diſuſed.

They came and pitched together at the Waters of Merom] Theſe Waters are generally ſuppoſed, by learned Men, to be the Lake of Semechon, which lies between the Head of the River Jordan, and the Lake of Genneſareth; ſince it is agreed on all Hands, that the City Hazor, where Jabin reigned, was ſituate upon this Lake. But others think, that the Waters of Merom, or Meromc, were ſomewhere about the Brook Kiſhon; ſince there is a Place of that Name mentioned in the Account of the Battle againſt Siſera, Judg. v. 21. And it is more rational to think, that the confederate Kings advanced as far as the Brook Kiſhon, and to a Paſs, which led into their Country, to hinder Joſhua from penetrating it, or even to attack him in the Country, where he himſelf lay encamped, than to imagine that they waited for him, in the Midſt of their own Country, leaving all Galilee at his Mercy, and the whole Tract, from the Brook Kiſhon, to the Lake Semechon. See Wells's Geogr. of the O. T. Reland's Paleſt. and Calmet on Joſh. xi. 5.

And at that Time came Joſhua, and cut off the Anakims from the Mountains, from Hebron, &c.] But how could this be, when Caleb and Othniel deſtroyed ſome of them after Joſhua's Death? Ch. xiv. 12. Judg. i. 10, 11, 12. Anſw. This might be, either, 1. Becauſe theſe Places being in Part deſtroyed, and neglected by the Iſraelites, might be repoſſeſſed by the Giants, either in Joſhua's Time, or after his Death, and by them kept till Caleb diſpoſſeſſed and deſtroyed them. Or, 2. Becauſe this Work, tho' done by the particular Valour and Induſtry of Caleb, is aſcribed to Joſhua, as the General of the Army, according to the Manner of all Hiſtorians; and therefore it is here attributed to Joſhua, tho' afterwards, that Caleb might not loſe his deſerved Honour, the Hiſtory is more particularly deſcribed, and Caleb owned as the great Inſtrument in the Atchievement of it.

CHAP. XII.

A Catalogue of the Kings, and their Dominions, out of which they were driven by the Iſraelites; firſt, in the Time of Moſes on the other Side, and afterwards by Joſhua on this Side Jordan; in all thirty-one Kings.

Ver. 1. NOW theſe are the kings of the land, which the children of Iſrael ſmote, and poſſeſſed their land on the other ſide Jordan toward the riſing of the ſun: from the river Arnon, unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the eaſt. 2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heſhbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon. 3 And from the plain to the ſea of Cinneroth on the eaſt, and unto the ſea of the the plain, even the ſalt-ſea on the eaſt, the way to Beth-jeſhimoth: and from the ſouth, under Aſhdoth-piſgah. 4 And the coaſt of Og king of Baſhan, which was of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt at Aſhtaroth, and at Edrei, 5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Baſhan, unto the border of the Geſhurites, and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heſhbon. 6 Them did Moſes the ſervant of the Lord, and the children of Iſrael ſmite, and Moſes the ſervant of the Lord gave it for a poſſeſſion unto the Reubenites, and Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh. 7 And theſe are the kings of the country which Joſhua and the children of Iſrael ſmote on this ſide Jordan on the weſt, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon, even unto the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, which Joſhua gave unto the tribes of Iſrael for a poſſeſſion, according to their diviſions: 8 In the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the ſprings, and in the wilderneſs, and in the ſouth-country: the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebuſites. 9 The king of Jericho, one: the king of Ai, which is beſide Beth-el, one: 10 The king of Jeruſalem, one: the king of Hebron, one: 11 The king of Jarmuth, one: the king of Lachiſh, one: 12 The king of Eglon, one: the king of Gezer, one: 13 The king of Debir, one: the king of Geder, one: 14 The king of Hormah, one: the king of Arad, one: 15 The king of Libnah, one: the king of Adullam, one: 16 The king of Makkedath, one: the king of Beth-el, one: 17 The king of Tappuah, one: the king of Hepher, one: 18 The king of Apek, one: the king of Laſharon, one: 19 The king of Madon, one: the king of Hazor, one: 20 The king of Shimron-meron, one: the king of Achſhaph, one: 21 The king of Taanach, one: the king of Megiddo, one: 22 The king of Kedeſh, one: the king of Jokneam of Carmel, one: 23 The king of Dor in the coaſt of Dor, one: the king of the nations of Gilgal, one: 24 The king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty and one.

All the Kings thirty and one] A great many indeed, conſidering the ſmall Tract of Land they poſſeſſed. To account for which we are to obſerve, that Each of them was confined to narrow Limits, being King only of one City, or ſmall Province belonging to it, which was by the wiſe Providence of God, that they might the more eaſily and ſucceſſively be conquered by the Iſraelites one after another, as they were.

CHAP. XIII.

God acquaints Joſhua with the Boundaries of the Land, and how it ſhould be divided among the Tribes of Iſrael.

Ver. 1. NOW Joſhua was old and ſtricken in years; and the Lord ſaid unto him, Thou art old and ſtricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be poſſeſſed. 2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Philiſtines, and all Geſhuri, 3 From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ecron north-ward, which is counted to the Canaanites: five lords of the Philiſtines; the Gazathites, and the Aſhdothites, the Eſhkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; alſo the Avites. 4 From the ſouth, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beſide the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites: 5 And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon toward the ſun-riſing, from Baal-gad under mount Hermon, unto the entering into Hamath. 6 All the inhabitats of the hill country from Lebanon unto Miſrephoth-maim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the children of Iſrael: only divide thou it by lot unto the Iſraelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee. 7 Now therefore, divide this land for an inheritance, unto the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, 8 With whom the Reubenites, and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moſes gave them, beyond Jordan eaſt-ward, even as Moſes the ſervant of the Lord gave them: 9 From Aroer that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midſt of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon: 10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heſhbon, unto the borders of the children of Ammon: 11 And Gilead, and the border of the Geſhurites, and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Baſhan unto Salcah: 12 All the kingdom of Og in Baſhan, which reigned in Aſhtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for theſe did Moſes ſmite, and caſt them out. 13 Nevertheleſs, the children of the Iſrael expelled not the Geſhurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geſhurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Iſraelites until this day. 14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the ſacrifices of the Lord God of Iſrael made by fire, are their inheritance, as he ſaid unto them. 15 And Moſes gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben, inheritance according to their families: 16 And their coaſts was from Aroer that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is on the midſt of the river, and all the plain by Medeba: 17 Heſhbon and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon, 18 And Jahaza, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, 19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-ſhahar, in the mount of the valley, 20 And Beth-Peor, and Aſhdoth-piſgah, and Beth-jeſhimoth, 21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdoms of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heſhbon, whom Moſes ſmote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. 22 Baalam alſo the ſon of Beor the ſooth-ſayer did the children of Iſrael ſlay with the ſword, among them that were ſlain by them, 23 And the border of the children of Reuben, was Jordan and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof. 24 And Moſes gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families: 25 And their coaſt was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah: 26 And from Heſhbon unto Ramath, Mizpeh, and Betonim: and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir: 27 And in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah and Succoth, and Zaphon, the reſt of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heſhbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the ſea of Cinnereth, on the other ſide Jordan eaſt-ward. 28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities and their villages. 29 And Moſes gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manaſſeh: and this was the poſſeſſion of the half tribe of the children of Manaſſeh, by their families. 30 And their coaſt was from Mahanaim, all Baſhan, all the kingdom of Og king of Baſhan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Baſhan, threeſcore cities. 31 And half Gilead, and Aſhtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Baſhan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir the ſon of Manaſſeh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families. 32 Theſe are the countrys which Moſes did diſtribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other ſide Jordan by Jericho eaſt-ward. 33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moſes gave not any inheritance: the Lord God of Iſrael was their inheritance, as he ſaid unto them.

In the 21ſt Verſe, five Princes of Midian, are called Dukes of Sihon; but how could they be both? Anſw. There were divers petty Kings in thoſe Parts, who were ſubject to greater Kings; and ſuch they were, but are here called Dukes or Princes of Sihon, becauſe they were Subjects and Tributaries to him, and therefore did one Way or other aſſiſt Sihon in this War, tho' they were not killed at this Time. It's probable that when Sihon deſtroyed thoſe Moabites that dwelt in theſe Parts, he frighted the reſt of them, and with them their Neighbours and Confederates, the Midianites, into ſome Kind of Homage or Tribute, which they were willing to pay him.

CHAP. XIV.

The Land divided by Lot. Caleb receives the Promiſe which Moſes made him, and claims it.

Performance of it from Joshua, who grants his Request.

Ver. 1. AND these are the countrys which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed for inheritance unto them. 2 By lot was their inheritance, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe. 3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes, and an half-tribe, on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them. 4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle, and for their substance. 5 As the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land. 6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses the man of God, concerning me and thee, in Kadesh-barnea. 7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espie out the land; and I brought him word again, as it was in mine heart. 8 Nevertheless, my brethren that went up with me, made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the Lord my God. 9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have troden, shall be thine inheritance, and thy childrens for ever: because thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God. 10 And now, behold, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the Lord spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old. 11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. 12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the Lord spake in that day, (for thou heardst in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced) if so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said. 13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance. 14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite; unto this day: because that he wholly followed the Lord God of Israel. 15 And the name of Hebron before, was Kirjath-arba, which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war.

By Lot was their Inheritance] Those who are minded to know what particular Towns and Territories fell to each Tribe, had best consult what Josephus in his Jewish Antiquities, Jerome de Locis Hebraicis, Reland de Urbibus & Vicis Palestinæ, Masius in Joshuam, Fuller in his Pisgah-sight, Raleigh in his History, Wells in his Geography of the O. T. Patrick, Pool, Le Clerc, and several others, in their Commentaries, have said upon this Subject. We shall make this one Remark, which Masius, in his rich Commentary upon Joshua, furnishes us with, viz. that as Jacob and Moses, at the Approach of their Deaths, foretold the very Soil and Situation of every particular Country, that should fall to each Tribe; so, upon this Division by Lots, it accordingly came to pass. To the Tribe of Judah there fell a Country abounding with Vines and Pasture-grounds, Gen. xlix. 11. To that of Asher, one plenteous in Oil, Iron, and Brass, Deut. xxxiii. 24, 25. To that of Naphtali, one extending from the West to the South of Judea, ib. xxx. 23. To that of Benjamin, one, in which the Temple was afterwards built, ib. xxx. 12. To those of Zebulun and Issachar, such as had Plenty of Sea-Ports, Gen. xlix. 13. To those of Ephraim and Manasseh, such as were renowned for their precious Fruits, Deut. xxxiii. 14. And to those of Simeon and Levi, no particular Countries at all; for as much as the former had a Portion with Judah, and the other was interspersed among the several Tribes. Since therefore every particular Lot answered so exactly to each Prediction, it must needs be the Height of Insolence or Stupidity, not to acknowledge the divine Inspiration in these Predictions, and the divine Direction in these Lots.

CHAP. XV.

Judah's Lot. Caleb drives out the Anakims, and possesses their Cities; promises his Daughter to him that should smite Kirjath-sepher, which Othniel performs and obtains her. The Jebusites not conquered.

Ver. 1. THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families, even to the border of Edom; the wilderness of Zin south-ward, was the uttermost part of the south-coast. 2 And their south-border was from the shore of the salt-sea from the bay that looketh south-ward. 3 And it went out to the south-side to Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended upon the south-side unto Kadesh-barnea: and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa. 4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt, and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south-coast. 5 And the east-border was the salt-sea even unto the end of Jordan: and their border in the north-quarter, was from the bay of the sea, at the uttermost part of Jordan. 6 And the border went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah, and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so north-ward looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south-side of the river: and the border passed towards the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at En-rogel. 8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom, unto the south-side of the Jebusite, the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom, west-ward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants north-ward. 9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron, and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjath-jearim. 10 And the border compassed from Baalah west-ward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim (which is Chesalon) on the north-side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah. 11 And the border went out

unto the ſide of Ekron north-ward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and paſſed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the ſea. 12 And the weſt-border was to the great ſea, and the coaſt thereof: this is the coaſt of the children of Judah round about, according to their families. 13 And unto Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh, he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the Lord to Joſhua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron. 14 And Caleb drove thence the three ſons of Anak, Sheſhai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak. 15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-ſepher. 16 And Caleb ſaid, He that ſmiteth Kirjath-ſepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achſah my daughter to wife. 17 And Othniel the ſon of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it, and he gave him Achſah his daughter to wife. 18 And it came to paſs, as ſhe came unto him, that ſhe moved him to aſk of her father a field: and ſhe lighted off her aſs; and Caleb ſaid unto her, What wouldeſt thou? 19 Who anſwered, Give me a bleſſing; for thou haſt given me a ſouth-land, give me alſo ſprings of water: and he gave her the upper ſprings, and the neither ſprings. 20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families. 21 And the uttermoſt cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the coaſt of Edom ſouthward, were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, 22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah, 23 And Kedeſh, and Hazor, and Ithnan, 24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, 25 And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor, 26 Aman, and Shema, and Moladah, 27 And Hazar-gaddah, and Heſhmon, and Beth-palet, 28 And Hazar-ſhual, and Beerſheba, and Biz-jothja, 29 Baalah, and Iim, and Azem, 30 And Eltolad, and Cheſil, and Hormah. 31 And Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sanſannah, 32 And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty and nine, with their villages, 33 And in the valley, Eſhtaol, and Zoreah, and Aſhnah, 34 And Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah, and Enam, 35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah, 36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages. 37 Zenan, and Hadaſhah, and Migdal-gad, 38 And Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel, 39 Lachiſh, and Bozkath, and Eglon, 40 And Cabbon, and Lahmas, and Kithliſh, 41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedath: ſixteen cities with their villages. 42 Libnah, and Ether, and Aſhan, 43 And Jiphtah, and Aſhnah, and Nezib. 44 And Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareſhah: nine cities with their villages. 45 Ekron with her towns, and her villages. 46 From Ekron even unto the ſea, all that lay near Aſhdod, with their villages. 47 Aſhdod with her towns and her villages, Gaza with her towns and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, and the great ſea, and the border thereof. 48 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh, 49 And Dannah, and Kirjath-ſannah which is Debir, 50 And Anab, and Eſhtemoh, and Anim, 51 And Goſhen, and Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages. 52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eſhean, 53 And Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, 54 And Humtah, and Kirjath-arba (which is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities with their villages. 55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah, 56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, 57 Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages. 58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, 59 And Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: ſix cities with their villages. 60 Kirjath baal (which is Kirjath-jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages. 61 In the wilderneſs, Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, 62 And Nibſhan, and the city of Salt, and Engedi: ſix cities with their villages. 63 As for the Jebuſites the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, the the children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebuſites dwell with the children of Judah at Jeruſalem unto this day.

This then was the Lot] This Lottery was probably managed in the following Manner: There were two Urns or Pots, into one of which were put the Names of all the Tribes, each in a diſtinct Paper, or Bit of Parchment, and into the other the Names of each Portion deſcribed; then Eleazar, or ſome other Perſon, drew the Name firſt of one of the Tribes out of the Pot, and then the Name of the Portion out of the other, and that Portion was appropriated to that Tribe; and ſo of the reſt.

And the Border went up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, unto the South-ſide of the Jebuſite, the ſame is Jeruſalem] Some think, that Jeruſalem, being in the Borders of both Tribes, Judah and Benjamin, it was common to both; and it's certain, that, after the Captivity, it was poſſeſſed by both, Neh. xi. 4. But in the preſent, tho' it did belong to Benjamin, yet the Children of Judah being poſſibly very active in the firſt taking of it by Joſhua, as they certainly were after his Death, Judg. x. 8. they might get ſome right Share with the Benjamites in the Poſſeſſion of it. It ſeems moſt probable, that Part of it, and indeed the greateſt Part, and main Body of it, ſtood in the Tribe of Benjamin; and hence this is mentioned in the Liſt of their Cities, and not in Judah's Liſt; and Part of it ſtood in Judah's Share, even Mount Moriah, on which the Temple was built; and Mount Sion, when it was taken from the Jebuſites.

CHAP. XVI.

The Boundaries of Joſeph's Inheritance, alſo of Ephraim's deſcribed. Some of the Canaanites not expelled but made tributary.

Ver. 1. AND the lot of the children of Joſeph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the eaſt, to the wilderneſs that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el, 2 And goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and paſſeth along unto the borders of Archi to Ataroth, 3 And goeth down weſt-ward, to the coaſt of Japhleti, unto the coaſt of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the ſea. 4 So the children of Joſeph, Manaſſeh and Ephraim, took their inheritance. 5 And the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the eaſt-ſide was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper. 6 And the border went out toward the ſea, to Michmethah on the north-ſide, and the border went about eaſt-ward unto Taanath-Shilo, and paſſed by it on the eaſt to Janohah: 7 And it went down own from Janohah, to Ataroth and to Naarath, nd came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan. The border went out from Tappuah weſt-ward nto the river Kanah: and the goings out there- f were at the ſea. This is the inheritance of the ribe of the children of Ephraim by their families. And the ſeparate cities for the children of phraim were among the inheritance of the chil- ren of Manaſſeh; all their cities with their vil- ges. 10 And they drave not out the Canaanites hat dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell mong the Ephraimites unto this day, and ſerve nder tribute.

And they drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in ezer] Joſephus ſeems not to have conſulted the Ho- our of Joſhua much, ſays Stackhouſe, when he aſcribes e Delay of the Conqueſt of Canaan to the Weakneſs his Army, and the impregnable Strength of the Places was to attack. But ſome other Jews make the latter much worſe, when they tell us, that he deſired prolong the War, not only to retain the Office and ignity of being Captain-General, but becauſe he was formed by the Oracle, that, as ſoon as the Conqueſt as finiſhed, he himſelf was to die. God however ems to have given us much better Reaſons for this etardation, when he acquaints Moſes with his Inten- on, Exod. xxiii. 29, 30. I will not drive the Ca- anites out from before thee in one Year, leſt the Land come deſolate, and the Beaſts of the Field multiply a- inſt thee; and, when he complains of their ſad De- ction, after the Death of Joſhua, Judg. ii. 21, 22. will not henceforth drive out any from before them, the Nations which Joſhua left when he died, that rough them I may prove Iſrael, whether they will keep Way of the Lord, to walk therein, as their Fathers d keep it, or no. Whereupon the Hiſtorian tells us, at God accordingly did leave theſe Nations, without iving them out; and adds another Reaſon for their ntinuance in the Country, viz. that the Iſraelites, having an Enemy to contend with, might be trained in the Art and Myſtery of War: For, theſe are the ations, ſays he, which the Lord left to prove Iſrael, at by them he might teach thoſe War, who before knew hing of it, Judg. iii. 1, 2. So that here are three aſons given us, why God delayed the entire Sub- tion of Canaan; viz. becauſe the Children of Iſrael re, as yet, too few in Number to repleniſh the ole Country; becauſe God, by keeping the Canaan- s in Being, was willing both to make Trial of his ople's Obedience; and to train them, and their Po- rity, for ſome Ages, up in military Diſcipline and ercise.

But there is another Reaſon which Joſhua, in his ing Speech, aſſigns for their not enlarging their Con- eſts to the utmoſt Bounds which God had given them, ſh. xxiii. 11. Take heed therefore unto yourſelves, that love the Lord your God; elſe, if you do in any wiſe go k, and cleave unto the Remnant of the Nations, even ſe that remain among you, and ſhall make Marriages th them, and go in unto them, and they to you; know a Certainty, that the Lord your God will no more ve out any of theſe Nations from before you. So that the Promiſe, which God made to the Iſrae- s, was conditional; and, as they manifeſtly falſified ir Part of the Obligation, by engaging firſt in Affi- y, and then in Idolatry with the Nations which they re bound to deſtroy; ſo God might very well think nſelf releaſed from his, and under no farther Concern their Succeſs, or the Enlargement of their Con- eſts; but as they had been the Miniſters of his Ven- nce, in puniſhing the Diſorders of the Canaanites, y, in their Turn, were now made the Inſtruments his chaſtizing the Diſobedience of his own People: y ſhall be Snares and Traps to you, and Scourges in r Sides, and Thorns in your Eyes, until you periſh from good Land which the Lord your God hath given you, h. xxiii. 13.

And indeed, if we conſider how violently, in After-ages, the Iſraelites were oppreſſed by their Enemies, and, by many Battles and Captivities, harraſſed and diminiſhed in their Numbers, we ſhall find no Neceſſity of enlarging their Poſſeſſions; becauſe the Country, which they conquered, in the firſt ſix Years, was ſpacious enough to contain them. The Promiſe, however, which God made, was ſufficiently accompliſhed in the Reigns of David and Solomon, when the Kingdom of Iſrael was in its Zenith; and tho' its Territories did not extend to the Euphrates, yet its Dominion did, ſince all that Tract of Land between Jeruſalem and that great River was either ſubdued, or made tributary to them.

CHAP. XVII.

Ver. 1. THere was alſo a lot for the tribe of Manaſſeh; (for he was the firſt-born of Joſeph) to wit, for Machir the firſt-born of Manaſſeh the father of Gilead: becauſe he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Baſhan. 2 There was alſo a lot for the reſt of the children of Manaſſeh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Aſriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida; theſe were the male children of Manaſſeh the ſon of Joſeph by their families. 3 But Zelophehad the ſon of Hepher, the ſon of Gilead, the ſon of Machir, the ſon of Manaſſeh, had no ſons, but daughters: and theſe are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, Tirzah. 4 And they came near before Eleazar the prieſt, and before Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and before the princes, ſaying, The Lord commanded Moſes to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the Lord, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. 5 And there fell ten portions to Manaſſeh, beſide the land of Gilead and Baſhan, which were on the other ſide Jordan; 6 Becauſe the daughters of Manaſſeh had an inheritance among his ſons: and the reſt of Manaſſehs ſons had the land of Gilead. 7 And the coaſt of Manaſſeh was from Aſher to Michmethah that lieth before Shechem, and the border went along on the right hand, unto the inhabitants of Entappuah. 8 Now Manaſſeh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manaſſeh belonged to the children of Ephraim. 9 And the coaſt deſcendèd unto the river Kanah, ſouth-ward of the river: theſe cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manaſſeh, the coaſt of Manaſſeh alſo was on the north-ſide of the river, and the out-goings of it were at the ſea. 10 South-ward it was Ephraims, and north-ward it was Manaſſehs, and the ſea is his border, and they met together in Aſher on the north and in Iſſachar on the eaſt. 11 And Manaſſeh had in Iſſachar and in Aſher, Beth-ſhean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megido and her towns, even three countrys. 12 Yet the children of Manaſſeh could not drive out the inhabitants of thoſe cities, but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. 13 Yet it came to paſs when the children of Iſrael were waxen ſtrong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. 14 And the children of Joſeph ſpake unto Joſhua, ſaying, Why haſt thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, ſeeing I am a great people, foraſmuch as the Lord hath bleſſed me hitherto? 15 And Joſhua anſwered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thy ſelf there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee. 16 And the children of Joſeph ſaid, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley, have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-ſhean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel. 17 And Joſhua ſpake unto the houſe of Joſeph, even to Ephraim, and to Manaſſeh, ſaying, Thou art a great people, and haſt great power: thou ſhalt not have one lot only. 18 But the mountain ſhall be thine, for it is a wood: and thou ſhalt cut it down: and the out-goings of it ſhall be thine: for thou ſhall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots and though they be ſtrong.

And the Children of Joſeph ſaid, The Hill is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites that dwell in the Land of the Valley have Chariots of Iron] As if they had ſaid, If we ſhould invade and conquer it, and cut down both Wood and Men, yet it would not be ſufficient for us. In the Hebrew it is, The Hill will not be found, that is, obtained by us; thoſe fierce and ſtrong People the Perizzites, and the Giants, will eaſily defend themſelves, and fruſtrate our Attempts, having the Advantage of the Woods aud Mountains. And if thou ſayeſt, as we know thou wilt reply, That if the Hill either cannot be conquered, or be not ſufficient for us, we may go down and take more Land out of the pleaſant and fruitful Valleys, we ſhall meet with no leſs Difficulty there than in the Mountains. Or thus; In going to the Hills, to which thou directeſt us, we muſt paſs through the Valleys, where we ſhall be way-laid by powerful and armed Enemies.

CHAP. XVIII.

The Tabernacle ſet up at Shiloh. The Remainder of the Land deſcribed and divided into ſeven Parts, for the ſeven Tribes which as yet had no Inheritance.

Ver. 1. AND the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael aſſembled together at Shiloh, and ſet up the tabernacle of the congregation there, and the land was ſubdued before them. 2 And there remained among the children of Iſrael, ſeven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance. 3 And Joſhua ſaid unto the children of Iſrael, how long are you ſlack to go to poſſeſs the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath given you? 4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe; and I will ſend them, and they ſhall riſe, and go through the land, and deſcribe it according to the inheritance of them, and they ſhall come again to me. 5 And they ſhall divide it into ſeven parts: Judah ſhall abide in their coaſt on the ſouth, and the houſe of Joſeph ſhall abide in their coaſts on the north. 6 Ye ſhall therefore deſcribe the land into ſeven parts, and bring the deſcription hither to me, that I may caſt lots for you here before the Lord our God. 7 But the Levites have no part among you, for the prieſthood of the Lord is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben and half the tribe of Manaſſeh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the eaſt, which Moſes the ſervant of the Lord gave them. 8 And the men aroſe, and went away: and Joſhua charged them that went to deſcribe the land, ſaying, Go; and walk through the land, and deſcribe it, and come again to me, that I may here caſt lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh. 9 And the men went, and paſſed through the land and deſcribed it by cities, into ſeven parts, in a book, and came again to Joſhua to the hoſt at Shiloh. 10 and Joſhua caſt lots for them in Shiloh, before the Lord: and there Joſhua divided the land unto the children of Iſrael according to their diviſions. 11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coaſt of their lot came forth between the children of Judah, and the children of Joſeph. 12 And their border of the north-ſide was from Jordan, and the border went up to the ſide of Jericho, on the north-ſide, and went up through the mountains weſt-ward, and the goings out thereof were at the wilderneſs of Beth-aven. 13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the ſide of Luz (which is Beth-el) ſouthward, and the border deſcended to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that lieth on the ſouth-ſide of the nether Beth-horon. 14 And the border was drawn thence, and compaſſed the corner of the ſea ſouth-ward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon ſouthward: and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal (which is Kirjath jearim) a city of the children of Judah: This was the weſt-quarter. 15 And the ſouth-quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the weſt, and went out to the well of the waters of Nephtoah. 16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and deſcended to the valley of Hinnom, to the ſide of Jebuſi on the ſouth, and deſcended to En-rogel, 17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to Enſhemeſh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over againſt the going up of Adummim, and deſcended to the ſtone of Bohan the ſon of Reuben, 18 And paſſed along toward the ſide over against Arabah north-ward, and went down unto Arabah. 19 And the border paſſed along to the ſide of Beth-hoglah north-ward; and the out-goings of the border were at the north-bay of the ſalt-ſea at the ſouth-end of Jordan: This was the ſouth coaſt. 20 And Jordan was the border of it on the eaſt-ſide. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coaſts thereof round about, according to their families. 21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families, were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, 22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Beth-el, 23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah, 24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba: twelve cities with their villages. 25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, 26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, hirah, and Mozah, 27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, nd Taralah, 28 And Zalah, Eleph, and Jebuſi, which is Jeruſalem) Gibeath, and Kirja th ourteen cities with their villages. This is the heritance of the children of Benjamin according o their families.

In the firſt Verſe of this Chapter it is ſaid, that the abernacle was ſet up at Shiloh; but in Ch. xxiv. 25, 6. we are told that the Sanctuary of the Lord was at echem; which ſeems a Contradiction. In Anſwer to his (Stackhouſe obſerves) ſome have imagined, that, Joſhua, was now grown old and infirm, the Ark, pon this Occaſion, was removed from Shiloh, the ſet- ed Place of the divine Reſidence, to Sechem, the Place Joſhua's Habitation, that he might with greater So- mnity, and in the Preſence of God (whereof the Ark as the proper Emblem) deliver his Charge to the Peo- e. But other learned Men have obſerved, that by e Sanctuary of the Lord, we are to underſtand, not e Ark of the Covenant, but only ſome Place of reli- ious Worſhip, ſuch very probably, as the Jewiſh Ora- ries were. That the holy Ark was not, on this Oc- ſion, ſet up here at Sechem, is evident, they ſay, from at Prohibition given by God, Deut. xvi. 21, 22. hou ſhalt not plant a Grove of any Trees, near unto the ltar of the Lord thy God, which thou ſhalt make thee, ither ſhalt thou ſet up a Pillar, which the Lord thy od hateth: Whereas, in this Sanctuary, we read both an Oak planted, and a Pillar, or Statue, erected un- r it; which is certainly ſuch a Violation of the divine ommand, as Joſhua, upon no Occaſion, can be ſup- oſed capable of incurring. 'Tis a very probable Opi- on therefore, that the Place where Joſhua ſet up this onumental Pillar, was one of thoſe which the Tribe of phraim (to whom Sechem belonged) had conſecrated, d ſet apart for a Proſeucha, or a Place to aſſemble in r publick Prayer; and that they made Choice of this, ther than any other to perform their Devotions in, ecauſe it was that particular Spot, where God appear- to Abraham, and promiſed his Poſterity the Poſſeſſion the Land of Canaan.

That there were ſuch Oratories, or Places of pub- k Prayer among the Jews, and that they were ge- rally beſet, or ſhaded with Trees, is evident from ch a Variety of Teſtimonies, that it can hardly be ontested; but, whether they were of ſo early a Date Jehu's Time, or not rather introduced after the aptivity of Babylon, is a Queſtion not eaſy to deter- ine. In the main, however, we may conclude, that, hether the Ark of the Covenant was occaſionally brought Sechem, or at Sechem there happened to be ſuch an ratory, as, in After-ages, became frequent in Judea, here can be no Incongruity in the ſacred Penman's ſay- g, that the Sanctuary of the Lord (ſince either the rk, or the Oratory might merit that Name) was at echem.

There is, however, another Solution of this Diffi- lty, which ought not to be diſregarded. Sechem nd Shiloh were about twelve Miles diſtant from each her, and, in the Mid-way between them, was Tim- h-Serah, the Place where Joſhua lived. Since there- re the Text informs us, that he gathered all the ribes of Iſrael to Sechem, and calls for their Elders, r their Heads, for their Judges, and for their fficers, and they preſented themſelves before God, oſh. xxiv. 1. we may reaſonably ſuppoſe, that, tho' l the People met at Sechem, yet their Elders and hief Officers only preſented themſelves before God. hat ſo great a Multitude could not meet together, nd encamp in any Place, but where there is a propor- onable Compaſs of Ground, is a Matter ſelf-evident; nd that, in the Confines of Sechem, there was a large nd open Country, extending perhaps as far as Shiloh, nd very commodious for their Reception, we have the ttеſtation of holy Writ. But then, ſince it is im- oſſible for one Man to ſpeak to ſuch a Number of eople, and be heard, Joſhua, very probably, ſingled ut the chief and principal of them, ſuch as he foreſaw would ſucceed him in the Government after his De- miſe, and theſe he took with him to Shiloh, a Place in the Neighbourhood, where was the Ark, or Sanctuary of the Lord, that he might there with the greater So- lemnity, give them his final Charge, which they in their Turns, might deliver to their reſpective Tribes.

CHAP. XIX.

The Lots of Simeon, Zebulun, Iſſachar, Aſher, Naphtali. An Inheritance given to Joſhua. The Diviſion of the Land finiſhed.

Ver. 1. AND the ſecond lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah. 2 And they had in their inheritance, Beer-ſheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, 3 And Hazar-ſhual, and Baalah, and Azem, 4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, 5 And Ziklag, and Bethmarcaboth, and Hazarſuſah, 6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their villages. 7 Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Aſhan: four cities and their villages. 8 And all the villages that were round about theſe cities, to Baalathbeer, Ramoth of the ſouth. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon: according to their families. 9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah, was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them. 10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid, 11 And their border went up toward the ſea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbaſheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam, 12 And turned from Sarid eaſtward, toward the ſun-riſing, unto the border of Chiſloth-tabor, and then goeth out to Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia, 13 And from thence paſſeth along on the eaſt to Gittah-hepher, to Ittah-kazin, and goeth out to Remmon-methoar to Neah. 14 And the border compaſſeth it on the north-ſide to Hannathon: and the out-goings thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah-el. 15 And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Beth-lehem: twelve cities with their villages. 16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun, according to their families, theſe cities with their villages. 17 And the fourth lot came out to Iſſachar, for the children of Iſſachar, according to their families. 18 And their border was toward Jezreel, and Cheſulloth, and Shunem, 19 And Hapharaim, and Shihon, and Anaharath, 20 And Rabbith, and Kiſhion, and Abez, 21 And Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddath, and Beth-pazzez. 22 And the coaſt reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-ſhemeſh, and the out-goings of their border were at Jordan: ſixteen cities with their villages. 23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Iſſachar according to their families, the cities and their villages. 24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Aſher, according to their families. 25 And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achſhaph, 26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Miſheal; and reacheth to Carmel weſt-ward, and to Shihor-libnath, 27 And

27 And turneth toward the ſun-riſing to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north ſide of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand. 28 And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even unto great Zidon: 29 And then the coaſt turneth to Ramah, and to the ſtrong city Tyre, and the coaſt turneth to Hoſah: and the out-goings thereof are at the ſea from the coaſt to Achzib. 30 Ummah alſo, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages. 31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Aſher according to their families, theſe cities with their villages. 32 The ſixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali: even for the children of Naphtali, according to their families. 33 And their coaſt was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel unto Lakum: and the out-goings thereof were at Jordan. 34 And then the coaſt turneth weſt-ward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the ſouth-ſide, and reacheth to Aſher on the weſt-ſide, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the ſun-riſing. 35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Cinnereth, 36 And Adamath and Ramah, and Hazor, 37 And Kadeſh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, 38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-ſhemeſh: nineteen cities with their villages. 39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Napthali according to their families, the cities and their villages. 40 And the ſeventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan, according to their families. 41 And the coaſt of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eſhtaol, and Ir-ſhemeſh, 42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, 43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron, 44 And Eeltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, 45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon, 46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho. 47 And the coaſt of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight againſt Leſhem, and took it, and ſmote it with the edge of the ſword, and poſſeſſed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leſhem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father. 48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, theſe cities with their villages. 49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coaſts, the children of Iſrael gave an inheritance to Joſhua the ſon of Nun, among them: 50 According to the word of the Lord, they gave him the city which he aſked, even Timnath-ſerah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein. 51 Theſe are the inheritances which Eleazar the prieſt, and Joſhua the ſon of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſrael, divided for an inheritance by lot, in Shiloh before the Lord at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: ſo they made an end of dividing the country.

And their Inheritance was within the Inheritance of the Children of Judah] This was ſo order'd by God's Providence, partly, to fulfil that Threatning, that he would divide and ſcatter this Tribe in Iſrael, Gen. xlix. 7. which was hereby done. 1. Becauſe they had no diſtinct Part of their own, but were as Inmates to Judah. Or, 2. Becauſe now, upon a more exact Survey of the Land, it appeared to Joſhua and Eleazar, and all the Princes of the People, even to the Tribe of Judah themſelves, that the Part given to Judah, far exceeded the Proportion which either they needed, or could occupy, or which the other Tribes could expect. And, 3. Becauſe this was the leaſt of the Tribes, as is evident from Numb. xxvi. 14. and therefore fitteſt to be put in with another Tribe.

Ver. 34. it is ſaid, that the Eaſtern Border of Naphtali, reached to Judah upon Jordan; how can this be, when there were divers Tribes between this and Judah, all which reached to Jordan? Anſw. He does not ſay Judah, as he does of Zebulun and Aſher, that it reacheth to it; but, as it ſeems, purpoſely leaves out that Word which he had uſed in both the former Branches, leſt it ſhould be underſtood of a local Reaching it, or being contiguous with it, which was not true; and that he might ſignify that he meant this Clauſe in another Senſe, namely, that it did, in ſome Sort, go, or reach to, or converſe with Judah upon Jordan. And ſo this may be here added, to ſhew the Accompliſhment of that famous and obſcure Prophecy, that Naphtali, tho' it ſhould be planted in the utmoſt Border of the Land, on the North-eaſt, yet he ſhould poſſeſs the Riches of the Weſt and South, Deut. xxxiii. 23. that is, of thoſe Tribes that were at a Diſtance from him weſt ward and ſouth-ward, and this he ſhould do by way of Commerce with them, by their famous River Jordan, which he did not only touch in a ſmall Part, as ſome of the other Tribes did, but lay a long Side of it for a good Way together, even from the Fountain-head of that River to the Sea of Genneſareth. Some think, that this is verified by that Royalty of this River, which they ſuppoſe God gave to the Tribe of Judah, which extended as far as Naphtali.

Therefore the Children of Dan went up to fight againſt Leſhem] This they did after Joſhua's Deceaſe, as appears from Judg. xviii. and ſeems to be here inſerted, partly, that all the chief Places where the Danites dwelt, tho' far diſtant, might be mentioned together; and partly, to give an Account of this ſtrange Accident, why they removed from their appointed Portion to ſo remote a Place; which may be this, that being much moleſted and terrified by their bad Neighbours, they thought fit to go to ſome Place remote from them, which alſo they were in a Manner conſtrained to do, becauſe they muſt otherwiſe have taken ſome Part of the Portions of other Tribes; whereas now going to the very utmoſt Northern Border of the Land, they took that which did not belong to, or at leaſt was not in the Poſſeſſion of any other Tribe.

CHAP. XX.

Six Cities of Refuge for the Manſlayer to fly to; who entitled to the Benefit of them; and how ſituated.

Ver. 1. THE Lord alſo ſpake unto Joſhua, ſaying, 2 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, ſaying, Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I ſpake unto you by the hand of Moſes: 3 That the ſlayer that killeth any perſon unawares and unwittingly, may flee thither: and they ſhall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. 4 And when he that doth flee unto one of thoſe cities, ſhall ſtand at the entering of the gate of the city, and ſhall declare his cauſe in the ears of the elders of that city; they ſhall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place that he may dwell among them. 5 And if the avenger of blood purſue after him, then they ſhall not deliver the ſlayer up into his hand; becauſe he ſmote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime. 6 And he ſhall dwell that city, until he ſtand before the congregation or judgment, and until the death of the high rieſt that ſhall be in thoſe days: then ſhall the ſlayer turn, and come unto his own city, and unto s own houſe, unto the city from whence he fled.

And they appointed Kedeſh in Galilee in ount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, d Kirjath-arba (which is Hebron) in the mounin of Judah. 8 And on the other ſide Jordan Jericho eaſt-ward, they aſſigned Bezer in the ilderneſs upon the plain, out of the tribe of euben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of ad, and Golan in Baſhan out of the tribe of anaſſeh. 9 Theſe were the cities appointed for the children of Iſrael, and for the ſtranger that ourneth among them, that whoſoever killeth y perſon at unawares, might flee thither, and t die by the hand of the avenger of blood, un-he ſtood before the congregation.

Concerning the three Cities of Refuge on the Weſt e of Jordan, it is obſerved, 1. That they were all on Mountains, that they might be ſeen at a great ſtance, and ſo direct thoſe who fled thither. 2.
at they were ſeated at a convenient Diſtance the
from the other, for the Benefit of the ſeveral Tribes;
Kadeſh was in the North, Hebron in the South, Schechem between them. 3. That they all belong-to the Levites, partly, that theſe Cauſes might be re impartially examined, and juſtly determined by m who were preſumed beſt to underſtand the Law God, and moſt obliged and likely to follow it in r Judgment, and not to be biaſſed by any Affection corrupt Intereſt, and, partly, that their juſt Repu-on with the People, and their good Counſels, might ſome Reſtraint upon revengeful Perſons, who might nclined or tempted to follow the Manſlayer thither, endeavour to kill him there.

CHAP. XXI.

ty eight Cities given to the Levites out of the Inheritance of other Tribes. The People poſſeſs the Land in Peace.

1. THen came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar prieſt, and unto Joſhua the ſon of Nun, unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of children of Iſrael. 2 And they ſpake unto m at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, ſaying, e Lord commanded by the hand of Moſes, to e us cities to dwell in, with the ſuburbs thereof our cattel. 3 And the children of Iſrael gave o the Levites out of their inheritance at the mmandment of the Lord, theſe cities and ir ſuburbs. 4 And the lot came out for the ilies of the Koathites: and the children of ron the prieſt, which were of the Levites, had lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the e of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, teen cities. 5 And the reſt of the children Kohath had by lot, out of the families of the e of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, out of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, ten cities.
And the children of Gerſhon had by lot, out he families of the tribe of Iſſachar, and out of the e of Aſher, and out of the tribe of Napthali, and of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh in Baſhan, thirteen es. 7 The children of Merari by their families had of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve es. 8 And the children of Iſrael gave by

lot unto the Levites theſe cities with their ſuburbs, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moſes. 9
And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, theſe cities which are here mentioned by name, 10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: (for theirs was the firſt lot) 11 And they gave them the city of Arba, the father of Anak, (which city is Hebron) in the hill-country of Judah, with the ſuburbs thereof round about it.
12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb, the ſon of Jephunneh, for his poſſeſſion. 13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the prieſt, Hebron, with her ſuburbs to be a city of refuge for the ſlayer, and Libnah with her ſuburbs, 14 And Jattir with her ſuburbs, and Eſhtemoah with her ſuburbs, 15 And Holon with her ſuburbs, and Debir with her ſuburbs, 16 And Ain with her ſuburbs, and Juttah with her ſuburbs, and Bethſhemeſh with her ſuburbs:
nine cities out of thoſe two tribes. 17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with her ſuburbs, Geba with her ſuburbs, 18 Anathoth with her ſuburbs, and Almon with her ſuburbs: four cities.
19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the prieſts, were thirteen cities with their ſuburbs.
20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites, which remained of the children of Kohoth, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim. 21 For they gave them Shechem with her ſuburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the ſlayer;
and Gezer with her ſuburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her ſuburbs, and Beth-horon with her ſuburbs: four cities. 23 And out of the tribe of
urbs, Gath-rimmon with her ſuburbs: four cities. 25 And out of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, Tanach with her ſuburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her ſuburbs: two cities. 26 All the cities were ten with their ſuburbs, for the families of the children of Kohath that remained. 27 And unto the children of Gerſhon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half-tribe of Manaſſeh, they gave Golan in Baſhan with her ſuburbs, to be a city of refuge for the ſlayer: and Beeſhterah with her ſuburbs: two cities. 28 And out of the tribe of Iſſachar, Kiſhon with her ſuburbs, Dabareh with her ſuburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her
ſuburbs, Engannim with her ſuburbs: four cities.
30 And out of the tribe of Aſher, Miſhal with her ſuburbs, Abdon with her ſuburbs, 31 Hel-
urbs: four cities. 32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedeſh in Galilee with her ſuburbs, to be a city of refuge for the ſlayer: and Ham-moth-dor with her ſuburbs, and Kartan with her ſuburbs: three cities. 33 All the cities of the Gerſhonites according to their families, were thirteen cities with their ſuburbs. 34 And unto the families of the children of Merari the reſt of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with her ſuburbs, and Kartah with her ſuburbs, 35 Dimnah with her ſuburbs, Nahalal with her ſuburbs: four cities. 36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her ſuburbs, and Jahazah with her ſuburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her ſuburbs,

And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her ſuburbs, to be a city of refuge for the ſlayer: and Mahanaim with her ſuburbs, 39 Heſhbon with her ſuburbs, Jazer with her ſuburbs: four cities in all. 40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities. 41 All the cities of the Levites within the poſſeſſion of the children of Iſrael, were forty and eight cities with their ſuburbs. 42 Theſe cities were every one with their ſuburbs round about them: thus were all theſe cities. 43 And the Lord gave unto Iſrael all the land which he ſware to give unto their fathers: and they poſſeſſed it, and dwelt therein. 44 And the Lord gave them reſt round about, according to all that he ſware unto their fathers: and there ſtood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand. 45 There failed not ought of any good thing which the Lord had ſpoken unto the houſe of Iſrael: all came to paſs.

Ver. 11, 12. it is ſaid, that the City of Arba or Hebron, was one of thoſe Cities which were given to the Levites, but the Fields and Villages of it were given to Caleb: But was the ſame Method obſerved with reſpect to all the other Levitical Cities? Anſw. The Fields and Villages here meant, were ſuch as lay beyond the 2000 Cubits expreſſed Numb. xxxv. 5. This is here mentioned, not as a Caſe peculiar to Caleb, but as one eminent Inſtance, to ſhew, that it was ſo in all the reſt of the Cities here named; that the Fields and Villages thereof ſtill belonged to the ſeveral Tribes from whom the Cities and their Suburbs were taken; and to make the reſt of the Tribes more contentedly and chearfully reſign ſo great a Part of their Poſſeſſions to the Levites, becauſe even Caleb did ſo, tho' his Poſſeſſion had been long before promiſed, and now actually given to him by God's ſpecial Command, as a Mark of Honour and Compenſation for his long and faithful Services.

But why were more Cities allotted to the Tribe of Levi, which was the leaſt of them, than to any of the other Tribes? To this it's anſwered, 1. That it does not appear that they had more; for, tho' all the Cities of the Levites be expreſſed, it is not ſo with the other Tribes, divers of whoſe Cities, it's very plain, are omitted. 2. The Levites were confined to their Cities and Suburbs; the reſt had large Territories belonging to their Cities, which alſo they were in a Capacity of improving, which the Levites were not; ſo that one of their Cities might be more conſiderable than divers of the Levites. 3. God was pleaſed to deal ſo liberally with his Miniſters, partly, to put Honour upon thoſe whom he foreſaw many would be prone to deſpiſe; and, partly, that being free from all outward Diſtractions, they might more entirely and fervently devote themſelves to the Service of God, and the Inſtruction of Souls.

CHAP. XXII.

The Return of the Two Tribes and a Half. They build an Altar of Teſtimony on the Banks of Jordan, their Brethren are offended at it; but the Affair is cleared up to their Satisfaction.

Ver. 1. THEN Joſhua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, 2 And ſaid unto them, Ye have kept all that Moſes the ſervant of the Lord commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you. 3 Ye have not left your brethren theſe many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the Lord your God. 4 And now the Lord your God hath given reſt unto your brethren, as he promiſed them: therefore now return ye, and get ye unto your tents, and unto the land of your poſſeſſion, which Moſes the ſervant of the Lord gave you on the other ſide Jordan. 5 But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moſes the ſervant of the Lord charged you, to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to ſerve him with all your heart and with all your ſoul. 6 So Joſhua bleſſed them, and ſent them away: and they went unto their tents. 7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manaſſeh, Moſes had given poſſeſſion in Baſhan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joſhua among their brethren on this ſide Jordan weſt-ward. And when Joſhua ſent them away alſo unto their tents, then he bleſſed them. 8 And he ſpake unto them, ſaying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with ſilver and with gold, and with braſs, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the ſpoil of your enemies with your brethren. 9 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, returned and departed from the children of Iſrael out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their poſſeſſion, whereof they were poſſeſſed, according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moſes. 10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manaſſeh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to ſee to. 11 And the children of Iſrael heard ſay, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh have built an altar over againſt the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the paſſage of the children of Iſrael. 12 And when the children of Iſrael heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Iſrael gathered themſelves together at Shiloh to go up to war againſt them. 13 And the children of Iſrael ſent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manaſſeh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the ſon of Eleazer the prieſt, 14 And with him ten princes, of each chief houſe a prince, throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, and each one was an head of the houſe of their fathers, among the thouſands of Iſrael. 15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and unto the children of Gad, and unto the half-tribe of Manaſſeh unto the land of Gilead, and they ſpake with them, ſaying, 16 Thus ſaith the whole congregation of the Lord, What treſpaſs is this that ye have committed againſt the God of Iſrael, to turn away this day from following the Lord, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel this day againſt the Lord? 17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleanſed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the Lord) 18 But that ye muſt turn away this day from following the Lord? and it will be, ſeeing ye rebel to day againſt the Lord, that to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Iſrael. 19 Notwithſtanding if the

and of your poſſeſſion be unclean, then paſs ye over unto the land of the poſſeſſion of the Lord wherein the Lords tabernacle dwelleth, and take poſſeſſion among us: but rebel not againſt the Lord, nor rebel againſt us, in building you an altar, beſide the altar of the Lord our God. 20 Did not Achan the ſon of Zerah commit a treſpaſs in the accurſed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Iſrael, and that man periſhed not alone in his iniquity. 21 Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, anſwered and ſaid unto the heads of the thouſands of Iſrael, 22 The Lord God of gods, he knoweth, and Iſrael he ſhall know, if it be in rebellion, or if in tranſgreſſion againſt the Lord, (ſave us not this day) 23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the Lord, or if to offer thereon burnt-offerings, or meat-offerings, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the Lord himſelf require it; 24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, ſaying, In time to come your children might ſpeak unto our children, ſaying, What have you to do with the Lord God of Iſrael? 25 For the Lord hath made Jordan a border between us and you; ye children of Reuben and children of Gad ye have no part in the Lord: ſo ſhall your children make our children ceaſe from fearing the Lord. 26 Therefore we ſaid, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt-offering, nor for ſacrifice: 27 But that it may be a witneſs between us and you, and our generations after us, that we may do the ſervice of the Lord before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our ſacrifices, and with our peace-offerings, that your children may not ſay to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the Lord. 28 Therefore ſaid we, that it ſhall be, when they ſhould ſo ſay to us, or to our generations in time to come, that we may ſay again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for ſacrifice, but it is a witneſs between us and you. 29 God forbid that we ſhould rebel againſt the Lord, and turn this day from following the Lord, to build an altar for burnt-offerings, for meat-offerings, or for ſacrifices, beſides the altar of the Lord our God that is before his tabernacle. 30 And when Phinehas the prieſt, and the princes of the congregation, and the heads of the thouſands of Iſrael which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manaſſeh ſpake, it pleaſed them. 31 And Phinehas the ſon of Eleazar the prieſt, ſaid unto the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and to the children of Manaſſeh, This day we perceive that the Lord is among us, becauſe ye have not committed this treſpaſs againſt the Lord: now ye have delivered the children of Iſrael out of the hand of the Lord. 32 And Phinehas the ſon of Eleazar the prieſt, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Iſrael, and brought them word again. 33 And the thing pleaſed the children of Iſrael, and the children of Iſrael bleſſed God, and did not intend to go up againſt them in battle, to deſtroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt. 34 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, called the altar Ed: for it ſhall be a witneſs between us, that the Lord is God.

So Joſhua bleſſed them, and ſent them away; and they went unto their Tents] The Chronicon Samaritanum tells us, that when Joſhua ſent the Reubenites away, he appointed Nephiel to be his Deputy on the other Side of Jordan; that he cloathed him with a royal Robe, put a Crown on his Head, and made him ride on a Horſe of State, whilſt a Crier went before him, proclaiming, 'This is the King of the Two Tribes and 'an Half, the Preſident of Juſtice, the Director of 'Affairs, and the General in the Camp: Let his De-'termination be concluſive. In all difficult Cauſes let 'him deſire an Anſwer from Eleazar the High-Prieſt; 'and, if any one ſhall contradict his Sentence, or 'withdraw from his Allegiance, it ſhall be lawful for 'any one to kill that Man, and the whole Congrega-'tion ſhall be blameleſs.'

And the Children of Reuben departed from the Children of Iſrael out of Shiloh, which is in the Land of Canaan, to go unto the Country of Gilead] Gilead, which took its Name from Gilead, the Son of Machir, and Grandſon of Manaſſeh, is often put for the whole Country that lies on the Eaſt-ſide of Jordan, which the Children of Iſrael took from the Moabites and Midianites, &c.

And when they came unto the Borders of Jordan, that are in the Land of Canaan, the Children of Reuben — built there an Altar by Jordan] The Particle there is elſewhere rendered then; and ſo learned Interpreters underſtand it, Pſ. xiv. 5. and xxxvi. 12. Eccleſ. iii. 17. Hoſ. ii. 15. and in the Latin Tongue, Adverbs of Place are ſometimes put for Adverbs of Time; as it ſeems here. 1. Becauſe this beſt anſwers to the when in the Beginning of the Verſe. 2. This ſeems to clear a great Difficulty as to the Place where the Altar was built, which, tho' according to our Tranſlation, it ſeems, and is generally thought by the Interpreters to be in the Land of Canaan, yet if Things be more ſtrictly examined, it will appear probable to have been on the other Side of Jordan in Gilead. 1. From Ver. 11. where it's ſaid to have been built over-againſt, or, in the Sight of the Land of Canaan, therefore not in it. And, 2. From the Reaſon they give of building this Altar, for Fear, leſt the Iſraelites within Jordan, and in Canaan, ſhould ſay unto their Children dwelling beyond Jordan, The Lord hath made Jordan a Border betwixt us and you, &c. which Jealouſy would have been much confirmed by building the Altar in Canaan, but would be ſatisfied and confuted by having on the other Side Jordan, and in their own Land, a Pattern of that Altar at which God was ſerved in the Land of Canaan. But whether the Hebrew Particle be rendered then or there, it is not to be taken too ſtrictly; if then, the Meaning is not, that they did this as ſoon as ever they came to the Borders of Jordan, that are in the Land of Canaan; but about that Time when they came thither, that they thought and deſigned it, and as ſoon as ever they got over Jordan, which was in a very little Time, they ſet about and perfected it. If it be rendered there, it is not to be limited to the very ſame Spot of Ground mentioned before, as if it was built on that Border of Jordan that was in the Land of Canaan; but to be a little more largely underſtood; to be built on one or other of the Borders of Jordan; or in general, by Jordan; which is here purpoſely added, for the Explication of the Word there, and to prevent reſtraining it to the Border of Jordan within Canaan.

CHAP. XXIII.

Joſhua being old aſſembles the People, and diſcourſes with them concerning the wonderful Works which God had wrought among them, and exhorts them by various Arguments to fear and ſerve God.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs, a long time after that the Lord had given reſt unto unto Iſrael from all their enemies round about, that Joſhua waxed old, and ſtricken in age. 2 And Joſhua called for all Iſrael, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and ſaid unto them, I am old and ſtricken in age: 3 And ye have ſeen all that the Lord your God hath done unto all theſe nations, becauſe of you; for the Lord your God is he that hath fought for you. 4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot theſe nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great ſea weſt-ward. 5 And the Lord your God, he ſhall expell them from before you, and drive them from out of your ſight, and ye ſhall poſſeſs their land, as the Lord you God hath promiſed unto you. 6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moſes, that ye turn not aſide therefrom, to the right hand or to the left, 7 That ye come not among theſe nations, theſe that remain amongſt you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cauſe to ſware by them, neither ſerve them, nor bow your ſelves unto them: 8 But cleave unto the Lord your God, as ye have done unto this day. 9 For the Lord hath driven out from before you, great nations and ſtrong: but as for you, no man hath been able to ſtand before you unto this day. 10 One man of you ſhall chaſe a thouſand: for the Lord your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promiſed you. 11 Take good heed therefore unto your ſelves, that ye love the Lord your God. 12 Elſe if ye do in any wiſe go back, and cleave unto the remnant of theſe nations, even theſe that remain among you, and ſhall make marriages with them, and go in unto them and they to you. 13 Know for a certainty, that the Lord your God will no more drive out any of theſe nations from before you; but they ſhall be ſnares and traps unto you, and ſcourges in your ſides, and thorns in your eyes, until you periſh from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. 14 And behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth, and ye know in all your hearts, and in all your ſouls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God ſpake concerning you; all are come to paſs unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof. 15 Therefore it ſhall come to paſs, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promiſed you: ſo ſhall the Lord bring upon you all evil things, until he have deſtroyed you from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you. 16 When ye have tranſgreſſed the covenant of the Lord your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and ſerved other gods, and bowed your ſelves to them: then ſhall the anger of the Lord be kindled againſt you, and ye ſhall periſh quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

And it came to paſs a long Time after that the Lord had given Reſt unto Iſrael] The Learned have computed it at about fourteen Years.

CHAP. XXIV.

Joſhua ſummons all the Tribes to Shechem, and recapitulates the Tranſactions of God towards them from Terah till that Time; renews the Covenant betwixt God and them; writes it in the Book of the Law; ſets up a Stone for a Witneſs. His Age, Death, and Burial. Joſeph's Bones are buried. Eleazar dies.

Ver. 1. AND Joſhua gathered all the tribes of Iſrael to Shechem, and called for the elders of Iſrael, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and they preſented themſelves before God. 2 And Joſhua ſaid unto all the people, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, your fathers dwelt on the other ſide of the flood in old time, even Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they ſerved other gods. 3 And I took your father Abraham from the other ſide of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his ſeed, and gave him Iſaac. 4 And I gave unto Iſaac, Jacob and Eſau: and I gave unto Eſau mount Seir, to poſſeſs it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. 5 I ſent Moſes alſo and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did amongſt them: and afterward I brought you out. 6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came unto the ſea, and the Egyptians purſued after your fathers with chariots and horſemen unto the Red-ſea. 7 And when they cried unto the Lord, he put darkneſs between you and the Egyptians, and brought the ſea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have ſeen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderneſs a long ſeaſon. 8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other ſide Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might poſſeſs their land, and I deſtroyed them from before you. 9 Then Balak the ſon of Zippor, king of Moab, aroſe and warred againſt Iſrael, and ſent and called Balaam the ſon of Beor to curſe you: 10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam, therefore he bleſſed you ſtill: ſo I delivered you out of his hand. 11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho. and the men of Jericho fought againſt you, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgaſhites, the Hivites, and the Jebuſites, and I delivered them into your hand. 12 And I ſent the horner before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites: but not with thy ſword, nor with thy bow. 13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them: of the vineyards and olive-yards, which ye planted not, do ye eat. 14 Now therefore, fear the Lord, and ſerve him in ſincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers ſerved on the other ſide of the flood, and in Egypt: and ſerve ye the Lord. 15 And if it ſeem evil unto you to ſerve the Lord, choose you this day whom you will ſerve, whether the gods which your fathers ſerved, that were on the other ſide of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whoſe land ye dwell: but as for me and my houſe, we will ſerve the Lord. 16 And the people anſwered and ſaid, God forbid that we ſhould forſake the Lord, to ſerve other gods. 17 For the Lord our God, he it is that brought us up, and our fathers out of the land of Egypt from the houſe of bondage, and which did thoſe great ſigns in our ſight, and preſerved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we paſſed. 18 And the Lord drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we alſo ſerve the lord for he is our God. 19 And Joſhua ſaid unto the people, Ye cannot ſerve the Lord; for he is an holy God: he is a jealous God, he will not forgive your tranſgreſſions, nor your ſins. 20 If ye forſake the Lord, and ſerve ſtrange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and conſume you, after that he hath done you good. 21 And the people ſaid unto Joſhua, Nay, but we will ſerve the Lord. 22 And Joſhua ſaid unto the people, Ye are witneſſes againſt your ſelves, that ye have choſen you the Lord, to ſerve him. And they ſaid, We are witneſſes. 23 Now therefore put away (ſaid he) the ſtrange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the Lord God of Iſrael. 24 And the people ſaid unto Joſhua, The Lord our God will we ſerve, and his voice will we obey. 25 So Joſhua made a covenant with the people that day, and ſet them a ſtatute and an ordinance in Shechem. 26 And Joſhua wrote theſe words in the book of the law of God and took a great ſtone, and ſet it up there under an oak, that was by the ſanctuary of the Lord. 27 And Joſhua ſaid unto all the people, Behold, this ſtone ſhall be a witneſs unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the Lord which he ſpake unto us: it ſhall be therefore a witneſs unto you, leſt ye deny your God. 28 So Joſhua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance. 29 And it came to paſs after theſe things, that Joſhua the ſon of Nun the ſervant of the Lord died, being an hundred and ten years old. 30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-ſerah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north-ſide of the hill of Gaaſh. 31 And Iſrael ſerved the Lord all the days of Joſhua, and all the days of the elders that overlived Joſhua, and which had known all the works of the Lord, that he had done for Iſrael. 32 And the bones of Joſeph, which the children of Iſrael brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the ſons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred pieces of ſilver; and it became the inheritance of the children of Joſeph. 33 And Eleazar the ſon of Aaron died, and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his ſon, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

Then Balak the Son of Zippor King of Moab, aroſe and warred againſt Iſrael] How is this true, when Balak did never fight againſt Iſrael? Anſw. One Prince may fight againſt another, tho' he never come to a battle, nor ſtrike one Stroke; ſo Balak warred, tho' not by open Force, yet by crafty Counſel, and warlike Stratagems, by magical Arts, by wicked Devices, and by throwing Temptations in their Way, in order to break the Covenant and Alliance between God their Confederate and Protector; or by warlike Stratagems, in Caſe Balaam's Charms had ſucceeded, as may be gathered from Numb. xxii. 11. or at leaſt by Deſign and Intention; Things being often ſaid to be done both in Scripture and other Authors, which were only deſigned or intended, as here Ver. 11. Gen. xxxvii. 21. Ezek. xxiv. 13. Matt. v. 28. John x. 32, 33. And the old Lawyers note, That he is rightly called a Thief or an Adulterer, &c. who wanted nothing but Occaſion or Opportunity of being ſo.

And if it ſeem evil unto you to ſerve the Lord, chuſe you this Day whom you will ſerve] He does not abſolutely leave them to their Liberty, whether they would ſerve God or Idols; for Joſhua had no ſuch Power or Liberty himſelf, nor could give it to another; and both he and they are obliged by the Law of Moſes, to give their Worſhip to God only, and to forbear all Idolatry in themſelves, and ſeverely puniſh it in others; but it is a rhetorical and powerful Inſinuation, whereby he both implies, that the Worſhip of God is ſo highly reaſonable, ſo neceſſary and beneficial; and the Service of Idols ſo abſurd, vain, and pernicious, that if it were left free to all Men to make their Choice, every Man in his right Wits muſt needs chuſe the Service of God, before that of Idols; and provokes them to bind themſelves faſter to God by their own Choice. See ſuch Manner of Speeches in Ruth i. 8, 15. Kings xviii. 21.

And Joſhua ſaid unto the People, Ye cannot ſerve the Lord] Joſhua does not here ſpeak of an abſolute Impoſſibility; (for then both his Reſolution to ſerve God himſelf, and his Exhortation to them to do the ſame, had undoubtedly been vain and ridiculous) but of a moral Impoſſibility, or a very great Difficulty, which he alledges, not to diſcourage them from God's Service, which it is his great Deſign to engage them in; but only to make them more conſiderate and cautious in obliging themſelves to it; and more circumſpect and reſolute in anſwering their Obligations. The Meaning therefore is, God's Service is not, as you ſeem to imagine, a ſlight and eaſy Thing, as ſoon done as ſaid; but it is a Work of great Difficulty, and requires great Care, Courage and Reſolution; and when I conſider the infinite Purity of God, that he will not be mocked or abuſed; and withal, your great and manifeſt Proneneſs to Superſtition and Idolatry, even during the Life of Moſes, and in ſome of you whilſt I live, and whilſt the Obligations which God hath laid upon you in this Land, are freſh in your Memory; I cannot but fear that after my Deceaſe you will think the Service of God too hard and burthenſome for you, and therefore will caſt it off and revolt from him, if you do not double your Watch, and carefully avoid all Occaſions of Idolatry, which I fear you will not do, but I do hereby exhort you to do.

He will not forgive your Tranſgreſſions nor your Sins] That is, If you, who own yourſelves for his People and Servants, ſhall wickedly and wilfully tranſgreſs his Laws, by Idolatry, or other Crimes, he will not let this go unpuniſhed in you, as he does in other Nations; therefore conſider what you do when you take the Lord for your God; weigh your Advantages and Inconveniencies together; for if you be ſincere and faithful in God's Service, you will have admirable Benefits by it; ſo if you be falſe to your Profeſſions, and forſake him whom you have ſo ſolemnly avouched to be your God, he will deal more ſeverely with you, than with any People in the World.

And Joſhua wrote theſe Words in the Book of the Law of God] That is, he wrote this Covenant or Agreement of the People with the Lord, in that Volume which was kept in the Ark, Deut. xxxi. 9, 26. whence it was taken and put into the Book of Joſhua. This he did, partly, for the perpetual Remembrance of this great and ſolemn Action; partly, to lay the greater Obligation upon the People to be true to their Engagement; and, partly, as a Witneſs for God, and againſt the People, if afterwards he ſeverely puniſhed them for their Defection from him, to whom they had ſo ſolemnly and freely obliged themſelves.

And took a great Stone, and ſet it up there] This Stone was to be a Witneſs and Monument of this great Tranſaction, according to the Cuſtom of thoſe antient Times, as Gen. xxviii. 18. and xxxi. 45. Exod. xxiv. 4. Deut. xxvii. 2. Joſh. iv. 3. and viii. 32. Poſſibly this Agreement might be written upon this Stone, as was uſual in thoſe Times.

Under an Oak] That is, near to the Place where the Ark and Tabernacle then were: For, tho' they were forbidden to plant a Grove near the Altar, as the Gentiles did, yet they might for a Time ſet up an Altar, or the Ark, near a great Tree which had been planted there before.

For it hath heard all the Words of the Lord] That is, it ſhall be as ſure a Witneſs againſt you, as if it had really heard what had been ſaid. This is a common Figure, called Proſopopeia, whereby the Senſe of Hearing is frequently aſcribed to the Heavens and the Earth, and other ſenſeleſs Creatures, as Deut. xxxii. 1. Jer. ii. 12. Be aſtoniſhed, O ye Heavens at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very deſolate, ſaith the Lord.

Joſhua, the Servant of the Lord, died, being an hundred and ten Years old] Jeſus the Son of Sirach, gives us a long Commendation of Joſhua, Eccleſ. xlvi. 1, &c. but Joſephus is more conciſe in his Character, where he tells us, — 'That he was a Man of political Pru-'dence, and endowed alſo with a ſingular Felicity of 'popular Eloquence in expreſſing his Thoughts; brave, 'and indefatigable in War; and no leſs juſt and dex-'trous in Peace; and, in ſhort, that he was a Perſon 'qualified for all great Purpoſes.' He is generally reputed to be the Author of the Book that goes under his Name. In the 26th Verſe of this Chapter, it is expreſly ſaid, that he wrote theſe Things, Eccleſ. xlvi. 1. The Son of Sirach has made him Succeſſor to Moſes in the prophetick Miniſtry. And both the Church and Synagogue have all along looked upon the Book as Canonical. The Truth is, Joſhua was the only ſacred Penman we know of, that the Iſraelites had in his Age. After he had finiſhed the Diviſion of the Land, 'tis ſaid Chap. xxiii. 1. that he had many Years of great Leiſure, which he very probably employed in giving an Account of the Death and Burial of Moſes and Eleazar, and from thence continued a Narrative of what had been tranſacted under his own Adminiſtration; filling it up with a general Terrier of the Settlements of the Tribes, which was highly expedient for the Iſraelites to have recorded, in order to prevent Confuſions about their Inheritances in future Ages. Now if this Suppoſition be right, the Work of Joſhua muſt begin where that of Moſes ended, viz. at the xxxivth Chapter of Deuteronomy, and ended the 27th Verſe of the xxivth Chapter of Joſhua. For, as Joſhua, at the End of Deuteronomy, added an Account of Moſes's Death; ſo what we find from the 28th Verſe of the xxivth Chapter of Joſhua to the End of that Book, was unqueſtionably not written until Joſhua and all the Elders his Cotemporaries were gone off the Stage, and was therefore added to end the Book of Joſhua by ſome ſacred Penman, (moſt probably by Samuel) who was afterwards employed to record the ſubſequent State of Affairs of Iſrael. See Shuckford's Con. and Patrick's Com. But there is the like Certainty of another Book of Joſhua's, which the Samaritans preſerve with much Reſpect, and make great Uſe of, in the Support of their Pretenſions againſt the Jews; neither can we tell, whether Joſhua was the Author of that Prayer, which the Jews repeat as oft as they go into the Synagogues, and begins thus, — 'It is our Duty to praiſe the Lord of the Univerſe, 'and to celebrate the Creation of the World; for he 'hath not made us like unto the Nations of the Earth, 'but hath prepared for us an Inheritance infinitely 'richer and greater, &c.' See Wagenfeil's Tela ignea Satanæ.

And the Bones of Joſeph, which the Children of Iſrael brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem] It may reaſonably be thought, that the Bodies of the reſt of the Sons of Jacob, from whom the Twelve Tribes deſcended, were brought into Canaan, to be there interred, as Joſephus relates from antient Tradition, and as St. Stephen confirms it, Acts vii. 16. For tho' Joſeph excelled them all in Dignity, and gave this ſpecial Charge about his Body, yet every Tribe, no doubt, had as great a Regard for their Progenitor, and would be inclined to do the ſame for their Fathers, that Joſeph's Deſcendants did for him: But whether they buried them in the Cave of Machpelah, or in ſome eminent Place in their own Tribe, as Joſeph was, there is no one that gives us any Account. See Patrick's Com.

And Eleazar the Son of Aaron died, and they buried him in a Hill that pertained to Phinehas his Son] This Place, ſays Patrick, is, in the Hebrew, called the Hill of Phinehas, it being cuſtomary in thoſe Days for Men to call Places by the Names of their eldeſt Son. But then the Queſtion is, To whom did the Iſraelites give this Hill? The moſt probable Anſwer: That they gave it to Eleazar; for, he being the High-Prieſt, at the Time of the Diviſion of the Land, they thought proper to give him a peculiar Portion diſtinct from other Cities of the Prieſts, which were all in the Tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Simeon, and none in the Tribe of Ephraim, Joſh. xxi. 9, 17, 19. And they made Choice of this Country the rather, that he might be near the Tabernacle which was at Shiloh, and near to Joſhua, who lived at Shechem, to be ready on all Occaſions to adviſe him, and conſult the Oracle for him. But then againſt this there lies an Objection, viz. that no Levite or Prieſt was to have any Portion in the Diviſion of the Land; and therefore it is a received Opinion among the Jews, that either Eleazar or Phineas, had this Inheritance in Right of his Wife: Tho' we cannot ſee, why the High-Prieſt eſpecially, who was certainly the ſecond Perſon in the Government, might not have a Manſion-houſe, and ſome Domains allotted to him, for the greater State and Dignity of his Living, without any great Infringement upon the general Laws.

AN EXPOSITION OF The Book of JUDGES.

The ARGUMENT.

Who the Author of this Book was, whether Samuel or Ezra, or ſome other Prophet, is not certainly known, nor is it very material to know. It imports not much who was the King's Secretary, or with what Pen it was written, if it be once known that it was the King who made the Order or Decree. It is ſufficient, that unto the Jews were committed the Oracles of God, Rom. iii. 2. that is, the Holy Scriptures of the Old Teſtament, one Part of which this was, as is generally allowed.

This Book, which hath evidently been compiled by ſome Prophet out of publick Regiſters and Records, and the Treaſures where they were kept, contains the Series of the Hiſtory of the principal Things which happened to the People of God, from the Death of Joſhua till the Days of Eli the High Prieſt: The Sum of which is, that God, after Joſhua's Death, having left many of the accurſed Canaanites remaining for a continual Proof, and Exerciſe of his People; they, by their unlawful Practices, Contracts, and Marriages with them, were thereby led into many notorious Corruptions in the Service of God, and into a boundleſs Idolatry, accompanied with an extreme Depravation of Life and Manners. Whereupon God afflicted them with the Scourge of theſe and other Nations, and puniſhed them ſeverely by foreign Tyrannies, Violences, Oppreſſions, and the Deſolations of War.

But however, the Almighty did not abandon them entirely to the Mercy of their Enemies, but often raiſed up ſome heroic Perſons, whom he endowed with the Power and Gift of his Spirit, and inſpired them with a Reſolution to take upon them the Government under a benign, fatherly, and reaſonable Form, to adminiſter Juſtice, to defend and deliver the People from their Oppreſſors, to re-eſtabliſh the publick Peace and Tranquillity by their Armies, miraculouſly conducted and bleſſed by God, and all under the plain Name and Title of Judges; who were a Sort of Magiſtrates inferior to Kings, and could neither make new Laws, nor impoſe any Tribute or Taxes, but were the ſupreme Executors of the Laws and Commands of God, and the Generals of the Armies of Iſrael. This laid open the Way for God's Providence to confirm the State of Iſrael, by eſtabliſhing a Monarchy in David and his Poſterity, which was to ſerve for a perpetual Aſſurance and Direction to expect the ſpiritual and everlaſting Kingdom of Chriſt.

This Book (according to the Account of ſome) contains the Hiſtory of 299, or 300 Years; that is, from the Year ſince the Creation of the World, 2511, or 2810.

The Tribes of Judah, and Simeon, renew the War againſt the Canaanites; their Conqueſts. Othniel ſubdues Debir, for which he obtains Caleb's Daughter in Marriage. The Kenites dwell in Judah. The Houſe of Joſeph ſubdue Bethel. The Remiſneſs of the Tribes in driving out the Canaanites.

Ver. 1. NOW after the death of Joſhua, it came to paſs, that the children of Iſrael aſked the Lord, ſaying, Who ſhall go up for us againſt the Canaanites firſt to fight againſt them; 2 And the Lord ſaid, Judah ſhall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. 3 And Judah ſaid unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight againſt the Canaanites, and I likewiſe will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him. 4 And Judah went up, and the Lord delivered the Canaanites, and the Perizzites into their hand: and they ſlew of them in Bezek ten thouſand men. 5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought againſt him, and they ſlew the Canaanites and the Perizzites. 6 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they purſued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs, and his great toes. 7 And Adoni-bezek ſaid, Threeſcore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table; as I have done, ſo God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jeruſalem, and there he died. 8 (Now the children of Judah had fought againſt Jeruſalem, and had taken it, and ſmitten it with the edge of the ſword, and ſet the city on fire) 9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight againſt the Canaanites that dwelt in the mountain, and in the ſouth, and in the valley. 10 And Judah went againſt the Canaanites that dwelt dwelt in Hebron, (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba) and they ſlew Sheſhai, and Ahiman, and Talmai. 11 And from thence he went againſt the inhabitants of Debir: (and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-ſepher) 12 And Caleb ſaid, He that ſmiteth Kirjath-ſepher and taketh it: to him will I give Achſah my daughter to wife. 13 And Othniel the ſon of Kenaz Calebs younger brother took it: and he gave him Achſah his daughter to wife. 14 And it came to paſs when ſhe came to him, that ſhe moved him to aſk of her father a field: and ſhe lighted from off her aſs; and Caleb ſaid unto her, What wilt thou? 15 And ſhe ſaid unto him, Give me a bleſſing: for thou haſt given me a ſouth-land, give me alſo ſprings of water. And Caleb gave her the upper ſprings, and the neither ſprings. 16 And the children of the Kenite, Moſes father in law, went up out of the city of palm-trees, with the children of Judah into the wilderneſs of Judah, which lieth in the ſouth of Arad, and they went and dwelt among the people. 17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they ſlew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly deſtroyed it: (and the name of the city was called Hormah) 18 Alſo Judah took Gezer with the coaſt thereof, and Askelon with the coaſt thereof, and Ekron with the coaſt thereof. 19 And the Lord was with Judah, and he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain, but could not drive out the inabitants of the valley, becauſe they had chariots of iron. 20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moſes ſaid: and he expelled thence the three ſons of Anak. 21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebuſites that inhabited Jeruſalem: but the Jebuſites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jeruſalem unto this day. 22 And the houſe of Joſeph, they alſo went up againſt Beth-el: and the Lord was with them. 23 And the houſe of Joſeph ſent to deſcry Beth-el: (now the name of the city before was Luz) 24 And the ſpies ſaw a man come forth out of the city, and they ſaid unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will ſhew thee mercy. 25 And when he ſhewed them the entrance into the city, they ſmote the city with the edge of the ſword: but they let go the man and all his family. 26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day. 27 Neither did Manaſſeh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-ſhean and her towns, nor Tanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitance of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. 28 And it came to paſs when Iſrael was ſtrong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out. 29 Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanaites dwelt in Gezer among them. 30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol: but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries. 31 Neither did Aſher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor Achzib, nor Helbah, nor Aphik, nor of Rehob: 32 But the Aſherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out. 33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-ſhemeſh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheleſs the inhabitants of Beth-ſhemeſh and of Beth anath became tributaries unto them. 34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not ſuffer them to come down to the valley. 35 But the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres in Ajjalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the houſe of Joſeph prevailed, ſo that they became tributaries. 36 And the coaſt of the Amorites was from the going up to Akrabbim, from the rock and upward.

Now after the Death of Joſhua] The Samaritan Chronicle tells us indeed, that in the laſt Aſſembly which Joſhua held, he nominated twelve Chiefs, of every Tribe one, and put it to the Lot, who ſhould ſucceed him in the Government; that the Lot fell upon his Nephew Abel, whom he accordingly crowned, and inveſted with other Enſigns of Honour, &c. But this is thought to be no more than a fabulous Account, invented to fill up this void Space of Time. See Sanctii Differt. in Locum.

And they ſlew of them in Bezek] There is another Place in Scripture, viz. 1 Sam. xi. 8. where Bezek is mentioned; and ſince Euſebius and Jerome tells us, that there were, in their Days, two Towns, about ſeventeen Miles diſtant from Shechem, of the ſame Name, and not far diſtant from each other, we ſee nothing of moment to hinder them from being both but one City in former Times. See Wells's Geogr.

And cut off his Thumbs and his great Toes] The Reaſon of their mutilating him in this Manner, ſays Patrick, was, to make him uncapable of War any more, being unable to handle Arms, by Reaſon of the Loſs of his Thumbs, or to run ſwiftly (which was a notable Quality in a Warrior in thoſe Days) by the Loſs of his great Toes.

Now the Children of Judah had fought againſt Jeruſalem, and taken it, and ſmitten it with the Edge of the Sword] We do not read, ſays Patrick, that Jeruſalem was ever taken by Joſhua, tho' it ſeems highly probable, that, when he took the King of Jeruſalem, he did to it as he did to the reſt of the Cities belonging to thoſe Kings, Joſh. x. 3, 23. But when he was gone to conquer other Parts of the Country, it is likely that the old Inhabitants returned again, and took Poſſeſſion of it, for the Land was not then divided among the Iſraelites. But as Joſhua, a little before his Death, divided the Land, and this City fell, in Part, to the Share of the Tribe of Judah, they diſpoſſeſſed the Jebuſites that dwelt there, of all but the ſtrong Fortreſs on the Top of Mount Sion, which held out till the Days of David.

And Caleb ſaid, He that ſmiteth Kirjath-ſepher] Who was their General on this Occaſion, is not expreſly mentioned either in Scripture, Joſephus, or any other antient Hiſtorian; and yet it is hardly to be queſtioned, but that Caleb was the Perſon. He was of the Tribe of Judah, older than any other by twenty Years; and yet, like Moſes, he continued in his full Strength and Vigour. He and Joſhua were the only two Spies, who, having ſearched out the Land, gave a true Report of it; and therefore, as Joſhua was the firſt General, he had the greateſt Right to ſucceed him, and this might be the Reaſon why Joſhua, at his Death, named no other. He, and Joſhua, were the only two Perſons, to whom the Iſraelites gave Inheritances for their ſignal Services; and, as his Inheritance lay uncon-quered in this Tribe, he had the greateſt Reaſon to be active in reducing it. His Name alone is mentioned in all theſe Wars; and, as his Son-in-law, Othniel was the firſt Deliverer of the Iſraelites from their Oppreſſion, he ſeems to have ſucceeded Caleb in this Dignity, as his neareſt and moſt valiant Relation. See Bedford's Script. Chron.

CHAP. II.

An Angel reproves Iſrael at Bochim. The Wickedneſs of the new Generation after Joſhua, for which God puniſhes them by their Enemies; and, being delivered by the Judges, grew worſe.

Ver. 1. AND an angel of the Lord came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and ſaid, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I ſware unto your fathers; and I ſaid, I will never break my covenant with you. 2 And ye ſhall make no league with the inhabitants of this land, you ſhall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice; why have ye done this? 3 Wherefore I alſo ſaid, I will not drive them out from before you: but they ſhall be as thorns in your ſides, and their gods ſhall be a ſnare unto you. 4 And it came to paſs, when the angel of the Lord ſpake theſe words unto all the children of Iſrael, that the people lift up their voice, and wept. 5 And they called the name of that place Bochim: and they ſacrificed there unto the Lord. 6 And when Joſhua had let the people go, the children of Iſrael went every man unto his inheritance to poſſeſs the land. 7 And the people ſerved the Lord all the days of Joſhua, and all the days of the elders that out lived Joſhua, who had ſeen all the great works of the Lord, that he did for Iſrael. 8 And Joſhua the ſon of Nun, the ſervant of the Lord, died, being an hundred and ten years old. 9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north ſide of the hill Gaath. 10 And alſo all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there aroſe another generation after them, which knew not the Lord, nor yet the works which he had done for Iſrael. 11 And the children of Iſrael did evil in the ſight of the Lord, and ſerved Baalim: 12 And they forſook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themſelves unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger. 13 And they forſook the Lord, and ſerved Baal and Aſhtaroth. 14 And the anger of the Lord was hot againſt Iſrael, and he delivered them into the hands of ſpoilers that ſpoiled them, and he ſold them into the hands of their enemies round about, ſo that they could not any longer ſtand before their enemies. 15 Whitherſoever they went out, the hand of the Lord was againſt them for evil, as the Lord had ſaid, and as the Lord hath ſworn unto them: and they were greatly diſtreſſed. 16 Nevertheleſs the Lord raiſed up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of thoſe that ſpoiled them. 17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themſelves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way, which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the Lord; but they did not ſo. 18 And when the Lord raiſed them up judges, then the Lord was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies, all the days of the judge: (for it repented the Lord, becauſe of their groanings, by reaſon of them that oppreſſed them, and vexed them) 19 And it came to paſs when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themſelves more than their fathers, in following other gods, to ſerve them, and to bow down unto them: they ceaſed not from their own doings, nor from their ſtubborn way. 20 And the anger of the Lord was hot againſt Iſrael; and he ſaid, Becauſe that this people hath tranſgreſſed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice: 21 I alſo will not henceforth drive out any from before them, of the nations which Joſhua left when he died: 22 That through them I may prove Iſrael, whether they will keep the way of the Lord, to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not. 23 Therefore the Lord left thoſe nations, without driving them out haſtily, neither delivered he them into the hand of Joſhua.

And an Angel of the Lord came up from Gilgal to Bochim] The Jews, ſays Patrick, were generally of Opinion, that, by this Angel, we are to underſtand a Prophet, who was ſent by God as a Meſſenger, which the Word very often imports; and this Meſſenger they commonly take to have been Phineas, who was employed upon this Errand. I can ſee no Reaſon, however, for their departing from the uſual Signification of the Word, eſpecially when there is no Abſurdity in it, and the Senſe of the Context ſeems to require our retaining it. Nay, there is Reaſon to ſay, that the Perſon, who here reproves the Iſraelites, was ſomething more than a created Angel; for, who but God can ſpeak in this Stile, I made you to go out of Egypt? No Prophet, nor any created Angel, durſt have been ſo bold: And therefore, the Opinion of moſt Chriſtian Interpreters is, that it was the Son of God, who is frequently in Scripture called the Angel of the Covenant. And fit it was for him to appear now, as coming from Gilgal, to put them in Mind of his illuſtrious Appearance near that Place once before, of the Aſſurance he then gave them of his Preſence with them in the Conqueſt of the Land, and of the ſolemn Covenant he made with them, by renewing of Circumciſion. The Angel's coming up from Gilgal, is therefore mentioned, as a very pertinent Circumſtance, to upbraid the Iſraelites with their baſe Ingratitude to God, and with their Sloth in not endeavouring to drive out the Canaanites.

Nevertheleſs, the Lord raiſed up Judges] Judges, which, in Hebrew, are Shophetim, were a Kind of Magiſtrates, not much unlike the Archontes among the Athenians, and the Dictators among the Romans. The Carthaginians, a Colony among the Tyrians, had a Sort of Rulers, whom they called Suffetes, or Shophetim, much of the ſame Extent of Power; and Grotius, in the Beginning of his Commentary on this Book of Judges, compares them to thoſe Chiefs that were in Gaul, in Germany, and Britain, before the Romans introduced another Form of Government. Their Power conſiſted in a Medium, as it were, between that of a King, and an ordinary Magiſtrate, ſuperior to the latter, but not ſo abſolute as the former. They were indeed no more than God's Vicegerents, and every Attempt to raiſe themſelves to regal Dignity, was looked on as an Uſurpation upon his Right, who alone was to be conſidered as the Sovereign of the Hebrews, and therefore we find Gibeon refuſing this ſupreme Authority when it was offered him, Judg. viii. 23. I will not rule over you, neither ſhall my Son rule over you; the Lord ſhall rule over you.

The Honour of theſe Judges laſted for Life; but their Succeſſion was not always continued, for there were frequent Interruptions in it, and the People lived often under the Dominion of Strangers, without any Government of their own. According to common Cuſtom, they were generally appointed by God; the Gifts which he inveſted them with, and the Exploits he enabled them to do, were a Call ſufficient to that Office: But, in Caſe of extreme Exigence, the People made ſometimes Choice of ſuch, as they thought beſt qualified to reſcue them out of their Oppreſſion, without waiting for divine Deſignation.

Their Right extended ſo far, as to arbitrate in all Affairs of War and Peace, and to determine all Cauſes; but then they had none at all to make any new Laws, or lay new Taxes upon the People. Their Dominion did ſeldom reach over all the Land; but, as it often happened, that the Oppreſſions, which occaſioned a Recourſe to their Aſſiſtance, were felt in particular Tribes, or Provinces only; ſo the Judges, who were either raiſed, or choſen, to procure a Deliverance from theſe Grievances, did not extend their Command over all the Land, in general, but over that Diſtrict only, which they were appointed to deliver.

In ſhort, theſe Judges were by their Office the Protectors of the Laws, the Defenders of Religion, and the Avengers of all Crimes, eſpecially of that of Idolatry; and yet it muſt be owned, that theſe were Men of the like Paſſions and Infirmities with others, and that the great Advantages, which, under God, they procured for the Iſraelites, did not exempt them from that Frailty which is incident to all human Things; of which Sampſon is an eminent Inſtance. But then we are to remember, that theſe Judges, were Perſons under a particular Oeconomy of Providence, that their Conduct therefore is no Direction to us, tho' our Paſſions the Almighty might make uſe of (and therefore tolerate) for the Accompliſhment of his wiſe Ends.

CHAP. III.

The Nations that were left to prove Iſrael. The Iſraelites, for their Sins, are delivered up to the King of Meſopotamia; are reſcued by Othniel; but continuing to do Evil, are again oppreſſed by the Moabites; are reſcued by Elud. Shamgar deliwers them from the Philiſtines.

Ver. 1. NOW theſe are the nations which the Lord left to prove Iſrael by them, (even as many of Iſrael as had not known all the wars of Canaan; 2 Only that the generations of the children of Iſrael might know to teach them war, at the leaſt ſuch as before knew nothing thereof) 3 Namely, five lords of the Philiſtines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites, that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon, unto the entering in of Hamath. 4 And they were to prove Iſrael by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moſes. 5 And the children of Iſrael dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebuſites: 6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their ſons, and ſerved their gods. 7 And the children of Iſrael did evil in the ſight of the Lord, and forgat the Lord their God, and ſerved Baalim, and the groves. 8 Therefore the anger of the Lord was hot againſt Iſrael, and he ſold them into the hand of Chuſhan-riſhathaim king of Meſopotamia: and the children of Iſrael ſerved Chuſhan-riſhathaim eight years. 9 And when the children of Iſrael cried unto the Lord, the Lord raiſed up a deliverer to the children of Iſrael, who delivered them, even Othniel the ſon of Kenaz, Calebs younger brother. 10 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he judged Iſrael, and went out to war; and the Lord delivered Chuſhan-riſhathaim king of Meſopotamia into his hand: and his hand prevailed againſt Chuſhan-riſhathaim. 11 And the land had reſt forty years: and Othniel the ſon of Kenaz died. 12 And the children of Iſrael did evil again in the ſight of the Lord: and the Lord ſtrengthened Eglon the king of Moab againſt Iſrael, becauſe they had done evil in the ſight of the Lord. 13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and ſmote Iſrael, and poſſeſſed the city of palm-trees. 14 So the children of Iſrael ſerved Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. 15 But when the children of Iſrael cried unto the Lord, the Lord raiſed them up a deliverer, Ehud the ſon of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left-handed: and by him the children of Iſrael ſent a preſent unto Eglon the king of Moab. 16 But Ehud made him a dagger (which had two edges) of a cubit length, and he did gird it under his raiment, upon his right thigh. 17 And he brought the preſent unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man. 18 And when he had made an end to offer the preſent, he ſent away the people that bare the preſent. 19 But he himſelf turned again from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and ſaid, I have a ſecret errand unto thee, O king: who ſaid, Keep ſilence. And all that ſtood by him, went out from him. 20 And Ehud came unto him, and he was ſetting in a ſummer-parlour, which he had for himſelf alone: and Ehud ſaid, I have a meſſage from God unto thee. And he aroſe out of his ſeat. 21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thruſt it into his belly. 22 And the haft alſo went in after the blade: and the fat cloſed upon the blade, ſo that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly, and the dirt came out. 23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and ſhut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them. 24 When he was gone out, his ſervants came; and when they ſaw, that behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they ſaid, Surely he covereth his feet in his ſummer-chamber. 25 And they tarried till they were aſhamed: and behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour, therefore they took a key, and opened them: and behold their Lord was fallen down dead on the earth. 26 And Ehud eſcaped while they tarried: and paſſed beyond the quarries, and eſcaped unto Seirath. 27 And it came to paſs when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Iſrael went down with him from the mount, and he before them. 28 And he ſaid unto them, Follow after me: for the Lord hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and ſuffered not a man to paſs over. 29 And they ſlew of Moab at that time, about ten thouſand men, all luſty, and all men of valour; and there eſcaped not a man. 30 So Moab was ſubdued that day under the hand of Iſrael: and the land had reſt fourſcore years. 31 And after him was Shamgar the ſon of Anath, which ſlew of the Philiſtines ſix hundred men with an ox-goad, and he alſo delivered Iſrael.

And ſerved Baalim and the Groves] That is, in the Groves, in which the Heathens uſually worſhipped their Baalims, or Idols. Or the Groves are here put metonymically for the Idols of the Groves, which are here diſtinguiſhed from the Baalim, which ſeems to have been been worshipped in other Places, as the Prophets of Baal are distinguished from the Prophets of the Groves, 1 Kings xviii. 19.

In the 11th Verse it is said, the Land had Rest forty Years; altho' Ver. 8. it is manifest that they were in Servitude eight of those Years. The Sense of this Passage is, either, 1. That the Land rested about forty Years; it being usual in Scripture to use Numbers in such a Latitude. Thus the Israelites are said to bear their Iniquities forty Years in the Wilderness, Numb. xiv. 43. when there wanted near two Years of that Number. Thus Joseph's Kindred, that were sent for, and called by him into Egypt, are number'd Seventy-five Souls, Acts vii. 14. altho' there were but seventy, as is affirmed, Gen. xlvi. 27. Exod. i. 5. So here, the Land is said to rest forty Years, altho' they were in Servitude eight of those Years, Ver. 8. And in like Manner the Land is said to have Rest eighty Years, tho' eighteen of them they served the King of Moab. And so in some other Instances. Nor is it strange or unusual either in Scripture, or in other Authors, for Things to be denominated from the greater Part, as here it was; especially when they enjoyed some Degrees of Rest and Peace even in these Times of Slavery, as here they did. Or, 2. It rested, that is, began to rest, or recovered its interrupted Rest in the fortieth Year, either after Joshua's Death, or after the first and famous Rest procured for them by Joshua, as is noted Heb. iv. 9. when he destroyed and subdued the Canaanites, and gave them quiet Possession of the Land; and the Land had Rest from War, Josh. xi. 23. and xiv. 15. So there is this Difference between the Years of Servitude and Oppression, and those of Rest, that in the former he tells us how long it lasted; in the latter, when it began; by which, compared with the other Years, it was easy also to know how long the Rest lasted. To strengthen this Interpretation, two Things must be noted. 1. That resting is here put for beginning to rest; as to beget is put for beginning to beget, Gen. xi. 32. and xi. 26. and to reign for to begin to reign, 2 Sam. ii. 10. and to build, 1 Kings vi. 15, 36. for to begin to build, 2 Chron. iii. 1. 2. That forty Years is put for the fortieth Year; the Cardinal Number for the Ordinal, which is common both in the holy Scriptures, as Gen. i. 5. and ii. 11. Exod. xii. 2. Hag. i. 1. and in other Authors.

We have next an Account of Ehud's Exploit in killing Eglon King of the Moabites; which some have affirmed was an unlawful Action. But, says Stackhouse, whether it be lawful, according to the Right of Nature and Nations, for Subjects to rescue themselves from Tyranny by taking away the Life of the Tyrant, and to recover their Country, which has been unjustly taken from them, by destroying the Usurper, is a Question, that has been much debated, and what, at present, we need not enter into, for the Vindication of Ehud's Fact. It is the Observation of the learned Grotius, that the Authority of the King of Moab, was never legitimized by any Convention of the Israelites, and, consequently, that they were at Liberty to shake off his Yoke whenever they found a convenient Opportunity. The only Difficulty is, whether a private Man might make himself an Instrument in effecting this, in the Manner that Ehud did? But to this it is replyed, that Ehud was no private Man, but acted by a Warrant and Authority from God: And, to this Purpose the History acquaints us, that when Ehud had made an End of offering the Present, which the Israelites sent to Eglon, he was upon his Return home, and had gone as far as the Quarries which were by Gilgal. The Word Pesil, which is here rendered Quarries, most commonly signifies (as indeed it is in the marginal Note, as well as the Septuagint and Vulgate) graven Images, which it is not improbable the Moabites had set up in this Place, rather than any other, in pure Contempt of the God of Israel, who had for so long a Time made Gilgal famous by his Presence in the Tabernacle, while it stood there.

These Images when Ehud beheld, his Spirit was stirred with a just Indignation within him; and therefore, proceeding no farther in his Journey home, he dismissed his Attendants, and went himself back, with a Resolution to revenge this Affront to God, as well as the Oppression of his People.

That this his Return was directed by a divine Impulse and Instigation, is evident, I think, from the Hazard of the Enterprize he was going upon, and the many favourable Occasions that accompanied the Execution of it. For, how could any Man in his Senses think that a single Person, as he was, should ever be able to compass the Death of a King, amidst the Circle of his Guards and Attendants? How could he expect that an Enemy, as he was, should be admitted to a private Audience? Or that, if he should prove so lucky, the King should be so far infatuated, as to order all the Company to quit the Room? The killing the King must have been a great Difficulty under these Circumstances; but then, his making his Escape had all the Signs of an Impossibility in it: And yet, without his escaping, the Design of delivering his Country must have been abortive. Upon the Whole therefore it appears, that nothing, but a divine Instinct, could have given him Courage to set about the Thing; and therefore it was not all Fallacy, when he told Eglon, that he had a Message from God unto him, because God had sent, and commissioned him to kill him: So that, what he did in this Case, he did not of himself, or from his own mere Motion, but by Virtue of an Order which he had received from God, who had destinated this Oppressor of his People to this untimely Kind of Death.

Shamgar the Son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred Men with an Ox Goad] Of what Tribe this valiant Person was, we are no where inform'd; but it is not unlikely, that he was of one of those Tribes which border'd upon the Philistines, Judah, Dan, or Ephraim, because what he did was against them. It is disputed by some, whether he is to be reckon'd among the Number of the Judges; but for this, I think, there is no Foundation. After Ehud was Shamgar, i. e. he succeeded him in the Office of a Judge, for this is the natural Sense of the Words; and he also delivered Israel, which is the very Phrase whereby the Judges are described. It is not said indeed from what Oppressions he delivered them; but he is a Deliverer who preserves a Nation from being oppressed, as well as he who rescues them from an Oppression when they groan under it. This, in all Probability, was Shamgar's Case, who, when the Philistines invaded his Country, gave them a Repulse with the Loss of 600 of their Men, which was enough to discourage them from all future Attempts. And indeed, the great Slaughter which he made among them, with a Weapon, in all Appearance, so incompetent for the Work, argues him to have been a Judge, and possess'd of a divine Power, as much as Samson was, who slew a Thousand of his Enemies with the Jawbone of an Ass. See Patrick's and Le Clerc's Com.

CHAP. IV.

Jabin, by his General Sisera, oppresses Israel. Barak, at Deborah's Command, marches against him and routs his Army, and Sisera is killed by Jael. Jabin destroyed.

Ver. 1. AND the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the Lord when Ehud was dead. 2 And the Lord sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. 3 And the children of Israel cried unto the Lord: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel. 4 And Deborah a prophetess the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. 5 And she dwelt under the palm-tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Beth-el, in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. 6 And she sent and called Barak the ſon of Abinoam, out of Kedeſh-naphtali, and ſaid unto him, Hath not the Lord God of Iſrael commanded, ſaying, Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thouſand men of the children of Naphtali, and of the children of Zebulun? 7 And I will draw unto thee, to the river Kiſhon, Siſera the captain of Jabins army, with his chariots, and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand. 8 And Barak ſaid unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go. 9 And ſhe ſaid, I will ſurely go with thee, notwithſtanding the journey that thou takeſt, ſhall not be for thine honour; for the Lord ſhall ſell Siſera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah aroſe and went with Barak to Kedeſh. 10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali, to Kedeſh, and he went up with ten thouſand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him. 11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moſes, had ſevered himſelf from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedeſh. 12 And they ſhewed Siſera, that Barak the ſon of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor. 13 And Siſera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Haroſheth of the Gentiles, unto the river of Kiſhon. 14 And Deborah ſaid unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the Lord hath delivered Siſera into thine hand: is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thouſand men after him. 15 And the Lord diſcomfited Siſera, and all his chariots, and all his hoſt with the edge of the ſword before Barak; ſo that Siſera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet. 16 But Barak purſued after the chariots, and after the hoſt, unto Haroſheth of the Gentiles: and all the hoſt of Siſera fell upon the edge of the ſword, and there was not a man left. 17 Howbeit, Siſera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor, and the houſe of Heber the Kenite. 18 And Jael went out to meet Siſera, and ſaid unto him, Turn in my Lord, turn in to me, fear not: and when he had turned in unto her, into the tent, ſhe covered him with a mantle. 19 And he ſaid unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink, for I am thirſty: and ſhe opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. 20 Again he ſaid unto her, ſtand in the door of the tent, and it ſhall be when any man doth come and enquire of thee and ſay, Is there any man here? that thou ſhalt ſay, No. 21 Then Jabel Hebers wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went ſoftly unto him, and ſmote the nail into his temples, and faſtened it into the ground: (for he was faſt aſleep and weary) ſo he died. 22 And behold, as Barak purſued Siſera, Jael went out to meet him, and ſaid unto him, Come, and I will ſhew thee the man whom thou ſeekeſt. And when he came into her tent, behold Siſera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples. 23 So God ſubdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Iſrael. 24 And the hand of the children of Iſrael proſpered, and prevailed againſt Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had deſtroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

And the Lord ſold them into the Hand of Jabin King of Canaan] He was King of that Part of the Land where moſt of the Canaanites, ſtrictly ſo called, now dwelt, which ſeems to have been in the northern Part of Canaan. He was probably of the Poſterity of that Jabin whom Joſhua ſlew, Joſh. xi. 11. who watched all Opportunities to recover his antient Poſſeſſions, and to revenge his own and his Father's Quarrel upon the Iſraelites.

That reigned in Hazor] But Hazor, we read Joſh. xi. 11. was taken and burnt. But it might be retaken and rebuilt by the Canaanites; or it may denote the whole Territories of the Kingdom of Hazor, which now he reſtored to its former Largeneſs and Power, Joſh. xi. 10. the Names of Cities being frequently put for their Territories, as Zorah, Joſh. xv. 33. is put for the Fields belonging to it, Judg. xiii. 2. in which Samſon's Parents lived, Judg. xiii. 25. and xvi. 31. and xviii. 2.

And Deborah a Propheteſs] The Words Prophet and Propheteſs, as Poole obſerves, are of very ambiguous Signification in both Teſtaments. Sometimes they denote Perſons extraordinarily inſpired by God, and endued with the Power of working Miracles, and foretelling Things to come; and ſometimes they are uſed for Perſons endued with ſpecial, though not miraculous Gifts, or Graces, for the better underſtanding and explaining the Word of God; and of this Sort were the Sons of the Prophets, or ſuch as were brought up in the Schools of the Prophets. As therefore we read nothing of any miraculous Action that Deborah did, ſhe perhaps was only a Woman of eminent Holineſs, and Prudence, and Knowledge of the holy Scriptures, by which ſhe was ſingularly qualified to judge the People, i. e. to determine Cauſes and Controverſies among them, according to the Word of God. For, though Jabin oppreſſed them ſorely, yet it was rather by rigorous Taxations, than infringing their Laws, which he ſtill ſuffer'd to be adminiſter'd by their own Officers: And of this he might take the leſs Notice, becauſe the ſupreme Judicature was exercis'd by a Woman, from whoſe Power and Authority he thought there was no Reaſon to apprehend any Danger; though this certainly gave her an Opportunity of endearing herſelf to the People, and made her, by this Means, the fitter Inſtrument to rescue them from Oppreſſion.

Go and draw toward Mount Tabor] Tabor is a very remarkable Mountain in Galilee, not far from Cana in the Tribe of Zebulun, and in the Confines of Issachar and Naphtali. It has its Name from its Form, becauſe it riſes up in the midſt of a wide champaign Country, called the Valley of Jezreel, or the great Plain. Joſephus tells us, that the Height of this Mountain is thirty Stadia, and that on the Top of it, that is a beautiful Plain of twenty Stadia in Circumference. By all which it appears how commodious a Place this Mountain was, to be the Rendezvous of Soldiers, ſince it ſtood upon the Confines of ſo many different Tribes, was not acceſſible by the Enemy's Horſe and Chariots, and had on the Top of it, a large Plain, where he might conveniently marſhal and diſcipline his Army. Mr. Maundrell tells us, that after a very laborious Aſcent, we reached the [illegible] of the Mountain, which has a plain [illegible] fertile and delicious, and of an oval Figure, about a Furlong in Breadth, and two in Length. [illegible] is incloſed with Trees on all Parts, except [illegible] South, and from hence you have a Prospect (if nothing elſe) well rewards the Labour of [illegible] it; for it is impoſſible for the Eyes of Man to [illegible] any greater Gratification of this Nature. [illegible] this Mountain was antiently environed with [illegible] Trenches, and other Fortifications, [illegible] Remains are ſtill viſible; and, for many Ages, [illegible] been believed, that here it was that our Lord [illegible] was tranſfigured, tho' ſome later Writers have [illegible] Doubt of it. See Calmet, Poole [illegible]

From Haroſheth of the Gentiles, unto the Ri[illegible]

Kiſhon] Haroſheth is a Place ſituated upon the Lake Semechon, in the Upper Galilee, and is, in Scripture, called Haroſheth of the Gentiles, becauſe the People of ſeveral Nations fled thither to be under Jabin's Protection, when they heard that he had poſſeſſed himſelf of that Country, and kept the Iſraelites out of it. See Wells's Geogr.

Kiſhon, is a River which riſes out of Mount Tabor, and, paſſing along the Valley of Jezreel (now the Plain of Eſdraelon) empties itſelf into the Mediterranean Sea. Some Geographers will needs have it, that this River runs two Ways, partly weſtward, into the Mediterranean, and partly eaſtward, into the Sea of Galilee; but this is a Thing incredible, and what is known of no other River in the World; and therefore, if there be any Thing in it, the Matter muſt be this—That, from Mount Tabor (as it happens from many other Hills) there flow Waters out of two of its Sides, ſome ſhaping their Courſe weſtward, to the Mediterranean, and others eaſtward, into the Sea of Galilee: ſo that there are two Spring-heads, and two diſtinct Rivers, tho' both ariſing from the ſame Mountain, and perhaps both called by the ſame Name. But whatever becomes of the River that runs eaſtward, 'tis plain, from another Paſſage, that the Kiſhon which is mentioned in Scripture, ran weſtward into the Mediterranean Sea; for, when Elijah had convinced the People, aſſembled together at Mount Carmel, that Baal was not the true God, he enjoined them to ſeize all the Prieſts, and to bring them down to the Brook Kiſhon, there to be ſlain, 1 Kings xviii. So that the Brook Kiſhon, which riſes out of Mount Tabor, muſt run by Mount Carmel, which ſtands on the Sea-ſhore; and, as Carmel ſtands Weſt of Mount Tabor, the Courſe of the River, which extends from the one to the other, muſt be ſo likewiſe. See Wells's Geogr.

Jael the Wife of Heber the Kenite] Heber was of the Poſterity of Hobab, the Son of Jethro, Father-in-law of Moſes, and is here called a Kenite, becauſe originally he deſcended from thoſe People who dwelt weſtward of the Dead Sea, and extended themſelves pretty far into Arabia Petræa. The Word Ken (from whence they took their Name) ſignifies a Neſt, an Hole, or a Cave; and to this the Prophet Baalam might allude, when he addreſſes himſelf to them in theſe Words: — Strong is thy dwelling Place, and thou putteſt thy Neſt in a Rock: Nevertheleſs the Kenite ſhall be waſted, until Aſſur ſhall carry thee away captive, Numb. xxiv. 21. Theſe Kenites indeed were ſome of the People, whoſe Lands God had promiſed to the Deſcendants of Abraham, nevertheleſs, in Conſideration of Jethro, all that ſubmitted to the Iſraelites, were permitted to live in their own Country. In Numb. x. 29. we find, that Hobab was invited by Moſes to accompany him into the Land of Canaan, and, in all Probability, he accepted the Invitation. At their firſt Coming, they ſetled themſelves in the Territories of Jericho; but, having contracted a particular Friendſhip with the Tribe of Judah, they removed with them into the Country that fell to their Lot, Judg. i. 16. Every Family of them, however, did not ſo, for this Heber we find, for ſome Reaſons that are not mentioned, had ſetled his Habitation in the Tribe of Naphtali, Judg. i. 11. The Kenites indeed, tho' they were Proſelites, and worſhipped the true God according to the Moſaic Law, yet being Strangers by Birth, and ſo not pretending to any Right or Title to the Land of Canaan, held it beſt Policy, in thoſe troubleſome Times, to obſerve a Neutrality, and maintain Peace, as well as they could, both with the Iſraelites and Canaanites; and upon this Foot it was, that there was a Peace with King Jabin and the Houſe of Heber, and that Siſera, in his Diſtreſs, fled to Heber's Tent for Protection, and put Confidence in the feigned Civilities of his Wife. See Howell's Hiſt. of the Bible.

Then Jael Heber's Wife took a Nail of the Tent, and took an Hammer in her Hand, and went ſoftly unto him, and ſmote the Nail into his Temples, &c.] There is, ſays Stackhouſe, ſomething peculiar in relation to the Fact of Jael, and that is the Words of the Propheteſs, in her triumphant Song: Bleſſed above Women ſhall Jael, the Wife of Heber, the Kenite, be; bleſſed ſhall ſhe be above Women in the Tent; which ſome look upon as a Commendation of Jael, and, conſequently, an Approbation of the Murder of Siſera: But Deborah might only propheſy, how, and in what Manner, the Iſraelites would be affected towards that Woman, by whoſe Means (tho' perhaps not in the moſt commendable Way) they had been delivered from a very dangerous Enemy.

But what abſolves her moſt effectually with us, is, the Declaration which God had made in Favour of the Iſraelites, by the wonderful Defeat of Jabin's Army, and the Direction and Impulſe wherewith he excited her to diſpatch his vanquiſhed General: Had ſhe been left to herſelf, ſhe would have been contented (one would think) to have let him laid ſtill, until Barak, who was in Purſuit of him, had come up, and ſurprized him. To fall upon him herſelf was an Enterprize exceedingly bold and hazardous, and above the Courage of her Sex; and therefore we may conclude, that, if it was God who inſpired her with this extraordinary Reſolution, ſhe was not to be blamed (notwithſtanding the Peace between Jabin and her Family) for being obedient to the heavenly Impulſe; becauſe all Obligations to Man ceaſe, when brought in Competition with our higher Obligations towards God.

Mr. Pool has another Way of accounting for the Commendation which is given to Jael in Deborah's Song, and that is, by giving up the divine Inſpiration of it. 'It is not to be denied, ſays he, but that there 'are ſome Words, Paſſages, and Diſcourſes recorded 'in Scripture, which are not divinely inſpired, becauſe 'ſome of them were uttered by the Devil, and others 'by the holy Men of God, but miſtaken: Such is the 'Diſcourſe of Nathan to David (2 Sam. vii. 3.) which 'God preſently contradicted (Ver. 4, 5, &c.) and 'ſeveral Diſcourſes in Job, which God himſelf declares 'to be unſound; ye have not ſpoken of me the Thing 'that is right, as my Servant Job hath, Job xlii. 7. 'This being ſo, the worſt that any malicious Man can 'infer from this Place is, — That this Song, tho' in-'dicted by a good Man, or Woman, was not divinely 'inſpired, but only compoſed by a Perſon piouſly 'minded, and tranſported with Joy, for the Deliverance 'of God's People, but ſubject to Miſtake; who there-'fore, out of Zeal to commend the happy Inſtrument 'of ſo great a Deliverance, might eaſily overlook the 'Indirectneſs of the Means by which it was accom-'pliſhed, and commended that which ſhould have been 'diſliked. If it be urged, that the Song was com-'poſed by Deborah, a Propheteſs, and muſt conſequently 'be divinely inſpired, the Anſwer is, 1. That it is 'not certain what Kind of Propheteſs Deborah was, 'whether extraordinary, and infallible, or ordinary, 'and ſo liable to Miſtake. But, 2. That every Ex-'preſſion, even of a true, and extraordinary Prophet, 'was not divinely inſpired, as is evident from Nathan's 'Miſtake above-mentioned, and from Samuel's Error 'concerning Eliab, whom (for his outward Stature 'and Comelineſs) he took to be the Lord's anointed, '1 Sam. xvi. 6.'

In the Epiſtle to the Hebrews, Barak is reckoned among thoſe Worthies who were eminent for their Faith; and yet we find him here refuſing to obey the divine Summons, unleſs Deborah would go along with him. Anſw. Whoever, ſays Stackhouſe, looks into the Catalogue of the Worthies, whom the Author to the Hebrews enumerates, will ſoon perceive, that, as he is far from being exact in the Order wherein he places them, ſo, by the Faith for which he commends them, he means no more, than a Belief of what God had told them, and ready Obedience to his Commands, whenever they were ſignified to them by a proper Authority. Deborah was at that Time, a very remarkable Woman, famous for the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and Determination of Controverſies among the People; but, notwithſtanding this, it would have been Raſhneſs in Barak to have gone upon ſo hazardous an Undertaking without any farther Aſſurance than this.' He did not abſolutely refuſe to go, nay, he offered to go upon the firſt Notice, and for this his Faith is commended in Scripture; but then he was minded to have ſome farther Conviction, that this Notice was from God; and of which he could not have a better Proof, than if the Propheteſs herſelf would go, and ſhare with him the Fate of the Battle.

CHAP. V.

Deborah's Song.

Ver. 1. THEN ſang Deborah and Barak the ſon of Abinoam, on that day, ſaying, 2 Praiſe ye the Lord for the avenging of Iſrael when the people willingly offered themſelves. 3 Hear, O ye kings, give ear, O ye princes; I, even I will ſing unto the Lord, I will ſing praiſe to the Lord God of Iſrael. 4 Lord, when thou wenteſt out of Seir, when thou marchedſt out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds alſo dropped water. 5 The mountains melted from before the Lord, even that Sinai from before the Lord God of Iſrael. 6 In the days of Shamgar the ſon of Anath, in the days of Jael, the high-ways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through by-ways. 7 The inhabitants of the villages ceaſed, they ceaſed in Iſrael, until that I Deborah aroſe, that I aroſe a mother in Iſrael. 8 They choſe new gods; then was war in the gates: was there a ſhield or ſpear ſeen among forty thouſand in Iſrael? 9 My heart is towards the governors of Iſrael, that offered themſelves willingly among the people: Bleſs ye the Lord. 10 Speak ye that ride on white aſſes, ye that ſit in judgment, and walk by the way. 11 They that are delivered from the noiſe of archers in the places of drawing water; there ſhall they rehearſe the righteous acts of the Lord, even the righteous acts towards the inhabitants of his villages in Iſrael: then ſhall the people of the Lord go down to the gates. 12 Awake, awake Deborah: awake, awake, utter a ſong: ariſe Barak, and lead captivity captive, thou ſon of Abinoam. 13 Then he made him that remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people: the Lord made me have dominion over the mighty. 14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them againſt Amalek; after thee Benjamin, among thy people: out of Machir came down governours, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer. 15 And the princes of Iſſachar were with Deborah: even Iſſachar, and alſo Barak, he was ſent on foot into the valley: for the diviſions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart. 16 Why abodeſt thou among the ſheep folds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? for the diviſions of Reuben there were great ſearchings of heart. 17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why did Dan remain in ſhips? Aſher continued on the ſea-ſhoar, and abode in his breaches. 18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that jeoparded their lives unto the death, in the high places of the field. 19 The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo, they took no gain of money. 20 They fought from heaven, the ſtars in their courſes fought againſt Siſera. 21 The river of Kiſhon ſwept them away, that antient river, the river Kiſhon: O my ſoul, thou haſt troden down ſtrength. 22 Then were the horſe-hoofs broken, by the means of the pranſings, the pranſings of their mighty ones. 23 Curſe ye Meroz, (ſaid the angel of the Lord) curſe ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof: becauſe they came not to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord againſt the mighty. 24 Bleſſed above women ſhall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be, bleſſed ſhall ſhe be above women in the tent. 25 He aſked water, and ſhe gave him milk, ſhe brought forth butter in a lordly diſh. 26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workmans hammer: and with the hammer ſhe ſmote Siſera, ſhe ſmote off his head, when ſhe had pierced, and ſtricken through his temples. 27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell; where he bowed, there he fell down dead. 28 The mother of Siſera looked out at a window and cried through the latteſs, Why is his chariot ſo long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots? 29 Her wiſe ladies anſwered her, yea, ſhe returned anſwer to her ſelf, 30 Have they not ſped? have they not divided the prey, to every man a damſel or two? to Siſera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needle-work, of divers colours of needle-work on both ſides, meet for the necks of them that take the ſpoil? 31 So let all thine enemies periſh, O Lord: but let them that love him, be as the ſun when he goeth forth in his might. And the land had reſt forty years.

The High-ways were unoccupied] Partly becauſe of the Canaanites, who, beſides the publick Burdens and Tributes which they laid upon them, waited for all Opportunities to do them Miſchief ſecretly; their Soldiers waiting for Travellers in the common Roads, as is uſual in Time of War; and partly, becauſe of the Robbers even of their own People, who having caſt off the Fear and Worſhip of God, and there being no King or Ruler in Iſrael to reſtrain or puniſh them, and alſo being many of them reduced to great Want, through the Oppreſſion of the Canaanites, it is not ſtrange, if in thoſe Times of publick Diſorder, divers of the Iſraelites themſelves did break forth into Acts of Injuſtice and Violence, even againſt their Brethren, if they met them in convenient Places, which made Travellers ſeek for By-paths.

Was there a Shield or Spear ſeen among forty thouſand in Iſrael] The Meaning is not, that all the Iſraelites had no Arms, for here is mention made of Shields or Spears, and they might have Swords, and Bows, and Arrows, to offend their Enemies; but, either that they had but few Arms among them, being many Thouſands of them diſarmed by the Canaanites; or, that they generally neglected the Uſe of Arms, as being utterly diſpirited, and without all Hope of recovering their loſt Liberty, and being neceſſitated to other Employments for a Subſiſtence.

Then ſhall the People of the Lord go down to the Gates] That is, to the Gates of their Cities, which were the chief Places to which both City and Country reſorted for publick Buſineſs and Matters of Juſtice, from which they had been debarred by their Oppreſſors; but now they had free Acceſs and Paſſage, either in or out of the Gates, as their Occaſions required; and they who had been driven from their Cities, now returned to them in Peace and Triumph; ſo the Citizens Deliverance is celebrated here, as the Countrymen is in the Words preceding in the ſame Verſe.

Out of Ephraim was there a Root of them] Deborah here begins to relate the Carriage and Miſbehaviour of the ſeveral Tribes in this Expedition; and ſhe begins with Ephraim. The Words relate either, 1. To the Ephraimites; or, 2. To them that came forth to this Expedition. By Root ſhe ſeems to mean a Branch, as that Word is ſometimes uſed, as Iſa. xi. 10. and liii. 2. By

By which alſo ſhe may note the Fewneſs of thoſe that came out of Ephraim, that fruitful Bough conſiſting of many Branches, Gen. xlix. 2. yielding but one Branch, or Handful of Men to this Service.

For the Diviſions of Reuben there were great Thoughts of Heart] By Diviſions underſtand Separations, whereby they were divided or ſeparated, not ſo much one from another in Thoughts, Counſels, and Conduct in this War, (for they ſeem to be too well agreed in abiding at home with their Sheep, as it follows) as they were divided and ſeparated from their Brethren no leſs in their Deſigns and Affections, than in their Situation by the River Jordan; they would not join Intereſts and Forces with them in the common Cauſe. For this ſtrange and unnatural Behaviour there were great Thoughts of Heart, or Searchings, as it is in the next Verſe; great and ſad Thoughts, Debates, and Perplexities of Mind among the Iſraelites, to ſee themſelves deſerted by ſo great and potent a Tribe as Reuben was. Reuben being rich in Cattle, was unwilling to run the hazard of ſo great a Loſs, by taking up Arms againſt ſo potent an Enemy as Jabin was; and the Bleatings of their Sheep were ſo loud in their Ears, that they could not hear the Call of Deborah and Barak to this Expedition.

They took no Gain of Money] Either 1. From Siſera: They fought without Pay, whether from mere Hatred of the Iſraelites, and a Deſire to be revenged upon them; or, from a full Hope and Confidence of ſaying themſelves abundantly out of Iſrael's Spoils. Or, 2. From the Iſraelites; ſo the Senſe is, they fell, loſt all their Hopes of Money, and rich Spoils and Booty, which they aſſured themſelves of; inſtead of gaining a prey, they loſt themſelves.

Curſe ye Meroz — curſe ye bitterly the Inhabitants thereof] Meroz was a Place then, no doubt, eminent and conſiderable, tho' now there be no Traces of it left to preſerve its Remembrance, which poſſibly might be the Effect of this bitter Curſe; as in the ſame Manner God curſes Amalek, that he would utterly blot out their Remembrance, &c. Exod. xvii. 14. Deut. xxv. 19. And this Place, above all others, may be ſo ſeverely curſed; either becauſe it was near the Place of Battle, and therefore had the greateſt Opportunity and Obligation to engage with and aſſiſt their Brethren; and their denying their Help was a great Diſcouragement to all their Brethren, whoſe Hearts undoubtedly were greatly afflicted, and might have utterly fainted at this great Miſcarriage, and ſcandalous Example; or for ſome other great Aggravation of their Cowardice and Treachery, which may be eaſily imagined, tho' not here expreſſed.

Becauſe they came not to the Help of the Lord] By theſe Words underſtand either, 1. To the Help of the Lord's People; for God takes what is done for or againſt his People, as if it was done to himſelf, Iſa. xliii. 9. Zech. ii. 8. Matt. xxv. 45. or, 2. Of the Lord himſelf, who tho' he did not need, yet did expect and require their Help and Concurrence. And it is thus expreſſed, to ſhew the Unkindneſs and Unreaſonableneſs of their cowardly Deſertion of this Cauſe, becauſe it was the Cauſe of God, and they had the Call of God to it, whom they knew to be able to cruſh the Enemy whom they dreaded, and who had promiſed to do it.

CHAP. VI.

The Midianites oppreſs Iſrael. Gideon called by an Angel to deliver them. He builds an Altar and breaks down that of Baal. The Midianites aſſemble their Forces; Gideon prepares to meet them; and is encouraged by the Miracle of the wet and dry Fleece.

1 AND the children of Iſrael did evil in the ſight of the Lord: and the Lord delivered them into the hand of Midian ſeven years. 2 And the hand of Midian prevailed againſt Iſrael: and becauſe of the Midianites the children of Iſrael made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves and ſtrong holds. 3 And ſo it was when Iſrael had ſown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the eaſt, even they came up againſt them: 4 And they encamped againſt them, and deſtroyed the increaſe of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no ſuſtenance for Iſrael, neither ſheep, nor ox, nor aſs. 5 For they came up with their cattle, and their tents, and they came as graſhoppers for multitude, for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to deſtroy it. 6 And Iſrael was greatly impoveriſhed, becauſe of the Midianites; and the children of Iſrael cried unto the Lord. 7 And it came to paſs when the children of Iſrael cried unto the Lord, becauſe of the Midianites; 8 That the Lord ſent a prophet unto the children of Iſrael, which ſaid unto them, thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the houſe of bondage, 9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppreſſed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land; 10 And I ſaid unto you, I am the Lord your God, fear not the gods of the Amorites in whoſe land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice. 11 And there came an angel of the Lord, and ſat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joaſh the Abiezrite: and his ſon Gideon threſhed wheat by the winepreſs, to hide it from the Midianites. 12 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and ſaid unto him, The Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valour. 13 And Gideon ſaid unto him, Oh my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, ſaying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? but now the Lord hath forſaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. 14 And the Lord looked upon him, and ſaid, Go in this thy might, and thou ſhalt ſave Iſrael from the hand of the Midianites: have not I ſent thee? 15 And he ſaid unto him, O my Lord, wherewith ſhall I ſave Iſrael? behold my family is poor in Manaſſeh, and I am the leaſt in my fathers houſe. 16 And the Lord ſaid unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou ſhalt ſmite the Midianites, as one man. 17 And he ſaid unto him, If now I have found grace in thy ſight, then ſhew me a ſign that thou talkeſt with me. 18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my preſent, and ſet it before thee. And he ſaid, I will tarry until thou come again. 19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the fleſh he put in a baſket, and he put the broth in the pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak and preſented it. 20 And the angel of God ſaid unto him, Take the fleſh, and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did ſo. 21 Then the angel of the Lord put forth the end of the ſtaff that was in his hand, and touched the fleſh, and the unleavened cakes: and there roſe up fire out of the rock, and conſumed the fleſh, and the unleavened cakes: then the angel of the Lord departed out of his ſight. 22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the Lord, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God; for because I have seen an angel of the Lord face to face. 23 And the Lord said unto him, Peace be unto thee, fear not, thou shall not die. 24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lord, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. 25 And it came to pass the same night, that the Lord said unto him, Take thy fathers young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: 26 And build an altar unto the Lord thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt-sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down. 27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the Lord had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his fathers household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night. 28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, Behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down, that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built. 29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing. 30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it. 31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death, whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar. 32 Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar. 33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites, and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. 34 But the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, and Abiezer was gathered after him. 35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, who also was gathered after him, and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali, and they came up to meet them. 36 And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor: and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 38 And it was so: for he arose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl-full of water. 39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. 40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

And the Hand of Midian prevailed against Israel] Altho' the Generality of the Midianites had been cut off by Moses about two hundred Years before, yet many of them, doubtless, fled into the neighbouring Countries, whence afterwards they returned into their own Land, and in that Time might easily grow to a very great Number; especially, when God furthered their Increase, that they might be a fit Scourge for his People Israel when they transgressed.

But, tho' the Midianites were the principal Persons concerned in these Invasions and Inroads, yet, besides the Amalekites, they had other confederate Nations, who are called the Children of the East, Ver. 3, 33. by whom we may understand the Ammonites and Moabites, as lying East of the Land of Israel, if not the Ishmaelites and others, that inhabited the Parts of Arabia. The Children, or People, of the East, in Gen. xxix. 1. denote the Inhabitants of Mesopotamia; but these seem to be too far distant to have any Part in these Excursions; and therefore, since we read, Gen xxv. 6. that Abraham sent away the Sons of his Concubines, particularly the Sons of Keturah (one whereof was Midian, the Father of the Midianites) eastward into the East Country, it may not improbably be inferred, that, by the Children of the East, in this History of Gideon, are denoted the Descendants of the other Sons of Keturah, and of the other Brothers of Midian, who had settled themselves in the eastern Parts, adjoining to Midian.

The Lord sent a Prophet unto the Children of Israel] Who this Prophet was, we have no Manner of Intimation given us. The Jews generally fancy, that he was Phinehas; but Phineas must, by this Time, have been above two hundred Years old, which far exceeded the stated Period of human Life then. St. Austin is of Opinion, that he was the same with the Angel, who, soon after appeared to Gideon; but it is far more likely, that God still continued other Prophets among the Israelites, besides the High-priest, to put them in Mind of their Duty, and to call them to Repentance when they forsook him; for, from the Case of Deborah, who is said to have the Spirit of Prophecy, it appears, that at least in extraordinary Cases, God failed not to raise up such Persons among them. It is remarked, however, of this Prophet, (be he who he will) that he gave the Israelites no Hopes of the divine Assistance, but only upbraided them with their Sins: However, when he tells them that their Calamities were occasion'd by their Idolatries, he plainly intimates, that if they would return to the true Worship of God, he would again look graciously upon them, and deliver them; and accordingly we find, that the History of their Deliverance immediately follows.

And there came an Angel of the Lord] That this was not a mere Angel, appears from the incommunicable Name Jehovah, which he assumes, and whereby he suffers himself so frequently to be called, Ver. 14, 16, 23, 24, 25, 27. And therefore the Jews, according to their Targum, which stiles him the Word of the Lord, look upon this Angel, not merely as an heavenly Messenger sent from God, but as the Son of God himself appearing in the Form of an Angel.

Take thy Father's young Bullock, even the second Bullock of seven Years old] It is not unlikely that Gideon's Father, who was probably one of the Priests of Baal, kept divers of these Cattle, of different Ages and Bulk, for the Purpose of sacrificing, to that Idol, either at his own or the People's Charge; and therefore it is added in the Text by way of Limitation, that he should not take the oldest, or the greatest, but the second, viz. in Age, or Stature, and which is therefore singled out, because it being seven Years old did begin with the Midianitish Oppression, and, being now to be sacrificed, did very properly signify, that the Period of that Calamity was come.

Then all the Midianites, &c. pitched in the Valley of Jezreel] The City of Jezreel, which gave Name to the Valley, belonged to the half Tribe of Manasseh on the West of Jordan, and lay in the Confines of that half Tribe, and the Tribe of Issachar, as appears from Josh. xix. 18. In the History of the Kings of Israel this City is frequently made Mention of, where, by the Reason of the Pleasantness of its Situation, some of them nd a royal Palace, tho' their Capital was Samaria.

the Vale of Jezreel, (which is now called the Plain of Esdraelon) is, according to Mr. Maundrell, of a vaſt Ex-ent, very fertile, but uncultivated, and only ſerving he Arabs for Paſturage: But ſome have ſuppoſed, that he Valley of Jezreel here mentioned, denotes ſome ther leſſer Valley, lying between Mount Hermon and Mount Gilboa.

Behold, I will put a Fleece of Wool in the Floor] He uppoſed that the Dew, which diſtilled from Heaven, as a divine Gift, as the Scripture after teſtifies, and herefore he deſired that it might be governed by God, hat, tho' it commonly falls every where, it might ow by his extraordinary Providence, water only his leece. Some are apt to think, that he choſe a Fleece or his Purpoſe, not only becauſe it was ready at Hand, ut the better to expreſs, how the Land was ſhorn by he Midianites, even as the Sheep had been by him; nd that when he begg'd the Dew (as a Sign of the ivine Favour) might fall upon the Fleece, it was to epreſent the Kindneſs of God to him; and when he egg'd it might fall upon the whole Ground, it repre-ented his Favour to all the People. But there is a far-her Reaſon, why he might deſire to have the Miracle nverted: For, as it is in the very Nature of Wool to raw Moiſture to it, ſome might be apt to think, hat there was no great Matter in this; and therefore e requeſted of God a ſecond Miracle which was con-rary to the former.

CHAP. VII.

Gideon's Army of thirty two thouſand, leſſened to three hundred. A Dream and Interpretation of it. Gideon's Method of attacking the Midianites; who are terrified, fly, and deſtroy one another; their two Princes are taken.

ver. 1. THEN Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) and all the people that were with him, oſe up early, and pitched beſide the well of Harod: ſo that the hoſt of the Midianites were on he north ſide of them by the hill of Moreh, in the alley. 2 And the Lord ſaid unto Gideon, The eople that are with thee, are too many for me o give the Midianites into their hands, leſt Iſrael vaunt themſelves againſt me, ſaying, Mine wn hand hath ſaved me. 3 Now therefore go o, proclaim in the ears of the people, ſaying, Whoſoever is fearful and afraid, let him return nd depart early from mount Gilead: and there eturned of the people twenty and two thouſand, nd there remained ten thouſand. 4 And the ord ſaid unto Gideon, The people are yet too any: bring them down unto the water, and I ill try them for thee there: and it ſhall be, that f whom I ſay unto thee, This ſhall go with thee, he ſame ſhall go with thee; and of whomſoever ſay unto thee, This ſhall not go with thee, the me ſhall not go. 5 So he brought down the eople unto the water: and the Lord ſaid unto ideon, every one that lappeth of the water with is tongue as a dog lappeth, him ſhalt thou et by himſelf; likewiſe every one that boweth own upon his knees to drink. 6 And the umber of them that lapped, putting their hand o their mouth, were three hundred men: but ll the reſt of the people bowed down upon their nees to drink water. 7 And the Lord ſaid nto Gideon, By the three hundred men that apped, will I ſave you, and deliver the Midi-ites into thy hand: and let all the other people o every man unto his place. 8 So the people ook victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: nd he ſent all the reſt of Iſrael, every man unto his tent, and retained thoſe three hundred men: and the hoſt of Midian was beneath him in the valley. 9 And it came to paſs the ſame night, that the Lord ſaid unto him, Ariſe, get thee down unto the hoſt, for I have delivered it into thine hand. 10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy ſervant down to the hoſt. 11 And thou ſhalt hear what they ſay, and afterward ſhall thine hands be ſtrengthened to go down unto the hoſt. Then went he down with Phurah his ſervant, unto the out-ſide of the armed men that were in the hoſt. 12 And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the eaſt, lay along in the valley like graſhoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the ſand by the ſea-ſide for multitude. 13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and ſaid, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley-bread tumbled into the hoſt of Midian, and came unto a tent and ſmote it, that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along. 14 And his fellow anſwered, and ſaid, This is nothing elſe ſave the ſword of Gideon the ſon of Joaſh, a man of Iſrael: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian and all the hoſt. 15 And it was ſo, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worſhipped, and returned into the hoſt of Iſrael, and ſaid, Ariſe, for the Lord hath delivered into your hand the hoſt of Midian. 16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every mans hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. 17 And he ſaid unto them, Look on me, and do likewiſe: and behold, when I come to the outſide of the camp, it ſhall be that as I do, ſo ſhall ye do. 18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets alſo on every ſide of all the camp, and ſay, The ſword of the Lord, and of Gideon. 19 So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the out-ſide of the camp, in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly ſet the watch, and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands. 20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The ſword of the Lord, and of Gideon. 21 And they ſtood every man in his place, round about the camp: and all the hoſt ran, and cried, and fled. 22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the Lord ſet every mans ſword againſt his fellow, even throughout all the hoſt: and the hoſt fled to Beth-ſhittah, in Zererath, and to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath. 23 And the men of Iſrael gathered themſelves together out of Naphtali, and out of Aſher, and out of all Manaſſeh, and purſued after the Midianites. 24 And Gideon ſent meſſengers throughout all mount Ephraim, ſaying, Come down againſt the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themſelves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. 25 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they ſlew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they ſlew at the wine-preſs of Zeeb, and purſued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb, to Gideon on the other ſide Jordan.

Let him return and depart early from Mount Gilead] There was a Mount Gilead on the other Side Jordan; and therefore the Mount Gilead here mention'd muſt be another in the Tribe of Manaſſeh; and might be ſo called, either from ſome Reſemblance it had with the other Mount Gilead, or in Remembrance of their Father Gilead, or, that this might be a Memorial of their near Relation to their Brethren, notwithſtanding their being divided from them by Jordan; or, for ſome other Reaſon not now known at this Diſtance of Time. Or the Words may be render'd towards Mount Gilead; for the Hebrew Particle Mim, or Mem, is ſometimes render'd toward, of which ſee Gen. xi. 2. and xiii. 11. Deut. xxxii. 2. 2 Sam. vi. 2. and ſo it may be underſtood of the famous Mount Gilead beyond Jordan, which he may mention here, either, 1. Becauſe many of his Soldiers were of that half Tribe of Manaſſeh which dwelt there; and ſo it was moſt proper for them to return thither. Or, 2. Becauſe that was their ſafeſt Courſe, to get fartheſt from the Danger, which they feared. Or, 3. Becauſe tho' he would remove them from Danger, yet he would not have them diſperſed, but kept together in a Body about Mount Gilead; knowing that they who had not Courage enough to fight their Enemies, might have Valour enough to purſue them, when they were beaten by others; and ſuſpecting that the Midianites, if beaten, would probably fly that Way.

Every one that lappeth of the Water with his Tongue, as a Dog lappeth, him ſhalt thou ſet by himſelf, likewiſe every one that boweth down upon his Knees to drink] Interpreters are at a ſad Puzzle to conceive, for what poſſible Reaſon God made a Diſtinction, between the Soldiers who lapped Water in their Hands, and thoſe that laid themſelves down to drink. Some of the Jewiſh Doctors are of Opinion, that all, except three hundred, who lapped, had been accuſtomed to the Worſhip of Baal, which they unwarily diſcovered by their kneeling to drink, but this is a groundleſs and far fetched Conceit. The Notion of thoſe, who impute thoſe three hundred Mens lapping, ſome to their Sloth and Lazineſs, and others to their Timorouſneſs, and the great Fear they were in, of being ſurprized by the Enemy, is of no more Validity: For, tho' God, if he thought fit, might have employed the moſt daſtardly among them upon this Expedition, that the Glory of the Victory might entirely redound to himſelf; yet ſince, we are told, all the fearful Perſons were diſmiſſed before, and ſince it but badly befits the Character of the Courageous to be lazy; this Action of Lapping is rather to be accounted a Token of their Temperance, and of the Nobleneſs of their Spirit, which made them ſo deſirous to engage the Enemy, that they would not ſtay to drink, but (tho' they were very thirſty) contented themſelves to moiſten their Mouths, as we ſay, with a little Water; whereas the reſt indulged themſelves ſo far as to drink their Belly-full. But, after all, the true Reaſon and Deſign of this Method ſeems to be only this. — That God was minded to reduce Gideon's Army to a very ſmall Number, which might very likely be done by this Means: For, as the Seaſon of the Year was hot, and the Generality of the Soldiers weary, thirſty, and faint, it was moſt probable, that they would lie down (as indeed they did) and refreſh themſelves plentifully, and ſcarce to be expected, that any great Number would deny themſelves in this Manner.

In the Beginning of the Middle Watch] Tho' the Romans, in After-ages, divided the Night into four Watches, Matt. xiv. 25. yet in the eaſtern Parts, and more antient Times, it conſiſted but of three, whereof the firſt began at ſix, and continued four Hours. The ſecond therefore is called the middle Watch, and began at eleven; ſo that, we may ſuppoſe, that it was ſome Time after this, that Gideon alarmed the Midianitiſh Camp; and the Reaſons why they choſe this Part of the Night to do it in, are obvious, becauſe the Trumpets would then ſeem to ſound louder, and the Lights to ſhine brighter, and ſo both increaſe the Conſternation of the Enemy, and conceal the Smallneſs of his own Army.

And they took two Princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb] As the Language of the Iſhmaelites, the Midianites, and the Amalekites, who dwelt in Arabia, was originally the ſame, becauſe they all deſcended from Abraham their common Father; ſo we may infer, that there was little or no Difference at this Time. Oreb, in the Hebrew, ſignifies a Crow, and Zeeb, a Wolf; and theſe are no improper Words to repreſent the Sagaciouſneſs and Fierceneſs, which ſhould be in two ſuch great Commanders: Nor was it an uncommon Thing, for great Families, in antient Times, to derive their Names from ſuch like Creatures, (hence the Corvini, Gracchi, Aquilini, &c. among the Romans) either as Omens or Monuments of their undaunted Courage, and Dexterity in military Atchievements. But, after all, it ſeems every whit as probable, that theſe were only Nicknames which the Iſraelites gave theſe two Princes of Midian, to denote their Fierceneſs, and Rapaciouſneſs after Prey.

CHAP. VIII.

The Ephraimites are diſpleaſed, but at length ſatisfied. Gideon purſues and kills the two Kings of Midian; puniſhes Succoth and Penuel; refuſes the Government; makes an Ephod of the Spoils, which proves an Occaſion of Idolatry; his Wives, Children, Death, and Burial. Iſrael revolts to Idolatry, and is ungrateful to Gideon's Family.

Ver. 1. AND the men of Ephraim ſaid unto him, Why haſt thou ſerved us thus, that thou calledſt us not when thou wenteſt to fight with the Midianites? and they did chide with him ſharply. 2 And he ſaid unto them, What have I done now in compariſon of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim, better than the vintage of Abiezer? 3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in compariſon of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had ſaid that. 4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and paſſed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet purſuing them. 5 And he ſaid unto the men of Succoth, give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me, for they be faint, and I am purſuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian. 6 And the princes of Succoth ſaid, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we ſhould give bread unto thine army? 7 And Gideon ſaid, Therefore when the Lord hath delivered Zeba and Zalmunna into mine hand, then I will tear your fleſh with the thorns of the wilderneſs, and with briers. 8 And he went up thence to Penuel, and ſpake unto them likewiſe: and the men of Penuel anſwered him, as the men of Succoth had anſwered him. 9 And he ſpake alſo unto the men of Penuel, ſaying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower. 10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hoſt with them, about fifteen thouſand men, all that were left of all the hoſts of the children of the eaſt: for there fell an hundred and twenty thouſand men that drew ſword. 11 And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents, on the eaſt of Nobah, and Jogbehah, and ſmote the hoſt: for the hoſt was ſecure. 12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he purſued after them, them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host. 13 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up. 14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men. 15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary? 16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. 17 And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city. 18 Then said he unto Zeba and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor? And they answered, As thou art so were they, each one resembled the children of a king. 19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the Lord liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you. 20 And he said unto Jether his first-born, Up, and slay them: but the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth. 21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments, that were on their cameis necks. 22 Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy sons son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian. 23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the Lord shall rule over you. 24 And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the ear-rings of his prey: (for they had golden ear-rings, because they were Ishmaelites) 25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the ear-rings of his prey. 26 And the weight of the golden ear-rings that he requested, was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, beside ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels necks. 27 And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah; and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house. 28 Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more: and the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon. 29 And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house. 30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives. 31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech. 32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites. 33 And it came to pass as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god. 34 And the children of Israel remembred not the Lord their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side: 35 Neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, namely Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

And he said unto Jether, his first-born, Up, and slay them] In antient Times, says Patrick, it was as much a Custom for great Men to do Execution upon Offenders, as it is now an usual Thing for them to pronounce Sentence upon them. They had not then (as we have now) such Persons as the Romans called Carnifices, or publick Executioners; and therefore Saul bade such as waited on him kill the Priests; and Doeg, one of his chief Officers, did it, 1 Sam. xxii. 17, 18. But the Reason why Gideon would have had his Son do the Execution, was, that he might be early animated against the Enemies of Israel, even as Hannibal is reported, when he was a Boy, to have been incensed against the Romans.

Beside the Chains that were on their Camels Necks] Le Clerc observes, that the Word which we render Chains, is in the Original, little Moons, which the Midianites might wear strung together about their Camels Necks, either by Way of Ornament, or Superstition, because they, as well as all other People of Arabia, were very zealous Worshippers of the Moon.

And Gideon made an Ephod thereof] It is suggested by some, says Stackhouse, that Gideon was as great an Offender as any, in his making an Ephod for the Purpose of Idolatry; but before we admit of so rash a Censure, we should enquire a little into the Nature of this Ephod, and for what possible Purpose it was at first made.

An Ephod, we know, is a common Vestment belonging to Priests in general; but that of the High-Priest was of very great Value. This Vestment, however, was not so peculiar to the Priests, but that sometimes we find the Laity (as in the Case of David bringing home the Ark of God) allowed to wear it; and therefore some have imagined, that the Ephod, which Gideon made, was only a rich and costly Robe of State, which, on certain Occasions, he might wear, to denote the Station he held in the Jewish Republick. But if his Intent was only to distinguish himself from others by such a particular Vestment, how this could give the People Occasion of falling into Idolatry, or any Way become a Snare to Gideon and his House, we cannot conceive.

Others therefore suppose, that the Word Ephod is a short Expression to denote the High-Priest's Breast-plate, together with the Urim and Thummim; and hence, by an easy Figure, they are led to think that to make an Ephod is to establish a Priesthood; and thereupon conclude, that Gideon's Crime, in making this Ephod, was not to establish Idolatry, but only to institute another Priesthood, besides that which God had instituted in Aaron and his Posterity: And, to this Purpose, they suppose, that he erected a private Tabernacle, an Altar, a Mercy-seat, with Cherubims, &c. that, being now made the supreme Governor, he might consult God at his own House, in such difficult Points as occurred in his Administration.

But, besides that it is not easy to imagine, that a Man, familiar with God, and chosen by him, as Gideon was, should, after so signal a Victory as he had obtained, immediately apostatize, as he must have done, had he set up an Oracle in his own House; there seems to have been no Manner of Necessity for it, because Shiloh (where the Tabernacle stood) was in the Tribe of Ephraim, which adjoined to that of Manasseh, whereunto Gideon belonged. Nor should it be forgotten that this Ephod was set up in Ophrah, which Place Gideon quitted, as soon as he had resigned his publick Employ, and retiring to a Country-house of his own, in all Probability he left this Ephod behind him: There is Reason therefore to believe, that the Design of setting it up, was merely to be a Monument of his remarkable Victory over the Midianites, in like Manner as other Conquerors had done before him; only, as the Cuſtom was, to erect a Pillar, or hang up Trophies upon the like Occaſion, he choſe rather to make an Ephod, or Prieſt's Habit, (perhaps all of ſolid Gold) as a Token, that he aſcribed this Victory only to God, and triumphed in nothing ſo much, as in the Reformation of the true Religion by that Means. This was an Action of no bad Intent in Gideon, tho', in After-times, when the People began to return to Idolatry, and had this Fancy, among others, that God would anſwer them at Ophrah, where this Ephod was, as well as at his Tabernacle at Shiloh, it was perverted to a bad Purpoſe. But, as this Abuſe aroſe from the mad Caprice of the People, and not from any ill Intent in Gideon, he is no more chargeable therewith, than Moſes was with the idolatrous Worſhip which the Iſraelites, in future Ages, paid to the Brazen Serpent, which he, for very beneficial Purpoſes, at firſt ſet up.

CHAP. IX.

Abimelech made King by the Sechemites. He murders all his Brethren, except Jotham, who, by a Parable rebukes them, and foretels their Ruin. The Shechemites and Abimelech quarrel; he deſtroys their City; he attacks Thebes, and is ſlain by a Woman.

Ver. 1. AND Abimelech the ſon of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, unto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the houſe of his mothers father, ſaying, 2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the ſons of Jerubbaal (which are threeſcore and ten perſons) reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember alſo that I am your bone and your fleſh. 3 And his mothers brethren ſpake of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all theſe words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they ſaid, He is our brother. 4 And they gave him threeſcore and ten pieces of ſilver out of the houſe of Baal-berith: wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light perſons, which followed him. 5 And he went unto his fathers houſe at Ophrah, and ſlew his brethren the ſons of Jerubbaal, being threeſcore and ten perſons, upon one ſtone: notwithſtanding, yet Jotham the youngeſt ſon of Jerubbaal was left: for he hid himſelf. 6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the houſe of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem. 7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and ſtood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lift up his voice, and cried, and ſaid unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you. 8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them, and they ſaid unto the olive-tree, Reign thou over us. 9 But the olive-tree ſaid unto them, Should I leave my fatneſs, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? 10 And the trees ſaid to the fig-tree, Come thou, and reign over us. 11 But the fig-tree ſaid unto them, Should I forſake my ſweetneſs and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? 12 Then ſaid the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us. 13 And the vine ſaid unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? 14 Then ſaid all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us. 15 And the bramble ſaid unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your truſt in my ſhadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon. 16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly, and ſincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his houſe, and have done unto him according to the deſerving of his hands: 17 (For my father fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian: 18 And ye are riſen up againſt my fathers houſe this day, and have ſlain his ſons, threeſcore and ten perſons, upon one ſtone, and have made Abimelech the ſon of his maid-ſervant, king over the men of Shechem, becauſe he is your brother) 19 If ye then have dealt truly and ſincerely with Jerubbaal and with his houſe this day, then rejoice ye in Abimelech and let him alſo rejoice in you: 20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the houſe of Millo: and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the houſe of Millo, and devour Abimelech. 21 And Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother. 22 When Abimelech had reigned three years over Iſrael, 23 Then God ſent an evil ſpirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem, and the men of Shechem dealt treacherouſly with Abimelech: 24 That the cruelty done to the threeſcore and ten ſons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother which ſlew them, and upon the men of Shechem which aided him in the killing of his brethren. 25 And the men of Shechem ſet liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech. 26 And Gaal the ſon of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. 27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made merry, and went into the houſe of their god, and did eat and drink, and curſed Abimelech. 28 And Gaal the ſon of Ebed ſaid, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we ſhould ſerve him? is not he the ſon of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his officer? ſerve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why ſhould we ſerve him? 29 And would to God this people were under my hand; then would I remove Abimelech. And he ſaid to Abimelech, Increaſe thine army, and come out. 30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the ſon of Ebed, his anger was kindled. 31 And he ſent meſſengers unto Abimelech privily, ſaying, Behold, Gaal the ſon of Ebed, and his brethren, be come to Shechem; and behold, they fortify the city againſt thee. 32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field. 33 And it ſhall be, that in the morning as ſoon as the ſun is up, thou ſhalt riſe early, and ſet upon the city: and behold, when he and the people that is with him come out againſt thee, then mayeſt thou do to them as thou ſhall find occaſion. 34 And Abimelech roſe up, and all the people that were with him by night, and they laid wait againſt Shechem in four companies. 35 And Gaal the ſon of Ebed went out, and ſtood ood in the entring of the gate of the city: and Abimelech roſe up, and the people that were with him from lying in wait. 36 And when Gaal ſaw the people, he ſaid to Zebul, Behold, here come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul ſaid unto him, Thou eeſt the ſhadow of the mountains as if they were en. 37 And Gaal ſpake again, and ſaid, See here come people down by the middle of the and, and another company come along by the lain of Meonenim. 38 Then ſaid Zebul unto im, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou aidſt, Who is Abimelech, that we ſhould ſerve im? is not this the people that thou haſt deiſed? go out, I pray now, and fight with hem. 39 And Gaal went out before the men f Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. 40 nd Abimelech chaſed him, and he fled before im, and many were overthrown and wounded, en unto the entring of the gate. 41 And bimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thruſt ut Gaal and his brethren, that they ſhould not well in Shechem. 42 And it came to paſs n the morrow, that the people went out into he field, and they told Abimelech. 43 And e took the people, and divided them into three ompanies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, nd behold the people were come forth out of he city, and he roſe up againſt them, and ſmote hem. 44 And Abimelech, and the company hat was with him, ruſhed forward, and ſtood in he entring of the gate of the city: and the two ther companies ran upon all the people that were n the fields, and ſlew them. 45 And Abielech fought againſt the city all that day, and e took the city, and ſlew the people that was herein, and beat down the city, and ſowed it ith ſalt. 46 And when all the men of the tower f Shechem heard that, they entred into an hold f the houſe of the god Berith. 47 And it was old Abimelech, that all the men of the tower f Shechem were gathered together. 48 And bimelech gat him up to mount Zalmon, he nd all the people that were with him; and Abielech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a ough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on is ſhoulder, and ſaid unto the people that were with im, What ye have ſeen me do, make haſte and do s I have done. 49 And all the people likewiſe cut own every man his bough, and followed Abielech, and put them to the hold, and ſet the hold n fire upon them: ſo that all the men of the ower of Shechem died alſo, about a thouſand en and women. 50 Then went Abimelech, o Thebez, and incamped againſt Thebez, and ook it. 51 But there was a ſtrong tower within he city, and thither fled all the men and women, nd all they of the city, and ſhut it to them, and at them up to the top of the tower. 52 And bimelech came unto the tower, and fought gainſt it, and went hard unto the door of the ower to burn it with fire. 53 And a certain oman caſt a piece of a milſtone upon Abielechs head, and all to brake his ſcull. 54 hen he called haſtily unto the young man is armour-bearer, and ſaid unto him, Draw hy ſword, and ſlay me, that men ſay not of ne, A woman ſlew him. And his young man hruſt him through, and he died. 55 And when he men of Iſrael ſaw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place. 56 Thus God rendred the wickedneſs of Abimelech which he did unto his father, in ſlaying his ſeventy brethren. 57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem, did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curſe of Jotham the ſon of Jerubbaal.

And Abimelech the Son of Jerubbaal] What the Names of Jerubbaal's other Sons were, we have no Mention made in ſacred Writ; but the Name of this one is particularly ſet down, becauſe the following Story depends upon it: And not only ſo, but his Mother perhaps might give him this Name (which ſignifies my Father a King) out of Pride and Arrogance, that ſhe might be looked upon as the Wife of one, who was thought to deſerve a Kingdom, tho' he did not accept of it: And it is not improbable, that the very Senſe of this might be one Means to inflame the Mind of her Son afterwards, to affect the Royal Dignity.

Slew his Brethren, the Sons of Jerubbaal, being threeſcore and ten Perſons, upon one Stone] This Stone ſome will have to be an Altar, which Abimelech dedicated to the Idol Baal, and erected in the ſame Place, where his Father Gideon had deſtroyed his Altar before; and ſo they account, that this Slaughter of his Sons was deſigned for an expiatory Sacrifice of their Father's Crime, in demoliſhing the Altar and Grove, dedicated to that Idol. But this is a little too far fetched, tho' there is hardly any other Reaſon to be given, why they ſhould all be murthered upon one and the ſame Stone.

Out of the Houſe of Baal-berith] The learned Bochart is of Opinion, that the Baal here mentioned, was the ſame with Beroë, the Daughter of Venus and Adonis, deſired in Marriage by Neptune, but given to Bacchus; and that ſhe gave her Name to Berith in Phœnicia, where ſhe was much worſhipped, and thence tranſlated a Goddeſs into other Parts. But, tho' the Word Baal (as he maintains) be frequently uſed in a feminine Senſe, yet it can hardly be imagined, but that the ſacred Hiſtorian, if he had been minded to expreſs a Goddeſs, might have found out ſome Way of diſtinguiſhing her; might have called her (for Inſtance) Bahalah-berith, the Lady, or Goddeſs of Berith, without making both the Words of a maſculine Termination. And therefore the moſt ſimple and natural Manner of explaining the Name, is, to take it in general for the God who preſides over Covenants and Contracts, to whom it belongs to maintain them, and to puniſh all thoſe that violate them. For it is to be obſerved, that the moſt barbarous, as well as the moſt knowing, the moſt religious, as well as the moſt ſuperſtitious Nations have always looked upon God as the Witneſs, as well as the Vindicator of Oaths and Covenants; that the Greeks had their Zeus Horkios, as well as the Latins their Jupiter Piſtius, or Deus Fidius, or Fœcialis, whom they looked upon as a God of Honeſty and Uprightneſs, always ſuperintending in Treaties and Alliances. And for this Reaſon not improbably, the Houſe of their God Berith was the Citadel, the Arſenal, and the Treaſury of the Shechemites, even as Plutarch informs us, that in the Temple of Saturn, the Romans repoſited both their Archives and their Wealth. See Bochart, Pool, Calmet, and Jerieu.

The Trees went forth on a Time to anoint a King over them] This is the firſt Fable that we find any where upon Record; and from hence it appears, that ſuch Fictions as theſe, wherein the moſt ſerious Truths are repreſented, were in Uſe among the Jews (as they are ſtill in the Eaſtern Countries) long before the Time of Eſop, or any other Author that we know of. Various are the Reaſons that may be aſſigned for the firſt Invention of them; but theſe two ſeem to be the principal; 1. Becauſe Men would ſuffer themſelves to be reprehended in this Guiſe, when they could not endure plain Words: And, 2. Becauſe they heard them with Delight and Pleaſure, and remembred them better, than any grave or rational Diſcourſes.

Then God ſent an evil Spirit (or Spirit of Diſcord) be- tween Abimelech and the Men of Shechem] Which, in Scripture, is an usual Form of Speech, and denotes not any positive Action, but a Permission only, or, at most, a Direction from God. It is observed, however, that this Manner of Expression may possibly have given Rise to some Notions in the Theology of the Heathens, when they suppose, that the Furies are appointed by the Gods to sow the Seeds of Discord among Men.

And a certain Woman cast a Piece of a Millstone upon Abimelech's Head] Thus Plutarch relates, that Pyrrhus, at the Siege of Thebes, was killed by a Woman's throwing a Piece of Tile upon his Head; but there is something more remarkable in Abimelech's Death by a Stone, because, as he slew all his Brethren upon one Stone, for him to die by no other Instrument, carried some Stamp of his Sin upon it. The Manner of his Death, however, puts me in Mind of what the same Author records of the Spartan General, Lysander, who fell ingloriously under the Walls of Haliartus. 'Thus he 'died, says he, but not like Cleombrotus, who was 'slain, while he was gloriously making Head against 'an impetuous Enemy at Leuctra; not like Cyrus, or 'Epaminondas, who received a mortal Wound, while 'he was rallying his Men, and securing to them the 'Victory. These great Men died in their Callings. 'They died the Death of Kings and Commanders: 'Whereas he, like some common Soldier, or one of 'the forlorn Hope, cast away his Life ingloriously; 'giving this Testimony to the antient Spartans, that 'they did well to avoid storming of Walls, in which 'the stoutest Men may chance to fall by the Hand, 'not only of an abject Fellow, but by that of a Boy 'or a Woman, as they say Achilles was slain, in the 'Gates of Troy, by the Hands of effeminate Paris.' See Patrick's Com. and Plutarch's Comp. of Lysander and Sylla.

CHAP. X.

Tola and Jair, successively, judge Israel. The Philistines and Ammonites oppress Israel; but God, on their Repentance, takes Pity on them.

Ver. 1. AND after Abimelech, there arose to defend Israel, Tolah the son of Puah the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim. 2 And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. 3 And after him arose Jair a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years. 4 And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass-colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead. 5 And Jair died, and was buried in Camon. 6 And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the Lord, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the Lord, and served not him. 7 And the anger of the Lord was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon. 8 And that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel: eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan, in the land of the Amorites which is in Gilead. 9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan, to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed. 10 And the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim: 11 And the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? 12 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppress you, and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. 13 Yet ye have forsaken me and served other gods; wherefore I will deliver you no more. 14 Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation. 15 And the children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned, do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee, deliver us only, we pray thee, this day. 16 And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the Lord: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel. 17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and incamped in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh. 18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

And the Children of Israel said unto the Lord, We have sinned, do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee] This is the most remarkable Repentance and Reformation that we meet with in the History of Judges; and it seems to be so serious, that, in the Times of those three Governors who succeeded Jephtah, we read nothing of their relapsing into Idolatry. And, as their Repentance was sincere, so the Expression of the divine Compassion towards them, Ver. 16. that his Soul was grieved for the Misery of Israel, is the strongest that we meet with; tho' every one knows, that the divine Nature is not capable of Grief, properly so called, but the Meaning is, that he quite altered his former Intention, and, in much Mercy, resolved, upon their Repentance, to deliver them.

And that Year they vexed and oppressed the Children of Israel eighteen Years] It may be rendered, That Year they had vexed and oppressed the Children of Israel eighteen Years, that was the eighteenth Year, namely, of that Vexation. This was the eighteenth Year of that Oppression. And these eighteen Years are not to be reckoned from Jair's Death, because that would enlarge the Time of the Judges beyond just Bounds, as may appear from 1 Kings vi. 1. nor from Jephtah's beginning to reign, because he reigned but six Years, and in the Beginning thereof put an End to this Persecution, but from the fourth Year of Jair's Reign, the greatest Part of which, it seems, was cotemporary with this Affliction. And altho' this Oppression of the Ammonites and Philistines, and the Cause of it, the Idolatry of the Israelites, be not mentioned till after Jair's Death, because the sacred Penman would deliver the whole History of this Calamity entire, and together; yet they both happened before it; and Jair's Death is mentioned before that, only by a Prolepsis or Anticipation, than which nothing is more frequent in Scripture. The Case of Jair and Samson seem to be much alike. For, as it's said of Samson, that he judged Israel in the Days of the Tyranny of the Philistines, twenty Years, Judg. xv. 20. by which it is evident, that his Judicature, and their Dominion, were cotemporary. The like is to be conceived of Jair, that he began to judge Israel, and endeavoured to reform Religion, and purge out all Abuses; but being unable to effect this through the Backwardness or Baseness of the People, God would not enable him to deliver them, but gave them up to this sad Oppression; so that Jair could only perform one half of his Office, which was to determine Differences among the Israelites, but could not deliver them from their Enemies.

CHAP. XI.

The History of Jepthah.

Ver. 1. NOW Jephthah the Gileadite as a mighty man of valour, and he was the ſon of an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah. 2 And Gileads wife bare him ſons, and his wifes ſons grew up, and they thruſt out Jephthah, and ſaid unto him, Thou ſhalt not inherit in our fathers houſe, for thou art the ſon of a ſtrange woman. 3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him. 4 And it came to paſs in proceſs of time, that the children of Ammon made war againſt Iſrael. 5 And it was ſo, that when the children of Ammon made war againſt Iſrael, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob: 6 And they ſaid unto Jephthah, Come and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon. 7 And Jephthah ſaid unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my houſe? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in diſtreſs? 8 And the elders of Gilead ſaid unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayeſt go with us, and fight againſt the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead. 9 And Jephthah ſaid unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight againſt the children of Ammon, and the Lord deliver them before me; ſhall I be your head? 10 And the elders of Gilead ſaid unto Jephthah, The Lord be witneſs between us, if we do not ſo according to thy words. 11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the Lord in Miſpeh. 12 And Jephthah ſent meſſengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, ſaying, What haſt thou to do with me, that thou art come againſt me to fight in my land? 13 And the king of the children of Ammon anſwered unto the meſſengers of Jephthah, becauſe Iſrael took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbock, and unto Jordan: now therefore reſtore thoſe lands again peaceably. 14 And Jephthah ſent meſſengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon: 15 And ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith Jephthah, Iſrael took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon: 16 But when Iſrael came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderneſs, unto the Red-ſea, and came to Kadeſh; 17 Then Iſrael ſent meſſengers unto the king of Edom, ſaying, Let me, I pray thee, paſs through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they ſent unto the king of Moab; but he would not conſent: and Iſrael abode in Kadeſh. 18 Then they went along through the wilderneſs, and compaſſed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and by the eaſt-ſide of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other ſide of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab. 19 And Iſrael ſent meſſengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heſhbon; and Iſrael ſaid unto him, Let us paſs, we pray thee, through thy land unto my place. 20 But Sihon truſted not Iſrael to paſs through his coaſt: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought againſt Iſrael. 21 And the Lord God of Iſrael delivered Sihon, and all his people into the hand of Iſrael, and they ſmote them: ſo Iſrael poſſeſſed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. 22 And they poſſeſſed all the coaſts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderneſs, even unto Jordan. 23 So now the Lord God of Iſrael hath diſpoſſeſſed the Amorites from before his people Iſrael, and ſhouldſt thou poſſeſs it? 24 Wilt thou not poſſeſs that which Chemoſh thy God giveth thee to poſſeſs? So whomſoever the Lord our God ſhall drive out from before us, them will we poſſeſs. 25 And now art thou any thing better than Balak the ſon of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever ſtrive againſt Iſrael, or did he ever fight againſt them, 26 While Iſrael dwelt in Heſhbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coaſts of Arnon, three hundred years? Why therefore did ye not recover them within that time? 27 Wherefore I have not ſinned againſt thee, but thou doeſt me wrong to war againſt me: the Lord the Judge be judge this day between the children of Iſrael, and the children of Ammon. 28 Howbeit, the king of the children of Ammon hearkned not unto the words of Jephthah which he ſent him. 29 Then the ſpirit of the Lord came upon Jephthah, and he paſſed over Gilead, and Manaſſeh, and paſſed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he paſſed over unto the children of Ammon. 30 And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the Lord, and ſaid, If thou ſhalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then it ſhall be, that whatſoever cometh forth of the doors of my houſe to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, ſhall ſurely be the Lords, and I will offer it up for a burnt-offering. 32 So Jephthah paſſed over unto the children of Ammon to fight againſt them, and the Lord delivered them into his hands. 33 And he ſmote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great ſlaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were ſubdued before the children of Iſrael. 34 And Jephthah came to Mizpeh, unto his houſe, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances, and ſhe was his only child: beſide her he had neither ſon nor daughter. 35 And it came to paſs when he ſaw her, that he rent his cloaths, and ſaid, Alas, my daughter, thou haſt brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and I cannot go back. 36 And ſhe ſaid unto him, My father, if thou haſt opened thy mouth unto the Lord, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; foraſmuch as the Lord hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon. 37 And ſhe ſaid unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: Let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows. 38 And he ſaid, Go. And he ſent her away away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. 39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her, according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel, 40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

Thou shalt not inherit in our Father's House, for thou art the Son of a strange Woman] Several Jewish Doctors are of Opinion, says Howell, that the Word Zonah may signify, either one of another Tribe, or one of another Nation; and so Josephus calls Jeptha, a Stranger by the Mother's Side. It is to be observed, however, that among the Jews, if such Persons as were deemed Strangers embraced the Law, their Children were capable to inherit among the rest of their Brethren. Jeptha indeed, complains of the hard Usage he met with, but it was upon this Occasion, when his Country he found stood in need of him: For, had he been unjustly dispossessed of his Inheritance before, we can hardly suppose, that a Man of his Courage and martial Spirit, would have sat down contented with his Exclusion. It is not to be doubted therefore, but that he was the Son of an Harlot, properly so called: But then the Question is, Why God should make Choice of a Person of his Character for so great an Instrument of his Glory? To which it may be replyed, 1*st*, That God has prescribed Laws to Men, but none to himself; and can therefore alter his Dispensations as he pleases, according to the Circumstances and Exigences of Things. 2*dly*, That as he chuses to act by second Causes, he always makes Use of such Instruments, as (all Things considered) are propereſt for his Purpose, without regard to any Blemishes, for which they themselves are not accountable: And, 3*dly*, That he might purposely dispense with the Law in this Case, to shew, that those who are basely born, ought not to despond, but, by a virtuous and good Life expect a Share of God's Blessings.

Dwelt in the Land of Tob] We read no where else of this Country, says Patrick, which, very probably, was not far from Gilead, upon the Borders of the Ammonites, in the Entrance of Arabia Deserta; or perhaps it is the same with what is called Ish-tob (2 Sam. viii. 6, 8.) which was in Syria, and so near the Ammonites, that they hired Forces from thence, as well as from other Nations, to fight against David.

And Jephthah vowed a Vow unto the Lord] To make a Vow was an Act of religious Worship, and in itself no Way culpable; nay, not only the Jews, but other Nations looked upon it in this View: And therefore we find Livy so frequently telling us, that the Roman Generals were wont to vow to Jupiter, or Apollo, or some other God, that if, by their Help, they should prove successful, they would devote some Part of the Spoil they should take in the War, to their Use, or build Temples, and dedicate them to their Honour.

Who did with her according to his Vow which he had vowed] There has been a great Controversy among Commentators, whether this Daughter of Jephthah's was really sacrificed or no. To satisfy the Curious in this Point, I shall, says Stackhouse, fairly state the Arguments on both Sides; consider a little on which they preponderate; and then enquire, in Case he did sacrifice his Daughter, or, (as others will have it) devote her only to God's Service in a single Life; whether the Thing was lawful for him to do; and what might possibly be the Motive of his doing it.

Those who maintain the Negative, or more merciful Side of the Question, argue in this Manner; That Jephthah was certainly a very good Man, because we find him ranked among the Worthies of old, that are commemorated, with Honour, by the Author of the Hebrews; that he was an Israelite, and, as such, lived under a Law which prohibited human Sacrifices by the severest Penalties; that had the Vow been intended in this Sense, God would never have vouchsafed Jephtah so signal a Victory as he did, which must have terminated in the Violation of his own Laws; and therefore they conclude, that so kind and tender a Father as Jephthah is represented, would never have sacrificed an innocent, dutiful, and obedient Child, as her whole Carriage seems to denote her, in Discharge of a rash and inconsiderate Vow; especially when, according to the Prescription of the Law, he might have redeemed his Daughter at a Price so inconsiderable as ten Shekels of Silver.

It must be something else therefore, say they, that Jephthah did unto his Daughter, and that (according to the Import of the Text) was to devote her to a State of Celibacy, or that she might live in the State of a religious Nun, all the Days of her Life: For the Particle Vah, which we render and, (it shall surely be the Lord's, and I will offer it up) is a Disjunctive in this Place, as it is elsewhere, and signifies or; so that the true Version of the Passage should be, whatever cometh forth to meet me, shall surely be the Lord's, or I will offer it up for a Burnt-offering; i. e. if it be an human Creature, I will dedicate it to the Service of God; if a Beast, of any Kind proper for a Sacrifice, I will instantly offer it up: For that in this Sense the Vow is to be understood, is evident; from her going into the Mountains to bewail her Virginity, which, had she been doomed to be sacrificed, had not been near so proper, as to bewail her untimely End: Nor can we think that Jephthah would have ever suffered her to have made a Circuit of two Months among her Companions, for fear of making her Escape, or procuring some of her Friends and Acquaintance either to rescue her, or intercede for her, had she been destined to suffer Death upon her Return.

On the contrary, when she returned to her Father, and he had done to her according to his Vow, it immediately follows, that she knew not Man; which shews that the Purpose of his Vow was answered, by obliging her to a State of perpetual Virginity in some retired Place, where she was excluded from all Society, except that the Daughters of Israel, those especially of her Acquaintance, went up, either to talk or converse with her, or to celebrate her Praise, or to comfort her concerning her solitary Condition (for to all these Senses may the Word Letanoth be applied) four Days in the Year, i. e. one Day in every Quarter.

Upon the whole therefore they infer, that Jephthah's Daughter did not fall a Sacrifice, but was consecrated to God, and his Service, devoted to a single Life, and to remain a Recluse all her Days; which could not but occasion Jephthah no small Grief and Trouble, because by this Means his Family became extinct, and himself destitute of Issue, to inherit his Estate, and perpetuate his Name.

These are some of the most plausible Arguments that are generally employed to prove, not the Sacrifice of Jephthah's Daughter, but only her Obligation to a perpetual Virginity, in the Worship and Service of God.

Those that maintain the Affirmative, or harsher Side of the Question, viz. that Jephthah, in pursuance to his Vow, did actually sacrifice his Daughter, form their Arguments in this Manner, — That the Times wherein Jephthah lived, were so sadly addicted to Idolatry, that to burn their Sons and their Daughters in Fire to their Gods, was a common Practice among the Israelites, as well as other Nations, and that the Manner in which he lived (before he was called to the Assistance of his Brethren) which was chiefly by Plunder and Rapine, and Bloodshed, made him not incapable of vowing to sacrifice the first of his Domestics that should meet him upon his victorious Return: That the Vow is delivered in general and indefinite Terms whatsoever, viz. should come forth of the Doors of his House to meet him, that should surely be the Lord's, and it should be the Lord's, by being offered up for a Burnt-offering; that tho' the Particle Vah be on some ſed in a diſjunctive Senſe, yet it can only be ſo, where Things are really diſtinct from each other, but cannot e admitted where the one manifeſtly includes the other, s it is in the Paſſage before us; that therefore it is much more congruous to all the Rules of good Senſe, o underſtand the Words of Jepthah ſo, as that, by romiſing whatſoever he met ſhould be the Lord's, he bliged himſelf in general to conſecrate it to God, and hat by promiſing farther, that he would offer it up for Burnt-offering, he ſpecified the Manner in which he tended to make that his Conſecration.

Vows of perpetual Virginity, ſay they, are Inſtitutions f a modern Date; the Word of God knows nothing them, nor has this pretended Celibacy of Jepthah's Daughter, any Foundation in Scripture; and therefore, hen this Circumſtance is inſerted, that ſhe knew no Man, it is not to ſignify, that ſhe lived a perpetual irgin, but only, that ſhe was ſo unhappy, as to leave e World in her Youth, and before ſhe had the Know-dge of a Man.

Had Jepthah meant no more, ſay they, by perform-g his Vow, than conſecrating his Daughter as a rpetual Virgin to the Service of God, what Cauſe as there for rending his Cloaths, and bemoaning him-lf, as we find he did? Had Jepthah made only a Vow Celibacy for his Daughter, whereby ſhe was bound nothing more painful, than to lead a ſingle Life, hat Reaſon was there for bewailing this as a grievous alamity, which ſome Men account a Thing ſo glorious d honourable? Is the being ſhut up as a Recluſe, and tered into the Liſt of perpetual Virgins, a Matter ſuch bitter Complaint and Lamentation? Was this ſore an Evil, an Evil ſo extraordinary, that not only fore ſhe underwent it, ſhe, and her Companions, ould, for two Months together, be allowed to bewail ; but that, after ſhe had undergone it, the Daugh-rs of Iſrael ſhould be required to lament it four Times Year? If ſhe was actually put to Death, in Execu-on of her Father's Vow, it is eaſy then to underſtand, hy the particular Circumſtance of her dying without ſue, when ſhe was the only Daughter of her Father, d he had no other Proſpect of Poſterity to keep up s Family, ſhould be repreſented as a ſore Aggravation her violent and untimely Death: But it ſeems very fficult to account for that bitter Lamentation, made her Father, herſelf, by her Companions, and by the Daughters of Iſrael, in ſucceeding Times, if ſhe ffered no other, no ſeverer Puniſhment, than that of ing devoted to a ſingle Life.

These are ſome of the moſt prevailing Arguments the affirmative Side; and for the Confirmation of em, it is farther alledged, that both Joſephus, and e Chaldee Paraphraſt, teſtify the ſame Thing; that e antient Doctors, both of the Jewiſh and Chriſtian hurch, were of the ſame Opinion; and that, as to e Subſtance of the Fact, the Compilers of the Homilies our Church do perfectly agree with theſe antient riters; ſo that, how deſirous ſoever we may be to ear Jepthah from the Imputation of ſo cruel, ſo im-ous, ſo unnatural an Act, as that of murdering his wn Daughter, yet if we will adhere to the more eaſy d obvious Conſtruction of the Words, and as they ppear to us at firſt View; or if we retain any juſt teem or Veneration for the Senſe of Antiquity, we uſt neceſſarily conclude, that, when it is ſaid of him, at he did with his Daughter according to his Vow, which had vowed, the Meaning can be no leſs, than that he d really put her to Death.

There is one Law which ſeems to be of ſome Mo-ent in the Caſe before us, and that is this — If a an vow a Vow unto the Lord, or ſwear an Oath, to nd his Soul with a Bond, he ſhall not break his Word, ſhall do according to all that proceedeth out of his outh: But then all ſober Caſuiſts are agreed, that a ow has only a conſtructive, not a deſtructive Force, . that it can only lay a new Obligation, where there none, or where there is one, ſtrengthen it; but that cannot cancel a former Obligation, or ſuperinduce ne that is repugnant to it. Now, all our Obligations Obedience proceed from God: He has an uncon-troulable Right to give Laws to his Creatures; but if Men, by entering into Vows, could free themſelves from the Obligation of his Laws, they might then, whenever they pleaſed, by their own Act, defeat his Authority. Whatever therefore, is in itſelf forbidden by God, and for that Reaſon unlawful; whatever is againſt the Precept of natural or revealed Religion; whatever is inconſiſtent with thoſe relative Duties, which Men owe to one another; whatever, in ſhort, is, in any Reſpect, ſinful, cannot, by being made the Matter of a Vow, become juſtifiable. So that he, who hath vowed a Vow, to do what cannot be done without Sin, is ſo far from being obliged to perform his Vow, that he is, notwithſtanding his Vow, obliged not to perform it, becauſe there is not only great Obliquity in making ſuch an unlawful Vow, but his Obliquity is ſo far from being leſſened, that it is aggravated by keeping it.

Since therefore the Thing, vowed by Jepthah, ſeems to have been in itſelf unlawful, ſince his Daughter was innocent, and had done nothing to deſerve Death; ſince the running out to meet her Father, with Joy and Congratulation, was an Act of Piety, which ſeemed to entitle her to his Love and Favour; ſince the natural Affection of a Father towards his Child muſt be ſtifled, before he could give Way to the Execution of the Sentence of Death upon her; ſince the ſacrificing of Children to their Gods was a Crime, for which the heathen Nations were deteſted, and puniſhed by God; ſince Jepthah's offering his Daughter, as a Victim to the Lord, might reflect a Diſhonour upon the true God, as if he alſo delighted in ſuch Sacrifices; ſince theſe, I ſay, and ſeveral other Things might be urged in Aggravation of this Action, we may ſafely and confidently aver, with the Jewiſh Hiſtorian, that the Sacrifice which Jepthah offered, was neither lawful, nor acceptable to God; but on the contrary, a very impious Act, and abominable Crime, tho' it might proceed from a miſtaken Principle of Religion.

The religious Obſervation of Oaths and Vows has, at all Times, been eſteemed a Duty, incumbent on thoſe that made them, inſomuch, that, even when they have been procured by Guile, they have not been thought deſtitute of their Obligation. The Gibeonites certainly impoſed upon the Children of Iſrael, when they obtained from them a League of Amity and Friendſhip; and yet we may obſerve what Notions the Iſraelites had of this kind of Obligation, when, in their publick Conſultations, they ſay, We have ſworn unto them by the Lord God of Iſrael, now therefore we may not touch them. This was a remarkable Inſtance before Jepthah's Days, and 'tis not improbable, that he might have it in his Remembrance, and imprudently make uſe of it, as a Precedent of the Irreverſibleneſs of Oaths, and of the inviolable Tye he was under, by reaſon of his Vow: But in ſucceeding Times, there is a Paſſage in Scripture, which comes nearer to the Caſe now before us. Saul, in the Day of Battle, perceiving his Enemies to give ground, out of the Abundance of Zeal, made a Vow to God, that whoever ſhould taſte any Food, before the Purſuit was over, ſhould certainly die, and, upon this Occaſion, his own Son Jonathan had like to have been made a Sacrifice, merely becauſe the Father would have been thought religious and auſtere in the Obſervation of his Oath, notwithſtanding he was plainly excuſed from the Obligation of it, as to his Son, who was both in another Place, and ignorant of his Father's Will, and under a Neceſſity of taking ſome ſmall Refreſhment, when he was ſo faint and hungry. What Wonder then if Jepthah, who, we have Reaſon to believe, was a Perſon much more religiouſly inclined than Saul, ſhould think himſelf under an Obligation to obſerve his Vow, even tho' it was to the Deſtruction of his own and only Daughter.

What the Acceptableneſs of Abraham's offering his Son Iſaac was, he had read in the Book of Moſes; and this might poſſibly leſſen the Horror of the Fact he was going to commit. For, tho' Abraham had the poſitive Command of God for what he did, which Jepthah could not pretend to, ſo that there was a great Diſparity between their two Caſes, yet it was plain, from the Acceptableneſs of Abraham's Offering, and the great Reward beſtowed on him for his intended Oblation, that the ſacrificing a beloved Child was not, in all Caſes, and under all Circumſtances, ſinful, but might be ſo circumſtantiated, as to be an Act of Piety, and approved in the Sight of God: And when this Example proved ſuch an Action, as to the Matter and Subſtance of it, not only lawful, but commendable, Jepthah might be led into an Opinion, that the Difference between his Caſe, and that of Abraham, was not ſo great, as what was laudable and almoſt meritorious in the one, ſhould be imputed as an unpardonable Crime to the other.

He had read in the Law likewiſe, that when thou ſhalt vow a Vow unto the Lord, thou ſhalt not be ſlack to pay it, and was ſenſible, that a wilful Neglect of this was an heinous Crime, a mocking of God, a diſſembling with Heaven, and an Act of Injuſtice and Unfaithfulneſs towards him, who is a ſevere Exacter of Vows, and is wont to avenge the Breach of them, by the Infliction of the ſoreſt Puniſhments; and upon theſe Premiſes he might poſſibly argue with himſelf in this Manner; — 'Tho' I know that the Performance of my 'Vow will be accompanied with Murther, yet I con- 'ſider likewiſe, that my not performing it will be at- 'tended with downright Perjury. Seeing then there is 'a Neceſſity of Sinning, one Way or other, I am re- 'ſolved to chuſe the former; for tho' that be an Injury to 'my Daughter, yet the other is an Affront to God. 'My Child is dear to me indeed; but my God, my 'Father, is much more ſo. 'Tis better therefore to 'be cruel, than impious; to be guilty of Bloodſhed, 'than to be perjured, and falſe to the Lord of Heaven 'and Earth. I have opened my Mouth to the Lord, 'and I cannot go back. I muſt not reverſe, I dare 'not revoke the ſacred Promiſe which I have made to 'the Almighty: But my firm and unſhaken Purpoſe 'is to perform it.' Thus the miſtaken Senſe of the indiſſoluble Obligation, which his Vow had laid upon him, blinded his Eyes, and ran him upon this fatal Rock.

He could not but know, that no Vow was obligatory, where the Matter of it is unlawful in itſelf, or, that which was lawful in itſelf, can poſſibly be made otherwiſe by the Interpoſition of a Vow: Nay, he could not but know, that to act unlawfully, in Virtue of a Vow, was a double Sin, ſince not only the Vow itſelf was ſinful, but the Act, conſequent thereupon, was ſinful likewiſe; and yet ſo blind ſometimes is the Zeal of an erroneous Conſcience, that it will not ſuffer Men to perceive, at leaſt to be governed by, the moſt rational and ſelf-evident Principles.

Upon the Whole, therefore, we may conclude, that, how great ſoever this Sin of Jepthah's was, yet, properly ſpeaking, it was the Sin of Ignorance, and the Effect of a miſguided Conſcience. By the bitter Complaint which he uttered at the firſt Sight of his Daughter coming out to meet him, it is evident, that he was under great Trouble and Perplexity; and, as ſhe had done nothing to alienate his Affections from her, but in this very act of meeting him, had done ſomething to engage his Affections more ſtrongly towards her, the Bowels of a Father muſt neceſſarily yearn to ſave the Life of a loving and beloved Child. The generous Offer which ſhe made him, that he might do to her whatever he pleaſed, according to his Vow, tho' it made the doing of it leſs unjuſt, could not but add a freſh Sting to his Grief, and, if he had any Generoſity in his Breaſt, make him do it with the more Reluctancy. No one, who is a Parent; no one, who hath felt the Workings of Nature towards his own Iſſue; no one, who hath ſuffered, or hath feared the Loſs of an only Child, but muſt be ſenſible, what Pangs of Sorrow, what Meltings of Compaſſion, what Agonies of Grief muſt pierce the Soul of Jepthah, when he imagined himſelf under the ſad Neceſſity of ſacrificing his own, his only, his Virgin-daughter, whom he could not offer up for a Burnt-offering, without ſacrificing, at the ſame Time, all the Propenſions of Nature, all the Eaſe and Pleaſure of his Life, all the Proſpect of keeping up his Family. Nothing leſs, than a miſtaken Opinion of the indiſpenſible Obligation of his Vow, could prevail with him, thus to over-rule the ſtrong Motives of Intereſt and Inclination, and a Miſtake which took its Riſe from ſo good a Principle, muſt, without Queſtion, at leaſt extenuate the Guilt in the Judgment both of good-natured Men, and of an all-merciful God.

CHAP. XII.

The Ephraimites wage War againſt Jephthah; defeated, and diſcovered by the Word Shibboleth. Jephthah's Death. Ibzan, Elon, Abdon, Judges.

Ver. 1. AND the men of Ephraim gathered themſelves together, and went northward, and ſaid unto Jephthah, Wherefore paſſedſt thou over to fight againſt the children of Ammon, and didſt not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine houſe upon thee with fire. 2 And Jephthah ſaid unto them, I and my people were at great ſtrife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands. 3 And when I ſaw that ye delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and paſſed over againſt the children of Ammon, and the Lord delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight againſt me? 4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead ſmote Ephraim, becauſe they ſaid, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim, among the Ephraimites, and among the Manaſſites. 5 And the Gileadites took the paſſages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was ſo, that when thoſe Ephraimites which were eſcaped, ſaid, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead ſaid unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he ſaid, Nay: 6 Then ſaid they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he ſaid Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and ſlew him at the paſſages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thouſand. 7 And Jephthah judged Iſrael ſix years: then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead. 8 And after him, Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Iſrael. 9 And he had thirty ſons, and thirty daughters, whom he ſent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his ſons. And he judged Iſrael ſeven years. 10 Then died Ibzan, and was buried at Beth-lehem. 11 And after him, Elon a Zebulonite judged Iſrael, and he judged Iſrael ten years. 12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun. 13 And after him, Abdon the ſon of Hillel a Pirathonite judged Iſrael. 14 And he had forty ſons, and thirty nephews, that rode on threeſcore and ten aſs-colts: and he judged Iſrael eight years. 15 And Abdon the ſon of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

Ye Gileadites are Fugitives of Ephraim, among the Ephraimites, and among the Manaſſites] According to this Tranſlation, theſe Words are a ſcoffing and contemptuous Expreſſion of the Ephraimites concerning the Gileadites, whom they call Fugitives of Ephraim; the Word Ephraim being here taken largely, as it is elſewhere, Iſa. viii. 2, 5. ſo as it comprehends the other neighbouring Tribes, of which Ephraim was, in ſome Sort, the Chief or Head; and eſpecially their Brethren of Manaſſeh, who lived next to them, and were deſcended from the ſame Father Joſeph; by Reaſon whereof both these Tribes are reckoned for one, and called by the Name of the Tribe of Joseph. And this large Signification of Ephraim may seem probable from the following Words, where, instead of Ephraim, is put the Ephraimites, and the Manassites. By Gileadites here they seem principally to mean the Manassites beyond Jordan, who dwelt in Gilead, as appears from Deut. iii. 13. Josh. xvii. 1, 5, 6. And altho' other Gi- leadites were joined with them, yet they vent their Passion against these; principally because they envied them most; partly, because they seemed to have a chief Hand in the Victory, Judg. xi. 29. and partly, because they were more nearly related to them, and therefore more obliged to desire their Conjunction with them in the War. These they here opprobriously call Fugitives, that is, such as had deserted their Brethren of Ephraim and Manasseh, and for some worldly Advantage planted themselves beyond Jordan, at a Distance from their Brethren, and were alienated in Affection from them, and carried on a distinct and separate Interest of their own; as appears by their monopolizing the Glory of this Success to themselves, and excluding their Brethren from it. According to the Hebrew, the Words lie, and may be rendered thus. Therefore, they said, Fu- gitives of Ephraim are ye, that is, ye Ephraimites are here Run-aways; for the Words next foregoing are, the Men of Gilead smote Ephraim. And having told you what they said, because the Pronoun they was ambiguous, he adds by Way of Explication, who said it, even the Gileadites (and they said it when they had got the Advantage over them, and were got between them and Home, as the next Verse shews) being between Ephraim and Manasseh; that is, having taken the Passages of Jordan, as it follows, which lay between Ephraim and that Part of Manasseh which was beyond Jordan. Or these latter Words may be rendred thus, and the Gileadites were between Ephraim and Manasseh.

Or there is only an Ellipsis of two small Words, which are often defective, and to be understood in Scripture.
Or thus, And the Gileadites were in the Midst of the E- phraimites, and in the Midst of the Manassites, namely, those Manassites who ordinarily lived within Jordan, who possibly were Confederates in this Quarrel. And so the Meaning is, they followed close after them, overtook them, fell upon the Midst of them, and smote them, and then sent a Party to intercept them at the Passages of Jordan, as it here follows.

And they said unto him, Say now Shibboleth; and he said Sibboleth] Nothing is more notorious, than that People of the same Nation, who speak the same Lan- guage, differ very much in the Pronunciation of it, in several Parts of the Country. In Palestine, the People of Galilee, and those that lived at Jerusalem, spake the same Tongue, and yet, in the Time of Christ, the latter could tell St. Peter, that his Speech bewrayed him, Matt. xxvi. 73. In Greece all spake Greek, and yet the Ionians, Atticks, Dorians, and Æolians pronounced very differently. And here, tho' the Gilead- ites and Ephraimites were all of one Nation, yet the latter, we find, could not pronounce the Letter Schin.
There were doubtless therefore many other Words which they could not frame their Mouths to speak, as the Gileadites did, but this one was chosen, because it was fit for the Purpose. For, as Shibboth signifies Heads of Water, the Gileadites, when they saw any Ephraimite appear, might put this Test to him, and bid him say, Let me pass over the Water.

CHAP. XIII.

The Philistines oppress Israel. An Angel appears to Manoah's Wife, and afterwards to him. Manoah's Sacrifice, and the Angel's Ascent in the Flame. Samson born.

1 AND the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. 2 And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah, and his wife was barren and bare not. 3 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold, now, thou art barren and beareſt not:
but thou shalt conceive and bear a son. 4
Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine, nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing. 5 For lo, thou shalt conceive and bear a son, and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.
6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name. 7
But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God, from the womb to the day of his death.
8 Then Manoah intreated the Lord, and said,
O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send, come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. 9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her. 10 And the woman made haste, and ran and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day. 11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? and he said, I am. 12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass: How shall we order the child, and how shall we do unto him? 13 And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware. 14 She many not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her, let her observe.
15 And Manoah said unto the angel of the Lord,
I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. 16 And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offering, thou must offer it unto the Lord: for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the Lord. 17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the Lord, What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass, we may do thee honour? 18 And the angel of the Lord said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? 19 So Manoah took a kid with a meat-offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the Lord: and the angel did wondrously, and Manoah and his wife looked on. 20
For it came to pass when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the Lord ascended in the flame of the altar:
and Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground. 21 (But the angel of the Lord did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife.) Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the Lord. 22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have

ſeen God. 23 But his wife ſaid unto him, If the Lord were pleaſed to kill us, he would not have received a burnt-offering and a meat-offering at our hands, neither would he have ſhewed us all theſe things, nor would as at this time have told us ſuch things as theſe. 24 And the woman bare a ſon, and called his name Samſon: and the child grew, and the Lord bleſſed him. 25 And the Spirit of the Lord began to move him at times in the camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eſhtaol.

And the Lord delivered them into the Hand of the Philiſtines forty Years] They are not to be computed from the Death of Abdon, the laſt Judge, but before, as is evident from Ver. 5. where it is declared, that Iſrael was under the Power of the Philiſtines; and from Ch. xv. 20. where only twenty of theſe Years are ſaid to have been in Samſon's Days. And it's probably conceived, that the great Slaughter of the Ephraimites made by Jepthah, greatly encouraged the Philiſtines to riſe againſt Iſrael when one of their chief Bulwarks was ſo much weakened; and therefore that the Philiſtines began to domineer over them not long before Jepthah's Death.

The Child ſhall be a Nazarite unto God from the Womb] A Nazarite was one, who, under the Levitical Law, either to attain the Favour, or avert the Judgments, or acknowledge the Mercies of Almighty God, vowed a Vow of particular Purity, and ſeparated himſelf (for ſo the Word ſignifies) in an extraordinary Manner, to the Service of God. The Time of this Vow laſted uſually for eight Days, ſometimes for a Month, and, in ſome Caſes, for a whole Year. During this Time, the Perſons (for Women, as well as Men, might enter into this Engagement) bound themſelves to abſtain from Wine, and all ſtrong Liquors, not to cut the Hair of their Heads, nor to come near a dead Corpſe, nor aſſiſt at a Funeral; nay the Matter was carried ſo high, that if any happened to die ſuddenly in their Preſence, the whole Ceremony of this Separation was to begin entirely a-new. After the Time that their Separation was expired, they went to offer ſuch Sacrifices as the Law required, and then, being abſolved from their Vow by the Prieſt, they might drink Wine, and uſe the ſame Freedom that other People did. Samſon's Nazaritiſm (to which he was conſecrated by his Parents) was to laſt the whole Time of his Life; but his frequent Intercourſe with the Philiſtines, and the great Havock and Slaughter that he ſo often made among them, would induce one to think, that he had a particular Diſpenſation, exempting him from the Obſervation of ſome of the foregoing Rules.

And no Razor ſhall come upon his Head] Long Hair was eſteemed very much among the Jews, and ſuch Perſons as were made Nazarites by their Parents and conſecrated to God from the Womb, were required to wear their Hair long and uncut, becauſe it was a Token not only of Beauty, but of Majeſty and Veneration.

The Angel of the Lord aſcended in a Flame of the Altar] This ſhews that Angels Bodies, which the Platoniſts called Vehicles, are not ſubject to the Laws of Gravity, as ours are. After our Saviour's Reſurrection, the Hiſtory of the Goſpel informs us how immediately, and in an Inſtant, his Body could move from Place to Place, and therefore it is no Wonder, that Manoah and his Wife ſhould diſcover the Perſon that appeared to them, to be an Angel by the Manner of his Aſcenſion.

The Camp of Dan, mentioned in the laſt Verſe, was probably that Place where the Danites pitched their Camp, in their Expedition and Enterprize againſt Laiſh, Judg. xviii. 11. for it is not at all likely, that the Philiſtines, who had the Iſraelites, at that Time, under their Subjection, ſhould ſuffer them to have any ſtanding Camp. And this, by the Bye, is a good Argument, that the Story of Micah, and of the Danites Expedition, was tranſacted before Samſon's Time, tho' the Compilers of the Bible have placed it afterwards.

Zorah and Eſhtaol were Towns in the Tribe of Dan, whereof Zorah lay on the Frontiers of Judah, and for this Reaſon Rehoboam, upon the Revolt of the Ten Tribes, ſeems to have kept this Place, tho' lying in one of theſe Tribes, and to have fortified it for a Barrier Town, on that Side of the Kingdom of Judah, as he did alſo Aijalon, another Town belonging to the ſame Tribe.

CHAP. XIV.

Samſon deſires a Wife of the Philiſtines; kills a Lion, in the Carcaſe of which he afterwards found Honey. His Marriage; his Riddle, which his Wife extorts from him and diſcovers. He kills thirty Philiſtines, and with their Raiment performs his Contract. His Wife given to another.

Ver. 1. AND Samſon went down to Timnath, and ſaw a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philiſtines. 2 And he came up and told his father, and his mother, and ſaid, I have ſeen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philiſtines, now therefore get her for me to wife. 3 Then his father and his mother ſaid unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goeſt to take a wife of the uncircumciſed Philiſtines? And Samſon ſaid unto his father, Get her for me, for ſhe pleaſeth me well. 4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the Lord that he ſought an occaſion againſt the Philiſtines: for at that time the Philiſtines had dominion over Iſrael. 5 Then went Samſon down, and his father, and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and behold, a young lion roared againſt him. 6 And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done. 7 And he went down, and talked with the woman, and ſhe pleaſed Samſon well. 8 And after a time, he returned to take her, and he turned aſide to ſee the carcaſe of the lion: and behold, there was a ſwarm of bees, and honey in the carcaſe of the lion. 9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcaſe of the lion. 10 So his father went down unto the woman, and Samſon made there a feaſt; for ſo uſed the young men to do. 11 And it came to paſs when they ſaw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him. 12 And Samſon ſaid unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if you can certainly declare it me within the ſeven days of the feaſt, and find it out, then I will give you thirty ſheets and thirty change of garments. 13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then ſhall ye give me thirty ſheets, and thirty change of garments. And they ſaid unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it. 14 And he ſaid unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the ſtrong came forth ſweetneſs. And they could not in three days expound the riddle. 15 And came to pass on the seventh day that they said nto Samsons wife, Entice thy husband, that he ay declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee nd thy fathers house with fire: have ye called s to take that we have? is it not so? 16 And amsons wife wept before him, and said, Thou ost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast ut forth a riddle unto the children of my people, nd hast not told it me. And he said unto her ehold, I have not told it my father, nor my nother, and shall I tell it thee? 17 And she ept before him the seven days, while their feast sted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, hat he told her, because she lay sore upon him: nd she told the riddle to the children of her eople. 18 And the men of the city said unto m on the seventh day before the sun went own, What is sweeter than honey? and what is tronger than a lion? And he said unto them f ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not und out my riddle. 19 And the Spirit of the ord came upon him, and he went down to Ash-lon, and slew thirty men of them, and took eir spoil, and gave change of garments unto em which expounded the riddle: and his anger as kindled, and he went up to his fathers house. 20 But Samsons wife was given to his companion hom he had used as his friend.

And Samson went down to Timnath] It is not improbly thought, that the Place which is called Timnath, sh. xv. 10. and Timnatha, Josh. xix. 43. was the ne with this. It was assigned at first to the Tribe Judah, but afterwards to the Tribe of Dan, and s, in all Likelihood, the Place whither Judah, the triarch of the Tribe, that was called after him, went to his Sheep-shearer, Gen. xxxvii. 12. See Wells's eogr.

Behold, there was a Swarm of Bees, and Honey in Carcase of the Lion] Bees are observed by Aristotle d others to abhor stinking Smells, and to abstain om Flesh; which has made some think it strange, t a Swarm of Bees should be found in the Carcase a Lion: But it is no hard Matter to suppose, that her Time had consumed, or Birds and Beasts deured all the Flesh, so that nothing was left of the on but the Skeleton, in which the Bees did not breed r the Notion of Insects breeding in that Manner is w quite exploded) but only setled themselves, when y swarmed, as they have sometimes done in dead ens Sculls, and in their Tombs. See Bochart and Clerc's Com.

When they saw him, they brought thirty Companions be with him] During the Time of the Marriage-st, which, for a Virgin, lasted seven, but for a idow, only three Days, it was customary among Jews, to have a chosen Set of young Men, whom Greeks called Paranymphs, and the Hebrews Schechim, to keep the Bridegroom Company; as also a rtain Number of young Women were about the ide all this Time. These young Men were generly of the Bridegroom's Relations and Acquaintance; t, at Samson's Marriage, they belonged to his Wife's mily, and were sent (as some of the Jews think) t so much to do him Honour at the Time of his ptials, as to be a Guard over him, lest he should ke any Disturbance, of which the Philistines were aid, when they understood that he was a Man of much Strength and Might. See Lamy's Introd. and lmet's Dissert. sur les Marriag. des Hebr.

Out of the Eater came forth Meat, and out of the rong came forth Sweetness] This Riddle, which Sam- proposed at his Nuptials, is somewhat singular. As Men and Women were not permitted to be together in these Eastern Countries, they could not amuse mselves with their Conversation, and as they could not spend their Time merely in dull eating and drinking, it is hence presumed that their Custom was, in their Compotations and Feasts, (as we find it afterwards among the Greeks) to propose Questions, and hard Problems to be resolved, in order to exercise the Wit and Sagacity of the Company. (Selden de Uxore Hebr.) But as to this Riddle of Samson's, some People are apt to find Exceptions. The Opposition, say they, is manifest in the former Part of it, but not in the latter; for Weakness is opposed to Strength, not Sweetness, whose opposite is Bitterness, or Sharpness. But Bochart has ingeniously observed, that these two Words strong and sharp, are often used promiscuously. For, in the Arabick Language, the Word Mirra, which signifies Strength, comes from Marre, which signifies to be sharp or bitter; and so it is in the Latin, where Acer, a sharp Man, is as much as a valiant Man, one who eagerly (as we speak) engages his Enemy, and (what is more) we find in some of the best Authors, this particular Epithet applied to Lions --- Genus acre Leonum Ovid Fast. And therefore the Antithesis of the Words is this --- Food came from the Devourer, and Sweetness from what is eager or sharp, i. e. violent and fierce. See Patrick's and Le Clerc's Com.

He went down to Askelon] It is a City in the Land of the Philistines, situated between Azoth and Gaza, upon the Coast of the Mediterranean Sea, about five hundred and twenty Furlongs distant from Jerusalem. It is said to have been of great Note among the Gentiles; for a Temple dedicated to Dirceto, the Mother of Semiramis, here worshipped in the Form of a Mermaid; and for another Temple of Apollo, where Herod, the Father of Antipater, and Grandfather of Herod the Great, served as Priest. The Place subsists to this Day, but is now very inconsiderable. Some Mention there is made of the Wine of Askelon, and the Cypress Tree, (a Shrub that was antiently in great Esteem, and very common in this Place) but modern Travellers say no such Thing of it now. See Calmet's Dict. and Wells's Geogr.

And slew thirty Men of them, and took their Spoil] It may well be questioned, says Patrick, upon what Occasion Samson could meet with thirty Philistines, all cloathed in their new and best Attire, even tho' we allow that he went with a Disposition to quarrel with them, and slay them; but then it is but supposing, that, at this Time, there was a Merry-making, either in the Fields, or in the City, at some publick Solemnity, when great Companies used to be gathered together, and appear in their best Apparel, and the Thing is done.

CHAP. XV.

Samson burns the Philistines Corn with Foxes and Firebrands; for which they burn his Wife and her Father; he, in Return, smites them Hip and Thigh; kills a Thousand of them with the Jaw-bone of an Ass.

Ver. 1. BUT it came to pass within a while after in the time of wheat-harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid, and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in. 2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her, therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her. 3 And Samson said concerning them, Now I shall be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure. 4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took fire-brands, and turned tail to tail, and put a fire-brand in the midst between two tails. 5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards, and olives. 6 Then the Philiſtines ſaid, Who hath done this? And they anſwered, Samſon the ſon in law of the Timnite, becauſe he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philiſtines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire. 7 And Samſon ſaid unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will ceaſe. 8 And he ſmote them hip and thigh with a great ſlaughter; and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam. 9 Then the Philiſtines went up, and pitched in Judah, and ſpread themſelves in Lehi. 10 And the men of Judah ſaid, Why are ye come up againſt us? And they anſwered, To bind Samſon are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us. 11 Then three thouſand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and ſaid to Samſon, Knoweſt thou not that the Philiſtines are rulers over us? what is this that thou haſt done unto us? And he ſaid unto them, As they did unto me, ſo have I done unto them. 12 And they ſaid unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philiſtines. And Samſon ſaid unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me your ſelves. 13 And they ſpake unto him, ſaying, No: but we will bind thee faſt, and deliver thee into their hand: but ſurely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock. 14 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philiſtines ſhouted againſt him: and the ſpirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms, became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands looſed from off his hands. 15 And he found a new jaw-bone of an aſs, and put forth his hand and took it, and ſlew a thouſand men therewith. 16 And Samſon ſaid, With the jaw-bone of an aſs, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an aſs have I ſlain a thouſand men. 17 And it came to paſs when he had made an end of ſpeaking, that he caſt away the jaw-bone out of his hand, and called that place Ramath-lehi. 18 And he was ſore athirſt, and called on the Lord, and ſaid, Thou haſt given this great deliverance into the hand of thy ſervant: and now ſhall I die for thirſt, and fall into the hand of the uncircumciſed? 19 But God clave an hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his ſpirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof, En-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day. 20 And he judged Iſrael in the days of the Philiſtines twenty years.

And Samſon went and caught three hundred Foxes, and took Fire-brands, and turned Tail to Tail, and put a Fire-brand in the Midſt between two Tails] A certain anonymous Author, in a Diſſertation upon Samſon's Foxes, has ſolved the whole Difficulty of that Piece of Hiſtory, if we will but admit of his Suppoſitions. He ſuppoſes, that the Word Schualim, which we render Foxes, ſhould, with a little Variation, be written Shoalim, which denotes Sheaves, or rather Shocks of Corn, and that the Word Zanah, which, in our Tranſlation, is a Tail, equally ſignifies the extreme or outermoſt Part of any Thing. Thus, in an Orchard planted in the Form of a Quincunx, the furthermoſt Tree is called Zanah; and, in like Manner, the extreme or outſide Shocks in a Field may be ſo called here; and then the Senſe of the Words will be, 'That Samſon, at different 'Places, ſet Fire to three hundred Shocks of Corn, 'which ſtood in the out-parts of the Fields belonging 'to the Philiſtines, and ſo by the Fire's ſpreading from 'Shock to Shock, deſtroyed, in a Manner, all their 'Corn.'

But without entertaining any novel Interpretation, and which, upon Examination, perhaps will hardly bear the Teſt, we may adventure to ſay, that theſe three hundred Foxes, which Samſon is ſaid to have caught, are not, even in a literal Senſe, ſo incredible a Thing, nor ſo liable to Ridicule, as ſome may imagine. For we are to conſider, (as the learned Bochart, from the Account of ſeveral Travellers, evinces) that the whole Country, eſpecially that Part of it which belonged to the Tribe of Gad, ſo abounded with Foxes, that from them ſeveral Places took their Names: That, under thr Name of Foxes, may not improperly be comprehended a Creature, very much like them, called Thos, which go in Herds, ſo that two hundred of them have been ſeen together at once; that the Manner of catching them was not (as we may imagine) by hunting only, but by Snares and Nets; and that Samſon did not this by himſelf alone, in a Day and Night's Time, but that, being aſſiſted by his Servants and Neighbours (as he was a Man of conſiderable Eminence in his Country) he might poſſibly be ſome Weeks in accompliſhing his Deſign. His Deſign, however, will not appear ſo romantick, if we conſider what Collections have been made of Creatures much wilder, and rarer than Foxes; that Lucius Sylla, when he was Prætor, ordered to be ſhewn on the Ampitheatre, an hundred Lions; Julius Cæſar, when he was Dictator, four hundred; and that the Emperor Probus, at one Spectacle, exhibited a thouſand Oſtriches, a thouſand Stags, an hundred Lybian, an hundred Syrian Leopards, and an infinite Number of other ſtrange Creatures: And why then ſhould it be thought a Thing ſo incredible, as to need the Intervention of a Miracle (as ſome contend) for Samſon, with the Aſſiſtance of his Friends, who might be let into his Deſign, to get together, in ſome Time, three hundred Foxes, in a Country that every where abounded with them?

Foxes (we are none of us ignorant) are very apt to do a great deal of Miſchief wherever they abound; and therefore Samſon might have this farther Aim in collecting ſo many, viz. that thereby he might clear his Country of ſuch noxious Animals, and at the ſame Time, that he very well knew, that no Creature could be more convenient for his Purpoſe of annoying and detrimenting his Enemies. For, as theſe Creatures are very ſwift of Foot, and have a natural Dread of Fire, they could not well fail (when once they were turned into it) of ſetting the ſtanding Corn in a Blaze, and then, as they were tied in Couples, Tail to Tail, this would make them draw one againſt the other, and ſo being retarded in their Flight, and ſtaying longer in a Place, they would give the Fire more Time to ſpread itſelf, and make the Conflagration univerſal.

Upon the Whole therefore we may conclude, that the muſtering up ſuch a Number of Foxes, in order to burn up the Philiſtines Corn, was neither a fooliſh nor impracticable Thing, ſuppoſing Samſon was at Liberty to proſecute his Revenge in this Manner: But for his Righteouſneſs in this, we are no ways accountable, unleſs, his being conſidered as a Chief among the Iſraelites, (whom God had raiſed up to annoy the Philiſtines, and in ſuch Methods as this, rather than open War, to weaken them by his perſonal Valour and Strength) may be admitted in Juſtification of what he did.

And Samſon ſaid, With the Jaw-bone of an Aſs Heaps upon Heaps, with the Jaw-bone of an Aſs have I ſlain a thouſand Men] We muſt here have Recourſe to the ſupernatural Aid of God. For, tho' Aſſes in Syria (as the Learned affirm) are both ſtronger and larger, than what we have with us, and their Bones, conſequently, better fitted for ſuch hard Service as this; yet it muſt be owned, that it was by the wonderful Strength that God infuſed into him, and not any Aptitude of the Inſtrument he made uſe of, that he was was enabled to do all this Execution, which is only incredible to those, who do not consider the Power of God, who can raise our natural Strength to what Degree he pleases, and, at the same Time, infeeble the Spirit of those who oppose his Designs, in such a Manner, as that they shall have no Power to help themselves.

It must be owned, however, that there are some Circumstances in this Transaction, that might possibly intimidate the Philistines, and thereby contribute to facilitate the Slaughter which Samson made among them. The People of Judah had now prevailed with him to suffer himself, to be bound and led to the Philistines Camp: The Philistines, as soon as they saw him coming, ran out with Joy to receive him, and very likely forgot to take their Arms with them, as knowing for Certainty, that he was safe enough now, and bound, as we say, to his good Behaviour. But when, contrary to their Expectation, they saw him first break the Cords so easy and suddenly, and then coming upon them with such Fury and Vengeance, 'tis not unlikely, that this Sight put them in no small Confusion, and as they straggled about in their Flight, give him the Opportunity of slaying them, one by one, as he came up with them. This, we must allow, is the highest Instance of personal Prowess, that we may any where read of; and yet profane Historians inform us of other Men, who, by their natural Courage, unassisted by any divine Power (as the Scripture informs us Samson was) have made great Havock among their Enemies: For Flavius Vopiscus reports, that, in the Sarmatick War, Aurelian slew forty-eight Men in one Day, and in several Days so, which diminishes the Wonder of this Atchievement of Samson's not a little, especially considering, that the Philistines, in their Surprize, might think that it was all a Trick and Management of his Conductors, to get so many unarmed Men into their Power, and that they too were ready to fall upon them, and assist him, in case they should make any Opposition against their Champion.

But God clave an hollow Place that was in the Jaw, and there came Water there-out] That Samson, after so long a Fatigue, should be almost ready to die with Thirst, is no strange Thing at all, but the Question is how, in a Place, where no Water was, he came to have his Thirst allayed? The Hebrew Word Machtes, as properly signify the Socket, in which the great Teeth in the Jaw are fastened; and, from hence Bochart, among many others, endeavours to maintain, by Arguments, that God made one of these Teeth drop out of the Jaw, wherewith Samson had done all this Execution, and immediately a Stream of Water gushed out from thence: But, with all due Deference to the Learning of so great a Man, 'tis somewhat strange, that he should not observe, that such a Miracle as this, would be inconsistent with the Words which follow, Wherefore he called the Name thereof, i. e. of the Fountain of Water which gushed out, Enhakkhor, or the Well of him that cried to God, which is in Lehi, even unto this Day. Lehi is here therefore the proper Name of the Place. This Place had doubtless its Appellation from the Adventure of Samson's with the Jaw-bone, and in this Place God caused a Spring to arise, that he might allay his Hero's Thirst. For, it is incongruous to think, that the Jaw of an Ass, or any other Creature, could have subsisted to the Time, when the Author of this Book of Judges lived; or, (if, all this while, none should have had the Curiosity to take away the wonderful Bone) that God should, out of the Socket of one of its Teeth, cause a Stream of Water to flow, for one continued, useless Miracle.

It must be a Mistake then in our Version, to render the Words, God clave an hollow Place, which was in the Jaw, when, (according to the Sense of the Antients and in this Place) they should be translated, which was in Lehi. For the Truth of the Matter is, that tho' the Jaw be long extinct and gone, yet those who have travelled through this Part of Palestine, do inform us, that, in the Suburbs of Eleutheropolis, where Lehi very lately stood, the Fountain which arose upon this Occasion, is still remaining, and called the Fountain of the Jaw, to this Day.

But be that as it will, whether the Water which refreshed Samson in this his Distress, came from the Jaw-bone, or (as others think) from a Clift in a Rock, or an Hollow in the Earth, the Miracle is the same, tho' it may not be improper (whenever we can, by an easier Interpretation) to take away Occasion from those, that seek Occasion to disparage the Oracles of God.

CHAP. XVI.

Samson carries away the Gates of Gaza. Delilah prevails on Samson to discover his Strength. He is taken, and his Eyes put out; which he revenges by pulling down the House on the Philistines. His Death and Burial.

Ver. 1. THEN went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her. 2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning when it is day, we shall kill him. 3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebron. 4 And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. 5 And the Lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us, eleven hundred pieces of silver. 6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee. 7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withs, that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. 8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs, which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. 9 (Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber) And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee Samson. And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire: so his strength was not known. 10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. 11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. 12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, the Philistines be upon thee, Samson. (And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber) And he brake them from off his arms like a thread. 13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web. 14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, the Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web. 15 And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? Thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth. 16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; 17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mothers womb: If I be shaven, then my strengh will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. 18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand. 19 And she made him sleep upon her knees, and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head, and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. 20 And she said, the Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake my self. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him. 21 But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass, and he did grind in the prison-house. 22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again, after he was shaven. 23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. 24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us. 25 And it came to pass when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison-house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars. 26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth that I may lean upon them. 27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there: and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport. 28 And Samson called unto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. 29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars, upon which the house stood, and on which it was born up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. 30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines: and he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death, were more than they which he slew in his life. 31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father, came down and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah, and Eshtaol, in the burying-place of Manoah his father: and he judged Israel twenty years.

Then went Samson to Gaza] This City, Calmet observes, was, by Joshua, made Part of the Tribe of Judah, but, after him, it fell into the Hands of the Philistines, and was one of their five Principalities, situated between Raphia and Askelon, towards the southern Extremity of the promised Land. The advantageous Situation of this Place was the Cause of the many Revolutions to which it became subject. At first of all it belonged to the Philistines, but, in Joshua's Time, was conquered by the Hebrews. In the Reigns of Jotham and Ahaz, it recovered its Liberty, but was conquered by Hezekiah. It was made subject to the Chaldeans, when they reduced Syria and Phœnicia; and afterwards fell into the Hands of the Persians. They were Masters of it, when Alexander besieged, took, and demolished it. It afterwards rose again (but not near the same Magnitude) under the Name of Majuma, which underwent as many Vicissitudes as the former. The Kings of Egypt had it for some Time in Possession; Antiochus the Great took and sacked it; the Asmoneans, or Maccabees, took it several Times from the Syrians; Alexander Jannæus, King of the Hebrews, destroyed it; Gabinius repaired it; Augustus gave it to Herod the Great; Constantine gave it the Name of Constantia, with many independent Privileges, in Honour of his Son; but the Emperor Julian destroyed, and deprived it of all.

And carried them up to the Top of an Hill that is before Hebron] The Word which we render before, says Patrick, does equally signify in the Sight of Hebron; and therefore, since the Distance between Gaza and Hebron is no less than twenty Miles, it is more probable that the Hill, where Samson left these Gates, lay between the two Cities, and in View of both, that the Inhabitants of one City might behold them to their Confusion, and they of the other to their Encouragement to hope for a future Deliverance.

He loved a Woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose Name was Delilah] It is certain, that Sorek was a Place in the Land of Judea, famous for choice Wines, as may be gathered from Gen. xlvi. 11. Isa. v. 12. and Jer. ii. 21. and lay not above a Mile and an half from Escol, from whence the Spies brought a Bunch of Grapes for a Sample of the Fruitfulness of the Country: but whether Delilah, who is said to live here, was a Woman of Israel, or one of the Daughters of the Philistines, (who at this Time were Rulers in the Country of Judah) or whether she was his Wife, or an Harlot only, is not expressed in her Story. St. Chrysostom and others are of Opinion, that he was married to her; but if so, some Mention, one would think, there should have been of the Marriage-ceremonies in this, as well as in his former Wife's Case: Nor can we think, that the Philistines would have been so bold, as to attempt to draw her into their Party, and to bribe her to betray him into their Hands, had she been his lawful Wife. It appears indeed, by her whole Behaviour, that she was a mercenary Woman, who would do any Thing to get Money, and accordingly Josephus calls her a common Prostitute of the Philistines. See Patrick's and Pool's Com.

We will give thee, every one of us, eleven hundred Pieces of Silver] The Princes of the Philistines, says Howell, from their five chief Cities, Accaron, Ashdod, Gaza, Azoth, and Gath, 1 Sam. vi. 17. are supposed to be five in Number, so that, if they made her a common Purse (as we say) of five Times eleven hundred Pieces, or 5500 Shekels of Silver, it would amount to about 343l. 15s.

If thou weavest the seven Locks of my Head with the Web, she fastened it with the Pin] A learned Commentator is of Opinion, that Samson's Hair, being very long, was interwoven with the Threads and Warp of a Web of Cloth. And to this Purpose he supposes, that in the Room where he sometimes slept upon a Couch, there might stand very near a Loom, wherewith Delilah (as the Custom then was) at her leisure Hours, might work nd divert herſelf, and that now by his Permiſſion and connivance, ſhe might take the Locks of his Hair, work it into the Web, and, to hinder it from being ulled out, ſecure it with an iron Pin thruſt into the eam, but that Samſon, when he awoke, took the oom along with him at his Hair. And indeed, without ſome ſuch Suppoſition as this, we cannot very ell tell what to make of his going away with the Pin f the Beam, and with the Web. See Le Clerc's Com. And he did grind in the Priſon-houſe] Before the vention of Wind and Water-mills, Men made uſe of Hand-mills, wherewith to grind their Corn; and, as is was a very laborious Work, we find Maſters (eſpecially in moſt comic Authors) threatened their Servants ith it, in Caſe of any Delinquency. It was the Work deed of Malefactors, as well as Slaves; and therefore ſeems very probable, that, in this Priſon, where amſon was put, there was a publick Mill, as Socrates lls us, there were ſeveral afterwards in Rome, in the ime of Theodoſius. So that from this, and ſome other ircumſtances, we may learn, that the Philiſtines Purpoſe was, not to put Samſon to Death, (even as they d promiſed Delilah they would not) but to puniſh m in a Manner (viz. with Blindneſs, hard Labour, d Inſults) much worſe, and more intolerable, than eath itſelf. See Le Clerc.

Dagon their God] The Word Dagon is taken from e Phœnician Root Dag, which ſignifies a Fiſh; and cordingly the Idol is uſually repreſented (as the Heens do Tritons and Syrens) in the Shape of a Woman, ith the lower Parts of a Fiſh — deſinit in Piſcem mur formoſa ſupernè. For this Reaſon learned Men ve imagined, that Dagon was the ſame as Derceto, hich the People of Aſkelon worſhipped, and near which ace was a great Pond full of Fiſh, conſecrated to this oddeſs, from which the Inhabitants ſuperſtitiouſly abained, out of a fond Belief that Venus, having hereore caſt herſelf into this Pond, was metamorphoſed into Fiſh. The learned Jurieu is of another Opinion, z. That Dagon, whoſe Termination is maſculine, th in ſacred and profane Writings, is always repreſented as a Male Deity, and may therefore very properly be thought to be the Neptune of the Antients. he Phœnicians in particular (from whom both the reeks and Romans borrowed their Gods) living upon e Sea-coaſt, and by their Navigation and Commerce, aining great Advantages from that Element, can hardly ſuppoſed to want a Deity to preſide over it. Saturn, d his three Sons, Jupiter, Neptune, and Pluto, were eir principal Idols: And, as Saturn was their Moloch, upiter their Baal, and Pluto their Baal-zebub; ſo ve we Reaſon to preſume, that Neptune was their agon. This however, will not hinder us from ſuppoſing, that there might be two Deities, a Male and a emale, worſhipped in the ſame Country, and under e ſame Figure or Form; and that as the Pagan Theogy gives Jupiter a Juno, to be his Conſort in Heaven; nd Pluto a Proſerpine to keep him Company in Hell; Neptune had his Amphitrite to be the Partner of his quid Empire in the Sea. According to this Suppoſiion, the Dagon of Gaza or Aſhdod muſt be Neptune, nd the Derceto of Aſkelon a few Leagues diſtant, Amphitrite, the Daughter of Doris and Oceanus. Nor an it be thought incongruous to ſuppoſe farther, that e univerſal God of the Sea might, in one Place, be preſented as a Male (as at Aſhdod), and, in another as at Aſkelon) as a Female, to ſignify the Fecundity of hat Element, which produces and nouriſhes ſo many reatures. See Le Clerc, Calmet, and Jurieu.

And Samſon took hold of the two Pillars upon which e Houſe ſtood] The moſt general Opinion is, that his was a Structure which the Philiſtines made uſe of, pon ſuch Occaſions as this, built all of Wood, and ſupported by wooden Pillars, in the Form of the Theatres, hich, in after Times, were in great Requeſt among e Romans. Towards the Middle of this Building, e may ſuppoſe, that there were two large Beams, pon which the Weight of the whole Structure lay; nd that theſe Beams were ſupported by two Pillars, hich ſtood in a Manner contiguous to each other. So that as ſoon as Samſon had moved and unſetled theſe, down muſt the Principals, and, with them, the whole Building comes. The only remaining Difficulty is, how a Building, made of Wood, and ſupported by two Pillars only, ſhould be able to contain ſuch a Multitude of Men and Women. But whoever reads Pliny's Natural Hiſtory, will therein find a Deſcription of a Theatre built by Curio, capable of containing a much greater Number of People, than the Philiſtines are here ſaid to be, and yet, what was a Wonder much greater than the two Pillars here, they each of them depended upon, and were turned round, by one Hinge only, which had it happened to ſlip, muſt have occaſioned, as our Author tells us, a much greater Slaughter than what was at the Battle of Cannæ; as, by the actual Fall of an Amphitheatre, built by Atilius, no fewer than 50,000 Perſons, as Tacitus relates the Story, were killed, wounded, and maimed: Which is enough, one would to think, to ſilence the Cavils of thoſe who are apt to fancy, that a Building of ſuch a Capacity could not be ſo contrived, as to rely only on two Supporters.

And Samſon ſaid, Let me die with the Philiſtines] It is made a Queſtion among Caſuiſts and Divines, whether Samſon ought to have died in this Manner, with a Spirit of Revenge, and Self-murther? St. Auſtin excuſes him indeed, but it is upon the Suppoſition that he was urg'd thereunto by the inward Motions of him who is the great Arbiter of our Life and Death; and St. Bernard affirms, that, if he had not a peculiar Inſpiration of the Holy Ghoſt to move him to this, he could not, without Sin, have been the Author of his own Death; but others maintain, that, without having Recourſe to this ſupernatural Motive, this Action of his might be vindicated from his Office, as being the Judge and Defender of Iſrael, and that he might therefore devote his Life to the publick Good (as ſome Heathens have merited the Commendations of Poſterity by ſo doing) without having any Thing in View, but the Death of his Enemies, and the Deliverance of his own People. See Calmet's Dict.

Then his Brethren, and all the Houſe of his Father, came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him] How the People of Gaza came to permit Samſon's Relations to come and take away his Body, is not ſo obvious to conceive. In all Nations there was formerly ſo much Humanity, as not to prohibit Enemies from interring their Dead, nor did any of the Iſraelites join with Samſon in his Enterprizes; he ſtood alone in what he did: But this laſt Slaughter which he had made among them, might have provok'd them, one would think, to ſome Acts of Outrage even to his dead Body. It is to be obſerv'd however, that inſtead of any Acts of Violence; they might perhaps be much humbled and mollified by the late Diſaſter; and might fear, that if they deny'd him Burial, the God of Iſrael, who had given him ſuch extraordinary Strength in his Life-time, would not fail to take Vengeance of them. And therefore dreading his very Corps, they were deſirous to be quit of it (even as they were of the Ark afterwards) and glad that any came to take ſuch a formidable Object out of their Sight. See Patrick's and Le Clerc's Com.

CHAP. XVII.

The Hiſtory of Micah and his Teraphim.

Ver. 1. AND there was a man of mount Ephraim, whoſe name was Micah. 2 And he ſaid unto his mother, The eleven hundred ſhekels of ſilver, that were taken from thee, about which thou curſedſt, and ſpakedſt alſo in mine ears; behold, the ſilver is with me, I took it. And his mother ſaid, Bleſſed be thou of the Lord my ſon. 3 And when he had reſtored the eleven hundred ſhekels of ſilver to his mother, his mother ſaid, I had wholly dedicated the ſilver unto unto the Lord, from my hand, for my ſon, to make a graven image, and a molten image: now therefore I will reſtore it unto thee. 4 Yet he reſtored the money unto his mother, and his mother took two hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image: and they were in the houſe of Micah. 5 And the man Micah had an houſe of gods, and made an ephod, and teraphim, and conſecrated one of his ſons, who became his prieſt. 6 In thoſe days there was no king in Iſrael, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes. 7 And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he ſojourned there. 8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah, to ſojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim to the houſe of Micah, as he journeyed. 9 And Micah ſaid unto him, Whence comeſt thou? And he ſaid unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem judah, and I go to ſojourn where I may find a place. 10 And Micah ſaid unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a prieſt, and I will give thee ten ſhekels of ſilver by the year, and a ſuit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in. 11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man, and the young man was unto him as one of his ſons. 12 And Micah conſecrated the Levite, and the young man became his prieſt, and was in the houſe of Micah. 13 Then ſaid Micah, Now know I that the Lord will do me good, ſeeing I have a Levite to my prieſt.

And the Man Micah had an Houſe of Gods, and made an Ephod, and Teraphim, and conſecrated one of his Sons, which became his Prieſt] That the Divine Service might be perform'd with a greater Reſemblance of what was done at the Tabernacle in Shiloh, he made prieſtly Ornaments; for ſo ſome learned Men take the Ephod to comprehend, not only the Breaſt-plate adjoining to it, but all the reſt of the Veſtments uſed by the High-prieſt. His Intention was to ſet up an Oracle in his own Houſe, in Imitation of the Sanctuary of Moſes; and therefore, to make the Conformity the greater, 'tis ſuppos'd that he erected a kind of Ark, whereon he plac'd his two Teraphims, to anſwer to the two Cherubims in the Tabernacle, as he caus'd the Prieſt, who officiated for him to wear an Ephod, in the Manner that the High-prieſt did, when he conſulted God. Mr. Selden well obſerves, that the Worſhip of the true God, and of Idols, was here blended together. The Ephod and the Levite, which Micah afterwards provided, were intended, no doubt, for the Service of the true God, but the graven Image and Teraphim, by which the Children of Dan deſired the Levite to enquire of God, belong'd unto Demons. They neither truſted to the Ephod alone, which related to God, nor to their Teraphim alone, which was their own Invention, but thought it neceſſary, to join both together in divine Worſhip: And thus began Idolatry in Iſrael by the Superſtition of an old Woman, who put this in her Son's Head. This Woman many of the Jews ſuppoſe to be the ſame with Delilah, who, having got ſo much Money of every one of the Lords of the Philiſtines, thought it expedient to employ ſome of it in expreſſing her Devotion. But this is an idle Conceit, that has no other Foundation than Delilah's being mention'd in the foregoing Chapter; whereas Micah was ſome hundred Years prior, and lived, as the Learned ſuppoſe, during the forty Years Peace which Othniel, Caleb's Son-in-law, had procured for Iſrael. And the Reaſon why Samuel, or whoever was the Author of this Book, places them here, is, becauſe he was not willing to break the Thread of his Hiſtory by intermixing theſe Matters with it, but reſerv'd them to be related apart by themſelves. See Patrick's Com. and Jurieu's Hiſt.

What Micah's Intention might be in ſetting up a Teraphim, and other Kind of Images in his Houſe, Commentators are not ſo well agreed. Thoſe that are willing to apologize for the Thing, are ready to ſay, that, as he lived in a Time of great Trouble and Confuſion, wherein the publick Worſhip of God was much neglected, if not totally diſuſed, his Deſign was, to erect a Kind of domeſtick Tabernacle, wherein he might ſerve God in private, ſince he could not, without much Difficulty, do it in publick; and that the ſacred Habiliments he made, his Ephod, his Teraphim, &c. were no more than what he had ſeen at Shiloh: But ſince the Laws of God condemn the making Images of any Kind, as Objects of Adoration; the ſetting up any religious Worſhip, different from what he had eſtabliſhed; the offering Sacrifices, or performing any publick Service, any where, but in the Tabernacle; and the employing any Prieſts in his Worſhip, but ſuch as were of the Race of Aaron; 'tis certain that Micah was guilty of a Violation of all theſe Prohibitions, and, in the Matter of theſe graven and molten Images, cannot be excuſed from the Crime of Idolatry. And indeed, unleſs he intended to patronize that, what Reaſon could he have to make any Innovations in Religion, ſince (according as we date this Action) either Phineas, or Eli, were then in the High-prieſt's Office at Shiloh, where the publick Service was preſerved in all its Formality, and from whence Micah, who lived in the Mountains of Ephraim, was not ſo very diſtant, but that he might have gone thither upon ſolemn Occaſions?

CHAP. XVIII.

The Expedition of the Danites, and their Dealings with Micah.

Ver. 1. IN thoſe days there was no king in Iſrael: and in thoſe days the tribe of the Danites ſought them an inheritance to dwell in: for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Iſrael. 2 And the children of Dan ſent of their family five men from their coaſts, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eſhtaol, to ſpie out the land, and to ſearch it; and they ſaid unto them, Go ſearch the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the houſe of Micah, they lodged there. 3 When they were by the houſe of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and ſaid unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makeſt thou in this place? and what haſt thou here? 4 And he ſaid unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his prieſt. 5 And they ſaid unto him, Aſk counſel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go ſhall be proſperous. 6 And the prieſt ſaid unto them, Go in peace: before the Lord is your way wherein ye go. 7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laiſh, and ſaw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careleſs, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and ſecure, and there was no magiſtrate in the land that might put them to ſhame in any thing: and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no buſineſs with any man. 8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eſhtaol: and their brethren ſaid unto them, What ſay ye? 9 And they ſaid, Ariſe, that we may go up againſt them: for we have ſeen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are ye ſtill? be not ſlothful

lothful to go, and to enter to poſſeſs the land. 10 When ye go, ye ſhall come unto a people ecure, and to a large land: for God hath given into your hands: a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth. 11 And there went from thence of the family of the Danites out of Zorah and out of Eſhtaol, ſix hundred men, appointed with weapons of war. 12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath jearim. 13 And they paſſed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the houſe of Micah. 14 Then anſwered the five men that went to ſpie out the country of Laiſh, and ſaid unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in theſe houſes an ephod and teraphim? and a graven image, and a molten image? Now therefore conſider what ye have to do, 15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the houſe of the young man the Levite, even unto the houſe of Micah, and ſaluted him. 16 And the ſix hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, ſtood by the entring of the gate. 17 And the five men that went to ſpie out the land, went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the prieſt ſtood in the entring of the gate, with the ſix hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war. 18 And theſe went into Micahs houſe, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: then ſaid the prieſt unto them, What do ye? 19 And they ſaid unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be unto us a father, and a prieſt: is it better for thee to be a prieſt unto the houſe of one man, or that thou be a prieſt unto a tribe and a family in Iſrael? 20 And the prieſts heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midſt of the people. 21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the cattel, and the carriage before them. 22 And when they were a good way from the houſe of Micah, the men that were in the houſes near to Micahs houſe, were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan. 23 And they cried unto the children of Dan: and they turned their faces, and ſaid unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comeſt with ſuch a company? 24 And he ſaid, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the prieſt, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that that ye ſay unto me, What aileth thee? 25 And the children of Dan ſaid unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, leſt angry fellows run upon thee, and thou loſe thy life, with the lives of thy houſhold. 26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah ſaw that they were too ſtrong for him, he turned and went back unto his houſe. 27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the prieſt which he had, and came unto Laiſh, unto a people that were at quiet and ſecure: and they ſmote them with the edge of the ſword, and burnt the city with fire. 28 And there was no deliverer, becauſe it was far from Zidon, and they had no buſineſs with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob: and they built a city, and dwelt therein. 29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Iſrael: howbeit, the name of the city was Laiſh at the firſt. 30 And the children of Dan ſet up the graven image: and Jonathan the ſon of Gerſhom, the ſon of Manaſſeh, he and his ſons, were prieſts to the tribe of Dan, until the day of the captivity of the land. 31 And they ſet them up Micahs graven image, which he made, all the time that the houſe of God was in Shiloh.

And the Children of Dan ſet up the graven Image; and Jonathan — and his Sons, were Prieſts to the Tribe of Dan, until the Day of the Captivity of the Land] The Queſtion is, what we are to underſtand by the Captivity of the Land? Now there are two Times mention'd in Scripture, when the Children of Iſrael were carried away captive; 1ſt. By Tiglath-Pileſer, when he took Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the Land of Naphtali, and carried them into Aſſyria, 2 Kings xv. 29. and, 2dly. By Salmanaſſar, who carried Iſrael away and placed them in Halah, and in Habor, by the River Gozan, and in the Cities of the Medes, 2 Kings xviii. 11. And to one of theſe, the Words of the Text are ſuppos'd by ſome learned Men to refer; but then it muſt neceſſarily follow, that this Book was written in later Times, even after the former of theſe Captivities at leaſt. It can hardly be ſuppos'd however, that theſe Images ſhould be ſuffer'd to continue in the Days of David, who was a Man after God's own Heart, and ſtudied to advance true Religion to the utmoſt of his Power all the Country over, from Dan to Beerſheba; and therefore others, with good Reaſon conclude, that by the Captivity of the Land is meant the taking of the Ark by the Philiſtines, and carrying it captive into the Temple of Dagon; for ſo the Pſalmiſt expreſly calls that unlucky Event. Pſ. lxxviii. 60, 61.

CHAP. XIX.

The tragical Story of the Levite and his Concubine.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs in thoſe days, when there was no king in Iſrael, that there was a certain Levite ſojourning on the ſide of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah. 2 And his concubine played the whore againſt him, and went away from him unto her fathers houſe to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months. 3 And her huſband aroſe, and went after her to ſpeak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his ſervant with him, and a couple of aſſes: and ſhe brought him into her fathers houſe, and when the father of the damſel ſaw him, he rejoiced to meet him. 4 And his father-in-law the damſels father retained him, and he abode with him three days: ſo they did eat and drink, and lodged there. 5 And it came to paſs on the fourth day, when they aroſe early in the morning that he aroſe up to depart: and the damſels father ſaid unto his ſon-in-law, Comfort thine heart with a morſel of bread, and afterward go your way. 6 And they ſat down and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damſels father had ſaid unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry. 7 And when the man roſe up to depart, his father-in-law urged him: therefore he lodged there again. 8 And he roſe early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damſels father ſaid, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they

they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them. 9 And when the man roſe up to depart, he and his concubine, and his ſervants; his father-in-law, the damſels father ſaid unto him, Behold, now the day draweth towards evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayeſt go home. 10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he roſe up and departed, and came over againſt Jebus, (which is Jeruſalem) and there were with him two aſſes ſaddled, his concubine alſo was with him. 11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far ſpent, and the ſervant ſaid unto his maſter, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in unto this city of the Jebuſites, and lodge in it. 12 And his maſter ſaid unto him, We will not turn aſide hither into the city of a ſtranger, that is not of the children of Iſrael; we will paſs over to Gibeah. 13 And he ſaid unto his ſervant, Come, and let us draw near to one of theſe places to lodge all night, in Gibeah or in Ramah. 14 and they paſſed on and went their way, and the ſun went down upon them, when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin. 15 And they turned aſide thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he ſet him down in a ſtreet of the city: for there was no man that took them into his houſe to lodging. 16 And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was alſo of mount Ephraim; and he ſojourned in Gibeah, but the men of the place were Benjamites. 17 And when he had lift up his eyes, he ſaw a wayfaring man in the ſtreet of the city: and the old man ſaid, Whither goeſt thou? and whence comeſt thou? 18 And he ſaid unto him, We are paſſing from Beth-lehem-judah, toward the ſide of mount Ephraim, from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem judah, but I am now going to the houſe of the Lord, and there is no man that receiveth me to houſe. 19 Yet there is both ſtraw and provender for our aſſes; and there is bread and wine alſo for me and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy ſervants: there is no want of any thing. 20 And the old man ſaid, Peace be with thee; howſoever, let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the ſtreet. 21 So he brought him into his houſe, and gave provender unto his aſſes: and they waſhed their feet, and did eat and drink. 22 Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain ſons of Belial, beſet the houſe round about, and beat at the door, and ſpake to the maſter of the houſe, the old man, ſaying, Bring forth the man that came into thine houſe, that we may know him. 23 And the man, the maſter of the houſe, went out unto them, and ſaid unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not ſo wickedly; ſeeing that this man is come into mine houſe, do not this folly. 24 Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine, them will I bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what ſeemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not ſo vile a thing. 25 But the men would not hearken to him: ſo the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abuſed her all the night, until the morning: and when the day began to ſpring, they let her go. 26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the mans houſe, where her lord was, till it was light. 27 And her lord roſe up in the morning, and opened the doors of the houſe, and went out to go his way: and behold the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the houſe, and her hands were upon the threſhold. 28 And he ſaid unto her, Up, and let us be going: but none anſwered. Then the man took her up upon an aſs, and the man roſe up, and gat him unto his place. 29 And when he was come into his houſe, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and ſent her into all the coaſts of Iſrael. 30 And it was ſo, that all that ſaw it, ſaid, There was no ſuch deed done nor ſeen, from the day that the children of Iſrael came up out of the land of Egypt, unto this day: conſider of it, take advice, and ſpeak your minds.

And he ſojourned in Gibeah] Gibeah lay North of Jeruſalem, about twenty or thirty Furlongs from it, and was built upon an Hill, as its Name imports. See Wells's Geogr. of the O. T.

CHAP. XX.

The other Tribes make War upon the Benjamites, and, having loſt two Battles, in the third deſtroy almoſt the whole Tribe.

Ver. 1. THEN all the children of Iſrael went out, and the congregation was gathered together, as one man, from Dan even to Beer-ſheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the Lord in Mizpeh. 2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Iſrael preſented themſelves in the aſſembly of the people of God, four hundred thouſand footmen that drew ſword. 3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Iſrael were gone up to Mizpeh) Then ſaid the children of Iſrael, Tell us, how was this wickedneſs? 4 And the Levite, the huſband of the woman that was ſlain, anſwered and ſaid, I came into Gibeah, that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine to lodge. 5 And the men of Gibeah roſe up againſt me, and beſet the houſe round about upon me by night, and thought to have ſlain me: and my concubine have they forced, that ſhe is dead. 6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and ſent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Iſrael: for they have commited lewdneſs and folly in Iſrael. 7 Behold, ye are all children of Iſrael, give here your advice and counſel. 8 And all the people aroſe as one man, ſaying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his houſe. 9 But now this ſhall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah, we will go up by lot againſt it: 10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, and an hundred of a thouſand, and a thouſand out of ten thouſand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Iſrael. 11 So all the men of Iſrael were gathered againſt the city, knit together, as one man. 12 And the tribes of Iſrael ſent men through all the tribes of Benjamin, njamin, saying, What wickedness is this that done among you? 13 Now therefore deliver the men, the children of Belial, which are in ibeah, that we may put them to death, and put ay evil from Israel. But the children of Benja- in would not hearken to the voice of their ethren the children of Israel: 14 But the chil- en of Benjamin gathered themselves together t of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle ainst the children of Israel. 15 And the chil- en of Benjamin were numbered at that time t of the cities twenty and six thousand men that ew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, hich were numbered seven hundred chosen men. 6 Among all this people there were seven hundred osen men left-handed, every one could sling ones at an hair-breadth, and not miss. 17 And e men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbred ur hundred thousand men that drew sword; these were men of war. 18 And the children Israel arose, and went up to the house of God d asked counsel of God, and said, Which of shall go up first to the battle against the chil- en of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Judah all go up first. 19 And the children of Israel se up in the morning, and encamped against beah. 20 And the men of Israel went out to ttle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel t themselves in aray to fight against them at beah. 21 And the children of Benjamin came rth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ound of the Israelites that day, twenty and two ousand men. 22 And the people the men of ael encouraged themselves, and set their battle ain in aray in the place where they put them- ves in aray the first day. 23 (And the chil- en of Israel went up and wept before the Lord til even, and asked counsel of the Lord, saying, all I go up again to battle against the children Benjamin my brother? And the Lord said, o up against him.) 24 And the children of ael came near against the children of Benjamin e second day. 25 And Benjamin went forth ainst them out of Gibeah the second day, and stroyed down to the ground of the children of ael again, eighteen thousand men; all these ew the sword. 26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people went up, and came to the house of God, and wept, and sat there fore the Lord, and fasted that day until even, d offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings fore the Lord. 27 And the children of Israel quired of the Lord, (for the ark of the covenant God, was there in those days, 28 And Phi- has the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood fore it in those days) saying, Shall I yet again o out to battle against the children of Benjamin y brother, or shall I cease? And the Lord said, o up; for to morrow I will deliver them into ... hand. 29 And Israel set liers in wait round out Gibeah. 30 And the children of Israel nt up against the children of Benjamin on the rd day, and put themselves in aray against beah, as at other times. 31 And the children Benjamin went out against the people, and re drawn away from the city, and they began smite of the people, and kill as at other times, the high-ways, of which one goeth up to the use of God, and the other to Gibeah in the ld, about thirty men of Israel. 32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city, unto the high-ways. 33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in aray at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah. 34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them. 35 And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day, twenty and five thousand and an hundred men; all these drew the sword. 36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah. 37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah, and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. 38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke to rise up out of the city. 39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle. 40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold the flame of the city ascended up to heaven. 41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them. 42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel, unto the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them: and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. 43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sun-rising. 44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour. 45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the high ways, five thousand men, and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them. 46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin, were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour. 47 But six huudred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months. 48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

As this Chapter contains a plain Narrative of Matters of Fact, and nothing of Difficulty occurs in it, we shall proceed to the next.

CHAP. XXI.

The People bewail the Desolation of the Tribe of Benjamin, and advise the Remnant of it in what Manner they should recruit it.

Ver. 1. NOW the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, There shall not not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife. 2 And the people came to the houſe of God, and abode there till even before God, and lift up their voices, and wept ſore: 3 And ſaid, O Lord God of Iſrael, why is this come to paſs in Iſrael, that there ſhould be to day one tribe lacking in Iſrael? 4 And it came to paſs on the morrow, that the people roſe early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings. 5 And the children of Iſrael ſaid, Who is there among all the tribes of Iſrael, that came not up with the congregation unto the Lord? for they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the Lord to Mizpeh; ſaying, He ſhall ſurely be put to death. 6 And the children of Iſrael repented them for Benjamin their brother, and ſaid, There is one tribe cut off from Iſrael this day: 7 How ſhall we do for wives for them that remain, ſeeing we have ſworn by the Lord, that we will not give them of our daughters to wives? 8 And they ſaid, What one is there of the tribes of Iſrael, that came not up to Mizpeh to the Lord; and behold, there came none to the camp from Jabeſh-gilead, to the aſſembly. 9 For the people were numbered, and behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabeſh-gilead there. 10 And the congregation ſent thither twelve thouſand men of the valianteſt, and commanded them, ſaying, Go and ſmite the inhabitants of Jabeſh-gilead with the edge of the ſword, with the women and the children. 11 And this is the thing that ye ſhall do, Ye ſhall utterly deſtroy every male, and every woman that hath lien by man. 12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabeſh-gilead, four hundred young virgins that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. 13 And the whole congregation ſent ſome to ſpeak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably unto them. 14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had ſaved alive of the women of Jabeſh-gilead: yet ſo they ſufficed them not. 15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, becauſe that the Lord had made a breach in the tribes of Iſrael. 16 Then the elders of the congregation ſaid, How ſhall we do for wives for them that remain, ſeeing the women are deſtroyed out of Benjamin? 17 And they ſaid, There muſt be an inheritance for them that be eſcaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not deſtroyed out of Iſrael. 18 Howbeit, we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Iſrael have ſworn, ſaying, Curſed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin. 19 Then they ſaid, Behold, there is a feaſt of the Lord in Shiloh yearly in a place which is on the north-ſide of Beth-el, on the eaſt-ſide of the high way that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the ſouth of Lebonah. 20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, ſaying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards: 21 And ſee, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. 22 And it ſhall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will ſay unto them, Be favourable unto them for our ſakes: becauſe we reſerved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that you ſhould be guilty. 23 And the children of Benjamin did ſo, and took them wives according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them. 24 And the children of Iſrael departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe, and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance. 25 In thoſe days there was no king in Iſrael: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Behold, there is a Feaſt of the Lord in Shiloh yearly.] All the three great Feſtivals were to be obſerved in the Place where God ſetled his Habitation, which was now at Shiloh; and therefore, ſome are of Opinion, that the Feaſt, here mentioned, was one of theſe; particularly, they think it was the Feaſt of Tabernacles, becauſe that was a Seaſon of great Joy, for having newly gathered their Vintage, and the only Seaſon wherein the Jewiſh Virgins were allowed to dance. At this Time they dwelt in Booths too, behind which the Benjamites (as they fancy) might very conveniently conceal themſelves, and ſo watch an Opportunity of carrying away the Virgins. But what ſeems to make againſt this Opinion is, that at any of theſe publick Feſtivals, the Concourſe of People would have been too great for a Deſign of this Nature to be put in Execution, ſince the Violence, which of Courſe muſt have been offered to the young Women, would hardly have met with a general Connivance. 'Tis much more probable therefore, that this was ſome Feſtival peculiar to the People of Shiloh, which the Benjamites perhaps might know nothing of, and were therefore put in Mind of it by the Elders of the Congregation. Joſephus tells us, that it was celebrated thrice every Year: And on this Feſtival it might be a Cuſtom for the young Women to go out into the Fields, and there dance by themſelves, which might give their Raviſhers the very Opportunity they wanted. AN EXPOSITION OF The Book of RUTH.

The ARGUMENT.

The Book of Ruth, which takes its Title from the Perſon, whoſe Story is there principally recorded, is properly an Appendix to the Book of Judges, and an Introduction to that of Samuel, and is therefore not only placed between them, but ſuppoſed to be wrote by one and the ſame Hand. Its Subject is very different from the reſt, and is therefore made a diſtinct Treatiſe. It is indeed of ſo private a Nature, that, at the Time of its being wrote, the Generality of the People might have thought it not worth recording; but we Chriſtians may plainly ſee the Wiſdom of God in having it done. It had been foretold to the Jews, that the MESSIAH ſhould be of the Tribe of Judah, and it was afterwards revealed farther, that he ſhould be of the Family of David: And therefore it was neceſſary, for the full underſtanding theſe Prophecies, that the Hiſtory of the Family of David, in that Tribe, ſhould be written before theſe Prophecies were revealed, that ſo there might not be the leaſt Suſpicion of any Fraud or Deſign. And thus this Book, theſe Prophecies, and the Accompliſhment of them, ſerve to illuſtrate, and explain each other.

CHAP. I.

Elimelech and his Family, being forc'd by Famine, go into the Land of Moab, where he and his two Sons die. Naomi returns, and Ruth with her.

1 NOW it came to paſs in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land: and a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah went to ſojourn in the country of Moab, he and his wife, and his two ſons. 2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two ſons Mahlon, and Chilioh, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem-judah: and they came into the country of Moab, and continued there. 3 And Elimelech, Naomis huſband died, and ſhe was left, and her two ſons. 4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years. 5 And Mahlon and Chilion died alſo both of them; and the woman was left of her two ſons, and her huſband. 6 Then ſhe aroſe with her daughters-in-law, that ſhe might return from the country of Moab: for ſhe had heard in the country of Moab, how that the Lord had viſited his people, in giving them bread. 7 Wherefore ſhe went forth out of the place where ſhe was, and her two daughters in-law with her: and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah. 8 And Naomi ſaid unto her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each to her mothers houſe: the Lord deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me. 9 The Lord grant you that you may find reſt, each of you in the houſe of her huſband. Then ſhe kiſſed them: and they lift up their voice and wept. 10 And they ſaid unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people. 11 And Naomi ſaid, Turn again my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more ſons in my womb, that they may be your huſbands? 12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have an huſband: if I ſhould ſay, I have hope, if I ſhould have a huſband alſo to night, and ſhould alſo bear ſons: 13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye ſtay for them from having huſbands? nay my daughters: for it grieveth me much for your ſakes, that the hand of the Lord is gone out againſt me. 14 And they lift up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kiſſed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clave unto her. 15 And ſhe ſaid, Behold, thy ſiſter in-law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy ſiſter-in-law. 16 And Ruth ſaid, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goeſt, I will go; and where thou lodgeſt, I will lodge: thy people ſhall be my people, and thy God my God: 17 Where thou dieſt, will I die, and there will I be buried: the Lord do ſo to me, and more alſo, if ought but death part thee and me. 18 When ſhe ſaw that ſhe was ſtedfaſtly minded to go with her, then ſhe left ſpeaking unto her. 19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to paſs when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they ſaid, Is this Naomi? 20 And ſhe ſaid unto them, Call me not Naomi, Call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. 21 I went out full, and the

Lord

Lord hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me? 22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess her daughter-in-law with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley-harvest.

And the Name of the Man was Elimelech] Solomon Jarchi, in his Commentary upon Ruth, tells us, That Elimelech was a Man of Quality, and one who had a great Estate; that in a Time of Dearth he was very hard-hearted to the Poor, which drew down upon him the Vengeance of God, whereby he was reduced to Poverty himself. Thus far there is nothing improbable in the Story; but the remaining Part of it has the true Stamp of a Jewish Fiction. His high Birth and great Abilities (continues that Author) recommended him, in spite of his Distress, to Eglon, King of Moab, with whom, in Time, he became so great a Favourite, that he bestowed upon his Son Mahlon, his own Daughter Ruth. In the Talmud we have the Family of Naomi set out, wherein she is said to be the Daughter of Salmon, one of the Princes of the House of Judah. As to Orpah, the Wife of Chilion, I am able to say nothing of her Parentage; but after the Demise of her first Husband, the Rabbins will needs have that she married a second Husband, and had by him the famous Giant Goliah. Among the antient Christians, this Story was so well received, that Prudentius mentions it without Scruple, and as if it were an undoubted Matter of Fact. For my Part, I make no Question that Elimelech was well descended, but I think, with Mr. Le Clerc, that his being a rich Man is not a necessary Consequence of that Opinion.

And Orpah kissed her Mother-in-law] The Jews reckon three Sorts of Kisses, which are lawful and commendable, all others being esteemed wanton. Of these the first is in Token of Reverence or Respect to a Person's Dignity, as Samuel kissed Saul after he had anointed him King. The second is the Kiss of Meeting, when Friends after a long Absence come together; thus Moses and Aaron kissed each other when they met in the Wilderness, after the former had remained so long an Exile in the Land of Midian. To these Drusius would add the Kiss of Prayer; but it is doubtful whether that was in use among the antient Jews or no, Buxtorf, who was very well acquainted with their Customs, being of a contrary Opinion.

Thy People shall be my People, and thy God my God] It is much disputed whether the Sons of Elimelech offended against the Law in marrying these Daughters of Moab or no. In the first Place it is certain, that, simply, to marry a Moabitess was against the Mosaic Institution: But then it is to be questioned, first, Whether these Women were not Proselites to the Jewish Faith? Secondly, Whether the Mosaic Law did, in this Respect, bind the Hebrews when out of their own Land? Neither of these I shall trouble the Reader about at present, but only observe, That if both of these young Women were Converts, yet Orpah plainly returned to the Religion of her Country, otherwise she would not have been spoken of by Naomi as going back, not only to her People, but to her Gods; but Ruth either expressed a hearty Desire to become a true Worshipper of God, or else she declared her fixed Intention to continue in the true Faith, that is, in the Faith taught her by Naomi. The Chaldee Paraphrast will needs have it, that Naomi took this Opportunity to inform Ruth of the Difficulty there was in adhering to the Jewish Law, and in obeying exactly all the Precepts delivered by Moses, which, according to the Jewish Account, are no less than six hundred and thirteen. But Ruth was not to be affrighted; on the contrary, she answered, Whatsoever thy People observe, I will do the same, as if I had been one of them from the Beginning:

Call me not Naomi, call me Mara] Naomi signifies pleasant, and Mara bitter.

CHAP. II.

Ruth gleans in the Field of Boaz, who takes Knowledge of her, and shews her Favour.

Ver. 1. AND Naomi had a kinsman of her husbands, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz. 2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him, in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter. 3 And she went and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech. 4 And behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The Lord be with you: and they answered him, The Lord bless thee. 5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this? 6 And the servant that was set over the reapers, answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab: 7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean, and gather after the reapers amongst the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house. 8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens. 9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men, that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels and drink of that which the young men have drawn. 10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? 11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother-in-law, since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore. 12 The Lord recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust. 13 Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my Lord, for thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thy handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens. 14 And Boaz said unto her, At meal-time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left. 15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not. 16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. 17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley. 18 And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved, after she was sufficed. 19 And her mother-in-law ſaid unto her, Where haſt thou aned to day? and where wroughteſt thou? ſed be he that did take knowledge of thee. d ſhe ſhewed her mother-in-law with whom had wrought, and ſaid, The mans name whom I wrought to day, is Boaz. 20 And omi ſaid unto her daughter-in-law, Bleſſed be of the Lord, who hath not left off his kindneſs the living and to the dead. And Naomi ſaid nto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one our next kinſmen. 21 And Ruth the Moiteſs ſaid, He ſaid unto me alſo, Thou ſhalt ep faſt by my young men, until they have ded all my harveſt. 22 And Naomi ſaid unto ch her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughthat thou go out with his maidens, that they et thee not in any other field. 23 So ſhe kept by the maidens of Boaz to glean, unto the of barley-harveſt, and of wheat-harveſt; and welt with her mother-in-law.

His Name was Boaz] Who this Boaz was, appears arly from the Genealogy at the End of the Book: ob begat Judah, Judah begat Pharez, and Pharez gat Hezron, before the Deſcendants of Jacob went wn into Egypt, and Hezron begat Ram or Aram, and am begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Nahſhon: ll theſe, from Hezron, were born in Egypt; for we d by the Books of Moſes that he was the principal ſon in his Tribe, in the ſecond Year after the Chilen of Iſrael came out of that Country, and Nahſhon gat Salmon, who was born, probably, in the Wilderſs, and this Salmon married Rahab, who put Jericho to the Hands of the Iſraelites; by her he had Boaz, whom we are ſpeaking, who appears not only to ve been a Man of conſiderable Eſtate, but alſo a erſon of great Worth and eminent Piety; but it is no means probable, that he was the ſame with Ibn, a Judge in Iſrael, as the Targum will have it: For, he had ſuch Authority, he would not in all Probabiy, have ſat down in the Gate, and have ſummoned e Kinſman of Ruth before the Elders; for the ſupreme agiſtrate in Iſrael had a Kind of dictatorial Power, decided all Cauſes not only by his Will, indeed, t according to the Law, and without any of the dinary Forms of Juſtice. How nearly he was allied Ruth, as the Widow of Elimelech's Son, is not clear m the ſacred Text; and therefore it would be a aſte of Time to enquire about it.

At Meal-time, come thou hither, and eat of the Bread, d dip thy Morſel in the Vinegar] It has been queſtioned at we are to underſtand by the ſhort Bill of Fare he ve her, when he told her ſhe might do as his People , the only two Articles mentioned therein being ead and Vinegar? Under Bread we know well enough, t all Sort of Victuals was antiently contained; and der Vinegar, it ſeems reaſonable to think the ſeveral rts of Sauce then in Uſe might be ranked; and that negar itſelf was much in Uſe among the Antients, and kkoned among the Neceſſaries of Life, might be prov'd m profane Authors. The Phraſe, as ſet down in the xt, is ſtrong and expreſſive, as the Eaſtern Phraſes nerally were, and ſtill are; for, among the Perſians, o, to this Day, continue to live after the Manner of antient Patriarchs, the uſual Complement to angers is, Wilt thou not eat Bread and Salt with me? der which they comprehend boiled, roaſted, and iled Fleſh, with Milk, Butter, and Whey. One ing is very remarkable as to this Part of the Rela, viz. That the Jews will have it relate to the Meſ, merely becauſe of the mention of Vinegar, which y ſay alludes to his Sufferings. I will not take upon to juſtify their Interpretation; but this I think may ſafely affirmed, that the Jews very fooliſhly upbraid Chriſtians with worſhipping a ſuffering Saviour, n here, and elſewhere, they poſitively aſſert, that ering is Part of the Character of the Meſſiah.

CHAP. III.

Naomi's Contrivance to get Ruth married to Boaz; Boaz accepts the Right of Redemption, and marries her.

Ver. 1. THEN Naomi her mother-in-law ſaid unto her, My daughter, ſhall I not ſeek reſt for thee, that it may be well with thee? 2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whoſe maidens thou waſt? Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threſhing-floor. 3 Waſh thy ſelf therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thy ſelf known unto the man, until he ſhall have done eating and drinking. 4 And it ſhall be when he lieth down, that thou ſhalt mark the place where he ſhall lie, and thou ſhalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou ſhalt do. 5 And ſhe ſaid unto her, All that thou ſayeſt unto me I will do. 6 And ſhe went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her. 7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and ſhe came ſoftly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down. 8 And it came to paſs at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himſelf: and behold, a woman lay at his feet. 9 And he ſaid Who art thou? and ſhe anſwered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: ſpread therefore thy ſkirt over thine handmaid, for thou art a near kinſman. 10 And he ſaid, Bleſſed be thou of the Lord my daughter: for thou haſt ſhewed more kindneſs in the latter end, than at the beginning, inaſmuch as thou followedſt not young men, whether poor or rich. 11 And now my daughter, fear not, I will do to thee all that thou requireſt: for all the city of my people doth know, that thou art a vertuous woman. 12 And now it is true, that I am thy near kinſman: howbeit there is a kinſman nearer than I. 13 Tarry this night, and it ſhall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinſman, well, let him do the kinſmans part; but if he will not do the part of a kinſman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinſman to thee, as the Lord liveth: lie down until the morning. 14 And ſhe lay at his feet until the morning: and ſhe roſe up before one could know another. And he ſaid, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor. 15 Alſo he ſaid, Bring the vail that thou haſt upon thee, and hold it. And when ſhe held it, he meaſured ſix meaſures of barley, and laid it on her: and ſhe went into the city. 16 And when ſhe came to her mother-in-law, ſhe ſaid, Who art thou, my daughter? And ſhe told her all that the man had done to her. 17 And ſhe ſaid, Theſe ſix meaſures of barley gave he me; for he ſaid unto me, Go not empty unto thy mother-in-law. 18 Then ſaid ſhe, Sit ſtill, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in reſt, until he have finiſhed the thing this day.

And it ſhall be when he lieth down, that thou ſhalt mark the Place where he ſhall lie, and thou ſhalt go in, and uncover his Feet, and lay thee down] Ludicrous Writers, who delight in turning the Scriptures into

Jeſt, ſpeak of no Part of it more frequently than this which is now before us. They pretend to wonder how a pious old Woman, ſuch as Naomi is repreſented to be, ſhould put her Daughter-in-law Ruth, a virtuous young Woman, upon ſo indecent an Expedient as this, of going to Bed to a Man when he was aſleep, in order to procure him for a Huſband. And they pretend to be no leſs amazed, that Ruth, who has ſo excellent a Character throughout this whole Book, ſhould, nevertheleſs, comply with her Advice without the leaſt Heſitation. They go on to multiply their Cavils, by running over the ſeveral Circumſtances relating to this Tranſaction; and when they have done, they very modeſtly conclude, they have either ruined the Credit of the Perſons, or the Story. But the Miſtake lies in them, and not in the Writer of the Book of Ruth. For, ſuppoſing Boaz to have been the Huſband of Ruth, and to have lived ſeparately from her a long while, would any conſiderate Perſon, at this Day, blame Naomi for taking the Steps ſhe did in order to bring them together again? Yet, when this Caſe is truly ſtated, and the Nature of the Moſaic Law is conſidered, we ſhall find this Buſineſs very little different from the Suppoſition I have mentioned. What in our Bible is tranſlated Kinſman, is, in the Hebrew, Goel, a Redeemer, he who had a Right of redeeming the Lands, and who was obliged, if he would do ſo, to take the Wife of the Perſon deceaſed. Moſt evident it is, that Naomi regarded Boaz in this Light, and therefore all ſhe aimed at was, to engage him, notwithſtanding Ruth's Poverty, to perform his Duty towards her, and to take her for a Wife; and ſo the Jewiſh Criticks agree the Phraſe, ſpread thy Skirt over me, which Ruth made uſe of to Boaz, when he diſcovered her, really means; ſo that in this Caſe, there was no Crime intended, and therefore the Woman cannot be ſaid to have acted immodeſtly. Beſides, theſe were Things, tho' ſtrange to us, yet notorious among them, juſt as the common Maxims of Law are with us; and therefore the Reaſon of the Thing, and the beneficial Conſequences attending it, might very well prevail upon Ruth to execute the Commands of her Mother-in-law; on the other Hand, as there was no Ill meant, ſo there was no Ill done. Boaz, who was a very old Man at this Time, gave Ruth his Reaſons why he could not comply with her Requeſt, becauſe ſhe and Naomi were miſtaken in the Matter; he was not the Goel, but there was another before him; what he could do therefore to ſatisfy her, he did, for he promiſed, in Caſe the other refuſed, that he would then take her, and commended her highly for neglecting young Men, and making Suit to him. And this accounts for what he ſaid to her, about not letting it be known that a Woman had been in the Floor; for, as by the Law he was not obliged to marry her, nor indeed could, unleſs the other relinquiſhed, ſo he was afraid, that Ruth's Ignorance, in this Reſpect, might betray her to Shame, tho' it had not involved her in Guilt. Let theſe Things be weighed, and let it be remembered, that if the ſame Thing were urged in Reſpect to a Paſſage in prophane Hiſtory, no farther Difficulty would be made about it.

CHAP. IV.

Boaz calls the near Kinſman into Judgment, who refuſing the Redemption, Boaz marries Ruth.

Ver. 1. THEN went Boaz up to the gate, and ſat him down there: and behold, the kinſman of whom Boaz ſpake, came by; unto whom he ſaid, Ho, ſuch a one, turn aſide, ſit down here. And he turned aſide, and ſat down. 2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and ſaid, Sit ye down here. And they ſat down. 3 And he ſaid unto the kinſman, Naomi that is come again out of the country of Moab ſelleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelechs, 4 And I thought to advertiſe thee, ſaying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beſides thee, and I am after thee. And he ſaid, I will redeem it. 5 Then ſaid Boaz, What day thou buyeſt the field of the hand of Naomi, thou muſt buy it alſo of Ruth the Moabiteſs, the wife of the dead, to raiſe up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. 6 And the kinſman ſaid, I cannot redeem it for my ſelf, leſt I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thy ſelf, for I cannot redeem it. 7 Now this was the manner in former time in Iſrael, concerning redeeming, and concerning changing, for to confirm all things: a man plucked off his ſhoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a teſtimony in Iſrael. 8 Therefore the kinſman ſaid unto Boaz, Buy it for thee: ſo he drew off his ſhoe. 9 And Boaz ſaid unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witneſſes this day, that I have bought all that were Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi. 10 Moreover, Ruth the Moabiteſs, the wife of Mahlon have I purchaſed to be my wife, to raiſe up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witneſſes this day. 11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders ſaid, We are witneſſes: The Lord make the woman that is come into thine houſe, like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the houſe of Iſrael: and do thou worthily in Ephratah, and be famous in Beth-lehem. 12 And let thy houſe be like the houſe of Pharez, (whom Tamar bare unto Judah) of the ſeed which the Lord ſhall give thee of this young woman. 13 So Boaz took Ruth, and ſhe was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the Lord gave her conception, and ſhe bare a ſon. 14 And the woman ſaid unto Naomi, Bleſſed be the Lord which hath not left thee this day without a kinſman, that his name may be famous in Iſrael. 15 And he ſhall be unto thee a reſtorer of thy life, and a nouriſher of thine old age: for thy daughter-in-law which loveth thee, which is better to thee than ſeven ſons, hath born him. 16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her boſom, and became nurſe unto it. 17 And the women her neighbours gave it a name, ſaying, There is a ſon born to Naomi, and they called his name Obed: he is the father of Jeſſe, the father of David. 18 Now theſe are the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron. 19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab, 20 And Amminadab begat Nahſhon, and Nahſhon begat Salmon, 21 And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, 22 And Obed begat Jeſſe, and Jeſſe begat David.

And he took Men of the Elders of the City, and ſaid, Sit ye down here] It has been already obſerved, that in the moſt antient Times, the chief Buſineſs in all Cities was tranſacted in their Gates; and the Chaldee Paraphraſt actually ſuppoſes that a Court of Juſtice was then ſitting here; He went, ſays he, to the Gate of Judgment where the Sanhedrim ſat. But this Author ſeems to carry the Matter too far; for the Text does not ſay, that he found ten Elders, but that he took them, that is, entreated them to ſit down, and according their Duty was, to hear and arbitrate between him and his Kinſman. How many Elders there were in a City, is a Point undetermined by Criticks. Joſephus ſeems to think there were but ſeven; but this does not tally with the Narration before us, ſeeing Boaz, in this Caſe, invited Ten to judge, or rather to be Witneſſes in this Matter; for upon the Whole, it did not turn upon a Decree made, but by an amicable Agreement between the Parties, to which the ten Elders, and the other People who were aſſembled, became Witneſſes. Neither can it be denied, that this was a very proper Method to prevent future Law-ſuits and Controverſies; for, here was the Right to Land and to a Wife transferred from one to another; and theſe being Things the moſt ſolemn and important in their Nature, it was highly reaſonable that they ſhould not be done before a few, but in the Sight of many, ſo as that the Matter of Fact might be ſetled beyond Diſpute; and this Proceeding was ſo highly approved, that it continued long after; and the Eſpouſals of the Jews are made with theſe Ceremonies even at this Day.

And all the People that were in the Gate, and the Elders ſaid, We are Witneſſes] The Jews are to this Day ſo ſcrupulous on this Point of having ſufficient Witneſſes to their Marriages, that they take Care to have the Contract conceived in the ſtrongeſt Terms, and to have it read before the married Parties, in the Preſence of a great Number of People, and as this is certainly a very old Rite, our Readers perhaps will not be diſpleaſed to ſee the Form of ſuch a Contract as it is preſerved in Buxtorf's Syn. Jud. It runs thus: 'Upon 'the ſixth Day of the Week, the fourth of the Month 'Sivan, in the five thouſand two hundred fifty and 'fourth Year of the Creation of the World, according 'to the Computation which we uſe here at Maſſiſtia, 'a Place which is ſituate near the Sea-ſhore, the Bride-'groom Rabbi Moſes, the Son of Rabbi Jelendah, ſaid 'unto the Bride Clavona, the Daughter of Rabbi Da-'vid, the Son of Rabbi Moſes, and Citizen of Liſbon, 'Be unto me a Wife according to the Law of Moſes 'and Iſrael; and I according to the Word of God, 'will worſhip, honour, maintain and govern thee ac-'cording to the Manner of the Huſbands among the 'Jews, who do worſhip, honour, maintain and govern 'their Wives faithfully: I alſo do beſtow on thee the 'Dowry of thy Virginity two hundred Deniers in Sil-'ver, which belong unto thee by the Law: And 'moreover, thy Food, thy Apparel, and ſufficient 'Neceſſaries; as likewiſe Knowledge of thee, accord-'ing to the Cuſtom of the Earth.

Elkanah and his two Wives. Hannah's Prayer; in Conſequence of which Samuel is born, and preſented to the Lord.

Ver. 1. NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the ſon of Jeroham, the ſon of Elihu, the ſon of Tohu, the ſon of Zuph, an Ephrathite: 2 And he had two wives, the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. 3 And this man went up out of his city yearly, to worſhip and to ſacrifice unto the Lord of hoſts in Shiloh; and the two ſons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the prieſts of the Lord were there. 4 And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her ſons and daughters portions. 5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion: for he loved Hannah, but the Lord had ſhut up her womb; 6 And her adverſary alſo provoked her ſore, for to make her fret, becauſe the Lord had ſhut up her womb. 7 And as he did ſo year by year, when ſhe went up to the houſe of the Lord, ſo ſhe provoked her; therefore ſhe wept, and did not eat. 8 Then ſaid Elkanah her huſband to her, Hannah, why weepeſt thou? and why eateſt thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten ſons? 9 So Hannah roſe up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk: (now Eli the prieſt ſat upon a ſeat by a poſt of the temple of the Lord) 10 And ſhe was in bitterneſs of ſoul, and prayed unto the Lord, and wept ſore. 11 And ſhe vowed a vow, and ſaid, O Lord of hoſts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man-child, then I will give him unto the Lord all the days of his life, and there ſhall no raſor come upon his head. 12 And it came to paſs as ſhe continued praying before the Lord, that Eli marked her mouth. 13 Now Hannah ſhe ſpake in her heart, only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought ſhe had been drunken. 14 And Eli ſaid unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. 15 And Hannah anſwered and ſaid, No, my lord, I am a woman of a ſorrowful ſpirit: I have drunk neither wine nor ſtrong drink, but have poured out my ſoul before the Lord. 16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I ſpoken hitherto. 17 Then Eli anſwered and ſaid, Go in peace: and the God of Iſrael grant thee thy petition that thou haſt aſked of him. 18 And ſhe ſaid, let thine handmaid find grace in thy ſight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more ſad. 19 And they roſe up in the morning early, and worſhipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their houſe to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her. 20 Wherefore it came to paſs when the time was come about, after Hannah had conceived, that ſhe bare a ſon, and called his name Samuel, ſaying, Becauſe I have aſked him of the Lord. 21 And the man Elkanah and all his houſe went up to offer unto the Lord, the yearly ſacrifice, and his vow. 22 But Hannah went not up; for ſhe ſaid unto her huſband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the Lord, and there abide for ever. 23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good, tarry until thou have weaned him, only the Lord establish his word: so the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him. 24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the Lord in Shiloh: and the child was young. 25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli. 26 And she said, O my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the Lord. 27 For this child I prayed; and the Lord hath given me my petition which I asked of him: 28 Therefore also I have lent him to the Lord as long as he liveth, he shall be lent to the Lord. And he worshipped the Lord there.

Now there was a certain Man of Ramathaim-Zophim] Ramah signifies an Eminence, or high Situation; and therefore an Appellation given to several Places that are built in this Manner. This is said to have stood upon Mount Ephraim, thereby to distinguish it from other Towns, in different Tribes, of the same Denomination; and the Reason why it is here called Ramathaim, in the Dual Number, is, as some imagine, because it was built upon two Hills, which made it appear as a double City, and, because it was situated on high, and had a Watch-tower built in it, it therefore had the Title of Zophim added to it. It stood upon the Road that led from Samaria to Jerusalem; and, for this Reason, as well as its advantageous Situation, Baasha, King of Israel, caus'd it to be fortified, that there might be no Passage out of the Land of Judah into that of Israel, 1 Kings xv. 17. and 2 Chron. xvi. 1. But in St. Jerom's Days it was no more than a small Village. Here it was that Samuel pass'd a great Part of his Time; for his Mother's Dedication of him to the Service of God did not confine him to Shiloh, after that God had called him out to a publick Employ, and appointed him his Residence in a Place more convenient for the Execution of it. The Truth is, after the Captivity of the Ark, and the Death of Eli, all Religious Ceremonies seem to have ceas'd at Shiloh; for which Reason it is said, that Samuel built an Altar at Ramah, the Place of his Residence, to the Intent that the People might resort to him, either to receive Judgment, or to offer Sacrifices, which, tho' it was contrary to the Law of Moses, seem'd to be a Case of Necessity; because the Ark being at one Place, and the Tabernacle at another, neither of them could be properly resorted to, either for sacrificing, or any other Part of Publick Worship. See Patrick's, Le Clerc's, and Calmet's Com.

And this Man went up out of his City yearly to worship] The Precept is exactly thus — Three Times in the Year all thy Males shall appear before the Lord thy God, Exod. xviii. 17. which were at the Feast of the Passover, the Pentecost, and that of the Tabernacles; but Women were exempted from this Attendance, and therefore it was an extraordinary Act of Piety for Elkanah to take his two Wives with him.

And when the Time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his Wife — Portions] The Blood of this Peace-offering (Calmet observes) was shed at the Foot of the Altar, the Fat was burnt, the Breast and right Shoulder were the Priest's Perquisite, and all the rest belong'd to the Person who brought the Victim. With this he made a Feast of Charity, to which he called his Friends and Relations, and, in several Places of Scripture, God reminds him to invite the Levite, the Poor, the Fatherless and the Widow.

CHAP. II.

Hannah's Song. The wicked Practices of Eli's Sons. Samuel's Ministry. God reveals to Samuel the Fate of Eli's House.

Ver. 1. AND Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoyceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies: because I rejoice in thy salvation. 2 There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God. 3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly, let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. 4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled, are girt with strength. 5 They that were full, have hir'd out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry, ceased: so that the barren hath bore seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble. 6 The Lord killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. 7 The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up. 8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghil, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lords, and he hath set the world upon them. 9 He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail. 10 The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces: out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth, and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed. 11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house; and the child did minister unto the Lord before Eli the priest. 12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial, they knew not the Lord. 13 And the priests custom with the people was, that when any man offered sacrifice, the priests servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand: 14 And he strook it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the flesh-hook brought up, the priest took for himself: so they did in Shiloh, unto all the Israelites that came thither. 15 Also before they burnt the fat, the priests servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. 16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth: then he would answer him, Nay, but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. 17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Lord. 18 But Samuel ministred before the Lord being a child, girded with a linen ephod. 19 Moreover, his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband, to offer the yearly sacrifice. 20 And Eli blessed Elkanah, and his wife, and said, The Lord give thee seed of this woman, for the loan which is lent to the Lord. And they went unto their own home. 21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons, and two daughters: and the child Samuel grew before the Lord. 22

Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his ſons did unto all Iſrael, and how they lay with the women that aſſembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. 23 And he ſaid unto them, Why do ye ſuch things? for I hear of your evil dealings, by all this people. 24 Nay, my ſons: for it is no good report that I hear; ye make the Lords people to tranſgreſs. 25 If one man ſin againſt another, the judge ſhall judge him: but if a man ſin againſt the Lord, who ſhall intreat for him? Notwithſtanding they hearkned not unto the voice of their father, becauſe the Lord would ſlay them. 26 (And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the Lord, and alſo with men.) 27 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Did I plainly appear unto the houſe of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs houſe? 28 And did I chooſe him out of all the tribes of Iſrael to be my prieſt, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incenſe, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the houſe of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Iſrael? 29 Wherefore kick ye at my ſacrifice, and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honoureſt thy ſons above me, to make your ſelves fat with the chiefeſt of all the offerings of Iſrael my people? 30 Wherefore the Lord God of Iſrael ſaith, I ſaid indeed, that thy houſe, and the houſe of thy father ſhould walk before me for ever: But now the Lord ſaith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me, I will honour, and they that deſpiſe me, ſhall be lightly eſteemed. 31 Behold, the days come that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy fathers houſe, that there ſhall not be an old man in thine houſe. 32 And thou ſhalt ſee an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God ſhall give Iſrael: and there ſhall not be an old man in thine houſe for ever. 33 And the man of thine, whom I ſhall not cut off from mine altar, ſhall be to conſume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increaſe of thine houſe ſhall die in the flower of their age. 34 And this ſhall be a ſign unto thee that ſhall come upon thy two ſons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they ſhall die both of them. 35 And I will raiſe me up a faithful prieſt, that ſhall do according to that which is in mine heart, and in my mind: and I will build him a ſure houſe, and he ſhall walk before mine anointed for ever. 36 And it ſhall come to paſs, that every one that is left in thine houſe ſhall come and crouch to him for a piece of ſilver, and a morſel of bread, and ſhall ſay, Put me (I pray thee) into one of the prieſts offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

And there came a Man of God unto Eli] Who this Prophet was, Commentators are at a Loſs to know. Some imagine it was Phineas, the Son of Eleazar; but Phineas very probably was dead long before this Time. Others therefore will needs have it to be Elkanah, Samuel's Father; and ſome Samuel himſelf: But we no where read, that the Father was endu'd with the Spirit of Prophecy, and the Son was then certainly too young and unacquainted with the Voice of God. The ſafeſt Way therefore is, to own our Ignorance of what the ſacred Hiſtorian hath not thought proper to diſcover to us.

And I will raiſe me up a faithful Prieſt] The High-prieſthood was originally ſetled upon Eleazar, the Son of Aaron, by a divine Decree; but that Decree being conditional only, 'tis reaſonable to preſume that there was ſome great Offence or other in Eleazar's Family, (tho' not recorded in Scripture) which provok'd God to remove it into the Family of Ithamar, who was Aaron's youngeſt Son, and from whom Eli deſcended; and here, for the abominable Practices of his Sons, which he was too negligent to reſtrain, God threatens to tranſlate the Prieſthood back again, from the Family of Ithamar to that of Eleazar, which accordingly happen'd in the Reign of King Solomon, who depos'd Abiathar, the laſt of Eli's Line, from the Pontificate, and ſet up Zadock in his Stead. See Pool's Annot.

CHAP. III.

The Manner in which God firſt revealed himſelf to Samuel. The Deſtruction of Eli's Houſe foretold.

Ver. 1. AND the child Samuel miniſtred unto the Lord before Eli: and the word of the Lord was precious in thoſe days; there was no open viſion. 2 And it came to paſs at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not ſee; 3 And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to ſleep: 4 That the Lord called Samuel, and he anſwered, Here am I. 5 And he ran unto Eli, and ſaid, Here am I, for thou calledſt me. And he ſaid, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down. 6 And the Lord called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel aroſe and went to Eli, and ſaid, Here am I, for thou didſt call me. And he anſwered, I called not my ſon; lie down again. 7 Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, neither was the word of the Lord yet revealed unto him. 8 And the Lord called Samuel again the third time. And he aroſe and went to Eli, and ſaid, Here am I, for thou didſt call me. And Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child. 9 Therefore Eli ſaid unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it ſhall be, if he call thee, that thou ſhalt ſay, Speak Lord, for thy ſervant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. 10 And the Lord came, and ſtood and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel anſwered, Speak, for thy ſervant heareth. 11 And the Lord ſaid to Samuel. Behold, I will do a thing in Iſrael, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it ſhall tingle. 12 In that day, I will perform againſt Eli all things which I have ſpoken concerning his houſe: when I begin, I will alſo make an end. 13 For I have told him that I will judge his houſe for ever, for the iniquity which he knoweth: becauſe his ſons made themſelves vile, and he reſtrained them not. 14 And therefore I have ſworn unto the houſe of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's houſe ſhall not be purged with ſacrifice, nor offering for ever. 15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the houſe of the Lord: and Samuel feared to ſhew Eli the viſion. 16 Then Eli called Samuel, and ſaid, Samuel my ſon. And he anſwered, Here am I. 17 And he ſaid, What is the thing that the LORD hath ſaid unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do ſo to thee and more alſo, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he ſaid unto thee. 18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he ſaid, It is the Lord: let him do what ſeemeth him good. 19 And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground. 20 And all Iſrael from Dan even to Beerſheba knew that Samuel was eſtabliſhed to be a prophet of the Lord. 21 And the Lord appeared again in Shiloh: for the Lord revealed himſelf to Samuel in Shiloh, by the word of the Lord.

And the Word of the Lord was precious in thoſe Days; there was no open Viſion] Whatever Revelations God might impart to ſome pious Perſons privately, there was none at this Time, publickly acknowledg'd for a Prophet, unto whom the People might reſort to know the Mind of God; nay, ſo little acquainted were theſe Ages with the prophetick Spirit, that we read of no more than two Prophets, Judges iv. 4. and vi. 8. in all the Days of the Judges. See Patrick's Com.

CHAP. IV.

The Iſraelites beaten by the Philiſtines, the Ark taken, and Eli's Sons ſlain. Eli upon hearing the News, falls backwards and breaks his Neck, and Phineas's Wife dies in Travail.

Ver. 1. AND the word of Samuel came to all Iſrael. Now Iſrael went out againſt the Philiſtines to battel, and pitched beſide Ebenezer: and the Philiſtines pitched in Aphek. 2 And the Philiſtines put themſelves in aray againſt Iſrael: and when they joined battle, Iſrael was ſmitten before the Philiſtines: and they ſlew of the army in the field about four thouſand men. 3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Iſrael ſaid, Wherefore hath the Lord ſmitten us to day before the Philiſtines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of Shiloh unto us, that when it cometh among us, it may ſave us out of the hand of our enemies. 4 So the people ſent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hoſts, which dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two ſons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there, with the ark of the covenant of God. 5 And when the ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the camp, all Iſrael ſhouted with a great ſhout, ſo that the earth rang again. 6 And when the Philiſtines heard the noiſe of the ſhout, they ſaid, What meaneth the noiſe of this great ſhout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they underſtood that the ark of the Lord was come into the camp. 7 And the Philiſtines were afraid, for they ſaid, God is come into the camp. And they ſaid, Wo unto us; for there hath not been ſuch a thing heretofore. 8 Wo unto us: who ſhall deliver us out of the hand of theſe mighty Gods? theſe are the Gods that ſmote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderneſs. 9 Be ſtrong, and quit your ſelves like men, O ye Philiſtines, that ye be not ſervants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit your ſelves like men, and fight. 10 And the Philiſtines fought, and Iſrael was ſmitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great ſlaughter, for there fell of Iſrael thirty thouſand foot-men. 11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two ſons of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, were ſlain. 12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the ſame day with his cloaths rent, and with earth upon his head. 13 And when he came, lo, Eli ſat upon a ſeat by the way-ſide, watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. 14 And when Eli heard the noiſe of the crying, he ſaid, What meaneth the noiſe of this tumult? And the man came in haſtily, and told Eli. 15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not ſee. 16 And the man ſaid unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he ſaid, What is there done, my ſon? 17 And the meſſenger anſwered and ſaid, Iſrael is fled before the Philiſtines, and there hath been alſo a great ſlaughter among the people, and thy two ſons alſo, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the ark of God is taken. 18 And it came to paſs, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off his ſeat backward by the ſide of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Iſrael forty years. 19 And his daughter-in-law Phinehas wife was with child near to be delivered: and when ſhe heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law, and her huſband were dead, ſhe bowed her ſelf and travailed; for her pains came upon her. 20 And about the time of her death, the women that ſtood by her, ſaid unto her, Fear not, for thou haſt born a ſon. But ſhe anſwered not, neither did ſhe regard it. 21 And ſhe named the child I-chabod, ſaying, The glory is departed from Iſrael: (becauſe the ark of God was taken, and becauſe of her father-in-law and her huſband) 22 And ſhe ſaid, The glory is departed from Iſrael: for the ark of God is taken.

Now Iſrael went out againſt the Philiſtines to Battle, and pitched beſide Eben-ezer] This Place is here mention'd prophetically; for it had not this Name till about twenty Years after, 1 Sam. vii. 12. when Samuel fought with the Philiſtines, and gave them a total Overthrow, and ſet up a Monument of his Victory (for the proper Name ſignifies the Stone of Help) in the Field of Battle, which lay on the North Border of Judah, not far from Mizpeh; and Aphek, where the Philiſtines encamp'd muſt not be far diſtant from it. See Wells's Geogr. of the O. T.

And he had judged Iſrael forty Years] The Septuagint, and ſome other Manuſcripts, make the Term of Eli's Magiſtracy to be no more than twenty Years; and, to reconcile this with the Hebrew Text, ſome ſuppoſe, either that he had Samſon join'd in the Government with him for the firſt twenty Years of his Adminiſtration, or his Sons, for the laſt; but there is no Reaſon for the Solution of a Difficulty, which ariſes from nothing elſe, but a Fault in the Text of the Septuagint. See Calmet's Com.

CHAP. V.

The Philiſtines bring the Ark into the Houſe of Dagon; Dagon falls upon the Threſhold and is maim'd. They are ſmitten with Emerods.

Ver. 1. AND the Philiſtines took the ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Aſhdod. 2 When the Philſtines took the ark of God, they brought it into the houſe of Dagon, and ſet it by Dagon. 3 And when they

they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth, before the ark of the Lord: and they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. 4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the Lord: and the head of Dagon, and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold, only the stump of Dagon was left to him. 5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any that come into Dagons house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, unto this day. 6 But the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof. 7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our God. 8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? and they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither. 9 And it was so, that after they had carried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts. 10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron: and it came to pass as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people. 11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. 12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

When the Philistines took the Ark of God, they brought it into the House of Dagon] It was a Custom among the Heathens, as Saurin observes, to carry in Triumph the Images of the Gods of such Nations as they had vanquish'd. Isaiah propheſies of Cyrus, that in this Manner he would treat the Gods of Babylon: — Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth; their Idols were upon the Beasts, and upon the Cattle — And themselves are gone into Captivity, Isa. xlvi. 1, 2. Daniel foretels of Ptolomy Euergetes, that he would carry captive into Egypt the Gods of the Syrians, with their Princes, Dan. xi. 8. And the like Predictions are to be met with in Jeremiah, xlviii. 7. and in Amos i. 15. We need less wonder therefore that we find Plutarch, in the Life of Marcellus, telling us that he took away, out of the Temples of Syracuse, the most beautiful Pictures and Statues of their Gods; and that, afterwards, it became a Reproach to Marcellus, and rais'd the Indignation of other Nations against Rome: That he carried along with him, not Men only, but the very Gods captive, and in Triumph.

And when the People of Ashdod —] The Philistines were Descendants from Mizraim, the Father of the Egyptians, and so, in all Probability, having their first Settlement in Egypt, or the Parts adjoining, lay to the South-west of the Land of Canaan. In Process of Time however, they made Inroads upon Canaan, and, in Abraham's Days, had got Possession of a good Part of the Territories which lay along the Coasts of the Mediterranean Sea. This Tract of Ground was divided into five Principalities, or little Kingdoms, viz. Gaza, Askelon, Ashdod, Gath, and Ekron; which, for the better understanding some Particulars related of the Ark, during its Stay in that Country, it will not be improper to describe all together. The City of Gaza (from which the Territory took its Name) stood, as it were on the very south-west Angle, or Corner of the Land of Canaan. To the North of Gaza, lay the City of Askelon, called by the Greeks Ascalon, and of great Note among the Gentiles for the Temple dedicated to Dirceto, the Mother of Semiramis, who was worshipp'd in the Form of a Mermaid. To the North of Askelon lay Ashdod, called by the Greeks, Azotus; and famous for the Temple of the God Dagon. Still more to the North lay Gath, memorable for being the Birth-place of the Giant Goliah, whom David slew; and of several others of the same gigantick Race. It was dismantled by Ozias, King of Judah, and finally laid waste by Hazael King of Syria. However, it recover'd itself, and retain'd its old Name in the Days of Eusebius and St. Jerome, who place it about four Miles from Eleutheropolis, in the Way to Lydda. The most northern of these Cities, still upon the Coast of the Mediterranean Sea, was Ekron, called by the Greeks, Accaron, a Place of great Wealth and Power, and famous for the idolatrous Worship of Beelzebub, who had here a celebrated Temple and Oracle. See Wells's Geogr.

Therefore neither the Priests of Dagon, nor any that came into Dagon's House, tread on the Threshold of Dagon] It is somewhat strange, that when the Philistines saw their Dagon cast down before the Ark of God, with his Head and Hands broken off, they should not thence infer, that he was no more than a vain Idol: But instead of that, we find them honouring the very Threshold, whereby he receiv'd his Maims, as if they had been consecrated, or some Divinity infus'd into them, from the mere Touch of this Idol. This is a sore Instance of Blindness and Infatuation; but it is no more than what other heathen Nations fell into. For, whether the Custom took its first Rise from this Practice of the Philistines, or no, 'tis certain, that among the Romans, the Threshold was consecrated to the Goddess Vesta, and those which belong'd to Temples were always held in the highest Veneration. Nay, at this very Day there are some Mosques in Persia, whose Thresholds are cover'd with Plates of Silver, and which the People are not allow'd to tread on; for that is a Crime which cannot be expiated without undergoing very severe Pains and Penalties. See Calmet's Com.

Smote them with Emerods] The Word Aphelim which only occurs here, and in the xxviiith Chapter of Deuteronomy, is, by different Interpreters, suppos'd to signify different Things. Some take it for a Dysentery, others for what they call Procidentia ani; some for a Cancer, and others for something Venereal in that Part. The Scripture tells us expresly, that God smote his Enemies in the hinder Parts, Ps. lxxviii. 66. And therefore our Translation is not amiss, which supposes their Malady to have been such painful Tumors in the Fundament, as very frequently turn into Ulcers. See Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

CHAP. VI.

The Philistines counsel to send back the Ark; they place it on a new Cart drawn by two Milch Kine, which bring it to Beth-shemesh, the Men whereof are smitten for their profane Curiosity.

Ver. 1. AND the ark of the Lord was in the country of the Philistines seven months. 2 And the Philistines, called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the Lord? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place. 3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return him a trespass-offering:

offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you, why his hand is not removed from you. 4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. 5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land, and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. 6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardned their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? 7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch-kine on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them: 8 And take the ark of the Lord, and lay it upon the cart, and put the jewels of gold which ye return him for a trespass-offering, in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go. 9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happned to us. 10 And the men did so: and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home: 11 And they laid the ark of the Lord upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold, and the images of their emerods. 12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the high-way, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh. 13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat-harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. 14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua a Beth-shemite, and stood there where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the Lord. 15 And the Levites took down the ark of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the Lord. 16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day. 17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering unto the Lord; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one. 18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day, in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite. 19 And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the Lord, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go up from us? 21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the Lord; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

Take two milch Kine, on which there hath been no Yoke] It was, says Howell, no bad Policy in the Philistines to take milch Kine, that had never been yok'd before, to draw the Cart, in order to know whether there was the Hand of God in what had befallen them. As these Creatures were unacquainted with the Yoke, it would be a Wonder if they should go jointly together, and not thwart, or draw counter to each other, it would be a Wonder if their natural Affection would not incline them to return to their Calves which were left behind; and it would be still a greater Wonder, if, when they were so many different Ways to take, they should go directly forward to Judea, without any Deviation. And therefore it was a Matter of no small Sagacity for them to make this Experiment; besides, that it was a receiv'd Opinion among the Heathens, that, in the Motions of an Heifer, or Cow that was never yok'd, there was something ominous, and declarative of the Divine Will.

He smote of the People fifty thousand and threescore and ten Men] Cornelius a Lap. very learnedly at first determines the Number of the People slain for this profane Curiosity to be but seventy, following therein the Opinion of St. Jerom, Josephus and the Hebrews, That God smote seventy of the fifty thousand Bethshemites. But afterwards inclining too much to the Septuagint and the Chaldee Paraphrase, will have them amount to fifty thousand and seventy Men, that were slain; but with little Reason. The learned Bochart could not without Horror read what the Versions make the Scripture say here. For he could not imagine that God, who is Goodness itself, could have made such a Slaughter of those who had receiv'd the Ark with Joy at its Return, and offered several Sacrifices to God on that Account. Besides, he could not conceive that there could have been such a Multitude of People in a Village on the Borders of Judea: These Considerations inclined him to believe the Opinion of Josephus, who says, that God only smote Seventy Men; and he proves that the Text says no other Thing, and that it should be translated, And he smote threescore and ten Men of the People of Bethshemesh, viz. fifty Men of a Thousand, which answers exactly to the Hebrew. And he shews it is not usual in the Hebrew Tongue to make Thousands go before inferior Numbers to make up a total Sum; but that they constantly begin with the less Number, and end with the greater, as St. Jerom has likewise observed in speaking of Daniel's Seventy Weeks.

CHAP. VII.

The Ark remov'd to Kirjath-jearim. The Israelites repent at Mizpeh. Upon Samuel's Prayer, the Philistines are discomfited. Samuel takes a Circuit yearly to judge Israel.

Ver. 1. AND the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetcht up the ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son, to keep the ark of the Lord. 2 And it came to pass while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord. 3 And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods, and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and ſerve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philiſtines. 4 Then the children of Iſrael did put away Baalim, and Aſhtaroth, and ſerved the Lord only. 5 And Samuel ſaid, Gather all Iſrael to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the Lord. 6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and faſted on that day, and ſaid there, We have ſinned againſt the Lord. And Samuel judged the children of Iſrael in Mizpeh. 7 And when the Philiſtines heard that the children of Iſrael were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philiſtines went up againſt Iſrael: and when the children of Iſrael heard it, they were afraid of the Philiſtines. 8 And the children of Iſrael ſaid to Samuel, Ceaſe not to cry unto the Lord our God for us, that he will ſave us out of the hand of the Philiſtines. 9 And Samuel took a ſucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt-offering, wholly unto the Lord; and Samuel cried unto the Lord for Iſrael, and the Lord heard him. 10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philiſtines drew near to battle againſt Iſrael: but the Lord thundred with a great thunder on that day upon the Philiſtines, and diſcomfited them, and they were ſmitten before Iſrael. 11 And the men of Iſrael went out of Mizpeh, and purſued the Philiſtines, and ſmote them, until they came under Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel took a ſtone, and ſet it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, ſaying, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us. 13 So the Philiſtines were ſubdued and they came no more into the coaſt of Iſrael: and the hand of the Lord was againſt the Philiſtines, all the days of Samuel. 14 And the cities which the Philiſtines had taken from Iſrael were reſtored to Iſrael, from Ekron even unto Gath, and the coaſts thereof did Iſrael deliver out of the hands of the Philiſtines: and there was peace between Iſrael and the Amorites. 15 And Samuel judged Iſrael all the days of his life. 16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Iſrael in all thoſe places. 17 And his return was to Ramah; for there was his houſe: and there he judged Iſrael, and there he built an altar unto the Lord.

Gather all Iſrael to Mizpeh] The Mizpeh here mention'd (as appears from the Circumſtances of the Story) muſt be different from that which is remark'd in the Hiſtory of Jepthah. There is indeed another Mizpeh, which is mention'd among the Cities of Judah (Joſh. xv. 38) and a third, among thoſe of Benjamin (Joſh. xviii. 26.) Some are of Opinion, that theſe two Cities are one and the ſame, and are only ſuppos'd to be two, becauſe they lie in the Confines of each Tribe; but, if they are not the ſame, it ſeems moſt probable, that the Mizpeh in the Tribe of Benjamin, was the City which is here ſpoken of. And we may obſerve farther, that, as Mizpeh is ſaid to be ſituated not far from Ebenezer, and probably on the Eaſt, or North Side; ſo Shen (if it be the Name of a Place, and not rather of ſome ſharp Rock thereabouts) was ſituated not far from it, on the oppoſite i. e. on the Weſt, or South-weſt Side, to which Bethcar muſt needs be contiguous. See Well's Geogr. of the O. T.

CHAP. VIII.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs when Samuel was old, that he made his ſons judges over Iſrael. 2 Now the name of his firſt-born was Joel, and the Name of his ſecond, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-ſheba. 3 And his ſons walked not in his ways, but turned aſide after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment. 4 Then all the elders of Iſrael gathered themſelves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah, 5 And ſaid unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy ſons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations. 6 But the thing diſpleaſed Samuel, when they ſaid, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the Lord. 7 And the Lord ſaid unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they ſay unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I ſhould not reign over them. 8 According to all the works which they have done ſince the day that I brought them up out of Egypt, even unto this day, wherewith they have forſaken me, and ſerved other gods: ſo do they alſo unto thee. 9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet proteſt ſolemnly unto them, and ſhew them the manner of the king that ſhall reign over them. 10 And Samuel told all the words of the Lord unto the people that aſked of him a king. 11 And he ſaid, This will be the manner of the king that ſhall reign over you: He will take your ſons, and appoint them for himſelf, for his chariots, and to be his horſe-men, and ſome ſhall run before his chariots. 12 And he will appoint him captains over thouſands, and captains over fifties, and will ſet them to ear his ground, and to reap his harveſt, and to make his inſtruments of war, and inſtruments of his chariots. 13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. 14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, even the beſt of them, and give them to his ſervants. 15 And he will take the tenth of your ſeed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his ſervants. 16 And he will take your men-ſervants, and your maid-ſervants, and your goodlieſt young-men, and your aſſes, and put them to his work. 17 He will take the tenth of your ſheep: and ye ſhall be his ſervants. 18 And ye ſhall cry out in that day, becauſe of your king which ye ſhall have choſen you; and the Lord will not hear you in that day. 19 Nevertheleſs, the people refuſed to obey the voice of Samuel; and they ſaid, Nay, but we will have a king over us: 20 That we alſo may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles. 21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearſed them in the ears of the Lord. 22 And the Lord ſaid to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel ſaid unto the men of Iſrael, Go ye every man unto his city.

And his Sons walked not in his Ways] It poſſibly may be made a Queſtion, ſays Patrick, why God did not puniſh Samuel as he did Eli, for the Wickedneſs of his Sons? But to this it may be anſwer'd, That Samuel's Sons were not ſo bad as thoſe of Eli, ſince taking Bribes privately, was not like openly profaning the Tabernacle and making the Worſhip of God contemptible. And beſides this, it is poſſible, Samuel might be ignorant of the

he Corruption of his Sons; since he liv'd at Ramah, nd they at Beer-sheba.

This shall be the Manner of the King] The Rules of Conduct which God prescribes to the Person that should t any Time be King over Israel, are of a quite diffe- ent Sort to these Practices. See Deut xvii. 16, &c. o that Samuel does not, in the Words before us, define hat are the just Rights of Kings, but describes only uch Practices as the Kings of the East, who were espotick Princes, and look'd upon their Subjects as so nany Slaves, were generally accustom'd to: And the Prophet had Reason to draw him in those black Colours, ecause the Israelites desired such an one as their Neigh- ours had, who were all under the absolute Dominion f their Princes. See Le Clerc's and Calmet's Com.

And they said, Nay, but we will have a King over us] 's generally suppos'd, says Howel, that what made he Israelites so urgent at this Time for a King, was a resent Streight they thought themselves in, for want of n able Leader: For Nahash, the King of the Amo- ites, coming up to Jabesh-Gilead, and encamping be- ore it, had put the Inhabitants into such a Fright, hat, without more to do, they offered to surrender upon erms, telling him, that they would become Subjects to im, if he would make a League with them, Ch. xi. 1. ut the haughty Amorite, in Contempt of Israel, let em know, that if they would make a League with im, the Condition thereof should be, that they should me out to him, and let him thrust out all their right yes, and lay it for a Reproach upon all Israel. The lders of Jabesh, in this sad Circumstance, demanded ven Days Respite, that they might send Messengers in- all the Coasts of Israel, and if in that Time no Succours riv'd, they would submit. This, it is thought, was e Reason for their pressing so hard at this Time upon amuel for a King; whereas their Duty was, to have nquired of the Lord (as they had done at other Times) ho it was that he would be pleas'd to constitute their eneral in this Exigence, to lead out their Forces against eir Enemies.

aul, not being able to find his Father's Asses, by the Advice of his Servant, goes to Samuel, who en- tertains him.

er. 1. NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of biel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, e son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man power. 2 And he had a son, whose name was ul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and ere was not among the children of Israel a odlier person than he: from his shoulders and ward, he was higher then any of the people. 3 And the asses of Kish Sauls father, were lost; nd Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of e servants with thee, and arise, go seek the ses. 4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, nd passed through the land of Shalisha, but ey found them not: then they passed through e land of Shalim, and there they were not: and passed through the land of the Benjamites, but ey found them not. 5 And when they were me to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his rvant that was with him, Come, and let us turn; lest my father leave caring for the asses, nd take thought for us. 6 And he said unto m, Behold now, there is in this city a man of od, and he is an honourable man; all that he ith, cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; radventure he can shew us our way that we ould go. 7 Then said Saul to his servant, ut behold, if we go, what shall we bring the an? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? 8 And the servant an- swered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way. 9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a prophet, was beforetime called a seer.) 10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said, come let us go: so they went unto the city where the man of God was. 11 And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? 12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place. 13 Assoon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice, and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up, for about this time ye shall find him. 14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place. 15 Now the Lord had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying, 16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my peo- ple out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me. 17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of: this same shall reign over my people. 18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seers house is. 19 And Samuel an- swered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place, for ye shall eat with me to day; and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. 20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them, for they are found: and on whom is all the desire of Is- rael? is it not on thee, and on all thy fathers house? 21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me? 22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons. 23 And Samuel said unto the cook, bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee. 24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul: and Samuel said, Behold, that which is left, set it before thee, and eat; for unto this time hath it been kept for thee, since I said, I have invited the people: so Saul did eat with Samuel that day. 25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house. 26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the houſe, ſaying, Up, that I may ſend thee away. And Saul aroſe, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel abroad. 27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel ſaid to Saul, Bid the ſervant paſs on before us, (and he paſſed on) but ſtand thou ſtill a while, that I may ſhew thee the word of God.

For there is a Sacrifice of the People to day in the high Place] In ſeveral Places of Scripture, the Canaanites are ſaid to have had their High Places, whereon they worſhipp'd their Idols, but this is the firſt Inſtance of any belonging to the People of God; and 'tis the Opinion of ſome learned Men, that this Appointment of a private or inferior Place of Worſhip (even while the Ark and Tabernacle were in Being) by ſo great an Authority, as that of Samuel, gave Riſe to the Inſtitution of Synagogues and Proſeuchas in ſo many Places of the Kingdom afterwards. See Patrick's Com.

Bid the Servant paſs on before us] This, ſays Howel, was with Deſign to let Saul underſtand, that what he was going to do, was by the divine Order and Appointment; and that, when it ſhould come to the caſting of Lots (as it did afterwards, 1 Sam. x. 20) he might perceive that he was choſen King by Chance of a Lot. There might be likewiſe this further Reaſon for Samuel's bidding Saul to ſend away his Servant, viz. leſt the People ſuſpecting Samuel to do this by his own Will, more than by God's Appointment, might be inclinable to mutiny. Since this royal Unction then was only deſign'd for Saul's private Satisfaction, it was neceſſary not to have it publiſh'd, before the People had proceeded to a publick Election of their King.

CHAP. X.

Sámuel anoints Saul, and confirms him by a Prediction of three Signs. Saul's Heart is changed, and he propheſies.

Ver. 1. THEN Samuel took a vial of oyl, and poured it upon his head, and kiſſed him, and ſaid, Is it not becauſe the Lord hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance? 2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou ſhalt find two men by Rachels ſepulchre, in the border of Benjamin, at Zelzah: and they will ſay unto thee, the aſſes which thou wenteſt to ſeek are found: and lo, thy father hath left the care of the aſſes, and ſorroweth for you, ſaying, What ſhall I do for my ſon? 3 Then ſhalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou ſhall come to the plain of Tabor, and there ſhall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. 4 And they will ſalute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread, which thou ſhalt receive of their hands. 5 After that, thou ſhalt come to the hill of God, where is the garriſon of the Philiſtines: and it ſhall come to paſs when thou art come thither to the city, that thou ſhalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place, with a pſaltery and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp before them, and they ſhall propheſie. 6 And the ſpirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou ſhalt propheſie with them, and ſhall be turned into another man. 7 And let it be when theſe ſigns are come unto thee, that thou do as occaſion ſhall ſerve thee, for God is with thee. 8 And thou ſhalt go down before me to Gilgal, and behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt-offerings, and to ſacrifice ſacrifices of peace-offerings: ſeven days ſhalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and ſhew thee what thou ſhalt do. 9 And it was ſo, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all thoſe ſigns came to paſs that day. 10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him, and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he propheſied among them. 11 And it came to paſs, when all that knew him before-time, ſaw, that behold, he propheſied among the prophets, then the people ſaid one to another, What is this that is come unto the ſon of Kiſh? is Saul alſo among the prophets? 12 And one of the ſame place anſwered, and ſaid, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul alſo among the prophets? 13 And when he had made an end of propheſying, he came to the high place. 14 And Sauls uncle ſaid unto him, and to his ſervant, Whither went ye? and he ſaid, To ſeek the aſſes: and when we ſaw that they were no where, we came to Samuel. 15 And Sauls uncle ſaid, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel ſaid unto you. 16 And Saul ſaid unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the aſſes were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel ſpake, he told him not. 17 And Samuel called the people together, unto the Lord to Mizpeh; 18 And ſaid unto the children of Iſrael, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, I brought up Iſrael out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppreſſed you. 19 And ye have this day rejected your God, who himſelf ſaved you out of all your adverſities, and your tribulations: and ye have ſaid unto him, Nay, but ſet a king over us. Now therefore preſent your ſelves before the Lord by your tribes, and by your thouſands. 20 And when Samuel had cauſed all the tribes of Iſrael to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. 21 When he had cauſed the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the ſon of Kiſh was taken: and when they ſought him, he could not be found. 22 Therefore they inquired of the Lord further, if the man ſhould yet come thither: and the Lord anſwered, Behold, he hath hid himſelf, among the ſtuff. 23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he ſtood among the people, he was higher than any of the people, from his ſhoulders and upward. 24 And Samuel ſaid to all the people, See ye him whom the Lord hath choſen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people ſhouted, and ſaid, God ſave the king. 25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord: and Samuel ſent all the people away every man to his houſe. 26 And Saul alſo went home to Gibeah, and there went with him a band of men, whoſe hearts God had touched. 27 But the children of Belial ſaid, How ſhall this man ſave us? and they deſpiſed him, and brought him no preſents: but he held his peace.

Th

Then Samuel took a Vial of Oil, and poured it upon his Head] We read, says Patrick, of no expreſs Command for the anointing of Kings, and yet it is plain, from the Parable of Jotham, Judg. ix. 8. that it was a Cuſtom two hundred Years before this Time. Why Oil, rather than any other Liquid, was the Symbol of conveying a regal Authority, we are no where inform'd. 'Tis true, that God directed Moſes to conſecrate Aaron to the High-Prieſt's Office, by anointing his Head with Oil, Exod. xxix. 7. But the anointing of Kings, we may preſume, was of a prior Date. Unction indeed, in the Days of Jacob, was the common Method of ſetting apart from common Uſe even Things inanimate, Gen. xxviii. 18. And therefore it may well be ſuppoſed, that Perſons of ſuch Deſignation, as Kings were, were all along admitted by the ſame Ceremony, which might be of Divine Appointment, perhaps at the firſt Inſtitution of Government, in the Antediluvian World, and thence handed down, by a long Tradition, to future Generations. This Rite of Unction, in ſhort, was ſo much the Divine Care, that we find God giving Moſes a Preſcription how to make the conſecrating Oil, Exod. xxx. 23. But tho' Solomon was anointed with Oil taken from the Tabernacle, yet, ſince Samuel was no Prieſt, and could not therefore have Access to the Tabernacle, which at this Time was at ſome Diſtance from him, it is more reaſonable to think (tho' ſome Jewiſh Doctors will have it otherwiſe) that what he made uſe Uſe of upon this Occaſion, was no more than common Oil.

And they deſpiſed him, and brought him no Preſents] It was a conſtant Cuſtom among the Eaſtern Nations, (ſays Calmet, and is even to this Day, whenever they approached the Prince, to preſent him with ſomething: But here, in the Caſe of Saul, at his firſt Acceſſion to the Throne, it was the proper Method of recognizing him. The Chaldee Paraphraſe ſays, that they did not come to ſalute him, or wiſh him an happy Reign: But this is the ſame Thing, becauſe the firſt Salutation offered to a King, was always attended with Preſents, which carried with them a Sign of Peace and Friendſhip, Congratulation and Joy, and of Subjection and Obedience.

But he held his Peace] In this, ſays Howel, Saul acted a very wiſe and politick Part, as being very unwilling to begin his Reign with any Diſorder or Tumult, which his juſt Reſentment of ſuch an Affront might perhaps have occaſioned. Theſe Sons of Belial (as they are termed) were, very likely, Perſons of ſome Rank and Quality, and therefore they deſpiſed Saul, for his having been related to a ſmall Tribe, and ſprung from an obſcure Family. If then he had taken notice of this Affront, and not revenged it, he had ſhewn himſelf mean ſpirited; and if he had reſented it, as it deſerved, he might both have provoked a Party againſt him, and, at his firſt ſetting out, incurred the cenſure of Raſhneſs and Cruelty: A Prejudice, which, in the future Courſe of his Reign, would be far from doing him any good.

CHAP. XI.

Nahaſh offers the People of Jabeſh-Gilead reproachful Conditions; they deſire Time to ſend for Aſſiſtance; Saul delivers them, and is confirmed King.

1 THEN Nahaſh the Ammonite came up, and encamped againſt Jabeſh-gilead: and all the men of Jabeſh ſaid unto Nahaſh, Make a covenant with us, and we will ſerve thee. 2 And Nahaſh the Ammonite anſwered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thruſt out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Iſrael. 3 And the elders of Jabeſh ſaid unto him, Give us ſeven days reſpite, that we may ſend meſſengers unto all the coaſts of Iſrael: and then if there be no man to ſave us, we will come out to thee. 4 Then came the meſſengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lift up their voices, and wept. 5 And behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field, and Saul ſaid, What alieth the people that they weep? and they told him the tidings of the men of Jabeſh. 6 And the Spirit of God came upon Saul, when he heard thoſe tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly. 7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and ſent them throughout all the coaſts of Iſrael by the hands of meſſengers, ſaying, Whoſoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, ſo ſhall it be done unto his oxen: and the fear of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out with one conſent. 8 And when he numbred them in Bezek, the children of Iſrael were three hundred thouſand, and the men of Judah thirty thouſand. 9 And they ſaid unto the meſſengers that came, Thus ſhall ye ſay unto the men of Jabeſh-gilead, To morrow by that time the ſun be hot, ye ſhall have help. And the meſſengers came and ſhewed it to the men of Jabeſh, and they were glad. 10 Therefore the men of Jabeſh ſaid, To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye ſhall do with us all that ſeemeth good unto you. 11 And it was ſo on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies, and they came into the midſt of the hoſt in the morning watch, and ſlew the Ammonites, until the heat of the day: and it came to paſs, that they which remained were ſcattered, ſo that two of them were not left together. 12 And the people ſaid unto Samuel, Who is he that ſaid, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death. 13 And Saul ſaid, There ſhall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the Lord hath wrought ſalvation in Iſrael. 14 Then ſaid Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. 15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they ſacrificed ſacrifices of peace-offerings, before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Iſrael rejoiced greatly.

Then Nahaſh the Ammonite came up, and encamped againſt Jabeſh-gilead] This Town lay on the Eaſt-ſide of Jordan, and not far diſtant from the Ammonites, who beſieged it. It was in Being in the Times of Euſebius and St. Jerom, and was ſituate upon a Hill about ſix Miles diſtant from Pella, as one goes to Geraſa. It is ſometimes in Scripture ſimply called Jabeſh, and what the Inhabitants are farther remarkable for, is their grateful Remembrance of the Benefits they had receiv'd from Saul, when, after his Death, having heard, that the Philiſtines had faſtened his Body to the Wall of Beth-ſhan, they went all Night, and took the Body of Saul, and the Bodies of his Sons from the Wall, and came to Jabeſh, and burnt them there, and took their Bones, and buried them under a Tree at Jabeſh, and faſted ſeven Days; for which they were highly commended by David, 2 Sam. ii. 5. See Wells's Geogr.

On this Condition will I make a Covenant with you, that I may thruſt out all your right Eyes, and lay it for a Reproach upon all Iſrael] The Reaſon why Nahaſh was for having their right Eyes put out, was not only to bring a Reproach upon Iſrael, as himſelf declares, but to diſable them likewiſe from ſerving in War; for, as the Manner of fighting in thoſe Days was chiefly with Bow and Arrow, Sword or Shield, the Loſs of the Right Eye made them incapable of either; becauſe, in Combat, the left Eye is covered with the Shield, and in in ſhooting with the Bow, 'tis uſual to wink with it, ſo that depriving them of their Right Eye made them uſeleſs in War: And yet this barbarous King thought it not proper to put out both their Eyes; for then he would have made them utterly incapable of doing him the Service, or of acquiring the Tribute for him, which he expected from them.

Give us ſeven Days Reſpite] It may ſeem a little ſtrange, ſays Patrick, that this barbarous Prince ſhould be willing to allow the Jabeſhites the Reſpite of ſeven Days; but Joſephus aſſigns this Reaſon for it, viz. that he had ſo mean an Opinion of the People, that he made no Difficulty to comply with their Requeſt. Saul had indeed been appointed King, but having not yet taken upon him the Government, he liv'd, juſt as he did before, in a private Condition, 1 Sam. xi. 5. So that had he, upon this Notice, endeavoured to levy an Army, he could ſcarce think it poſſible to be done in ſo ſhort a Space as ſeven Days; and therefore he thought he might grant them theſe Conditions without any Danger, and without driving them to Deſperation, as he might have done, had he denied them their Requeſt.

CHAP. XII.

Samuel challenges the People to lay any Thing to his Charge; reaſons with them about the great Things God had done for Iſrael; ſhews them their Wickedneſs in aſking a King, which he confirms by calling down a Storm of Thunder and Rain.

Ver. 1. AND Samuel ſaid unto all Iſrael, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye ſaid unto me, and have made a king over you. 2 And now behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old, and gray-headed, and behold, my ſons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. 3 Behold, here I am, witneſs againſt me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whoſe ox have I taken? or whoſe aſs have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppreſſed? or of whoſe hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will reſtore it you. 4 And they ſaid, Thou haſt not defrauded us, nor oppreſſed us, neither haſt thou taken ought of any mans hand. 5 And he ſaid unto them, The Lord is witneſs againſt you, and his anointed is witneſs this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they anſwered, He is witneſs. 6 And Samuel ſaid unto the people, It is the Lord that advanced Moſes and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. 7 Now therefore ſtand ſtill, that I may reaſon with you before the Lord, of all the righteous acts of the Lord, which he did to you and to your fathers. 8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the Lord, then the Lord ſent Moſes and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. 9 And when they forgat the Lord their God, he ſold them into the hand of Siſera, captain of the hoſt of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philiſtines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought againſt them. 10 And they cried unto the Lord, and ſaid, We have ſinned, becauſe we have forſaken the Lord, and have ſerved Baalim and Aſhtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will ſerve thee. 11 And the Lord ſent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthath, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every ſide, and ye dwelled ſafe. 12 And when ye ſaw that Nahaſh the king of the children of Ammon came againſt you, ye ſaid unto me, Nay, but a king ſhall reign over us; when the Lord your God was your king. 13 Now therefore, behold the king whom ye have choſen, and whom ye have deſired: and behold, the Lord hath ſet a king over you. 14 If ye will fear the Lord, and ſerve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel againſt the commandment of the Lord, then ſhall both ye, and alſo the king that reigneth over you, continue following the Lord your God. 15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but rebel againſt the commandment of the Lord, then ſhall the hand of the Lord be againſt you, as it was againſt your fathers. 16 Now therefore ſtand and ſee this great thing which the Lord will do before your eyes. 17 Is it not wheat-harveſt to day? I will call unto the Lord, and he ſhall ſend thunder and rain: that ye may perceive and ſee that your wickedneſs is great, which ye have done in the ſight of the Lord, in aſking you a king. 18 So Samuel called unto the Lord, and the Lord ſent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel. 19 And all the people ſaid unto Samuel, Pray for thy ſervants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our ſins this evil, to aſk us a king. 20 And Samuel ſaid unto the people, Fear not: (ye have done all this wickedneſs: yet turn not aſide from following the Lord, but ſerve the Lord with all your heart; 21 And turn ye not aſide: for then ſhould ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver, for they are vain) 22 For the Lord will not forſake his people, for his great names ſake: becauſe it hath pleaſed the Lord to make you his people. 23 Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I ſhould ſin againſt the Lord, in ceaſing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way. 24 Only fear the Lord, And ſerve him in truth with all your heart: for conſider how great things he hath done for you. 25 But if ye ſhall ſtill do wickedly, ye ſhall be conſumed, both ye and your king.

Is it not Wheat-harveſt to-day] It is an Obſervation of St. Jerom, that this Harveſt in Judea began about the End of June, or the Beginning of July, in which Seaſon, Thunder and Rain was never known, but only in the Spring and Autumn, the one called the former, and the other the latter Rain; and therefore Samuel by this Preamble, Is it not Wheat-Harveſt to Day? meant to ſignify the Greatneſs of the Miracle God was going to work; that he could in an Inſtant, and in a Time when they leaſt expected it, deprive them of all the Comforts of Life, as they juſtly deſerved, for their rejecting him, and his Prophet, who was ſo powerful with him, as, by his Prayers to produce ſuch Wonders.

CHAP. XIII.

Saul appoints his Guard. Jonathan ſmites a Garriſon of the Philiſtines. The Iſraelites diſtreſſed. Saul, weary of waiting for Samuel, ſacrifices for which Samuel reproves him.

Ver. 1. SAUL reigned one year, and when he had reigned two years over Iſrael, Saul choſe him three thouſand men of Iſrael, whereof two thouſand were with Saul in Michmaſh and

and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. 3 And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it: and Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. 4 And all Israel heard say, that Saul had smitten a garison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines: and the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal. 5 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horse-men, and people as the sand which is on the sea-shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, east-ward from Beth-aven. 6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a straight, (for the people were distressed) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits. 7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead: as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. 8 And he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, and the people were scattered from him. 9 And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt-offering to me, and peace-offerings. And he offered the burnt-offering. 10 And it came to pass, that assoon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came, and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him. 11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together to Michmash: 12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the Lord: I forced my self therefore, and offered a burnt-offering. 13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the Lord have stablished thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. 14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord commanded thee. 15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal, unto Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul numbered the people that were present with him, about six hundred men. 16 And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. 17 And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual. 18 And another company turned the way to Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border, that looketh to the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness. 19 Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears) 20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share and his coulter, and his ax, and his mattock. 21 Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads. 22 So it came to pass in the day of battel, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found. 23 And the garison of the Philistnes went out to the passage of Michmash.

And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight against Israel, thirty thousand Chariots] The Words in the Original, and in our Translation, are thirty Thousand; but the Syriack and Arabick Versions, make them no more than three thousand. And whoever considers, that Pharaoh, when he had mustered all his Forces could bring but 600 of these Chariots into the Field, and all the other Princes, whose Equipages are related in Scripture, much fewer, must needs think it a Thing incredible, that the Philistines, out of their small Territories, which extended no further than the two Tribes of Simeon and Dan, along the Coasts of the Mediterranean Sea, could ever be able to raise so vast an Armament; no, not all the Nations that they could possibly call in to their Assistance. For, besides that, in the Account of all Armies, the Cavalry is always more numerous than the Chariots of War, (which is different here) the largest Armies, that we ever read of, were able to compass a very few of these Chariots, in comparison of the Number here specified. Mithridates, in his vast Army, had but a hundred; Darius but two; and Antiochus Epiphanes (2 Macc. xiii. 2.) but three. So that we must either say, that the Transcribers made a Mistake in the Hebrew Copy, or (with some other Commentators) suppose, that these thirty thousand Chariots were not Chariots of War, but most of them Carriages only, for the Conveyance of the Baggage belonging to such a vast Multitude of Men, or for the Deportation of the Plunder. See Le Clerc's Com. and Univ. Hist.

And they came up, and pitched in Michmash] Eusebius and St. Jerom inform us, that in their Time, there was a large Town of that Name, lying about nine Miles from Jerusalem, near Ramah; and the Text tells us, that it was eastward from Beth-aven. Now Beth-aven, which signifies the House of Iniquity, is supposed to be the same with Bethel, and was so called after that Jeroboam, the Son of Nebat, had set up his golden Calves to be worshipped here: But, as Bethel lay to the East of Michmash, and not Michmash to the East of Bethel, as the Text seems to say, the Translation should be, that they encamped at Michmash, having Beth-aven on the East, i. e. they seized on that Post, which Saul had before in Michmash, on Mount Bethel, Ver. 2. See Calmet's Com.

CHAP. XIV.

Jonathan miraculously smites the Philistines Garison. God strikes a Terror through their Host. By Saul's unadvised Oath, the Victory is render'd incomplete, and Jonathan had like to have lost his Life, but is rescued by the People.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines garison, that is on the other side: but he told not his father. 2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah, under a pomegranate-tree, which is in Migron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men; 3 And Ahiah the son of Ahitub, I-chabods brother, the son of Phinehas, the the ſon of Eli, the Lords prieſt in Shiloh, wearing an ephod: and the people knew not that Jonathan was gone. 4 And between the paſſages, by which Jonathan ſought to go over unto the Philiſtines garriſon, there was a ſharp rock on the one ſide, and a ſharp rock on the other ſide: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. 5 The forefront of the one was ſituate north-ward over againſt Michmaſh, and the other ſouth-ward over againſt Gibeah. 6 And Jonathan ſaid to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the gariſon of theſe uncircumciſed; it may be that the Lord will work for us: for there is no reſtraint to the Lord, to ſave by many or by few. 7 And his armour-bearer ſaid unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee, behold, I am with thee according to thy heart. 8 Then ſaid Jonathan, Behold, we will paſs over unto theſe men, and we will diſcover our ſelves unto them. 9 If they ſay thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will ſtand ſtill in our place, and will not go up unto them. 10 But if they ſay thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand; and this ſhall be a ſign unto us. 11 And both of them diſcovered themſelves unto the gariſon of the Philiſtines: and the Philiſtines ſaid, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes, where they had hid themſelves. 12 And the men of the gariſon anſwered Jonathan and his armour bearer, and ſaid, Come up to us, and we will ſhew you a thing. And Jonathan ſaid unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me; for the Lord hath delivered them into the hand of Iſrael. 13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands, and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer ſlew after him. 14 And that firſt ſlaughter which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow. 15 And there was trembling in the hoſt, in the field, and among all the people: the gariſon, and the ſpoilers, they alſo trembled, and the earth quaked: ſo it was a very great trembling. 16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another. 17 Then ſaid Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and ſee who is gone from us. And when they had numbred, behold Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there. 18 And Saul ſaid unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God: (for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Iſrael) 19 And it came to paſs while Saul talked unto the prieſt, that the noiſe that was in the hoſt of the Philiſtines went on, and increaſed: and Saul ſaid unto the prieſt, Withdraw thine hand. 20 And Saul and all the people that were with him, aſſembled themſelves, and they came to the battle: and behold, every mans ſword was againſt his fellow, and there was a very great diſcomfiture. 21 Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philiſtines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they alſo turned to be with the Iſraelites, that were with Saul and Jonathan. 22 Likewiſe all the men of Iſrael which had hid themſelves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philiſtines fled, even they alſo followed hard after them in the battle. 23 So the Lord ſaved Iſrael that day: and the battle paſſed over unto Beth-aven. 24 And the men of Iſrael were diſtreſſed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, ſaying, Curſed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies: ſo none of the people taſted any food. 25 And all they of the land came to a wood, and there was honey upon the ground. 26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold the honey dropped, but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath. 27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an honey-comb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. 28 Then anſwered one of the people, and ſaid, Thy father ſtraitly charged the people with an oath, ſaying, Curſed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint. 29 Then ſaid Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: ſee, pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightned, becauſe I taſted a little of this honey: 30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the ſpoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater ſlaughter among the Philiſtines? 31 And they ſmote the Philiſtines that day from Michmaſh to Aijalon; and the people were very faint. 32 And the people flew upon the ſpoil, and took ſheep, and oxen, and calves, and ſlew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the bloud. 33 Then they told Saul, ſaying, Behold, the people ſin againſt the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he ſaid, Ye have tranſgreſſed: roll a great ſtone unto me this day. 34 And Saul ſaid, Diſperſe your ſelves among the people, and ſay unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his ſheep, and ſlay them here and eat; and ſin not againſt the Lord in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and ſlew them there. 35 And Saul built an altar unto the Lord: the ſame was the firſt altar that he built unto the Lord. 36 And Saul ſaid, Let us go down after the Philiſtines by night, and ſpoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they ſaid, Do whatſoever ſeemeth good unto thee. Then ſaid the prieſt, Let us draw near hither unto God. 37 And Saul aſked counſel of God, Shall I go down after the Philiſtines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Iſrael? but he anſwered him not that day. 38 And Saul ſaid, draw ye near hither all the chief of the people: and know and ſee wherein this ſin hath been this day. 39 For as the Lord liveth, which ſaveth Iſrael, though it be in Jonathan my ſon, he ſhall ſurely die. But there was not a man among all the people that anſwered him. 40 Then ſaid he unto all Iſrael, Be ye on one ſide, and I and Jonathan my ſon will be on the other ſide. And the people ſaid unto Saul, Do what ſeemeth good unto thee. 41 Therefore Saul ſaid unto the Lord God of Iſrael, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people eſcaped. 42 And Saul ſaid, Caſt lots between and Jonathan my ſon. And Jonathan was aken. 43 Then Saul ſaid to Jonathan, Tell me what thou haſt done. And Jonathan told him, and ſaid, I did but taſte a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and lo, I muſt die. 44 And Saul anſwered, God do ſo, and more alſo: for thou ſhalt ſurely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people ſaid unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great ſalvation in Iſ-rael? God forbid: as the Lord liveth, there ſhall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people reſcued Jonathan, that he died not. 46
Then Saul went up from following the Philiſtines:
and the Philiſtines went to their own place. 47
So Saul took the kingdom over Iſrael, and fought against all his enemies on every ſide, againſt Moab, and againſt the children of Ammon, and againſt Edom, and againſt the kings of Zobah, and againſt the Philiſtines: and whitherſoever he turned himſelf he vexed them. 48 And he gathered an hoſt, and ſmote the Amalekites, and delivered Iſrael out of the hands of them that ſpoiled them. 49 Now the ſons of Saul were Jonathan, and Iſhui, and Melchi-ſhua: and the names of his two daughters were theſe; the name of the firſt-born Merab, and the name of the younger Michal: 50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz, and the name of the captain of his hoſt was Abner, the ſon of Ner, Sauls uncle. 51 And Kiſh was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the ſon of Abiel. 52 And there was ſore war againſt the Philiſtines all the days of Saul: and when Saul ſaw any ſtrong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

And Jonathan ſaid unto the young Man that bear his Armour, Come, and let us go over unto the Garriſon of these Uncircumciſed] This Action of Jonathan's, conſidered in itſelf, ſays Patrick, was doubtleſs a very raſh Attempt, and contrary to the Laws of War, which forbid all under Command (as he was) from engaging the Enemy, or entring upon any Enterprize without the General's Order; but what may be very juſtly pleaded in Excuſe of it is, That he had a Divine Incitation, which he might very probably feel, upon Sight of the Philiſtines appearing as if they intended to aſſault Gibeah, and upon the Information, which he might receive, of the great Spoil which the three Parties made of the poor People in the Country.

And Saul anſwered, God do ſo, and more alſo; for thou ſhalt ſurely die, Jonathan] To this, Joſephus introduces the Son making his Father an Anſwer, not unlike that which Jephthah's Daughter, upon a like Occaſion, returned to him: 'That Death, ſays he, ſhall be welcome to me, which acquits my Father of the Obligation of a religious Vow, and only befals me, as a Conſequence of ſo glorious a Victory to him that gave me Being. I have lived long enough, ſince I have lived to ſee the Pride and Inſolence of the Philiſtines brought down by the Hebrews, which will ſerve me for a Conſolation in all my other Sufferings.' The Hiſtorian tells us farther, that the whole Multitude were ſo charmed with the Piety and Bravery of the young Man, that, in an Extaſy of Tenderneſs and Compaſſion, they took him away out of the Hands of his incenſed Father, with an Oath, that they would not ſuffer an Hair of that Perſon's Head to be touched, who had been ſo inſtrumental in a Victory, that tended to the Preſervation of them all.

CHAP. XV.

Samuel ſends Saul to deſtroy Amalek; which he performs, but ſpares Agag, and the beſt of the Spoil. Samuel reproves Saul, and kills Agag.

Ver. 1. Samuel alſo ſaid unto Saul, The Lord ſent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Iſrael: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the Lord. 2 Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſts, I remember that which Amalek did to Iſrael, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt. 3 Now go, and ſmite Amalek, and utterly deſtroy all that they they have, and ſpare them not; but ſlay both man and woman, infant and ſuckling, ox and ſheep, camel and aſs. 4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thouſand footmen, and ten thouſand men of Judah. 5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley. 6 And Saul ſaid unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, leſt I deſtroy you with them: for ye ſhewed kindneſs to all the children of Iſrael when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 7 And Saul ſmote the Amalekites from Havilah, until thou comeſt to Shur, that is over againſt Egypt. 8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly deſtroyed all the people with the edge of the ſword. 9 But Saul and the people ſpared Agag, and the beſt of the ſheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly deſtroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuſe, that they deſtroyed utterly. 10 Then came the word of the Lord unto Samuel, ſaying, 11 It repenteth me that I have ſet up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord all night. 12 And when Samuel roſe early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, ſaying, Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he ſet him up a place, and is gone about, and paſſed on, and gone down to Gilgal. 13 And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul ſaid unto him, Bleſſed be thou of the Lord: I have performed the commandment of the Lord. 14 And Samuel ſaid, What meaneth then this bleating of the ſheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? 15 And Saul ſaid, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people ſpared the beſt of the ſheep and of the oxen, to ſacrifice unto the Lord thy God, and the reſt we have utterly deſtroyed. 16 Then Samuel ſaid unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath ſaid to me this night. And he ſaid unto him, Say on. 17 And Samuel ſaid, When thou waſt little in thine own ſight, waſt thou not made the head of the tribes of Iſrael, and the Lord anointed thee king over Iſrael? 18 And the Lord ſent thee on a journey, and ſaid, Go, and utterly deſtroy the ſinners the Amalekites, and fight againſt them until they be conſumed. 19 Wherefore then didſt thou not obey the voice of the Lord, but didſt fly upon the ſpoil, and didſt evil in the ſight of the Lord? 20 And Saul ſaid unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and have gone the way which the Lord ſent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly deſtroyed the Amalekites. 21 But the people took of the ſpoil, ſheep and oxen, the chief of the things which ſhould have been utterly deſtoyed, to ſacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal. 22 And Samuel ſaid, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and ſacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than ſacrifice; and to hearken, than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is as the ſin of witchcraft, and ſtubbornneſs is as iniquity and idolatry: becauſe thou haſt rejected the word of the Lord, he hath alſo rejected thee from being king. 24 And Saul ſaid unto Samuel, I have ſinned: for I have tranſgreſſed the commandment of the Lord and thy words: becauſe I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. 25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my ſin, and turn again with me, that I may worſhip the Lord. 26 And Samuel ſaid unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou haſt rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath rejected thee from being king over Iſrael. 27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the ſkirt of his mantle, and it rent. 28 And Samuel ſaid unto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdom of Iſrael from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou. 29 And alſo the ſtrength of Iſrael will not lie, nor repent: for he is not a man that he ſhould repent. 30 Then he ſaid, I have ſinned; yet honour me now I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Iſrael, and turn again with me, that I may worſhip the Lord thy God. 31 So Samuel turned again after Saul, and Saul worſhipped the Lord. 32 Then ſaid Samuel, Bring you hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag ſaid, Surely the bitterneſs of death is paſt. 33 And Samuel ſaid, As thy ſword hath made women childleſs, ſo ſhall thy mother be childleſs among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal. 34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his houſe to Gibeah of Saul. 35 And Samuel came no more to ſee Saul until the day of his death: nevertheleſs, Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Iſrael.

But Saul and the People ſpared Agag] Joſephus ſeems to hint, that Saul ſaved this Amalekite King alive, becauſe he was taken with the Comelineſs and Majeſty of his Perſon; but others rather think, that he intended him to decorate his Triumph. For when it is ſaid of Saul, that he came to Carmel after this Victory, and ſet him up a Place, 1 Sam. xv. 12. the Word Jad, they ſay, will ſignify an Arch, as well as any Thing eiſe; and thence they conclude, tbat Saul's Purpoſe was to erect a triumphal Arch, in Memory of his Defeat of the Amalekites; and that he kept their King alive, to be led captive in that magnificent Proceſſion, wherein he was to make a Diſplay of his Victory.

CHAP. XVI.

Samuel anoints David King. Saul is troubled with an Evil Spirit, which departs from him upon David's playing upon his Harp.

Ver. 1. AND the Lord ſaid unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, ſeeing I have rejected him from reigning over Iſrael? fill thine horn with oyl, and go, I will ſend thee to Jeſſe the Beth-lehemite: for I have provided me a king among his ſons. 2 And Samuel ſaid, How can I go? If Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the Lord ſaid, take an heifer with thee, and ſay, I am come to ſacrifice to the Lord. 3 And call Jeſſe to the ſacrifice, and I will ſhew thee what thou ſhalt do: and thou ſhalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee. 4 And Samuel did that which the Lord ſpake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and ſaid, Comeſt thou peaceably? 5 And he ſaid, Peaceably: I am come to ſacrifice unto the Lord: ſanctifie your ſelves, and come with me to the ſacrifice. And he ſanctified Jeſſe and his ſons, and called them to the ſacrifice. 6 And it came to paſs when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and ſaid, Surely the Lords anointed is before him. 7 But the Lord ſaid unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his ſtature; becauſe I have refuſed him: for the LORD ſeeth not as man ſeeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. 8 Then Jeſſe called Abinadab, and made him paſs before Samuel: and he ſaid, Neither hath the Lord choſen this. 9 Then Jeſſe made Shammah to paſs by: and he ſaid, Neither hath the Lord choſen this. 10 Again Jeſſe made ſeven of his ſons to paſs before Samuel: and Samuel ſaid unto Jeſſe, The Lord hath not choſen theſe. 11 And Samuel ſaid unto Jeſſe, Are here all thy children? And he ſaid, There remaineth yet the youngeſt, and behold, he keepeth the ſheep. And Samuel ſaid unto Jeſſe, Send and fetch him: for we will not ſit down till he come hither. 12 And he ſent, and brought him in: Now he was ruddy, and withall of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the Lord ſaid, Ariſe, anoint him: for this is he. 13 Then Samuel took the horn of oyl, and anointed him in the midſt of his brethren: and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David, from that day forward: ſo Samuel roſe up and went to Ramah. 14 But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil ſpirit from the Lord troubled him. 15 And Sauls ſervant ſaid unto him, Behold now, an evil ſpirit from God troubleth thee. 16 Let our lord now command thy ſervants which are before thee, to ſeek out a man who is a cunning player on a harp: and it ſhall come to paſs when the evil ſpirit from God is upon thee, that he ſhall play with his hand, and thou ſhalt be well. 17 And Saul ſaid to his ſervants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me. 18 Then anſwered one of the ſervants, and ſaid, Behold, I have ſeen a ſon of Jeſſe the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely perſon, and the Lord is with him. 19 Wherefore Saul ſent meſſengers unto Jeſſe, and ſaid, Send me David thy ſon, which is with the ſheep. 20 And Jeſſe took an aſs laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and ſent them by David his ſon unto Saul. 21 And David came to Saul, and ſtood before him; and he loved him greatly, and he became his armour-bearer. 22 And Saul ſent to Jeſſe, ſaying, Let David, I pray thee, ſtand before

And David put his hand in his Bag, & took thence a Stone, & slung it, & smote the Philistine in his forehead, that ỹ Stone sunk into his forehead; that he fell upon his face to the Earth.

Samuel the 1.st Chap. XVII, Verse 49

Therefore David ran & stood upon the Philistine, and took his Sword, & drew it out of the Sheath thereof, & slew him, & cut off his head therewith. & when the Philistines saw their Champion was dead, they fled.

before me: for he hath found favour in my ſight. 29 And it came to paſs, when the evil ſpirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: ſo Saul was refreſhed, and was well, and the evil ſpirit departed from him.

Then Samuel took the Horn of Oil, and anointed him in the Midſt of his Brethren] For this, it is pretended that, as this Unction was a ſolemn Act, and the only Title which David had to the Kingdom, it was neceſſary to have it done in the Preſence of ſome Witneſſes, for which none were more proper than thoſe of his own Family. But it is plain from his Brother Eliab's treating him after this (Ch. xvii. 28.) that he was not privy to his being anointed King elect over God's People; and therefore, ſince the Words will equally bear the Senſe of from the Midſt, as well as in the Midſt of his Brethren, it is more reaſonable to ſuppoſe, that, as this was the Ceremony of his Deſignation to the Kingdom only, few or none (except his Father perhaps) was admitted. And there was the leſs Reaſon for Witneſſes upon this Occaſion, becauſe David never did claim the Crown till after Saul's Deceaſe, and was then, at two ſeveral Times, 1*ſt*. When he was made King over the Tribe of Judah; and 2*dly*. When made King over all the Tribes of Iſrael, anointed publickly. See Calmet's and Patrick's Com. and Howel's Notes.

But, with all Deference to the Judgment of theſe learned Gentlemen, I muſt be of Opinion, that Samuel did (according to the literal Meaning of the Words) anoint David in the Midſt of his Brethren; and that their Argument to prove the contrary, from Eliab's contemptuous Treatment of him afterwards, is fallacious. For, as Eliab appears to be of a haughty diſdainful Temper, tho' he was conſcious that Samuel had anointed David, yet as a conſiderable Time had elapſed between that Tranſaction, and their Meeting in the Army, and that David was actually tending the Sheep when his Father ſent him to viſit his Brethren, Eliab might, very probably, take that Opportunity to uſe him in the haughty Manner we read he did, and to vent his Spleen againſt him for being prefer'd by Samuel, tho' the youngeſt, to him, who was the Eldeſt Son of his Father, in the grand Affair of the Unction. Nor can I conceive it poſſible that Eliab ſhould be ignorant of the Tranſaction between Samuel and David, ſince not only he, but every one of the Brothers were called for upon this Occaſion, and paſſed before Samuel, who, not chuſing either of them, and being told that there was another in the Field, orders him to be ſent for, and adds, We will not ſet down till he comes. We, that is, we who are preſent, Father, Brothers, and myſelf. This ſeems to me the moſt eaſy and natural Conſtruction of the Words: Nor is it incongruous to ſuppoſe, that Samuel might enjoin them all Silence, upon this momentous Occaſion. J. M.

But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil Spirit from the Lord troubled him] Joſephus, and many late Authors are of Opinion, that this evil Spirit was a deep Melancholy which Saul had contracted upon his being rejected by God, and deprived by Samuel.

CHAP. XVII.

Goliah's Challenge, which David accepts, and kills him.

Ver. 1. NOW the Philiſtines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. 2 And Saul and the men of Iſrael were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and ſet the battle in array againſt the Philiſtines. 3 And the Philiſtines ſtood on a mountain on the one ſide, and Iſrael ſtood on a mountain on the other ſide: and there was a valley between them. 4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philiſtines, named Goliath, of Gath, whoſe height was ſix cubits and a ſpan. 5 And he had an helmet of braſs upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail: and the weight of the coat was five thouſand ſhekels of braſs. 6 And he had greaves of braſs upon his legs, and a target of braſs between his ſhoulders. 7 And the ſtaff of his ſpear was like a weavers beam, and his ſpears head weighed ſix hundred ſhekels of iron: and one bearing a ſhield, went before him. 8 And he ſtood and cried unto the armies of Iſrael, and ſaid unto them, Why are ye come out to ſet your battle in array? am not I a Philiſtine, and you ſervants to Saul? chooſe you a man for you, and let him come down to me. 9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your ſervants: but if I prevail againſt him, and kill him, then ſhall ye be our ſervants, and ſerve us. 10 And the Philiſtine ſaid, I defie the armies of Iſrael this day; give me a man, that we may fight together. 11 When Saul and all Iſrael heard thoſe words of the Philiſtine, they were diſmayed and greatly afraid. 12 Now David was the ſon of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whoſe name was Jeſſe, and he had eight ſons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul. 13 And the three eldeſt ſons of Jeſſe went, and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three ſons that went to the battle, were Eliab the firſt-born, and next unto him, Aminadab, and the third Shammah. 14 And David was the youngeſt: and the three eldeſt followed Saul. 15 But David went, and returned from Saul, to feed his fathers ſheep at Beth-lehem. 16 And the Philiſtine drew near, morning and evening, and preſented himſelf forty days. 17 And Jeſſe ſaid unto David his ſon, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and theſe ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren. 18 And carry theſe ten cheeſes unto the captain of their thouſand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge. 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Iſrael were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philiſtines. 20 And David roſe up early in the morning, and left the ſheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jeſſe had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the hoſt was going forth to the fight, and ſhouted for the battel. 21 For Iſrael and the Philiſtines had put the battle in aray, army againſt army. 22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and ſaluted his brethren. 23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion (the Philiſtine of Gath, Goliah by name) out of the armies of the Philiſtines, and ſpake according to the ſame words: and David heard them. 24 And all the men of Iſrael, when they ſaw the man, fled from him, and were ſore afraid. 25 And the men of Iſrael ſaid, Have ye ſeen this man that is come up? ſurely to defie Iſrael is he come up: and it ſhall be that the man who killeth him, the king will inrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his fathers houſe free in Iſrael. 26 And David ſpake to the men that ſtood by him, ſaying, What ſhall be done to the man that killeth this Philiſtine, and taketh away the reproach from Iſrael?

Iſrael? for who is this uncircumciſed Philiſtine, that he ſhould defie the armies of the living God? 27 And the people anſwered him after this manner, ſaying, So ſhall it be done to the man that killeth him. 28 And Eliab his eldeſt brother heard when he ſpake unto the men; and Eliabs anger was kindled againſt David, and he ſaid, Why cameſt thou down hither? and with whom haſt thou left thoſe few ſheep in the wilderneſs? I know thy pride, and the naughtineſs of thine heart; for thou art come down, that thou mighteſt ſee the battel. 29 And David ſaid, What have I now done? Is there not a cauſe? 30 And he turned from him towards another, and ſpake after the ſame manner: and the people anſwered him again after the former manner. 31 And when the words were heard, which David ſpake, they rehearſed them before Saul: and he ſent for him. 32 And David ſaid to Saul, Let no mans heart fail becauſe of him; thy ſervant will go and fight the Philiſtine. 33 And Saul ſaid to David, Thou art not able to go againſt the Philiſtine, to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. 34 And David ſaid unto Saul, Thy ſervant kept his fathers ſheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: 35 And I went out after him, and ſmote him, aad delivered it out of his mouth: and when he aroſe againſt me, I caught him by his beard, and ſmote him and ſlew him. 36 Thy ſervant ſlew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumciſed Philiſtine ſhall be as one of them, ſeeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. 37 David ſaid moreover, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philiſtine. And Saul ſaid unto David, Go, and the Lord be with thee. 38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of braſs upon his head, alſo he armed him with a coat of mail. 39 And David girded his ſword upon his armour, and he aſſayed to go, for he had not proved it: and David ſaid unto Saul, I cannot go with theſe: for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. 40 And he took his ſtaff in his hand, and choſe him five ſmooth ſtones out of the brook, and put them in a ſhepherds bag which he had, even in a ſcrip, and his ſling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philiſtine. 41 And the Philiſtine came on and drew near unto David, and the man that bare the ſhield went before him. 42 And when the Philiſtine looked about and ſaw David, he diſdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance. 43 And the Philiſtine ſaid unto David, Am I a dog, that thou cometh to me with ſtaves? and the Philiſtine curſed David by his gods. 44 And the Philiſtine ſaid unto David, Come to me, and I will give thy fleſh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beaſts of the field. 45 Then ſaid David to the Philiſtine, Thou cometh to me with a ſword, and with a ſpear, and with a ſhield; but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hoſts, the God of the armies of Iſrael, whom thou haſt defied. 46 This day will the Lord deliver thee into mine hand, and I will ſmite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I will give the carcaſes of the hoſt of the Philiſtines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beaſts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Iſrael. 47 And all this aſſembly ſhall know that the Lord ſaveth not with ſword and ſpear: for the battle is the Lords, and he will give you into our hands. 48 And it came to paſs when the Philiſtine aroſe, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David haſted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philiſtine. 49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a ſtone, and ſlang it, and ſmote the Philiſtine in his forehead, that the ſtone ſunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. 50 So David prevailed over the Philiſtine with a ſling and with a ſtone, and ſmote the Philiſtine and ſlew him; but there was no ſword in the hand of David. 51 Therefore David ran and ſtood upon the Philiſtine, and took his ſword, and drew it out of the ſheath thereof, and ſlew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philiſtines ſaw their champion was dead, they fled. 52 And the men of Iſrael and of Judah aroſe, and ſhouted, and purſued the Philiſtines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron: and the wounded of the Philiſtines fell down by the way to Shaarim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron. 53 And the children of Iſrael returned from chaſing after the Philiſtines, and they ſpoiled their tents. 54 And David took the head of the Philiſtine, and brought it to Jeruſalem; but he put his armour in his tent. 55 And when Saul ſaw David go forth againſt the Philiſtine, he ſaid unto Abner the captain of the hoſt, Abner, whoſe ſon is this youth? And Abner ſaid, As thy ſoul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. 56 And the king ſaid, Enquire thou whoſe ſon the ſtripling is. 57 And as David returned from the ſlaughter of the Philiſtine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philiſtine in his hand. 58 And Saul ſaid unto him, Whoſe ſon art thou, thou young man? And David anſwered, I am the ſon of thy ſervant Jeſſe the Beth-lehemite.

And pitched between Shocoh and Azekah] Shocoh and Azekah lay to the South of Jeruſalem, about four Leagues from it, and five Eaſt of Bethlehem; and the Valley of Elah muſt conſequently lie not far from them; tho' later Travellers place it at no more than a League's Diſtance from Jeruſalem.

Whoſe Height was ſix Cubits and a Span] So that, taking a Cubit to be twenty Inches and a half, and a Span to be three Inches, and a little more, the Whole will amount to about twelve Feet and an half: A Stature above as tall again as uſual! The loweſt Computation of the Cubit however brings it to near [illegible] which is the Standard we have ſet it at; tho' it muſt not be diſſembled, that both the Septuagint and Joſephus have reduc'd it to little more than eight Feet, which but badly comports with the Weight and Vaſtneſs of his Armour, tho' it might ſuit their Deſign perhaps in accommodating their Account to the Credibility of the Heathen Readers. But be that as it will, ſeveral Authors (to ſhew this vaſt Size of the Man not to be beyond the Bounds of Probability) have written [illegible] de Gigantibus; among whom Hermannus Conringius has demonſtrated, that the antient Germans were of a prodigious Size, even as Cæſar teſtifies of them, by calling them immani Corporum magnitudine Homines, Men of a huge Greatneſs of Body. Nay, even Joſephus himſelf, who is quoted for denying the Exiſtence of Giants, furniſhes us with an Argument in their Behalf, when he gives us an Account of ſome Bones of a prodigious Size which were found in Hebron; as Acoſta, in his Hiſtory of the Indies, makes Mention of Bones of an incredible Bigneſs and and of a Race of Giants of such a Height, that an ordinary Man could scarce reach to their Knees. See Le Clerc's and Patrick's Com. and Calmet's Dict.

And Jesse said unto David his Son, Take now for thy Brethren an Ephah of this parched Corn] In those Days it was customary for Men to serve their King and Country in the Wars at their own Expence; and therefore Jesse sent a Supply of Provisions to such of his Sons as were in the Service: But, since he had other Sons at home, while David was chiefly in the Field, it seems to be a Divine Direction, that he sent him from the Sheep upon this Errand.

The Stone sunk into his Forehead] If it should be ask'd, how this could possibly be when Goliah was arm'd so completely, and, in particular is said to have had an Helmet of Brass upon his Head? 'Tis but supposing, that this arrogant Champion, in Disdain of this inferior Combatant, might come negligently towards him, and his Forehead bare. 'Tis highly probable, that when he made this menacing Speech to David, he might turn back his Helmet, both to speak, and be more distinctly heard; and there was no such Terror in David's Appearance, as might induce him to cover his Forehead again. But, admitting he did, 'tis but supposing, that David levell'd his Stone so right as to hit the Place and Head together. To make these Suppositions more probable, we need only remember that we read in Judges, Ch. xx. 16. of no less than seven hundred Men in one Place, that were so expert with their Left Hands, that every one could sling Stones to an Hair's Breadth, and not miss; or what we read in Diodorus Siculus, of some Slingers, who threw Stones with such a Violence, that nothing could resist their Impression; and that, when they made use of Lead instead of Stone, the very Lead would melt in the Air, as it flew, by Reason of the Rapidity of the Motion which they gave it. See Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

Jonathan contracts a Friendship with David; whose Praise Saul envies, and seeks to kill him; but gives him his Daughter Michal in Marriage.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. 2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his fathers house. 3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. 4 And Jonathan stript himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. 5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls servants. 6 And it came to pass as they came when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick. 7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands: 8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom? 9 And Saul eyed David from that day forward. 10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Sauls hand. 11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it: and David avoided out of his presence twice. 12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul. 13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. 14 And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the Lord was with him. 15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him. 16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them. 17 And Saul said to David, Behold, my elder daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight the Lords battels: for Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him. 18 And David said unto Saul, Who am I? and what is my life, or my fathers family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? 19 But it came to pass, at the time when Merab Sauls daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife. 20 And Michal Sauls daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. 21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law, in the one of the twain. 22 And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the kings son-in-law. 23 And Sauls servants spake those words in the ears of David: and David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a kings son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed? 24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David. 25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry; but an hundred fore-skins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the kings enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. 26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the kings son-in-law: and the days were not expired. 27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their fore-skins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the kings son-in-law: and Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife. 28 And Saul saw and knew that the Lord was with David, and that Michal Sauls daughter loved him. 29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became Davids enemy continually. 30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

But it came to pass at the Time when Merab Saul's Daughter should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel] This was an high Affront to David, and one of the greatest Injuries that could be done him: however, for the present, he thought proper to dissemble it.

it. How Jonathan resented this Usage, we are no where told. It is likely, that his Duty to his Father made him prevail with David to take it patiently, as coming from a Man, who was sometimes besides himself, and knew not well what he did; and that David might be the more inclinable to do this, as having some Intimations given him of the good Esteem which the second Daughter began to entertain of him.

The King desireth not any Dowry, but an hundred Fore-skins of the Philistines] The Reason, says Calmet, why Saul exacted the Foreskins of David, was to prevent all Cheat or Collusion in the Matter, and that he might be sure they were Philistines only, whom he kill'd. Had he demanded the Heads only of so many Men, David (he might think) might perhaps cut off those of his own Subjects, and bring them instead of Philistines: But now, the Philistines being the only neighbouring People who were uncircumcis'd, (for the Arabians, as descended from Ishmael, and all the other Nations which sprung from Esau, were circumcis'd, as well as the Hebrews) in producing their Foreskins, there could be no Deception. Besides that, this would be a gross Insult upon the Philistines in general, to whom Saul was desirous to make David as odious as possible, that, at one Time or other, he might fall into their Hands.

CHAP. XIX.

Jonathan informs David of his Father's Intention to kill him, and persuades Saul to a Reconciliation. David's Success in War enrages Saul against him.

Ver. 1. AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. 2 But Jonathan Sauls son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thy self until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thy self: 3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee. 4 And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good. 5 For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? 6 And Saul hearkned unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain. 7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things: and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past. 8 And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him. 9 And the evil spirit from the Lord was upon Saul, as he set in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand. 10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin: but he slipt away out of Sauls presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. 11 Saul also sent messengers unto Davids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal Davids wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain. 12 So Michal let David down through a window: and he went and fled, and escaped. 13 And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth. 14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. 15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. 16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats hair for his bolster. 17 And Saul said unto Michal, why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? and Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee? 18 So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. 19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah. 20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. 21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise: and Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. 22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Secho: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah. 23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. 24 And he stript off his cloaths also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah] When these Schools of the Prophets were first instituted, is no where indicated in Scripture: But, as the first Mention we find of them is in Samuel's Time, we can hardly suppose, that they were superior to it. It may be presum'd therefore, that the sad Degeneracy of the Priesthood at first occasion'd the Institution of these Places, for the better Education of those that were to succeed in the sacred Ministry, whether as Prophets or Priests according to the Places that are specified in Scripture, (1 Sam. x. 5, 10. xix. 20. 2 Kings ii. 5. iv. 38.) they were first erected in the Cities of the Levites, which, for the more convenient Instruction of the People, were dispers'd up and down in the several Tribes of Israel. In these Places the Prophets had convenient Colleges built (whereof Najah, or Naioth, seems to be one) for their Abode; and, living in Communities, had some one of distinguish'd Note (very probably of divine Election) set over them to be their Head or President. Here it was, that they studied the Law, and learn'd to expound the several Precepts of it. Here it was, that, by a previous Exercise, they qualified themselves for the Reception of the Spirit of Prophecy, whenever it should please God to send it upon them. Here it was, that they were instructed in the sacred Art of Psalmody, or (as the Scripture calls it) in prophesying with Harps, with Psalteries, and Cymbals: And hence it was, that, when any Blessings were to be promis'd, Judgments denounc'd, or extraordinary Events predicted, the Messengers were generally chosen. So that the Colleges were Seminaries of divine Knowledge, and Nurseries of that Race of Prophets, which succeeded from Samuel to

to the Time of Malachi. See Stillingfleet's Orig. Sacræ, Wheatly on the Schools of the Prophets, and Jacob Abting de Repub. Hebr.

And he went on, and prophesied] This is a Word of an extensive Signification, and may sometimes denote such Actions, Motions, and Distortions, as Prophets, in their Inspirations, are wont to express; which perhaps may be very justly applied to Saul upon this Occasion. But the Generality of Interpreters, in this Place, take prophesying to be Saul's singing of Psalms, or Hymns of Thanksgiving and Praise, which even against his Will he was compell'd to do, to teach him the Vanity of his Designs against David, and that in them he fought against God himself.

And he stript off his Cloaths also — and lay down naked, all that Day, and all that Night] The Words in the Original, which we render naked, or to be naked, signify no more, than either to have Part of the Body uncover'd, or to be without a Gown, or upper Garment, which the Romans call'd Toga, and (according to the Custom of the Eastern People) was wont to be put on when they went abroad, or made any publick Appearance. And therefore it was some such Vestment as this, which Saul, upon this Occasion put off; and that this was enough to denominate him naked, is manifest from what Aurelius Victor, speaking of those who were sent to Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus, to bring him to the Senate to be made Dictator, says, That they found him naked, plowing on the other Side of the Tyber; whereas Livy, who relates the same Story, observes, that he call'd to his Wife Rucca, for his Gown, or Toga, that he might appear fit to keep them Company. See Essay towards a new Translation.

CHAP. XX.

David consults with Jonathan for his Safety. Their Covenant renewed by Oath. Saul, missing David at his Table, seeks to slay Jonathan.

Ver. 1. AND David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? 2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so. 3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death. 4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee. 5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the new-moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even. 6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family. 7 If he say thus, it is well; thy servant shall have peace; but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him. 8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the Lord with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father? 9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly, that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? 10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly? 11 And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field. 12 And Jonathan said unto David, O Lord God of Israel, when I have sounded my father, about to morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee; 13 The Lord do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee, as he hath been with my father. 14 And thou shalt not only, while yet I live, shew me the kindness of the Lord, that I die not: 15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no not when the Lord hath cut off the enemies of David, every one from the face of the earth. 16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the Lord even require it at the hand of David's enemies. 17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul. 18 Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow is the new-moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty. 19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself, when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel. 20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark. 21 And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the Lord liveth. 22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee: go thy way, for the Lord hath sent thee away. 23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the Lord be between thee and me for ever. 24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new-moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat. 25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Sauls side, and Davids place was empty. 26 Nevertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Some thing hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean. 27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that Davids place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor to day? 28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me, to go to Beth-lehem: 29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a sacrifice in the city, and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there; and now if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren: Therefore he cometh not unto the kings table. 30 Then Sauls anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mothers nakedness? 31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die. 32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done? 33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David. 34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame. 35 And it came to pass in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him. 36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran he shot an arrow beyond him. 37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee? 38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathans lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. 39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter. 40 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city. 41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded. 42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the Lord, saying, the Lord be between me and thee, and between my seed, and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

Behold, To-morrow is the New-Moon] The Jewish Months were Lunar, and never began before the Moon appeared above the Horizon; for which Purpose, there were certain Persons placed upon the Mountains, some Time before the new Moon was expected, to give Notice by the Sound of a Horn when it first appeared, that so the News thereof might be immediately carried to Jerusalem. But, lest there should be any Mistake in this Method of making their Observation, from this Example of Saul's, it is supposed, that they celebrated this Festival for two Days together. Whether the Heathens had this Rite from the Jews or no, 'tis certain, that other Nations had Feasts at the Beginning of every Month, and that, with the Romans, the Calends, in particular, were festival Days, consecrated to Juno, to whom Sacrifices at this Time were offered. See Calmet's Com.

And David's Place was empty] That sitting at Table was an antienter Custom, than either lying or leaning at Meat, is obvious from this Passage. The Egyptians, when they eat at Joseph's Entertainment, sat at Table, and so did the Hebrews. Homer introduces his Heroes in this Posture; and that this was the known Custom among the antient People of Italy, Virgil, in these Words, testifies: — Perpetuis soliti Patres considere Mensis, Æned. vii. It is not to be dissembled, however, that very early, and even in the Times of Saul, the Use of Table-beds, or Beds to lie, or lean upon at Meals, had obtained among the Jews; for, when the Witch of Endor, with much Entreaty, prevailed with Saul to take a little Refreshment, 'tis said, that he arose from the Earth, and sat upon the Bed. See Calmet's Com.

Saul said unto Jonathan, Wherefore cometh not the Son of Jesse to Meat] It may seem a little strange, says Calmet, that Saul, who had so often endeavoured to kill David, and was now just returned from an Expedition, undertaken against his Life, should ever expect to see him at his Table any more. But he might think perhaps, that David was inclinable to overlook all that was past, as the Effect of his Phrenzy and Melancholy; that now he had been prophesying as Nature, he was returned to a sound Mind, and become a new Man; and that, because, after the first Javelin darted at him, David had ventured into his Presence again, he might, for the future, be guilty of the like Indiscretion.

CHAP. XXI.

David comes to Nob, where Ahimelech gives him hallowed Bread, and Goliah's Sword; goes to Gath, where he feigns himself mad.

Ver. 1. THEN came David to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? 2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place. 3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present. 4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. 5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth, women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel. 6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread; for there was no bread there, but the shew-bread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. 7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the Lord; and his name was Doeg an Edomite, the chiefest of the herd-men that belonged to Saul. 8 And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword, nor my weapons with me, because the kings business required haste. 9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliah the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapt in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that, here. And David said, There is none like that, give it me. 10 And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. 11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? 12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath. 13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. 14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, you see the man is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me? 15 Have I need of mad-men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad-man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house.

And Abimelech said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no Man with thee] The Words of our blessed Saviour, in Mark ii. 25. are these. — Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, he, and they that were with him, how he went into the House of God, in the Days of Abiathar, the High-Priest, and did eat the Shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him? Now there are two Things which the Author of this Book of Samuel asserts, quite contrary to what our Saviour declares, viz. 1st, That David was alone, and no Man with him. And, 2dly, That Ahimelech was at that Time High-Priest; whereas our Saviour affirms, both that David had Company along him, and that Abiathar was then in the Pontificate. Now, 1st, that David had Company with him, and that Ahimelech knew it, is evident from his Words in the 4th Verse; There is no common Bread in my Hand, but there is hallowed Bread, if the young Men have kept themselves at least from Women; and therefore Ahimelech's Meaning must be, that David had no Guards to attend him, as it was usual for Persons of his Quality to have; or, at least, those that were with him might be ordered to keep at a Distance, and so Ahimelech (when he uttered these Words) might not see them, tho' when he came into closer Conference with David, David might inform him what Retinue he had brought, and consequently, that all the Shew-bread was no more than what they wanted for their present Support. 2dly, Tho' it be granted, that the Name of High-Priest, in its strictest Sense, did not at this Time belong to Abiathar, yet since it is generally agreed, that he was the Sagan, (as the Jews of latter Days call him, who is the High-Priest's Vicar) he might well enough (in a qualified Sense) be called the High-Priest; especially considering his immediate Succession to his Father, and how short his Father's Continuance in the Office was, after this Interview with David. Nor can we see any great Impropriety in saying, that such a Thing was done in the Days of Abiathar the High-Priest, tho' done somewhat before he was invested with that Dignity; any more than in saying, that such a Thing happened in the Days of Henry VIII. which strictly came to pass some Days before he began to reign. See Patrick's Com.

And David said unto Ahimelech the High-Priest, the King hath commanded me a Business] It must be own'd, as Patrick, that David, in this Pretence, did not speak direct Truth, nor are we from hence to take Example for speaking Lies; but one Thing may be said in his Excuse; that, as he saw Doeg there, who he knew would inform Saul of what passed between him and Ahimelech, his Pretence of Business was on Purpose to furnish the High-Priest (if he were called to an Account) with a better Apology for his Reception of David, since he knew no other, but that he came Express from the King: And accordingly we may observe, that Ahimelech insists on that chiefly. 'Tis a melancholy Consideration, however, that the Wickedness of the World should be such, as even to put excellent Men sometimes upon the Necessity of Lying to preserve their Lives, which cannot be safe without it.

CHAP. XXII.

David escapes to Adullam, where his Relations and Friends resort to him. Saul hunts after David, and is informed by Doeg of what passed between Ahimelech and him. Doeg, by Saul's Command, kills the Priests, and destroys Nob their City.

1 DAvid therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave Adullam: and when his brethren, and all his fathers house heard it, they went down thither to him. 2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves together unto him, and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men. 3 And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab, and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me. 4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold. 5 And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold, depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth. 6 When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him) 7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites, will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields, and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds: 8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? 9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (which was set over the servants of Saul) and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. 10 And he inquired of the Lord for him: and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliah the Philistine. 11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest the son of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king. 12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub: And he answered, Here I am, my lord. 13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? 14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants, as David, which is the kings son-in-law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house? 15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more. 16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou and all thy fathers house. 17 And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn and slay the priests of the Lord; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the Lord. 18 And the king said unto Doeg, Turn thou and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did were a linen ephod. 19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the ſword. 20 And one of the ſons of Ahimelech the ſon of Ahitub, named Abiathar, eſcaped and fled after David. 21 And Abiathar ſhewed David, that Saul had ſlain the Lords prieſts. 22 And David ſaid unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would ſurely tell Saul: I have occaſioned the death of all the perſons of thy fathers houſe. 23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that ſeeketh my life, ſeeketh thy life: but with me thou ſhalt be in ſafeguard.

But the Servants of the King would not put forth their Hand to fall upon the Prieſts of the Lord] In this they were to be commended: But much more Praiſe they would have deſerved, if they had offered up their Petition for theſe innocent People; if they had remonſtrated to the King, that he was going to commit a Thing, that was contrary to all Laws, both divine and human; and if (when they ſaw that neither their Reaſons nor Petitions availed) they had looked upon this Order, as the Effect of the King's diſtracted Fits, and accordingly ſeized and ſecured him, until the Prieſts had made their Eſcape, and he returned to a better Mind. For, to ſtand wringing their Hands, while they ſaw ſo many innocent Creatures murthered, and foreign Soldiers made the Inſtruments of the King's Cruelty, was much the ſame Thing, as to betray all divine and human Rights merely to pleaſe a Tyrant. See Le Clerc's Com.

And Nob, the City of the Prieſts, ſmote he with the Edge of the Sword, both Men and Women, &c.] Joſephus informs us, that Doeg, taking ſome Men as wicked as himſelf, to his Aſſiſtance, ſlew in all three hundred and eighty five Perſons, and, in Addition to theſe, 'tis thought by ſome, that the Gibeonites, (upon whoſe Account there was a ſore Famine in the Days of David) who might now be at Nob, in Attendance upon the Prieſts, were at this Time ſlain. 'Tis certain, Saul was become a mere Tyrant, and againſt thoſe poor People acted more cruelly than he did againſt the Amalekites, ſome of whom he ſpared even contrary to God's Command; but in this Caſe he let none eſcape, on purpoſe to deter others from giving the leaſt Shelter or Aſſiſtance to David, and to incite them rather to come, and give Information, wherever his Haunts, or Lurking-places were.

CHAP. XXIII.

Keilah being invaded, David relieves it; is forewarn'd by God of the Keilites Treachery, and departs from them.

Ver. 1. THEN they told David, ſaying, Behold the Philiſtines fight againſt Keilah, and they rob the threſhing-floors. 2 Therefore David inquired of the Lord, ſaying, Shall I go and ſmite theſe Philiſtines? And the Lord ſaid unto David, Go, and ſmite the Philiſtines, and ſave Keilah. 3 And Davids men ſaid unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah againſt the armies of the Philiſtines? 4 Then David enquired of the Lord yet again. And the Lord anſwered him and ſaid, Ariſe go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philiſtines into thine hand. 5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philiſtines, and brought away their cattle, and ſmote them with a great ſlaughter: ſo David ſaved the inhabitants of Keilah. 6 And it came to paſs when Abiathar the ſon of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand. 7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah: and Saul ſaid, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is ſhut in, by entring into a town that hath gates and bars. 8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to beſiege David and his men. 9 And David knew that Saul ſecretly practiſed miſchief againſt him; and he ſaid to Abiathar the prieſt, Bring hither the ephod. 10 Then ſaid David, O Lord God of Iſrael, thy ſervant hath certainly heard that Saul ſeeketh to come to Keilah, to deſtroy the city for my ſake. 11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down as thy ſervant hath heard? O Lord God of Iſrael, I beſeech thee, tell thy ſervant. And the Lord ſaid, He will come down. 12 Then ſaid David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the Lord ſaid, They will deliver thee up. 13 Then David and his men, which were about ſix hundred, aroſe and departed out of Keilah, and went whitherſoever they could go: and it was told Saul that David was eſcaped from Keilah, and he forbare to go forth. 14 And David abode in the wilderneſs in ſtrong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderneſs of Ziph: and Saul ſought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand. 15 And David ſaw, that Saul was come out to ſeek his life, and David was in the wilderneſs of Ziph in a wood. 16 And Jonathan Sauls ſon aroſe, and went to David into the wood, and ſtrengthened his hand in God. 17 And he ſaid unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father ſhall not find thee, and thou ſhalt be king over Iſrael, and I ſhall be next unto thee; and that alſo Saul my father knoweth. 18 And they two made a covenant before the Lord: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his houſe. 19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, ſaying, Doth not David hide himſelf with us in ſtrong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the ſouth of Jeſhimon? 20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the deſire of thy ſoul to come down, and our part ſhall be to deliver him into the kings hand. 21 And Saul ſaid, Bleſſed be ye of the Lord; for ye have compaſſion on me. 22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and ſee his place where his haunt is, and who hath ſeen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very ſubtilly. 23 See therefore and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himſelf, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it ſhall come to paſs, if he be in the land, that I will ſearch him out throughout all the thouſands of Judah. 24 And they aroſe, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderneſs of Maon, in the plain on the ſouth of Jeſhimon. 25 Saul alſo and his men went to ſeek him; and they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderneſs of Maon, and when Saul heard that he purſued after David in the wilderneſs of Maon. 26 And Saul went on this ſide of the mountain, and David and his men on that ſide of the mountain: and David made haſte to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compaſſed David and his men round about to take them. 27 But there came a meſſenger unto Saul, ſaying, Haſte thee, and come; for the Philiſtines have invaded the land. 28 Wherefore Saul returned from purſuing after David, and went againſt the Philiſtines: therefore they called that place Sela-hammah-lekoth. 29 And David went up from thence, and dwelt in ſtrong holds at En-gedi.

And remained in a Mountain in the Wilderneſs of Ziph] In Joſh. xv. 55. we read of a Town of this Name, where Mention is likewiſe made of Carmel and Maon, and therefore it probably was adjacent to them. And here, in the Story of David, we find Carmel and Maon mentioned as adjoining to Ziph, ſo that it is not to be doubted, but that by Ziph in the Wilderneſs, where David now concealed himſelf, we are to underſtand the Ziph which was in the Neighbourhood of Carmel and Maon, in the ſouthern Part of the Tribe of Judah, and (according to St. Jerom) about eight Miles from Hebron. See Wells's Geogr.

And David went up from thence, and dwelt in the ſtrong Holds of En-gedi] En-gedi (now called Anguedi) in the Days of St. Jerom, was a large Village, ſituate in the Deſarts, which lay upon the Weſtern Coaſts of the Salt, or Dead Sea, not very far from the Plains of Jericho: And, as the Country thereabouts abounded with Mountains, and theſe Mountains had vaſt Caves in them, it was a very commodious Place for David to retire to, and conceal himſelf in. Euſebius makes it famous for excellent Balm; and Solomon in his Song for Vineyards, which, in all Probability, were planted by his Father, during his Retirement in this Place, and therefore ſo peculiarly celebrated by the Son. See Calmet's Com. and Wells's Geogr.

CHAP. XXIV.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs when Saul was returned from following the Philiſtines, that it was told him, ſaying, Behold, David is in the wilderneſs of En-gedi. 2 Then Saul took three thouſand choſen men out of all Iſrael, and went to ſeek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. 3 And he came to the ſheepcotes by the way, where was a cave, and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the ſides of the cave. 4 And the men of David ſaid unto him, Behold the day of which the Lord ſaid unto thee, Behold I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayeſt do to him as it ſhall ſeem good unto thee. Then David aroſe, and cut off the ſkirt of Sauls robe privily. 5 And it came to paſs afterward, that Davids heart ſmote him, becauſe he had cut off Sauls ſkirt. 6 And he ſaid unto his men, The Lord forbid, that I ſhould do this thing unto my maſter the Lords anointed, to ſtretch forth mine hand againſt him, ſeeing he is the anointed of the Lord. 7 So David ſtayed his ſervants with theſe words, and ſuffered them not to riſe againſt Saul: but Saul roſe up out of the cave, and went on his way. 8 David alſo aroſe afterwards, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, ſaying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David ſtooped with his face to the earth and bowed himſelf. 9 And David ſaid to Saul, Wherefore hearеſt thou mens words, ſaying, Behold, David ſeeketh thy hurt? 10 Behold, this day thine eyes have ſeen, how that the Lord had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and ſome bade me kill thee, but mine eye ſpared thee, and I ſaid, I will not put forth mine hand againſt my lord; for he is the Lords anointed. 11 Moreover, my father, ſee, yea ſee the ſkirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the ſkirt of thy robe, and killed thee not; know thou and ſee, that there is neither evil nor tranſgreſſion in mine hand, and I have not ſinned againſt thee; yet thou hunteſt my ſoul, to take it. 12 The Lord judge between me and thee, and the Lord avenge me of thee: but mine hand ſhall not be upon thee. 13 As ſaith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedneſs proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand ſhall not be upon thee. 14 After whom is the king of Iſrael come out? after whom doſt thou purſue? after a dead dog, after a flea? 15 The Lord therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and ſee, and plead my cauſe, and deliver me out of thine hand. 16 And it came to paſs when David had made an end of ſpeaking theſe words unto Saul, that Saul ſaid, Is this thy voice, my ſon David? And Saul lift up his voice and wept. 17 And he ſaid to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou haſt rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. 18 And thou haſt ſhewed this day how that thou haſt dealt well with me: foraſmuch as when the Lord had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedſt me not. 19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the Lord reward thee good, for that thou haſt done unto me this day. 20 And now behold, I know well that thou ſhall ſurely be king, and that the kingdom of Iſrael ſhall be eſtabliſhed in thine hand. 21 Swear now therefore unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my ſeed after me, and that thou wilt not deſtroy my name out of my fathers houſe. 22 And David ſware unto Saul: and Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto the hold.

Then David aroſe, and cut off the Skirt of Saul's Robe privily] If it be aſked, ſays Pool, how David could do this without Saul's perceiving it? The Anſwer may be, that this poſſibly might be ſome upper looſe Garment, which Saul might put off, and lay aſide at ſome Diſtance from him, upon this Occaſion; and that as there were ſeveral Rooms, or particular Cells, in theſe large Caverns, which might have ſecret Paſſages from one another, Saul, at the Mouth of one of theſe Cells, might lay down this upper Garment, which David perceiving, and knowing all the Paſſages of the Place, might go ſome ſecret Way, and cut off ſome ſmall Part of it. Nor could the Noiſe, which David's Motion might make, be well heard by Saul, becauſe it muſt have been drown'd by a much greater Noiſe, which Saul's Army, waiting for him at the Mouth of the Cave, may be ſuppoſed to make.

Swear now therefore unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my Seed after me — and David ſwear unto Saul] But how did David abſolve his Promiſe, or keep his Oath with Saul, when, in 2 Sam. xxi. 8. he ſlew ſo many of his Sons? The Reply, that is uſually made to this, is, — That this Promiſe, or Oath of David's, could never be abſolute and unconditional, becauſe, upon Suppoſition that any of Saul's Family had become rebellious, they nevertheleſs had been obnoxious to the Sword of Juſtice; that, tho' David could bind himſelf with his Oath, yet he could not bind God, to whoſe Will and Pleaſure all private Obligations muſt be ſubmitted; and (what is more) that this Execution was not done by David's Order, but at the Deſire of the Gibeonites, to whom God had promiſed that Satisfaction ſhould be made for Saul's bloody Endeavours to deſtroy them. See Patrick's Com. and Paol's Annot.

CHAP. XXV.

Samuel dies. Nabal's churliſh Anſwer to David's Meſſengers, makes him reſolve to deſtroy his whole whole Family; but is prevented by the Interceſſion of Abigail.

Ver. 1. AND Samuel died, and all the Iſraelites were gathered together and lamented him, and buried him in his houſe at Ramah. And David aroſe and went down to the wilderneſs of Paran. 2 And there was a man in Maon whoſe poſſeſſions were in Carmel, and the man was very great, and he had three thouſand ſheep, and a thouſand goats; and he was ſhearing his ſheep in Carmel. 3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife, Abigail: and ſhe was a woman of good underſtanding, and of a beautiful countenance; but the man was churliſh and evil in his doings, and he was of the houſe of Caleb. 4 And David heard in the wilderneſs, that Nabal did ſhear his ſheep. 5 And David ſent out ten young men, and David ſaid unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name: 6 And thus ſhall ye ſay to him that liveth in proſperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine houſe, and peace be unto all that thou haſt. 7 And now I have heard that thou haſt ſhearers: now thy ſhepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought miſſing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. 8 Aſk thy young men, and they will ſhew thee: wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good day) give, I pray thee, whatſoever cometh to thine hand, unto thy ſervants, and to thy ſon David. 9 And when Davids young men came, they ſpake to Nabal according to all thoſe words in the name of David, and ceaſed. 10 And Nabal anſwered Davids ſervants, and ſaid, What is David? and who is the ſon of Jeſſe? there be many ſervants now adays that break away every man from his maſter. 11 Shall I then take my bread and my water, and my fleſh that I have killed for my ſhearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be? 12 So Davids young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all thoſe ſayings. 13 And David ſaid unto his men, Gird you on every man his ſword. And they girded on every man his ſword, and David alſo girded on his ſword: and there went up after David about four hundred men, and two hundred abode by the ſtuff. 14 But one of the young men told Abigail Nabals wife, ſaying, Behold, David ſent meſſengers out of the wilderneſs to ſalute our maſter; and he railed on them. 15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither miſſed we any thing as long as we were converſant with them, when we were in the fields. 16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the ſheep. 17 Now therefore know and conſider what thou wilt do: for evil is determined againſt our maſter, and againſt all his houſhold: for he is ſuch a ſon of Belial, that a man cannot ſpeak to him. 18 Then Abigail made haſte, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five ſheep ready dreſſed, and five meaſures of parched corn, and an hundred cluſters of raiſins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on aſſes. 19 And ſhe ſaid unto her ſervants, Go on before me, behold, I come after you: but ſhe told not her huſband Nabal. 20 And it was ſo, as ſhe rode on the aſs, that ſhe came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down againſt her, and ſhe met them. 21 (Now David had ſaid, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderneſs, ſo that nothing was miſſed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good. 22 So and more alſo do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light, any that piſſeth againſt the wall.) 23 And when Abigail ſaw David, ſhe haſted, and lighted off the aſs, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herſelf to the ground. 24 And fell at his feet, and ſaid, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be, and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, ſpeak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid. 25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal; for as his name is, ſo is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I thine handmaid ſaw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didſt ſend. 26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, ſeeing the Lord hath withholden thee from coming to ſhed blood, and from avenging thyſelf with thine own hand: now let thine enemies, and they that ſeek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. 27 And now this bleſſing which thine hand-maid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord. 28 I pray thee, forgive the treſpaſs of thine handmaid: for the lord will certainly make my lord a ſure houſe; becauſe my lord fighteth the battles of the Lord, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days. 29 Yet a man is riſen to purſue thee, and to ſeek thy ſoul; but the ſoul of my lord ſhall be found in the bundle of life with the Lord thy God; and the ſouls of thine enemies, them ſhall he ſling out, as out of the middle of a ſling. 30 And it ſhall come to paſs when the Lord ſhall have done to my lord, according to all the good that he hath ſpoken concerning thee, and ſhall have appointed thee ruler over Iſrael; 31 That this ſhall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou haſt ſhed blood cauſeleſs, or that my lord hath avenged himſelf; but when the Lord ſhall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid. 32 And David ſaid to Abigail, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael, which ſent thee this day to meet me: 33 And bleſſed be thy advice, and bleſſed be thou, which haſt kept me this day from coming to ſhed blood, and from avenging myſelf with mine own hand. 34 For in very deed as the Lord God of Iſrael liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadſt haſted and come to meet me, ſurely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that piſſeth againſt the wall. 35 So David received of her hand, that which ſhe had brought him, and ſaid unto her, Go up in peace to thine houſe; ſee, I have hearkned to thy voice, and have accepted thy perſon. 36 And Abigail came to Nabal: and behold, he held a feaſt in his houſe, like the feaſt of a king; and Nabals heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore ſhe told him nothing, leſs or more, until the morning light. 37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. 38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died. 39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. 40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee to take thee to him to wife. 41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. 42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. 43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and they were also both of them his wives. 44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, Davids wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim.

And Samuel died] The Jews are of Opinion, that Samuel died only four Months before Saul: But, by the Generality of Christian Chronologers, he is supposed to have died about two Years before the Death of that Prince, and in the ninety-eighth Year of his Age; twenty of which had been spent in the Government of Israel (tho' Sir John Marsham will have it no more than sixteen) before Saul's Inauguration, after which, he lived about eighteen. He was first interr'd at Ramah, but, in the Time of the Emperor Arcadius, his Body was transported from Palestine to Constantinople; and (as St. Jerom informs us) received both by the Clergy and Laity with a Joy unspeakable, and Honours almost infinite. He was, indeed, while he lived, an excellent Governor, and, through his whole Administration, above Vanity, Corruption, or any private Views. Those, that attend to his Life, may observe, that he was modest without Meanness, mild without Weakness, firm without Obstinacy, and severe without Harshness. See his Character described by the Author of Ecclesiasticus, Ch. xlvi. 13, &c. But, besides the Things that are recorded of this Prophet in the first Book of Samuel, there are some other Passages concerning him in the first Book of Chronicles; as, That he enriched the Tabernacle with several Spoils, which he took from the Enemies of Israel during his Administration, Ch. xxvi. 28. That he assisted in regulating the Distribution of the Levites, which David afterwards prescribed for the Service of the Temple, Ch. ix. 22. And, lastly, that he wrote the History of David, in Conjunction with the Prophets Nathan and Gad: But, as he was dead before David came to the Throne, this can be meant only of the Beginning of that History, which by the other two Prophets might be continued and concluded. There is great Probability, indeed, that he composed the twenty four first Chapters of the first Book of Samuel, which contain the Beginning of David's Life, and several historical Facts, wherein he himself had a large Share; but as for the latter Part of it, it was impossible for him to write it, because, in the Beginning of the xxvth Chapter, there is mention made of his Death.

Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred Loaves, and two Bottles of Wine] It must be obvious to every Reader, that two Bottles of Wine would bear no Proportion to the other Parts of the Present, nor answer the Exigencies which David's Army might be in, if they be understood of such Bottles as are now in Use among us: But, in these Eastern Countries, they used to carry and keep their Wine and Water in Leathern Bags, made on purpose to hold liquid Things. Such were the Bottles the Gibeonites brought to Joshua's Camp; and of such as those it is not unlikely, that our Saviour speaks, Matt. ix. 17. where in the Marginal Note of our old Bible, Bottles are explained by Bags of Leather, two Skins or Borrochios, wherein Wine was carried on Asses or Camels. And that two such Vessels as these might hold a Quantity of Wine proportionate to the rest of the Present, which Abigail carried with her, needs not to be disputed. See Howell's Hist.

CHAP. XXVI.

Saul being intrenched, David comes to the Camp, finds the Army asleep, and is advised to kill Saul, but only takes his Spear and Cruse, and departs.

Ver. 1. AND the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah which is before Jeshimon? 2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. 3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon by the way: but David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. 4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed. 5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him. 6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. 7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster, but Abner and the people lay round about him. 8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. 9 And David said to Abishai, destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lords anointed, and be guiltless. 10 David said furthermore, As the Lord liveth, the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall descend into battle, and perish. 11 The Lord forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lords anointed: but I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. 12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster, and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the Lord was fallen upon them. 13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off, (a great space being between them) 14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king? 15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then haſt thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to deſtroy the king thy lord. 16 This thing is not good that thou haſt done: as the Lord liveth, ye are worthy to die, becauſe you have not kept your maſter the Lords anointed: and now ſee where the kings ſpear is, and the cruſe of water, that was at his bolſter. 17 And Saul knew Davids voice, and ſaid, Is this thy voice, my ſon David? and David ſaid, It is my voice, my lord, O king. 18 And he ſaid, Wherefore doth my lord thus purſue after his ſervant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? 19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his ſervant: If the Lord have ſtirred thee up againſt me, let him accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, curſed be they before the Lord; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, ſaying, Go ſerve other gods. 20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the king of Iſrael is come out to ſeek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains. 21 Then ſaid Saul, I have ſinned: return, my ſon David, for I will no more do thee harm, becauſe my ſoul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. 22 And David anſwered and ſaid, Behold the kings ſpear, and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. 23 The Lord render to every man his righteouſneſs, and his faithfulneſs: for the Lord delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not ſtretch forth mine hand againſt the Lords anointed. 24 And behold, as thy life was much ſet by this day in mine eyes; ſo let my life be much ſet by in the eyes of the Lord, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. 25 Then Saul ſaid to David, Bleſſed be thou, my ſon David: thou ſhalt both do great things, and alſo ſhalt ſtill prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

So David and Abiſhai came to the People by Night] This, ſays Pool, may ſeem a bold and ſtrange Attempt, for two Perſons to go into the Midſt of an Army of three thouſand Men: But, in Anſwer to this, many Things may be conſidered: As that, according to the Accounts of many credible Hiſtorians, ſeveral gallant Men have attempted Things of no leſs Danger and Difficulty than this was; that David had all along Aſſurance given him, that God would preſerve him in all Dangers to ſucceed in the Kingdom; and that, at this Time, he might have a particular Impulſe and Incitement from God to go upon this Enterprize, and might poſſibly be informed by him, that he had caſt them into a deep Sleep, that he might give him this ſecond Opportunity of manifeſting to Saul his Innocence, and the Juſtice of his Cauſe. Not to ſay, that as Secrecy, at this Time, was the great Point, David might think himſelf ſafer, in this Reſpect, with one ſingle Companion, than with more.

CHAP. XXVII.

David retires to Gath, and Saul ſeeks no more after him. Achiſh gives David Ziklag.

Ver. 1. AND David ſaid in his heart, I ſhall now periſh one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me, than that I ſhould ſpeedily eſcape into the land of the Philiſtines; and Saul ſhall deſpair of me, to ſeek me any more in any coaſt of Iſrael: ſo ſhall I eſcape out of his hand. 2 And David aroſe, and he paſſed over with his ſix hundred men that were with him, unto Achiſh the ſon of Maoch king of Gath. 3 And David dwelt with Achiſh at Gath, he and his men, every man with his houſhold, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreeliteſs, and Abigail the Carmeliteſs, Nabals wife. 4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath, and he ſought no more again for him. 5 And David ſaid unto Achiſh, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in ſome town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why ſhould thy ſervant dwell in the royal city with thee? 6 Then Achiſh gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day. 7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philiſtines, was a full year and four months. 8 And David and his men went up and invaded the Geſhurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for thoſe nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goeſt to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt. 9 And David ſmote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the ſheep, and the oxen, and the aſſes, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achiſh. 10 And Achiſh ſaid, Whither have we made a rode to day? And David ſaid, Againſt the ſouth of Judah, and againſt the ſouth of the Jerahmeelites, and againſt the ſouth of the Kenites. 11 And David ſaved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, ſaying, Leſt they ſhould tell on us, ſaying, So did David, and ſo will be his manner, all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philiſtines. 12 And Achiſh believed David, ſaying, He hath made his people Iſrael utterly to abhor him; therefore he ſhall be my ſervant for ever.

Then Achiſh gave him Ziklag] Ziklag was ſituate in the extreme Parts of Judah ſouthwards, not far from Hormah, where the Iſraelites received a Defeat while they ſojourned in the Wilderneſs. In the Diviſion of the Land of Cnnaan, it was firſt given to the Tribe of Judah, Joſh. xv. 31. and afterwards to that of Simeon, Joſh. xix. 5. But the Philiſtines ſeem all along to have kept Poſſeſſion, ſo that it never came into the Hands of either Tribe, until, by the Gift of Achiſh, it became the peculiar Poſſeſſion of David, and his Succeſſors. Why David deſired of Achiſh the Liberty to retire to this Place, was to avoid the Envy, which the Number of his Attendants might poſſibly occaſion; to ſecure his People from the Infection of Idolatry, to enjoy the free Exerciſe of his own Religion; and to gain an Opportunity of enterprizing ſomething againſt the Enemies of God, without the Knowledge or Obſervation of the Philiſtines.

And David and his Men went up and invaded the Amalekites] In 1 Sam. xv. 7. we read, that Saul ſmote the Amalekites, and utterly deſtroyed all the People with the Edge of the Sword; and yet we find David here making frequent Incurſions upon the Amalekites; and therefore the Meaning of the former Paſſage muſt be, that Saul deſtroyed as many of them as fell into his Hands; for ſeveral of them might make their Eſcape from Saul, into the Deſarts that lay towards Arabia Felix, and upon his Retreat, return and repoſſeſs their old Habitation. See Le Clerc's Com.

And David ſaid, againſt the South of Judah, and againſt the South of the Jerahmeelites, and againſt the South of the Kenites] By which Nations, David, ſays Peol, in Reality meant the Geſhurites, and the Gezerites, who were both of them Relicts of the Canaanites, whom God ordered to be extirpated, and who did, in Truth, live live to the South of Judah; but Achish understood him in a quite contrary Sense, viz. that he had fallen upon his own Countrymen. So that, since the Formality of a Lie consists in our imposing upon those with whom we converse, we cannot but allow, that tho' David's Answer cannot be called a downright Lie, yet it is an Equivocation, with an Intent to deceive, badly comporting with that Honesty and Simplicity which became David, both as a Prince, and a Professor of the true Religion, wherein he is no way to be excused, and much less to be imitated.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Saul and the Witch of Endor.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare to fight with Israel: and Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battel, thou and thy men. 2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever. 3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city: and Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards out of the land. 4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa. 5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. 6 And when Saul enquired of the Lord, the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. 7 Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor. 8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, I pray thee divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee. 9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? 10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing. 11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. 12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul. 13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth. 14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle, and Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. 15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. 16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the Lord is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? 17 And the Lord hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the Lord hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David: 18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the Lord done this thing unto thee this day. 19 Moreover the Lord will also deliver Israel with thee, into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the Lord also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. 20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel, and there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. 21 And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me. 22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way. 23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat; but his servants together with the woman, compelled him, and he hearkened unto their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. 24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof. 25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants, and they did eat: then they rose up, and went away that night.

And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem] Shunem was a City in the Borders of the Tribe of Issachar, about five Miles to the South of Mount Hermon, acording to St. Jerom and Eusebius; who tells us likewise that Gilboa was a Ridge of Mountains, six Miles distant from Scythopolis, antiently called Bethsham; and that Endor was a Town in the Valley of Jezreel, at the Foot of Mount Gilboa. See Wells's Geogr. and Le Clerc's Com.

And Saul perceived that it was Samuel] Mr. Stackhouse has a Dissertation upon this Appearance of Samuel to Saul, and proves by undeniable Arguments that it was a real Apparition, not of the Devil, or any of his Imps, as some affirm, but of Samuel himself. He says, that, whatever Incongruity may be supposed in the real Appearance of Samuel, it is not near so much, as to find one of the apostate Spirits of Hell expressing so much Zeal for the Service of God of Heaven, and upbraiding Saul with those very Crimes which he himself tempted him to commit; as to find this wicked and impure Spirit making Use of the Name of God (that sacred and tremendous Name, whose very Pronunciation was enough to make him quake and shiver) no less than six Times in this Intercourse with Saul, without any Manner of Uneasiness or Hesitation; as to find this Angel of Darkness, and Father of Lies, prying into the Womb of Futurity, and determining the most casual Events positively and precisely: For, what Genius (however exalted and improved) without a divine Revelation, could be able to foretel Things, that were lodged in God's own Breast, viz. the precise Time of the two Armies engaging, the Success and Consequence of the Victory, and the very Names that were to fall in Battle? This is what the Apparition plainly revealed to Saul: And yet this, we dare maintain, is more than any finite Underſtanding, by its own mere Capacity, could ever have been able to find out.

But if we are to take the Scripture in its plain and literal Senſe, read we over the Story of Saul and the Witch of Endor never ſo often, we ſhall not ſo much as once find the Devil mentioned in it. And therefore, 'tis ſomewhat wonderful, that he ſhould be brought upon the Stage by many learned Men, merely to ſolve a Difficulty, which, upon Examination appears to be none at all. But now, on the other Hand it appears, that, thro' the whole Narration, Samuel is the only Thing that is mentioned. 'Tis Samuel whom Saul deſires to be called up; Samuel, who appeared to the Woman; Samuel, whom the Woman deſcribes; Samuel, whom Saul perceives and bows himſelf to, with whom he converſes ſo long, and, becauſe of whoſe Words, he was afterwards ſo ſore afraid.

The Scripture indeed ſpeaks ſometimes according to the Appearance of Things, and may call that by the Name of Samuel, which was only the Semblance or Phantom of him: But that this cannot be the Senſe of the Matter here, we have the Teſtimony of the wiſe Son of Sirach, (an excellent Interpreter of Canonical Scripture) who tells us expreſly, that Samuel, after his Death propheſied, and ſhewed the King his End; purſuant to what we read in the Verſion of the Septuagint, viz. that Saul aſked Counſel of one, that had a familiar Spirit, and Samuel anſwered him, 1 Chron. x. 13. So that, upon the Whole, we may be allowed to conclude, that it was the real Soul of Samuel, cloathed in ſome viſible Form, which, at this Time, appeared to the King of Iſrael: But by what Means, or for what Purpoſes, it appeared, is the other Queſtion we are now to determine.

Several of the Fathers of the Chriſtian Church were of Opinion, that the Devil had a certain limited Power over the Souls of the Saints before Jeſus Chriſt deſcended into Hell, and reſcued them from the Tyranny of that Prince of Darkneſs. St. Auſtin, in particular, thinks, that there is no Abſurdity in ſaying, that the Devil was as able to call up Samuel's Soul, as he was to preſent himſelf among the Sons of God, or ſet our Saviour on one of the Pinacles of the Temple; and a learned Jewiſh Doctor ſuppoſes, that Devils have ſuch a Power over human Souls, for the Space of a Year after their Departure, as to make them aſſume what Bodies they pleaſe; and thereupon he concludes, (but very erroneouſly) that it was not a Year, from the Time of Samuel's Death, to his Appearance. But theſe are ſuch wild and extravagant Fancies, as deſerve no ſerious Confutation. 'Tis abſurd to ſay, that the Souls of Saints (ſuch as we are now ſpeaking of) were ever in Hell, and more abſurd to ſay, that, if they are in Heaven, it is in the Power of any magical, nay, of any diabolical Incantations, to call them down from thence. Great, without all Doubt, is the Power of apoſtate Angels; but miſerable, we may ſay, would the State of the Bleſſed be, if the other had any Licence to diſturb their Happineſs, when, and as long, as they pleaſed. For, 'God forbid, ſays 'Tertullian, that we ſhould believe, that the Soul of 'an holy Man, much leſs of a Prophet, ſhould be ſo 'far under his Diſpoſal, as to be brought up at Plea-'ſure by the Power of the Devil.'

Since the Devil then has no Power to diſturb the Happineſs of Souls departed, this Apparition of Samuel could not proceed from any magical Enchantments of the Sorcereſs, but muſt have been effected by the ſole Power and Appointment of God, who is the ſovereign Lord both of the Living and of the Dead: And, accordingly we may obſerve from the Surprize, which the Woman diſcover'd upon Samuel's ſudden appearing, that the Power of her Magick was not concern'd therein, but that it was the Effect of ſome ſuperior Hand. Now it is plain, from the Narration in the Text, that the Woman ſaw ſomething ſhe was not accuſtom'd to ſee. Her Necromancy had ordinarily Power over Dæmons only, or ſuch wretched Spirits as were ſubject to the Devil's Tyranny; but on this Occaſion, ſhe ſaw an Object, ſo auguſt, ſo terrible, ſo majeſtick, ſo contrary indeed to any Thing ſhe had ever rais'd before, and that coming upon her before ſhe had begun her Enchantments, that ſhe could not forbear being frighten'd, and crying out with a loud Voice, as being fully ſatisfied, that the Apparition came from God.

'But, ſince the Scripture aſſures us, that God had 'wholly withdrawn himſelf from Saul, and would 'anſwer him neither by Prophets nor by Dreams; 'how can we imagine, that he ſhould, all on a ſudden 'become ſo kind, as to ſend Samuel to him, or that 'Samuel ſhould be in any Diſpoſition to come, when 'it was impoſſible for him to do any Good by his 'coming?'

Now there ſeems to be ſome Analogy between God's dealing with Saul in this Particular, and his former Treatment of the Prophet Balaam. Balaam was for diſobeying the Orders which God had given him to bleſs the Iſraelites, and was for ſearching into magical Secrets for what he could not obtain of God, viz. a Power to change into Curſes the Bleſſings which God pronounc'd by his Mouth. In this Caſe there was but ſmall Likelihood, that God would continue to communicate himſelf to a Perſon ſo unworthy of any extraordinary Revelation; and yet he did it: But then it was with a Deſign to reveal to him, thoſe very Miſeries, from which his mercenary Mind was ſo deſirous to reſcue the Midianites. The Application is eaſy: And it farther ſuggeſts this Reaſon, why God appointed Samuel, at this Time, to appear unto Saul, viz. that, thro' him, he might give him a Meeting where he leaſt of all expected one; and might ſhew him, that the Fate, which his own Diſobedience had brought upon him, was determin'd; that there was no reverſing the Decrees of Heaven, no procuring Aid againſt the Almighty's Power, no fleeing (tho' it were to Hell) from his Preſence, no hiding himſelf in Darkneſs from his Inſpection, with whom Darkneſs is no Darkneſs at all, but the Night is as clear as the Day, and the Darkneſs and Light are both alike, Pſ. cxxxix. 12.

That the Souls of Men departed have a Capacity, and, no doubt, an Inclination to be employ'd in the Service of Men alive, as having the ſame Nature and Affections, and being more ſenſible of our Infirmities, than any pure and abſtracted Spirits are, can hardly be conteſted; that, in their abſent State, they are embodied with ærial or ætherial Vehicles, which they can condenſe, or rarify at Pleaſure, and ſo appear, or not appear to human Sight, is what ſome of the greateſt Men, both of the Heathen and Chriſtian Religion, have maintained; and that frequent Apparitions of this Kind have happened, ſince the World began, cannot be denied by any one, that is converſant in Hiſtory. If therefore the Wiſdom of God thought proper to diſpatch a Meſſenger to Saul upon this Occaſion; there may be ſome Account given, why the Soul of Samuel (upon the Suppoſition it was left to his Option) ſhould rather be deſirous of being ſent upon that Errand: For, whatever may be ſaid in Diminution of Saul's religious Character, 'tis certain, that he was a brave Prince and Commander; had lived in ſtrict Intimacy with Samuel; profeſſed a very great Eſteem for him in all Things; and was, by Samuel, not a little lamented, when he had fallen from his Obedience to God. Upon theſe Conſiderations we may imagine, that the Soul of Samuel might have ſuch a Kindneſs for him, as to be ready to appear to him in the Depth of his Diſtreſs, in order to ſettle his Mind, by telling him the Upſhot of the whole Matter, viz. that he ſhould loſe the Battle, and he and his Sons be ſlain; that ſo he might give a Specimen (as the Jews love to ſpeak in Commendation of him) of the braveſt Valour, that ever was atchieved by any Commander; fight boldly when he was ſure to die; and ſell his Life at as dear a Price as poſſible; that ſo in his Death, he might be commemorated with Honour, and deſerve the Threnodia, which his Son-in-law made on him; The Beauty of Iſrael is ſlain upon the high Places. How are the Mighty fallen!

From the Blood of the ſlain, from the Fat of the Bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the Sword of Saul turned not empty. How are the Mighty fallen in the Midſt of the Battle! 2 Sam. i. 19.

CHAP. XXIX.

David, offering to march with the Philiſtines, is excepted againſt by their Princes; Achiſh pleads for him, and unwillingly diſmiſſes him.

Ver. 1. NOW the Philiſtines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Iſraëlites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel. 2 And the lords of the Philiſtines paſſed on by hundreds, and by thouſands: but David and his men paſſed on in the rere-ward with Achiſh. 3 Then ſaid the princes of the Philiſtines, What do theſe Hebrews here? And Achiſh ſaid unto the princes of the Philiſtines, Is not this David the ſervant of Saul the king of Iſrael, which hath been with me theſe days or these years, and I have found no fault in him ſince he fell unto me, unto this day? 4 And the princes of the Philiſtines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philiſtines ſaid unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou haſt appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battel, leſt in the battel he be an adverſary to us: for wherewith ſhould he reconcile himſelf unto his maſter? ſhould it not be with the heads of theſe men? 5 Is not this David, of whom they ſang one to another in dances, ſaying, Saul ſlew his thouſands, and David his ten thouſands? 6 Then Achiſh called David, and ſaid unto him, Surely as the Lord liveth, thou haſt been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the hoſt, is good in my ſight: for I have not found evil in thee ſince the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheleſs, the lords favour thee not. 7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou diſpleaſe not the lords of the Philiſtines. 8 And David ſaid unto Achiſh, But what have I done? and what haſt thou found in thy ſervant, ſo long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight againſt the enemies of my lord the king? 9 And Achiſh anſwered and ſaid to David, I know that thou art good in my ſight, as an angel of God: notwithſtanding, the princes of the Philiſtines have ſaid, He ſhall not go up with us to the battel. 10 Wherefore now riſe up early in the morning, with thy maſters ſervants that are come with thee: and aſſoon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart. 11 So David and his men roſe up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philiſtines; and the Philiſtines went up to Jezreel.

And David ſaid unto Achiſh, but what have I done that I may not go fight againſt the Enemies of my Lord the King] It may ſeem a little ſtrange, perhaps, that David, who in this, and ſeveral other Inſtances, was doubtleſs culpable in the Eyes of God, ſhould, nevertheleſs, be ſtiled in Scripture the Man after his own Heart: but whoever obſerves the Occaſion of that Expreſſion, will find, that it ought to be taken in a comparative Sense only, and in Derogation indeed to Saul, whoſe Tranſgreſſion in ſparing Amalek, the Prophet Samuel is here reproving; that, in executing his Decrees againſt the idolatrous Nations round about him, David ſhould be more punctual, and not ſo remiſs as Saul had been; and, in reſpect, would conform to the Divine Will, or be the Man after God's own Heart: This ſeems to be the primary Senſe of the Words, tho' the common Solution, viz. that, tho' David was a great and grievous Sinner, yet the Severity of his Repentance cleared him in the Sight of God, and made amends for the Enormity of his Tranſgreſſions, be not much amiſs.

CHAP. XXX.

The Amalekites ſpoil Ziklag, and carry away David's Wives; he purſues and overtakes them, and recovers all; makes an Order for dividing the Spoil; and ſends Preſents to his Friends.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the ſouth and Ziklag, and ſmitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire: 2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein; they ſlew not any, either great or ſmall, but carried them away, and went on their way. 3 So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire, and their wives, and their ſons, and their daughters were taken captives. 4 Then David and the people that were with him, lift up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. 5 And Davids two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreeliteſs, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. 6 And David was greatly diſtreſſed; for the people ſpake of ſtoning him, becauſe the ſoul of all the people was grieved, every man for his ſons, and for his daughters: but David encouraged himſelf in the Lord his God. 7 And David ſaid to Abiathar the prieſt Ahimelechs ſon, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod: and Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David. 8 And David enquired at the Lord, ſaying, Shall I purſue after this troop? Shall I overtake them? And he anſwered him, Purſue; for thou ſhalt ſurely overtake them, and without fail recover all. 9 So David went, he and the ſix hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Beſor, where thoſe that were left behind, ſtayed. 10 But David purſued, he and four hundred men: (for two hundred abode behind, which were ſo faint that they could not go over the brook Beſor) 11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat, and they made him drink water. 12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two cluſters of raiſins: and when he had eaten, his ſpirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights. 13 And David ſaid unto him, To whom belongeſt thou? and whence art thou? And he ſaid, I am a young man of Egypt, ſervant to an Amalekite, and my maſter left me, becauſe three days agon I fell ſick. 14 We made an invaſion upon the ſouth of the Cherethites, and upon the coaſt which belongeth to Judah, and upon the ſouth of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire. 15 And David ſaid to him, Canſt thou bring me down to this company? And he ſaid, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my maſter, and I will bring thee down to this company. 16 And when he had brought him down, behold, they were ſpread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, becauſe of all the great ſpoil that they

they had taken out of the land of the Philiſtines, and out of the land of Judah. 17 And David ſmote them from the twilight, even unto the evening of the next day: and there eſcaped not a man of them, ſave four hundred young men which rode upon camels, and fled. 18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David reſcued his two wives. 19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither ſmall nor great, neither ſons nor daughters, neither ſpoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all. 20 And David took all the flocks, and the herds: which they drave before thoſe other cattel, and ſaid, This is Davids ſpoil. 21 And David came to the two hundred men, which were ſo faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made alſo to abide at the brook Beſor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him; and when David came to the people, he ſaluted them. 22 Then anſwered all the wicked men, and men of Belial, of thoſe that went with David, and ſaid, Becauſe they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the ſpoil that we have recovered, ſave to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart. 23 Then ſaid David, Ye ſhall not do ſo, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath given us, who hath preſerved us, and delivered the company that came againſt us, into our hand. 24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battel, ſo ſhall his part be that tarrieth by the ſtuff: they ſhall part alike. 25 And it was ſo from that day forward, that he made it a ſtatute and an ordinance for Iſrael unto this day. 26 And when David came to Ziklag, he ſent of the ſpoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, (ſaying, Behold a preſent for you, of the ſpoil of the enemies of the Lord.) 27 To them which were in Bethel, and to them which were in ſouth Ramoth, and to them which were in Jattir, 28 And to them which were in Aroer, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in Eſhtemoa, 29 And to them which were in Rachal, and to them which were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of the Kenites, 30 And to them which were in Hormah, and to them which were in Chor-aſhan, and to them which were in Athach, 31 And to them which were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himſelf and his men were wont to haunt.

They ſlew not any, either great or ſmall, but carried them away] This may be imputed either to their Covetouſneſs, who might keep them for Sale, and to make Money of them as Captives; or to their Cruelty, who might keep them for more lingering and repeated Torments; or perhaps for the Gratification of their brutal Luſts; tho' principally it is to be aſcribed to God's overruling Providence, who reſtrained, and ſet Bounds to their Rage.

The People ſpake of ſtoning him] The Reaſon of their Rage againſt David, was his relinquiſhing his own Country, and coming to Ziklag; for provoking the Amalekites by the Slaughter of all that came in his Way; and for going with Achiſh to War, while he left the Place, where their Wives, and Children were unguarded.

CHAP. XXXI.

Iſrael and the Philiſtines join Battle; the former ſmitten. Saul's Sons ſlain; he and his Armour-bearer fall on their Swords. The Jabeſh-Gileadites take their Bodies from the Walls, where the Philiſtines had fixed them, and ſolemnize their Funeral.

Ver. 1. NOW the Philiſtines fought againſt Iſrael: and the men of Iſrael fled from before the Philiſtines, and fell down ſlain in mount Gilboa. 2 And the Philiſtines followed hard upon Saul, and upon his ſons; and the Philiſtines ſlew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchiſhua, Sauls ſons. 3 And the battel went ſore againſt Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was ſore wounded of the archers. 4 Then ſaid Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy ſword and thruſt me through therewith; leſt theſe uncircumciſed come and thruſt me through, and abuſe me. But his armour-bearer would not; for he was ſore afraid: and therefore Saul took a ſword, and fell upon it. 5 And when his armour-bearer ſaw that Saul was dead, he fell likewiſe upon his ſword, and died with him. 6 So Saul died, and his three ſons, and his armour-bearer, and all his men that ſame day together. 7 And when the men of Iſrael that were on the other ſide of the valley, and they that were on the other ſide Jordan, ſaw that the men of Iſrael fled, and that Saul and his ſons were dead, they forſook the cities, and fled; and the Philiſtines came and dwelt in them. 8 And it came to paſs on the morrow, when the Philiſtines came to ſtrip the ſlain, that they found Saul and his three ſons fallen in mount Gilboa. 9 And they cut off his head, and ſtripped off his armour, and ſent into the land of the Philiſtines round about, to publiſh it in the houſe of their idols, and among the people. 10 And they put his armour in the houſe of Aſhtaroth: and they faſtened his body to the wall of Bethſhan. 11 And when the inhabitants of Jabeſh-gilead heard of that which the Philiſtines had done to Saul: 12 All the valiant men aroſe, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his ſons from the wall of Beth-ſhan, and came to Jabeſh, and burnt them there. 13 And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabeſh, and faſted ſeven days.

And the Philiſtines ſlew Jonathan] It was certainly no ſmall Grief to David to hear of Jonathan's Death, and a Trial it might be of his Patience, and Reſignation to the Divine Will; but ſtill, there ſeems to be a Direction of Providence in ſuffering him to be ſlain, that David might more eaſily come to the Throne. For, tho' Jonathan, no doubt, would have made a voluntary Dedition of it, yet, as he was the People's great Favourite, ſome there might poſſibly be, who would not allow of the Dedition, and ſo a civil War might have aroſe concerning the Succeſſor, which, by his dying in this Manner, was prevented.

And he was ſore wounded of the Archers] Bows and Arrows were the principal Weapons that the Philiſtines uſed, in which they were very expert, and did terrible Execution: And for this Reaſon ſome think, that, when David came to the Throne, he taught the Iſraelites the Uſe of the Bow (as we read 2 Sam. i. 18.) that they might not be inferior to the Philiſtines, and fall into the like Diſaſter; that, when he had made a Peace with the Philiſtines, he took ſome of their Archers (who, in the following Books, are frequently mentioned under the Name of Cherethites) to be his Body-guard.

AN EXPOSITION OF

The ARGUMENT.

This and the foregoing Book bear the Title of Samuel, becauſe they contain the Narrative of the Conception, Nativity, and the ſeveral Incidents and Occurrences of his Life, and alſo the Lives and remarkable Tranſactions of thoſe two Kings, Saul and David, both whom he anointed and conſecrated Kings by the immediate Direction and Ordinance of God. And as the firſt Book gives an Account of thoſe Things which God brought to paſs under the Government of Samuel and Saul; ſo this ſecond declares the brave Exploits, and noble Atchievements of David, after the Death of Saul, from the Beginning to the End of his Reign, and by what Means his Kingdom was wonderfully augmented; his great Troubles and Dangers, ariſing from within as from without his Houſe; the unnatural and dangerous Inſurrections, Uproars, Treaſons, plotted and ſet on Foot againſt him, by falſe Counſellors, feigned Friends and Flatterers, and even by his own Children and People; and by what Means God enabled him to overcome all Difficulties, and to enjoy his Kingdom in Reſt and Peace. In the Perſon of David the Scripture ſets forth Jeſus Chriſt the chief King, who came of David according to the Fleſh, and was perſecuted on every Side by open and ſecret Enemies, as well in his Perſon, as in his Members; but at length, he triumphs over all, and gives his Catholick Church Victory over all Powers, Spiritual and Temporal, and ſo reigns with them King for evermore.

CHAP. I.

David returning to Ziklag, is informed by an Amalekite of the Death of Saul and Jonathan; revenges their Death on the Meſſenger; and laments them in an Elegiac Song.

Chap. 1. NOW it came to paſs after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the ſlaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag: 2 It came even to paſs on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and ſo it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeiſance. 3 And David ſaid unto him, From whence comeſt thou? And he ſaid unto him, Out of the camp of Iſrael am I eſcaped. 4 And David ſaid unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he anſwered, That the people are fled from the battel, and many of the people alſo are fallen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his ſon are dead alſo. 5 And David ſaid unto the young man that told him, How knoweſt thou that Saul and Jonathan his ſon be dead? 6 And the young man that told him, ſaid, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his ſpear, and lo, the chariots and horſemen followed hard after him. 7 And when he looked behind him, he ſaw me, and called unto me: and I anſwered, Here am I. 8 And he ſaid unto me, Who art thou? And I anſwered him, I am an Amalekite. 9 He ſaid unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and ſlay me: for anguiſh is come upon me, becauſe my life is yet whole in me. 10 So I ſtood upon him, and ſlew him, becauſe I was ſure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. 11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewiſe all the men that were with him. 12 And they mourned and wept, and faſted until even, for Saul and for Jonathan his ſon, and for the people of the Lord, and for the houſe of Iſrael; becauſe they were fallen by the ſword. 13 And David ſaid unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he anſwered, I am the ſon of a ſtranger, an Amalekite. 14 And David ſaid unto him, How waſt thou not afraid to ſtretch forth thine hand, to deſtroy the Lords anointed? 15 And David called one of the young men, and ſaid, Go near, and fall upon him. And he ſmote him, that he died. 16 And David ſaid unto him, Thy blood be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath teſtified againſt thee, ſaying, I have ſlain the Lords anointed. 17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his ſon, 18 (Alſo he bade them teach the children of Judah the uſe of the bow: behold it is written in the book of Jaſher) 19 The beauty of Iſrael is ſlain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen! 20 Tell it not in Gath, publiſh it not in the ſtreets of Aſkelon: leſt the daughters of the Philiſtines rejoyce, leſt the daughters of the uncircumciſed triumph. 21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the ſhield of the mighty is vilely caſt away, the ſhield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil. 22 From the blood of the ſlain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the ſword of Saul returned not empty. 23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleaſant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were ſwifter than eagles, they were ſtronger than lions. 24 Ye daughters of Iſrael, weep over Saul, who clothed you in ſcarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel. 25 How are the mighty fallen in the midſt of the battel! O Jonathan, thou waſt ſlain in thine high places. 26 I am diſtreſſed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleaſant haſt thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, paſſing the love of women. 27 How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war periſhed!

I am the Son of a Stranger, an Amalekite] By the Account which we have of King Saul's Death, in the Concluſion of the foregoing Book, viz. that he fell upon his own Sword, and expired, it ſeems very evident, that the whole Story of this Amalekite was a Fiction of his own inventing, on purpoſe to ingratiate himſelf with David, the preſumptive Succeſſor to the Throne: But then the Queſtion is, How he came by Saul's Crown and Bracelet, ſince it is incongruous to think that he would ever wear them in the Time of Action, and thereby expoſe himſelf as a publick Mark? As therefore it is preſum'd, that they were carried into the Field of Battle by ſome of his Attendants, in order to be put on, in Caſe he had obtain'd the Victory, and return'd in Triumph; ſo the Jews have a Conceit, that Doeg, the infamous Murtherer of the Prieſts at Nob, who, at this Time, was his Armour-bearer, had them in his Poſſeſſion, and, before he killed himſelf, gave them to his Son, (this young Amalekite) and order'd him to carry them to David, but to his Coſt found, that David's Reception was quite different to what he expected. For, being ſhortly to aſcend the Throne himſelf, he was willing to have it believ'd, that to ſlay the Lord's anointed, upon any Account whatever, was in itſelf an execrable Crime; and therefore to clear himſelf from the Imputation of being any ways acceſſary to ſo foul a Fact, (as his Enemies would have been apt to imagine, had he given countenance to this pretended King-killer) he order'd him immediately to be put to Death, and therein, at leaſt, acted the Part of a good Politician, if not of a righteous Judge. Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs after this, that David enquired of the Lord, ſaying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the Lord ſaid unto him, Go up. And David ſaid, Whither ſhall I go up? And he ſaid, unto Hebron. 2 So David went up thither, and his two wives alſo, Ahinoam the Jezreelitеſs, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite. 3 And his men that were with him, did David bring up, every man with his houſhold: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. 4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the houſe of Judah: and they told David, ſaying, That the men of Jabeſh-gilead were they that buried Saul. 5 And David ſent meſſengers unto the men of Jabeſh-gilead, and ſaid unto them, Bleſſed be ye of the Lord, that ye have ſhewed this kindneſs unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him. 6 And now the Lord ſhew kindneſs and truth unto you: and I alſo will requite you this kindneſs, becauſe ye have done this thing. 7 Therefore now let your hands be ſtrengthened, and be ye valiant: for your maſter Saul is dead, and alſo the houſe of Judah have anointed me king over them. 8 But Abner the ſon of Ner, captain of Sauls hoſt, took Iſh-boſheth the ſon of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim. 9 And he made him king over Gilead, and over the Aſhurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Iſrael. 10 Iſh-boſheth Sauls ſon was forty years old when he began to reign over Iſrael, and reigned two years: but the houſe of Judah followed David. 11 (And the time that David was king in Hebron over the houſe of Judah, was ſeven years and ſix months.) 12 And Abner the ſon of Ner, and the ſervants of Iſh-boſheth the ſon of Saul, went out from Mahanaim, to Gibeon. 13 And Joab the ſon of Zeruiah, and the ſervants of David went out, and met together by the pool of Gibeon: and they ſat down, the one on the one ſide of the pool, and the other on the other ſide of the pool. 14 And Abner ſaid to Joab, Let the young men now ariſe, and play before us. And Joab ſaid, Let them ariſe. 15 Then there aroſe and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Iſh-boſheth the ſon of Saul, and twelve of the ſervants of David. 16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thruſt his ſword in his fellows ſide; ſo they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. 17 And there was a very ſore battle that day: and Abner was beaten, and the men of Iſrael, before the ſervants of David. 18 And there were three ſons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abiſhai, and Aſahel: and Aſahel was as light of foot as a wild roe. 19 And Aſahel purſued after Abner, and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left, from following Abner. 20 Then Abner looked behind him, and ſaid, Art thou Aſahel? And he anſwered, I am. 21 And Abner ſaid unto him, Turn thee aſide to thy right or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But Aſahel would not turn aſide from following of him. 22 And Abner ſaid again to Aſahel, Turn thee aſide from following me: wherefore ſhould I ſmite thee to the ground: how then ſhould I hold up my face to Joab thy brother? 23 Howbeit he refuſed to turn aſide: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the ſpear ſmote him under the fifth rib, that the ſpear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the ſame place: and it came to paſs, that as many as came to the place where Aſahel fell down and died, ſtood ſtill. 24 Joab alſo and Abiſhai purſued after Abner: and the ſun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderneſs of Gibeon. 25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themſelves together after Abner, and became one troop, and ſtood on the top of an hill. 26 Then Abner called to Joab, and ſaid, Shall the ſword devour for ever? knoweſt thou not that it will be bitterneſs in the latter end? how long ſhall it be then ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren? 27 And Joab ſaid, As God liveth, unleſs thou hadſt ſpoken, ſurely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother. 28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people ſtood ſtill, and purſued after Iſrael no more, neither fought they any more. 29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and paſſed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim. 30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he gathered all the people, there lacked of Davids ſervants nineteen men, and Aſahel. 31 But the ſervants of David had ſmitten of Benjamin and of Abners men, ſo that three hundred and threeſcore men died. 32 And they took up Aſahel, and buried him in the ſepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem: and Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

Whither ſhall I go up? And he ſaid, Unto Hebron] Hebron was ſituate in the Midſt of the Tribe of Judah; and, as it was a very antient City, the Metropolis of the whole Tribe, and the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Prieſtly Families who eſpous'd David's Intereſt; it was a very commodious City for him to make the Place of his Reſidence at this Juncture; as being not unſenſible, that the Determination of the Metropolis in his Favour would be of great Weight to influence the whole Tribe: And accordingly, we find, he was ſoon inveſted with the Sovereignty thereof. For the Men of Judah came, and there they anointed David King over the Houſe of Judah, Ver. 4.

And brought him over to Mahanaim] This was a Place in the Tribe of Gad, which had its Name from the Appearance of an Hoſt of Angels to Jacob, as he came with his Family and all his Subſtance to Padan-aram, Gen. xxxii. 1. And the Reaſons for Abner's retreating hither, in the Beginning of the new King's Reign, were, that he might ſecure the People on that Side Jordan, and eſpecially the gallant Inhabitants of Jabeſh-gilead, who were great Lovers of Saul, and attach'd to his Family; that he might prevent the Philiſtines from falling upon the King, whom he had under his Protection, in the Infancy of his Reign; and chiefly, that he might be at a great Diſtance from David, have the new King more abſolutely under his Command, and a better Opportunity of raiſing Recruits among a People not only brave and courageous, but very well affected to the Cauſe which he had eſpouſed. See Calmet's Com. and Pool's Annot.

And Abner ſaid to Joab, Let the young Men now ariſe, and play before us] By which Abner ſeems to have meant, not that they ſhould fall upon and deſtroy one another, but merely that they ſhould practiſe a little their military Exerciſes, or play at Sharps, as Gladiators antiently at Rome, and now among us, are wont to do, not with any Purpoſe to kill one another, but only to divert the Spectators. See Calmet's Com.

CHAP. III.

War between the Houſes of David and Saul. Abner quarrels with Iſhboſheth; revolts to David, who feaſts and diſmiſſes him. Joab meeting him, treacherouſly murders him. David curſes Joab, and mourns for Abner.

Ver. 1. NOW there was long war between the houſe of Saul, and the houſe of David: but David waxed ſtronger and ſtronger, and the houſe of Saul waxed weaker and weaker. 2 And unto David were ſons born in Hebron: and his firſt born was Ammon, of Ahinoam the Jezreeliteſs. 3 And his ſeccond, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Abſalom the ſon of Maacah, the Daughter of Talmai king of Geſhur: 4 And the fourth, Adonijah the ſon of Haggith: and the fifth, Shephatiah the ſon of Abital: 5 And the ſixth, Ithream, by Eglah Davids wife: theſe were born to David in Hebron. 6 And it came to paſs while there was war between the houſe of Saul and the houſe of David, that Abner made himſelf ſtrong for the houſe of Saul. 7 And Saul had a concubine, whoſe name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Iſh-boſheth ſaid to Abner, Wherefore haſt thou gone in unto my fathers concubine? 8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Iſh-boſheth, and ſaid, Am I a dogs head, which againſt Judah do ſhew kindneſs this day unto the houſe of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargeſt me to day with a fault concerning this woman? 9 So do God to Abner, and more alſo, except as the Lord hath ſworn to David, even ſo I do to him: 10 To tranſlate the kingdom from the houſe of Saul, and to ſet up the throne of David over Iſrael, and over Judah, from Dan even to Beerſheba. 11 And he could not anſwer Abner a word again, becauſe he feared him. 12 And Abner ſent meſſengers to David on his behalf, ſaying, whoſe is the land? ſaying alſo, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand ſhall be with thee, to bring about all Iſrael unto thee. 13 And he ſaid, Well, I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou ſhalt not ſee my face, except thou firſt bring Michal Sauls daughter, when thou comeſt to ſee my face. 14 And David ſent meſſengers to Iſh-boſheth Sauls Son, ſaying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I eſpouſed to me for an hundred fore-ſkins of the Philiſtines. 15 And Iſh-boſheth ſent, and took her from her huſband, even from Phaltiel the ſon of Laiſh. 16 And her huſband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim: then ſaid Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned. 17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Iſrael, ſaying, Ye ſought for David in times paſt to be king over you. 18 Now then do it; for the Lord hath ſpoken of David, ſaying, By the hand of my ſervant David I will ſave my people Iſrael out of the hand of the Philiſtines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. 19 And Abner went alſo to ſpeak in the ears of David in Hebron, all that ſeemed good to Iſrael, and that ſeemed good to the whole houſe of Benjamin. 20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him: and David made Abner and the men that were with him, a feaſt. 21 And Abner ſaid unto David, I will ariſe, and go, and will gather all Iſrael unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayeſt reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace. 22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: (but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace) 23 When Joab and all the host that was with him, were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner, came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace. 24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee, why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone? 25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest. 26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah; but David knew it not. 27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly: and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. 28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the Lord for ever, from the blood of Abner the son of Ner. 29 Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his fathers house, and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread. 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. 31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier. 32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lift up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. 33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth? 34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him. 35 And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread or ought else, till the sun be down. 36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did, pleased all the people. 37 For all the people, and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner. 38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? 39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the Lord shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

And Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my Father's Concubine] What Notion the World, at this Time, had of marrying any Royal Relict, is evident from the Case of Adonijah, whom Solomon put to Death for desiring but to ask for Abishag, one of David's Concubines, tho' he had employed Bathsheba, the King's Mother, to be his Intercessor, and was himself the King's Brother, 1 Kings ii. 17. It may be said, perhaps, that Adonijah was at this Time aspiring to the Throne, which Solomon perceiving, took Occasion from this Request to fall out with him, and prevent it. But, however this be, a general Rule it was, not among the Jews only, but among other Nations, that no private Person should presume to marry the King's Widow; for this made him appear as a Rival, and Competitor for the Crown. See Calmet's Com.

Joab took him aside in the Gate to speak with him quietly; and smote him there] Abner was a Man longer versed in military Affairs, who, in the Time of Saul's Distraction, had been Regent of the Nation, and since the Time that he had set up Ishbosheth to be King, Prime Minister: And therefore Joab had Reason to suspect, that, in Case he once got into David's Favour, (as the Service he was able to do him, gave him a Title to it) it would not be long before he gained a superior Ascendant; and therefore he took this wicked Method to prevent it.

And the King lamented over Abner] And Reason good he had to express his Detestation of so foul a Fact. For, besides that Abner was a Man of great Power and Authority, and, at this Time, the Head of the contrary Party, it carried an Air of Suspicion, that David might have some Concern in the Murder; especially, since Joab, his First Minister, and General of his Forces, was the wicked Instrument of it. Abner had been reconciled to David indeed, but this made the Matter still worse, and added the Breach of Faith and Hospitality to the Sin of Murder, which was enough to alienate the Minds of the Israelites from him for ever: And therefore David behaved himself in this Manner, upon this critical Occasion, not only to testify his Abhorrence of so base a Practice, but to purge himself likewise, upon the strictest Niceties of Faith and Honour, that he had been true to Abner.

CHAP. IV.

Ishbosheth is murdered by two of his Captains, who carry his Head to David, for which he orders them to be executed, and Ishbosheth's Head buried.

Ver. 1. AND when Sauls son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. 2 And Sauls son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin. 3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.) 4 And Jonathan Sauls son, had a son that was lame of his feet, and was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame; and his name was Mephibosheth. 5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon. 6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth rib; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. 7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they smote him and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night. 8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold, the head of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the Lord hath avenged my lord lord the king this day of Saul, and of his ſeed. 9 And David anſwered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the ſons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and ſaid unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my ſoul out of all adverſity, 10 When one told me, ſaying, Behold, Saul is dead (thinking to have brought good tidings) I took hold of him, and ſlew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings: 11 How much more, when wicked men have ſlain a righteous perſon, in his own houſe, upon his bed? ſhall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? 12 And David commanded his young men, and they ſlew them, and cut off their hands, and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron: but they took the head of Iſh-boſheth, and buried it in the ſepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

And Saul's Son had two Men that were Captains of Bands — of the Tribe of Benjamin] This is added, to ſhew, that theſe two Regicides were not only Officers in the King's Army, but of the ſame Tribe with Saul, and therefore had more Ties than one upon them to be honeſt and faithful to his Family. For there is Reaſon to believe, that Saul, who lived in the Borders of Benjamin, conferred more Favours upon that Tribe than any other; and might therefore juſtly expect, both to him and his, a greater Eſteem and Fidelity from thoſe of his own Tribe, than from others. This Patronymick is therefore very properly prefixed to the Names of Rechab and Baanah, to ſhew what vile, ungrateful Villains they were, and how juſtly they deſerved the exemplary Puniſhment which David inflicted on them.

And they brought the Head of Iſhboſheth unto David] It may ſeem a little ſtrange, that theſe two Ruffians were not diſcouraged by David's puniſhing the Amalekite for killing Saul, and by the Deteſtation he had publickly ſhewn of Joab's Baſeneſs in murthering Abner: But the former of theſe Caſes, they might think, was not parallel to theirs; becauſe Saul was anointed King by God's immediate Direction, whereas Iſhboſheth having never had ſuch ſacred Unction, was no more than an Uſurper: And, as for the latter, they might think, that David's Conduct, in Relation to Abner's Death, proceeded from Art and Policy, rather than any ſerious Diſlike of the Thing itſelf; and, in this Opinion, they might the rather be confirmed, when they ſaw Joab, inſtead of being puniſhed, continuing in the very ſame Poſt and Power as he had before. Pool's Aunot.

CHAP. V.

The Tribes repair to Hebron, to anoint David King. He takes the ſtrong Hold of Sion from the Jebuſites. Hiram makes a League with him. His Exploits againſt the Philiſtines.

1 THEN came all the tribes of Iſrael to David unto Hebron, and ſpake, ying, Behold, we are thy bone, and thy fleſh. Alſo in time paſt, when Saul was king over s, thou waſt he that leddeſt out and broughteſt Iſrael: and the Lord ſaid to thee, Thou ſhalt ed my people Iſrael, and thou ſhalt be a cap- in over Iſrael. 3 So all the elders of Iſrael me to the king to Hebron, and king David ade a league with them in Hebron before the ord: and they anointed David king over Iſrael. David was thirty years old when he began to ign, and he reigned forty years. 5 In Hebron reigned over Judah ſeven years and ſix onths: and in Jeruſalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Iſrael and Judah. 6 And the king and his men went to Jeruſalem, unto the Jebuſites, the inhabitants of the land, which ſpake unto David, ſaying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou ſhalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither. 7 Nevertheleſs, David took the ſtrong hold of Zion: the ſame is the city of David. 8 And David ſaid on that day, Whoſoever getteth up to the gutter, and ſmiteth the Jebuſites, and the lame, and the blind, that are hated of Davids ſoul, he ſhall be chief and captain: wherefore they ſaid, The blind and the lame ſhall not come into the houſe. 9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the City of David; and David built round about from Millo and inward. 10 And David went on, and grew great, and the Lord God of hoſts was with him. 11 And Hiram king of Tyre ſent meſſengers to David, and cedar-trees, and carpenters, and maſons: and they built David an houſe. 12 And David perceived that the Lord had eſtabliſhed him king over Iſrael, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Iſraels ſake. 13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jeruſalem, after he was come from Hebron; and there were yet ſons and daughters born to David. 14 And theſe be the names of thoſe that were born unto him in Jeruſalem: Shammuah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, 15 Ibhar alſo, and Eliſhua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, 16 And Eliſhama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet. 17 But when the Philiſtines heard that they had anointed David king over Iſrael, all the Philiſtines came up to ſeek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold. 18 The Philiſtines alſo came and ſpread themſelves in the valley of Rephaim. 19 And David enquired of the Lord, ſaying, Shall I go up to the Philiſtines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord ſaid unto David, Go up; for I will doubtleſs deliver the Philiſtines into thine hand. 20 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David ſmote them there, and ſaid, The Lord hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim. 21 And there they left their images, and David and his men burnt them. 22 And the Philiſtines came up yet again, and ſpread themſelves in the valley of Rephaim. 23 And when David enquired of the Lord, he ſaid, Thou ſhalt not go up: but fetch a compaſs behind them, and come upon them over againſt the mulberry-trees. 24 And let it be when thou heareſt the ſound of a going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou ſhalt beſtir thyſelf: for then ſhall the Lord go out before thee, to ſmite the hoſt of the Philiſtines. 25 And David did ſo, as the Lord had commanded him: and ſmote the Philiſtines from Geba, until thou come to Gazer.

Thou ſhalt feed my People Iſrael] This was David's Part of the Covenant, which the Elders of Iſrael ſuggeſted to him in a very elegant Metaphor, which here occurs the firſt Time, tho' afterwards it is frequently uſed in ſacred Writ, eſpecially in the Prophets, as well as ſome prophane Authors. The Expreſſion is — Thou ſhalt feed my People Iſrael; which was the rather made Uſe of to put David in Mind, that he was created a King, not ſo much for the Advancement of his own Honour

Honour and Intereſt, as for the Good and Benefit of the Community, which he was to rule with all Tenderneſs, and watch over with all Diligence. The very Manner of the Expreſſion implies, that Kings ought to have the ſame Care of their People, as the Shepherd has over his Flock; and that, as the Shepherd is not the Owner of the Sheep he keeps, ſo ſhould no King look upon his Subjects as his own Peculium, but as a Flock committed to him by the true Lord of all Mankind, and to whom he muſt give an Account of his Adminiſtration.

The Lame and the Blind that are hated of David's Soul] The Blind and the Lame, ſays Luther upon this Place, were the Idols of the Jebuſites, which, to irritate David, they ſet upon their Walls, as their Patrons and Protectors; and theſe they called blind and lame ſarcaſtically, and with Reſpect to David's Opinion: As if they had ſaid, 'Theſe Gods of ours, whom ye Iſraelites reproach as blind and lame, and ſo unable to direct or defend us, will ſecure us againſt you, and, to your Coſt, make you find, that they are neither blind nor lame, but have Eyes to watch for us, and Hands to fight againſt you, ſo that you muſt conquer and ſubdue them, before you take this Place.' But this Interpretation ſeems to be a little too metaphorical and forced; for which Reaſon we have rather choſen the Conſtruction which Joſephus puts upon this Place, viz. that they imagined their Fortreſs to be ſo impregnable, that, by Way of Contempt, they told David, that their very Blind and Lame would be able to defend it againſt him and all his Forces. And this is a Senſe ſo extremely plain and obvious, that the renowned Bochart wonders, why any Man of Learning ſhould ſeek for any other. The only Exception to it is, that theſe Blind and Lame (which were rather Objects of Compaſſion) are ſaid to have been extremely hated by David. But we may obſerve, that David here retorts the Sarcaſm upon them; The Lame and the Blind, i. e. thoſe who are ſet to defend the Place, and who, as they pretended, were to be only the Lame and the Blind. And theſe were hateful to David, becauſe they had wickedly and inſolently defied the Armies of the living God. Pool's Annot. Patrick's and Le Clerc's Com.

And Hiram King of Tyre ſent Meſſengers unto David] Abibalus was his primitive Name, but before he entered into a League of Amity with David, he changed it to Hiram, that ſo it might be the ſtanding Name of him and his Succeſſors, as Pharaoh, and after that Ptolemy in Egypt, Abimelech among the Philiſtines, and Cæſar among the Roman Emperors. The Name, in their Language, ſignifies, he lives, that is, exalted; or let him live who is exalted; i. e. Let the King live for ever; and his ſending to David only under this Name, is the Reaſon why no other Name is mentioned in Scripture. Bedford's Script. Chron.

CHAP. VI.

David fetches the Ark out of the Houſe of Abinadab. Uzzah, laying hold of the Ark, is ſlain of God; David carries it to the Houſe of Obed-edom; and afterwards to Zion, and places it in the Tabernacle. Michal reproaches David; his Reply.

Ver. 1. AGAIN, David gathered together all the choſen men of Iſrael, thirty thouſand. 2 And David aroſe, and went with all the people that were with him, from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whoſe name is called by the name of the Lord of hoſts, that dwelleth between the cherubims. 3 And they ſet the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the houſe of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio the ſons of Abinadab, drave the new cart. 4 And they brought it out of the houſe of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark. 5 And David and all the houſe of Iſrael played before the Lord on all manner of inſtruments made of fir-wood, even on harps, and on pſalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals. 6 And when they came to Nachons threſhing-floor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it, for the oxen ſhook it. 7 And the anger of the Lord was kindled againſt Uzzah, and God ſmote him there for his errour, and there he died by the ark of God. 8 And David was diſpleaſed, becauſe the Lord had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day. 9 And David was afraid of the Lord that day, and ſaid, How ſhall the ark of the Lord come to me? 10 So David would not remove the ark of the Lord unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aſide into the houſe of Obed-edom the Gittite. 11 And the ark of the Lord continued in the houſe of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the Lord bleſſed Obed-edom, and all his houſhold. 12 And it was told king David, ſaying, The Lord hath bleſſed the houſe of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him becauſe of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the houſe of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladneſs. 13 And it was ſo, that when they that bare the ark of the Lord, had gone ſix paces, he ſacrificed oxen and fatlings. 14 And David danced before the Lord with all his might, and David was girded with a linen ephod. 15 So David and all the houſe of Iſrael brought up the ark of the Lord with ſhouting, and with the ſound of the trumpet. 16 And as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal Sauls daughter looked through a window, and ſaw king David leaping, and dancing before the Lord: and ſhe deſpiſed him in her heart. 17 And they brought in the ark of the Lord, and ſet it in his place, in the midſt of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings before the Lord. 18 And aſſoon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings, he bleſſed the people in the name of the Lord of hoſts. 19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Iſrael, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of fleſh, and a flagon of wine: ſo all the people departed every one to his houſe. 20 Then David returned to bleſs his houſhold: and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and ſaid, How glorious was the king of Iſrael to day, who uncovered himſelf to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his ſervants, as one of the vain fellows ſhamelеſly uncovereth himſelf! 21 And David ſaid unto Michal, it was before the Lord which choſe me before thy father, and before all his houſe, to appoint me ruler over the people of the Lord, over Iſrael: therefore will I play before the Lord. 22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be baſe in mine own ſight: and of the maid-ſervants which thou haſt ſpoken of, of them ſhall I be had in honour. 23 Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child until the day of her death.

Chap. 7.

And God ſmote him there for his Error.] It was now ſeventy Years, ſince the Iſraelites had carried the Ark from Place to Place, and ſo long a Diſuſe had made them forget the Manner of doing it. In Conformity to what they had heard of the Philiſtines, they put it into a new Cart or Waggon; but this was againſt the expreſs Direction of the Law, which ordered it to be borne on Mens Shoulders. It is commonly ſuppoſed, that Uzzah was a Levite, tho' there is no Proof of it from Scripture; but ſuppoſing he was, he had no Right to attend upon the Ark; that Province by the ſame Law was reſtrained to thoſe Levites only, who were of the Houſe of Kohath. Nay, put the Caſe he had been a Kohathite by Birth, yet he had violated another Command, which prohibited even theſe Levites (tho' they carried it by Staves on their Shoulders) upon Pain of Death to touch it with their Hands: So that here was a threefold Tranſgreſſion of the divine Will in this Method of proceeding. The Ark (as ſome ſay) by Uzzah's Direction, was placed in a Cart; Uzzah, without any proper Deſignation, adventures to attend it, when he thought it in Danger of falling, officiouſly put forth his Hand, and laid hold on it, (all violating of the divine Commands!) and this, as is ſuppoſed, not ſo much out of Reverence to the ſacred Symbol of God's Preſence, as out of Diffidence of his Providence, as unable to preſerve it from overturning. What Wonder then, if God, being minded to teſtify his immediate Preſence with the Ark, to retrieve the antient Honour of that ſacred Veſſel, and to curb all licentious Profanations of it for the future, ſhould ſingle out one, that was the moſt culpable of many, one, who in three Inſtances was then violating his Commands, to be a Monument of his Diſpleaſure againſt either a wilful Ignorance, or a rude Contempt of his Precepts, be they never ſo ſeemingly ſmall; that by ſuch an Example of Terror, he might inſpire both Prince and People with a ſacred Dread of his Majeſty, and a profound Veneration for his Myſteries.

And David danced before the Lord.] Strabo tells us, that it was cuſtomary among the Greeks, as well as other Nations, to uſe Muſick and Dancing in their Proceſſions before their Gods. Callimachus mentions the Chori, and Dancing of the Youth at the Altar of Apollo. Plato obſerves, that, among the Egyptians, all Kinds of Muſick, Songs, and Dances, were conſecrated to their Gods. And even Lucian ſays, that among the Antients, no Ceremonial of Religion, no Expiation, no Atonement was reckoned rightly accompliſhed without Dancing. So that David was far from being ſingular in his Behaviour upon this Occaſion, nor was his Behaviour in this Particular any Diſparagement to his Royal Dignity. His dancing, i. e. his moving in certain ſerious and ſolemn Meaſures, ſuited to Muſick of the ſame Character and Tendency, was highly conducive to the Purpoſes of Piety, and his mixing with the Publick Feſtivities of his People, was a Condeſcenſion (as Tacitus relates of Auguſtus the Roman Emperor) not unbecoming the greateſt Monarch. Policy taught Auguſtus to put himſelf on a Level with his Subjects in their publick Rejoicings; Piety taught David, that all Men are upon a Level in the Solemnities of Religion. Or that David was not ſingular in his Behaviour upon this Occaſion.

And it was ſo, that, when they, that bare the Ark of the Lord, had gone ſix Paces, he ſacrificed Oxen and Fatlings.] From which Words ſome would infer, that David had Altars raiſed, at the Diſtance of every ſix Paces, whereon he cauſed Sacrifices to be offered, as the Ark paſſed by. But the more rational Conſtruction is, that, after thoſe, who carried the Ark, had advanced ſix Paces without any ſuch Token of divine Wrath as Uzzah had undergone, then did they offer a Sacrifice of Thankſgiving to God. But, even ſuppoſing, that, at ſet Diſtances, there were Sacrifices all along the Way that they went; yet we are to know, that it was no unuſual Thing for the Heathens to confer on their Gods, nay, even upon their Emperors the ſame Honours, that we find David here beſtowing upon the Ark of the God of Iſrael. For in this Manner

(as Suetonius tells us) was Otho received, cum per omne Iter, dextrâ ſiniſtrâque, oppidatim Victimæ cæderentur. And the like he relates of Caligula: Ut a Miſeno movit, inter Altaria, & Victimas, ardenteſque Tædas, denſiſſima obviorum Agmina inceſſit. See Calmet's Com.

CHAP. VII.

David, being at Reſt, thinks of building a Houſe to God, who approves the Deſign, but forbids the Undertaking, but promiſes it ſhall be done by his Seed. David's Prayer and Thankſgiving.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs, when the king ſat in his houſe, and the Lord had given him reſt round about from all his enemies; 2 That the king ſaid unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an houſe of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains. 3 And Nathan ſaid to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee. 4 And it came to paſs that night, that the word of the Lord came unto Nathan, ſaying, 5 Go and tell my ſervant David, Thus ſaith the Lord, Shalt thou build me an houſe for me to dwell in? 6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any houſe, ſince the time that I brought up the children of Iſrael out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. 7 In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Iſrael, ſpake I a word with any of the tribes of Iſrael, whom I commanded to feed my people Iſrael, ſaying, Why build ye not me an houſe of cedar? 8 Now therefore, ſo ſhalt thou ſay unto my ſervant David, Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſts, I took thee from the ſheep-cote, from following the ſheep, to be ruler over my people, over Iſrael. 9 And I was with thee whitherſoever thou wenteſt, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy ſight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth. 10 (Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Iſrael, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more: neither ſhall the children of wickedneſs afflict them any more, as beforetime. 11 And as ſince the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Iſrael, and have cauſed thee to reſt from all thine enemies) Alſo the Lord telleth thee, that he will make thee an houſe. 12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou ſhalt ſleep with thy fathers, I will ſet up thy ſeed after thee, which ſhall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will eſtabliſh his kingdom. 13 He ſhall build an houſe for my name, and I will ſtabliſh the throne of his kingdom for ever. 14 I will be his father, and he ſhall be my ſon: if he commit iniquity, I will chaſten him with the rod of men, and with the ſtripes of the children of men: 15 But my mercy ſhall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. 16 And thine houſe, and thy kingdom ſhall be eſtabliſhed for ever before thee: thy throne ſhall be eſtabliſhed for ever. 17 According to all theſe words, and according to all this viſion, ſo did Nathan ſpeak unto David. 18 Then went king David in, and ſat before the Lord, and he ſaid, Who am I, O Lord God? and what is my houſe, that thou haſt brought me hitherto? 19 And this was yet a ſmall thing in thy ſight, O Lord God; but thou haſt ſpoken

alſo of thy ſervants houſe for a great while to come; and is this the manner of man, O Lord God? 20 And what can David ſay more unto thee? for thou, Lord God, knoweſt thy ſervant. 21 For thy words ſake, and according to thine own heart haſt thou done all theſe great things, to make thy ſervant know them. 22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beſide thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 23 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Iſrael, whom God went to redeem for a people to himſelf, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things, and terrible, for thy land, before thy people which thou redeemedſt to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? 24 For thou haſt confirmed to thy ſelf thy people Iſrael to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, Lord, art become their God. 25 And now, O Lord God, the word that thou haſt ſpoken concerning thy ſervant, and concerning his houſe, eſtabliſh it for ever, and do as thou haſt ſaid. 26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, ſaying, The Lord of hoſts is the God over Iſrael: and let the houſe of thy ſervant David be eſtabliſhed before thee. 27 For thou, O Lord of hoſts, God of Iſrael, haſt revealed to thy ſervant, ſaying, I will build thee an houſe: therefore hath thy ſervant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. 28 And now, O Lord God, thou art that God, and thy words be true, and thou haſt promiſed this goodneſs unto thy ſervant: 29 Therefore now let it pleaſe thee to bleſs the houſe of thy ſervant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord God, haſt ſpoken it, and with thy bleſſing let the houſe of thy ſervant be bleſſed for ever.

The King ſaid unto Nathan the Prophet] At what Time this Prophet began to appear in Iſrael, we are no where informed: This is the firſt Time that the Scripture makes Mention of him. He was a Man of great Temper, Prudence, and fine Addreſs, who knew how to mitigate the Rigour of his Reproach with a great deal of Sweetneſs and Wiſdom, which qualified him ſo well for the Converſation of Kings, and other great Perſons. He was always equally eſteemed, and beloved by David, and, in his Conduct towards him, maintained a juſt Medium between an inflexible Auſterity, and a ſervile Flattery. See Calmet's Com.

I will eſtabliſh the Throne of his Kingdom for ever] Theſe Words in their primary Senſe, do relate to the terreſtrial Kingdom of David's Family, and the long Duration of it, enough to juſtify the Expreſſion for ever, taken in a leſs ſtrict Signification: But if we take it in a more ſublime and abſolute Senſe, it can belong to none, but that Son of David, to whom God the Father gave an eternal Kingdom (properly ſo called) over all Things both in Heaven and Earth, which, tho' it was not ſo well known in the Time when this Prophecy was uttered, was, by the Event afterwards, made plain and evident. See Le Clerc's Com.

David's Victories. Toi ſends Preſents to David, which, with the Spoil, he dedicates to God. His Government and Officers.

Ver. 1. AND after this it came to paſs, that David ſmote the Philiſtines and ſubdued them: and David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philiſtines. 2 And he ſmote Moab and meaſured them with a line, caſting them down to the ground: even with two lines meaſured he, to put to death; and with one full line, to keep alive: and ſo the Moabites became Davids ſervants, and brought gifts. 3 David ſmote alſo Hadadezer the ſon of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. 4 And David took from him a thouſand chariots, and ſeven hundred horſemen, and twenty thouſand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot-horſes, but reſerved of them for an hundred chariots. 5 And when the Syrians of Damaſcus came to ſuccour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David ſlew of the Syrians two and twenty thouſand men. 6 Then David put gariſons in Syria of Damaſcus: and the Syrians became ſervants to David, and brought gifts: and the Lord preſerved David whitherſoever he went. 7 And David took the ſhields of gold that were on the ſervants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jeruſalem. 8 And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much braſs. 9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had ſmitten all the hoſt of Hadadezer, 10 Then Toi ſent Joram his ſon unto king David, to ſalute him, and to bleſs him, becauſe he had fought againſt Hadadezer, and ſmitten him: (for Hadadezer had wars with Toi) and Joram brought with him veſſels of ſilver, and veſſels of gold, and veſſels of braſs; 11 Which alſo king David did dedicate unto the Lord, with the ſilver and gold that he had dedicate of all nations which he ſubdued: 12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philiſtines, and of Amalek, and of the ſpoil of Hadadezer ſon of Rehob, king of Zobah. 13 And David gat him a name when he returned from ſmiting of the Syrians in the valley of Salt, being eighteen thouſand men. 14 And he put gariſons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he gariſons, and all they of Edom became Davids ſervants: and the Lord preſerved David whitherſoever he went. 15 And David reigned over all Iſrael, and David executed judgment and juſtice unto all his people. 16 And Joab the ſon of Zeruiah was over the hoſt; and Jehoſhaphat the ſon of Ahilud was recorder; 17 And Zadok the ſon of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the ſon of Abiathar, were the prieſts; And Seraiah was the ſcribe; 18 And Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and Davids ſons were chief rulers.

And he ſmote Moab, and meaſured them with a Line, caſting them down to the Ground; and with two Lines meaſured he to put to Death; and with one full Line to keep alive] Which Words ſeem to allude to a Cuſtom among the Kings of the Eaſt, when they were throughly incens'd againſt any Nation, viz. to make the Captives all come together in one Place, and proſtrate themſelves upon the Ground that, being divided into two Parts, as it were with a Line, the Conqueror might appoint which Part he pleas'd, either for Death or Life, which was ſometimes determin'd by caſting of Lots. Some are of Opinion, that David made three Lots, or Parts of theſe Moabites, two of which he order'd to be ſlain, and one Part only to be kept alive. The Reaſon of this his Severity againſt this miſerable People, the Rabbins aſſure us, was, becauſe they had ſlain his Parents and Brethren, whom he had committed to the Cuſtody of the King of Moab, during his Exile. But of the Reality of this Motive, there is no Manner of Appearance; and ſince this Execution, which David inflicted, may relate either to the whole Nation or the Army only. to clear David from the Imputation of too much Cruelty, we ſhould rather conceive it of the Third, or Half Part, at moſt of the Army. Le Clerc's and Calmet's Com.

David ſmote alſo Hadadezer] In the Fragment of Nicholaus Damaſcenus, which Joſephus has preſerv'd, this Prince is ſimply call'd Adad, which was the common Name of the Kings of Syria, who, according to the Manner of other Eaſtern Princes, took their Titles from the celeſtial Bodies, and, in their Language, Adad ſignifies the Sun. The Fragment recorded by Joſephus is to this Effect: — 'A long Time after, one Adad, a valiant Man, and a Native of the Place, had the Command of Damaſcus and Syria, Phœnicia only excepted. There happened to be a War between the ſame Adad, and David, the King of the Jews, and ſeveral Encounters between them; but, in the End, Adad was overcome at Euphrates, behaving himſelf with the Reſolution of a brave Prince, and a great Captain.' The ſame Author, ſpeaking farther of his Poſterity, ſays, — 'That the Government was handed down, from Father to Son, to the Tenth Generation, and that the Succeſſor ſtill received the Father's Name with the Empire, as the Ptolomies did among the Egyptians.

Then David put Garriſons in Syria of Damaſcus] from Damaſek, which we tranſlate Syria of Damaſcus, was that Part of Syria, which lay between Libanus and Antilibanus, whoſe chief City was Damaſcus, ſituate in a Valley, called by ſeveral Names in Scripture, and water'd by five Rivers, the two principal of which, viz. Albana and Pharphar (mention'd in 2 Kings v. 12.) deſcended from Mount Hermon; whereof the latter waſh'd the Walls of Damaſcus, and the other ran through it, and divided the City into two Parts. Patrick's Com.

In the Valley of Salt] The Valley of Salt, ſays Calmet, thought by many to be the Places adjoining to the Dead Sea: But, as the Country of the Edomites, whom David ſubdu'd in his Return from his Expedition into Syria, muſt neceſſarily lie towards the Eaſt of Canaan, we muſt look for ſome other Valley of Salt in the Confines of that Country. Now, about a League Southward from the City of Palmyra, or Thadnor, in the Road to Edom, we find a large Plain, abounding with Salt-pits, whence a great Part of Syria is furniſh'd with that Commodity; and therefore 'tis very probable, that the Battle between David's Generals, and the Edomites, was fought in this Plain, which is about two Days Journey from Bozrah, the capital City of the eaſtern Edom, whence the People might march out to meet David's Forces, and oppoſe them in their Return home.

CHAP. IX.

David, for Jonathan's Sake, ſends for Mephiboſheth, entertains him at his Table, and reſtores him all that was Saul's; and appoints Ziba his Steward.

Ver. 1. AND David ſaid, Is there yet any that is left of the houſe of Saul, that I may ſhew him kindneſs for Jonathans ſake? 2 And there was of the houſe of Saul, a ſervant whoſe name was Ziba: and when they had called him unto David, the king ſaid unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he ſaid, Thy ſervant is he. 3 And the king ſaid, Is there not yet any of the houſe of Saul, that I may ſhew the kindneſs of God unto him? And Ziba ſaid unto the king, Jonathan has yet a ſon, which is lame on his feet. 4 And the king ſaid unto him, Where is he? And Ziba ſaid unto the king, Behold, he is in the houſe of Machir, the ſon of Ammiel, in Lo-debar. 5 Then king David ſent, and fetcht him out of the houſe of Machir, the ſon of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. 6 Now when Mephiboſheth the ſon of Jonathan the ſon of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David ſaid, Mephiboſheth. And he anſwered, behold thy ſervant. 7 And David ſaid unto him, Fear not; for I will ſurely ſhew thee kindneſs, for Jonathan thy fathers ſake, and will reſtore thee all the land of Saul thy father, and thou ſhalt eat bread at my table continually. 8 And he bowed himſelf, and ſaid, What is thy ſervant, that thou ſhouldeſt look upon ſuch a dead dog as I am? 9 Then the king called to Ziba Sauls ſervant, and ſaid unto him I have given unto thy maſters ſon all that pertained to Saul, and to all his houſe. 10 Thou therefore and thy ſons, and thy ſervants ſhall till the land for him, and thou ſhalt bring in the fruits, that thy maſters ſon may have food to eat: but Mephiboſheth thy maſters ſon ſhall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen ſons and twenty ſervants. 11 Then ſaid Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his ſervant, ſo ſhall thy ſervant do. As for Mephiboſheth, ſaid the king, he ſhall eat at my table, as one of the kings ſons. 12 And Mephiboſheth had a young ſon, whoſe name was Micha: and all that dwelt in the houſe of Ziba, were ſervants unto Mephiboſheth. 13 So Mephiboſheth dwelt in Jeruſalem: for he did eat continually at the kings table; and was lame on both his feet.

And David ſaid, Is there yet any of the Houſe of Saul, that I may ſhew him Kindneſs for Jonathan's Sake] But why does David enquire after the Houſe of Saul, rather than after that of Jonathan? Becauſe he knew not of any Son that Jonathan had left, and therefore thought his Kindneſs and Obligation were to paſs to the next of Kindred. As for Mephiboſheth, he was very young and obſcure, and probably concealed by his Friends, leſt David cut him off for Reaſons of State, as is uſual among Princes in like Caſe, and therefore was unknown to David, as well he might be, eſpecially when David's Head and Hands were full of War with divers and potent Enemies, as hitherto they had been.

CHAP. X.

David ſends Meſſengers to comfort the King of the Ammonites, he abuſes them. The Ammonites and Syrians prepare for War, and are overcome by Joab and Abiſhai; and are again conquered by David.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 2 Then ſaid David, I will ſhew kindneſs unto Hanun the ſon of Nahaſh, as his father ſhewed kindneſs unto me. And David ſent to comfort him by the hand of his ſervants, for his father. And Davids ſervants came into the land of the children of Ammon. 3 And the princes of the children of Ammon ſaid unto Hanun their lord, Thinkeſt thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath ſent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather ſent his ſervants unto thee to ſearch the city, and to ſpy it out, and to overthrow it? 4 Wherefore Hanun took Davids ſervants, and ſhaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and ſent them away. 5 When they told it unto David, he ſent to meet them, becauſe becauſe the men were greatly aſhamed: and the king ſaid, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. 6 And when the children of Ammon ſaw that they ſtank before David, the children of Ammon ſent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thouſand footmen, and of king Maachah a thouſand men, and of Iſh-tob twelve thouſand men. 7 And when David heard of it, he ſent Joab, and all the hoſt of the mighty men. 8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battel in aray at the entring in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Iſh-tob, and Maacah were by themſelves in the field. 9 When Joab ſaw that the front of the battel was againſt him before and behind, he choſe of all the choice men of Iſrael, and put them in aray againſt the Syrians. 10 And the reſt of the people he delivered into the hand of Abiſhai his brother, that he might put them in aray againſt the children of Ammon. 11 And he ſaid, If the Syrians be too ſtrong for me, then thou ſhalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too ſtrong for thee, then I will come and help thee. 12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the Lord do that which ſeemeth him good. 13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battel againſt the Syrians: and they fled before him. 14 And when the children of Ammon ſaw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they alſo before Abiſhai, and entred into the city: ſo Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jeruſalem. 15 And when the Syrians ſaw that they were ſmitten before Iſrael, they gathered themſelves together. 16 And Hadarezer ſent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the hoſt of Hadarezer went before them. 17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Iſrael together, and paſſed over Jordan, and came to Helam: and the Syrians ſet themſelves in aray againſt David, and fought with him. 18 And the Syrians fled before Iſrael, and David ſlew the men of ſeven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thouſand horſe men, and ſmote Shobach the captain of their hoſt, who died there. 19 And when all the kings that were ſervants to Hadarezer ſaw that they were ſmitten before Iſrael, they made peace with Iſrael, and ſerved them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

Wherefore Hanun took David's Servants, and ſhaved off the one Half of their Beards, and cut off their Garments in the Middle] This was one of the greateſt Indignities the Malice of Man could invent, in thoſe Countries, where all People thought their Hair ſo great an Ornament, that ſome would rather have ſubmitted to die, than part with it. What a foul Diſgrace, and heavy Puniſhment this was accounted in antient Times, we may learn from Nicholaus Damaſcenus, as mention'd by Stobæus, who ſays, that among tne Indians, the King commanded the greateſt Offenders to be ſhaven, as the heavieſt Puniſhment he could inflict upon them; and, to the like Purpoſe, Plutarch tells us, that, whenever a Soldier, among the Lacedemonians, was convicted of Cowardice, he was oblig'd to go with one Part of his Upper-lip ſhaved, and the other not. Nay, even at this Day no greater Indignity can be offer'd to a Man of Perſia, than to cauſe his Beard to be ſhav'd; and therefore Tavernier, in his Travels, relates the Story, that when the Sophi caus'd an Ambaſſador of Aureng-zeb's to be us'd in this Manner, telling him, that he was not worthy to wear a Beard, the Emperor (even in the Manner as David here did) moſt highly reſented the Affront that was done to him in the Perſon of his Ambaſſador. And as ſhaving David's Ambaſſadors was deſervedly accounted a grievous Affront, ſo the cutting off half the Beard (which made them look ſtill more ridiculous) was a great Addition to it, when Beards were held in great Veneration; and, where long Habits down to the Heels, were worn (eſpecially by Perſons of Diſtinction) without any Breeches or Drawers, the cutting their Garments, even to the Middle, thereby to expoſe their Nakedneſs, was ſuch a brutal and ſhameleſs Inſult, as would hardly become a Man of David's Martial Spirit, and juſt Sentiments of Honour, to have tamely paſs'd by. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

CHAP. XI.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs, that after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battel, that David ſent Joab and his ſervants with him, and all Iſrael; and they deſtroyed the children of Ammon, and beſieged Rabbah: but David tarried ſtill at Jeruſalem. 2 And it came to paſs in an evening-tide, that David aroſe from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the kings houſe: and from the roof he ſaw a woman waſhing her ſelf, and the woman was very beautiful to look upon. 3 And David ſent and enquired after the woman: and one ſaid, Is not this Bath-ſheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? 4 And David ſent meſſengers, and took her; and ſhe came in unto him, and he lay with her, (for ſhe was purified from her uncleanneſs) and ſhe returned unto her houſe. 5 And the woman conceived, and ſent and told David, and ſaid, I am with child. 6 And David ſent to Joab, ſaying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab ſent Uriah to David. 7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war proſpered. 8 And David ſaid to Uriah, Go down to thy houſe, and waſh thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the kings houſe, and there followed him a meſs of meat from the king. 9 But Uriah ſlept at the door of the kings houſe, with all the ſervants of his lord, and went not down to his houſe. 10 And when they had told David, ſaying, Uriah went not down unto his houſe, David ſaid unto Uriah, Cameſt thou not from thy journey? why then didſt thou not go down unto thine houſe? 11 And Uriah ſaid unto David, The ark, and Iſrael, and Judah abide in tents, and my lord Joab, and the ſervants of my lord are encamped in the open fields; ſhall I then go into mine houſe, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As thou liveſt, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not do this thing. 12 And David ſaid to Uriah, Tarry here to day alſo, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jeruſalem, that day and the morrow. 13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him, and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the ſervants of his lord, but went not down to his houſe. 14 And it came to paſs in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and ſent it by the hand of Uriah. 15 And he wrote in the letter, ſaying, Set ye Uriah in the fore-front of the hotteſt battel, and retire ye from him, that he may be ſmitten, and die. 16 And it came to paſs when Joab obſerved the city, that he aſſigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were. 17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell ſome of the people of the ſervants of David, and Uriah the Hittite died alſo. 18 Then Joab ſent, and told David all the things concerning the war: 19 And charged the meſſenger, ſaying, When thou haſt made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king. 20 And if ſo be that the kings wrath ariſe, and he ſay unto thee, Wherefore approached ye ſo nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would ſhoot from the wall? 21 Who ſmote Abimelech the ſon of Jerubbeſheth? did not a woman caſt a piece of a millſtone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then ſay thou, Thy ſervant Uriah the Hititte is dead alſo. 22 So the meſſenger went, and came and ſhewed David all that Joab had ſent him for. 23 And the meſſenger ſaid unto David, Surely the men prevailed againſt us, and came out unto us in the field, and we were upon them even unto the entring of the gate. 24 And the ſhooters ſhot from off the wall upon thy ſervants, and ſome of the kings ſervants be dead, and thy ſervant Uriah the Hittite is dead alſo. 25 Then David ſaid unto the meſſenger, Thus ſhalt thou ſay unto Joab, Let not this thing diſpleaſe thee: for the ſword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battel more ſtrong againſt the city, and overthrow it; and encourage thou him. 26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her huſband was dead, ſhe mourned for her huſband. 27 And when the mourning was paſt, David ſent, and fet her to his houſe, and ſhe became his wife, and bare him a ſon: but the thing that David had done, diſpleaſed the Lord.

And walked upon the King's Roof] The Manner of building in all Eaſtern Countries, was to have their houſes flat-roof'd, with a Terraſs, and a Parapet Wall, for the Convenience of walking in a cool Air; and, as David's Palace was built on one of the higheſt places on Mount Sion, he might eaſily look down upon the lower Parts of the Town, and take a View of all the Gardens that were within a due Diſtance. Le Clerc's Com.

The Wife of Uriah the Hittite] Uriah, tho' an Hittite by Nation, was proſelyted to the Jewiſh Religion, and ſo, marrying with a Jewiſh Woman, liv'd in Jeruſalem; or, as he was one of the King's Life-guard, which ſeem'd to have been all Natives and of the Tribe of Judah, this additional Name might perhaps be given him, for ſome gallant Action atchiev'd againſt the Hittites, in the ſame Manner as a Roman in After-Ages, came to be call'd Africanus, Germanicus, Parthicus, &c. upon Account of Victories obtain'd over the Africans, Germans, or Parthians. Calmet's Com.

CHAP. XII.

Nathan reproves David, who confeſſes his Sin, and is pardoned, but the Child dies. Solomon born. David takes Rabbah, and puts the Inhabitants to Torture.

Ver. 1. AND the Lord ſent Nathan unto David: and he came unto him and ſaid unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. 2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds: 3 But the poor man had nothing ſave one little ew-lamb, which he had bought and nouriſhed up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his boſom, and was unto him as a daughter. 4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he ſpared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dreſs for the wayfaring man that was come unto him, but took the poor mans lamb, and dreſſed it for the man that was come to him. 5 And Davids anger was greatly kindled againſt the man; and he ſaid to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing, ſhall ſurely die. 6 And he ſhall reſtore the lamb fourfold, becauſe he did this thing, and becauſe he had no pity. 7 And Nathan ſaid to David, Thou art the man. Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, I anointed thee king over Iſrael, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul: 8 And I gave thee thy maſters houſe, and thy maſters wives into thy boſom, and gave thee the houſe of Iſrael and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee ſuch and ſuch things. 9 Wherefore haſt thou deſpiſed the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his ſight? thou haſt killed Uriah the Hittite with the ſword, and haſt taken his wife to be thy wife, and haſt ſlain him with the ſword of the children of Ammon. 10 Now therefore the ſword ſhall never depart from thine houſe; becauſe thou haſt deſpiſed me; and haſt taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. 11 Thus ſaith the Lord, Behold, I will raiſe up evil againſt thee out of thy own houſe, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he ſhall lie with thy wives in the ſight of this ſun. 12 For thou didſt it ſecretly: but I will do this thing before all Iſrael, and before the ſun. 13 And David ſaid unto Nathan, I have ſinned againſt the Lord. And Nathan ſaid unto David, The Lord hath alſo put away thy ſin; thou ſhalt not die. 14 Howbeit, becauſe by this deed thou haſt given great occaſion to the enemies of the Lord to blaſpheme, the child alſo that is born unto thee, ſhall ſurely die. 15 And Nathan departed unto his houſe: and the Lord ſtruck the child that Uriahs wife bare unto David, and it was very ſick. 16 David therefore beſought God for the child, and David faſted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth. 17 And the elders of his houſe aroſe, and went to him, to raiſe him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. 18 And it came to paſs on the ſeventh day, that the child died: and the ſervants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they ſaid, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we ſpake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himſelf if we tell him that the child is dead? 19 But when David ſaw that his ſervants whiſpered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David ſaid unto his ſervants, Is the child dead? And they ſaid, He is dead. 20

Then David aroſe from the earth, and waſhed, and anointed himſelf, and changed his apparel, and came into the houſe of the Lord, and worſhipped: then he came to his own houſe, and when he required, they ſet bread before him, and he did eat. 21 Then ſaid his ſervants unto him, What thing is this that thou haſt done? thou didſt faſt and weep for the child while it was yet alive, but when the child was dead, thou didſt riſe and eat bread. 22 And he ſaid, While the child was yet alive, I faſted and wept: for I ſaid, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live? 23 But now he is dead, wherefore ſhould I faſt? can I bring him back again? I ſhall go to him, but he ſhall not return to me. 24 And David comforted Bathſheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and ſhe bare a ſon, and he called his name Solomon; and the Lord loved him. 25 And he ſent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, becauſe of the Lord. 26 And Joab fought againſt Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. 27 And Joab ſent meſſengers to David, and ſaid, I have fought againſt Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. 28 Now therefore, gather the reſt of the people together, and encamp againſt the city, and take it: leſt I take the city, and it be called after my name. 29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought againſt it, and took it. 30 And he took their kings crown from off his head, (the weight whereof was a talent of gold, with the precious ſtones) and it was ſet on Davids head: and he brought forth the ſpoil of the city in great abundance. 31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under ſaws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them paſs through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jeruſalem.

And David ſaid unto Nathan, I have ſinned againſt the Lord. And Nathan ſaid unto David, The Lord alſo hath put away thy Sin] It has been aſked, How God ſo readily came to forgive David, when he acknowledged his Tranſgreſſion, and yet did not Saul tho' he made the like Confeſſion, I have ſinned? But the Anſwer is obvious, that, be the Form of Expreſſion what it will, unleſs it proceeds from the Sincerity of the Heart, the great Searcher of Hearts will not regard. The true Reaſon therefore why Saul could not obtain a Revocation of his Sentence of Rejection, was, becauſe his Repentance was not ſincere; it did not proceed from an humble and contrite Spirit: At the ſame Time that he acknowledged his Sin, he deſired Samuel to honour him before the People, and perſiſted in his Diſobedience ever after. Whereas David, on the contrary, humbled himſelf, wept, and lamented for his Sin; and of his Penitence has left an eternal Monument in the LI*ſt* Pſalm, Have Mercy upon me, O God, after thy great Goodneſs, according to the Multitude of thy Mercies; do away mine Offences, waſh me throughly from my Wickedneſs, &c.

It has been made a Queſtion, whether David, according to the Jewiſh Law, could marry the Widow of Uriah, of whoſe Death he had been the Cauſe? According to the Jewiſh Doctors, it was utterly unlawful for any to marry another Man's Wife, in Caſe he had defiled her before. The Canonical Law declares ſuch Marriages null and void, as are contracted between an adulterous Man, and a Woman that was Partner with him in the Crime; and, tho' the Law of Moſes does not expreſly forbid them, yet we may not thence infer, that they were permitted among the Jews. For theſe Reaſons, ſome have thought, that this Marriage of David and Bathſheba was null and invalid; but others, upon better Grounds, think that tho' there were many criminal Circumſtances attending it, yet theſe did not vacate its Effect; and in ſhort, tho' it ought not to have been done, yet being done, the Marriage was good, and the Children, that were afterwards born, were legitimate.

David therefore beſought God for the Child, and David faſted, and went in, and lay all Night upon the Earth] This exceſſive Mourning did not proceed ſimply from Fear of the Loſs of the Child, but from a deep Senſe of his Sin, and of the divine Diſpleaſure manifeſt in the Child's Sickneſs, and particularly from a juſt Senſe of the Injury which he had done the Infant by his Sin, and which he thought himſelf bound in Juſtice, by Prayer and Interceſſion, as much as he was able, to repair.

I have fought againſt Rabbah, and have taken the City of Waters] Some learned Men are of Opinion, that this royal City of Rabbah was likewiſe called the City of Waters, either becauſe it ſtood upon a River, or was encompaſs'd with Waters both for its Defence and Delight. But Junius renders it, that he cut off the Waters, which ſupply'd the Town; which Tranſlation not only Joſephus ſeems to favour, by telling us, that Joab ſeiz'd on all the Aqueducts that led into the City; but Polybius likewiſe, ſpeaking of the Siege of this ſame Place by Antiochus, relates the Story, how a certain Deſerter diſcover'd to that Prince a ſubterraneous Paſſage, through which the Beſieged came to draw Water, which Antiochus ſtopp'd up, and, by Reaſon of their Thirſt, compell'd them to ſurrender. Poſt's Annot. and Calmet's Com.

And they took the King's Crown from off his Head, the Weight of which was a Talent of Gold, with the precious Stones] The Weight of a Talent, which, upon the loweſt Computation, amounts to no leſs than an hundred and twenty three Pounds, is allowed to be too much for one Neck to ſuſtain; but then we ſhould conſider, that, beſides the Crown that was uſually worn, it was cuſtomary in ſome Nations for Kings to have vaſt large ones; (even to a Size equal to this) either hung or ſupported over the Throne, where, at their Coronation, or upon ſolemn Occaſions, they were wont to ſit.

'Tis a common Thing, however, in Hebrew, as well as other learned Languages, to have the ſame Word ſignify both the Weight and Value of any Thing. And that the Price or Worth of the Crown is here the Meaning of the Phraſe, we have the more Reaſon to think, becauſe Mention is made of an Addition of precious Stones, which are never eſtimated by the Weight of Gold. Joſephus tells us of one Stone of great Value in the Middle of the Crown, which he calls a Sardonyx; and as we may ſuppoſe there were other Jewels of ſeveral Kinds, placed at their proper Diſtances, theſe, in Proportion as they heightened the Value, muſt leſſen the Weight of the Crown, and verify what the ſame Hiſtorian tells us of it, viz. that David wore it conſtantly on his Head afterward for an Ornament.

CHAP. XIII.

Amnon raviſhes his Siſter Tamar, which Abſalom revenges in his Death, and flies to Geſhur.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs after this, that Abſalom the ſon of David had a fair ſiſter, whoſe name was Tamar, and Amnon the ſon of David loved her. 2 And Amnon was ſo vexed, that he fell ſick for his ſiſter Tamar; for ſhe was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her. 3 But Amnon had a friend, whoſe name was Jonadab the ſon of Shimeah, Davids brother: and Jonadab dab was a very ſubtil man. 4 And he ſaid unto him, Why art thou, being the kings ſon, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon ſaid unto him, I love Tamar my brother Abſaloms ſiſter. 5 And Jonadab ſaid unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thy ſelf ſick: and when thy father cometh to ſee thee, ſay unto him, I pray thee, let my ſiſter Tamar come, and give me meat, and dreſs the meat in my ſight, that I may ſee it, and eat it at her hand, 6 So Amnon lay down, and made himſelf ſick: and when the king was come to ſee him, Amnon ſaid unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my ſiſter come, and make me a couple of cakes in my ſight, that I may eat at her hand. 7 Then David ſent home to Tamar, ſaying, Go now to thy brother Amnons houſe, and dreſs him meat. 8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnons houſe; (and he was laid down) and ſhe took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his ſight, and did bake the cakes. 9 And ſhe took a pan, and poured them out before him, but he refuſed to eat. And Amnon ſaid, Have out all men from me: and they went out every man from him. 10 And Amnon ſaid unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which ſhe had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. 11 And when ſhe had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and ſaid unto her, Come lie with me, my ſiſter. 12 And ſhe anſwered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for no ſuch thing ought to be done in Iſrael; do not thou this folly. 13 And I, whither ſhall I cauſe my ſhame to go? and as for thee, thou ſhalt be as one of the fools in Iſrael: now therefore, I pray thee, ſpeak unto the king; for he will not withold me from thee. 14 Howbeit, he would not hearken unto her voice: but being ſtronger than ſhe, forced her, and lay with her. 15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, ſo that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon ſaid unto her, Ariſe, be gone. 16 And ſhe ſaid unto him, There is no cauſe; this evil in ſending me away, is greater than the other that thou didſt unto me: but he would not hearken unto her. 17 Then he called his ſervant that miniſtred unto him, and ſaid, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. 18 And ſhe had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with ſuch robes were the kings daughters that were virgins, apparelled. Then his ſervant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. 19 And Tamar put aſhes on her head; and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying. 20 And Abſalom her brother ſaid unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my ſiſter: he is thy brother, regard not this thing. So Tamar remained deſolate in her brother Abſaloms houſe. 21 But when king David heard of all theſe things, he was very wroth. 22 And Abſalom ſpake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Abſalom hated Amnon, becauſe he had forced his ſiſter Tamar. 23 And it came to paſs after two full years, that Abſalom had ſheep-ſhearers at Baal-hazor, which is beſide Ephraim: and Abſalom invited all the kings ſons. 24 And Abſalom came to the king, and ſaid, Behold now, thy ſervant hath ſheep-ſhearers, let the king I beſeech thee, and his ſervants, go with thy ſervant. 25 And the king ſaid to Abſalom, Nay, my ſon, let us not all now go, leſt we be chargeable unto thee. And he preſſed him: howbeit he would not go, but bleſſed him. 26 Then ſaid Abſalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king ſaid unto him, Why ſhould he go with thee? 27 But Abſalom preſſed him, that he let Amnon and all the kings ſons go with him. 28 Now Abſalom had commanded his ſervants, ſaying, Mark ye now when Amnons heart is merry with wine, and when I ſay unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be couragious, and be valiant. 29 And the ſervants of Abſalom did unto Amnon, as Abſalom had commanded: then all the kings ſons aroſe, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled. 30 And it came to paſs, while they were in their way, that tidings came to David, ſaying, Abſalom hath ſlain all the kings ſons, and there is not one of them left. 31 Then the king aroſe, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his ſervants ſtood by with their clothes rent. 32 And Jonadab the ſon of Shimeah Davids brother, anſwered and ſaid, Let not my lord ſuppoſe that they have ſlain all the young men the kings ſons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Abſalom this hath been determined, from the day that he forced his ſiſter Tamar. 33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the kings ſons are dead: for Amnon only is dead. 34 But Abſalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch, lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the way of the hill-ſide behind him. 35 And Jonadab ſaid unto the king, Behold, the kings ſons come: as thy ſervant ſaid, ſo it is. 36 And it came to paſs aſſoon as he had made an end of ſpeaking, that behold, the kings ſons came, and lift up their voice and wept: and the king alſo and all his ſervants wept very ſore. 37 But Abſalom fled, and went to Talmai the ſon of Ammihud king of Geſhur: and David mourned for his ſon every day. 38 So Abſalom fled, and went to Geſhur, and was there three years. 39 And the ſoul of king David longed to go forth unto Abſalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, ſeeing he was dead.

Ammon ſaid unto the King, I pray thee, let Tamar my Siſter come] Virgins of the Blood-royal were kept recluſe in Apartments ſeparate from the Commerce of Men, into which not only Strangers, but even their own Fathers were not permitted to enter. Ammon however, at ſome Time or other, had ſeen the beautiful Tamar, or otherwiſe he could not have conceived ſo ſtrong a Paſſion for her. Upon ſome certain Ceremonial Occaſions indeed, it was cuſtomary for the young Women to walk out, and ſhew themſelves; but conſidering their cloſe Confinement at other Times, it was hardly poſſible for Amnon to find an Opportunity of declaring his Paſſion, much leſs of gratifying it; and therefore, out of pure Deſpair, he pin'd himſelf into a Conſumption. Calmet's Com.

to pass from one Extreme to another. The Shame which accompanies every base Action, the Remorse, the Repentance, and many bad Consequences that immediately pursue it, make a Recoil in every Man's Temper, and therefore it is no Wonder, that a libidinous young Man, who would not spare so much as his own Sister, should, after Fruition, and when the Ardour of his Lust is satisfied, be seized with a contrary Passion, and hate the Object he loved so much before, when he came coolly to compare the Pleasure and the Sin together, the Shortness of the one, and the Heinousness of the other.

But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, — King of Geshur] In the Case of Wilful Murther, says Patrick, the Law is, That the Avenger of Blood shall slay the Murtherer; when he meeteth him he shall slay him, Numb. xxx. 21. Thom whence it seems to follow, that it was not in any Man's Power to protect the wilful Murtherer, because the Avenger of Blood, i. e. the neareſt Relation of the Person murther'd, might, with Impunity, wherever he met him, kill him. As Absalom therfore had committed a design'd Murther, his own Life was every Moment in Danger; and as there were no Cities of Refuge in his own Country, that, in this Case, would yield him Protection, he was forc'd to flee out of the Kingdom to his Mother's Father.

CHAP. XIV.

Joab instructs a Widow of Tekoah, by a Parable, to induce the King to fetch home Absalom; who comes to Jerusalem, but is forbidden to see the King; his Person and Family described. After two Years Joab brings him to the King.

Ver. 1. NOW Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the kings heart was towards Absalom. 2 And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetcht thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thy self to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thy self with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead: 3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him: So Joab put the words in her mouth. 4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king. 5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. 6 And thy hand-maid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him. 7 And behold, the whole family is risen against thine hand-maid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew, and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth. 8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee. 9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my fathers house: and the king and his throne be guiltless. 10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more. 11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the Lord thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the Lord liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth. 12 Then the woman said, Let thine hand maid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on. 13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing, as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished. 14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: neither doth God respect any person, yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him. 15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy hand-maid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his hand-maid. 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his hand-maid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God: 17 Then thine hand-maid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God will be with thee. 18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. 19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine hand-maid: 20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth. 21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore bring the young man Absalom again. 22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant. 23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. 24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the kings face. 25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom, for beauty: from the sole of his foot, even to the crown of his head, there was no blemish in him. 26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every years end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the kings weight. 27 And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance. 28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the kings face. 29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king, but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come. 30 Therefore he ſaid unto his ſervants, See, Joabs field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and ſet it on fire: and Abſaloms ſervants ſet the field on fire. 31 Then Joab aroſe and came to Abſalom unto his houſe, and ſaid unto him, Wherefore have thy ſervants ſet my field on fire? 32 And Abſalom anſwered Joab, Behold, I ſent unto thee, ſaying, come hither, that I may ſend thee to the king, to ſay, Wherefore am I come from Geſhur? it had been good for me to have been there ſtill: now therefore let me ſee the kings face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me. 33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Abſalom, he came to the king, and bowed himſelf on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kiſſed Abſalom.

And Joab ſent to Tekoah] Tekoah was a City in the Tribe of Judah, which lay South of Jeruſalem, and about twelve Miles diſtant from it. And herein does Joab's Cunning appear not a little, that he made choice of a Woman rather than a Man, becauſe Women can more eaſily expreſs their Paſſions, and ſooner gain Pity to their Miſeries; a Widow, which was a Condition of Life proper to move Compaſſion; a grave Woman, (as Joſephus calls her) which made her better fitted for addreſſing the King; and a Woman not known at Jeruſalem, but living at ſome Diſtance in the Country, that the Caſe, which ſhe was to repreſent, might not be too readily enquired into. See Pool's Annot.

He weighed the Hair of his Head at two hundred Shekels, after the King's Weight] Many and various are the Explications which the Learned have given of this Text, but none ſo probable as what follows, viz. It is laid down as a Principle, that during the Reigns of the Kings of Judah, there was no Variation in the Hebrew Weights, nor were there any that were called the King's; that the Difference between the King's and the common Weight, did not commence till after ſome Continuance of the Babyloniſh Captivity; that, towards the End of this Captivity, whoever he was that reviſed theſe Books of Samuel, made mention of ſuch Weights as were not properly Hebrew, but ſuch as (after ſixty or ſeventy Years Captivity) the Jews only knew, and theſe were Babyloniſh; and that therefore when he comes to mention the Weight of Abſalom's Hair, and tells us, that it was two hundred Shekels, he adds (by way of Explanation) that it was after the King's Weight, that is, after the Weight of the King of Babylon, whoſe Shekel was but the third Part of an Hebrew Shekel, as the beſt Writers upon Weights and Meaſures are generally agreed. So that according to this Hypotheſis, Abſalom's Hair, which weighed two hundred Babyloniſh Shekels, came but, in our Weight, to about thirty three Ounces; a Quantity which thoſe who deal in that Commodity, have not unfrequently met with upon ſeveral Womens Heads, and therefore that brings this long conteſted Story, at leaſt, within the Bounds of a fair Probability.

CHAP. XV.

V. 1. AND it came to paſs after this, that Abſalom prepared him chariots, and horſes, and fifty men to run before him. 2 And Abſalom roſe up early, and ſtood beſide the way of the gate: and it was ſo, that when any man that had a controverſy came to the king for judgment, then Abſalom called unto him, and ſaid, Of what city art thou? And he ſaid, Thy ſervant is of one of the tribes of Iſrael. 3 And Abſalom ſaid unto him, See, thy matters are good and right, but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee. 4 Abſalom ſaid moreover, O that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any ſuit or cauſe might come unto me, and I would do him juſtice. 5 And it was ſo, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeiſance, he put forth his hand and took him, and kiſſed him. 6 And on this manner did Abſalom to all Iſrael that came to the king for judgment: ſo Abſalom ſtole the hearts of the men of Iſrael. 7 And it came to paſs after forty years, that Abſalom ſaid unto the king, I pray thee let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the Lord in Hebron. 8 For thy ſervant vowed a vow while I abode at Geſhur in Syria, ſaying, If the Lord ſhall bring me again indeed to Jeruſalem, then I will ſerve the Lord. 9 And the king ſaid unto him, Go in peace. So he aroſe and went to Hebron. 10 But Abſalom ſent ſpies throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, ſaying, As ſoon as ye hear the ſound of the trumpet, then ye ſhall ſay, Abſalom reigneth in Hebron. 11 And with Abſalom went two hundred men out of Jeruſalem, that were called, and they went in their ſimplicity; and they knew not any thing. 12 And Abſalom ſent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, Davids counſeller, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered ſacrifices: and the conſpiracy was ſtrong; for the people increaſed continually with Abſalom. 13 And there came a meſſenger to David, ſaying, The hearts of the men of Iſrael are after Abſalom. 14 And David ſaid unto all his ſervants that were with him at Jeruſalem, Ariſe, and let us flee; for we ſhall not elſe eſcape from Abſalom: make ſpeed to depart, leſt he overtake us ſuddenly, and bring evil upon us, and ſmite the city with the edge of the ſword. 15 And the kings ſervants ſaid unto the king, Behold, thy ſervants are ready to do whatſoever my lord the king ſhall appoint. 16 And the king went forth, and all his houſhold after him: and the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the houſe. 17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off. 18 And all his ſervants paſſed on beſide him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, ſix hundred men which came after him from Gath, paſſed on before the king. 19 Then ſaid the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goeſt thou alſo with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a ſtranger, and alſo an exile. 20 Whereas thou cameſt but yeſterday, ſhould I this day make thee go up and down with us? ſeeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee. 21 And Ittai anſwered the king, and ſaid, As the Lord liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, ſurely in what place my lord the king ſhall be, whether in death or life; even there alſo will thy ſervant be. 22 And David ſaid to Ittai, Go, and paſs over. And Ittai the Gittite paſſed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. 23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people paſſed over: the king alſo himſelf paſſed over the brook Kidron, and all the people paſſed over, toward the way of the wilderneſs. 24 And lo, Zadok alſo, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God, and they ſat down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done paſſing out of the city. 25 And the king ſaid unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I ſhall find favour in the eyes of the Lord, he will bring me again, and ſhew me both it, and his habitation. 26 But if he thus ſay, I have no delight in thee: behold, here am I, let him do to me as ſeemeth good unto him. 27 The king ſaid alſo unto Zadok the prieſt, Art not thou a ſeer? return into the city in peace, and your two ſons with you, Ahimaaz thy ſon, and Jonathan the ſon of Abiathar. 28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderneſs, until there come word from you to certify me. 29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jeruſalem; and they tarried there. 30 And David went up by the aſcent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot, and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. 31 And one told David, ſaying, Ahithophel is among the conſpirators with Abſalom. And David ſaid, O Lord, I pray thee, turn the counſel of Ahithophel into fooliſhneſs. 32 And it came to paſs, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worſhipped God, behold, Huſhai the Archite came to meet him, with his coat rent, and earth upon his head: 33 Unto whom David ſaid, If thou paſſeſt on with me, then thou ſhalt be a burden unto me. 34 But if thou return to the city, and ſay unto Abſalom, I will be thy ſervant, O king, as I have been thy fathers ſervant hitherto, ſo will I now alſo be thy ſervant: then mayeſt thou for me defeat the counſel of Ahithophel. 35 And haſt thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the prieſts? therefore it ſhall be, that what thing ſoever thou ſhalt hear out of the kings houſe, thou ſhalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the prieſts. 36 Behold, they have there with them their two ſons, Ahimaaz Zadoks ſon, and Jonathan Abiathars ſon: and by them ye ſhall ſend unto me every thing that ye can hear. 37 So Huſhai Davids friend came into the city, and Abſalom came into Jeruſalem.

And it came to paſs after forty Years] But where to begin this Date of the forty Years, has occaſioned much Diſagreement among Commentators. Some compute them from the Time that the Iſraelites demanded a King of Samuel; others, from the firſt Time that David was anointed King; others, from the Commencement of his Reign over Judah; and others again, from the Time that he took Poſſeſſion of the whole Kingdom. The two latter of theſe Opinions are inſupportable, becauſe David reigned but forty Years in all, and was now ſo hail and hearty, as to be able to walk on foot; whereas, in the latter Part of his Life, he was very infirm and bed-rid. The learned Uſher indeed, makes theſe forty Years to commence from the Time of David's firſt Unction, that therefore he was threeſcore Years old when this Rebellion broke out, and lived ten Years after it: But (with all due Deference to great Authority) both this, and the other Opinion, that computes from the Time that the Demand of a King was made, are forced, and unnatural; have no Affinity to the Text, nor do they ſuggeſt any Reaſon, why the ſacred Hiſtorian ſhould begin his Account of this unnatural Rebellion, with an And it came to paſs, that after forty Years: Whereas, if we conſider the Account of what went before, how Abſalom, by all the Arts of Popularity, a ſplendid Equipage, condeſcenſive Behaviour, large Promiſes, and flattering Speeches, had alienated the Hearts of the People from his Father, we cannot but be tempted to think, that there is an Error crept in to the Text.

As ſoon as ye hear the Sound of the Trumpet] This looks as if Abſalom had placed Trumpeters at proper Diſtances to take the Sound from one another, and diſperſe it all over the Kingdom, that ſo they, who were Lovers of his Cauſe, might inſtantly reſort to his Aſſiſtance and Support; to which they were encouraged, no doubt, by the Suggeſtions of his Emiſſaries, who might perſuade the People, that all this was done by the King's Conſent and Approbation, who, being aged and infirm himſelf, was willing to reſign his Kingdom to his eldeſt and moſt noble Son, who was deſcended from a King by both Parents. Le Clerc's and Peel's Com.

The Hearts of the Men of Iſrael are after Abſalom] It would really make one wonder, how a People could ſo eaſily abandon a Prince, ſo brave, ſo happy, and ſo ſucceſsful as David had been; how they could forget his excellent Qualities, or be unmindful of the Services he had done the Nation; but for this there may be ſome Reaſons aſſigned. In every Nation there are always ſome turbulent and diſcontented Spirits, who are uneaſy with the preſent State of Things, and promiſe themſelves ſome Benefit from a Change. Saul's Party was not as yet entirely extinct, and Joab, who was David's prime Miniſter, behaved with an inſufferable Pride and Inſolence. His Crimes, which were very black, and which the King durſt not puniſh, redounded upon him; and the King himſelf had given Umbrage enough againſt him, in living with Bathſheba, after he had murdered her Huſband: But, what gave the faireſt Pretence of all, was the Obſtruction of Juſtice in the Civil Adminiſtration: For, had there not been ſomething of this, Abſalom could have had no Grounds for making ſo loud Complaints. See Calmet's and Patrick's Com.

Huſhai the Archite came to meet him] This Man might be of the antient Race of the Archites, Deſcendants from Canaan, of whom Moſes ſpeaks, Gen. x. 17. but ſince the Name of theſe antient People is differently written, I ſhould rather think, that this additional Name was given him from the Place of his Nativity, viz. Archi, a Town ſituated on the Frontiers of Benjamin and Ephraim, to the Weſt of Bethel, Joſh. xvi. 2.

But if thou return to the City, and ſay unto Abſalom, I will be thy Servant, O King, &c.] But was not David guilty of Perfidy in putting his Friend Huſhai upon offering his Service to Abſalom? No: Becauſe the unjuſt War which he had declared againſt his Father, gave his Father a Right to treat him as an open Enemy, and to employ either Force or Artifice againſt him; nor can this Conduct of his be blamed, unleſs we ſhould ſay, that when Kings are engaged in War, they are forbidden to diſguiſe their true Deſigns, even tho' it be a Thing notorious, that even upon this Diſguiſe the Practice of Stratagems in War (which were never yet accounted unlawful) is entirely founded.

Ver. 1. AND when David was a little paſt the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the ſervant of Mephiboſheth met him with a couple of aſſes ſaddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raiſins, and an hundred of ſummer-fruits, and a bottle of wine. 2 And the king ſaid unto Ziba, What meaneſt thou by theſe? And Ziba ſaid, The aſſes be for the kings houſhold to ride on, and

and the bread and ſummer-fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine, that ſuch as be faint in the wilderneſs may drink. 3 And the king ſaid, And where is thy maſters ſon? And Ziba ſaid unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jeruſalem: for he ſaid, To day ſhall the houſe of Iſrael reſtore me the kingdom of my father. 4 Then ſaid the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheh. And Ziba ſaid, I humbly beſeech thee that I may find grace in thy ſight, my lord, O king. 5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the houſe of Saul, whoſe name was Shimei the ſon of Gera: he came forth, and curſed ſtill as he came. 6 And he caſt ſtones at David, and at all the ſervants of king David: and all the people, and all the mighty men were on his right hand, and on his left. 7 And thus ſaid Shimei when he curſed, Come out, come out thou bloody man, and thou man of Belial: 8 The Lord hath returned upon thee all the blood of the houſe of Saul, in whoſe ſtead thou haſt reigned, and the Lord hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Abſalom thy ſon: and behold, thou art taken in thy miſchief, becauſe thou art a bloody man. 9 Then ſaid Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah unto the king, Why ſhould this dead dog curſe my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. 10 And the king ſaid, What have I do with you, ye ſons of Zeruiah? ſo let him curſe, becauſe the Lord hath ſaid unto him, Curſe David. Who ſhall then ſay, Wherefore haſt thou done ſo? 11 And David ſaid to Abiſhai, and to all his ſervants, Behold, my ſon which came forth of my bowels, ſeeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curſe: for the Lord hath bidden him. 12 It may be that the Lord will look on mine affliction, and that the Lord will requite me good for his curſing this day. 13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hills-ſide over againſt him, and curſed as he went, and threw ſtones at him, and caſt duſt. 14 And the king and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreſhed themſelves there. 15 And Abſalom and all the people the men of Iſrael, came to Jeruſalem, and Ahithophel with him. 16 And it came to paſs when Huſhai the Archite, Davids friend, was come unto Abſalom, that Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, God ſave the king, God ſave the king. 17 And Abſalom ſaid to Huſhai, Is this thy kindneſs to thy friend? why wenteſt thou not with thy friend? 18 And Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, Nay, but whom the Lord and this people and all the men of Iſrael chooſe, his will I be, and with him will I abide. 19 And again, whom ſhould I ſerve? Should I not ſerve in the preſence of his ſon? as I have ſerved in thy fathers preſence, ſo will I be in thy preſence. 20 Then ſaid Abſalom to Ahithophel, Give counſel among you what we ſhall do. 21 And Ahithophel ſaid unto Abſalom, Go in unto thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to keep the houſe, and all Iſrael ſhall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father, then ſhall the hands of all that are with thee be ſtrong. 22 So they ſpread Abſalom a tent upon the top of the houſe, and Abſalom went in unto his fathers concubines, in the ſight of all Iſrael. 23 And the counſel of Ahithophel which he counſelled in thoſe days, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: ſo was all the counſel of Ahithophel, both with David and with Abſalom.

Then ſaid the King to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth] Some have charged David with Injuſtice, in allotting the Eſtate of Mephibosheth to a perfidious Servant, without giving the Maſter a fair and equitable Hearing. But how could David have Leiſure to ſend for Mephibosheth from Mount Olivet to Jeruſalem, and enquire into the Merits of the Cauſe depending between him and his Servant, when he was in ſo great a Hurry, and under Flight from the Army of his rebel Son? Or, how could he have ſuppoſed, that Ziba could have dared to have told him ſo notorious a Lie, when in a ſhort Time it might be diſproved? Every Circumſtance, in ſhort, on Ziba's Side looked well, but none on his Maſter's. To his Maſter David had been extremely kind, in reſtoring to him the forfeited Eſtate of his Grandfather Saul, and in allowing him to eat at his own Table, as one of the King's Sons; and now, at the general Rendezvous of his Friends, David might well have expected, that the Perſon to whom he had extended ſo many Favours, ſhould not have been ſo negligent in his Duty, as to abſent himſelf, unleſs it had been upon ſome extraordinary Buſineſs; and therefore when Ziba acquaints him with the Occaſion of his Abſence, tho' it was a mere Fiction, yet with David it might find a readier Credence, becauſe at this Time he had Reaſon to miſtruſt every Body; and ſeeing his own Family diſconcerted and broken, might think the Crown liable to any new Claimaint that could pretend to the ſame Right of Succeſſion that Mephibosheth might. All that David can therefore be blamed for in this whole Tranſaction, is too much Credulity, in ſuffering himſelf to be impoſed upon by the plauſible Tale of a Sycophant.

He came forth, and curſed as he came] Whether this Man had been a perſonal Sufferer in the Fall of Saul's Family, or what elſe had exaſperated him againſt David, it no where appears; but it ſeems as if he had conceived ſome heinous Spite againſt him, when neither the Preſence of a King, nor the Terror of his Guards, could reſtrain him from throwing Stones, and bitter Speeches at him: And it looks, as if the King was fallen into the utmoſt Contempt, when one private Man could think of venting his Malice at him, in ſo groſs a Manner, with Impunity. Howell's Hiſt.

So let him curſe, becauſe the Lord hath ſaid unto him, Curſe David] Not that God commanded it by his Word, for that ſeverely forbids curſing, Exod. xxii. 28. nor moved him to it by his Spirit; for neither was that poſſible, becauſe God tempteth no Man, Jam. i. 13. But the Meaning is, that the ſecret Providence of God did over-rule, and determine him ſo to do; i. e. God did not put any Wickedneſs into Shimei's Heart (for he had of himſelf, an Heart of Malignity and Venom againſt David) but only left him to his own Wickedneſs; took away that common Prudence, which would have reſtrained him from ſo dangerous an Action; directed his Malice, that it ſhould be exerciſed againſt David rather than any other Man; and brought him into ſo diſtreſſed a Condition, that he might ſeem a proper Object of his Scorn and Contempt, which is enough to juſtify the Expreſſion, The Lord hath bidden him; in the ſame Manner that we read of his commanding the Ravens, 1 Kings xvii. 4. and ſometimes inanimate Creatures, Pſalm cxlvii. 15, 18. The ſhort is, David looked upon Shimei as an Inſtrument in God's Hands, and therefore took all his Abuſes patiently, out of a Conſciouſneſs of his Sinfulneſs, and a Reverence to that Deity, who had brought him ſo low, as to deſerve the Inſults of this vile Benjamite. Pool's Annot.

Huſhai overthrows the Counſel of Ahithophel; certifies David thereof, and adviſes him to march on. David paſſes over Jordan. Ahithophel hangs himſelf. David comes to Mahanaim. Abſalom makes Amaſa his General, and purſues David.

Ver. 1. MOreover, Ahithophel ſaid unto Abſalom, Let me now chooſe out twelve thouſand men, and I will ariſe and purſue after David this night. 2 And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him ſhall flee, and I will ſmite the king only. 3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou ſeekeſt, is as if all returned: ſo all the people ſhall be in peace. 4 And the ſaying pleaſed Abſalom well, and all the elders of Iſrael. 5 Then ſaid Abſalom, Call now Huſhai the Archite alſo, and let us hear likewiſe what he ſaith. 6 And when Huſhai was come to Abſalom, Abſalom ſpake unto him, ſaying, Ahithophel hath ſpoken after this manner: ſhall we do after his ſaying? if not; ſpeak thou. 7 And Huſhai ſaid unto Abſalom, The counſel that Ahithophel hath given, is not good at this time. 8 For (ſaid Huſhai) thou knoweſt thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the fields: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. 9 Behold, he is hid now in ſome pit, or in ſome other place: and it will come to paſs, when ſome of them be overthrown at the firſt, that whoſoever heareth it, will ſay, There is a ſlaughter among the people that follow Abſalom. 10 And he alſo that is valiant, whoſe heart is as the heart of a lion, ſhall utterly melt: for all Iſrael knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men. 11 Therefore I counſel, that all Iſrael be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-ſheba, as the ſand that is by the ſea for multitude, and that thou go to battel in thine own perſon. 12 So ſhall we come upon him in ſome place where he ſhall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him, and of all the men that are with him, there ſhall not be left ſo much as one. 13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then ſhall all Iſrael bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one ſmall ſtone found there. 14 And Abſalom and all the men of Iſrael ſaid, The counſel of Huſhai the Archite is better than the counſel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had appointed to defeat the good counſel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the Lord might bring evil upon Abſalom. 15 Then ſaid Huſhai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the prieſts, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counſel Abſalom and the elders of Iſrael; and thus and thus have I counſelled. 16 Now therefore ſend quickly, and tell David, ſaying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderneſs, but ſpeedily paſs over; leſt the king be ſwallowed up, and all the people that are with him. 17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz ſtayed by En-rogel, (for they might not be ſeen to come into the city) and a wench went and told them: and they went and told king David. 18 Nevertheleſs, a lad ſaw them, and told Abſalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a mans houſe in Bahurim, which had a well in his court, whither they went down. 19 And the woman took and ſpread a covering over the wells mouth, and ſpread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. 20 And when Abſaloms ſervants came to the woman to the houſe, they ſaid, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman ſaid unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had ſought and could not find them, they returned to Jeruſalem. 21 And it came to paſs after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and ſaid unto David, Ariſe, and paſs quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counſelled againſt you. 22 Then David aroſe, and all the people that were with him, and they paſſed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan. 23 And when Ahithophel ſaw that his counſel was not followed, he ſaddled his aſs, and aroſe, and gat him home to his houſe, to his city, and put his houſhold in order, and hanged himſelf, and died, and was buried in the ſepulchre of his father. 24 Then David came to Mahanaim: and Abſalom paſſed over Jordan, he and all the men of Iſrael with him. 25 And Abſalom made Amaſa captain of the hoſt in ſtead of Joab: which Amaſa was a mans ſon, whoſe name was Ithra an Iſraelite, that went into Abigail the daughter of Nahaſh, ſiſter to Zeruiah, Joabs mother. 26 So Iſrael and Abſalom pitched in the land of Gilead. 27 And it came to paſs when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the ſon of Nahaſh of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the ſon of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, 28 Brought beds, and baſons, and earthen veſſels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulſe, 29 And honey, and butter, and ſheep, and cheeſe of kine for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they ſaid, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirſty in the wilderneſs.

Ahithophel ſaid unto Abſalom, Let me now chuſe out twelve thouſand Men, and I will ariſe and purſue after David this Night] Ahithophel thought it highly neceſſary to make Diſpatch upon this Occaſion, becauſe he knew, that if he ſhould give the People who had revolted from their Allegiance, Time to think of what they were doing againſt their lawful Prince, that Prince would have Time to raiſe Troops, and thoſe that were about him, Space to recover from their firſt Fright; Abſalom's Party would dwindle into Nothing, and David grow ſtronger: And therefore he adviſed marching immediately againſt him, without giving him a Moment's Time to recover himſelf.

Moreover, if he be gotten into a City, then ſhall all Iſrael bring Ropes to that City, and we will draw it into the River] His Meaning is, that if David ſhould quit the open Field, and betake himſelf to the ſtrength of their Cities, encompaſſed with high Walls and deep Ditches, ſuch a numerous Army (as he propoſed) would be ſufficient to begirt it round, and, by Ropes put about the Walls, draw them down, and all the Houſes of the City into the Ditch, that ran about it. Not that any ſuch Practice was ever uſed in War; and therefore the Words muſt be looked upon as merely Thraſonical, and calculated to pleaſe Abſalom; unleſs we will ſay with ſome, that the Word in the Original may denote ſuch Machines as are worked by Ropes, and were, at that Time, in uſe to batter down Walls. Calmet's and Patrick's Com.

And it came to pass when David was come to Mahanaim] This was a City in the Tribe of Gad, built in the Place where Jacob was met by the Angels of God, in his Return from Padan-aram, Gen. xxxii. 1, 2. from which Event it had its Name.

CHAP. XVIII.

David viewing his Army, charges his Generals concerning Absalom; who being routed, hangs in an Oak, and is slain by Joab; his Pillar and Monument. David's Lamentation for him.

Ver. 1. AND David numbred the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds over them. 2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah Joabs brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite: and the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you my self also. 3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of the city. 4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best, I will do. And the king stood by the gate-side, and all the people came out by hundreds, and by thousands. 5 And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battel was in the wood of Ephraim; 7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. 8 For the battel was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day, than the sword devoured. 9 And Absalom met the servants of David; and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth, and the mule that was under him went away. 10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. 11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, and behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground, and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle? 12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the kings son: for in our hearing the king charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom. 13 Otherwise, I should have wrought falshood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thy self wouldest have set thy self against me. 14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. 15 And ten young men that bare Joabs armour, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him. 16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people. 17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent. 18 Now Absalom in his life-time had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called unto this day, Absaloms place. 19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the Lord hath avenged him of his enemies. 20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the kings son is dead. 21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran. 22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready? 23 But howsoever (said he) let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and over-ran Cushi. 24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchmen went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, a man running alone. 25 And the watchman cried, and told the king, And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. 26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings. 27 And the watchman said, Me-thinketh the running of the foremost, is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man; and cometh with good tidings. 28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lift up their hand against my lord the king. 29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the kings servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. 30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still. 31 And behold, Cushi came, and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the Lord hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. 32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is. 33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom: would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son.

And the Battle was in the Wood of Ephraim] This Wood was so called, (as some imagine) because the Israelites were wont to drive their Cattle over Jordan to feed them in it; but others (with more Probability) ſuppoſe, that it had its Name from the great Slaughter (related in Judg. xii.) which Jephtha had formerly made of the Ephraimites in that Place. Howell's Hiſt.

And the Wood deſtroyed more People that Day, than the Sword devoured] This ſome think was occaſioned by their falling into Pits, preſſing one another to Death in ſtrait Places, creeping into lurking Holes, and there being ſtarved to Death, or otherwiſe devoured by wild Beaſts, which met them in their Flight: But the moſt eaſy and ſimple Meaning of the Paſſage is, that there were more ſlain in the Wood, than in the Field of Battle. The Field of Battle (as Joſephus tells us) was a Plain with a Wood contiguous to it; and therefore when Abſalom's Army was put to the Rout, and betook themſelves to the Wood for Refuge, the Purſuers made a greater Slaughter of them there, than otherwiſe they would have done, becauſe they could not run away ſo faſt in the Wood, as they might have done in the open Field. Patrick's Com.

And Abſalom rode upon a Mule, and the Mule went under the thick Boughs of a great Oak, and his Head caught hold of the Oak] Here is no Mention of Abſalom's Hair; from whence ſome infer, that the Meaning of the Hiſtorian is, not that Abſalom hung by his Hair, but that his Neck was ſo wedged between the Boughs, by the ſwift Motion of the Mule, that he was not able to diſengage himſelf. For it is hardly to be queſtioned, ſay they, but that, when he went to Battle, he had an Helmet on; and an Helmet, which covered his Head, would have hindered his Hair from being intangled in the Boughs: But 'tis only ſuppoſing, either that his Helmet was ſuch, as left a great deal of his Hair viſible and uncovered, or that, if it was large enough to incloſe the Whole, he might, upon this Occaſion, throw it off, (as well as his other heavy Armour) to make himſelf lighter, and expedite his Flight; and then there will be no Incongruity in the common and received Opinion, to which, the Authority of Joſephus adds ſome Confirmation, viz. 'That, as Abſalom 'was making his Eſcape, upon the whiffling of the Air, 'a ſnagged Bough of a Tree took hold of his Hair, 'and the Mule, running forward from under him, left 'him dangling in the Air.'

Commentators have obſerv'd the Juſtice of God, in bringing Abſalom to a condign Puniſhment, and ſuch a Kind of Death, as was ordain'd by the Law for Offences like unto his. For whereas, in the firſt Place, he was hanged as it were, this was declared by the Law to be an accurſed Death, Deut. xxi. 23. and was, afterwards, in ſome Meaſure, ſtoned; this was the particular Kind of Death, that the Law preſcribed for a ſtubborn and rebellious Son, Deut. xxi. 21.

And they took Abſalom, and caſt him into a great Pit in the Wood, and laid a very great Heap of Stones upon him] In the Deſcription of the Holy Land, ſome Geographers tell us, that this Heap of Stones remain'd even to their Days, and that all Travellers, as they paſs'd by it, were wont to throw a Stone to add to the Heap, in Deteſtation of his Rebellion againſt his Father. For, tho' it became a Cuſtom among the Greeks to raiſe an Heap of Stones in the Place where any great Perſon was interr'd, as a Monument of Honour and Reſpect; yet it is plain, that none of David's Army intended any Honour to Abſalom's Memory in accumulating Stones upon him, nor can we think that David himſelf (tho' too fond of his Rebel Son) made any Alteration afterwards in the Form of his Burial, for Fear of enraging the People againſt him. Some, however, are of a quite contrary Opinion, viz. that David, who lamented him with ſuch Exceſs, remov'd him from this Pit, in order to have him laid in the Sepulcher belonging to the King, or perhaps ſomewhere about the Place, where the Monument, which goes under his Name, and, even to this Day, is ſhewn to Travellers, was dug in a Rock. It is a little Chamber, wrought with a Chiſſel, out of one Piece of Rock, which ſtands at ſome Diſtance from the reſt of the Mountain, and is ſquare of eight Paces from Out to Out. The Inſide of the Chamber is all plain, but the Outſide is adorn'd with ſome Pilaſters of the ſame Kind of Stone. The Upper Part, or Covering is made in the Form of a Conick Pyramid, pretty high and large, with a Kind of Flower-pot on its Top. The Pyramid is compos'd of ſeveral Stones, but the Monument itſelf is ſquare, and all cut out of one Block. In the Time of Joſephus, the Monument, which was ſaid to be Abſalom's, was nothing more than one marble Pillar, widely different from what at preſent goes under his Name, and which therefore muſt be accounted a more modern Building. Le Clerc's and Patrick's Com. Jewiſh Antiqu. and Calmet's Dict.

Ver. 1. AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Abſalom. 2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard ſay that day, how the king was grieved for his ſon. 3 And the people gat them by ſtealth that day into the city, as people being aſhamed ſteal away when they flee in battel. 4 But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my ſon Abſalom, O Abſalom, my ſon, my ſon. 5 And Joab came into the houſe to the king, and ſaid, Thou haſt ſhamed this day the faces of all thy ſervants, which this day hath ſaved thy life, and the lives of thy ſons, and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines: 6 In that thou loveſt thine enemies, and hateſt thy friends; for thou haſt declared this day, that thou regardeſt neither princes, nor ſervants: for this day I perceive, that if Abſalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleaſed thee well. 7 Now therefore ariſe, go forth, and ſpeak comfortably unto thy ſervants: for I ſwear by the Lord, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night; and that will be worſe unto thee than all the evil that befel thee from thy youth until now. 8 Then the king roſe, and ſat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, ſaying, Behold, the king doth ſit in the gate: and all the people came before the king: for Iſrael had fled every man to his tent. 9 And all the people were at ſtrife throughout all the tribes of Iſrael, ſaying, The king ſaved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philiſtines, and now he is fled out of the land for Abſalom. 10 And Abſalom whom we anointed over us, is dead in battel: now therefore why ſpeak ye not a word of bringing the king back? 11 And king David ſent to Zadok and to Abiathar the prieſts, ſaying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, ſaying, Why are ye the laſt to bring the king back to his houſe? (ſeeing the ſpeech of all Iſrael is come to the king, even to his houſe) 12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my fleſh: wherefore then are ye the laſt to bring back the king? 13 And ſay ye to Amaſa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my fleſh? God do ſo to me and more alſo, if thou be not captain of the hoſt before me continually in the room of Joab. 14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man, ſo that they ſent this word unto the king, Return thou and all thy ſervants. 15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan: and Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan. 16 And Shimei the ſon of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, haſted and came down with the men of Judah, to meet king David. 17 And there were a thouſand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the ſervant of the houſe of Saul, and his fifteen ſons and his twenty ſervants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king. 18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the kings houſehold, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the ſon of Gera fell down before the king as he was come over Jordan; 19 And ſaid unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy ſervant did perverſly the day that my lord the king went out of Jeruſalem, that the king ſhould take it to his heart. 20 For thy ſervant doth know that I have ſinned: therefore behold, I am come the firſt this day of all the houſe of Joſeph, to go down to meet my lord the king. 21 But Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah anſwered and ſaid, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, becauſe he curſed the Lords anointed? 22 And David ſaid, What have I do with you, ye ſons of Zeruiah, that ye ſhould this day be adverſaries unto me? ſhall there any man be put to death this day in Iſrael? for do not I know, that I am this day king over Iſrael? 23 Therefore the king ſaid unto Shimei, Thou ſhalt not die: and the king ſware unto him. 24 And Mephiboſheth the ſon of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dreſſed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor waſhed his clothes, from the day the king departed, until the day he came again in peace. 25 And it came to paſs when he was come to Jeruſalem to meet the king, that the king ſaid unto him, Wherefore wenteſt not thou with me, Mephiboſheth? 26 And he anſwered, My lord, O king, my ſervant deceived me; for thy ſervant ſaid, I will ſaddle me an aſs, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king, becauſe thy ſervant is lame. 27 And he hath ſlandered thy ſervant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes. 28 For all of my fathers houſe, were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didſt thou ſet thy ſervant among them that did eat at thine own table: what right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king? And the king ſaid unto him, Why ſpeakeſt thou any more of thy matters? I have ſaid, Thou and Ziba divide the land. 30 And Mephiboſheth ſaid unto the king, Yea, let him take all, foraſmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own houſe. 31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. 32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourſcore years old, and he had provided the king of ſuſtenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. 33 And the king ſaid unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jeruſalem. 34 And Barzillai ſaid unto the king, How long have I to live, that I ſhould go up with the king unto Jeruſalem? 35 I am this day fourſcore years old: and can I diſcern between good and evil? can thy ſervant taſte what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of ſinging men and ſinging women? wherefore then ſhould thy ſervant be yet a burden unto my lord the king? 36 Thy ſervant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why ſhould the king recompenſe it me with ſuch a reward? 37 Let thy ſervant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father, and of my mother: but behold thy ſervant Chimham, let him go over with my lord the king, and do to him what ſhall ſeem good unto thee. 38 And the king anſwered, Chimham ſhall go over with me, and I will do to him that which ſhall ſeem good unto thee: and whatſoever thou ſhalt require of me, that will I do for thee. 39 And all the people went over Jordan: and when the king was come over, the king kiſſed Barzillai, and bleſſed him; and he returned unto his own place. 40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and alſo half the people of Iſrael. 41 And behold, all the men of Iſrael came to the king, and ſaid unto the king? Why have our brethren the men of Judah, ſtolen thee away, and have brought the king and his houſhold, and all Davids men with him over Jordan? 42 And all the men of Judah anſwered the men of Iſrael, Becauſe the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we have eaten at all of the kings coſt? or hath he given us any gift? 43 And the men of Iſrael anſwered the men of Judah, and ſaid, We have ten parts in the king, and we have alſo more right in David than ye: why then did ye deſpiſe us, that our advice ſhould not be firſt had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Iſrael.

God do ſo to me, and more alſo, if thou be not Captain of the Hoſt before me continually in the Room of Joab] For he had ſufficient Reaſon to think of depreſſing a Man, who was grown ſo inſufferably inſolent and imperious. He had ſlain Abner moſt perfidiouſly in cool Blood; had kill'd Abſalom againſt the King's expreſs Command; in his late bold Reproof had inſulted over his Terror, and (if we may believe Joſephus) threaten'd to depoſe him, and give his Kingdom to another. To ſuch a Height of Arrogance will Miniſters ſometimes arrive, when they find that their Service is become neceſſary to a Prince! See Patrick's Com.

And there were a thouſand Men of Benjamin with him] The Reaſon why Shimei came with ſo large a Retinue, was, to let David ſee that he was a Man of ſome conſiderable Rank, and capable of doing him great Service among the People, which might be ſome Inducement to the King to grant him his Pardon; or, very likely, he was one of the Captains of a Thouſand in his own Tribe, and might carry them all along with him to make the ſtronger Interceſſion for his Pardon. See Pool's Annot.

And had neither dreſſed his Feet, nor trimmed his Beard, nor waſhed his Cloaths] Theſe were ſome of the Inſtances wherein the Jews were wont to expreſs their their Mourning; and they are here mention'd by the Hiſtorian, as Evidences of the Falſhood of Ziba's Information againſt his Maſter, ſince no one who neglected himſelf to this Degree, could be ſuppos'd ambitious of a Crown. Not dreſſing his Feet, may ſignify either not cutting his Toe-nails, or his not waſhing his Feet, which the Jews were accuſtom'd very frequently to do, becauſe of the bad Smell which was natural to them, as well as the Arabians, and ſome other Nations, and therefore his Omiſſion of this could not but make him offenſive to himſelf. Not trimming his Beard, was letting its Hair grow negligently, and without any Order. For the Manner of the Jews was, to cut the Hair from the Lip upwards, and what grew likewiſe on the Cheek, but what was on the Chin, and ſo backwards to the Ear, that they ſuffer'd to grow; and not waſhing his Cloaths muſt denote his not putting on clean Linnen, but wearing the ſame Shirt all the while. Calmet's and Patrick's Com.

CHAP. XX.

Sheba raiſes a Sedition. Joab kills Amaſa, and, with Abiſhai, purſues Sheba to Abel; the Inhabitants of which, by the Advice of a wiſe Woman, cut off his Head, and threw it over the Wall.

Ver. 1. AND there happened to be there a man of Belial, whoſe name was Sheba the ſon of Bichri, a Benjamite, and he blew a trumpet, and ſaid, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the ſon of Jeſſe: every man to his tents, O Iſrael. 2 So every man of Iſrael went up from after David, and followed Sheba the ſon of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jeruſalem. 3 And David came to his houſe at Jeruſalem, and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the houſe, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them; ſo they were ſhut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood. 4 Then ſaid the king to Amaſa, Aſſemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here preſent. 5 So Amaſa went to aſſemble the men of Judah; but he tarried longer than the ſet time which he had appointed him. 6 And David ſaid to Abiſhai, Now ſhall Sheba the ſon of Bichri do us more harm than did Abſalom: take thou thy lords ſervants, and purſue after him, leſt he get him fenced cities, and eſcape us. 7 And there were out after him Joabs men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jeruſalem, to purſue after Sheba the ſon of Bichri. 8 When they were at the great ſtone which is in Gibeon, Amaſa went before them: and Joabs garment that he had put on, was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a ſword faſtened upon his loins in the ſheath thereof, and as he went forth it fell out. 9 And Joab ſaid to Amaſa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amaſa by the beard with the right hand to kiſs him. 10 But Amaſa took no heed to the ſword that was in Joabs hand: ſo he ſmote him therewith in the fifth rib, and ſhed out his bowels to the ground, and ſtrook him not again, and he died: ſo Joab and Abiſhai his brother purſued after Sheba the ſon of Bichri. 21 And one of Joabs men ſtood by him, and ſaid, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab. 12 And Amaſa wallowed in blood in the mids of the high-way: and when the man ſaw that all the people ſtood ſtill, he removed Amaſa out of the high-way into the field, and caſt a cloth upon him, when he ſaw that every one that came by him, ſtood ſtill. 13 When he was removed out of the high-way, all the people went on after Joab, to purſue after Sheba the ſon of Bichri. 14 And he went through all the tribes of Iſrael unto Abel, and to Beth-maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went alſo after him. 15 And they came and beſieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, and they caſt up a bank againſt the city, and it ſtood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab, battered the wall, to throw it down. 16 Then cried a wiſe woman out of the city, Hear, hear, ſay, I pray you unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may ſpeak with thee. 17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman ſaid, Art thou Joab? And he anſwered, I am he. Then ſhe ſaid unto him, Hear the words of thy hand-maid. And he anſwered, I do hear. 18 Then ſhe ſpake, ſaying, They were wont to ſpeak in old time, ſaying, they ſhall ſurely aſk counſel at Abel: and ſo they ended the matter. 19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Iſrael: thou ſeekeſt to deſtroy a city, and a mother in Iſrael: why wilt thou ſwallow up the inheritance of the Lord? 20 And Joab anſwered, and ſaid, Far be it, far be it from me, that I ſhould ſwallow up or deſtroy. 21 The matter is not ſo: but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the ſon of Bichri by name) hath lift up his hand againſt the king, even againſt David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city: And the woman ſaid unto Joab, Behold, his head ſhall be thrown to thee over the wall. 22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her wiſdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the ſon of Bichri, and caſt it out to Joab: and he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent: and Joab returned to Jeruſalem unto the king. 23 Now Joab was over all the hoſt of Iſrael: and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and over the Pelethites; 24 And Adoram was over the tribute: and Jehoſhaphat the ſon of Ahilud was recorder: 25 And Sheva was ſcribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were the prieſts: 26 And Ira alſo the Jairite was a chief ruler about David.

And Joab took Amaſa by the Beard to kiſs him] It was an antient Cuſtom among the Grecians, to take the Perſon, to whom they had any Addreſs to make, by the Chin, or Beard; and, even to this Day, the Turks, in their Salutations, do very frequently take one another by the Beard. (See Thevenot's Travels) The Arabians have a great Regard to the Beard: The Wives kiſs their Huſbands, and the Children their Fathers Beards, when they came to ſalute them; and, when two Friends meet together, their Cuſtom is, in the Courſe of their Compliments, to interchange Kiſſes in this Manner, as the like Cuſtom is ſtill preſerv'd among the Eaſtern People, the Indians, who take one another by the Chin, when they would give one another a hearty Salute, and ſay Bobba, i. e. Father, or Brother, as the Author of the Voyage to the Eaſt Indies relates.

And one of Joab's Men ſtood by him, and ſaid, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab] So inſolent was Joab become, upon the Preſumption that David durſt not puniſh him, that as he ventur'd upon this bloody Fact, ſo he imagin'd, that Amasa's dead Body might ſtop the March of thoſe that came by it, yet, upon its being given out, that he was again become their General, their Love to him was ſuch, that they would not ſcruple to follow him.

Then cried a wiſe Woman out of the City] It ſeems not unlikely, that this Woman was a Governeſs in this City; for, tho' that Office was moſt commonly occupied by Men, yet there want not Inſtances of Men (as in the Caſe of Deborah, Judg. iv. 4. and Queen Athaliah, 2 Kings xi.) who have been employ'd in the Adminiſtration of civil Affairs. If ſhe was inveſted with any ſuch Authority, ſhe was the propereſt Perſon to deſire a Parley with the General; and Reaſon good ſhe had to deſire it, becauſe ſhe knew the preſent Temper and Fears of the Citizens and Soldiers both, viz. that conſidering the imminent Danger they were in, they were generally deſirous of Peace, and reſtrain'd from it only by Sheba's Power and Authority. Pool's Annot.

They were wont to ſpeak in the old Time, ſaying, They ſhall ſurely aſk Counſel at Abel; and ſo they ended the Matter] According to this Tranſlation, the Senſe of the Words is, — 'This City, which thou art about to 'deſtroy, is no mean and contemptible one, but ſo 'honourable and conſiderable for its Wiſdom, and 'the wiſe People in it, that when any Difference did 'ariſe among any of the neighbouring Places, they 'us'd proverbially to ſay, We will aſk the Opinion and 'Advice of the Men of Abel about it, and we will ſtand 'to their Arbitration, and ſo all Parties were ſatisfied, 'and Diſputes ended:' So that the Words, according to this Senſe, are an high Commendation of the City of Abel, for its being a Place (Time out of Mind) very eminent for the Wiſdom and Prudence of its Inhabitants. But there is another Tranſlation in the Margin of our Bibles, which ſeems to be more natural, and makes the Woman ſpeak in this Manner: — 'When 'the People ſaw thee lay Siege to the City, they ſaid, 'Surely he will aſk, if we will have Peace; for the Law preſcribes, that he ſhould offer Peace to Strangers, 'much more then to Iſraelitiſh Cities; and if he would 'once do this, we ſhould ſoon bring Things to an 'amicable Agreement; for we are peaceable People, 'and faithful to our Prince.' So that, according to this Interpretation, the Woman both modeſtly reprov'd Joab for the Neglect of his Duty, and artfully engag'd him in the Performance of it. See Patrick's Com. and Pool's Annot.

CHAP. XXI.

Three Years Famine, occaſioned by Saul's Cruelty to the Gibeonites; it ceaſes upon hanging up ſeven of Saul's Sons. Several Battles with the Philiſtines.

Ver. 1. THen there was a famine in the days of David, three years, year after year; and David enquired of the Lord. And the Lord anſwered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody houſe, becauſe he ſlew the Gibeonites. 2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and ſaid unto them, (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Iſrael, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Iſrael had ſworn unto them: and Saul ſought to ſlay them, in his zeal to the children of Iſrael and Judah) 3 Wherefore David ſaid unto the Gibeonites, What ſhall I do for you? and wherewith ſhall I make the atonement, that ye may bleſs the inheritance of the Lord? 4 And the Gibeonites ſaid unto him, We will have no ſilver nor gold of Saul, nor of his houſe, neither for us ſhalt thou kill any man in Iſrael. And he ſaid, What you ſhall ſay, that will I do for you. 5 And they anſwered the king, The man that conſumed us, and that deviſed againſt us, that we ſhould be deſtroyed from remaining in any of the coaſts of Iſrael, 6 Let ſeven men of his ſons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, whom the Lord did chooſe. And the king ſaid, I will give them. 7 But the king ſpared Mephibоſheth the ſon of Jonathan the ſon of Saul, becauſe of the Lords oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the ſon of Saul. 8 But the king took the two ſons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom ſhe bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibоſheth, and the five ſons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom ſhe brought up for Adriel the ſon of Barzillai the Meholathite. 9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the Lord: and they fell all ſeven together, and were put to death in the days of harveſt, in the firſt days, in the beginning of barley-harveſt. 10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took ſackcloth, and ſpread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harveſt until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and ſuffered neither the birds of the air to reſt on them by day, nor the beaſts of the field by night. 11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done. 12 And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his ſon, from the men of Jabeſh-gilead, which had ſtolen them from the ſtreet of Beth-ſhan, where the Philiſtines had hanged them, when the Philiſtines had ſlain Saul in Gilboa. 13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his ſon; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. 14 And the bones of Saul and Jonthan his ſon, buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the ſepulchre of Kiſh his father; and they performed all that the king commanded: and after that, God was intreated for the land. 15 Moreover, the Philiſtines had yet war again with Iſrael, and David went down, and his ſervants with him, and fought againſt the Philiſtines; and David waxed faint. 16 And Iſhbi-benob, which was of the ſons of the giant, (the weight of whoſe ſpear weighed three hundred ſhekels of braſs in weight) he being girded with a new ſword, thought to have ſlain David. 17 But Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah ſuccoured him, and ſmote the Philiſtine, and killed him. Then the men of David ſware unto him, ſaying, Thou ſhalt go no more out with us to battel, that thou quench not the light of Iſrael. 18 And it came to paſs after this, that there was again a battel with the Philiſtines at Gob: then Sibbecai the Huſhathite ſlew Saph, which was of the ſons of the giant. 19 And there was again a battel in Gob with the Philiſtines, where Elhanan the ſon of Jaare-oregim a Beth-lehemite, ſlew the brother of Goliah the Gittite, the ſtaff of whoſe ſpear was like a weavers beam. 20 And there was yet a battel in Gath, where was a man of great ſtature, that had on every hand ſix fingers, and on every foot ſix toes, four and twenty in number; and he alſo was born to the giant, 21 And when he defied Iſrael, Jonathan the ſon of Shimea the brother of David ſlew him. 22 Theſe four where born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his ſervants.

This Chapter begins with an Account of Saul's Cruelty to the Gibeonites; but the Punishment fell upon the People: But how could they be Partners in Saul's Guilt? Thus: Saul set up for a Restorer of the divine Laws to their antient Rigour and Strictness of Execution, and a Supplier of the Fault of Joshua, and the Princes of Israel, in sparing the Gibeonites, even tho' they were comprized in the general Ordinance of Extirpation, and under this Character he might easily draw in his own Subjects to abet and assist his Cruelty against a poor People, for whom they never had any good Liking. Regis ad Exemplum, by the Example of the King, is a known Maxim; and therefore we may easily suppose, that a wicked and hard-hearted People, who had assisted Saul in the Persecution of David; had adhered to Absalom in the Persecution of his own Father; and who, at the Beck of so many impious Princes, left the true Worship of God, and fell into Idolatry, would not be backward to assist Saul in putting in Execution any of his Contrivances against the poor Gibeonites. And if so, we cannot but admire the Wisdom and Justice of God, in making the Punishment national, when the whole Nation (for ought we know) was confederate with Saul in murthering the Gibeonites, or guilty, at least, in not hindering it; when the next Generation was involved in the Guilt, by not repairing the Injury, as much as possible, or not expressing their Horror and Detestation of it by some publick Act; when an Act of Discipline might, at this Time, be necessary to preserve the remaining Gibeonites from Insults; to beget in the Israelites a proper Respect for them; to prevent the like Murthers for the future, and the like Breaches of national Compacts.

But wherein were Saul's Sons and Grandsons culpable? We must allow, indeed, that God, as he is a most just and righteous Being, can never require that the Innocent should die for the Guilty; and therefore we have Reason to believe, that when Saul was so outrageous against the Gibeonites, his Sons and Grandsons might be the Instruments of his Cruelty, and very probably bear some Part in the military Execution. For it frequently so happens, that whatever a King commands, be it never so abominable, is generally approved and executed by his Family; and for this Reason it is, that Saul's is called a bloody House; which it would not have been, had it dissuaded or opposed, nay, had it not been accessary and aiding to Saul's bloody Designs against this poor defenceless People.

But why did God so long delay punishing them? It's answer'd, that, upon the Supposition (for it is by Suppositions that we must go in this History) that both the People, and Princes of the Blood, were accessary or instrumental to Saul's Cruelty, the Reason why God delay'd their Punishment so long is obvious; even because his infinite Goodness waited for their Repentance; which Goodness we badly requite, if we pervert it as an Argument against his Providence. For may not God be gracious and merciful, as long as he pleases? Or have we any Right to set Bounds to his Patience and Long-suffering? 'Tis but supposing then, that while God continued in this State of Expectance, upon some special Occasion or other, to us unknown, both the People of Israel, and Saul's Posterity might discover, that they were so far from repenting, that they gloried in the Murther of the Gibeonites, and this would determine God, who had hitherto waited for their Penitence in vain, to pour out his Indignation upon them, and exact a severe Punishment both for Cruelty and Obstinacy.

And the five Sons of Michal the Daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel] We read Ch. vi. 23. that Michal had no Children; yet here it's said she had five Sons. Michal is put in the Text, indeed, but not by Mistake, as some will have it; for tho' Michal was not the Wife of Adriel, but Merab, yet those Children which Merab had by Adriel, Michal brought up; and the Jews observe, upon this Occasion, that whoever brings up a Pupil in his House, is in Scripture said to have begotten him. Nor is it in Scripture only, that this Form of Expression takes Place, but in Heathen Authors likewise. For Agamemnon and Menelaus are called Sons of Atreus, because Plisthenes (who was their Father) being dead, he took Care to bring them up.

CHAP. XXII.

A Psalm of Thanksgiving for God's powerful Deliverance and manifold Blessings.

Ver. 1. AND David spake unto the Lord the words of this song, in the day that the Lord had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. 2 And he said, The Lord is my rock and my fortress, and my deliverer, 3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence. 4 I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. 5 When the waves of death compassed me: the floods of ungodly men made me afraid, 6 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me. 7 In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried to my God, and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears. 8 Then the earth shook and trembled: the foundations of heaven moved and shook because he was wroth. 9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. 10 He bowed the heavens also and came down: and darkness was under his feet. 11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen upon the wings of the wind. 12 And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies. 13 Through the brightness before him were coals of fire kindled. 14 The Lord thundred from heaven, and the most high uttered his voice. 15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them. 16 And the chanels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the Lord, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. 17 He sent from above, he took me: he drew me out of many waters. 18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. 19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the Lord was my stay. 20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me. 21 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. 22 For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God. 23 For all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them. 24 I was also upright before him, and have kept my self from mine iniquity. 25 Therefore the Lord hath recompensed me according to my righteousness: according to my cleanness in his eye-sight. 26 With the merciful thou wilt shew thy self merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thy self upright. 27 With the pure thou wilt shew thy self pure, and with the froward thou wilt shew thy self unsavoury. 28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down. 29 For thou art my lamp, O Lord: and the Lord will lighten my darkneſs. 30 For by thee I have run through troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all them that truſt in him. 32 For who is God, ſave the Lord? and who is a rock, ſave our God?
33 God is my ſtrength and power: and he maketh my way perfect. 34 He maketh my feet like hinds feet: and ſetteth me upon my high places. 35 He teacheth my hands to war:
ſo that a bow of ſteel is broken by mine arms.
36 Thou haſt alſo given me the ſhield of thy ſalvation: and thy gentleneſs hath made me great. 37 Thou haſt enlarged my ſteps under me: ſo that my feet did not ſlip. 38 I have purſued mine enemies, and deſtroyed them: and turned not again until I had conſumed them.
39 And I have conſumed them, and wounded them, that they could not ariſe: yea, they are fallen under my feet. 40 For thou haſt girded me with ſtrength to battel: them that roſe up againſt me, haſt thou ſubdued under me. 41
Thou haſt alſo given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might deſtroy them that hate me.
42 They looked, but there was none to ſave:
even unto the Lord, but he anſwered them not.
43 Then did I beat them as ſmall as the duſt of the earth, I did ſtamp them as the mire of the ſtreet, and did ſpread them abroad. 44 Thou alſo haſt delivered me from the ſtrivings of my people, thou haſt kept me to be head of the heathen: a people which I knew not, ſhall ſerve me. 45 Strangers ſhall ſubmit themſelves unto me: aſſoon as they hear, they ſhall be obedient unto me. 46 Strangers ſhall fade away, and they ſhall be afraid out of their cloſe places. 47
The Lord liveth, and bleſſed be my rock: and exalted be the God of the rock of my ſalvation.
48 It is God that avengeth me, and that bringeth down the people under me, 49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou alſo haſt lifted me up on high above them that roſe up againſt me: thou haſt delivered me from the violent man. 50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and I will ſing praiſes unto thy name. 51 He is the

CHAP. XXIII.

David's laſt Words. A Character of himſelf. His Faith in God's Covenant. Deſtruction to the Wicked. His Worthies, and their great Exploits.

Ver. 1. NOW theſe be the laſt words of David: David the ſon of Jeſſe ſaid, and the man who was raiſed up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the ſweet pſalmiſt of Iſrael, ſaid, 2 The Spirit of the Lord ſpake by me, and his word was in my tongue. 3 The God of Iſrael ſaid, the Rock of Iſrael ſpake to me, He that ruleth over men muſt be juſt, ruling in the fear of God: 4 And he ſhall be as the light of the morning when the ſun riſeth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender graſs ſpringing out of the earth by clear ſhining after rain. 5 Although my houſe be not ſo with God; yet he hath made with me an everlaſting covenant, ordered in all things and ſure: for this is all my ſalvation, and all my deſire, although he make it not to grow. 6 But the ſons of Belial ſhall be all of them as thorns thruſt away, becauſe they cannot be taken with hands. 7 But the man that ſhall touch them, muſt be fenced with iron, and the ſtaff of a ſpear, and they ſhall be utterly burnt with fire in the ſame place. 8 Theſe be the names of the mighty men whom David had; The Tachmonite that ſat in the ſeat, chief among the captains, (the ſame was Adino the Eznite) he lift up his ſpear againſt eight hundred, whom he ſlew at one time. 9 And after him was Eleazar the ſon of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philiſtines that were there gathered together to battel, and the men of Iſrael were gone away. 10 He aroſe, and ſmote the Philiſtines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the ſword: and the Lord wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to ſpoil. 11 And after him was Shammah the ſon of Agee the Hararite: and the Philiſtines were gathered together into a troop where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philiſtines. 12 But he ſtood in the midſt of the ground and defended it, and ſlew the Philiſtines: and the Lord wrought a great victory. 13 And three of the thirty chief went down and came to David in the harveſt-time, unto the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philiſtines pitched in the valley of Rephaim. 14 And David was then in an hold, and the gariſon of the Philiſtines was then in Beth-lehem. 15 And David longed, and ſaid, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate. 16 And the three mighty men brake through the hoſt of the Philiſtines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheleſs he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the Lord. 17 And he ſaid, Be it far from me, O Lord, that I ſhould do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. Theſe things did theſe three mighty men. 18 And Abiſhai the brother of Joab, the ſon of Zeruiah, was chief among three; and he lift up his ſpear againſt three hundred, and ſlew them, and had the name among three. 19 Was he not moſt honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit, he attained not unto the firſt three. 20 And Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, the ſon of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he ſlew two lion-like men of Moab: he went down alſo and ſlew a lion in the midſt of a pit in time of ſnow. 21 And he ſlew an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a ſpear in his hand; but he went down to him with a ſtaff; and plucked the ſpear out of the Egyptians hand, and ſlew him with his own ſpear. 22 Theſe things did Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men. 23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the firſt three: and David ſet him over his guard. 24 Aſahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the ſon of Dodo of Bethlehem, 25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, 26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the ſon of Ikkaſh the Tekoite, 27 Abiezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Huſhathite, 28 Salmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, 29 Heleb the ſon of Baanah, a Netophathite, Ittai the ſon of Ribai out of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, 30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaaſh. 31 Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, 32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite; of the ſons of Jaſhen, Jonathan, 33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the ſon of Sharar the Hararite, 34 Eliphelet the ſon of Ahaſbai, the ſon of the Maachathite, Eliam the ſon of Ahithophel the Gilonite, 35 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, 36 Igal the ſon of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, 37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armour-bearer to Joab the ſon of Zeruiah, 38 Ira an Ithrite, Gareb an Ithrite, 39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty and ſeven in all.

And David longed, and ſaid, O that one would give me to drink of the Water of Bethlehem, which is by the Gate!] It is commonly obſerved by the Jewiſh Commentators, that, tho' David expreſſed a Deſire for ſome of the Water of Bethlehem, becauſe it was the Place of his Nativity, and the Water, very probably, very excellent in its Kind, yet he did not do this with any Intent that any ſhould venture their Lives to fetch it him. In this Action, however, they have remarked three wonderful Things, viz. that three Men could break through the whole Hoſt of the Philiſtines; and, when they had ſo done, durſt ſtay to draw Water out of the Well; and then carry it away with an high Hand, through the ſame Hoſt, to David: But they might have added a fourth Remark, viz. that they attempted this at the Gate of Bethlehem, where the Garriſon of the Philiſtines kept a ſtrong Guard.

Thirty and ſeven in all] Yet there are but Six and thirty named. Either therefore one muſt be ſupplied, whoſe Name is not expreſſed among the three ſecond Worthies; or Joab is comprehended in the Number, as being Lord General of all.

CHAP. XXIV.

David forces Joab to number the People, for which God ſends a Peſtilence, but Jeruſalem, on David's Humiliation, is ſpared. He purchaſes Araunah's Threſhing-floor to build an Altar there, on which ſacrificing, the Plague ceaſes.

Ver. 1. AND again the anger of the Lord was kindled againſt Iſrael, and he moved David againſt them, to ſay, Go number Iſrael and Judah. 2 For the king ſaid to Joab the captain of the hoſt, which was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Iſrael, from Dan even to Beerſheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people. 3 And Joab ſaid unto the king, Now the Lord thy God add unto the people (how many ſoever they be) an hundred fold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may ſee it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? 4 Notwithſtanding, the kings word prevailed againſt Joab, and againſt the captains of the hoſt; and Joab and the captains of the hoſt went out from the preſence of the king, to number the people of Iſrael. 5 And they paſſed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right ſide of the city that lieth in the midſt of the river of Gad, and toward Jazer. 6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodſhi, and they came to Dan-jaan, and about to Zidon, 7 And came to the ſtrong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the ſouth of Judah, even to Beerſheba. 8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jeruſalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9 And Joab gave up the ſum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Iſrael eight hundred thouſand valiant men that drew the ſword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thouſand men. 10 And Davids heart ſmote him, after that he had numbred the people: and David ſaid unto the Lord, I have ſinned greatly in that I have done: and now I beſeech thee, O Lord, take away the iniquity of thy ſervant; for I have done very fooliſhly. 11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the prophet Gad, Davids ſeer, ſaying, 12 Go and ſay unto David, Thus ſaith the Lord, I offer thee three things; chooſe thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. 13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and ſaid unto him, Shall ſeven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they purſue thee? or that there be three days peſtilence in thy land? now adviſe, and ſee what anſwer I ſhall return to him that ſent me. 14 And David ſaid unto Gad, I am in a great ſtrait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hand of man. 15 So the Lord ſent a peſtilence upon Iſrael, from the morning, even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beerſheba, ſeventy thouſand men. 16 And when the angel ſtretched out his hand upon Jeruſalem to deſtroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and ſaid to the angel that deſtroyed the people, It is enough: ſtay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord was by the threſhing-place of Araunah the Jebuſite. 17 And David ſpake unto the Lord when he ſaw the angel that ſmote the people, and ſaid, Lo, I have ſinned, and I have done wickedly: but theſe ſheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be againſt me, and againſt my fathers houſe. 18 And Gad came that day to David, and ſaid unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the Lord, in the threſhing-floor of Araunah the Jebuſite. 19 And David, according to the ſaying of Gad, went up as the Lord commanded. 20 And Araunah looked, and ſaw the king and his ſervants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out and bowed himſelf before the king on his face upon the ground. 21 And Araunah, ſaid, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his ſervant? And David ſaid, to buy the threſhing-floor of thee to build an altar unto the Lord, that the plague may be ſtayed from the people. 22 And Araunah ſaid unto David, let my lord the king take and offer up what ſeemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt ſacrifice, and threſhing-inſtruments and other inſtruments of the oxen for wood. 23 All theſe things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king: and Araunah ſaid unto the king, The Lord thy God accept thee. 24 And the king ſaid unto Araunah, Nay; but I will ſurely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt ferings unto the Lord my God, of that which doth coſt me nothing. So David bought the threſhing-floor and the oxen, for fifty ſhekels of ſilver. 25 And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings: ſo the Lord was intreated for the land, and the plague was ſtayed from Iſrael.

And again the Anger of the Lord was kindled againſt Iſrael, and he moved David againſt them, to ſay, Go number Iſrael and Judah] Theſe are the Words as they ſtand in the Text; but in the Original there is no Nominative Caſe at all. We find it however ſupply'd in 1 Chron. xxi. 1. where it is ſaid, that Satan ſtood up againſt Iſrael, and provoked David to number Iſrael: But then, by the Word Satan, there is no Neceſſity why we ſhould underſtand the Devil properly ſo called; becauſe any evil Miniſter or Counſellor, that advis'd David to number the People, will anſwer the Signification of the Word as well: And that there was ſome ſuch Counſellor, who prompted David to this Action, ſeems to be implied in theſe Words of Joab — Now the Lord thy God add unto the People (how many ſoever they be) an Hundred-fold, and that the Eyes of my Lord the King may ſee it, but why doth my Lord the King delight in this Thing? Whereby it ſeems plain, that the Matter had been debated in the King's Council before, and that, tho' Joab was one who oppos'd it, David was more influenc'd by the Perſuaſion of ſome other. See Le Clerc's Com.

And there were in Iſrael eight hundred thouſand valiant Men that drew the Sword; and the Men of Judah were five hundred thouſand] But in Chronicles, Ch. xxi. 5. it is ſaid, they of Iſrael were a thouſand and an hundred thouſand Men that drew the Sword, and Judah was four hundred threeſcore and ten thouſand Men that drew the Sword: Various have been the Attempts to adjuſt and ſettle this Diſagreement. Some ſuppoſe, that Joab undertook this Office with no ſmall Reluctancy, and David, very probably, might repent of the Thing before it was fully executed; tho' the Commiſſioners might have made an exact Review, yet they thought proper to lay before the King no more than what the Sum in Samuel amounts to; but that the Author of the Book of Chronicles might, from ſome of theſe Commiſſioners, receive the complete Sum, which occaſioned the Difference.

Patrick imagines, that the Difference ariſes from the Legionary Soldiers (as they are called) or thoſe Companies of Militia which attended the King's Perſon, and might make the Number either greater or leſs, according as they are numbered, or not numbered in the Account: But this Solution is purely arbitrary, and ſuch as has no Foundation in Scripture. It ſuppoſes, that, that the real Number was what is recorded in Chronicles, which taking in ſeveral Articles that are ſaid to be omitted, ſurpaſſes all Faith.

Since there is then, ſays Stackhouſe, no Poſſibility of reconciling theſe different Computations, the Queſtion is, which of theſe two we are to receive? And this, without all Controverſy, muſt be that in Samuel; not only becauſe the Arabick Tranſlators, in their Verſion of the Chronicles, have inſerted it, but becauſe there is nothing exceſſive or extravagant in the Suppoſition, that in a fertile and well cultivated Country, of ſixty Leagues in Length, and thirty in Breadth, a Multitude of People, to the Number of ſix or ſeven Millions (which, taking in the other Articles, will be the Sum total) might very comfortably be maintained. Rather than have Recourſe to ſuch Solutions, as do but more embarraſs the Matter, we may adventure to ſay, without any Diminution to the Scriptures Authority, that the exceſſive Number in the Chronicles was a Miſtake of the Perſon, who, after the Captivity, tranſcribed this Part of the ſacred Writ.

Shall ſeven Years of Famine come] In Chronicles the Famine is ſaid to be for three Years only, but here it is ſaid to be for ſeven. The Septuagint indeed makes it no more than three; and for this Reaſon ſome have imagin'd, that the ſeven is an Error crept into the Text, eſpecially conſidering, that three Years of Famine agree better with three Days Peſtilence, and three Months Flight before an Enemy. But there is no Reaſon to ſuppoſe any Error in the Text; 'tis but ſaying, that in Chronicles, the Author ſpeaks of thoſe Years of Famine, which were to come for David's Sin only, but in Samuel, of thoſe three Years of Famine likewiſe, which were ſent for Saul's Sin, 2 Sam. xxi. Now within one Year, after the Famine, that was ſent for Saul's Sin, was David's Sin in numbering the People; the intermediate Year then was either the ſabbatical Year, wherein the People were not allowed to ſow or reap, or a Year of ſuch exceſſive Draught, that the Crop came to little or nothing. Upon either of theſe Accounts we may properly enough ſay, that there were four Years of Famine before, and three more being now added to them, make up the ſeven that are here mention'd. Pool's Annot.

So the Lord ſent a Peſtilence upon Iſrael from the Morning, even to the Time appointed] The Time appointed was the Space of three Days; and therefore ſome are of Opinion, that the Plague laſted ſo long. But then others urge, that this does not agree with what follows, viz. that God repented him of the Evil, and commanded the Angel, who ſmote the People, to ſtay his Hand. They therefore conclude, that as the Word Moed properly ſignifies an Aſſembly, the Time Moed muſt be, when the People met together at the Time of Evening Sacrifice, i. e. about the ninth Hour of the Day, and conſequently, that the Plague continued from the Morning to this Time, which is about nine Hours, or the Part of three Days; God in his Mercy having been pleaſed to mitigate the Rigour of his Judgment upon the ſincere Repentance of his People. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Annot.

So David bought the Threſhing-floor, and the Oxen for fifty Shekels of Silver] In the Chronicles it is ſaid, that David bought the Threſhing-floor, &c. for Six hundred Shekels of Gold. Now a Shekel of Gold being of twelve Times more Value than a Shekel of Silver, it makes the Diſparity very large; and therefore (to account for this) it is generally ſuppos'd, that, in the Whole, David made two Purchaſes; firſt, he bought the Threſhing-floor and Oxen, for which he gave fifty Shekels of Silver; but that afterwards all the Ground about it (out of which the Courts of the Temple were made) coſt him Six hundred Shekels of Gold. Patrick's Com.

AN EXPOSITION OF The First Book of KINGS, commonly called the Third Book of KINGS.

The ARGUMENT.

This and the following Book, are entitled, Of the Kings, becauſe they treat of the Kings of Judah and Iſrael, and were written by the Prophets and holy Men of God, living in, or near the Times of thoſe Kings, in whoſe Reigns theſe Tranſactions are related to be done, and by one of thoſe holy Men digeſted into this Order. But whoever was the Penman, that theſe are a Part of thoſe Holy Scriptures that were divinely inſpired, is ſufficiently evident, 1. From the concurring Teſtimony of the whole Jewiſh Church in all Ages, to whom were committed the Oracles of God, Rom. iii. 2. who alſo faithfully diſcharged their Duty, in preſerving and delivering them intirely and truly to their Poſterity, from Time to Time, as plainly appears, becauſe Chriſt and his Apoſtles, who freely reproved them for their ſeveral Sins, never taxed them with this Fault, of depraving the Holy Scriptures of the Old Teſtament. 2. Becauſe this is manifeſt concerning divers Parts of them, which were tranſcribed from the Records of the Prophets Nathan, Ahijah, and Iddo, 2 Chron. ix. 29. and out of the Prophecies of Iſaiah and Jeremiah; and the reſt were doubtleſs of the ſame Nature. 3. From the Approbation that is given of theſe Books in the New Teſtament, both generally, as 2 Tim. iii. 16. All Scripture is given by Inſpiration from God, &c. which is affirmed concerning all theſe Holy Scriptures, which Timothy had known from a Child, and therefore muſt neceſſarily be meant of the Old Teſtament, which the Jews owned for Canonical Scripture; and particularly Rom. xi. 2, 3, &c. where a Paſſage out of theſe Books is quoted and owned as Part of the Holy Scripture, called the Scripture, by Way of Eminence.

CHAP. I.

David being grown old, is cheriſhed by Abiſhag. Adonijah's ſhort Uſurpation. Solomon proclaim'd King; and pardons Adonijah.

Ver. 1. NOW king David was old, and ſtricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat. 2 Wherefore his ſervants ſaid unto him, Let there be ſought for my lord the king, a young virgin, and let her ſtand before the king, and let her cheriſh him, and let her lie in thy boſom, that my lord the king may get heat. 3 So they ſought for a fair damſel throughout all the coaſts of Iſrael, and found Abiſhag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 4 And the damſel was very fair, and cheriſhed the king, and miniſtred to him: but the king knew her not. 5 Then Adonijah the ſon of Haggith exalted himſelf, ſaying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horſe-men, and fifty men to run before him. 6 And his father had not diſpleaſed him at any time, in ſaying, Why haſt thou done ſo? and he alſo was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him after Abſalom. 7 And he conferred with Joab the ſon of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the prieſt: and they following Adonijah, helped him. 8 But Zadok the prieſt, and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. 9 And Adonijah ſlew ſheep and oxen and fat cattel, by the ſtone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's ſons, and all the men of Judah the king's ſervants: 10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not. 11 Wherefore Nathan ſpake unto Bath-ſheba the mother of Solomon, ſaying, Haſt thou not heard that Adonijah the ſon of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not? 12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counſel, that thou mayeſt ſave thine own life, and the life of thy ſon Solomon. 13 Go, and get thee in unto king David, and ſay unto him, Didſt not thou, my lord, O king, ſwear unto thine hand-maid, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſon ſhall reign after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? 14 Behold, while thou yet talkeſt there with the king, I will alſo come in after thee, and confirm thy words. 15 And Bath-ſheba went in unto the king, into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abiſhag the Shunammite

e fourth year was y foundation of the house of the Lord laid, in the th Zif. And in the Eleventh year: in the month Bul (which is the eighth
h) was the house finished throu ghout all y parts thereof. & according f fashion of it: so was he seven years in Building it.

ammite miniſtred unto the king. 16 And ath-ſheba bowed, and did obeiſance unto the ing: and the king ſaid, What wouldſt thou? 17 And ſhe ſaid unto him, My lord, thou wareſt by the Lord thy God unto thine hand-maid, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſon ſhall eign after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne: 18 And now behold, Adonijah reigneth; and ow my lord the king, thou knoweſt it not. 19 nd he hath ſlain oxen, and fat cattel, and ſheep abundance, and hath called all the ſons of the ing, and Abiathar the prieſt, and Joab the cap-in of the hoſt: but Solomon thy ſervant hath e not called. 20 And thou, my lord, O king, he eyes of all Iſrael are upon thee, that thou houldeſt tell them who ſhall ſit on the throne f my lord the king after him. 21 Otherwiſe it hall come to paſs, when my lord the king ſhall ep with his fathers, that I and my ſon Solo-on ſhall be counted offenders. 22 And lo, hile ſhe yet talked with the king, Nathan the rophet alſo came in. 23 And they told the ing, ſaying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And hen he was come in before the king, he bowed mſelf before the king with his face to the round. 24 And Nathan ſaid, My lord, O king, ſt thou ſaid, Adonijah ſhall reign after me, d he ſhall ſit upon my throne? 25 For he is one down this day, and hath ſlain oxen, and t cattle, and ſheep in abundance, and hath called l the kings ſons, and the captains of the hoſt, d Abiathar the prieſt; and behold, they eat d drink before him, and ſay, God ſave king donijah. 26 But me, even me thy ſervant, d Zadok the prieſt, and Benaiah the ſon of hoiada, and thy ſervant Solomon hath he not lled. 27 Is this thing done by my lord the ng, and thou haſt not ſhewed it unto thy ſer-nt, who ſhould ſit on the throne of my lord king after him? 28 Then king David an-ered and ſaid, Call me Bath-ſheba: and ſhe me into the kings preſence, and ſtood before king. 29 And the king ſware, and ſaid, the Lord liveth, that hath redeemed my ſoul t of all diſtreſs, 30 Even as I ſware unto thee the Lord God of Iſrael, ſaying, Aſſuredly lomon thy ſon ſhall reign after me, and he all ſit upon my throne in my ſtead: even ſo ill I certainly do this day. 31 Then Bath-ſheba wed with her face to the earth, and did reve-nce to the king, and ſaid, let my lord king avid live for ever. 32 And king David ſaid, all me Zadok the prieſt, and Nathan the pro-et, and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada. And ey came before the king. 33 The king alſo d unto them, Take with you the ſervants of ur lord, and cauſe Solomon my ſon to ride on mine own mule, and bring him down to hon. 34 And let Zadok the prieſt, and Na-an the prophet, anoint him there king over If-el: and blow ye with the trumpet, and ſay, od ſave king Solomon. 35 Then ye ſhall me up after him, that he may come and ſit on my throne; for he ſhall be king in my ad: and I have appointed him to be ruler over ael, and over Judah. 36 And Benaiah the n of Jehoiada anſwered the king, and ſaid, A-en: the Lord God of my lord the king ſay ſo o. 37 As the Lord hath been with my lord e king, even ſo be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. 38 So Zadok the prieſt, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and cauſed Solomon to ride upon king Davids mule, and brought him to Gihon. 39 And Zadok the prieſt, took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon: and they blew the trumpet, and all the people ſaid, God ſave king Solomon. 40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, ſo that the earth rent with the ſound of them. 41 And Adonijah and all the gueſts that were with him, heard it, as they had made an end of eating: and when Joab heard the ſound of the trumpet, he ſaid, wherefore is this noiſe of the city, being in an uproar? 42 And while he yet ſpake, behold, Jonathan the ſon of Abiathar the prieſt came, and Adonijah ſaid unto him, Come in, for thou art a valiant man, and bringeſt good tidings. 43 And Jonathan anſwered and ſaid to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king. 44 And the king hath ſent with him Zadok the prieſt, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have cauſed him to ride upon the kings mule. 45 And Zadok the prieſt, and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, ſo that the city rang again: that is the noiſe that ye have heard. 46 And alſo Solomon ſitteth on the throne of the kingdom. 47 And moreover, the kings ſervants came to bleſs our lord king David, ſaying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne: and the king bowed himſelf upon the bed. 48 And alſo thus ſaid the king, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael, which hath given one to ſit on my throne this day, mine eyes even ſeeing it. 49 And all the gueſts that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and roſe up, and went every man his way. 50 And Adonijah, feared becauſe of Solomon, and aroſe, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. 51 And it was told Solomon, ſaying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, ſaying, Let king Solomon ſwear unto me to day, that he will not ſlay his ſervant with the ſword. 52 And Solomon ſaid, if he will ſhew himſelf a worthy man, there ſhall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedneſs ſhall be found in him, he ſhall die. 53 So king Solomon ſent, and they brought him down from the altar; and he came and bowed himſelf to king Solomon: and Solomon ſaid unto him, Go to thine houſe.

And his Father had not diſpleaſed him at any Time, in ſaying, Why haſt thou done ſo] It is remark'd of David, that one of his great Faults, and what had led him into many Premunires, was his extraordinary Indulgence to his Children, of whom he was ſo fond, that he ſeems to have overlook'd their Errors, and not reprov'd them, tho' he was bound to do it by a plain Law, Levit. xix. 17. and could not but know, that the High Prieſt Eli was ſeverely puniſh'd for this Neglect.

Wherefore Nathan ſpake unto Bathſheba the Mother of Solomon, ſaying —] In 2 Sam. vii. 12. God had promiſed David by Nathan, that he would ſet upon his his Throne a Son, that ſhould proceed from him; which plainly ſignified, that none of his Sons already born was to be the Perſon; and in 2 Chron. xxiii. 8, &c. he declar'd by the ſame Prophet, that, after his Father, Solomon ſhould reign, and build him an Houſe. This Adonijah could not but know, and therefore his ſetting himſelf againſt the Decree of Heaven, made his Sin the greater. Patrick's Com.

And the King ſwore, and ſaid, as the Lord liveth, aſſuredly Solomon thy Son ſhall reign after me.] This Power of naming a Succeſſor was firſt aſſum'd by David, and for ſome Time afterwards (as appears by the Story of his Grandſon Reboboam) was continued in the Jewiſh State. It was a Privilege that, in After-ages, was granted to ſeveral good Princes, but among the Iſraelites it did not prevail long, becauſe the Conſtitution of other Nations (to which the Iſraelites affected to conform themſelves) was different. Pool's Annot. and Patrick's Comment.

Cauſe Solomon my Son to ride upon mine own Mule] All the reſt of David's Sons were wont to ride upon Mules, when they went abroad, 2 Sam. xiii. 29. but David had a Mule peculiar to himſelf, and the mounting Solomon upon it, was a ſufficient Declaration in his Favour. For as it was capital (according to Maimonides) to ride upon the King's Mule, or ſit on his Throne, or handle his Sceptre without his Order; ſo, on the contrary, to have the Honour to ride on the King's Horſe, by his Appointment, was accounted the higheſt Dignity among the Perſians, as appears by the Story of Mordecai in the Book of Eſther. Calmet's Comment.

And Adonijah went and caught hold of the Horns of the Altar] There is no Precept in the Law to make the Altar a privileg'd Place; but, in Conformity to the Cuſtoms of other Nations, the Jews ſeem to have done it. Other Nations had certainly this Cuſtom, as appears from that Paſſage in Virgil:

Talibus orabat dictis, Araſque tenebat.

And it ſeems not unlikely, that, as the People, when they came into the Land of Canaan, had Cities appointed by God, whereunto the Manſlayer might flee; ſo, while they continued in the Wilderneſs, the Camp of the Levites might ſerve for the ſame Purpoſe. Nay, from the Words in Exodus xxi. 14. where God orders the wilful Murtherer to be taken from his Altar, that he may die, it ſeems unqueſtionably true, that, even in the Land of Canaan the Altar continued a Sanctuary for thoſe that fled unto it: But then the Queſtion is, To what Altar Adonijah fled? Whether to the brazen one, which Moſes made, and which was now at Gibeon, or that which his Father had lately erected in the Threſhing-floor of Araunah? 'Tis expreſly ſaid, Ver. 50. that he caught hold of the Horns of the Altar; but we can hardly ſuppoſe, ſay ſome, that the Altar in the Threſhing-floor, which was run up in ſuch Haſte with Stones and Turf, was made in that Figure. But what ſhould hinder us from ſuppoſing, that as David had built a Place for the Reception of the Ark of the Covenant on Mount Sion, he had likewiſe built there an Altar for the Oblation of the daily Sacrifices, in the exact Form of the original one, that was then at Gibeon, and that it was to this Altar, and neither of the others, that Adonijah betook himſelf for Refuge. Le Clerc's, Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

David, being on his Death-bed, gives a Charge to Solomon, and dies. Adonijah, ſuing for Abiſhag, is put to Death. Abiathar put from the Prieſthood. Joab ſlain at the Altar; Benaiah put in his Place, and Zadok in Abiathar's. Shimei's Death, and the Occaſion of it.

Ver. 1. NOW the days of David drew nigh, that he ſhould die; and he charged Solomon his ſon, ſaying, 2 I go the way of all the earth; be thou ſtrong therefore, and ſhew thy ſelf a man. 3 And keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his ſtatutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his teſtimonies, as it is written in the law of Moſes, that thou mayeſt proſper in all that thou doeſt, and whitherſoever thou turneſt thy ſelf; 4 That the Lord may continue his word which he ſpake concerning me, ſaying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth, with all their heart, and with all their ſoul, there ſhall not fail thee (ſaid he) a man on the throne of Iſrael. 5 Moreover, thou knoweſt alſo what Joab the ſon of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hoſts of Iſrael, unto Abner the ſon of Ner, and unto Amaſa, the ſon of Jether, whom he ſlew, and ſhed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle, that was about his loyns, and in his ſhoes that were on his feet. 6 Do therefore according to thy wiſdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace. 7 But ſhew kindneſs unto the ſons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of thoſe that eat at thy table: for ſo they came to me when I fled becauſe of Abſalom thy brother. 8 And behold, thou haſt with thee Shimei the ſon of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which curſed me with a grievous curſe, in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I ſware to him by the Lord, ſaying, I will not put thee to death with the ſword. 9 Now therefore hold him not guiltleſs: for thou art a wiſe man, and knoweſt what thou oughteſt to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood. 10 So David ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. 11 And the days that David reigned over Iſrael, were forty years: ſeven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jeruſalem. 12 Then ſat Solomon upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was eſtabliſhed greatly. 13 And Adonijah the ſon of Haggith came to Bath-ſheba the mother of Solomon, and ſhe ſaid, Comeſt thou peaceably? And he ſaid, Peaceably. 14 He ſaid moreover, I have ſomewhat to ſay unto thee. And ſhe ſaid, Say on. 15 And he ſaid, Thou knoweſt that the kingdom was mine, and that all Iſrael ſet their faces on me, that I ſhould reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brothers: for it was his from the Lord. 16 And now I aſk one petition of thee, deny me not. And ſhe ſaid unto him, Say on. 17 And he ſaid, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon, the king, (for he will not ſay thee nay) that he give me Abiſhag the Shunammite to wife. 18 And Bath-ſheba ſaid, Well, I will ſpeak for thee unto the king. 19 Bath-ſheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to ſpeak unto him for Adonijah: and the king roſe up to meet her, and bowed himſelf unto her, and ſat down on his throne, and caused a ſeat to be ſet for the kings mother; and ſhe ſat on his right hand. 20 Then ſhe ſaid, I deſire one ſmall petition of thee, I pray thee ſay me not nay. And the king ſaid unto her, Aſk on, my mother, for I will not ſay thee nay. 21 And ſhe ſaid, Let Abiſhag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. 22 And king Solomon anſwered and ſaid unto his mother, And why doſt thou aſk Abiſhag the Shunammite mite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; (for he is mine elder brother) even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. 23 Then king Solomon sware by the Lord, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. 24 Now therefore, as the Lord liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. 25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he fell upon him that he died. 26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields: for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the Lord: that he might fulfil the word of the Lord, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh. 28 Then tidings came to Joab, (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom) and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. 29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and behold, he is by the altar: then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go fall upon him. 30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay, but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. 31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. 32 And the Lord shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. 33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne shall there be peace forever from the Lord. 34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. 35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host; and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar. 36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. 37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the Book Kidron, thou shall know for certain, that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thy own head. 38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. 39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maacah king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath. 40 And Shimei arose and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. 41 And it was told Solomon, that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. 42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the Lord, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard, is good. 43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the Lord, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? 44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the Lord shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head; 45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the Lord for ever. 46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, which went out and fell upon him, that he died: and the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

To keep his Statutes and his Commandments, and his Judgments, and his Testimonies] Under these four Words, says Patrick, are comprehended all the Laws of Moses. Statutes were such Constitutions, as had their Foundation, not in Reason, but in the Will and Pleasure of God; such was the Prohibition of sowing Seeds of different Kinds together, &c. Commandments were moral Duties that were founded in the Nature of Things, and carried their Reason along with them; as not to steal, nor to murther, &c. Judgments were Laws belonging to the Civil Government, and the Dealings of one Man with another; such are all those Laws that are recorded in the xxi*st* and following Chapters of Exodus; and Testimonies were such Laws as preserv'd the Remembrance of some great Events, and testified to Men the Loving-kindness of the Lord; such as the Sabbath, the Passover, and the rest of the Feasts. Patrick's Com.

Two of the Servants of Shimei, ran away unto Achish — King of Gath] Achish had been so great a Friend to David, that, tho' David had conquer'd the Philistines, he still suffer'd him to retain the Title of King, and only to be tributary to him; so that there was a friendly Correspondence between his City and Jerusalem; insomuch, that Shimei might easily hear, by some body or other, that had been at Gath, that his Servants were there. These Servants, in all Probability, were such as he had purchas'd with a considerable Sum of Money, and their running away was not only a Loss, but a great Affront likewise to their Master; and therefore, partly out of Rage, and partly through Covetousness, he undertook this dangerous Journey, presuming that a Thing, which might be done secretly and speedily, would never come to Solomon's Ears; that, in the Space of three Years Time, Solomon might have forgot his Injunction, or that, if he remember'd it, he would not be so rigid as to put it in Execution; especially as he went out of Jerusalem, not through Wantonness or any Contempt of Authority, but merely to recover what he had lost, which, he might think, was a Thing excusable. Pool's Annot. and Patrick's Com.

CHAP. III.

Solomon marries Pharaoh's Daughter: God appears to him, and gives him his Option; he chuses Wisdom, and, with it, obtains Wisdom and Honour. His Judgment betweent two Harlots.

Ver. 1. AND Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaohs daughter and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own houſe, and the houſe of the Lord, and the wall of Jeruſalem round about. 2 Only the people ſacrificed in high places, becauſe there was no houſe built unto the name of the Lord, until thoſe days. 3 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the ſtatutes of David his father: onely he ſacrificed and burnt incenſe in high places. 4 And the king went to Gibeon to ſacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thouſand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar. 5 In Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God ſaid, Aſk what I ſhall give thee. 6 And Solomon ſaid, Thou haſt ſhewed unto thy ſervant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth and in righteouſneſs, and in uprightneſs of heart with thee, and thou haſt kept for him this great kindneſs, that thou haſt given him a ſon to ſit on his throne, as it is this day. 7 And now, O Lord my God, thou haſt made thy ſervant king in ſtead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in. 8 And thy ſervant is in the midſt of thy people which thou haſt choſen, a great people, that cannot be numbred nor counted for multitude. 9 Give therefore thy ſervant an underſtanding heart to judge thy people, that I may diſcern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy ſo great a people? 10 And the ſpeech pleaſed the Lord, that Solomon had aſked this thing. 11 And God ſaid unto him, Becauſe thou haſt aſked this thing, and haſt not aſked for thy ſelf long life, neither haſt aſked riches for thy ſelf, nor haſt aſked the life of thine enemies, but haſt aſked for thyſelf underſtanding to diſcern judgment; 12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wiſe and an underſtanding heart, ſo that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee ſhall any ariſe like unto thee. 13 And I have alſo given thee that which thou haſt not aſked, both riches, and honour: ſo that there ſhall not be any among the kings like unto thee, all thy days. 14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways to keep my ſtatutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. 15 And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream: and he came to Jeruſalem, and ſtood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made a feaſt to all his ſervants. 16 Then came there two women that were harlots, unto the king, and ſtood before him. 17 And the one woman ſaid, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one houſe, and I was delivered of a child, with her in the houſe. 18 And it came to paſs the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered alſo: and we were together; there was no ſtranger with us in the houſe, ſave we two in the houſe. 19 And this womans child died in the night; becauſe ſhe overlaid it. 20 And ſhe aroſe at midnight, and took my ſon from beſide me, while thine handmaid ſlept, and laid it in her boſom, and laid her dead child in my boſom. 21 And when I roſe in the morning to give my child ſuck, behold, it was dead: but when I had conſidered it in the morning, behold, it was not my ſon, which I did bear. 22 And the other woman ſaid, Nay; but the living is my ſon, and the dead is thy ſon: and this ſaid, No; but the dead is thy ſon, and the living is my ſon. Thus they ſpake before the king. 23 Then ſaid the king, The one ſaith, This is my ſon that liveth, and thy ſon is the dead: and the other ſaith, Nay; but thy ſon is the dead, and my ſon is the living. 24 And the king ſaid, Bring me a ſword. And they brought a ſword before the king. 25 And the king ſaid, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. 26 Then ſpake the woman whoſe the living child was, unto the king, (for her bowels yerned upon her ſon) and ſhe ſaid, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wiſe ſlay it: but the other ſaid, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it. 27 Then the king anſwered and ſaid, Give her the living child, and in no wiſe ſlay it: ſhe is the mother thereof. 28 And all Iſrael heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they ſaw that the wiſdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

And Solomon made Affinity with Pharaoh, King of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's Daughter] It may ſeem ſomewhat ſtrange, that in all the Hiſtory of the Jews from the Time of Moſes, to this of Solomon, no Mention ſhould be made of the Kings of Egypt, as if they had no Concern in the Affairs of Canaan, but were wholly diverted ſome other Way: But for this, their own Hiſtorians account, when they tell us, that during this Space of Time, the Egyptian Kings did nothing worth recording. All theſe Kings of Egypt were called Pharaoh's; but Pharaoh was not a proper Name, but a Title of Dignity only, which imported the ſame as Sultan, or Emperor. They had, beſide this, other Names, and Clemens Alexandrinus, in a Paſſage taken from Alexander Polyhiſtor, tells us, that the proper Name of this Egyptian King, whoſe Daughter Solomon married, was Vaphres. Le Clerc's and Calmet's Com.

Give therefore thy Servant an underſtanding Heart to judge thy People, that I may diſcern between Good and Bad] Hereupon ſome Jewiſh Commentators have obſerv'd, that tho' Solomon, in his great Modeſty, made requeſt of God no more than the Gift of Government, or (as he expreſſes it) an underſtanding Heart to judge the People, and to diſcern between Good and Evil, yet God, out of his abundant Grace, gave him a general Knowledge of all other Things, as the following Hiſtory informs us: And whereas other Men gather their Knowledge from Study and Obſervation, Solomon had his by an immediate Inſpiration from God, inſomuch that he, who went to Bed as ignorant as other Men, awak'd in the Morning, like an Angel of God. And tho' his Knowledge of Things was, in a great Meaſure infus'd, yet he did not therefore neglect his Study. He gave his Heart to ſeek and ſearch out by Wiſdom, concerning all Things under the Sun; in which Search (as himſelf teſtifies, Eccleſ. i. 13.) he took no ſmall Pains. So that his Gifts extraordinary did not ſuperſede the Uſe of other Means, in the Acquiſition of Knowledge; but by Application and Experience he perfected what he had ſo advantageouſly receiv'd from the Hands of God. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

Then there came two Women that were Harlots] Theſe two in the Text are ſaid to be Harlots, but the Hebrew Word (as we took Notice before in the Caſe of Rahab) may equally ſignify an Hoſteſs, or one that kept an Houſe of publick Entertainment; and that it is ſo to be taken here, we have theſe Reaſons to preſume. — That, as all publick Proſtitution was ſeverely forbidden by the Law, Deut. xxiii. 17. ſo women of this infamous Character durſt not have sented themselves before so just and so wise a King; that Women of this leud Behaviour seldom do become Mothers of Children, and when they chance to have any, are not so solicitous for their Preservation, but rather rejoice when they get rid of them. There is no Reason to suppose then, that these Women were common Harlots; yet it is generally thought, that they were both unmarried Persons, and guilty of Fornication, because no Mention is made of their Husbands, whose Office it was (if they had any) to contest the Matter for their Wives. Pool's Annot. and Calmet's Com.

Ver. 1. SO king Solomon was king over all Israel. 2 And these were the princes which he had, Azariah the son of Zadok the priest: 3 Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes: Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud: the recorder. 4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. 5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the kings friend. 6 And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute. 7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision. 8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in mount Ephraim. 9 The son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan. 10 The son of Hesed, in Aruboth: to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher. 11 The son of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor, which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife. 12 Baana the son of Ahilud, to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond Jokneam. 13 The son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead: to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead: to him also pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls, and brazen bars. 14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim. 15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife. 16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth. 17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar. 18 Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin. 19 Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land. 20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry. 21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms, from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life. 22 And Solomon's provisions for one day, was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal, 23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roe-bucks, and fallow-deer, and fatted fowl. 24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tipsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him. 25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. 26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horse-men. 27 And those officers provided victuals for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomons table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing. 28 Barley also and straw for the horses, and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge. 29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding, exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore. 30 And Solomons wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt. 31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about. 32 And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five. 33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar-tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes. 34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

Zadok, and Abiathar were the Priests] Abiathar, tho' deposed, is here named, 1. Because it is ordinary for Persons to retain the Names and Titles of those Places which, in Reality, they have lost. 2. Because, tho' he was deposed from the Priesthood, yet he was a Priest, and the chief of one of the priestly Families; and as Zadok was jointly named with Abiathar, when Abiathar was also the High-priest, 2 Sam. viii. and xx. 25. so now Zadok and Abiathar are joined, altho' the High-priesthood was vested in Zadok alone. 3. Possibly Abiathar, tho' he was deposed from the supreme Priesthood, yet, upon his serious Repentance, and by Intercession of Friends, was restored to the Execution of his priestly Office, and put into that Place which Zadok enjoyed when Abiathar was High-priest. 4. Some say, that Mention is here made of all Solomon's chief Officers, both as now were, and such as had been, and such as were afterwards, as they gather from Ver. 11, 15. where two Persons are named, who married two of Solomon's Daughters, which could not be till many Years after this Time.

And Solomon reigned over all Kingdoms, from the River unto the Land of the Philistines, and unto the Border of Egypt] That is, the Bounds of his Kingdom were, to the East, the Euphrates, which is here, and in other Places of Scripture, called the River, without any Addition; to the West, the Country of the Philistines, which bordered upon the Mediterranean Sea; and, to the South, Egypt. So that Solomon had tributary to him the Kingdoms of Syria, Damascus, Moab, and Ammon, which lay between Euphrates and the Mediterranean; as indeed, without such a Number of tributary Kingdoms, we cannot conceive how the Country of Israel could have furnish'd such a constant Supply of Provisions, and other Things necessary for the Support of the Prince's Grandeur.

And Solomon had forty thousand Stalls of Horses for his Chariots] But in Chronicles is is said he had no more than four thousand; and yet in this some will acknowledge no Disagreement. The Author of the Book of Kings, say ſay they, ſpeaks of the Horſes, the Author of Chroni-cles, of Stalls or Stables, which ſuppoſing every one to contain ten Horſes, anſwer the Number exactly. It is obſervable, however, that the Hiſtory makes Mention of Chariot-Cities, i. e. Cities wherein Solomon kept Chariots and Horſemen, in ſeveral Parts of his Kingdom; for the Security of his Government, and the Suppreſſion of any Diſorder that might happen to ariſe; and therefore others have thought, that in the Chronicles the Author ſpeaks of thoſe Stalls which Solomon had at Jeruſalem for his conſtant Life-guard, and were no more than 4000, but in Kings, of all thoſe Stalls that were diſperſed up and down in the ſeveral Parts of his Kingdom, which might be 40,000: Because, upon the Account of the Conqueſts, which his Father had made on the Eaſt Side of Jordan, it was neceſſary for Solomon to have a ſtronger Armament of this Kind, than other Kings before him had, in order to keep the People that would be otherwiſe apt to rebel, in due Subjection.

But without any Prejudice to the Authority of the Scriptures, why may we not own, that an Error has poſſibly crept into the Text, through the Negligence of ſome Tranſcriber, who had inſerted Arbahim, i. e. forty, inſtead of Arbah, four, and ſo made this large Diſparity in the Number? Four thouſand Stalls (ſuppoſing each Stall for a ſingle Horſe) are moderate enough, but forty thouſand is incredible; and therefore (to proportion the Horſes to the Chariots, which were a thouſand and four hundred) we may ſuppoſe, that of theſe Chariots ſome were drawn with two, ſome with three, and ſome with four Horſes. Now if the Chariots were drawn each with a Pair only, the Number of Solomon's Chariot-horſes, muſt be 2800; if by two Pair, then muſt it be 5600; but the Medium between theſe two Numbers is very near 4000; and therefore it ſeems moſt likely, that the Horſes, which the King kept for this uſe only, might be much about this Number; too many for the Law to tolerate; but the King, perhaps, might have as little Regard to this Clauſe in the Law, as he had to the following one, which forbad him to multiply Wives and Concubines to himſelf, or greatly to multiply Silver and Gold.

And Solomon's Wiſdom excelled the Wiſdom of all the Children of the Eaſt, and the Wiſdom of Egypt] There were three Nations on the Eaſt of Canaan that were very famous for their Wiſdom and Erudition; the Chaldeans, beyond the Euphrates; the Perſians, beyond the Tygris; and the Arabians, on the nearer Side of the Euphrates, a little towards the South: But whether the Perſians and Chaldeans were remarkable for their Learning in Solomon's Days, is much doubted by Commentators. The Book of Job ſufficiently ſhews that the Arabians (for of that Nation were Job and his Friends) were famous for their Learning in antient Times: And as to the Chaldeans and other oriental People, ſince the Sons of Noah took up their Habitation about Babylon, and the neighbouring Countries, it is reaſonable to ſuppoſe, that, where Mankind firſt began to ſettle themſelves into regular Societies, there Arts and Sciences firſt began to appear. The Egyptians however, pretend to a Precedency in this, and ſeveral other Accompliſhments. They ſay, that the Chaldeans receiv'd the Principles of Philoſophy at firſt from a Colony that came from Egypt, as Diodorus indeed makes mention of ſuch a Colony, conducted by Belus: But the Chaldeans, on the other hand, maintain, that from them it was, that the Egyptians receiv'd their firſt Inſtructions, and (according to ſome) that Abraham was the Perſon who firſt communicated to the Chaldeans the Knowledge of Aſtronomy, and other Sciences. However this be, Solomon receiv'd from God Knowledge of all that uſeful and ſolid Learning, for which the Eaſtern People, and the Egyptians were juſtly fam'd; for (as it follows) he was a great moral Philoſopher, a great natural Philoſopher, and an excellent Poet. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

And he ſpake of Trees, &c.] The ſeveral Books, which treated of the Nature and Virtue of Animals, as well as Plants, are ſuppos'd to have been loſt in the Babyloniſh Captivity; but Euſebius (as he is quoted by Anaſtaſius) informs us, that King Hezekiah, ſeeing the Abuſe which his People made of Solomon's Works, by placing too much Confidence in the Remedies which he preſcrib'd, and the natural Secrets which he diſcover'd, thought proper to ſuppreſs them all. Notwithſtanding this, ſince his Time, many Books concerning the Secrets of Magick, Medicine, and Inchantments, have appear'd under the Name of this Prince; and ſeveral Pieces have been quoted, ſuch as the Inſtructions of Solomon to his Son Rehoboam; the Teſtament of Solomon; the Book of the Throne of Solomon; the Books of Magick, compos'd by the Demons under the Name of Solomon; the Clavicula or Key of Solomon; the Ring of Solomon; the Contradiction of Solomon, &c. which were moſt of them very wicked and pernicious Tracts, to which the Authors prefix'd this great Name, to give them more Credit and Sanction. 'Tis ſomewhat ſtrange however, that Joſephus ſhould inform us, that Solomon compos'd Books of Inchantments, and ſeveral Manners of Exorciſm, or of driving away Devils, ſo that they could return no more; and that he ſhould further aſſure us, that himſelf had ſeen Experiments of it by one Eleazar, a Jew, who, in the Preſence of Veſpaſian, his Sons, and the Officers of the Army, cur'd ſeveral that were poſſeſs'd.

CHAP. V.

Hiram ſends Ambaſſadors to congratulate Solomon who deſires of Hiram Timber to build the Temple. Hiram ſends him Proviſion and Trees. The Number of Workmen employed in building the Temple.

Ver. 1. AND Hiram king of Tyre ſent his ſervants unto Solomon; (for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father) for Hiram was ever a lover of David. 2 And Solomon ſent to Hiram, ſaying, 3 Thou knoweſt how that David my father could not build an houſe unto the name of the Lord his God, for the wars which were about him on every ſide, until the Lord put them under the ſoles of his feet. 4 But now the Lord my God hath given me reſt on every ſide, ſo that there is neither adverſary, nor evil occurrent. 5 And behold, I purpoſe to build an houſe unto the name of the Lord my God, as the Lord ſpake unto David my father, ſaying, Thy ſon, whom I will ſet upon thy throne in thy room, he ſhall build an houſe unto my name. 6 Now therefore command thou, that they hew me cedar-trees out of Lebanon, and my ſervants ſhall be with thy ſervants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy ſervants according to all that thou ſhalt appoint: for thou knoweſt that there is not among us any that have ſkill to hew timber, like unto the Sidonians. 7 And it came to paſs, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord this day, which hath given unto David a wiſe ſon over this great people. 8 And Hiram ſent to Solomon, ſaying, I have conſidered the things which thou ſentteſt to me for: and I will do all thy deſire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. 9 My ſervants ſhall bring them down from Lebanon unto the ſea: and I will convey them by ſea in flotes, unto the place that thou ſhalt appoint me, and will cauſe them to be diſcharged there, and thou ſhalt receive them: and thou ſhalt accompliſh my deſire, in giving food for my houſehold. 10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar-trees and fir-trees, according to all his deſire. 11

Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. 12 And the Lord gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and they two made a league together. 13 And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. 14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy. 15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bear burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains: 16 Besides the chief of Solomons officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work. 17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house. 18 And Solomons builders, and Hirams builders did hew them, and the stone-squarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

And Hiram King of Tyre sent his Servants unto Solomon] This Hiram was doubtless the Son of that other Hiram, who sent David Timber and Artificers, wherewith to build his Palace: For, if (according to Josephus) the Temple was built in the twelfth Year of Hiram's Reign, and the fourth of Solomon's, this Hiram could not be the same with him, who sent David Men and Materials; because that Hiram was upon the Throne when David took Jerusalem, which happen'd to be three and thirty Years before Solomon began his Reign. There are two Letters, which pass'd between this Hiram and King Solomon, recorded by Josephus, and for the Authentickness of which, he appeals both to the Jewish and Tyrian Records, that are to this Effect.

King Solomon, to King Hiram, Greeting.

'Be it known unto thee, O King, that my Father David had it a long Time in his Mind and Purpose to erect a Temple to the Lord; but being perpetually at War in his Days, and under a Necessity of clearing his Hands of his Enemies, and making them all his Tributaries, before he could attend this great and holy Work, he hath left it to me, in a Time of Peace, both to begin and finish it, according to the Direction, as well as Prediction of the Almighty. Blessed be his Name for the present Tranquillity of my Dominions! And, by his gracious Assistance I shall now dedicate the best Improvements of this Liberty and Leisure to his Honour and Worship. Wherefore I make it my Request; that you will let some of your People go along with some Servants of mine to Mount Libanus, to assist them in cutting down Trees towards this Building; (for the Sidonians understand it much better than we do) and as for the Workmens Reward, or Wages, whatever you think reasonable shall be paid them.

King Hiram, to King Solomon.

'Nothing could have been more welcome to me, than to understand, that the Government of your blessed Father is, by God's Providence, devolv'd into the Hands of so excellent, so wise, and so virtuous a Successor. His holy Name be prais'd! That which you write for shall be done with all Care and good Will: For I will give Orders to cut down, and export such Quantities of the faireſt Cedars, and Cypress Trees, as you shall have Occasion for. My People shall bring them to the Sea-side for you, and from thence ship them away to what Port you please, where they may lie ready for your own Men to transport them to Jerusalem. It would be a great Obligation, after all this, to allow us such a Provision of Corn in Exchange, as may stand with your Conve-nience; for that is the Commodity that we Islanders want most.' But notwithstanding all this Appeal to the Tyrian Records, some have suspected Josephus, as to the Genuineness of these two Letters, especially where they find him bringing in Hiram, speaking of Tyre, as if it had been an Island, whereas it is plain, that the Old Tyre, which was then standing, and must be the Place here spoken of, was situate on the Continent. Le Clerk's Com.

CHAP. VI.

The Foundation of the Temple laid, and when; its Dimensions, Form, and Materials. God's Promise concerning it. The Oracle; Cherubims; Doors, and Inner-Court.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass in the four hundred and fourscore year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomons reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the Lord. 2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lord, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits. 3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof, before the house. 4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights. 5 And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple, and of the oracle, and he made chambers round about. 6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house. 7 And the house when it was in building, was built of stone, made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor ax, nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was in building. 8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third. 9 So he built the house and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar. 10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar. 11 And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying, 12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them: then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father. 13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. 14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it. 15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir. 16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor, and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place. 17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long. 18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops, and open flowers: all was cedar, there was no stone seen. 19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the Lord. 20 And the oracle in the fore-part was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold, and so covered the altar which was of cedar. 21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition, by the chains of gold before the oracle, and he overlaid it with gold. 22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold. 23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive-tree, each ten cubits high. 24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wings of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other, were ten cubits. 25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure, and one size. 26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. 27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house; and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall: and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. 28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. 29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers, within and without. 30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without. 31 And for the entring of the oracle he made doors of olive tree; the lintel and side-posts were a fifth part of the wall. 32 The two doors also were of olive-tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm-trees. 33 So also made he for the door of the temple, posts of olive-tree a fourth part of the wall. 34 And the two doors were of fir-tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. 35 And he carved thereon cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers: and covered them with gold, fitted upon the carved work. 36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar-beams. 37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the Lord laid, in the month Zif. 38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, (which is the eighth month) was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it: so was he seven years in building it.

In the fourth Year of Solomon's Reign — he began to build the Temple] If it be ask'd, Why Solomon did not begin the Building of the Temple sooner, and even in the first Year of his Reign, since his Father had left him a Plan, and all Things necessary for the Undertaking? Abarbinel's Answer is — That Solomon would not make Use of what David had prepar'd, but was resolv'd to build this Temple all at his proper Cost and Charge. He therefore put into the Treasure of the Lord's House all that David had dedicated to the Work; and, to gather together as much Gold and Silver, as was necessary to defray so vast an Expence, four Years can be counted no unreasonable Time. Nay, even that he made Use of the Treasure which his Father had amass'd, yet if the Materials that his Father had provided, lay at a considerable Distance, and were left rude and unfashion'd, it would cost all this Time to form them into the exact Symmetry wherein the Scripture represents them, before they were brought together, especially considering that the very Stones which made the Foundation, were very probably vast Blocks of Marble or Porphyry, Ch. v. 17. And all polish'd in the most exquisite Manner. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Annot.

In the fourth Year was the Foundation of the House of the Lord laid — and in the eleventh Year — it was finished] The Temple itself was but a small Edifice, but the many Courts and Offices that were about it made the Whole a vast Pile, and the Exquisiteness of the Art and Fewness of the Artists, that could be employ'd about it, made a longer Time requisite. It must be own'd however, that, considering all Things, Solomon made an extraordinary Dispatch; for, if the Building of Diana's Temple at Ephesus, employ'd Asia, for the Space of two hundred Years; and no less than 360,000 Men, for twenty Years together, were taken up in erecting one Pyramid (as Pliny affirms) no reasonable Man can wonder, that this Temple was seven Years and an half in building. Pool's Annot. and Calmet's Com.

CHAP. VII.

The building of Solomon's House; the House of Lebanon; the Porch of Pillars, and of Judgment; the House of Pharaoh's Daughter. The two Pillars. The molten Sea, Lavers, and other Vessels. The Things dedicated brought into the Temple.

Ver. 1. BUT Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. 2 He built also the house of the forrest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar-pillars, with cedar-beams upon the pillars. 3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row. 4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks. 5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks. 6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them. 7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other. 8 And his house where he dwelt, had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaohs daughter, (whom he had taken to wife) like unto this porch. 9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court. 10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were coſtly ſtones (after the meaſures of hewed ſtones) and cedars. 12 And the great court round about, was with three rows of hewed ſtones, and a row of cedar-beams, both for the inner court of the houſe of the Lord, and for the porch of the houſe. 13 And king Solomon ſent and fet Hiram out of Tyre. 14 He was a widows ſon of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in braſs: and he was filled with wiſdom and underſtanding, and cunning to work all works in braſs; and he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work. 15 For he caſt two pillars of braſs of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compaſs either of them about. 16 And he made two chapiters of molten braſs, to ſet upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits: 17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; ſeven for the one chapiter, and ſeven for the other chapiter. 18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one net-work, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and ſo did he for the other chapiter. 19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars, were of lilie-work in the porch, four cubits. 20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates alſo above, over againſt the belly which was by the net-work: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about upon the other chapiter. 21 And he ſet up the pillars in the porch of the temple, and he ſet up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin: and he ſet up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz. 22 And upon the top of the pillars was lilie-work: ſo was the work of the pillars finiſhed. 23 And he made a molten ſea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compaſs it round about. 24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compaſſing it, ten in a cubit, compaſſing the ſea round about: the knops were caſt in two rows, when it was caſt. 25 It ſtood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the weſt, and three looking toward the ſouth, and three looking toward the eaſt: and the ſea was ſet above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. 26 And it was an hand-breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thouſand baths. 27 And he made ten baſes of braſs; four cubits was the length of one baſe, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it. 28 And the work of the baſes was after this manner: They had borders, and the borders were between the ledges: 29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges, there was a baſe above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work. 30 And every baſe had four braſen wheels, and plates of braſs: and the four corners thereof had underſetters: under the laver were underſetters molten, at the ſide of every addition. 31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the baſe, a cubit and an half: and alſo upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, four-ſquare, not round. 32 And under the borders were four wheels: and the axle-trees of the wheels were joined to the baſe, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. 33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axle-trees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their ſpokes were all molten. 34 And there were four underſetters to the four corners of one baſe: and the underſetters were of the very baſe it ſelf, 35 And in the top of the baſe was there a round compaſs of half a cubit high: and on the top of the baſe, the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the ſame. 36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm-trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about. 37 After this manner he made the ten baſes: all of them had one caſting, one meaſure, and one ſize. 38 Then made he ten lavers of braſs: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten baſes, one laver. 39 And he put five baſes on the right ſide of the houſe, and five on the left ſide of the houſe: and he ſet the ſea on the right ſide of the houſe eaſt-ward, over againſt the ſouth. 40 And Hiram made the lavers, and the ſhovels, and the baſons: ſo Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the houſe of the Lord. 41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars: and the two net-works, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars: 42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two net-works, even two rows of pomegranates for one net-work, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars: 43 And the ten baſes, and ten lavers on the baſes: 44 And one ſea, and twelve oxen under the ſea: 45 And the pots, and the ſhovels, and the baſons: and all theſe veſſels which Hiram made to king Solomon, for the houſe of the Lord, were of bright braſs. 46 In the plain of Jordan did the king caſt them in the clay ground, between Succoth and Zarthan. 47 And Solomon left all the veſſels unweighed, becauſe they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the braſs found out. 48 And Solomon made all the veſſels that pertained unto the houſe of the Lord: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the ſhew-bread was. 49 And the candleſticks of pure gold, five on the right ſide, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, 50 And the bowls, and the ſnuffers, and the baſons, and the ſpoons, and the cenſers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner-houſe, the moſt holy place, and for the doors of the houſe, to wit, of the temple. 51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the houſe of the Lord: and Solomon brought in the things, which David his father had dedicated; even the ſilver, and the gold, and the veſſels did he put among the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord.

He built also the House of the Forest of Lebanon] Some Commentators are of Opinion, that this House was the same with the Palace which Solomon built in Jerusalem, and that it had its Name from the tall Pillars that supported it, which look'd like the Cedars in the Forest of Lebanon; but the contrary is manifest, because the Scripture speaks of it as a distinct Building, tho' perhaps it might not be far distant from the other, on some cool shady Mountain, which made it resemble Mount Lebanon. For, 'tis an idle Fancy to think, that this House was really built in Lebanon, since we read of Solomon's having his Throne, Ch. vii. and the golden Shields that he made, plac'd in it, Ch. x. 17. which he scarce would have remov'd to the Extremity of his Kingdom. And therefore we may conclude, (as it appears from the Text) that this House was near Jerusalem, and called by the Name of the Forest of Lebanon (just as many pleasant and delightful Places in the Country were called Carmel) because it was in a lofty Place like Lebanon, and the Trees which grew upon it, made it very shady and cool, and consequently very proper for Solomon to dwell there in Summer, as he did in his Palace in Jerusalem in Winter. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

It contained two thousand Baths] But this Sea is said, 2 Chron. iv. 5. to contain 3000 Baths. There were either two several Sorts of Baths, as of Cubits, the one common, the other sacred, and the sacred held as much more as the common; or rather, he here speaks of what it did actually contain, namely, 2000 Baths, which was sufficient for Use, and 2 Chron. iv. 5. he speaks of what it could contain, if filled to the Brim, as it is implied in the Hebrew Words, which differ from these, and properly sound thus, strengthening itself (to wit, to receive and hold as much as it could, or being filled to its utmost Capacity) it contained, or could contain 3000 Baths.

CHAP. VIII.

The Feast of the Dedication of the Temple; the Ark brought into it. The Lord gives a Token of his Presence. Solomon's Blessing and Thanksgiving; Prayer and Sacrifice.

Ver. 1. THEN Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord, out of the city of David, which is Zion. 2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon, at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. 3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. 4 And they brought up the ark of the Lord, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up. 5 And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing the sheep, aand oxen, that could not be told nor numbred for multitude. 6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord, unto his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims. 7 For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark, and the staves thereof above. 8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day. 9 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. 10 And it came to pass when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the Lord. 11 So that the priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord. 12 Then spake Solomon, The Lord said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 13 I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a setled place for thee to abide in for ever. 14 And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood) 15 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, 16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel. 17 And it was in the heart of David my father, to build an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. 18 And the Lord said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart: 19 Nevertheless, thou shalt not build the house, but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name. 20 And the Lord hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. 21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. 22 And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven: 23 And he said, Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart: 24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. 25 Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me: 26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father. 27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee, how much less this house that I have builded? 28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day: 29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hear unto the prayer which thy ſervant ſhall make towards this place. 30 And hearken thou to the ſupplication of thy ſervant, and of thy people Iſ-rael, when they ſhall pray towards this place:

and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and when thou heareſt, forgive. 31 If any man treſpaſs againſt his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cauſe him to ſwear, and the oath come before thine altar in this houſe: 32
Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy ſervants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head, and juſtifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteouſneſs.
33 When thy people Iſrael be ſmitten down before the enemy, becauſe they have ſinned againſt thee, and ſhall turn again to thee, and confeſs thy name, and pray, and make ſupplication unto thee in this houſe: 34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the ſin of thy people Iſrael, and bring them again unto the land, which thou gaveſt unto their fathers. 35 When heaven is ſhut up, and there is no rain, becauſe they have ſinned againſt thee; if they pray towards this place, and confeſs thy name, and turn from their ſin, when thou afflicteſt them: 36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the ſin of thy ſer-vants, and of thy people Iſrael, that thou teach them the good way wherein they ſhould walk, and give rain upon thy land which thou haſt given to thy people for an inheritance. 37 If there be in the land famine, if there be peſtilence, blaſting, mildew, locuſt, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy beſiege them in the land of their cities, whatſoever plague, whatſoever ſickneſs there be;
38 What prayer and ſupplication ſoever be made by any man, or by all thy people Iſrael, which ſhall know every man the plague of his own heart, and ſpread forth his hands towards this houſe: 39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whoſe heart thou knoweſt; (for thou, even thou only knoweſt the hearts of all the children of men) 40 That they may fear thee all the days that they live, in the land which thou gaveſt unto our fathers.
41 Moreover, concerning a ſtranger that is not of thy people Iſrael, but cometh out of a far country, for thy names ſake; 42 (For they ſhall hear of thy great name, and of thy ſtrong hand, and of thy ſtretched-out arm) when he ſhall come and pray towards this houſe: 43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the ſtranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee; as do thy people Iſrael, and that they may know that this houſe which I have builded, is called by thy name. 44 If thy people go out to battel againſt their enemy, whitherſoever thou ſhalt ſend them, and ſhall pray unto the Lord toward the city which thou haſt choſen, and to- ward the houſe that I have built for thy name: 45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their ſupplication, and maintain their cauſe. 46
If they ſin againſt thee; (for there is no man that ſinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, ſo that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near; 47 Yet if they ſhall bethink themſelves, in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make ſupplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, ſaying, We have ſinned, and have done perverſly, we have committed wickedneſs; 48 And ſo return unto thee with all their heart and with all their ſoul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gaveſt unto their fathers, the city which thou haſt choſen, and the houſe which I have built for thy name:
49 Then hear thou their prayer and their ſuppli-cation in heaven thy dwelling-place, and maintain their cauſe, 50 And forgive thy people that have ſinned againſt thee, and all their tranſgreſſions wherein they have tranſgreſſed againſt thee, and give them compaſſion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compaſſion on them: 51 For they be thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughteſt forth out of Egypt, from the mids of the furnace of iron: 52 That thine eyes may be open unto the ſupplication of thy ſervant, and unto the ſuppli-cation of thy people Iſrael, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee. 53 For thou didſt ſeparate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou ſpakeſt by the hand of Moſes thy ſervant, when thou broughteſt our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God. 54 And it was ſo, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and ſupplication unto the Lord, he aroſe from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees, with his hands ſpread up to heaven.
55 And he ſtood, and bleſſed all the congregation of Iſrael, with a loud voice, ſaying, 56 Bleſſed be the Lord, that hath given reſt unto his people Iſrael, according to all that he promiſed:
there hath not failed one word of all his good promiſe, which he promiſed by the hand of Moſes his ſervant. 57 The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forſake us: 58 That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his ſtatutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. 59 And let theſe my words wherewith I have made ſupplication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night, that he maintain the cauſe of his ſervant, and the cauſe of his people Iſrael at all times, as the matter ſhall require: 60 That all the people of the earth may know that the Lord is God, and that there is none elſe. 61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his ſtatutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day. 62 And the king, and all Iſrael with him, offered ſacrifice before the Lord. 63 And Solomon offered a ſacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered unto the Lord, two and twenty thouſand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thouſand ſheep: ſo the king and all the children of Iſrael dedicated the houſe of the Lord. 64 The ſame day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the houſe of the Lord: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: becauſe the braſen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings.
65 And at that time Solomon held a feaſt, and all Iſrael with him, a great congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days, and seven days, even fourteen days. 66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart, for all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

There was nothing in the Ark save the two Tables of Stone] And yet the Author to the Hebrews affirms, that in this Ark was the Golden Pot, that had Manna, and Aaron's Rod that budded, as well as the Table of the Covenant, Heb. ix. 4. Now to reconcile this, some imagine, that before the Ark had any fix'd and settled Place (which is the Time the Apostle refers to) all these Things were included in it, though it was chiefly intended for nothing but the Tables of the Covenant; but that when it was plac'd in the Temple, nothing was left in it but these two Tables, all the other Things were deposited in the Treasury of the Temple, where the Book of the Law (as we read 2 Chron. xxxiv. 14.) was found in the Days of King Josias. Others however pretend, that, in the Time of the Apostle, i. e. towards the End of the Jewish Commonwealth, Aaron's Rod, and the Pot of Manna were really kept in the Ark, though, in the Days of Solomon, they were not. But this Answer would be more solid and satisfactory, if we knew for certain, that in the Times of the Apostle, the Ark of the Covenant was really in the Sanctuary of the Temple which Herod built; whereas Josephus tells us expresly, that, when the Romans destroy'd the Temple, there was nothing found in in the Holy of Holies. Calmet's Com.

The Cloud filled the House of the Lord] When Moses had finished the Tabernacle, according to the Pattern which God had shew'd him, and set it all up, it is said, that a Cloud covered the Tent of the Congregation, and the Glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle, &c. Exod. xl. 34, 35. And therefore, when the Temple was finished, and the Ark brought into the Sanctuary, God gave the like Indication of his Presence, and Residence there. Hereby he testified his Acceptance of the Building, and furnishing of the Temple, as a Service done to his Name; and hereby he declar'd, that, as the Glory of the Ark (that sacred Symbol of his Presence) had been long eclips'd by its frequent Removes, and mean Habitations; so now his Pleasure was, that it should be look'd upon with the same Esteem and Veneration, as when Moses conducted it into the Tabernacle: For this Cloud, we must know, was not a heavy, thick, opake Body, such as is ingender'd in the Air, and arises from Vapour and Exhalations, but a Cloud that was dark, and luminous at the same Time, whose Darkness was awful and majestick, and whose internal Part was bright and refulgent, darting its Rays upon Occasion, and exhibiting its Light through its Obscurity: So that, according to its different Phasis, or Position, it became to the Israelites a Pillar of Cloud by Day, to screen them from the Heat, and at Night a Pillar of Fire, to give them Light, Exod. xiii. 21. Whatever it was that constituted this strange Appearance, 'tis certain this Mixture of Light and Darkness, was look'd upon as a Symbol of the Divine Presence; for so the Scripture has inform'd us, that He, who dwelleth in Light that is inaccessible, made Darkness his secret Place, his Pavilion round about him, with dark Water, and thick Clouds to cover him, Ps. xviii. 11. Calmet's Com.

CHAP. IX.

God's second Appearance to Solomon. Mutual Presents between Solomon and Hiram. Solomon builds strong Holds. His yearly Sacrifices; his Navy fetches Gold from Ophir.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the kings house, and all Solomons desire which he was pleased to do, 2 That the Lord appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon. 3 And the Lord said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever, and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. 4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments: 5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel. 6 But if you shall at all turn from following me, you or you children, and will not keep my commandments, and my statutes, which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them: 7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house which I have hallowed for my name will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shall be a proverb, and a by-word among all people: 8 And at this house which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house? 9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil. 10 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the Lord and the kings house. 11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. 12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they pleased him not. 13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day. 14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold. 15 And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, for to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. 16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomons wife. 17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether, 18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, 19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horse-men, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. 20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to troy, upon thoſe did Solomon levy a tribute of bond-ſervice unto this day. 22 But of the children of Iſrael did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his ſervants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horſemen. 23 Theſe were the chief of the officers that were over Solomons work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work. 24 But Pharaohs daughter came up out of the city of David, unto her houſe which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo. 25 And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings upon the altar which he built unto the Lord, and he burnt incenſe upon the altar that was before the Lord: ſo he finiſhed the houſe. 26 And king Solomon made a navy of ſhips in Ezion-geber: which is beſide Eloth, on the ſhore of the Red ſea, in the land of Edom. 27 And Hiram ſent in the navy his ſervants, ſhipmen that had knowledge of the ſea, with the ſervants of Solomon. 28 And they came to Ophir, and fetcht from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

And it came to paſs when Solomon had finiſhed the Building of the Houſe of the Lord — that the Lord appeared to Solomon the ſecond Time] It ſeems very probable, ſays Stackhouſe, that this ſecond Appearance was the Night following the firſt; but ſome are of Opinion, that it did not happen till two and twenty Years after God's firſt Appearance, and after that Solomon had accompliſhed all his Buildings, to which the Connection of the Diſcourſe gives ſome Countenance, as in the Text. It ſeems a little ſtrange however, that God ſhould delay anſwering this Prince's Prayer for thirteen Years together, and then, when he appear'd to him, tell him, I have heard thy Prayer, and the Supplication that thou haſt made before me, and I have hallowed this Houſe which thou haſt built, Ver 5. And therefore, to ſolve this Difficulty, 'tis reaſonable to think, that the Diviſion of this ninth Chapter is wrong, that the firſt Verſe of it ſhould be annex'd to the Concluſion of the preceding Chapter, and ſo terminate the Account of what Solomon had done; and that the next Chapter ſhould begin with the ſecond Verſe, where the Hiſtorian enters upon a freſh Subject, viz. the Anſwer that God return'd to Solomon's Prayer, which he continues to the 10th Verſe, and preſents us with it all at once, that he might not break the Thread of his Narration. Calmet's Com.

King Solomon gave Hiram twenty Cities in the Land of Galilee] But how could Solomon, without violating the Law, Levit. xxv. 23. pretend to give Hiram twenty Cities in the Land of Galilee? Various Solutions have been given of this Difficulty, the Authors of which might have ſpar'd themſelves the Pains, ſince the Scripture expreſly tells us, that theſe Cities were not in the Territories of Iſrael, nor inhabited at that time by the Iſraelites, 2 Chron. viii. 2. They were indeed ſome of them conquer'd by the King of Egypt, who gave them to Solomon as a Portion with his Daughter, and others by Solomon himſelf, who, as Calmet obſerves, had a Right to diſpoſe of thoſe Lands, which he had conquer'd in voluntary War, without the Conſent of the Senate. And this may be one Reaſon, why he gave theſe, rather than other Cities, becauſe he were certainly in his Power to give, when others perhaps were not.

And Solomon built — Tadmor in the Wilderneſs] Tadmor, which by the Greeks, is called Palmyra, is ſituated in the Wilderneſs of Syria, upon the Borders of Arabia Deſerta, inclining towards the Euphrates. Ptolemy places it two Days Journey from the Upper Syria, one Day's Journey from the Euphrates, and ſix Days Journey from Babylon. And the Reaſon he gives, why Solomon was inclin'd to build a City in this Place, was, becauſe in all the Country round about, there was no ſuch Thing as a Well, or a Fountain, but in this Spot only, to be found. If we may gueſs by the Ruins which later Travellers give us a Deſcription of, this City was certainly one of the fineſt and moſt magnificent in the Eaſt; and 'tis ſomewhat ſurprizing, that Hiſtory ſhould give us no Account, either when, or by whom it was reduc'd to the ſad Condition wherein it lies at this Day. But the true Reaſon for his building this Town in ſo deſolate a Place, was the Commodiouſneſs of its Situation to cut off all Commerce between the Syrians and Meſopotamians, and to prevent their caballing and conſpiring together againſt them, as they had done againſt his Father David. See Le Clerc's Com. If the Reader is deſirous to know the preſent State of this ruinated City, he may find it related in the Philoſophical Tranſactions, for October 1695.

And fetcht from thence Gold, five hundred and twenty Talents] In 2 Chron. viii. 18. the Number of Talents, brought home to Solomon, are ſaid to be four hundred and fifty. But this is a Matter that is eaſily reſolv'd, if we will but ſuppoſe, that the Charge of the Voyage to and fro coſt thirty Talents; or, that Solomon gave Hiram's Servants, for conducting his Fleet, thirty Talents; or that in refining the whole Maſs of Gold, the Waſte might be thirty Talents: So that, tho' Solomon's Fleet brought him home 450 Talents, yet by one or more of theſe Deductions, there came clear to his Coffers no more than 430. Patrick's Com.

CHAP. X.

Ver. 1. AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the Lord, ſhe came to prove him with hard queſtions. 2 And ſhe came to Jeruſalem with a very great train, with camels that bare ſpices, and very much gold and precious ſtones: and when ſhe was come to Solomon, ſhe communed with him of all that was in her heart. 3 And Solomon told her all her queſtions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not. 4 And when the queen of Sheba had ſeen all Solomons wiſdom, and the houſe that he had built. 5 And the meat of his table, and the ſitting of his ſervants, and the attendance of his miniſters and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his aſcent by which he went up unto the houſe of the Lord; there was no more ſpirit in her. 6 And ſhe ſaid to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land, of thy acts, and of thy wiſdom. 7 Howbeit, I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had ſeen it: and behold, the half was not told me: thy wiſdom and proſperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. 8 Happy are thy men, happy are theſe thy ſervants, which ſtand continually before thee, and that hear thy wiſdom. 9 Bleſſed be the Lord thy God which delighted in thee, to ſet thee on the throne of Iſrael; becauſe the Lord loved Iſrael for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and juſtice. 10 And ſhe gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of ſpices very great ſtore, and precious ſtones: there came no more ſuch abundance of ſpices, as theſe, which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. 11 And the navy alſo of Hiram that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug-almug-trees, and precious ſtones. 12 And the king made of the almug-trees, pillars for the houſe of the Lord, and for the kings houſe, harps alſo and pſalteries for ſingers: there came no ſuch almug-trees, nor were ſeen unto this day. 13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba, all her deſire whatſoever ſhe aſked, beſides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty: ſo ſhe turned and went to her own country, ſhe and her ſervants. 14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year, was ſix hundred threeſcore and ſix talents of gold. 15 Beſides that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the ſpice-merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country. 16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: ſix hundred ſhekels of gold went to one target. 17 And he made three hundred ſhields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one ſhield: and the king put them in the houſe of the forreſt of Lebanon. 18 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the beſt gold. 19 The throne had ſix ſteps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were ſtays on either ſide on the place of the ſeat, and two lions ſtood beſide the ſtays. 20 And twelve lions ſtood there on the one ſide and on the other upon the ſix ſteps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. 21 And all king Solomons drinking-veſſels were of gold, and all the veſſels of the houſe of the forreſt of Lebanon were of pure gold, none were of ſilver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. 22 For the king had at ſea a navy of Tarſhiſh, with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tarſhiſh, bringing gold and ſilver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. 23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth, for riches and for wiſdom. 24 And all the earth ſought to Solomon, to hear his wiſdom, which God had put in his heart. 25 And they brought every man his preſent, veſſels of ſilver, and veſſels of gold, and garments, and armour, and ſpices, horſes, and mules, a rate year by year. 26 And Solomon gathered together chariots and horſemen: and he had a thouſand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thouſand horſemen, whom he beſtowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jeruſalem. 27 And the king made ſilver to be in Jeruſalem as ſtones, and cedars made he to be as the ſycomore-trees, that are in the vale, for abundance. 28 And Solomon had horſes brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the kings merchants received the linen yarn at a price. 29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for ſix hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and an horſe for an hundred and fifty: and ſo for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

And when the Queen of Sheba heard of the Fame of Solomon] Joſephus, and, from his Authority many more are of Opinion, that Sheba was the antient Name of Meroe, an Iſland, or rather Peninſula in Egypt, before Cambyſes, in Compliment to his Siſter (other Hiſtorians call her his Mother) gave it her Name. He tells us likewiſe, that ſhe was Queen both of Egypt and Ethiopia, and the Ethiopians indeed have a Tradition, that, upon her Return, ſhe had a Son by Solomon, whoſe Poſterity reign'd there many Years, and, to this very Day, they have preſerved a continual Liſt of their Names and Succeſſors.

There are theſe Exceptions however, to be made to this Opinion of the Jewiſh Hiſtorian, viz. that whereas he cites Herodotus, as ſpeaking of his Queen Nicaule, Herodotus makes mention of none, but only of Nitocris, Queen of Egypt; nor does he ſay one Syllable of her pretended Journey to Jeruſalem. Whereas he ſays of this Nicaule, that ſhe was Queen of Egypt and Ethiopia both; the ſacred Hiſtory is plain, that in the Time of Solomon, there reign'd in Egypt that Pharaoh, whoſe Daughter he marry'd, and, in his Son Rehoboam's Time, Shiſhak. Whereas he tells us, that the antient Name of Meroe, before the Time of Cambyſes, was Sheba; for this he ſeems to want Authority, ſince Diodorus, and other Hiſtorians, repreſent this City as built new from the Ground, and not repaired by Cambyſes.

The more probable Opinion therefore is, that this Queen of Sheba came from a Country ſo named, which lay not in Ethiopia or Africa, but in the Southern Part of Arabia Fœlix; becauſe it is generally allow'd, that that the Sabeans liv'd in Arabia, and that their Country was uſually called by the Orientaliſts, the Kingdom of the South, in Alluſion to which, our Saviour ſtiles this Princeſs the Queen of the South, becauſe their Country borders upon the Southern Ocean, beyond which the Antients knew no farther Land; and therefore our Saviour (according to the common Mode of ſpeaking) ſays of this Princeſs, that ſhe came from the utmoſt Parts of the Earth, becauſe, in this Country Women were known to govern as well as Men; becauſe the common Produce of it was Gold, Silver, Spices, and precious Stones, the very Preſents which this Princeſs made Solomon; and (if any popular Traditions may be credited) becauſe the Arabians talk of their Queen Balkis, who went to viſit Solomon, and ſhew Travellers the Place of her Nativity to this very Day.

Now if this Princeſs came from Arabia, there is Reaſon to believe, that ſhe was originally deſcended from Abraham, by his Wife Keturah, one of whoſe Sons begat Sheba, who was the firſt Planter of this Country, Gen. xxv. 1, 3. and, conſequently that ſhe might have ſome Knowledge of Revealed Religion, or Tradition at leaſt, from her pious Anceſtors. To this Purpoſe the Scripture ſeems to intimate, that the Deſign of her Viſit to Solomon was, not ſo much to gratify her Curioſity, as to inform her Underſtanding in Matters relating to Piety, and Divine Worſhip. It was Solomon's Fame, concerning the Name of the Lord, i. e. concerning his Knowledge of the Supreme Being, and the proper Manner of worſhipping him, that excited her to take ſo long a Journey: And therefore, our Saviour ſays, that, as ſhe came ſo far to hear his Wiſdom, (his Wiſdom concerning what? Concerning the Nature and Worſhip of Almighty God) ſhe would, in the Day of Judgment riſe up againſt that Generation which refus'd to liſten to him.

The King made a great Throne of Ivory, and overlaid it with the beſt Gold] We never read of Ivory, ſays Patrick, till about Solomon's Days, who perhaps brought Elephants out of India, or at leaſt took Care to have a great deal of Ivory imported from thence; for, in After-Ages we read of Ivory Beds, and Ivory Palaces, &c. At this Time however, it was every whit as precious as Gold: And therefore we muſt not ſuppoſe that this Throne of Solomon's was entirely overlaid with Gold, (for then it might as well have been made of Wood) but only in particular Places, that ſo the Mixture of Gold and Ivory, which gave a Luſtre to each other, might make the Throne look more beautiful. The like to this the Text ſays, there was not made in any Kingdom, Ver. 20. and no doubt it was ſo in thoſe Days; but, in After-Ages, we read, that the Throne of the Parthian Kings was of Gold, and compaſs'd with four golden Pillar, beſet with precious Stones, and that the Perſian Kings ſat in Judgment under a golden Vine, (and other Trees of Gold)

Bunches of whose Grapes were made of several Sorts of precious Stones.

CHAP. XI.

Solomon's Wives and Concubines; in his old Age they seduce him to Idolatry; for which God raises him up Adversaries. His Death; is succeeded by Rehoboam.

Ver. 1. BUT king Solomon loved many strange women, (together with the daughter of Pharaoh) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians and Hittites: 2 Of the nations concerning which the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love. 3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart. 4 For it came to pass when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of David his father. 5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. 6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord, and went not fully after the Lord, as did David his father. 7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem; and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. 8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods. 9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the Lord God of Israel which had appeared unto him twice. 10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the Lord commanded. 11 Wherefore the Lord said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant. 12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it, for David thy fathers sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son. 13 Howbeit, I will not rend away all the kingdom: but will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servants sake, and for Jerusalems sake which I have chosen. 14 And the Lord stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the seed in Edom. 15 For it came to pass when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom: 16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom) 17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his fathers servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child. 18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land. 19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. 20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaohs house: and Genubath was in Pharaohs household among the sons of Pharaoh. 21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. 22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise. 23 And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon, the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. 24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. 25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria. 26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomons servant (whose mothers name was Zeruah, a widow woman) he lift up his hand against the king. 27 And this was the cause that he lift up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father. 28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. 29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way, and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field. 30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces. 31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: 32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant Davids sake, and for Jerusalems sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel) 33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father. 34 Howbeit, I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servants sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes: 35 But I will take the kingdom out of his sons hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes. 36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. 37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel. 38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my com-commandments, as David my ſervant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a ſure houſe, as I built for David, and will give Iſrael unto thee. 39 And I will for this afflict the ſeed of David, but not for ever. 40 Solomon ſought therefore to kill Jeroboam: and Jeroboam aroſe, and fled into Egypt, unto Shiſhak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. 41 And the reſt of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wiſdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? 42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jeruſalem, over all Iſrael, was forty years. 43 And Solomon ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

And he had ſeven hundred Wives, Princeſſes, and three hundred Concubines] Without knowing the Cuſtom of the Princes of the Eaſt, their Pomp, and Sumptuouſneſs of Living, one might be tempted to wonder, ſays Stackhouſe, what poſſible Uſe Solomon mght make of this Milliad of Wives and Concubines that he had: But, as he was between forty and fifty Years old, before he ran into this Exceſs, we cannot but think, that he kept this Multitude of Women more for State than any other Service. Darius Codomannus was wont to carry along with him in his Camp, no leſs than three hundred and fifty Concubines; nor was his Queen at all offended at it, becauſe theſe Women us'd to reverence and adore her, as if ſhe had been a Goddeſs. F. Le Compte, in his Hiſtory of China, tells us, that the Emperor there has a vaſt Number of Wives, choſen out of the prime Beauties of the Country, many of which he never ſo much as ſaw in his whole Life: And therefore it is not improbable, that Solomon (as he found his Riches increaſe) might enlarge his Expences, and endeavour to ſurpaſs all the Princes of his Time in this, as well as all other Kinds of Pomp and Magnificence.

And after Milcom the Abomination of the Ammonites] This God is the ſame with Moloch, which, both in Hebrew and Ethiopick, ſignifies a King; but then there are various Sentiments concerning the Relation which this God had to the other Pagan Deities. Some believe that Moloch was Saturn, others Mercury, others Venus, and others again Mars, or Mithra. But Calmet has made it more than probable, that this God was the Sun, who is called the King of Heaven, as the Moon may be ſaid to be the Queen thereof, for its Make and Manner of Worſhip.

Then did Solomon build an high Place for Chemoſh] Chemoſh, or Chamos, comes from a Root, which, in Arabick, ſignifies to make haſte; and from hence ſome have imagined, that he is the ſame with the Sun, whoſe Motion is ſuppos'd to be ſo haſty and rapid; tho' ſome, from the Hebrew Root, which ſignifies contrectatus, or handled, will have him the ſame with the Roman Priapus, who is called Pater Contrectationum nocturnarum: While others, from the near Reſemblance of the Hebrew Chamos with the Word Camos, have rather thought it to be Bacchus, the God of Drunkenneſs: But in either Acceptation it may be ſuppoſed to repreſent either Noah or Lot.

And Jeroboam aroſe, and fled into Egypt, unto Shiſhak King of Egypt] All the Kings, from the Time of Abraham, are, in the ſacred Hiſtory, called by the Name of Pharaoh, unleſs Rameſes, mentioned Gen. xlvii. 11. be the Name of a King, not a Country; ſo that this is the firſt we meet with, called by his proper Name from the reſt of the Pharaoh's. Who this Egyptian Prince was, the Learned are not agreed. The Opinion is pretty general, that it was the famous Seſoſtris, mentioned in Herodotus; but his Life could hardly be extended to this Period. Our great Uſher ſets him a vaſt Way backward, even to the Time of the Iſraelites Peregrination, and ſome Chronologers carry it farther: But be that as it will, 'tis very probable, that this Prince had taken Offence at Solomon, otherwiſe he would hardly have harboured ſuch ſeditious Refugees as Jeroboam was. Patrick's and Le Clerc's Com.

And Rehoboam his Son reigned in his ſtead] Notwithſtanding the vaſt Multitude of Wives that Solomon had, the Scripture makes Mention of no more than three Children, this Son, and two Daughters, that are ſpoken of Ch. iv. 11, 15. and (what is ſtrange) in the Beginning of his Son's Story, it takes no Notice (as uſually it does) of his Mother's Nation, or Family, tho' in the Concluſion of it (1 Kings xiv. 21, — 31.) it twice reminds us, that ſhe was an Ammoniteſs by Birth, and that her Name was Naamah. Rehoboam was born in the firſt Year of his Father's Reign, and was therefore much about forty-one, when he entered upon the Government; but he was an unſkilful and imprudent Man, and made a very falſe Step at his firſt Acceſſion to the Throne. Calmet's and Patrick's Com.

Being now come to the Period of Solomon's Life and Reign, it may not be unneceſſary to take an Eſtimate of his Revenues, by which he was enabled to ſupport his prodigious Grandeur and Magnificence. The Scripture informs us, that, out of the Revenues of the Crown, David left Solomon, merely for the Purpoſe of building the Temple, an hundred thouſand Talents of Gold, and a thouſand Talents of Silver; out of his private Purſe, three thouſand Talents of Gold, and ſeven thouſand Talents of Silver; and of the Benevolence of the Princes five thouſand Talents, and ten thouſand Drams of Gold, and ten thouſand Talents of Silver. Now, ſince it is generally agreed, that a Talent of Silver was equivalent to 342*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.* and a Talent of Gold amounted to no leſs than 5425*l.* Sterling; All theſe Talents of Gold and Silver will amount to upwards of nine hundred thirty three Million ſeven hundred and fourteen thouſand Pounds. Some of the beſt Authors upon Weights and Meaſures have computed, that if all the Walls, Pavement, Lining, and Covering of the Temple had been made of maſſy Gold, (even with the Wages of the Workmen and Veſſels belonging to it) they would not have come up to the Value here ſpecified; and therefore, upon this Suppoſition, they have advanced a Notion, that the Hebrews had two Kinds of Talents, a larger, which was called the Talent of the Sanctuary, and a ſmaller, which was the common Talent, and but half leſs than the other, by which all ſuch exorbitant Sums, (as they ſay) ought to be reckoned. But what Grounds they have for this Diſtinction, we cannot perceive, ſince it no where appears, either in the Scriptures, or any other Hiſtory, that the Jews (eſpecially before the Captivity of Babylon) had any more Talents than one; and that their Talent, whether of Silver or Gold, aroſe to a Sum, tantamount to what we have ſtated it at; there are ſeveral Inſtances in the Old Teſtament that may convince us.

CHAP. XII.

Rehoboam, following the Advice of the young Men, occaſions a Revolt of the Ten Tribes. Jeroboam made King of Iſrael; his Idolatry.

Ver. 1. AND Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Iſrael were come to Shechem to make him king. 2 And it came to paſs, when Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the preſence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt) 3 That they ſent and called him. And Jeroboam, and all the congregation of Iſrael came, and ſpake unto Rehoboam, ſaying, 4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous ſervice of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us lighter, and we will ſerve thee. 5 And he ſaid unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people depar- 6

6 And king Rehoboam conſulted with the old men that ſtood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, and ſaid, How do you adviſe, that I may anſwer this people? 7 And they ſpake unto him, ſaying, If thou wilt be a ſervant unto this people this day, and wilt ſerve them, and anſwer them, and ſpeak good words to them, then they will be thy ſervants for ever. 8 But he forſook the counſel of the old men, which they had given him, and conſulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which ſtood before him: 9 And he ſaid unto them, What counſel give ye, that we may anſwer this people, who have ſpoken to me, ſaying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us, lighter? 10 And the young men that were grown up with him, ſpake unto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou ſpeak unto this people that ſpake unto thee, ſaying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus ſhalt thou ſay unto them, My little finger ſhall be thicker than my fathers loins. 11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions. 12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, ſaying, Come to me again the third day. 13 And the king anſwered the people roughly, and forſook the old mens counſel that they gave him; 14 And ſpake to them after the counſel of the young men, ſaying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father alſo chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions. 15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cauſe was from the Lord, that he might perform his ſaying, which the Lord ſpake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat. 16 So when all Iſrael ſaw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people anſwered the king, ſaying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the ſon of Jeſſe: to your tents, O Iſrael: now ſee to thine own houſe, David. So Iſrael departed unto their tents. 17 But as for the children of Iſrael which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. 18 Then king Rehoboam ſent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Iſrael ſtoned him with ſtones, that he died: therefore king Rehoboam made ſpeed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jeruſalem. 19 So Iſrael rebelled againſt the houſe of David unto this day. 20 And it came to paſs when all Iſrael heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they ſent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Iſrael: there was none that followed the houſe of David, but the tribe of Judah only. 21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jeruſalem, he aſſembled all the houſe of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourſcore thouſand choſen men, which were warriors, to fight againſt the houſe of Iſrael, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon. 22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, ſaying, 23 Speak unto Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon king of Judah, and unto all the houſe of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, ſaying, 24 Thus ſaith the Lord, Ye ſhall not go up, nor fight againſt your brethren the children of Iſrael: return every man to his houſe, for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the Lord, and returned to depart, according to the word of the Lord. 25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went out from thence, and built Penuel. 26 And Jeroboam ſaid in his heart, Now ſhall the kingdom return to the houſe of David. 27 If this people go up to do ſacrifice in the houſe of the Lord at Jeruſalem, then ſhall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they ſhall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. 28 Whereupon the king took counſel, and made two calves of gold, and ſaid unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jeruſalem: behold thy gods, O Iſrael, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. 29 And he ſet the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan. 30 And this thing became a ſin: for the people went to worſhip before the one, even unto Dan. 31 And he made an houſe of high places, and made prieſts of the loweſt of the people, which were not of the ſons of Levi. 32 And Jeroboam ordained a feaſt in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feaſt that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar, (ſo did he in Beth-el) ſacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the prieſts of the high places which he had made. 33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had deviſed of his own heart: and ordained a feaſt unto the children of Iſrael, and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incenſe.

And Rehoboam went to Sechem] This City ſtood not only in the Center of the Kingdom of Iſrael, but in the Middle of the Tribe of Ephraim, wherein was the greateſt Number of Malecontents. It was therefore very probably by the Management of Jeroboam, or ſome of his Friends, who durſt not perhaps venture themſelves at Jeruſalem, that this City was made choice of for the Place of a general Convention, becauſe they might more ſecurely propoſe their Grievances (which they were reſolved to do) and uſe a greater Freedom of Speech than they could at Jeruſalem, where the Family of David was more powerful, more numerous, and better ſupported. Calmet's Com. and Pool's Annot.

King Rehoboam made ſpeed to get him up into his Chariot] This, ſays Patrick, is the firſt Time that we read of a King's riding in a Chariot. Saul, and David, and Solomon rode in none; but after the Diviſion of the Kingdom, Mention is frequently made of the Uſe of them, both by the Kings of Judah and Iſrael.

Whereupon the King took Counſel, and made two Calves of Gold] How the Figure of a Calf, ſays Stackhouſe, or any other Animal, can be a Symbol of a Deity, 'tis difficult to conceive. But a certain learned Author, who ſeems a little ſingular in his Opinion, will needs have it, that the golden Calves, which Jeroboam made, were in Imitation of the Cherubims (in his Account theſe were winged Oxen) Moſes had placed upon the Ark of the Covenant, whereon the Glory of the Lord ſat inthroned. Theſe Cherubims in the Tabernacle of Moſes, and afterwards in Solomon's Temple, were placed in the Sanctuary, and ſecreted from vulgar Sight; Jeroboam, to make his Religion more condeſcenſive, placed his Calves in open View, ſo that every one, who looked on them, might, through them worſhip ſhip the God of Iſrael, without repairing to the Temple at Jeruſalem.

This Notion (if it were true) would make the Tranſition eaſy from the Worſhip at Jeruſalem, to the Worſhip at Dan or Bethel; but we can hardly imagine, that Jeroboam had either ſo harmleſs, or ſo conformable a Deſign, in ſetting up theſe golden Images. Whatever his Deſign was, 'tis certain, that the Scripture all along repreſents him, as, of all others, the principal Perſon, that made Iſrael to ſin, that drew Iſrael from ſerving the Lord, and made them ſin a great Sin: And therefore we may obſerve, that, whenever it deſcribes a bad Prince, one Part of his Character is, that he imitated the Sin of Jeroboam, the Son of Nebat, who (as the Prophet upbraids his Wife) went and made him other Gods, and molten Images, to provoke me to Anger, and to caſt me behind thy Back, ſaith the Lord.

The Truth is, Jeroboam had lived a conſiderable Time in the Land of Egypt, had contracted an Acquaintance with the King thereof, and formed an Intereſt among the People; and therefore finding himſelf under a Neceſſity of making an Alteration in the eſtabliſhed Religion of his Country, he thought it the wiſeſt Method to do it by the Egyptian Model, that thereby he might endear himſelf to that Nation; and, in Caſe he met with Oppoſition from his Rival Reboboam, might hope for Aſſiſtance from that Quarter. For, as the Egyptians had two Oxen which they worſhipped, one called Apis, at Memphis, the Metropolis of Upper Egypt; and the other called Mneſis, at Hierapolis, a principal City of the Lower; ſo he made two Calves of Gold, and placed one of them in Bethel, which was in the South Part of the Country of Iſrael; and the other in Dan, another conſiderable Town in the North.

CHAP. XIII.

The Prophecy of a Prophet from Judah. Jeroboam offering him Violence, his Hand withers, but, at the Prayer of the Prophet is reſtored. He departs from Bethel, but, by the Perſuaſion of an old Prophet, returns back; for which he is ſlain by a Lion. Jeroboam's Obſtinacy.

Ver. 1. AND behold there came a man of God out of Judah, by the word of the Lord, unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam ſtood by the altar to burn incenſe. 2 And he cried againſt the altar in the word of the Lord, and ſaid, O altar, altar, thus ſaith the Lord, Behold, a child ſhall be born unto the houſe of David, Joſiah by name, and upon thee ſhall he offer the prieſts of the high places that burnt incenſe upon thee, and mens bones ſhall be burnt upon thee. 3 And he gave a ſign the ſame day, ſaying, This is the ſign which the Lord hath ſpoken; Behold, the altar ſhall be rent, and the aſhes that are upon it ſhall be poured out. 4 And it came to paſs when king Jeroboam heard the ſaying of the man of God, which had cried againſt the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, ſaying, Lay hold on him. And his hand which he put forth againſt him, dried up, ſo that he could not pull it in again to him. 5 The altar alſo was rent, and the aſhes poured out from the altar, according to the ſign which the man of God had given by the word of the Lord. 6 And the king anſwered and ſaid unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the Lord thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be reſtored me again. And the man of God beſought the Lord, and the kings hand was reſtored him again, and became as it was before. 7 And the king ſaid unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refreſh thy ſelf, and I will give thee a reward. 8 And the man of God ſaid unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine houſe, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place: 9 For ſo was it charged me by the word of the Lord, ſaying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the ſame way that thou cameſt. 10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el. 11 Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el, and his ſons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had ſpoken unto the king, them they told alſo to their father. 12 And their father ſaid unto them, What way went he? for his ſons had ſeen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah. 13 And he ſaid unto his ſons, Saddle me the aſs. So they ſaddled him the aſs, and he rode thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and found him ſitting under an oak: and he ſaid unto him, Art thou the man of God, that cameſt from Judah? And he ſaid, I am. 15 Then he ſaid unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread. 16 And he ſaid, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread, nor drink water with thee in this place. 17 For it was ſaid to me by the word of the Lord, Thou ſhalt eat no bread, nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou cameſt. 18 He ſaid unto him, I am a prophet alſo as thou art, and an angel ſpake unto me by the word of the Lord, ſaying, bring him back with thee into thine houſe, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. 19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his houſe, and drank water. 20 And it came to paſs, as they ſat at the table, that the word of the Lord came unto the prophet that brought him back: 21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, Foraſmuch as thou haſt diſobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and haſt not kept the commandment which the Lord thy God commanded thee, 22 But cameſt back, and haſt eaten bread and drunk water in the place of the which LORD did ſay to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcaſe ſhall not come unto the ſepulchre of thy fathers. 23 And it came to paſs, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he ſaddled for him the aſs, to wit for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and ſlew him: and his carcaſe was caſt in the way, and the aſs ſtood by it, the lion alſo ſtood by the carcaſe. 25 And behold, men paſſed by, and ſaw the carcaſe caſt in the way, and the lion ſtanding by the carcaſe: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. 26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way, heard thereof, he ſaid, It is the man of God, who was diſobedient unto the word of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and ſlain him according to the word of the Lord, which he ſpake unto him. 27 And he ſpake to his ſons, ſaying, Saddle me the aſs. And they ſaddled him. 28 And he went and found his carcaſe caſt in the way, and the aſs and the lion ſtanding by the carcaſe: the lion had not eaten the carcaſe, nor torn the 29 And the prophet took up the carcaſe of the man of God, and laid it upon the aſs, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn, and to bury him. 30 And he laid his carcaſe in his own grave, and they mourned over him, ſaying, Alas my brother. 31 And it came to paſs after he had buried him, that he ſpake to his ſons, ſaying, When I am dead, then bury me in the ſepulchre wherein the man of God is buried, lay my bones beſide his bones. 32 For the ſaying which he cried by the word of the Lord againſt the altar in Beth-el, and againſt all the houſes of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, ſhall ſurely come to paſs. 33 After this thing, Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the loweſt of the people, prieſts of the high places: whoſoever would, he conſecrated him, and he became one of the prieſts of the high places. 34 And this thing became ſin unto the houſe of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to deſtroy it from off the face of the earth.

Behold, a Child ſhall be born unto the Houſe of David, JOSIAH by Name, and upon thee ſhall he offer the Prieſts of the High Places] This is one of the moſt remarkable Prophecies we have in holy Writ. It foretels an Action that exactly came to paſs above three hundred and forty Years afterwards. It deſcribes the Circumſtances of the Action, and ſpecifies the very Name of the Perſon that was to do it; and therefore every Jew, who lived in the Time of its Accompliſhment, muſt have been convinced of the divine Authority of a Religion founded upon ſuch Prophecies as this; ſince none but God could foreſee, and conſequently none but God foretel Events at ſuch a Diſtance.

Now there dwelt an old Prophet in Bethel, and his Sons came and told him all the Works that the Man of God had done that Day] By this it appears, that theſe Sons of the old Prophet were preſent, when Jeroboam ſtood at the Altar, and therefore joined in that idolatrous Worſhip, tho' their Father did not, and yet was too timorous to reprove it.

A Lion met him by the Way and ſlew him] We may think, indeed, ſays Stackhouſe, that this Offence was but ſmall, and that he hardly deſerved ſo ſevere a Fate; but then we ſhould do well to conſider, that whenever God, in an extraordinary Manner, diſcovers his Will to a Prophet, he always makes ſuch a ſenſible Impreſſion upon his Mind, that he cannot but perceive himſelf actuated by a divine Spirit, and conſequently, cannot but be aſſured of the Evidence of his own Revelation. This Evidence the Prophet that was ſent to Bethel had; for as he was able, by the Power that was given him, to work Miracles, he could not but be ſenſible of his divine Miſſion, and that the particular Injunction of his not eating or drinking in the Town of Bethel, was as much the Will of God, as any other Part of his Commiſſion.

Now the Deſign of God, in this Prohibition, was to expreſs his Abhorrence of that idolatrous Place; and therefore the other pretended Revelation of the old Prophet, who lived therein, was juſtly to be ſuſpected, not only becauſe it was repugnant to God's main Deſign, but becauſe it came from a Perſon who had given no great Teſtimony of his Sincerity, in chuſing to live in a Place notoriouſly infected with Idolatry, and in not making no publick Remonſtrance againſt it. The Conſideration of this one Circumſtance ſhould have made the young Prophet diffident of what the other told him, at leaſt, till he had ſhewn him ſome divine Teſtimony to convince him; for it argued a great deal of Levity, if not Infidelity of his own Revelation, to liſten to that of another Man, in Contradiction to what he had abundant Reaſon to believe was true.

But, ſay ſome, why was the lying Prophet ſuffered to go unpuniſhed? Here we may take Occaſion to admire the unſearchable Secrets of divine Juſtice. Jeroboam revolts from his lawful Sovereign; forſakes the Worſhip of the true God; engages the People in groſs Idolatry, and is himſelf hardened with the Menaces and Miracles of the Prophet that was ſent to him. A falſe Prophet deceives an innocent Man with a Lie, and draws him into an Act of Diſobedience, contrary to his Inclination; and yet this wicked Jeroboam, and this ſeducing Prophet go unpuniſhed, while the other, who might mean no Ill, perhaps, in turning back, is ſlain by a Lion, and his Body deprived of the Sepulchre of his Fathers. We muſt acknowledge, indeed, that the Depths of the Judgments of God are an Abyſs that our Underſtandings cannot fathom: But nothing certainly can be a more ſenſible Proof of the Truth, and the eternal Recompences or Puniſhments that attend it, than to ſee the Righteous ſo rigorouſly treated here for very ſlight Offences; Moſes excluded the Land of Promiſe for a diffident Thought; Lot's Wife changed into a Pillar of Salt for her looking back; and David, for a vain Curioſity, puniſhed with the Death of no leſs than ſeventy thouſand of his Subjects: And if God be thus ſevere to his own Servants; if Judgment thus begins at the Houſe of God, where ſhall the Ungodly and the Sinner appear? 1 Pet. iv. 17, 18. As Sentence againſt every evil Man therefore is not ſpeedily executed, this is our Proof, this our Aſſurance, that God will bring every evil Work into Judgment, with every ſecret Thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil, Eccleſ. xii. 14.

The Lion alſo ſtood by the Carcaſe] This is a Demonſtration, that the Prophet's Death was not caſual, or the Effect of a Lion's Hunger and ravenous Diſpoſition, but of God's ſingular and juſt Judgment; and conſequently, that his Prediction was divine, and ſhould, in its proper Time, infallibly be accompliſhed.

And againſt all the Houſes of the High Places, which are in the Cities of Samaria] But how could the Prophet denounce Judgments againſt the Cities of Samaria, when Samaria, at that Time, had not ſo much as a Name? This only ſhews, that the Author or Compiler of theſe Books of Kings (whether it was Eſdras or Jeremiah) lived long after the Time of Jeroboam, and writes of Things and Places, as they were in his own Days. He knew full well that Samaria was built by Omri, fifty Years after Jeroboam, ſince himſelf had given an Account of its Foundation: But he was minded to ſpeak in the Phraſe then current, and to make himſelf intelligible to thoſe that read him; and for this Reaſon, no doubt, it is, that in 2 Kings xxiii. 18. the falſe Prophet of Bethel is ſaid to have come from Samaria; tho', at that Time, there was no City of that Name.

CHAP. XIV.

Jeroboam ſends his Wife diſguiſed to the Prophet Ahijah, who denounces his Son's Death, and the Deſtruction of Iſrael. Shiſhak ſpoils Jeruſalem. Rehoboam dies, and is ſucceeded by his Son Abijam.

Ver. 1. AT that time Ahijah the ſon of Jeroboam fell ſick. 2 And Jeroboam ſaid to his wife, Ariſe, I pray thee, and diſguiſe thyſelf, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam: and get thee to Shilo; behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which told me that I ſhould be king over this people. 3 And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruſe of honey, and go to him: he ſhall tell thee what ſhall become of the child. 4 And Jeroboams wife did ſo, and aroſe, and went to Shiloh, and came to the houſe of Ahijah: but Ahijah could not ſee, for his eyes were ſet by reaſon of his age. 5 And the Lord ſaid unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to aſk a thing of thee for her ſon, for he is ſick: thus and thus ſhalt thou ſay unto her: for it ſhall be when ſhe cometh in, that ſhe ſhall feign herſelf to be another woman. 6 And it was ſo, when Ahijah heard the ſound of her feet, as ſhe came in at the door, that he ſaid, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam, why feigneſt thou thy ſelf to be another? for I am ſent to thee with heavy tidings. 7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, Foraſmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Iſrael, 8 And rent the kingdom away from the houſe of David, and gave it thee; and yet thou haſt not been as my ſervant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes, 9 But haſt done evil above all that were before thee: for thou haſt gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and haſt caſt me behind thy back: 10 Therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the houſe of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him that piſſeth againſt the wall, and him that is ſhut up and left in Iſrael, and will take away the remnant of the houſe of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone. 11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city, ſhall the dogs eat: and him that dieth in the field, ſhall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord hath ſpoken it. 12 Ariſe thou therefore, get thee to thine own houſe: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child ſhall die. 13 And all Iſrael ſhall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam ſhall come to the grave, becauſe in him there is found ſome good thing toward the Lord God of Iſrael, in the houſe of Jeroboam. 14 Moreover, the Lord ſhall raiſe him up a king over Iſrael, who ſhall cut off the houſe of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now. 15 For the Lord ſhall ſmite Iſrael, as a reed is ſhaken in the water, and he ſhall root up Iſrael out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and ſhall ſcatter them beyond the river, becauſe they have made their groves, provoking the Lord to anger. 16 And he ſhall give Iſrael up, becauſe of the ſins of Jeroboam, who did ſin, and made Iſrael to ſin. 17 And Jeroboams wife aroſe, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when ſhe came to the threſhold of the door, the child died. 18 And they buried him, and all Iſrael mourned for him, according to the word of the Lord, which he ſpake by the hand of his ſervant Ahijah the prophet. 19 And the reſt of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael. 20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned, were two and twenty years: and he ſlept with his fathers, and Nadab his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 21 And Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon reigned in Judah: Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ſeventeen years in Jeruſalem, the city which the Lord did chooſe out of all the tribes of Iſrael, to put his name there: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammoniteſs. 22 And Judah did evil in the ſight of the Lord, and they provoked him to jealouſy with their ſins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. 23 For they alſo built them high places, and images, and groves on every high hill, and under every green tree. 24 And there were alſo Sodomites in the land, and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael. 25 And it came to paſs in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shiſhak king of Egypt came up againſt Jeruſalem: 26 And he took away the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſures of the kings houſe, he even took away all; and he took away all the ſhields of gold which Solomon had made. 27 And king Rehoboam made in their ſtead braſen ſhields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, which kept the door of the kings houſe. 28 And it was ſo, when the king went into the houſe of the Lord, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber. 29 Now the reſt of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. 31 And Rehoboam ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and his mothers name was Naamah an Ammoniteſs. And Abijam his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

Shiſhak King of Egypt came up againſt Jeruſalem. It may ſeem ſomething ſtrange, that Shiſhak, who was ſo nearly allied to Rehoboam, ſhould come up againſt him, and take his royal City: But Rehoboam we muſt remember, was not the Son of Pharaoh's Daughter, and therefore no Relation to Shiſhak. But had he been even never ſo nearly related, as Kingdoms we know, never marry, ſo 'tis likely, that Jeroboam, who had lived long in Egypt, ſtirred him up to invade his Rival, that thereby he might eſtabliſh himſelf in his new Kingdom: And, for this Reaſon it was, that when the Armies of Egypt had taken the fenced Cities of Judah, they returned without giving Jeroboam, in his Dominions, any the leaſt Diſturbance. Patrick's Com.

And King Rehoboam made in their ſtead brazen Shields. This ſhews, to what a low Condition the Kingdom of Judah was reduced. Theſe Shields were a Matter of State and Grandeur; and therefore it concerned them, if they were able, to have them of the ſame Value that they were before: And, as they were carried before the King to the Houſe of the Lord, it ſeems likewiſe to be a Matter of Religion, that their Value ſhould not be diminiſhed. Now, in making the three hundred Shields we are told, that three Pounds of Gold went to one Shield, 1 Kings x. 17. This, at four Pounds per Ounce, or forty eight Pounds Sterling to the Pound, amounts to no more than 43,200*l.* and therefore 'twas a miſerable Caſe, that they were reduced from ſo much Wealth to ſo much Poverty, that neither Reaſon of State, nor Religion could raiſe ſo ſmall a Sum on ſo great an Occaſion. See Bedford's Scripture Chron.

And there was War between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their Days.] But how does this agree with what we read in 1 Kings xii. 23, &c. viz. that God commanded Rehoboam and his People, not to fight againſt the Iſraelites, and they obeyed? Very well, if we but obſerve, that, tho' the Jews were commanded not to make War upon the Iſraelites, yet they were commanded not to defend themſelves, in caſe the Iſraelites ſhould make War upon them; and, conſidering that they were now two rival Nations, they might, upon the Borders, be continually endeavouring to get Ground upon each other, and ſo run into frequent Acts of Hoſtility, without ever once engaging in a pitch'd Battle. Patrick's Com.

Abijam follows his Father's Sins; he dies, and is succeeded by his Son Asa. Asa's good Reign; he dies, and Jehoshaphat succeeds him. Nadab's wicked Reign; is kill'd by Baasha, who succeeds him.

Ver. 1. NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, reigned Abijam over Judah. 2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. 3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father. 4 Nevertheless, for David's sake did the Lord his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem: 5 Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. 6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. 7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. 8 And Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. 9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, reigned Asa over Judah. 10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. 11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father. 12 And he took away the Sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. 13 And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron. 14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless, Asa his heart was perfect with the Lord all his days. 15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, unto the house of the Lord, silver and gold, and vessels. 16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: And king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying, 19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: Behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. 20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. 21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. 22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah, (none was exempted) and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded, and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. 23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless, in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. 24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead. 25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel, in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years. 26 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin. 27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belongeth to the Philistines (for Nadab, and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon) 28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. 29 And it came to pass when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam, he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the Lord, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite: 30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the Lord God of Israel to anger. 31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years. 34 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

And turned not aside from any Thing that he commanded him all the Days of his Life, save only in the Matter of Uriah the Hittite] This and the like Phrases, are not to be understood as exclusive of every sinful Action, but only of sinful Course or State, or of an habitual or continued Apostasy from God, or from his Ways, as the very Phrase of turning aside from God, or from his Commands, doth constantly imply, as appears from Exod. xxxii. 8. Deut. ix. 12, 16, &c. And thus it is most true. For David's other Sins were either sudden and transient Acts, proceeding from human Infirmity, and extraordinary Temptations, and soon repented of, and blotted out, as in the Cases of Nabal and Achish; or, Mistake of his Judgment, which was not fully convinced of the Sinfulness of such Action, as in other Cases that might be alledged; whereas that which concerned Uriah's Wife, was a designed and studied Sin, long continued in, defended with a Succession of other Sins, presumptuous and scandalous to his Government, and to the true Religion, which he so eminently professed.

But the High Places were not removed] This seems to be contradicted by a Passage in 2 Chron. xiv. 3. where we are told, that Asa took away the Altars of the strange Gods, and the high Places: But for the right underunderſtanding and reconciling of this, we may obſerve, that there were two Kinds of high Places, the one tolerated for religious Purpoſes, the other abominable from their firſt Inſtitution; the one frequented by devout Worſhippers, the other made the Receptacle of the wicked and idolatrous only. Now theſe were the Altars, and high Places which Aſa took away, even where the People ſacrificed to ſtrange Gods; but thoſe where God alone was worſhipped, had obtained ſo long, and were looked upon with ſo ſacred a Veneration, that, for Fear of giving a general Offence, (tho' he knew they were contrary to a divine Injunction) he durſt not adventure to aboliſh them. The Truth is, theſe high Places were famous either for the Apparition of Angels, or ſome other miraculous Event; had either been Places of Abode for the Ark of the Lord, or ſuch, as ſome Prophet, or Patriarch of old had been accuſtomed to pray and ſacrifice in; and therefore they were looked upon as conſecrated to the Service of God; nor was there Strength enough in the Government, to overcome this inveterate Prejudice, till Hezekiah aroſe, who (to prevent the Calamities that were coming upon the Nation) had the Courage to effect a thorough Reformation. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

Ver. 1. THEN the word of the Lord came to Jehu the ſon of Hanani, againſt Baaſha, ſaying, 2 Foraſmuch as I exalted thee out of the duſt, and made thee prince over my people Iſrael, and thou haſt walked in the way of Jeroboam, and haſt made my people Iſrael to ſin, to provoke me to anger with their ſins: 3 Behold, I will take away the poſterity of Baaſha, and the poſterity of his houſe: and will make thy houſe like the houſe of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat. 4 Him that dieth of Baaſha in the city ſhall the dogs eat: and him that dieth of his in the fields, ſhall the fowls of the air eat. 5 Now the reſt of the acts of Baaſha, and what he did and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 6 So Baaſha ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 7 And alſo by the hand of the prophet Jehu the ſon of Hanani, came the word of the Lord againſt Baaſha, and againſt his houſe, even for all the evil that he did in the ſight of the Lord, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the houſe of Jeroboam, and becauſe he killed him. 8 In the twenty and ſixth year of Aſa king of Judah, began Elah the ſon of Baaſha to reign over Iſrael in Tirzah, two years. 9 And his ſervant Zimri, (captain of half his chariots) conſpired againſt him as he was in Tirzah, drinking himſelf drunk in the houſe of Arza ſteward of his houſe in Tirzah. 10 And Zimri went in and ſmote him, and killed him, in the twenty and ſeventh year of Aſa king of Judah, and reigned in his ſtead. 11 And it came to paſs when he began to reign, as ſoon as he ſat on his throne, that he ſlew all the houſe of Baaſha: he left him not one that piſſeth againſt a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. 12 Thus did Zimri deſtroy all the houſe of Baaſha, according to the word of the Lord, which he ſpake againſt Baaſha by Jehu the prophet; 13 For all the ſins of Baaſha, and the ſins of Elah his ſon, by which they ſinned, and by which they made Iſrael to ſin, in provoking the Lord God of Iſrael to anger with their vanities. 14 Now the reſt of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 15 In the twenty and ſeventh year of Aſa king of Judah, did Zimri reign ſeven days in Tirzah: and the people were encamped againſt Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philiſtines. 16 And the people that were encamped heard ſay, Zimri had conſpired, and hath alſo ſlain the king: wherefore all Iſrael made Omri the captain of the hoſt, king over Iſrael that day in the camp. 17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Iſrael with him, and they beſieged Tirzah. 18 And it came to paſs, when Zimri ſaw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the kings houſe, and burnt the kings houſe over him with fire, and died; 19 For his ſins which he ſinned in doing evil in the ſight of the Lord, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his ſins which he did, to make Iſrael ſin. 20 Now the reſt of the acts of Zimri, and his treaſon that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 21 Then were the people of Iſrael divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the ſon of Ginath to make him king; and half followed Omri. 22 But the people that followed Omri, prevailed againſt the people that followed Tibni the ſon of Ginath: ſo Tibni died, and Omri reigned. 23 In the thirty and one year of Aſa king of Judah, began Omri to reign over Iſrael twelve years: ſix years reigned he in Tirzah. 24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer, for two talents of ſilver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer owner of the hill, Samaria. 25 But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the Lord, and did worſe than all that were before him. 26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, and in his ſin wherewith he made Iſrael to ſin, to provoke the Lord God of Iſrael to anger with their vanities. 27 Now the reſt of the acts of Omri, which he did, and his might that he ſhewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 28 So Omri ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, and Ahab his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Aſa king of Judah, began Ahab the ſon of Omri to reign over Iſrael; and Ahab the ſon of Omri reigned over Iſrael in Samaria, twenty and two years. 30 And Ahab the ſon of Omri did evil in the ſight of the Lord, above all that were before him. 31 And it came to paſs, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat: that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and ſerved Baal, and worſhipped him. 32 And he reared up an altar for Baal, in the houſe of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. 33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the Lord God of Iſrael to anger, than all the kings of Iſrael that were before him. 34 In his days did Hiel the Beth elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof thereof in Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

For as much as I exalted thee out of the Dust] The only Difficulty here is, how Baasha's Exaltation to the Kingdom of Israel, can be ascribed to God, when it is manifest that he got it by his own Treachery and Cruelty. But to this it may here plied, that tho' the Manner of invading the Kingdom was from himself, and his own wicked Heart; yet the Translation of the Kingdom from Nadab to Baasha (simply considered) was from God, who, by his Decree and Providence ordered it, and disposed of all Occasions, and the Hearts of all the Soldiers and People so, that Baasha should have Opportunity of executing his Judgments upon Nadab, and such Success thereupon, as should procure him a present and quiet Possession of the Kingdom. So that his Accession to the Kingdom was from the divine Decree, but the Form and Manner of his Accession was from himself, from his own Ambition and Covetousness; and, as it was wicked and cruel, is therefore charged upon him as a wilful Murther, Ver. 7. Pool's Annot.

In the twenty and sixth Year of Asa, King of Judah, began Elah, the Son of Baasha, to reign] And yet Baasha's Expedition against Asa, in order to build Ramah, is said to be in the six and thirtieth Year of the Reign of Asa, 2 Chron. xvi. 1. Now, to reconcile this, says Howel, some would have that six and thirtieth Year to relate, not to Asa's Reign, but to the Date of the Kingdom of Judah from the Division of the Kingdom of Israel, at Rehoboam's coming to the Crown, and (in Fact) to be no more than the fourteenth Year of the Reign of Asa. But that cannot be, since this Expedition of Baasha was some Time after he had defeated the King of Ethiopia, or Arabia, and yet this Defeat happened in the fifteenth Year of King Asa's Reign: so that the six and thirtieth Year of Baasha's going up to build Ramah, can, by no good Computation, be the fourteenth Year of King Asa's Reign. And therefore (without more to do) we may, with Josephus, and others, adventure to say, that the Occasion of this Difference proceeds from the Mistake of some Transcribers.

And called the Name of the City which he built, after the Name of Shemer, Owner of the Hill, Samaria] It is somewhat wonderful, that, when Omri bought this Place of Shemer, whereon he intended to build a City, he did not call it by his own Name, unless we may suppose, that, when Shemer sold it, he let him have the greater Bargain of it, upon Condition that it should be continued in its first Owner's Name. However this be, 'tis certain, that as Samaria was first erected in the Midst of the Tribe of Ephraim, on a beautiful and pleasant Hill, it soon became the regal and capital City of the Kingdom of Israel; nor did its Kings omit any Thing, to make it as strong, as fine, and as rich as possible. What Fate it underwent by Benhadad King of Syria; by Salmanassar, King of Assyria; and by one of the Maccabees Family; by Herod the Great, who rebuilt and beautified it; by Augustus Cæsar, and by the Emperor Adrian, under whom it last fell, we shall see, in a great Measure, in the Course of this History. It is conjectured by Bochart (who traced the Ruins of it) to have been once larger than Jerusalem, but now it consists of nothing but a few Cottages and Convents, inhabited by some Greek Monks. Wells's Geogr. of the *O. CHAP. XVII.

Elijah foretels a great Drought; is fed by Ravens; is relieved by a Widow with Meal and Oil, which never fail not; and raises her Son from Death.

1 AND Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. 2 And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, 3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thy self by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. 4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. 5 So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan. 6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. 7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. 8 And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, 9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee. 10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the city, behold the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. 11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand. 12 And she said, As the Lord thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oyl in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in, and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. 13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son. 14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oyl fail, until the day that the Lord sendeth rain upon the earth. 15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house did eat many days. 16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oyl fail, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Elijah. 17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick, and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. 18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me, to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? 19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. 20 And he cried unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow, with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? 21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again. 22 And the Lord heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. 23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth. 24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in thy mouth is truth.

The Word of the Lord came to Elijah in the third Year] St. James says, that, according to the Prayer of Elias, it rained not on the Earth for the Space of three Years and six Months. Our blessed Saviour makes Mention of the same Compass of Time, Luke iv. 25. and yet neither of these is contradictory to what the sacred History here tells us. For, we must remember, that, as Egypt had usually no Rain, but was watered by the River Nile; so the Land of Canaan had generally none, except twice a Year, which they called the early and the latter Rain: The former of these was in the Month Nisan, which answers to our March; and the other in the Month Marheshoan, which answers to our October. Now, at the Beginning of the Drought, Ahab might very probably impute the Want of Rain to natural Causes, but when, after six Months, neither the former, nor the latter Rain fell in their Season, he then began to be enraged at Elijah, as the Cause of the national Judgment, and forced him, at God's Command, to save his Life by Flight: And from that Time, the three Years in the Historian are to be computed, tho' from the first Notice, which Elijah gave Ahab of the approaching Calamity, to the Expiration of it, were certainly three Years and an half. This Calamity is said to have been procured by Elijah's Prayers, but we must not therefore imagine, that his Prayers were spiteful and malicious, but necessary, rather, and charitable to the Offenders; that, by the sharp and long Affliction, which they produced, God's Honour, and the Truth of his Word and Threatnings (which were now universally contemned) might be vindicated; and that the Israelites (whose present Impunity had hardened them in Idolatry) might hereby be awakened to see their Wickedness, their Dependance upon God, and the Necessity of their returning to his Religion and Worship.

Hide thyself by the Brook Cherith] The Brook Cherith, and the Valley through which it runs, are both very near the River Jordan; but whether on the East or West Side of the River, is not so well agreed. Eusebius, or, at least, St. Jerom, places it beyond Jordan, and so on the East Side of it; but others generally agree in placing it on the West Side, because God, in sending away Elijah, says to him, Get thee hence, and turn thee Eastward, and hide thyself by the Brook Cherith, that is before Jordan, Ver. 3. where the Expression turn thee Eastward, seems to imply, that Elijah was on the West Side of Jordan; for, had he been on the East Side, then to have gone to the Brook which ran, on that Side, into Jordan, would have been to have turned Westward.

And the Ravens brought him Bread and Flesh] Ravens are Birds of Prey, and therefore, one would think, very improper Creatures to feed Elijah. But, tho' we should allow, that they were Creatures voracious, and unnatural to their young ones, yet, the more unfit Instruments they seemed to be, the more they magnified the Almighty Power of Him, who controuled their natural Appetites, while he employed them: And if there was a moral Instruction in it, as St. Chrysostom fancies, the more they might mollify the Prophet's Heart towards the deluded Israelites, by seeing those very Creatures that were cruel to their young, kind to him. Tho' we should allow, that they were Creatures legally unclean, yet (as it was for the Meat, and not for the Touch, that they were accounted so) this we must grant was a Case extraordinary, wherein the Ceremonial Law was over-ruled by Necessity, and by the Lawgiver's Dispensation. There is this to be said, however, in the Defence of God's Choice of Ravens for this Purpose, viz. that as they are solitary Birds, and delight to live about Brooks of Water; so they are accustomed to seek out for Provisions, and to carry them to the Place of their Abode: Upon which Account they were no improper Creatures for God to employ upon this Service; especially, if what St. Jerom says may be credited, viz. that one of these Birds brought Paul the first Hermit, half a Loaf every Day, and when St. Anthony came to visit him, it brought him a whole one, to answer the Wants of these two Soldiers of Jesus Christ, as he words it; but whence it had this, as well as whence Elijah's Ravens had their Supply, we pretend not to tell; and had rather acknowledge our Ignorance in such-like Speculations, than take up with uncertain, and sometimes absurd Conjectures.

Arise, get thee to Zarephath] Zarephath, or as it is called in the New Testament, Sarepta, was a Town which lay between Tyre and Sidon, but somewhat nearer to the latter. Mr. Maundrel (in his Journey from Aleppo) observes, that it is the same with what is now called Sarphan, distant about three Hours Travel from Sidon, in the Way to Tyre. Whatever it was formerly, the same Author tells us, that at present it consists of no more than a few Houses, on the Tops of the Mountains, about half a Mile from the Sea; tho' there is Reason to believe, that the chief Part of the City stood below, in a Space between the Hills and the Sea, because there are still Ruins of a considerable Extent.

CHAP. XVIII.

Elijah is sent to Ahab; Obadiah brings Ahab to him; he convinces Baal's Prophets by Fire from Heaven; he obtains Rain.

Ver. 1. AND it came to pass after many days, that the word of the Lord came unto Elijah in the third year, saying, Go shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth. 2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. and there was a sore famine in Samaria. 3 And Ahab called Obadiah which was the governor of his house: (now Obadiah feared the Lord greatly: 4 For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) 5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we loose not all the beasts. 6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. 7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah? 8 And he answered him, I am: go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. 9 And what he said, What have I sinned, that thou would deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? 10 As the Lord thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not. 11 And now thou sayest, Go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. 12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come, and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the Lord from my youth. 13 Was it not told my lord, what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the Lord? how I hid an hundred men of the Lords prophets, by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? 14 And now thou sayest, Go tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me. 15 And Elijah said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew my self unto him to day. 16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah. 17 And it came to pass when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? 18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but thou and thy fathers house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim. 19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebels table. 20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. 21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. 22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only remain a prophet of the Lord; but Baals prophets are four hundred and fifty men. 23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks, and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: 24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken. 25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for your selves, and dress it, first; for ye are many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under. 26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even unto noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leapt upon the altar which was made. 27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god, either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is on a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth and must be awaked. 28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancers, till the blood gushed out upon them. 29 And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice; that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded. 30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him: and he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken down. 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, Israel shall be thy name: 32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the Lord: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed. 33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. 34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time: And they did it the third time. 35 And the water ran round about the altar, and he filled the trench also with water. 36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day, that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word. 37 Hear me, O Lord, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the Lord God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. 38 Then the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. 39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The Lord, he is the God; the Lord, he is the God. 40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not one of them escape. And they took them, and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there. 41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink, for there is a sound of abundance of rain. 42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink, and Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, 43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look towards the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times. 44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a mans hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not. 45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. 46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah; and he girded up his loyns, and ran before Ahab, to the entrance of Jezreel.

I, even I only remain a Prophet of the Lord] But were there not, at the same Time, 100 Prophets who lay concealed by Obadiah in a Cave? But we can hardly conceive, that all these Prophets were Men actually inspired, and invested with a prophetick Character, but such only as were Disciples of the Prophets, and Candidates for that Order. For it is not unlikely, that even to Jezebel's Time, there were remaining in Israel Schools of the Prophets, which she endeavoured to destroy, as well as those that were bred up in them, that there might none be left to instruct the People in the true Religion. These she certainly looked upon as Enemies to her Idolatry, and might possibly persuade her Husband, that they were disaffected to his Government, and Favourers of the Kings of Judah, because they worshipped the same God, and thought that the proper Place of his Worship was at Jerusalem: And therefore the greater was the Piety and Courage of Obadiah, in rescuing so many Victims from the Hands of this furious and enraged Woman.

And he repaired the Altar of the Lord] This Altar was certainly one of those which was built in the Time of the Judges, and first Kings of Israel; when, for Want of a fixed Place of Worship, such Structures were permitted. Both Tacitus and Suetonius speak of the God of Carmel, whom Vespasian went to consult, when he was in Judea. His Priest Basilides promised him Success in his Undertakings, but there was neither Temple nor Statue upon the Mountain, and but one Altar, plain, but very venerable for its Antiquity. Some are of Opinion, that this Basilides was a Jew, and Priest of the most High God; but it seems most reasonable that he was a Pagan Priest, and probably the same who met Vespasian in the Temple of Serapis in Egypt. However this be, the Altar of Carmel seems to have its Original from this Altar of the true God, which the antient Hebrews first erected, and Elijah afterwards repaired.

CHAP. XIX.

Elijah, threatened by Jezebel, retires to Beerſheba; is comforted by an Angel. Being at Horeb, he utters his Complaint, and is ſtrengthened by a ſpecial Revelation from God. Is ſent to anoint Hazael, Jehu, and Eliſha. Elijah caſts his Mantle upon Eliſha; upon which he leaves his Oxen and follows him.

Ver. 1. AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal, how he had ſlain all the prophets with the ſword. 2 Then Jezebel ſent a meſſenger unto Elijah, ſaying, So let the gods do to me, and more alſo, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them, by to morrow about this time. 3 And when he ſaw that, he aroſe and went for his life, and came to Beerſheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his ſervant there. 4 But he himſelf went a days journey into the wilderneſs, and came and ſat down under a juniper-tree: and he requeſted for himſelf that he might die, and ſaid, It is enough now, O Lord, take away my life: for I am not better than my fathers. 5 And as he lay and ſlept under a juniper-tree, behold then, an angel touched him, And ſaid unto him, Ariſe and eat. 6 And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruſe of water at his head: and he did eat and drink, and laid him down again. 7 And the angel of the Lord came again the ſecond time, and touched him, and ſaid, Ariſe and eat, becauſe thy journey is too great for thee. 8 And he aroſe, and did eat and drink, and went in the ſtrength of that meat forty days and forty nights, unto Horeb the mount of God. 9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and he ſaid unto him, What doeſt thou here, Elijah? 10 And he ſaid, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hoſts: for the children of Iſrael have forſaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and ſlain thy prophets with the ſword; and I, even I only am left, and they ſeek my life to take it away. 11 And he ſaid, Go forth, and ſtand upon the mount before the Lord. And behold the Lord paſſed by, and a great and ſtrong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind: and after the wind an earth-quake; but the Lord was not in the earth-quake: 12 And after the earth-quake a fire; but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire a ſtill ſmall voice. 13 And it was ſo, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and ſtood in the entring in of the cave: and behold, there came a voice unto him, and ſaid, What doeſt thou here, Elijah? 14 And he ſaid, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hoſts: becauſe the children of Iſrael have forſaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and ſlain thy prophets with the ſword; and I, even I only, am left, and they ſeek my life, to take it away. 15 And the Lord ſaid unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderneſs of Damaſcus: and when thou comeſt, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria. 16 And Jehu the ſon of Nimſhi ſhalt thou anoint to be king over Iſrael: and Eliſha the ſon of Shaphat of Abel-meholah, ſhalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. 17 And it ſhall come to paſs, that him that eſcapeth the ſword of Hazael, ſhall Jehu ſlay: and him that eſcapeth from the ſword of Jehu, ſhall Eliſha ſlay. 18 Yet I have left me ſeven thouſand in Iſrael, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kiſſed him. 19 So he departed thence, and found Eliſha the ſon of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah paſſed by him, and caſt his mantle upon him. 20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and ſaid, Let me, I pray thee, kiſs my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he ſaid unto him, Go back again; for what have I done to thee? 21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and ſlew them, and boiled their fleſh with the inſtruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he aroſe, and went after Elijah, and miniſtred unto him.

And he aroſe, and did eat and drink, and went in the Strength of that Meat forty Days and forty Nights. The Jews, ſays Stackhouſe, have made a Compariſon between Elijah and Moſes, in ſeveral Particulars, and given Moſes the Preference, eſpecially in the Matter of the forty Days Faſt: For Elijah, they ſuppoſe, did every Day eat and drink, when he happened to find any Suſtenance in the Wilderneſs; whereas, Moſes had nothing to ſupport him, but only the miraculous Power of God. The Text, however, is far from intimating that Elijah eat any Thing, but what the Angel firſt brought him: For he went in the Strength of that Meat forty Days and forty Nights, unto Horeb the Mount of God; whereas had he taken any Nouriſhment by the Way, it had not been by the Strength of that Food that he performed that Journey.

What that Food was, the Scripture has taken Care to inform us, viz. that it was ſimple Bread and Water (to make the Miracle more remarkable) but ſuch as was of far greater Virtue, and more durable than ordinary, and ſuch as gave Life and Vigour, far ſurpaſſing the Effects of any other Nouriſhment. Whether Angels in the celeſtial State, are purely ſpiritual, or cloathed with ſome material Form, but much more ſubtil and refined than any we know here below, is a Queſtion much agitated among the Schools. But if, for the preſent, we ſhould allow the Affirmative, the Food of Angels, and what may be called the Suſtenance of the glorious, but finite Beings, need not be accounted altogether an Allegory. It is certain, that upon their Appearance, in human Shape, they did frequently eat the common Food of Men; that our bleſſed Saviour after the Aſſumption of his glorious Body, eat Part of a broiled Fiſh, and of an Honey-comb, Luke xxiv. 42. Nor may we forget, upon this Occaſion, his Words at the Paſchal Supper, I will not henceforth drink of the Vine, until that Day, that I drink it new with you, in my Father's Kingdom, Matt. xxvi. 29. All which may be enough to countenance the Opinion, that the Food which was brought to Elijah at this Time, was of a celeſtial Growth and Virtue, whereby Creatures of ſuperior Excellency, may poſſibly, at certain Periods, have their Natures renewed, (as the Tree of Life, in the State of Paradiſe, is ſuppoſed to have been intended for that Purpoſe) and to live on to eternal Ages. No wonder then, that Food of ſuch rare Quality, as did deſerve the Delegation of an Angel from Heaven to bring it, ſhould have all the Virtue, and all the Efficacy, that we read of.

But, waving this Speculation, we may ſuppoſe the Repaſt to have been nothing more than common Bread and Water; yet, who can doubt, but that God, either by retarding the Faculties of Concoction and Perſpiration, or by preſerving the Spirits and Juices from ſpation, might make its Strength and Nouriſhment ſubſiſt for the Time ſpecified? It is but God's ſpeaking the Word in this Caſe, and the Thing is done; the leaſt Beck of his Will can make the ſame Meal, that uſually ſerves us for four and twenty Hours, ſupport us for forty Days, and much longer, if he pleaſes. That Meat of any Kind ſhould ſuſtain us for four and twenty Years (if rightly conſidered) is a Miracle; and that the like Proportion ſhould do it for the Space of forty Days is ſtill but a Miracle, and with the ſame Facility that God does the one, he can do the other. So true is that Obſervation, which our bleſſed Saviour borrows from Moſes, Man doth not live by Bread alone, but by every Word that proceedeth out of the Mouth of God, Deut. viii. 3. Matt. iv. 4.

And after the Fire, a ſtill ſmall Voice. And it was ſo, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his Face in a Mantle] Elijah being now come to the ſame Place, where God had delivered the Law to his Servant Moſes, God was minded to communicate the ſame Favour to his Servant the Prophet, viz. to unveil his Majeſty to him, and give him the Signal of his immediate Preſence; the Deſcription of which is very remarkable, Ver. 11, &c. And various are the Meditations, which this Appearance of the Divine Majeſty has ſuggeſted to Interpreters. The Generality of them have looked upon this as a Figure of the Goſpel Diſpenſation, which came, not in ſo terrible a Manner as the Law did, with Storms, Thunders, Lightnings, and Earthquakes, Exod. xix. 16. but with great Lenity and Sweetneſs, wherein God ſpeaks to us by his Son, who makes Uſe of no other but gentle Arguments, and ſoft Perſuaſions. But, if we take this to be a ſymbolical Admonition, according to the Circumſtances he was then in, we may reaſonably ſuppoſe, that herein God intended to ſhew him, that, tho' he had all the Elements ready armed at his Command to deſtroy the Idolaters, if he ceaſed to make uſe of them, yet he had rather attain his End by Patience, and Tenderneſs, and Long-ſuffering (ſignified by that ſmall ſtill Voice, wherein the Deity exhibited himſelf) and, conſequently, that the Prophet ſhould hereby be incited to imitate him, by ſtifling that paſſionate Zeal, to which his natural Complexion did but too much incline him.

Him that eſcapeth the Sword of Hazael, ſhall Jehu ſlay; and him that eſcapeth from the Sword of Jehu, ſhall Eliſha ſlay] It is eaſy to obſerve, that theſe Things are not mentioned according to order of Time wherein they fell out, (for Eliſha was Prophet before Hazael was King, and Hazael was King before Jehu) but they are ſpoken of according to the Decree of God, who (as Abarbinel obſerves) appointed every one to execute that, which was proper for him to do. But the plain Senſe of the Words ſeems to be this: That God, in his Providence, had appointed three Perſons to puniſh the Iſraelites according to their Deſerts; and that one or other of theſe ſhould infallibly execute his Judgments upon them. The only Difficulty is, how the Prophet Eliſha can be ſaid to ſlay, when, by Profeſſion, he was a pacifick Man, and never engaged in War. But when we conſider the two and forty Children, which he deſtroyed, beſides others, whom, upon the like Occaſion, he might deſtroy; the ſore Famine, which, by God's Appointment, he ſent upon the Iſraelites, 2 Kings vi. 31. and the many cutting Prophecies and Comminations (called in Scripture, the Sword of the Lord, Iſa. xlix. 2. and Rev. i. 16.) which he denounced againſt them, and were fulfilled, we ſhall find Reaſon enough to juſtify the Expreſſion.

CHAP. XX.

Ben-hadad beſieges Samaria. The Syrians, by the Direction of a Prophet, are twice beaten. The Prophet by a Parable, reproves Ahab, and denounces Judgments againſt him.

1. AND Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his hoſt together, and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horſes, and chariots: and he went up and beſieged Samaria, and warred againſt it. 2 And he ſent meſſengers to Ahab king of Iſrael into the city, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith Ben-hadad, 3 Thy ſilver and thy gold is mine, thy wives alſo and thy children, even the goodlieſt are mine. 4 And the king of Iſrael anſwered and ſaid, My lord, O king, according to thy ſaying, I am thine, and all that I have. 5 And the meſſengers came again, and ſaid, Thus ſpeaketh Ben-hadad, ſaying, Although I have ſent unto thee, ſaying, Thou ſhalt deliver me thy ſilver and thy gold, and thy wives and thy children: 6 Yet I will ſend my ſervants unto thee, to morrow about this time, and they ſhall ſearch thine houſe, and the houſes of thy ſervants; and it ſhall be, that whatſoever is pleaſant in thine eyes, they ſhall put it in their hand, and take it away. 7 Then the king of Iſrael called all the elders of the land, and ſaid, Mark, I pray you, and ſee how this man ſeeketh miſchief: for he ſent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my ſilver, and for my gold, and I denied him not. 8 And all the elders, and all the people ſaid unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor conſent. 9 Wherefore he ſaid unto the meſſengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didſt ſend for to thy ſervant at the firſt, I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the meſſengers departed, and brought him word again. 10 And Ben-hadad ſent unto him, and ſaid, The gods do ſo unto me and more alſo, if the duſt of Samaria ſhall ſuffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me. 11 And the king of Iſrael anſwered and ſaid, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harneſs, boaſt himſelf, as he that putteth it off. 12 And it came to paſs, when Ben-hadad heard this meſſage (as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavillions) that he ſaid unto his ſervants, ſet your ſelves in aray. And they ſet themſelves in aray againſt the city. 13 And behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Iſrael, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, Haſt thou ſeen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day, and thou ſhalt know that I am the Lord. 14 And Ahab ſaid, By whom? And he ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he ſaid, Who ſhall order the battel? And he anſwered, Thou. 15 Then he numbred the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbred all the people, even all the children of Iſrael, being ſeven thouſand. 16 And they went out at noon: but Ben-hadad was drinking himſelf drunk in the pavillions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him. 17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces, went out firſt, and Ben-hadad ſent out, and they told him, ſaying, There are men come out of Samaria. 18 And he ſaid, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive. 19 So theſe young men of the princes of the provinces, came out of the city, and the army which followed them. 20 And they ſlew every one his man: and the Syrians fled, and Iſrael purſued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria eſcaped on an horſe, with the horſe-men. 21 And the king of Iſrael went out, and ſmote the horſes and chariots, and ſlew the Syrians with a great ſlaughter. 22 And the prophet came to the king of Iſrael, and ſaid unto him, Go ſtrengthen thy ſelf, and mark and ſee what thou doeſt: for at the return of the year, the king of Syria will come up againſt thee. 23 And the ſervants of the king of Syria ſaid unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills, therefore they were ſtronger than we: but let us fight againſt them in the plain, and ſurely we ſhall be ſtronger than they. 24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms. 25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou haſt loſt, horſe for horſe, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight againſt them in the plain, and ſurely we ſhall be ſtronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did ſo. 26 And it came to paſs at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbred the Syrians, and went up to Aphek to fight againſt Iſrael. 27 And the children of Iſrael were numbred, and were all preſent and went againſt them: and the children of Iſrael pitched before them, like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. 28 And there came a man of God, and ſpake unto the king of Iſrael, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, Becauſe the Syrians have ſaid, the Lord is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye ſhall know that I am the Lord. 29 And they pitched one over againſt the other ſeven days; and ſo it was, that in the ſeventh day the battle was joyned: and the children of Iſrael ſlew of the Syrians an hundred thouſand footmen in one day. 30 But the reſt fled to Aphek, into the city: and there a wall fell upon twenty and ſeven thouſand of the men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city into an inner chamber. 31 And his ſervants ſaid unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the houſe of Iſrael are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put ſackcloth on our loyns, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Iſrael; peradventure he will ſave thy life. 32 So they girded ſackcloth on their loyns, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Iſrael, and ſaid, Thy ſervant Ben-hadad ſaith, I pray thee, let me live. And he ſaid, Is he yet alive? he is my brother. 33 Now the men did diligently obſerve whether any thing would come from him, and did haſtily catch it: and they ſaid, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he ſaid, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he cauſed him to come up into the chariot. 34 And Ben-hadad ſaid unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father, I will reſtore, and thou ſhalt make ſtreets for thee in Damaſcus, as my father made in Samaria. Then ſaid Ahab, I will ſend thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and ſent him away. 35 And a certain man of the ſons of the prophets, ſaid unto his neighbour in the word of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refuſed to ſmite him. 36 Then ſaid he unto him, Becauſe thou haſt not obeyed the voice of the Lord, behold, as ſoon as thou art departed from me, a lion ſhall ſlay thee. And as ſoon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and ſlew him. 37 Then he found another man, and ſaid, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man ſmote him, ſo that in ſmiting he wounded him. 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and diſguiſed himſelf with aſhes upon his face. 39 And as the king paſſed by, he cried unto the king; and he ſaid, Thy ſervant went out into the midſt of the battle, and behold, a man turned aſide, and brought a man unto me, and ſaid, Keep this man: if by any means he be miſſing, then ſhall thy life be for his life, or elſe thou ſhalt pay a talent of ſilver. 40 And as thy ſervant was buſie here and there, he was gone. And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto him, So ſhall thy judgment be, thy ſelf haſt decided it. 41 And he haſted and took the aſhes away from his face, and the king of Iſrael diſcerned him that he was of the prophets. 42 And he ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Becauſe thou haſt let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter deſtruction, therefore thy life ſhall go for his life, and thy people for his people. 43 And the king of Iſrael went to his houſe heavy and diſpleaſed, and came to Samaria.

Even by the young Men of the Princes of the Provinces] The Hebrew Word has ſome Ambiguity in it, and may ſignify either the Sons, or the Pages of the Princes of the Provinces, either young Noblemen themſelves or their Father's Pages, who were equally brought up delicately, and quite unaccuſtomed to War. It was by theſe young Men, and not by old experienced Officers, that this Battle was to be won, that thereby it might appear, that Victory was wholly owing to God's gracious and powerful Providence, and not to the Valour, or Fitneſs of the Inſtruments.

Their Gods are Gods of the Hills, therefore they were ſtronger than we] That there were many Gods, who had each their particular Charge and Juriſdiction; that ſome preſided over whole Countries, whilſt others had but particular Places under their Tuition and Government, and were ſome of them Gods of the Woods, others of the Rivers, and others of the Mountains, was plainly the Doctrine of all heathen Nations. Pan was reckoned the God of the Mountains; and, in like Manner, the Syrians might have a Conceit, that the God of Iſrael was the God of the Mountains, becauſe Canaan, they ſaw, was a mountainous Land; the Iſraelites delighted to ſacrifice in High Places; their Law they might have heard, was given on the Top of a Mountain; their Temple ſtood on a famous Eminence; and alſo Samaria, where they had ſo lately received a ſignal Defeat: For their farther Notion was, that the Gods of the Mountains had a Power to inject a panic Fear into any Army, whenever they pleaſed. Nor did that they did not only aſſiſt with their Influence, but actually engage themſelves in Battle for their Favourites, is a Sentiment as old as Homer.

Benhadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek] Aphek, or Aphaca, (as it is called by prophane Authors) was ſituated in Libanus, upon the River Adonis, between Heliopolis and Biblos; and, in all Probability, the ſame that Paul Lucas, in his Voyage du Levant, ſpeaks of, as ſwallowed up in a Lake of Mount Libanus, about nine Miles in Circumference, wherein there are ſeveral Houſes, all entire, to be ſeen under Water. The Soil about this Place (as the Antients tell us) is very bituminous, which ſeems to confirm their Opinion, who think that ſubterraneous Fire conſumed the ſolid Subſtance of the Earth, whereon the City ſtood, ſo that it ſubſided, and ſunk at once, and a Lake was ſoon formed in its Place.

And thou ſhalt make thee Streets in Damaſcus] Some ſuppoſe, that theſe Streets were Courts of Judicature, where Ahab was to maintain a Juriſdiction over Benhadad's Subjects; others think, that they were Market-places, where Commodities were ſold, and Toll of them paid to Ahab. But the moſt general nion is, that they were Citadels, or Fortifications, to be a Bridle and Reſtraint upon this chief City of the Syrians, that they might make no new Irruptions into the Land of Iſrael: A great Privilege! But what Benhadad, when he found himſelf at Liberty, refuſed to comply with.

CHAP. XXI.

Ahab covets Naboth's Vineyard, and is denied; Naboth, by Jezebel's Contrivance, is condemned for Blaſphemy, and ſtoned, and Ahab poſſeſſes the Vineyard. Elijah denounces Judgment againſt Ahab and Jezebel; he repenting, God defers his Judgment.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs after theſe things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. 2 And Ahab ſpake unto Naboth, ſaying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, becauſe it is near unto my houſe, and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it: or if it ſeem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money. 3 And Naboth ſaid to Ahab, The Lord forbid it me, that I ſhould give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee. 4 And Ahab came into his houſe, heavy and diſpleaſed, becauſe of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had ſpoken to him: for he had ſaid, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers: and he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. 5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and ſaid unto him, Why is thy ſpirit ſo ſad, that thou eateſt no bread? 6 And he ſaid unto her, Becauſe I ſpake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and ſaid unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or elſe if it pleaſe thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he anſwered, I will not give thee my vineyard. 7 And Jezebel his wife ſaid unto him, Doſt thou now govern the kingdom of Iſrael? riſe, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. 8 So ſhe wrote letters in Ahabs name, and ſealed them with his ſeal, and ſent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city dwelling with Naboth. 9 And ſhe wrote in the letters, ſaying, Proclaim a faſt, and ſet Naboth on high among the people: 10 And ſet two men, ſons of Belial, before him, to bear witneſs againſt him, ſaying, Thou didſt blaſpheme God and the king: and then carry him out, and ſtone him that he may die. 11 And the men of his city, even the elders, and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had ſent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which ſhe had ſent unto them. 12 They proclaimed a faſt, and ſet Naboth on high among the people. 13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and ſat before him: and the men of Belial witneſſed againſt him, even againſt Naboth, in the preſence of the people, ſaying, Naboth did blaſpheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and ſtoned him with ſtones, that he died. 14 Then they ſent to Jezebel, ſaying, Naboth is ſtoned and is dead. 15 And it came to paſs when Jezebel heard that Naboth was ſtoned, and was dead, that Jezebel ſaid to Ahab, Ariſe, take poſſeſſion of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refuſed to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead. 16 And it came to paſs when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab roſe up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take poſſeſſion of it. 17 And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tiſhbite, ſaying, 18 Ariſe, go down to meet Ahab king of Iſrael, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to poſſeſs it. 19 And thou ſhalt ſpeak unto him, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, Haſt thou killed, and alſo taken poſſeſſion? And thou ſhalt ſpeak unto him, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, ſhall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. 20 And Ahab ſaid to Elijah, Haſt thou found me, O mine enemy? And he anſwered, I have found thee: becauſe thou haſt ſold thy ſelf to work evil in the ſight of the Lord. 21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy poſterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that piſſeth againſt the wall, and him that is ſhut up, and left in Iſrael. 22 And will make thine houſe like the houſe of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, and like the houſe of Baaſha the ſon of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou haſt provoked me to anger, and made Iſrael to ſin. 23 And of Jezebel alſo ſpake the Lord, ſaying, The dogs ſhall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. 24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city, the dogs ſhall eat: and him that dieth in the field, ſhall the fowls of the air eat. 25 But there was none like unto Ahab, which did ſell himſelf to work wickedneſs in the ſight of the Lord, whom Jezebel his wife ſtirred up. 26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael. 27 And it came to paſs when Ahab heard thoſe words, that he rent his clothes, and put ſackcloth upon his fleſh, and faſted, and lay in ſackcloth, and went ſoftly. 28 And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tiſhbite, ſaying, 29 Seeſt thou how Ahab humbleth himſelf before me? becauſe he humbleth himſelf before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his ſons days will I bring the evil upon his houſe.

And ſhe wrote in the Letters, Proclaim a Faſt] It was always a cuſtomary Thing, upon the Approach of any great Calamity, or the Apprehenſion of any national Judgment, to proclaim a Faſt; and Jezebel ordered ſuch a Faſt to be obſerved in Jezreel, the better to conceal her Deſign againſt Naboth. For, by this Means, ſhe intimated to the Jezreelites, that they had ſome accurſed Thing among them, which was ready to draw down the Vengeance of God upon their City; and that therefore it was their Buſineſs to enquire into all thoſe Sins, which provoked God to Anger againſt them, and to purge them out effectually. This gave the Elders of the City an Occaſion to convene an Aſſembly, and the falſe Witneſſes a fair Opportunity to accuſe Naboth before them.

Thou didſt blaſpheme God and the King] By the Law of Moſes it was Death to blaſpheme God, Levit. xxiv. 16. and by Cuſtom it was Death to revile the King, Exod. xxii. 28. Now, in Order to make ſure Work, the Evidences (as they were inſtructed) accuſed Naboth of both theſe Crimes, that the People might be the better ſatisfied to ſee him ſtoned. There is this Difference, however, to be obſerved between theſe two Crimes, that if a Man had only blaſphemed God, he was to be tried by the great Court at Jeruſalem (as the the Hebrew Doctors tell us) and his Goods came to his Heirs; whereas, when a Man was executed for Treason againſt the King, his Eſtate went to the Exchequer, and was forfeited to the King, againſt whom the Offence was committed: And for this Reaſon it was, that they accuſed Naboth of this Crime likewiſe, that his Eſtate might be confiſcated, and Ahab, by that Means, get Poſſeſſion of his Vineyard.

Thus ſaith the Lord, In the Place where Dogs licked the Blood of Naboth, ſhall Dogs lick thy Blood, even thine] Yet, in the next Chapter, Ver. 38. it is ſaid, that this happened at the Pool of Samaria. There is a great Diſpute among the Learned, as to the Accompliſhment of this Prophecy. At firſt it was, no doubt, intended to be literally fulfilled, but upon Ahab's Repentance, (as we find below) the Puniſhment was transferred from him to his Son Jehoram, in whom it was actually accompliſhed; for his dead Body was caſt into the Portion of the Field of Naboth the Jezreelite, for the Dogs to devour, 2 Kings ix. 25. Since Ahab's Blood therefore was licked by Dogs, not at Jezreel, but at Samaria, it ſeems neceſſary that we ſhould underſtand the Hebrew Word, which our Tranſlation renders, in the Place where, not as denoting the Place, but the Manner, in which the Thing was done; and ſo the Senſe of the Paſſage will be, That as Dogs licked, or in like Manner as Dogs licked Naboth's Blood, even ſo ſhall they lick thine, obſerve what I ſay, even thine.

CHAP. XXII.

Ahab, intending War againſt the Syrians, Micaiah diſſuades him from it, and is therefore impriſoned. Ahab is ſlain, and the Dogs lick his Blood; is ſucceeded by Ahaziah. Jehoſhaphat's good Reign; his Acts and Death; Jehoram ſucceeds him; Ahaziah's evil Reign.

Ver. 1. AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Iſrael. 2 And it came to paſs in the third year, that Jehoſhaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Iſrael. 3 (And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto his ſervants, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we be ſtill, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria) 4 And he ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battel to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoſhaphat ſaid to the king of Iſrael, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horſes as thy horſes. 5 And Jehoſhaphat ſaid unto him, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord to day. 6 Then the king of Iſrael gathered the prophets together about four hundred men, and ſaid unto them, Shall I go againſt Ramoth-gilead to battel, or ſhall I forbear? And they ſaid, Go up; for the Lord ſhall deliver it into the hand of the king. 7 And Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord beſides, that we might enquire of him? 8 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, There is yet one man (Micaiah the ſon of Imlah) by whom we may enquire of the Lord; but I hate him, for he doth not propheſie good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Let not the king ſay ſo. 9 Then the king of Iſrael called an officer, and ſaid, Haſten hither Micaiah the ſon of Imlah. 10 And the king of Iſrael, and Jehoſhaphat the king of Judah ſat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets propheſied before them. 11 And Zedekiah the ſon of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he ſaid, Thus ſaid the Lord, With theſe ſhalt thou puſh the Syrians until thou have conſumed them. 12 And all the prophets propheſied ſo, ſaying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and proſper: for the Lord ſhall deliver it into the kings hand. 13 And the meſſenger that was gone to call Micaiah, ſpake unto him, ſaying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and ſpeak that which is good. 14 And Micaiah ſaid, As the Lord liveth, what the Lord ſaith unto me, that will I ſpeak. 15 So he came to the king, and the king ſaid unto him, Micaiah, ſhall we go againſt Ramoth-gilead to battle, or ſhall we forbear? And he anſwered him, Go, and proſper: for the Lord ſhall deliver it into the hand of the king. 16 And the king ſaid unto him, How many times ſhall I adjure thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord? 17 And he ſaid, I ſaw all Iſrael ſcattered upon the hills, as ſheep that have not a ſhepherd: and the Lord ſaid, Theſe have no maſter, let them return every man to his houſe in peace. 18 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would propheſie not good concerning me, but evil? 19 And he ſaid, Hear thou therefore the word of the Lord: I ſaw the Lord ſitting on his throne, and all the hoſt of heaven ſtanding by him, on his right hand and on his left. 20 And the Lord ſaid, Who ſhall perſuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one ſaid on this manner, and another ſaid on that manner. 21 And there came forth a ſpirit, and ſtood before the Lord, and ſaid, I will perſuade him. 22 And the Lord ſaid unto him, Wherewith? And he ſaid, I will go forth, and I will be a lying ſpirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he ſaid, Thou ſhalt perſuade him, and prevail alſo: go forth, and do ſo. 23 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying ſpirit in the mouth of all theſe thy prophets, and the Lord hath ſpoken evil concerning thee. 24 But Zedekiah the ſon of Chenaanah went near, and ſmote Micaiah on the cheek, and ſaid, Which way went the ſpirit of the Lord from me to ſpeak unto thee? 25 And Micaiah, ſaid, Behold, thou ſhalt ſee in that day, when thou ſhalt go into an inner chamber to hide thy ſelf. 26 And the king of Iſrael ſaid, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joaſh the kings ſon: 27 And ſay, Thus ſaith the king, Put this fellow in the priſon, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. 28 And Micaiah ſaid, if thou return at all in peace, the Lord hath not ſpoken by me. And he ſaid Hearken, O people, every one of you. 29 So the king of Iſrael and Jehoſhaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead. 30 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, I will diſguiſe my ſelf, and enter into the battle, but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Iſrael diſguiſed himſelf, and went into the battle. 31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, ſaying, Fight neither with ſmall nor great, ſave only with the king of Iſrael. 32 And it came to paſs, when the captains of the chariots ſaw Jehoſhaphat, that they ſaid, Surely it is the king of Iſrael, and they turned aſide to fight againſt him: and Jehoſhaphat cried out. 33 And it came to paſs, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Iſrael, that they turned back from purſuing him. 34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and ſmote the king of Iſrael between the joynts of the harneſs: wherefore he ſaid unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the hoſt, for I am wounded. 35 And the battle increaſed that day, and the king was ſtayed up in his chariot againſt the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound, into the midſt of the chariot. 36 And there went a proclamation throughout the hoſt, about the going down of the ſun, ſaying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country. 37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria. 38 And one waſhed the chariot in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and they waſhed his armour, according unto the word of the Lord which he ſpake. 39 Now the reſt of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory houſe which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 40 So Ahab ſlept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 41 And Jehoſhaphat the ſon of Aſa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Iſrael. 42 Jehoſhaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 43 And he walked in all the ways of Aſa his father, he turned not aſide from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the Lord: nevertheleſs, the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incenſe yet in the high places. 44 And Jehoſhaphat made peace with the king of Iſrael. 45 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoſhaphat, and his might that he ſhewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 46 And the remnant of the ſodomites which remained in the days of his father Aſa, he took out of the land. 47 There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king. 48 Jehoſhaphat made ſhips of Tharſhiſh to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ſhips were broken at Ezion-geber. 49 Then ſaid Ahaziah the ſon of Ahab unto Jehoſhaphat, Let my ſervants go with thy ſervants in the ſhips. But Jehoſhaphat would not. 50 And Jehoſhaphat ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 51 Ahaziah the ſon of Ahab began to reign over Iſrael in Samaria the ſeventeenth year of Jehoſhaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Iſrael. 52 And he did evil in the ſight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, who made Iſrael to ſin. 53 For he ſerved Baal, and worſhipped him, and provoked to anger the Lord God of Iſrael, according to all that his father had done.

And he anſwered him, Go and proſper; for the Lord ſhall deliver it into the Hand of the King] This Anſwer of Micaiah does not at all contradict the other Prophets, had it been ſpoken in earneſt; but we have good Reaſon to believe, that the Words were ſpoken ironically, and in Mockery to the Promiſes which the other Prophets had made Ahab. Accordingly we may obſerve, by Ahab's Reply, that he ſuſpected Micaiah's Sincerity; and either by his Geſture, or Manner of ſpeaking, gathered that his Meaning was, to traduce theſe falſe Prophets for their Anſwers: So that Micaiah's Anſwer is, in Effect, as if he had ſaid, — 'Since thou 'doſt not ſeek to know the Truth, but only to pleaſe 'thyſelf, go to the Battle, as all thy Prophets adviſe 'thee, expect the Succeſs which they promiſe thee, 'and try the Truth of their Predictions, by thy dear-'bought Experience.'

AN EXPOSITION OF

The ARGUMENT.

This ſecond Book relates the Acts of the Kings of Judah and Iſrael; of the latter from the Death of Ahab un the laſt King Hoſhea, who was impriſoned by the King of Aſſyria; and the City Samaria taken, a the Ten Tribes, by the juſt Judgment of God, for their Idolatry, and rebellious Behaviour, led i Captivity. Alſo of Judah, from the Reign of Jehoram, Son of Jehoſhaphat, unto Zedekiah, w for contemning the Lord's Commandments by his Prophets, and neglecting many Admonitions, by Fam and other Means, was taken by his Enemies, ſaw his Sons cruelly ſlain before his Face, and his o Eyes put out, as the Lord had before declared to him by his Prophet Jeremiah: And alſo by the j Judgment of God for Contempt of his Word, Jeruſalem was deſtroyed, the Temple burnt, and he a all his People were led captive to Babylon.

In this Book we have divers remarkable Examples of God's Favour towards thoſe Rulers and People w obey his Prophets, and embrace his Word, as alſo of his Plagues on ſuch Kingdoms as neglect his Mi ſters, and do not obey his Word.

CHAP. I.

Moab rebels againſt Iſrael. Ahaziah being ſick, ſends to Baal-zebub; Elijah foretels his Death, upon which Ahaziah ſends twice two Captains with 50, who are deſtroyed by Fire from Heaven. The third Captain, on his Entreaty, is ſpared, and Elijah goes and tells the King of his Death. Jehoram ſucceeds him.

Ver. 1. THEN Moab rebelled againſt Iſrael, after the death of Ahab. 2 And Ahaziah fell down through a latteſs in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was ſick: and he ſent meſſengers, and ſaid unto them, Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, whether I ſhall recover of this diſeaſe. 3 But the angel of the Lord ſaid to Elijah the Tiſhbite, Ariſe, go up to meet the meſſengers of the king of Samaria, and ſay unto them, Is it not becauſe there is not a God in Iſrael, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? 4 Now therefore thus ſaith the Lord, Thou ſhalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt ſurely die. And Elijah departed. 5 And when the meſſengers turned back unto him, he ſaid unto them, Why are ye now turned back? 6 And they ſaid unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and ſaid unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that ſent you, and ſay unto him, thus ſaith the Lord, Is it not becauſe there is not a God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou ſhalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt ſurely die. 7 And he ſaid unto them, What manner of m was he which came up to meet you, and told y theſe words? 8 And they anſwered him, He an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leath about his loyns. And he ſaid, It is Elijah t Tiſhbite. 9 Then the king ſent unto him captain of fifty, with his fifty: and he went to him, (and behold, he ſat on the top of an hi and he ſpake unto him, Thou man of God, king hath ſaid, Come down. 10 And Eli anſwered and ſaid to the captain of the fifty, be a man of God, then let fire come down fr heaven, and conſume thee and thy fif And there came down fire from heaven, a conſumed him and his fifty. 11 Again alſo ſent unto him another captain of fifty, with fifty: and he anſwered and ſaid unto him, O m of God, thus hath the king ſaid, Come do quickly. 12 And Elijah anſwered and ſaid u them, If I be a man of God, let fire co down from heaven, and conſume thee and fifty. And the fire of God came down fr heaven, and conſumed him and his fifty. And he ſent again a captain of the third fi with his fifty: and the third captain of fifty w up, and came and fell on his knees before Eli and beſought him, and ſaid unto him, O ma God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life theſe fifty thy ſervants be precious in thy ſig 14 Behold, there came fire down from heav and burnt up the two captains of the for fifties, with their fifties: therefore let my now be precious in thy ſight. 15 And the angel of the Lord ſaid unto Elijah, Go down with him, be not afraid of him. And he aroſe, and went down with him unto the king. 16 And he ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou haſt ſent meſſengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the God of Ekron (is it not becauſe there is no God in Iſrael to enquire of his word?) therefore thou ſhalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but ſhalt ſurely die. 17 So he died, according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had ſpoken: and Jehoram reigned in his ſtead, in the ſecond year of Jehoram the ſon of Jehoſhaphat king of Judah; becauſe he had no ſon. 18 Now the reſt of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

If I be a Man of God, then let Fire come down from Heaven, and conſume thee and thy fifty] The Officers that were ſent to Elijah, call him, indeed, a Man of God; but, by the Anſwer which the Prophet returned, we may learn, that they called him ſo only by Way of Contempt and Deriſion. As they could not be ignorant, however, that Ahaziah was highly offended with Elijah, and had ſent them for no other Purpoſe, but to bring them to Puniſhment, for having denounced his Death, if they thought proper to obey the King in ſuch unrighteous Proceedings, rather than the Laws of Nature and Religion, which forbid us to be Inſtruments in Cruelty and Wrong, they deſerved the Fate they met with; and our bleſſed Saviour does not blame Elijah's Conduct in this Reſpect; but his Diſciples only, for their perverſe Imitation of it, from a Spirit of Reſentment and Revenge, and under a trivial Provocation, in compariſon of what was offered to the Prophet. The Truth is, God, in this Inſtance of Severity, hath taught us, that he will have his Prophets reverenced, becauſe they are allied to him, and every Affront put upon them he reſents as an Indignity to himſelf; and therefore the ſad End of the two Captains and their Companies, who came to apprehend the Prophet of the Lord, was monumentally to deter future Ages from like Provocations, and to remind us of the Precept which God himſelf hath given us, Touch not mine Anointed, and do my Prophets no Harm.

CHAP. II.

Eliſha's Reſolution to bear his Maſter Company. Elijah divides the Waters of Jordan with his Mantle; grants Eliſha's Requeſt conditionally, and is taken up into Heaven. Eliſha is acknowledged Elijah's Succeſſor. He curſes ſome Children that mocked him, who are devoured by two Bears.

ver. 1. AND it came to paſs when the Lord would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Eliſha from Gilgal. 2 And Elijah ſaid unto Eliſha, Tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath ſent me to Beth-el. And Eliſha ſaid unto him, As the Lord liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el. 3 And the ſons of the prophets that were at Beth-el, came forth to Eliſha, and ſaid unto him, Knoweſt thou that the Lord will take away thy maſter from thy head to day? And he ſaid, Yea, I know it, hold you your peace. 4 And Elijah ſaid unto him, Eliſha, tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath ſent me to Jericho. And he ſaid, As the Lord liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho. 5 And the ſons of the prophets that were at Jericho, came to Eliſha, and ſaid unto him, Knoweſt thou that the Lord will take away thy maſter from thy head to day? And he anſwered, Yea, I know it, hold you your peace. 6 And Elijah ſaid unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hath ſent me to Jordan. And he ſaid, As the Lord liveth, and as my ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. 7 And fifty men of the ſons of the prophets went, and ſtood to view afar off: and they two ſtood by Jordan. 8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapt it together, and ſmote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, ſo that they two went over on dry ground. 9 And it came to paſs when they were gone over, that Elijah ſaid unto Eliſha, Aſk what I ſhall do for thee before I be taken away from thee. And Eliſha ſaid, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy ſpirit be upon me. 10 And he ſaid, Thou haſt aſked a hard thing: nevertheleſs, if thou ſee me when I am taken from thee, it ſhall be ſo unto thee, but if not, it ſhall not be ſo. 11 And it came to paſs as they ſtill went on, and talked, that behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horſes of fire, and parted them both aſunder, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 12 And Eliſha ſaw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Iſrael, and the horſemen thereof. And he ſaw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. 13 He took up alſo the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and ſtood by the bank of Jordan. 14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and ſmote the waters, and ſaid, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? And when he alſo had ſmitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Eliſha went over. 15 And when the ſons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho, ſaw him, they ſaid, The ſpirit of Elijah doth reſt on Eliſha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themſelves to the ground before him: 16 And they ſaid unto him, Behold now, there be with thy ſervants fifty ſtrong men, let them go, we pray thee, and ſeek thy maſter: leſt peradventure the Spirit of the Lord hath taken him up, and caſt him upon ſome mountain, or into ſome valley. And he ſaid, Ye ſhall not ſend. 17 And when they urged him till he was aſhamed, he ſaid, Send. They ſent therefore fifty men; and they ſought three days, but found him not. 18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho) he ſaid unto them, Did I not ſay unto you, Go not? 19 And the men of the city ſaid unto Eliſha, Behold, I pray thee, the ſituation of this city is pleaſant, as my lord ſeeth: but the water is nought, and the ground barren. 20 And he ſaid, Bring me a new cruſe, and put ſalt therein. And they brought it to him. 21 And he went forth unto the ſpring of the waters, and caſt the ſalt in there, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, I have healed theſe waters; there ſhall not be from thence any more death, or barren land. 22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the ſaying of Eliſha which he ſpake. 23 And he went up from thence unto Bethel: and he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, him, and said unto him, Go up thou bald-head, go up thou bald-head. 24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord: and there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them. 25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

Behold there appeared a Chariot of Fire, and Horses of Fire, and parted them both asunder, and Elijah went up by a Whirlwind into Heaven] The Account of Elijah's Ascension, says Stackhouse, is not to be taken in a literal Sense, since a fiery Chariot and Horses, would not have been a Vehicle so proper for a Nature not yet impregnated with Mortality. The Notion of those, who, upon this Occasion, make Angels assume the Form of the Chariots and Horses, is not so incongruous; because we need not doubt, but that by the divine Permission, they can transform themselves into any Shape. They are supposed to have frequently appeared in the Figure of flying Oxen; for which Reason they have obtained the Name of Cherub or Cherubim. And with the same Facility, they might, at this Time, have put on the Appearance of Horses: But in Points, not so clearly expressed, we are to resolve God's Method of acting by those that are analogous, and yet more plain.

Now the only Ascension, that we read of, besides this, and that of Enoch, is that of our blessed Saviour; and the Manner in which he is said to be carried up was by the Subvention of a Cloud, which raised him from the Ground, and, mounting with him gradually, carried him out of his Apostles Sight; and, in like Manner, we may suppose, that the Translation of Enoch and Elijah was performed; viz. that a bright and radiant Cloud (which, as it ascended, might appear like a Chariot and Horses) raised them from the Earth, and, leaving this little Globe behind, wafted them into the Seats of the Blessed. Only we must observe, that this Time Christ's Body was invested with the Powers of Spirituality, and therefore capable of ascending with any Vehicle, whereas, theirs were retarded with a Load of Matter: And therefore it is reasonable to think, by the Ministry of Angels, or rather by the Power of God, the Cloud which carried them up, was condensed to a more than ordinary Consistency, and that the Whirlwind, which might be raised for this Purpose, helped to accelerate its Motion, and expedite their Ascent.

And there came forth two She Bears out of the Wood, and tare forty and two Children of them] Bethel, we all know, was one of the Cities where Jeroboam had set up a golden Calf, a Place strangely addicted to Idolatry, and whose Inhabitants had no small Aversion to Elisha, as being the Servant and Successor of one, who had been a professed Enemy to their wicked Worship, and himself no less an Opposer of it. 'Tis reasonable to suppose therefore, that the Children (if they were Children, for the Word Naarim, may signify grown Youths as well) who mocked Elisha, were excited and encouraged thereunto by their Parents; and therefore the Judgment was just, in God's punishing the Wickedness of these Parents, by the Death of their Children, who, tho' they suffered in this Life, had the Happiness to be rescued from the Danger of an idolatrous Education, which otherwise would have been of fatal Tendency both to their present and future State.

In the mean Time, it must be acknowledged that the Insolence of these Mockers (whether we suppose them Children or Youths) was very provoking, for as much as they ridiculed not only a Man whose very Age commanded Reverence, but a Prophet likewise, whose Character, in all Ages, was accounted sacred; nay, and even God himself, whose Honour was struck at, in the Reproaches cast upon his Servant, and that too in one of his most wonderful Works, his Assumption of Elijah into Heaven: For go up, thou Bald-head, go up thou Bald-head, (besides the Bitterness of the Contempt, expressed in the Repetition of the Words) shews, that they made a mere Jest of any such Translation; and therefore, in Banter, they bid Elijah go up, whither, as he pretended, his Friend and Master was gone before.

These Provocations, one would think, were enough to draw an Imprecation from the Prophet; but this Imprecation did not proceed from any Passion, or private Resentment of his own, but merely from the Command and Commission of his God; who, for the Terror and Caution of other profane Persons, and Idolaters, as well as for the Maintenance of the Honour and Authority of his Prophets, confirmed the Word which had gone out of his Servant's Mouth.

CHAP. III.

Jehoram follows the Sins of Jeroboam. He, with Jehoshaphat, and the King of Edom, go to Battle against Moab. Being distressed for Water, Elisha obtains it, and promises Victory. The Moabites are overcome. The King of Moab, by sacrificing his Son, raises the Siege.

Ver. 1. NOW Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria, the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. 2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the image of Baal that his father had made. 3 Nevertheless, he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. 4 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master, and rendred unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool. 5 But it came to pass when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. 6 And king Jeroboam went out of Samaria the same time, and numbred all Israel. 7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses. 8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. 9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetcht a compass of seven days journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them. 10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, that the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. 11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, that we may enquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israels servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah. 12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the Lord is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him. 13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. 14 And Elisha said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat haphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee. 15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass that when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him. 16 And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches. 17 For thus saith the Lord, ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts. 18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the Lord: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. 19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. 20 And it came to pass in the morning when the meat-offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. 21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border. 22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood: 23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. 24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country. 25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it. 26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not. 27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall: and there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

Now Jehoram the Son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria, the eighteenth Year of Jehoshaphat King of Judah] But how could Jehoram begin his Reign over Israel in the 18th Year of Jehoshaphat, when Ahaziah, who reigned two Years, began his Reign in Jehoshaphat's 17th Year, 1 Kings xxii. 51. and in another Place, that Jehoram, the Son of Jehoshaphat, began to reign over Judah, in the 5th Year of Jehoram King of Israel, 2 Kings viii. 16? Answ. It is but supposing, that Jehoshaphat declared his Son Jehoram King, while himself was alive, and reigned in Conjunction with him for the Space of seven Years, and all the while is removed; for then Jehoram, the Son of Ahab, might begin his Reign in the second Year of Jehoram the Son of Jehoshaphat, viz. in the second Year of his Reigning with his Father, who was then alive; and Jehoram, Son of Jehoshaphat, may be said to have begun his Reign in the fifth of Jehoram, the Son of Ahab, meaning the Time when, after his Father's Death, he reigned alone. That the Kings of Judah (as well as other Oriental Princes) were accustomed to appoint their Successors, and even, during their own Life-time, to give them some Share in the Administration, is plain from several Instances; and that Jehoshaphat found it expedient to settle his Son in the Kingdom with himself, seems to be intimated in 2 Chron. xx. 3. where it is said, that he gave the Kingdom to Jehoram, because he was his First-born, and gave Gifts to the rest of his Sons, who, being many, might perhaps be forming Parties, and entering into Cabals about the Succession to the Kingdom; and therefore, to put an End to all such Contests, Jehoshaphat declared Jehoram King, together with himself, because he was his First-born.

And rendred unto the King of Israel an hundred thousand Lambs, and an hundred thousand Rams] This was a prodigious Number indeed; but then we are to consider, that these Countries abounded with Sheep, insomuch that Solomon offered an hundred and twenty Thousand at the Dedication of the Temple, 2 Chron. vii. 5. For Bochart observes, their Sheep frequently brought forth two at a Time, and sometimes twice a Year. The same learned Man remarks, that in antient Times, when People's Riches consisted in Cattle, this was the only Way of paying Tribute. It is observed by others likewise, that this great Number of Cattle was not a Tribute which the Moabites were obliged to pay the Israelites every Year; but on some special Occasions only, upon the Accession of a new King, for Instance, when they were obliged to express their Homage in this Manner, to make Satisfaction for some Damages that the Israelites should at any Time suffer from their Invasions or Revolts.

Then he took his eldest Son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a Burnt-offering upon the Wall] Not only the Holy Scriptures, but several Heathen Writers do likewise assure us, that in Cases of great Extremity, it was customary among People to sacrifice to their Gods whatever was dear to them. Cæsar, in his Wars with the Gauls, tells us, that when they were afflicted with grievous Diseases, or in Time of War, or great Danger, they either offered Men for Sacrifices, or vowed that they would offer them; because they imagined, that their Gods could never be appeased, unless one Man's Life was given for another's. No less a Man than Grotius, is of Opinion, that this Moabitish King, in Imitation of Abraham, sacrificed his Son to the God of Israel, hoping thereby to appease his Wrath, and to move the Compassion of the Kings that were besieging him: But the most general Opinion is, that he offered this costly Sacrifice to some false Deity, and very likely to Chemosh, which was his national God, and generally thought to be the Sun.

CHAP. IV.

Elisha multiplies the Widow's Oil. He is lodged by a Shunamite Woman, who is barren; he promiseth her a Son, who is born, dies, and is raised again. At Gilgal he heals the deadly Pottage, and feeds an hundred Men with twenty Loaves and Ears of Corn.

Ver. 1. NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bond-men. 2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine hand-maid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oyl. 3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels, borrow not a few. 4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee, and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. 5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her, and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her, and she poured out. 6 And it came to pass when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son,

Bring me yet a veſſel. And he ſaid unto her, There is not a veſſel more. And the oyl ſtayed. 7 Then ſhe came and told the man of God: and he ſaid, Go, ſell the oyl, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the reſt. 8 And it fell on a day, that Eliſha paſſed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and ſhe conſtrained him to eat bread. And ſo it was, that as oft as he paſſed by, he turned in thither to eat bread. 9 And ſhe ſaid unto her huſband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which paſſeth by us continually. 10 Let us make a little chamber I pray thee, on the wall, and let us ſet for him there a bed, and a table, and a ſtool, and a candleſtick: and it ſhall be when he cometh to us that he ſhall turn in thither. 11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there. 12 And he ſaid to Gehazi his ſervant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, ſhe ſtood before him. 13 And he ſaid unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou haſt been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldeſt thou be ſpoken for to the king, or to the captain of the hoſt? And ſhe anſwered, I dwell among mine own people. 14 And he ſaid, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi anſwered, Verily ſhe hath no child, and her huſband is old. 15 And he ſaid, Call her. And when he had called her, ſhe ſtood in the door. 16 And he ſaid, About this ſeaſon, according to the time of life, thou ſhalt embrace a ſon. And ſhe ſaid, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine hand-maid. 17 And the woman conceived, and bare a ſon at that ſeaſon that Eliſha had ſaid unto her, according to the time of life. 18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. 19 And he ſaid unto his father, My head, my head. And he ſaid to a lad, Carry him to his mother. 20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he ſat on her knees till noon, and then died. 21 And ſhe went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and ſhut the door upon him, and went out. 22 And ſhe called unto her huſband, and ſaid, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the aſſes, that I may run unto the man of God, and come again. 23 And he ſaid, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new-moon, nor ſabbath. And ſhe ſaid, It ſhall be well. 24 Then ſhe ſaddled an aſs, and ſaid to her ſervant, Drive, and go forward; ſlack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee. 25 So ſhe went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel: and it came to paſs when the man of God ſaw her afar off, that he ſaid to Gehazi his ſervant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite: 26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and ſay unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy huſband? is it well with the child? And ſhe anſwered, It is well. 27 And when ſhe came to the man of God to the hill, ſhe caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thruſt her away. And the man of God ſaid, Let her alone, for her ſoul is vexed within her: and the Lord hath hid it from me, and hath not told me. 28 Then ſhe ſaid, Did I deſire a ſon of my lord; did I not ſay, Do not deceive me? 29 Then he ſaid to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my ſtaff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, ſalute him not; and if any ſalute thee, anſwer him not again: and lay my ſtaff upon the face of the child. 30 And the mother of the child ſaid, As the Lord liveth, and as thy ſoul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he aroſe and followed her. 31 And Gehazi paſſed on before them, and laid the ſtaff upon the face of the child, but there was neither voice nor hearing: wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, ſaying, The child is not awaked. 32 And when Eliſha was come into the houſe, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. 33 He went in therefore and ſhut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the Lord. 34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and he ſtretched himſelf upon the child, and the fleſh of the child waxed warm. 35 Then he returned and walked in the houſe to and fro, and went up, and ſtretched himſelf upon him: and the child neeſed ſeven times, and the child opened his eyes. 36 And he called Gehazi, and ſaid, Call this Shunammite. So he called her: and when ſhe was come in unto him, he ſaid, Take up thy ſon. 37 Then ſhe went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herſelf to the ground, and took up her ſon, and went out. 38 And Eliſha came again to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the land, and the ſons of the prophets were ſitting before him: and he ſaid unto his ſervant, Set on the great pot, and ſeethe pottage for the ſons of the prophets. 39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap-full, and came and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not. 40 So they poured out for the men to eat: and it came to paſs as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and ſaid, O thou man of God there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof. 41 But he ſaid, Then bring meal. And he caſt it into the pot; and he ſaid, Pour out for the people, that they may eat: and there was no harm in the pot. 42 And there came a man from Baal-ſhaliſha, and brought the man of God bread of the firſt-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the huſk thereof: and he ſaid, Give unto the people, that they may eat. 43 And his ſervitour ſaid, What ſhould I ſet this before an hundred men? He ſaid again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus ſaith the Lord, They ſhall eat, and ſhall leave thereof. 44 So he ſet it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the Lord.

And the Creditor is come to take my two Sons to Bondmen] The Jewiſh Law looked upon Children as the proper Goods of their Parents, who had Power to ſell them for ſeven Years, as their Creditors had to compel them to do it, in order to pay their Debts; and from the Jews this Cuſtom was propagated to the Athenians, and from them to the Romans. The Romans indeed, had the moſt abſolute Controul over their Children. By the Decree of Romulus, they could impriſon, beat, kill, or ſell them for Slaves; but Numa Pompilius firſt moderated this, and the Emperor Decleſian made a Law, that no free Perſons ſhould be ſold upon Account of Debt. The antient Athenians had the like Juriſdiction over their Children, but Solon reform reformed this cruel Cuſtom; as, indeed, it ſeemed a little hard, that the Children of a poor Man, who have no Manner of Inheritance left them, ſhould be compelled into Slavery, in order to pay the deceaſed Father's Debts; and yet this was the Cuſtom, as appears from this Paſſage, wherein the Prophet does not pretend to reprove the Creditor, but only puts the Woman in a Method to pay him.

CHAP. V.

Naaman is ordered by Eliſha to waſh in Jordan, and is thereby cured of his Leproſy. Eliſha refuſes his Gifts; but Gehazi takes them, and is ſmitten with a Leproſy.

Ver. 1. NOW Naaman captain of the hoſt of the king of Syria, was a great man with his maſter, and honourable, becauſe by him the Lord had given deliverance unto Syria: he was alſo a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper. 2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Iſrael a little maid, and ſhe waited on Naamans wife. 3 And ſhe ſaid unto her miſtreſs, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria: for he would recover him of his leproſie. 4 And one went in, and told his lord, ſaying, Thus and thus ſaid the maid, that is of the land of Iſrael. 5 And the king of Syria ſaid, Go to, go, and I will ſend a letter unto the king of Iſrael. And he departed and took with him ten talents of ſilver, and ſix thouſand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment. 6 And he brought the letter to the king of Iſrael, ſaying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith ſent Naaman my ſervant to thee, that thou mayeſt recover him of his leproſie. 7 And it came to paſs when the king of Iſrael had read the letter, that he rent his cloaths, and ſaid, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth ſend unto me to recover a man of his leproſie? wherefore conſider, I pray you, and ſee how he ſeeketh a quarrel againſt me. 8 And it was ſo, when Eliſha the man of God heard that the king of Iſrael had rent his cloaths, that he ſent to the king, ſaying, Wherefore haſt thou rent thy cloaths, let him come now to me, and he ſhall know that there is a prophet in Iſrael. 9 So Naaman came with his horſes, and with his chariot, and ſtood at the door of the houſe of Eliſha. 10 And Eliſha ſent a meſſenger unto him, ſaying, Go and waſh in Jordan ſeven times, and thy fleſh ſhall come again unto thee, and thou ſhalt be clean. 11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and ſaid, Behold, I thought, he will ſurely come out to me, and ſtand, and call on the name of the Lord his God, and ſtrike his hands over the place, and recover the leper. Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damaſcus, better than all the waters of Iſrael? may I not waſh in them and be clean? So he turned, and went away in a rage. 13 And his ſervants came near, and ſpake unto him, and ſaid, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do ſome great thing, wouldeſt thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he ſaith to thee, Waſh and be clean? 14 Then went he down, and dipped himſelf ſeven times in Jordan, according to the ſaying of the man of God: and his fleſh came again like unto the fleſh of a little child, and he was clean. 15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and ſtood before him: and he ſaid, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Iſrael: now therefore, I pray thee, take a bleſſing of thy ſervant. 16 But he ſaid, As the Lord liveth, before whom I ſtand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it, but he refuſed. 17 And Naaman ſaid, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy ſervant two mules burden of earth? for thy ſervant will henceforth offer neither burnt-offering, nor ſacrifice unto other gods, but unto the Lord. 18 In this thing the Lord pardon thy ſervant, that when my maſter goeth into the houſe of Rimmon to worſhip there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow my ſelf in the houſe of Rimmon: when I bow down my ſelf in the houſe of Rimmon, the Lord pardon thy ſervant in this thing. 19 And he ſaid unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way. 20 But Gehazi the ſervant of Eliſha the man of God ſaid, Behold, my maſter hath ſpared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but as the Lord liveth, I will run after him, and take ſomewhat of him. 21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman: and when Naaman ſaw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and ſaid, Is all well? 22 And he ſaid, All is well: my maſter hath ſent me, ſaying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the ſons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of ſilver, and two changes of garments. 23 And Naaman ſaid, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of ſilver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his ſervants, and they bare them before him. 24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and beſtowed them in the houſe; and he let the men go, and they departed. 25 But he went in, and ſtood before his maſter: and Eliſha ſaid unto him, Whence comeſt thou, Gehazi? And he ſaid, Thy ſervant went no whither. 26 And he ſaid unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vine-yards, and ſheep, and oxen, and men-ſervants, and maid-ſervants? 27 The leproſie therefore of Naaman ſhall cleave unto thee, and unto thy ſeed for ever. And he went out from his preſence a leper as white as ſnow.

Go, and waſh in Jordan ſeven Times, and thou ſhalt be clean] This he ordered him to do in Conformity to the Law, which requires that Lepers, in order to their cleanſing, ſhould be ſprinkled ſeven Times, Levit. xiv. 7, &c. the Prophet ordered Naaman to dip himſelf ſo often; but Jordan (as the Syrian argued) had no more Virtue in it than other Rivers; nor could cold Water, of any Kind, be a proper Means for curing this Diſtemper, whoſe Root is a white wateriſh Humour, that would increaſe, rather than be diminiſhed, by any ſuch Application.

And Naaman ſaid, ſhall there then, I pray thee, be given to thy Servant two Mules Burden of Earth] He deſired the Earth of the Land, becauſe he thought it more holy and acceptable to God, and proper for his Service; or, becauſe he would, by this Token, declare his Conjunction with the People of Iſrael, in the true Worſhip, Worſhip, and conſtantly put himſelf in Mind of his great Obligation to that God from whoſe Land this Earth was taken. He might indeed have enough of this Earth without aſking any one for it, but he deſired the Prophet to give it him, as believing perhaps, that he, who put ſuch Virtue into the Waters of Iſrael, could put as much in the Earth thereof, and make it as uſeful and beneficial to him in another Way. Theſe Thoughts indeed, were groundleſs and extravagant, but yet were excuſable in a Heathen and a Novice, that was not as yet ſufficiently inſtructed in the Religion.

And I bow myſelf in the Houſe of Rimmon, the Lord pardon thy Servant in this Thing. And Eliſha ſaid unto him, Go in peace] But could Naaman, who now profeſſes himſelf a Worſhipper of the true God, innocently attend his Maſter in his idolatrous Worſhip, as Eliſha ſeems to give him Leave to do? Anſw. Tho' we pretend not to ſay, ſays Stackhouſe, with ſome Rabinical Doctors, that as Naaman was no Jew, but a Foreigner and Proſelite only, he was not obliged to abſtain from all external Worſhip of Idols (as the Jews confeſſedly were) ſo long as he continued in another Country; yet it is generally agreed, that we are bound to ſhew the ſame Reſpect to our Superiors, and thoſe that are ſet in Authority over us (ſo long as we do not injure our Conſcience thereby) in one Place as well as another; and that therefore Naaman might very well retain his Dignity, and high Office at Court, even as Joſeph did in Egypt, and Daniel in Babylon, might accompany his Maſter into Rimmon's Temple, nay, and bow together with him, in Compliance to his Infirmity or Convenience (who could not ſo well bow if he ſtood upright) ſo long as this was an Act purely external, without any of thoſe inward Sentiments of Reſpect, which conſtitute the Eſſence of Adoration.

Now, ſince Repentance has Regard to what is paſt, and to aſk Pardon for an Offence already committed, is much more natural, than to aſk Pardon for what we purpoſe, for the future, to commit (which, in Matters of Morality, is a Kind of Contradiction) it ſeems not improbable, that the Words ſhould be rendered (as the Original will fairly bear it) in the Preter Tenſe: Lord, pardon thy Servant, that when my Maſter went into the Houſe of Rimmon, to worſhip, and he leaned on my Hand, and I bowed myſelf there, the Lord pardon thy Servant in this Thing. For, how great would the Incongruity be, if Naaman, who had juſt before declared his Renunciation of Idolatry, ſhould now confeſs his Readineſs to relapſe into the ſame Crime, and deſire God's Pardon for it before-hand? Whereas, to aſk Pardon for what he had done amiſs, and to deſire the Prophet's Interceſſion with God in that Behalf, argued a Mind truly ſenſible of his former Tranſgreſſion, and very much reſolved to avoid it for the future: And accordingly it is preſumed, that upon his Return Home, he refuſed to worſhip Rimmon any more, and was thereupon diſmiſſed from being General of the King's Forces.

It is thought by the Generality of Interpreters, that, as the Syrians were great Worſhippers of the Sun, the God Rimmon is the ſame; and that the Name Rimmon, or high, is given him by Reaſon of his Elevation. Grotius takes it for Saturn, becauſe that Planet is the higheſt of all; and Selden will have it to be the ſame with Elion, or the moſt high God of the Phenicians. 'Tis certain, that the Word Rimmon is the Name that the Syrians give to Pomegranates; and therefore as their Country was full of Pomegranate-trees, whoſe Fruit is not only of a delicious Taſte, but of great Uſe likewiſe, on Account of the excellent Liquor which it produces, they gave, perhaps, the Name of Pomegranate to their God, in the ſame Manner that the Greeks and Romans gave that of Ceres to the Goddeſs of Corn.

CHAP. VI.

Eliſha performs ſeveral Miracles. Samaria is beſieged, and ſo diſtreſſed, that Women eat their own Children. The King ſends to ſlay Eliſha.

Ver. 1. AND the ſons of the prophets ſaid unto Eliſha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too ſtraight for us. 2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there where we may dwell. And he anſwered, Go ye. 3 And one ſaid, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy ſervants. And he anſwered, I will go. 4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood. 5 But as one was felling a beam, the ax-head fell into the water: and he cried, and ſaid, Alas maſter, for it was borrowed. 6 And the man of God ſaid, Where fell it? And he ſhewed him the place. And he cut down a ſtick, and caſt it in thither, and the iron did ſwim. 7 Therefore ſaid he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it. 8 Then the king of Syria warred againſt Iſrael, and took counſel with his ſervants, ſaying, In ſuch and ſuch a place ſhall be my camp. 9 And the man of God ſent unto the king of Iſrael, ſaying, Beware that thou paſs not ſuch a place; for thither the Syrians are come down. 10 And the king of Iſrael ſent to the place which the man of God told him, and warned him of, and ſaved himſelf there, not once nor twice. 11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was ſore troubled for this thing, and he called his ſervants and ſaid unto them, Will ye not ſhew me which of us is for the king of Iſrael? 12 And one of his ſervants ſaid, None, my lord O king: but Eliſha the prophet, that is in Iſrael telleth the king of Iſrael the words that thou ſpeakeſt in thy bed-chamber. 13 And he ſaid, Go and ſpy where he is, that I may ſend and fetch him. And it was told him, ſaying, Behold he is in Dothan. 14 Therefore ſent he thither horſes, and chariots, and a great hoſt: and they came by night and compaſſed the city about. 15 And when the ſervant of the man of God was riſen early and gone forth, behold, an hoſt compaſſed the city, both with horſes and chariots. And his ſervant ſaid unto him, Alas my maſter, how ſhall we do? 16 And he anſwered, Fear not: for they that be with us, are more than they that be with them. 17 And Eliſha prayed, and ſaid, Lord, I pray thee open his eyes that he may ſee. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he ſaw: and behold, the mountain was full of horſes, and chariots of fire round about Eliſha. 18 And when they came down to him, Eliſha prayed unto the Lord, and ſaid, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindneſs. And he ſmote them with blindneſs, according to the word of Eliſha. 19 And Eliſha ſaid unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye ſeek. But he led them to Samaria. 20 And it came to paſs when they were come into Samaria, that Eliſha ſaid, Lord open the eyes of theſe men, that they may ſee. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they ſaw, and behold, they were in the mids of Samaria. 21 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Eliſha, when he ſaw them, My father, ſhall I ſmite them? ſhall I ſmite them? 22 And he anſwered, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: wouldeſt thou ſmite thoſe whom thou haſt taken captive with thy ſword, and with thy bow? ſet bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their maſter.

he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel. 24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad, king of Syria, gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. 25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until an asses head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of doves dung for five pieces of silver. 26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help my lord, O king. 27 And he said, If the Lord do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press? 28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow. 29 So we boiled my son and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son. 30 And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his cloaths, and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh. 31 Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day. 32 But Elisha sat in his house, (and the elders sat with him) and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his masters feet behind him? 33 And while he yet talked with them, behold the messenger came down unto him: and he said Behold, this evil is of the Lord, what should I wait for the Lord any longer?

And one of his Servants said, none, my Lord, O King, but Elisha the Prophet] It is not to be doubted, that Naaman, upon his Return from Samaria, spread the Fame of Elisha so much in the Court of Syria, that some of the great Men there might have the Curiosity to make a farther Enquiry concerning him; and, being informed by several of his miraculous Works, they might thence conclude, that he could tell the greatest Secrets, as well as perform such Works as were related of him; and that therefore, in all Probability, he was the Person who gave the King of Israel Intelligence of all the Schemes that had been attempted to entrap him.

And the Lord opened the Eyes of the young Man, and he saw; and behold, the Mountain was full of Horses and Chariots of Fire round about Elisha] It must be allowed, that Angels, whether they be purely spiritual, (as others think) cloathed with some material Form, cannot be seen by mortal Eyes; and therefore as Elisha himself, without a peculiar Vouchsafement of God, could not discern the heavenly Host, which, at that time, encamped about him, so he requests of God, not for the Removal of his Fears, and the Confirmation of his Faith, his Servant might be indulged the same Privilege: Nor does it seem unlikely, that, from such Accounts as these that have descended by Tradition, that Notion among the Greeks, of a certain Mist, which intercepts the Sight of their Gods from the Ken of human Eyes, might at first borrow its Original.

And he smote them with Blindness] But we are not to imagine, that this Blindness was so total, that they quite lost the Use of their Eyes, but only that it was such a Dimness, and Confusion in their Sight, as hindered them from distinguishing one Object from another; the City of Dothan, for Instance, from the City of Samaria: Even, in like Manner as we read of the People of Sodom, that when the Angels smote them with Blindness (which they might easily do, by some small Alteration, either in their Sight or in the Air) they wearied themselves to find out Lot's Door. They saw the House, it seems, but did not discern the Door, because this sudden Disorder, in their Imagination, might either make the Door to them like the solid Wall, or the solid Wall like so many Doors.

This is no more than what happens to several Men in their Liquor, that tho' their Eyes be open, and can perceive the several Objects that surround them, yet they cannot discern wherein they differ. And, if we may suppose, that the Syrian Army was under the like Case, we need no longer wonder that they readily accepted of a Guide, who offered his Service, and bespoke them fair (whom they might, indeed, take for some Deputy of the Town, with Authority to deliver up the Prophet to them) than that a Drunkard, who, after a long while having lost his Way, and found himself bewilder'd, should be thankful to any Hand that would promise to conduct him safe home.

An Ass's Head was sold for fourscore Pieces of Silver] If we reckon these Pieces of Silver, or Shekels, at fifteen Pence a-piece, they come to five Pounds Sterling, a vast Price for that which had on it so little Meat, and that unclean according to the Law, Levit. xi. In Times of Famine, however, and extreme Necessity, the Jews themselves were absolved from the Observation of the Law; nor do there want Instances in History, where other People upon the same Occasion, have been reduced to the like Distress, if what Plutarch, in the Life of Artaxerxes, tells us be true, viz. that in that Prince's War with the Cadusii, an Ass's Head could scarce have been purchased at the Price of sixty Drachms, i. e. two Pounds and five Shillings of our Money.

And the fourth Part of a Cab of Dove's Dung for five Pieces of Silver] Interpreters have been at a great Loss to devise, upon what Account the Inhabitants of Samaria should be obliged to buy so small a Quantity of it (for a Cab was the least Measure the Jews had for dry Things) at so dear a Rate. For Food, for Salt, for Fireing, for dunging their Lands within the Walls, several Interpreters have severally applied it: But, upon a small Examination it would appear, that none of these Uses could suit with the Circumstances of a City so closely besieged as Samaria was. The Talmudists suppose, that they have found out the true Solution, by translating the Term of the Original, by Crop of Doves; for they affirm that several People in Samaria kept many Doves, to bring them Provisions from the Country, which were wont to disgorge what they picked up, so that their Owners might sell it at a dear Rate; but who can imagine, that so great a Number of Doves, as were necessary for this Purpose, should be suffered to live in a City so pinched with Famine; that Doves should be so docile and well trained up, as to bring to their Masters whatever they had ranged for; or, that in a Country, in a Manner covered with the Enemy, who had altogether foraged and laid it waste, there should be found any Nourishment at all? The learned Bochart, therefore, has not only solidly confuted these wild Opinions, but has likewise farther observed, that the Arabians gave the Name of Dove's Dung, or Sparrow's Dung, to two several Things; first, to a Kind of Moss that grows on Trees or stony Ground; and, secondly, to a Sort of Pease or Pulse, which was very common in Judea, as may be seen in 2 Sam. xvii. 28. and therefore concludes, that the Word Chersonim may well denote Fitches or Pulse; and, for the Confirmation of this, some Travellers have told us, that at Grand Cairo and Damascus, there are Magazines, where they constantly fry this Kind of Grain, which those, who go in Pilgrimage, buy and take with them, as Part of the Provision for their Journey.

CHAP. VII.

Eliſha propheſieth incredible Plenty in Samaria, and the Death of a Nobleman, who would not believe the Prophecy. Four Lepers bring Advice of the Flight of the Syrians. The King ſeizes their Tents, and gets great Plenty. The incredulous Lord is trodden under Foot and dies.

Ver. 1. THEN Eliſha ſaid, Hear ye the word of the Lord, Thus ſaith the Lord, To morrow about this time ſhall a meaſure of fine flour be ſold for a ſhekel, and two meaſures of barley for a ſhekel, in the gate of Samaria. 2 Then a lord on whoſe hand the king leaned, anſwered the man of God, and ſaid, Behold, if the Lord would make windows in heaven might this thing be? And he ſaid, Behold, thou ſhalt ſee it with thine eyes, but ſhalt not eat thereof. 3 And there were four leprous men at the entring in of the gate: and they ſaid one to another, Why ſit we here until we die? 4 If we ſay, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we ſhall die there: and if we ſit ſtill here, we die alſo. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the hoſt of the Syrians: if they ſave us alive, we ſhall live; and if they kill us, we ſhall but die. 5 And they roſe up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermoſt part of the camp of Syria, behold there was no man there. 6 For the Lord had made the hoſt of the Syrians to hear a noiſe of chariots, and a noiſe of horſes, even the noiſe of a great hoſt: and they ſaid one to another, Lo, the king of Iſrael hath hired againſt us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians to come upon us. 7 Wherefore they aroſe, and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horſes, and their aſſes, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. 8 And when theſe lepers came to the uttermoſt part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat, and drink, and carried thence ſilver and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entred into another tent, and carried thence alſo, and went and hid it. 9 Then they ſaid one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, ſome miſchief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the kings houſhold. 10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, ſaying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horſes tied, and aſſes tied, and the tents as they were. 11 And he called the porters, and they told it to the kings houſe within. 12 And the king aroſe in the night, and ſaid unto his ſervants, I will now ſhew you what the Syrians have done to us; they know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp, to hide themſelves in the field, ſaying, When they come out of the city, we ſhall catch them alive and get into the city. 13 And one of his ſervants anſwered, and ſaid, Let ſome take, I pray thee, five of the horſes that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Iſrael that are left in it: behold, I ſay, they are even as all the multitude of the Iſraelites that are conſumed) and let us ſend and ſee. 14 They took therefore two chariot horſes, and the king ſent after the hoſt of the Syrians, ſaying Go, and ſee. 15 And they went after them unto Jordan, and lo, all the way was full of garments and veſſels, which the Syrians had caſt away in their haſte: and the meſſengers returned, and told the king. 16 And the people went out, and ſpoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a meaſure of fine flour was ſold for a ſhekel, and two meaſures of barley for a ſhekel, according to the word of the Lord. 17 And the king appointed the lord on whoſe hand he leaned, to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had ſaid, who ſpake when the king came down to him. 18 And it came to paſs, as the man of God had ſpoken to the king, ſaying, Two meaſures of barley for a ſhekel, and a meaſure of fine flour for a ſhekel ſhall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria. 19 And that lord anſwered the man of God, and ſaid, Now behold, if the Lord ſhould make windows in heaven, might ſuch thing be? And he ſaid, Behold thou ſhalt ſee with thine eyes, but ſhalt not eat thereof. 20 And ſo it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

A Meaſure of fine Flour ſhall be ſold for a Shekel. The Word Seah, which we render a Meaſure, was equal to ſix Cabs, and contained, as ſome think, five Quarts, as others a Peck, and others a Peck and two Quarts of our Meaſure. The Shekel was much above our three Shillings; and, to have a Peck of fine Flour for three Shillings, at other Times, would not have been ſo cheap; but, conſidering the preſent Situation of Things, it was wonderfully ſo.

And they ſaid one to another, Lo, the King of Iſrael hath hired againſt us the Kings of the Hittites.] The Hittites, in particular, lived in Arabia Petræa, to the South of Paleſtine, and, in Solomon's Time (who had ſome Wives out of this Country) held a great Commerce with him in Horſes, 1 Kings x. 29. and xi. But under the Name of Hittites (as elſewhere under the Names of Amorites) the ſacred Penman ſeems to comprehend all, or any of the People of Canaan. For, though the greateſt Number of that People were deſtroyed, yet ſome of them were ſpared, and many of them, upon Joſhua's coming, fled away, ſome to remote Parts (as that famous and antient Pillar, in the Coaſts of Africa, teſtifies) and others to the Countries bordering upon Canaan; where, by Reaſon of the Scarcity of Inhabitants in thoſe Days, finding Room enough, they ſeated themſelves, and in Proceſs of Time, growing numerous and powerful, appointed (according to their antient Manner of Government) Kings to rule over them.

CHAP. VIII.

The Story of the Shunamite Woman. Benhadad being ſick, ſends Hazael to Eliſha, who foretels Benhadad's Death, and Hazael's cruel Reign. Jehoram, who kills his Maſter, and ſucceeds him. Jehoram's wicked Reign; he dies, and his Son Ahaziah ſucceeds him. Ahaziah's wicked Reign; he joins Forces with Joram againſt Hazael.

Ver. 1. THEN ſpake Eliſha unto the woman (whoſe ſon he had reſtored to life) ſaying, Ariſe, and go thou and thine houſhold, and ſojourn whereſoever thou canſt ſojourn: for the Lord hath called for a famine, and it ſhall alſo come upon the land ſeven years. 2 And the woman aroſe, and did after the ſaying of the man of God: and ſhe went with her houſhold, and ſojourned in the land of the Philiſtines ſeven years. 3 And it came to paſs at the ſeven years end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philiſtines: and ſhe went forth to cry unto the king for her houſe, and for her land. 4 And the king talked with Gehazi the ſervant of the man of God, ſaying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Eliſha hath done. 5 And it came to paſs as he was telling the king how he had reſtored a dead body to life, that behold, the woman whoſe ſon he had reſtored to life, cried to the king for her houſe, and for her land. And Gehazi ſaid, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her ſon, whom Eliſha reſtored to life. 6 And when the king aſked the woman, ſhe told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, ſaying, Reſtore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field, ſince the day that ſhe left the land, even till now. 7 And Eliſha came to Damaſcus: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria, was ſick, and it was told him, ſaying, The man of God is come hither. 8 And the king ſaid unto Hazael, Take a preſent in thine hand, and go meet the man of God, and enquire of the Lord by him, ſaying, Shall I recover of this diſeaſe? 9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a preſent with him, even of every good thing of Damaſcus, forty camels burden, and came and ſtood before him, and ſaid, Thy ſon Ben-hadad king of Syria hath ſent me to thee, ſaying, Shall I recover of this diſeaſe? 10 And Eliſha ſaid unto him, Go, ſay unto him, Thou mayeſt certainly recover: howbeit, the Lord hath ſhewed me, that he ſhall ſurely die. 11 And he ſetled his countenance ſtedfaſtly, until he was aſhamed: and the man of God wept. 12 And Hazael ſaid, Why weepeth my lord? And he anſwered, Becauſe I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Iſrael: their ſtrong holds wilt thou ſet on fire, and their young men wilt thou ſlay with the ſword, and wilt daſh their children, and rip up their women with child. 13 And Hazael ſaid, But what, is thy ſervant a dog that he ſhould do this great thing? And Eliſha anſwered, The Lord hath ſhewed me that thou ſhalt be king over Syria. 14 So he departed from Eliſha, and came to his maſter, who ſaid to him, What ſaid Eliſha to thee? And he anſwered, He told me that thou ſhouldeſt ſurely recover. 15 And it came to paſs on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipt it in water, and ſpread it on his face, ſo that he died: and Hazael reigned in his ſtead. 16 And in the fifth year of Joram the ſon of Ahab king of Iſrael, Jehoſhaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the ſon of Jehoſhaphat king of Judah began to reign. 17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jeruſalem. 18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Iſrael, as did the houſe of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the ſight of the Lord. 19 Yet the Lord would not deſtroy Judah, for David his ſervants ſake, as he promiſed him to give him alway a light, and to his children. 20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themſelves. 21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him, and he roſe by night and ſmote the Edomites which compaſſed him about: and the captains of the chariots, and the people fled into their tents. 22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the ſame time. 23 And the reſt of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 24 And Joram ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 25 In the twelfth year of Joram the ſon of Ahab king of Iſrael, did Ahaziah the ſon of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. 26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jeruſalem; and his mothers name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Iſrael. 27 And he walked in the way of the houſe of Ahab, and did evil in the ſight of the Lord, as did the houſe of Ahab; for he was the ſon-in-law of the houſe of Ahab. 28 And he went with Joram the ſon of Ahab, to the war againſt Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joram. 29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel, of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought againſt Hazael king of Syria: and Ahaziah the ſon of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to ſee Joram the ſon of Ahab in Jezreel, becauſe he was ſick.

And Eliſha ſaid unto him, Go, ſay unto him, Thou mayeſt certainly recover; howbeit, the Lord hath ſhewed me, that he ſhall ſurely die] This Meſſage to Benhadad, ſeems perfectly equivocal, and therefore, one would think, very unbecoming the prophetical Dignity. It may poſſibly be thought, indeed, ſays Stackhouſe, that Eliſha's foretelling his Advancement to the Throne, might be a Spur, and Incitement to his Ambition; but the Means, whereby he accompliſhed his Deſign, were entirely from his wicked and corrupt Mind, which would not ſtay for the ordinary Methods of divine Providence to bring it innocently about, but choſe rather to carve for himſelf, and by murthering his Maſter, to cut him out a more compendious Way of coming into immediate Poſſeſſion. And this ſolves the ſeeming Difficulty, of the Prophet's ſending one Anſwer to Benhadad, and telling Hazael quite another Story: For, when Hazael underſtood that his Maſter's Diſeaſe was not mortal, but that, if no Violence intervened, he might eaſily get over that Indiſpoſition, (for that is the Senſe of he may certainly recover) and, at the ſame Time, was told by the Prophet, that he would not, however, recover, becauſe he foreſaw, that Violence would be uſed to take away his Life (as this is the Senſe of he ſhall ſurely die) Hazael went his Way, and not willing to truſt Providence with his Maſter's Recovery, took Care, the next Morning, to have him diſpatch'd.

There is, however, another, and (as ſome think) a much plainer Interpretation of the Prophet's Words. For, ſince this is a Paſſage, which admits of a various Lection, the adverb lo, as it is in the Textual Reading, ſignifies not, in our Tranſlation (which in this Place follows the Marginal) is rendered to him. So that, if the Hebrew Text be right (as ſome learned Men, upon Examination, have given it the Preference) the plain Reading of the Words will be, Go ſay, thou ſhalt ſurely not live; for the Lord hath ſhewed me, that thou ſhalt ſurely die. This was the Senſe of the Prophet's Anſwer to Benhadad; but Hazael, who was a wicked Man, went, and told him a quite contrary Thing, on purpoſe to lull him into a State of Security, that thereby he might have a fairer Opportunity of accompliſhing his Deſign upon him.

Thus

Thus whether the Marginal or Textual Reading, be right, and conſequently, whether the Prophet's Meſſage to Benhadad be taken in an affirmative or negative Senſe, he cannot be juſtly charged with Baſeneſs or Ingratitude, ſince, whether he accepted of his Preſent, or no, 'tis manifeſt that he could not return him any falſe or deluſive Anſwer: And yet the more probable Opinion is, that, in Conformity to his former Practice, in the Caſe of Naaman the Leper, he did, upon this Occaſion, reject the good Things of Damaſcus, which Benhadad ſent, and becauſe the ſame Reaſons, which induced him to refuſe them from the Hand of Naaman, were ſtill in Force, and might equally prevail with him not to accept them from the Hand of Hazael.

CHAP. IX.

Eliſha ſends a young Prophet to anoint Jehu King over Iſrael, whom he charges to deſtroy the Houſe of Ahab. Jehu is made King, and kills Joram, and alſo Ahaziah King of Judah, cauſes Jezebel to be thrown out of a Window, and ſhe is devoured by Dogs.

Ver. 1. AND Eliſha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and ſaid unto him, Gird up thy loyns, and take this box of oyl in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. 2 And when thou comeſt thither, look out there Jehu the ſon of Jehoſhaphat, the ſon of Nimſhi, and go in, and make him ariſe up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber. 3 Then take the box of oyl, and pour it on his head, and ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord, I have anointed thee king over Iſrael: then open the door and flee, and tarry not. 4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. 5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the hoſt were ſitting; and he ſaid, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu ſaid, Unto which of all us? And he ſaid, To thee, O captain. 6 And he aroſe, and went into the houſe, and he poured the oyl on his head, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, I have anointed thee king over the people of the Lord, even over Iſrael. 7 And thou ſhalt ſmite the houſe of Ahab thy maſter, that I may avenge the blood of my ſervants the prophets, and the blood of all the ſervants of the Lord, at the hand of Jezebel. 8 For the whole houſe of Ahab ſhall periſh, and I will cut off from Ahab him that piſſeth againſt the wall, and him that is ſhut up and left in Iſrael. 9 And I will make the houſe of Ahab, like the houſe of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, and like the houſe of Baaſha the ſon of Ahijah. 10 And the dogs ſhall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there ſhall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled. 11 Then Jehu came forth to the ſervants of his lord: and one ſaid unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he ſaid unto them, Ye know the man and his communication. 12 And they ſaid, It is falſe, tell us now. And he ſaid, Thus and thus ſpake he to me, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, I have anointed thee king over Iſrael. 13 Then they haſted and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the ſtairs, and blew with trumpets, ſaying, Jehu is king. 14 So Jehu the ſon of Jehoſhaphat the ſon of Nimſhi, conſpired againſt Joram, (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Iſrael, becauſe of Hazael king of Syria: 15 But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel, of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria;) And Jehu ſaid, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor eſcape out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel. 16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel, (for Joram lay there) and Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to ſee Joram. 17 And there ſtood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he ſpied the company of Jehu as he came, and ſaid, I ſee a company. And Joram ſaid, Take an horſe-man, and ſend to meet them, and let him ſay, Is it peace? 18 So there went one on horſe-back to meet him, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu ſaid, What haſt thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchmen told, ſaying, The meſſenger came to them, but he cometh not again. 19 Then he ſent out a ſecond on horſe-back, which came to them, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu anſwered, What haſt thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. 20 And the watchman told, ſaying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the ſon of Nimſhi; for he driveth furiouſly. 21 And Joram ſaid, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Iſrael and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each with his chariot, and they went out againſt Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. 22 And it came to paſs when Joram ſaw Jehu that he ſaid, Is it peace, Jehu? And he anſwered, What peace, ſo long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel, and her witchcrafts are ſo many? 23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and ſaid to Ahaziah, There is treachery O Ahaziah. 24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full ſtrength, and ſmote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he ſunk down in his chariot. 25 Then ſaid Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and caſt him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember, how that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord laid this burden upon him. 26 Surely, I have ſeen yeſterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his ſons, ſaid the Lord, and I will requite thee in this plat, ſaith the Lord. Now therefore take and caſt him into the plat of ground according to the word of the Lord. 27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah ſaw this, he fled by the way of the garden houſe: and Jehu followed after him, and ſaid, Smite him alſo in the chariot. And they did ſo, at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam: and he fled to Megiddo, and died there. 28 And his ſervants carried him in a chariot to Jeruſalem, and buried him in his ſepulchre with his fathers in the city of David. 29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the ſon of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. 30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and ſhe painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. 31 And as Jehu entred in at the gate ſhe ſaid, Had Zimri peace, who ſlew his maſter? 32 And he lift up his face to the window, and ſaid, Who is on my ſide, who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. 33 And ſaid, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and ſome of her blood was ſprinkled on the wall, and on the horſes: and he trode her under foot. 34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and ſaid, Go, ſee now this curſed woman, and bury her: for ſhe is a kings daughter. 35 And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the ſcull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. 36 Wherefore they came again, and told him: and he ſaid, This is the word of the Lord, which he ſpake by his ſervant Elijah the Tiſhbite, ſaying, In the portion of Jezreel ſhall dogs eat the fleſh of Jezebel: 37 And the carcaſe of Jezebel ſhall be as dung upon the face of the field, in the portion of Jezreel, ſo that they ſhall not ſay, This is Jezebel.

Look out there Jehu — then take the Box of Oil, and pour it on his Head, and ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord, I have anointed thee King over Iſrael] The Jews are of Opinion, that none of the Kings of Iſrael were anointed, but thoſe that were of the Houſe of David, and theſe only when there was a Queſtion about their Succeſſion; as Solomon, they ſay, needed not to have been anointed, had it not been for the Faction of Adonijah. But in the Caſe of Jehu, in whom the Succeſſion of the Kingdom of Iſrael was to be tranſlated out of the right Line of the Family of Ahab, into another Family which had no Right to the Kingdom, but merely by this Appointment of God, there was a Neceſſity for his Unction, in order both to convey him a Title, and to inveſt him in the actual Poſſeſſion of the Kingdom; for if that (which ſome imagine from 1 Kings xix. 16.) be true, viz. that the Prophet Elijah did, before this Time, anoint Jehu, that Unction did only confer on him a remote Right to the Kingdom, in the ſame Manner, as Samuel's Unction did to David, 1 Sam. xvi. 13.

Surely, I have ſeen yeſterday the Blood of Naboth, and the Blood of his Sons, ſaid the Lord, and I will requite thee in this Place] It is to be obſerved, that in all the Hiſtory of Naboth (which is recorded in 1 Kings xxi.) we find no Mention made of the Death of his Sons; but it is no unuſual Thing for the Scripture to ſupply, in one Place, that which has been omitted in another. 'Tis not improbable therefore, that, as Naboth was accuſed of High Treaſon, all his Family was involved in his Ruin, and all his Eſtate confiſcated to the King's Exchequer. And what ſeems to confirm this Opinion is, That we never find Elijah once putting the King in Mind, to reſtore the Vineyard to Naboth's Children, or the King, in the Time of his Repentance, ever once thinking to do it, becauſe, in all human Appearance, there were no Heirs left. Notwithſtanding this, Grotius, and other learned Men, have obſerved, that theſe Words ſignify no more, than the extreme Poverty to which Naboth's Family was reduced by the Death of their Father, and the Confiſcation of his Goods: For, among the Hebrews, ſay they, all Puniſhments and Miſeries are called Blood, Levit. xvii. 4. and to take away their Eſtate, upon which they ſhould have lived, was in Effect, to take away their Blood, in which is the Life of every Creature. But this is a little forced; and therefore we ſhould rather think, that Jehu is here aggravating Ahab's Crime, and reckoning the Sons, as one with the Father; becauſe, by their being deprived of him, and of his Eſtate, they were, in a Manner, in as bad a Condition, as tho' they were dead.

But when Ahaziah the King of Iſrael ſaw this, he fled by the way of the Garden-houſe; and Jehu followed after him, and ſaid, Smite him alſo in the Chariot; and they did ſo at the going up to Gur; and he fled to Megiddo, and died there] But the Account of this Tranſaction is very differently related by the Author of the ſecond Book of Chronicles, Chap. xxi. In order to reconcile theſe different Accounts we muſt obſerve, that, as one great End of writing the Book of Chronicles, was, to ſupply ſuch Matter, as had been omitted in the Book of Kings; ſo this Account of the Death of Ahaziah, in the latter, is very ſhort, and included in the Story of Jehoram, that the Reader, at one and the ſame View, as it were, might perceive, in what Manner it was, that both theſe Princes fell; but in the former it is told more at large, and therefore, to compleat the Hiſtory, we muſt take in both Accounts, and from thence we may gather — That upon ſeeing Jehoram mortally wounded, Ahaziah turned his Chariot, and made the beſt of his Way to Samaria, in order to eſcape into his own Kingdom; but, finding the Paſſes too narrowly guarded, he thought proper to conceal himſelf in the Town, in hopes of a better Opportunity; that Jehu in the mean Time, coming to Samaria, and, having Intelligence that Ahaziah was lurking there, ordered, that diligent Search ſhould be made for him, and, when he was found, that he ſhould be carried to Gur (the Place in all Probability, where his Father Joram had ſlain his Brethren) and there be killed in his Chariot, that ſo his Servants might immediately carry off his Corpſe, and bury it. But, as Jehu's Order to the Officers, that were entruſted with the Execution, was only, that they ſhould ſmite him, they thought it enough to give him a mortal Wound, ſo that his Servants carried him from thence to Megiddo, the next Town in the Tribe of Iſſachar, where he died.

Jezebel heard thereof, and painted her Face] The Words in the Original import, ſhe put her Eyes in Paint, i. e. ſhe uſed Stibium, or Antimony pulverized, to make her Eyes and Eye-brows look black and large, which, in ſeveral Countries, was accounted a great Beauty. The Uſe of Paint has been of antient Date, and the Art of blackening the Hair, and beautifying the Face, may be indulged the Vanity of the Female Sex; but it raiſes one's Indignation, to read of a Sardanapalus painting his Eyes and Eye-brows; of the antient Greeks running into the ſame Cuſtom; and much more of the martial Romans: But there were Fops then in all Nations, as well as now.

Jehu cauſeth ſeventy of Ahab's Sons to be ſlain; alſo forty-two of Athaliah's Brethren; kills all the Prieſts and Prophets of Ahab, and follows the Sins of Jeroboam. Hazael oppreſſes Iſrael. Jehoahaz ſucceeds Jehu.

Ver. 1. AND Ahab had ſeventy ſons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and ſent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahabs children, ſaying, 2 Now aſſoon as this letter cometh to you, ſeeing your maſters ſons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horſes, a fenced city alſo, and armour: 3 Look even out the beſt and meeteſt of your maſters ſons, and ſet him on his fathers throne, and fight for your maſters houſe. 4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and ſaid, Behold, two kings ſtood not before him: how then ſhall we ſtand? 5 And he that was over the houſe, and he that was over the city, the elders alſo, and the bringers up of the children, ſent to Jehu, ſaying, We are thy ſervants, and will do all that thou ſhalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes. 6 Then he wrote a letter the ſecond time to them, ſaying, If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your maſters ſons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time: (now the kings ſons being ſeventy perſons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up) 7 And it came to paſs when the letter came to them, that they took the kings ſons, and ſlew ſeventy perſons, and put their heads in baſkets, and ſent them to Jezreel. 8 And there came a meſſenger, and told him, ſaying, They have brought the heads of the kings ſons. And he ſaid, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entring in of the gate, until the morning. 9 And it came to paſs in the morning, that he went out, and ſtood, and ſaid to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I have conſpired againſt my maſter, and ſlew him: but who ſlew all theſe? 10 Know now that there ſhall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the Lord, which the Lord ſpake concerning the houſe of Ahab: for the Lord hath done that which he ſpake by his ſervant Elijah. 11 So Jehu ſlew all that remained of the houſe of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his prieſts, until he left him none remaining. 12 And he aroſe and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the ſhearing-houſe in the way, 13 Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and ſaid, Who are ye? And they anſwered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, and we go down to ſalute the children of the king, and the children of the queen. 14 And he ſaid, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and ſlew them at the pit of the ſhearing-houſe, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them. 15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the ſon of Rechab, coming to meet him, and he ſaluted him, and ſaid to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab anſwered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand: And he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot. 16 And he ſaid, Come with me, and ſee my zeal for the Lord: So they made him ride in his chariot. 17 And when he came to Samaria, he ſlew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had deſtroyed him, according to the ſaying of the Lord, which he ſpake to Elijah. 18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and ſaid unto them, Ahab ſerved Baal a little, but Jehu ſhall ſerve him much. 19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his ſervants, and all his prieſts, let none be wanting, for I have a great ſacrifice to do to Baal: whoſoever ſhall be wanting, he ſhall not live. But Jehu did it in ſubtilty, to the intent that he might deſtroy the worſhippers of Baal. 20 And Jehu ſaid, Proclaim a ſolemn aſſembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. 21 And Jehu ſent through all Iſrael: and all the worſhippers of Baal came, ſo that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the houſe of Baal; and the houſe of Baal was full from one end to another. 22 And he ſaid unto him that was over the veſtry, Bring forth veſtments for all the worſhippers of Baal. And he brought them forth veſtments. 23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the ſon of Rechab, into the houſe of Baal, and ſaid unto the worſhippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the ſervants of the Lord, but the worſhippers of Baal only. 24 And when they went in to offer ſacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourſcore men without, and ſaid, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands, eſcape, he that letteth him go, his life ſhall be for the life of him. 25 And it came to paſs as ſoon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu ſaid to the guard, and to the captains, Go in, and ſlay them, let none come forth. And they ſmote them with the edge of the ſword, and the guard and the captains caſt them out, and went to the city of the houſe of Baal. 26 And they brought forth the images out of the houſe of Baal and burnt them. 27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the houſe of Baal, and made it a draught-houſe unto this day. 28 Thus Jehu deſtroyed Baal out of Iſrael. 29 Howbeit from the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, who made Iſrael to ſin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan. 30 And the Lord ſaid unto Jehu, Becauſe thou haſt done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and haſt done unto the houſe of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation ſhall ſit on the throne of Iſrael. 31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the Lord God of Iſrael, with all his heart: for he departed not from the ſins of Jeroboam, which made Iſrael to ſin. 32 In thoſe days the Lord cut Iſrael ſhort: and Hazael ſmote them in all the coaſts of Iſrael; 33 From Jordan eaſtward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manaſſites, from Aroer (which is by the river Arnon) even Gilead and Baſhan. 34 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehu and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 35 And Jehu ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Jehoahaz his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 36 And the time that Jehu reigned over Iſrael in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

And Jehu wrote Letters, and ſent to Samaria, unto the Rulers of Jezreel] But how came the Rulers of Jezreel to be at Samaria? Some have imagined indeed a Miſtake in the Tranſcriber, and that, inſtead of Jezreel the Word ſhould be Iſrael, which is no great Variation. But why may we not ſuppoſe, that, upon hearing how Jehu had ſlain Joram, the great Men of his Court might take the Children, and, for fear they ſhould fall into his Hands, flee with them to Samaria, as the Capital, and ſtrongeſt Place in the Kingdom; where they might think of defending themſelves againſt his Uſurpation, and (as his Letter ſeems to import) of filling with one of Ahab's Family, the vacant Throne. It was cuſtomary for Princes of the Blood in thoſe Days to be brought up in the Families of the prime Nobility of the Nation; and therefore, whatever Perſons of Quality had theſe Princes under their Care, and ſaw the Revolution that was like to happen, might think it the moſt adviſeable Way to haſten with them to Samaria, as a Place of the moſt Security: Or, for the very Reaſon, Joram, when he went againſt Ramoth Gilead, might have ſent them thither, that they might be under Cover, from any ill Accident that might poſſibly happen in his War with the King of Syria.

CHAP. XI.

Q. Athaliah deſtroys all the Royal Family, except Joaſh, whom Jehoiada hides ſix Years in the Temple, and in the ſeventh proclaims him King. Athaliah is ſlain. The Covenant between God, the King, and the People is renewed. Baal's Worſhip is deſtroyed.

Ver. 1. AND when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed royal. 2 But Jehosheba the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the kings sons, which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse in the bed-chamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. 3 And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord, six years; and Athaliah did reign over the land. 4 And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetcht the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the Lord, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the Lord, and shewed them the kings son. 5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath, shall even be keepers of the watch of the kings house. 6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur: and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house that it be not broken down. 7 And two parts of all you, that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the Lord about the king. 8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain; and be ye with the king as he goeth out, and as he cometh in. 9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. 10 And to the captains over hundreds, did the priest give king Davids spears and shields that were in the temple of the Lord. 11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapon in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple, to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple. 12 And he brought forth the kings son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony, and they made him king, and anointed him, and they clapt their hands, and said, God save the king. 13 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard, and of the people, she came to the people, into the temple of the Lord. 14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes, and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason. 15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her, kill with the sword: For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the Lord. 16 And they laid hands on her, and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the kings house, and there was she slain. 17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord, and the king, and the people, that they should be the Lords people; between the king also and the people. 18 And all the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, And slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars: and the priest appointed officers over the house of the Lord. 19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land, and they brought down the king from the house of the Lord, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the kings house, and he sat on the throne of the kings. 20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet; and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the kings house. 21 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

And when Athaliah, the Mother of Ahaziah, saw that her Son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the Seed Royal] The Consideration of the Fate that attended the two royal Families of Israel and Judah, is enough to make any one bless Providence, for having been born of meaner Parentage. The whole Offspring of Jeroboam, Baasha, and Ahab, Kings of Israel, were cut off for their Idolatry, so that there was not one left; and the Kings of Judah, having an Affinity with the House of Ahab, and being by them seduced to the same Crime, were destroyed by three successive Massacres, that there was but one left. For, first, Jehoram slew his Brethren; then, Jehu slew all his Brother's Children; and now, Athaliah destroys all the rest, that her Executioners could meet with. Enraged she was to see Ahab's Family cut off, she had Reason to apprehend, that Jehu, who had a Commission to extirpate all, would not be long before he called upon her; her only Way therefore, to secure herself against him, was to usurp the Throne; but this, she knew, she could not do, without destroying all the royal Progeny, who were no Well-wishers to the Worship of Baal, which she had abetted, and was resolved to establish.

And gave him the Testimony] Those who think, that the Word Eduth, which we translate Testimony, comes from the Hebrew Root Adah, which signifies to cloath, put on, or adorn, suppose, that it was some royal Ornament, which the High-Priest put upon the King, as a Mark of regal Dignity, at the same Time that he placed the Crown upon his Head; and this Ornament they conceive to have been a Bracelet; because, in the Story of the Amalekite, we read, that he brought to David the Bracelet that was upon Saul's Arm, as well as the Crown that was upon his Head. But since, in the xviith Chapter of Deuteronomy, which treats expresly of the Election and Duty of a King, there is this Injunction given, That he should write him a Copy of the Law in a Book, out of that which is before the Priests, the Levites, Ver. 18. others, with more Probability, have thought, that, at his Coronation, a Roll, containing a Copy of the Law, (which is frequently called a Testimony, as being a Witness of God's Will, and Men's Duty) was put in his Hand, which he held, for that Time, in the Way of a Sceptre or Truncheon; tho' others will have it, that when Jehoiadah crowned Joash, he laid the Book of the Law upon his Head, to which Custom holy Job (Ch. xxxi. 35, 36.) as they think, seems to allude, when he wishes, O that mine Adversary had written a Book; surely I would take it upon my Shoulder, and bind it as a Crown to me: For the Manner among the Orientals, when they had received a Letter from any Person they highly respected, was to hold it up to their Heads, before they opened it. See Patrick's and Calmet's Com. and Pool's Annot.

Ver.

Ver. 1. IN the ſeventh year of Jehu, Jehoaſh began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-ſheba. 2 And Jehoaſh did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord all his days, wherein Jehoiada the prieſt inſtructed him. 3 But the high places were not taken away: the people ſtill ſacrificed, and burnt incenſe in the high places. 4 And Jehoaſh ſaid to the prieſts, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the houſe of the Lord, even the money of every one that paſſeth the account, the money that every man is ſet at, and all the money that cometh into any mans heart to bring into the houſe of the Lord, 5 Let the prieſts take it to them, every man of his acquaintance, and let them repair the breaches of the houſe, whereſoever any breaches ſhall be found. 6 But it was ſo, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoaſh, the prieſts had not repaired the breaches of the houſe. 7 Then king Jehoaſh called for Jehoiada the prieſt, and the other prieſts, and ſaid unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the houſe? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the houſe. 8 And the prieſts conſented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the houſe. 9 But Jehoiada the prieſt took a cheſt, and bored a whole in the lid of it, and ſet it beſide the altar, on the right ſide, as one cometh into the houſe of the Lord: and the prieſts that kept the door, put therein all the money that was brought into the houſe of the Lord. 10 And it was ſo, when they ſaw that there was much money in the cheſt, that the kings ſcribe, and the high prieſt came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the houſe of the Lord. 11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the overſight of the houſe of the Lord: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the houſe of the Lord. 12 And to maſons and hewers of ſtone, and to buy timber, and hewed ſtone to repair the breaches of the houſe of the Lord, and for all that was laid out for the houſe to repair it. 13 Howbeit, there were not made for the houſe of the Lord, bowls of ſilver, ſnuffers, baſons, trumpets, any veſſels of gold, or veſſels of ſilver, of the money that was brought into the houſe of the Lord. 14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the houſe of the Lord. 15 Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whoſe hand they delivered the money to be beſtowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully. 16 The treſpaſs-money, and ſin-money was not brought into the houſe of the Lord: it was the prieſts. 17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up and fought againſt Gath, and took it: and Hazael ſet his face to go up to Jeruſalem. 18 And Jehoaſh king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoſhaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Judah had dedicate, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and in the kings houſe, and ſent it to Hazael king of Syria, and he went away from Jeruſalem. 19 And the reſt of the acts of Joaſh, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20 And his ſervants aroſe, and made a conſpiracy, and ſlew Joaſh in the houſe of Millo, which goeth down to Silla. 21 For Jozachar the ſon of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the ſon of Shomer, his ſervants, ſmote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

There being no Difficulty in this Chapter that wants Explanation, we will proceed to the next.

Ver. 1. IN the three and twentieth year of Joaſh the ſon of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the ſon of Jehu began to reign over Iſrael in Samaria, and reigned ſeventeen years. 2 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, and followed the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, which made Iſrael to ſin, he departed not therefrom. 3 And the anger of the Lord was kindled againſt Iſrael, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria: and into the hand of Ben-hadad the ſon of Hazael, all their days. 4 And Jehoahaz beſought the Lord, and the Lord hearkened unto him: for he ſaw the oppreſſion of Iſrael, becauſe the king of Syria oppreſſed them. 5 (And the Lord gave Iſrael a ſaviour, ſo that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Iſrael dwelt in their tents, as before time. 6 Nevertheleſs, they departed not from the ſins of the houſe of Jeroboam, who made Iſrael ſin, but walked therein: and there remained the grove alſo in Samaria) 7 Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz, but fifty horſemen, and ten chariots, and ten thouſand footmen; for the king of Syria had deſtroyed them, and had made them like the duſt by threſhing. 8 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 9 And Jehoahaz ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joaſh his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 10 In the thirty and ſeventh year of Joaſh king of Judah, began Jehoaſh the ſon of Jehoahaz to reign over Iſrael in Samaria, and reigned ſixteen years. 11 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord; he departed not from all the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, who made Iſrael ſin, but he walked therein. 12 And the reſt of the acts of Joaſh, and all that he did, and his might, wherewith he fought againſt Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 13 And Joaſh ſlept with his fathers, and Jeroboam ſat upon his throne: and Joaſh was buried in Samaria with the kings of Iſrael. 14 Now Eliſha fallen ſick of his ſickneſs whereof he died, and Joaſh the king of Iſrael came down unto him, and wept over his face, and ſaid, O my father, my father, the chariot of Iſrael, and the horſemen thereof. 15 And Eliſha ſaid unto him, Take bow and arrows: and he took unto him bow and arrows. 16 And he ſaid to the king of Iſrael, Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Eliſha put his hands upon the kings hands. 17 And he ſaid, Open the window eaſt-ward: and he opened it. Then Eliſha ſaid, Shoot: and he ſhot. And he ſaid, The arrow of the Lord's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou ſhalt ſmite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have conſumed them. 18 And he ſaid, Take the arrows: and he took them. And he ſaid unto the king of Iſrael, Smite upon the ground: and he ſmote thrice, and ſtayed. 19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and ſaid, Thou ſhouldeſt have ſmitten five or ſix times, then hadſt thou ſmitten Syria till thou hadſt conſumed it: whereas now thou ſhalt ſmite Syria but thrice. 20 And Eliſha died, and they buried him: and the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. 21 And it came to paſs as they were burying a man, that behold they ſpied a band of men, and they caſt the man into the ſepulchre of Eliſha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Eliſha, he revived, and ſtood up on his feet. 22 But Hazael king of Syria oppreſſed Iſrael all the days of Jehoahaz. 23 And the Lord was gracious unto them, and had compaſſion on them, and had reſpect unto them, becauſe of his covenant with Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob, and would not deſtroy them, neither caſt he them from his preſence as yet. 24 So Hazael king of Syria died, and Ben-hadad his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 25 And Jehoaſh the ſon of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the ſon of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war: three times did Joaſh beat him, and recovered the cities of Iſrael.

And the Man of God was wroth with him, and ſaid, Thou ſhouldeſt have ſmitten five or ſix Times] Whether King Joaſh, before this Interview with Eliſha, was acquainted, or not, with the Nature of parabolical Actions, whereby Prophets more eſpecially were accuſtomed to repreſent future Events; by the Comment which Eliſha made upon the firſt Arrow that he ſhot (which he calls the Arrow of Deliverance from Syria) he could not but perceive that this was a ſymbolical Action, and intended to prefigure his Victories over that Nation; and therefore, as the firſt Action of ſhooting was a Kind of Prelude to the War, he could not but underſtand farther, (even tho' the Prophet had ſaid nothing to him) that this ſecond Action of ſtriking the Ground with the Arrow, was to portend the Number of Victories he was to obtain. But then, if we may ſuppoſe, with the Generality of Interpreters, that the Prophet had apprized him before-hand, that ſuch was the ſymbolical Intent of what he now put him upon, that the oftner he ſmote upon the Ground, the more and the Victories be, which his Arms ſhould obtain; this was the Decree of Heaven, and that thus, in the Meaſure, his Succeſs in War was put in his own Power; the King's Conduct was utterly inexcuſable, confident of the Prophet's Promiſe, and conſidering the juſt Strength of the Kings of Syria, more than the Power of God that was engaged on his Side, he ſtopped his Hand, after he had ſmote thrice; ſuppoſing, indeed, that the Prediction would never have been fulfilled, had he gone on, and ſmote upon the Earth oftner. Upon the Whole therefore, the Prophet had juſt Reaſon to be offended with the King, for not believing God, who had done ſo many Miracles in Favour of the Iſraelites; for not believing him, who (according to his own Acknowledgment) had been a conſtant Defender of the State, the Chariot of Iſrael, and the Horſemen thereof; and now, in his dying Hours, was full of good Wiſhes for his Country; and, by this Unbelief of his, for eclipſing the Glory of his own Arms, and curtailing the Number of his Victories: For thou ſhouldeſt have ſmitten five or ſix Times (ſays the Prophet to the King) then ſhouldeſt thou have ſmitten Syria, till thou hadſt conſumed it, whereas now thou ſhalt ſmite Syria but thrice.

Ver. 1. IN the ſecond year of Joaſh ſon of Jehoahaz king of Iſrael, reigned Amaziah the ſon of Joaſh king of Judah. 2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Jehoaddan of Jeruſalem. 3 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joaſh his father did. 4 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did ſacrifice, and burnt incenſe on the high places. 5 And it came to paſs as ſoon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he ſlew his ſervants which had ſlain the king his father. 6 But the children of the murderers he ſlew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moſes, wherein the Lord commanded, ſaying, The fathers ſhall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man ſhall be put to death for his own ſin. 7 He ſlew of Edom in the valley of ſalt, ten thouſand, and took Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, unto this day. 8 Then Amaziah ſent meſſengers to Jehoaſh the ſon of Jehoahaz, ſon of Jehu king of Iſrael, ſaying, Come, let us look one another in the face. 9 And Jehoaſh the king of Iſrael ſent to Amaziah king of Judah, ſaying, The thiſtle that was in Lebanon, ſent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, ſaying, Give thy daughter to my ſon to wife: and there paſſed by a wild beaſt that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thiſtle. 10 Thou haſt indeed ſmitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home: for why ſhouldſt thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou ſhouldeſt fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? 11 But Amaziah would not hear: therefore Jehoaſh king of Iſrael went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-ſhemeſh, which belongeth to Judah. 12 And Judah was put to the worſe before Iſrael, and they fled every man to their tents. 13 And Jehoaſh king of Iſrael took Amaziah king of Judah, the ſon of Jehoaſh the ſon of Ahaziah, at Beth-ſhemeſh, and came to Jeruſalem, and brake down the wall of Jeruſalem, from the gate of Ephraim, unto the corner-gate, four hundred cubits. 14 And he took all the gold and ſilver, and all the veſſels that were found in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſures of the kings houſe, and hoſtages, and returned to Samaria. 15 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoaſh which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 16 And Jehoaſh ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Iſrael, and Jeroboam his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 17 And Amaziah the ſon of Joaſh king of Judah, lived after the death of Jehoaſh ſon of Jehoahaz king of Iſrael, fifteen years. 18 And the reſt of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 19 Now they made a conſpiracy againſt him in Jeruſalem: and he fled to Lachiſh, but they ſent after him to Lachiſh, and ſlew him there. 20 And they brought him on horſes; and he was buried at Jeruſalem with his fathers in the city of David. 21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, (which was ſixteen years old) and made him king in ſtead of his father Amaziah. 22 He built Elath, and reſtored it to Judah, after that the king ſlept with his fathers. 23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah, the ſon of Joaſh, king of Judah, Jeroboam the ſon of Joaſh king of Iſrael began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years. 24 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord: he departed not from all the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat who made Iſrael to ſin. 25 He reſtored the coaſt of Iſrael from the entring of Hamath, unto the ſea of the plain, according to the word of the Lord God of Iſrael, which he ſpake by the hand of his ſervant Jonah, the ſon of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath hepher. 26 For the Lord ſaw the affliction of Iſrael, that it was very bitter: for there was not any ſhut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Iſrael. 27 And the Lord ſaid not that he would blot out the name of Iſrael from under heaven: but he ſaved them by the hand of Jeroboam the ſon of Joaſh. 28 Now reſt of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damaſcus, and Hamath, which belonged to Judah, for Iſrael, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 29 And Jeroboam ſlept with his fathers, even with the kings of Iſrael; and Zachariah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

According to the Word of the Lord God of Iſrael, which he ſpake by the Hand of his Servant Jonah] The only Mention we have of this Prophet (whom the Jews will have to be the Son of the Widow of Zarepta, whom Elijah raiſed from the Dead, but without any Foundation of Reaſon) is in this Paſſage, and the Account of this famous Miſſion to Nineveh. What the Prophecies were, whereby he encouraged Joaſh to proclaim War againſt the King of Syria, we have no where recorded; but, as we have not every Thing which the Prophet did write, ſo ſeveral Prophets, we muſt know did not commit their Predictions to writing. From this Place, however, we may obſerve, that God was very merciful to the Iſraelites, tho' they were certainly a very wicked People, in continuing a Race of Prophets among them, even after Eliſha was dead.

Ver. 1. IN the twenty and ſeventh year of Jeroboam king of Iſrael, began Azariah ſon of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. 2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jeruſalem, and his mothers name was Jecholiah of Jeruſalem. 3 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah had done; 4 Save that the high places were not removed: the people ſacrificed, and burnt incenſe ſtill on the high places. 5 And the Lord ſmote the king, ſo that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a ſeveral houſe: and Jotham the kings ſon was over the houſe, judging the people of the land. 6 And the reſt of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 7 So Azariah ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 8 In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, did Zachariah the ſon of Jeroboam reign over Iſrael in Samaria ſix months. 9 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, who made Iſrael to ſin. 10 And Shallum the ſon of Jabeſh conſpired againſt him, and ſmote him before the people, and ſlew him, and reigned in his ſtead. 11 And the reſt of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael. 12 This was the word of the Lord which he ſpake unto Jehu, ſaying, Thy ſons ſhall ſit on the throne of Iſrael, unto the fourth generation. And ſo it came to paſs. 13 Shallum the ſon of Jabeſh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned a full mounth in Samaria. 14 For Menahem the ſon of Gadi, went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and ſmote Shallum the ſon of Jabeſh in Samaria, and ſlew him, and reigned in his ſtead. 15 And the reſt of the acts of Shallum, and his conſpiracy which he made, behold they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael. 16 Then Menahem ſmote Tiphſah, and all that were therein, and the coaſts thereof from Tirzah: becauſe they opened not to him, therefore he ſmote it, and all the women therein that were with child, he ript up. 17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah, began Menahem the ſon of Gadi to reign over Iſrael, and reigned ten years in Samaria. 18 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord: he departed not all his days from the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat who made Iſrael to ſin. 19 And Pul the king of Aſſyria came againſt the land: and Menahem

Menahem gave Pul a thouſand talents of ſilver, that his hand might be with him, to confirm the kingdom in his hand. 20 And Menahem exacted the money of Iſrael, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty ſhekels of ſilver, to give to the king of Aſſyria: ſo the king of Aſſyria turned back, and ſtayed not there in the land. 21 And the reſt of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael? 22 And Menahem ſlept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the ſon of Menahem began to reign over Iſrael in Samaria, and reigned two years. 24 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, he departed not from the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat who made Iſrael to ſin. 25 But Pekah the ſon of Remaliah, a captain of his, conſpired againſt him, and ſmote him in Samaria, in the palace of the kings houſe, with Argob, and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room. 26 And the reſt of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael. 27 In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the ſon of Remaliah began to reign over Iſrael in Samaria, and reigned twenty years. 28 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, he departed not from the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat who made Iſrael to ſin. 29 In the days of Pekah king of Iſrael came Tiglath-pileſer king of Aſſyria, and took Ijon, and Abelbeth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedeſh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Aſſyria. 30 And Hoſhea the ſon of Elah made a conſpiracy againſt Pekah the ſon of Remaliah, and ſmote him, and ſlew him, and reigned in his ſtead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the ſon of Uzziah. 31 And the reſt of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael. 32 In the ſecond year Pekah the ſon of Remaliah, king of Iſrael, began Jotham the ſon of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. 33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Jeruſha, the daughter of Zadok. 34 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. 35 Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people ſacrificed and burnt incenſe ſtill in the high places: he built the higher gate of the houſe of the Lord. 36 Now the reſt of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 37 (In thoſe days the Lord began to ſend againſt Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the ſon of Remaliah,) 38 And Jotham ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Ahaz his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

It is ſaid, Ver. 30. that Hoſhea conſpired againſt, and ſmote Pekah, and reigned in his Stead, in the twentieth Year of Jotham the Son of Uzziah: But how could this be, when Jotham reigned only ſixteen Years, Ver. 33. The Meaning is, that he began his Reign in the twentieth Year after the Beginning of Jotham's Reign; or, which is the ſame Thing, in the fourth Year of Ahaz, as appears from Chap. xvi. 1. But the ſacred Writer not having yet made Mention of Ahaz, thought it more proper to number Hoſhea's Years by Jotham, of whom he had ſpoken, than by Ahaz. Beſides, as Jotham reigned divers Years in his Father's Life, ſo might Ahaz in Jotham's Life, and Jotham might, for divers Reaſons, reſign up the Adminiſtration of the Kingdom wholly to Ahaz ſome Years before his Death; and therefore might be ſaid to reign ſixteen Years, tho' he lived longer.

Ver. 1. IN the ſeventeenth year of Pekah the ſon of Remaliah, Ahaz the ſon of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. 2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem, and did not that which was right in the ſight of the Lord his God, like David his father. 3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Iſrael, yea, and made his ſon to paſs through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord caſt out from before the children of Iſrael. 4 And he ſacrificed and burnt incenſe in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. 5 Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah ſon of Remaliah king of Iſrael, came up to Jeruſalem to war: and they beſieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. 6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day. 7 So Ahaz ſent meſſengers to Tiglath-pileſer king of Aſſyria, ſaying, I am thy ſervant and thy ſon: come up, and ſave me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Iſrael, which riſe up againſt me. 8 And Ahaz took the ſilver and gold that was found in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſures of the kings houſe, and ſent it for a preſent to the king of Aſſyria. 9 And the king of Aſſyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Aſſyria went up againſt Damaſcus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and ſlew Rezin. 10 And king Ahaz went to Damaſcus, to meet Tiglath-pileſer king of Aſſyria, and ſaw an altar that was at Damaſcus: and king Ahaz ſent to Urijah the prieſt the faſhion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanſhip thereof. 11 And Urijah the prieſt built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had ſent from Damaſcus: ſo Urijah the prieſt made it, againſt king Ahaz came from Damaſcus. 12 And when the king was come from Damaſcus, the king ſaw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon. 13 And he burnt his burnt-offering, and his meat offering, and poured his drink-offering, and ſprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings upon the altar. 14 And he brought alſo the braſen altar which was before the

the Lord, from the fore-front of the houſe, from between the altar and the houſe of the Lord, and put it on the north ſide of the altar. 15 And King Ahaz commanded Urijah the prieſt, ſaying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the kings burnt-ſacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, and ſprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the ſacrifice: and the braſen altar ſhall be for me to enquire by. 16 Thus did Urijah the prieſt, according to all that king Ahaz had commanded. 17 And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the baſes, and removed the laver from off them, and took down the ſea from off the braſen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of ſtones. 18 And the covert for the ſabbath that they had built in the houſe, and the kings entry without, turned he from the houſe of the Lord, for the king of Aſſyria. 19 Now the reſt of the acts of Ahaz, which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20 And Ahaz ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Hezekiah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

The Contents of this, and ſeveral other Chapters in this Book, being related more at large in the Chronicles, we ſhall defer our Remarks, till we can make them to more Advantage.

Ver. 1. IN the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, began Hoſhea the ſon of Elah to reign in Samaria, over Iſrael nine years. 2 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of Lord, but not as the kings of Iſrael that were before him. 3 Againſt him came up Shalmaneſer king of Aſſyria, and Hoſhea became his ſervant, and gave him preſents. 4 And the king of Aſſyria found conſpiracy in Hoſhea: for he had ſent meſſengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no preſent to the king of Aſſyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Aſſyria ſhut him up, and bound him in priſon. 5 Then the king of Aſſyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and beſieged it three years. 6 In the ninth year of Hoſhea, the king of Aſſyria took Samaria, and carried Iſrael away into Aſſyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. 7 For ſo it was, that the children of Iſrael had ſinned againſt the Lord their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods. 8 And walked in the ſtatutes of the heathen, (whom the Lord caſt out from before the children of Iſrael) and of the kings of Iſrael, which they had made. 9 And the children of Iſrael did ſecretly thoſe things that were not right againſt the Lord their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen, to the fenced city. 10 And they ſet them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree: 11 And there they burnt incenſe in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the Lord carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the Lord to anger. 12 For they ſerved idols, whereof the Lord had ſaid unto them, Ye ſhall not do this thing. 13 Yet the Lord teſtified againſt Iſrael, and againſt Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the ſeers, ſaying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my ſtatutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I ſent to you by my ſervants the prophets. 14 Notwithſtanding, they would not hear, but hardned their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the Lord their God. 15 And they rejected his ſtatutes and his covenant that he made with their fathers and his teſtimonies which he teſtified againſt them, and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lord had charged them, that they ſhould do not like them. 16 And they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove and worſhipped all the hoſt of heaven, and ſerved Baal. 17 And they cauſed their ſons and their daughters to paſs through the fire and uſed divination and inchantments, and ſold themſelves to do evil in the ſight of the Lord to provoke him to anger. 18 Therefore the Lord was very angry with Iſrael, and removed them out of his ſight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. 19 Alſo Judah kept not the commandments of the Lord their God, but walked in the ſtatutes of Iſrael which they made. 20 And the Lord rejected all the ſeed of Iſrael, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of ſpoilers, until he had caſt them out of his ſight. 21 For he rent Iſrael from the houſe of David, and they made Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat king, and Jeroboam drave Iſrael from following the Lord, and made them ſin a great ſin. 22 For the children of Iſrael walked in the ſins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them: 23 Until the Lord removed Iſrael out of his ſight, as he had ſaid by all his ſervants the prophets. So was Iſrael carried away out of their own land to Aſſyria unto this day. 24 And the king of Aſſyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, in the ſtead of the children of Iſrael: and they poſſeſſed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. 25 And ſo it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the Lord; therefore the Lord ſent lions among them, which ſlew ſome of them. 26 Wherefore they ſpake to the king of Aſſyria, ſaying, The nations which thou haſt moved, and placed in all the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath ſent lions among them, and behold, they them, becauſe they know not the manner of the God of the land. 27 Then the king of Aſſyria commanded, ſaying, Carry thither one of the prieſts whom ye brought from thence, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach the manner of the God of the land. 28 Then one of the prieſts, whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they ſhould fear the Lord. 29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houſes of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. 30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Aſhimah, 31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anamelech the gods of Sepharvaim. 32 So they feared the Lord, and made unto themſelves of the loweſt of them prieſts of the high places, which ſacrificed for them in the houſes of the high places. 33 They feared the Lord and ſerved their own gods, after the manner of the nations, whom they carried away from thence. 34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the Lord, neither do they after their ſtatutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the Lord commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Iſrael? 35 With whom the Lord had made a covenant, and charged them, ſaying, Ye ſhall not fear other gods, nor bow yourſelves to them, nor ſerve them, nor ſacrifice to them: 36 But the Lord who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power, and a ſtretched-out arm, him ſhall ye fear, and him ſhall ye worſhip, and to him ſhall ye do ſacrifice 37 And the ſtatutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you, ye ſhall obſerve to do for evermore, and ye ſhall not fear other gods: 38 And the covenant that I have made with you, ye ſhall not forget, neither ſhall ye fear other gods. 39 But the Lord your God ye ſhall fear, and he ſhall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. 40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. 41 So theſe nations feared the Lord, and ſerved their graven images, both their children, and their childrens children: as did their fathers, ſo do they unto this day.

In the twelfth Year of Ahaz King of Judah, began Hoſhea the Son of Elah to reign in Samaria] But how can this be true, ſeeing it is ſaid, that he reigned, began to reign in Iſrael in the twentieth Year of Jotham, Ch. xvi. 30. Anſw. He uſurped the Kingdom in the fourth Year of Ahaz; but either was not owned as King, by the Generality of the People; or was not accepted or eſtabliſhed in his Kingdom by the Aſſyrians, till Ahaz his twelfth Year; or, in his eight firſt Years, he was only a tributary Prince, and the King of Aſſyria's Viceroy; and after that Time he ſet up for himſelf, which drew the Aſſyrian upon him.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs in the third year of Hoſhea ſon of Elah king of Iſrael, that Hezekiah the ſon of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. 2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jeruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah. 3 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that David his father did. 4 He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the braſen ſerpent that Moſes had made: for unto thoſe days the children of Iſrael did burn incenſe to it: and he called it Nehuſhtan. 5 He truſted in the Lord God of Iſrael, ſo that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. 6 For he clave to the Lord, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the Lord commanded Moſes. 7 And the Lord was with him, and he proſpered whitherſoever he went forth: and he rebelled againſt the king of Aſſyria, and ſerved him not. 8 He ſmote the Philiſtines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. 9 And it came to paſs in the fourth year of Hezekiah, (which was the ſeventh year of Hoſhea ſon of Elah king of Iſrael) that Salmaneſer king of Aſſyria came up againſt Samaria, and beſieged it. 10 And at the end of three years they took it, even in the ſixth year of Hezekiah (that is the ninth year of Hoſhea king of Iſrael) Samaria was taken. 11 And the king of Aſſyria did carry away Iſrael unto Aſſyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: 12 Becauſe they obeyed not the voice of the Lord their God, but tranſgreſſed his covenant and all that Moſes the ſervant of the Lord commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them. 13 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, did Sennacherib king of Aſſyria come up againſt all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. 14 And Hezekiah king of Judah ſent to the king of Aſſyria to Lachiſh, ſaying, I have offended, return from me: that which thou putteſt on me, I will bear. And the king of Aſſyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah, three hundred talents of ſilver, and thirty talents of gold. 15 And Hezekiah gave him all the ſilver that was found in the houſe of the Lord, and in the treaſures of the kings houſe. 16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the Lord, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Aſſyria. 17 And the king of Aſſyria ſent Tartan, and Rabſaris, and Rab-ſhakeh from Lachiſh, to king Hezekiah with a great hoſt againſt Jeruſalem: and they went up and came to Jeruſalem: and when they were come up, they came and ſtood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the high-way of the fullers field. 18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the ſon of Hilkiah, which was over the houſhold, and Shebna the ſcribe, and Joah the ſon of Aſaph the recorder. 19 And Rab-ſhakeh ſaid unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus ſaith the great king, the king of Aſſyria, What confidence is this wherein thou truſteſt? 20 Thou ſayeſt, (but they are but vain words) I have counſel and ſtrength for the war: now on whom doſt thou truſt, that thou rebelleſt againſt me? 21 Now behold, thou truſteſt upon the ſtaff of this bruiſed reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: ſo is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that truſt on him. 22 But if ye ſay unto me We truſt in the Lord our God: is not that he whoſe high places, and whoſe altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath ſaid to Judah and Jeruſalem, Ye ſhall worſhip before this altar in Jeruſalem? 23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Aſſyria, and I will deliver thee two thouſand horſes, if thou be able on thy part to ſet riders upon them. 24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the leaſt of my maſters ſervants, and put thy truſt on Egypt for chariots and for horſemen? 25 Am I now come up without the Lord againſt this place to deſtroy it? The Lord ſaid to me, Go up againſt this land, and deſtroy it. 26 Then ſaid Eliakim the ſon of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-ſhakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy ſervants in the Syrian language, (for we underſtand it) and talk not with us in the Jews language in the ears of the people that are on the wall. 27 But Rab-ſhakeh ſaid unto them, Hath my maſter ſent me to thy maſter, and to thee, to ſpeak theſe words? hath he not ſent me to the men which ſit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piſs with you? 28 Then Rab-ſhakeh ſtood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and ſpake, ſaying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Aſſyria. 29 Thus ſaith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you, for he ſhall not be able to deliver you out of his hand: 30 Neither let Hezekiah make you truſt in the Lord, ſaying, The Lord will ſurely deliver us, and this city ſhall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Aſſyria. 31 Hearken not unto Hezekiah: for thus ſaith the king of Aſſyria, Make an agreement with me by a preſent, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his ciſtern: 32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive, and of honey, that ye may live and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he perſwadeth you, ſaying, The Lord will deliver us. 33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria? 34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? 35 Who are they among all the gods of the countrys, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the Lord ſhould deliver Jeruſalem out of mine hand? 36 But the people held their peace, and anſwered him not a word: for the kings commandment was, ſaying, Anſwer him not. 37 Then came Eliakim the ſon of Hilkiah, which was over the houſhold, and Shebna the ſcribe, and Joah the ſon of Aſaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their cloaths rent, and told him the words of Rab-ſhakeh.

And brake in Pieces the brazen Serpent which Moſes had made; for until thoſe Days the Children of Iſrael had burnt Incenſe to it] We are not, however, to ſuppoſe, that, all along from the Days of Moſes, this brazen Serpent was made an Object of religious Worſhip. This is what neither David, nor Solomon in the Beginning of his Reign, would have allowed of; nor can we think, but that either Aſa, or Jehoſaphat when they rooted out Idolatry, would have made an End of this, had they perceived that the People, at that Time, either paid Worſhip, or burnt Incenſe to it. The Commencement of this Superſtition therefore muſt be of a later Date, and ſince the Time that Ahab's Family, by being allied to the Crown of Judah by Marriage, had introduced all Kinds of Idolatry. Now, one falſe Inducement to this Worſhip of the Image, might be a Miſtake of the Words of Moſes. For whereas it is ſaid, that whoſoever looks upon it ſhall live, Numb. xxi. 8. ſome might thence fancy that, by its Mediation, they might obtain a Bleſſing, and ſo make it the Object of their Superſtition at firſt. However, we may imagine, that their burning Incenſe, or any other Perfumes before it, was deſigned only in Honour to the true God, by whoſe Direction Moſes made it; but then, in Proceſs of their Superſtition, they either worſhipped the God of Iſrael under the Image, or, what is worſe, ſubſtituted a Heathen God in his Room, and worſhipped the brazen Serpent, as his Image; which they might more eaſily be induced to do, becauſe the Practice of ſome neighbouring Nations was, to worſhip their Gods under the Form of a Serpent. Upon this Account Hezekiah wiſely choſe, rather to loſe this Memorial of God's wonderful Mercy to his People in the Wilderneſs, than ſuffer it any longer to be abuſed to Idolatry, and therefore he brake it in Pieces, that is, (as the Talmudiſts explain it) he ground it to Powder, and then ſcatter'd it in the Air, that there might not be the leaſt Remains of it: And yet, notwithſtanding all the Care which he took to deſtroy it, Sigonius, in his Hiſtory of Italy, tells us, that in the Church of St. Ambroſe in Milan, they ſhew a brazen Serpent entire, which they pretend to be the very ſame which Moſes erected in the Wilderneſs, tho' it muſt be owned, that among their learned Men, there are ſome that acknowledge the Cheat, and diſclaim it.

And the King of Aſſyria ſent Tartan, and Raliſ and Rabſhakeh] Theſe are not the proper Names of theſe Men, but rather denote their Employments or Offices. Tartan ſignifies the Preſident of the Cuſtoms, Rabſaris, the chief Eunuch; and Rabſhakeh, the principal Cup-bearer; and, becauſe of Rabſhakeh, ſpeaking Hebrew with ſome Fluency, the Rabbi's are generally of Opinion, that he was either an apoſtate Jew, or of the Captivity of Iſrael. 'Tis certain, that he was a very eloquent Man, and his Speech excellently calculated to raiſe Sedition, or Defection among the Beſieged; but that a Perſon of his Education ſhould be verſed in the Phenician, which is in a Manner, the ſame with the Hebrew Language, is no wonder at all. Moreover, had he been a Jew (tho' an Apoſtate) he ſhould have known better one would think, than to have upbraided Hezekiah with acting according to the Law under which he lived, in deſtroying the Groves, Altars of Idols, and in requiring his Subjects to worſhiy God in Jeruſalem only.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs when Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his cloaths, and covered himſelf with ſackcloth, and went into the houſe of the Lord. 2

he ſent Eliakim, which was over the houſhold, and Shebna the ſcribe, and the elders of the prieſts, covered with ſackcloth, to Iſaiah the prophet the ſon of Amoz. 3 And they ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blaſphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not ſtrength to bring forth. 4 It may be the Lord thy God will hear all the words of Rab-ſhakeh, whom the king of Aſſyria his maſter hath ſent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left. 5 So the ſervants of king Hezekiah came to Iſaiah. 6 And Iſaiah ſaid unto them, Thus ſhall ye ſay to your maſter, Thus ſaith the Lord, Be not afraid of the words which thou haſt heard, with which the ſervants of the king of Aſſyria have blaſphemed me. 7 Behold, I will ſend a blaſt upon him, and he ſhall hear a rumour, and ſhall return to his own land, and I will cauſe him to fall by the ſword in his own land. 8 So Rab-ſhakeh returned, and found the king of Aſſyria warring againſt Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachiſh. 9 And when he heard ſay of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight againſt thee: he ſent meſſengers again unto Hezekiah, ſaying, 10 Thus ſhall ye ſpeak to Hezekiah king of Judah, ſaying, Let not thy God in whom thou truſteſt deceive thee, ſaying, Jeruſalem ſhall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Aſſyria. 11 Behold, thou haſt heard what the kings of Aſſyria have done to all lands, by deſtroying them utterly: and ſhalt thou be delivered? 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have deſtroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelaſar? 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? 14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the meſſengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the houſe of the Lord, and ſpread it before the Lord. 15 And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and ſaid, O Lord God of Iſrael, which dwelleſt between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth, thou haſt made heaven and earth. 16 Lord, bow down thine ear, and hear: open, Lord, thine eyes, and ſee: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath ſent him to reproach the living God. 17 Of a truth, Lord, the kings of Aſſyria have deſtroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And have caſt their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of mens hands, wood and ſtone: therefore they have deſtroyed them. 19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beſeech thee, ſave thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord God, even thou only. 20 Then Iſaiah the ſon of Amoz ſent to Hezekiah, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, That which thou haſt prayed to me againſt Sennacherib king of Aſſyria, I have heard. 21 This is the word that the Lord hath ſpoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion hath deſpiſed thee, and laughed thee to ſcorn, the daughter of Jeruſalem hath ſhaken her head at thee. 22 Whom haſt thou reproached and blaſphemed? and againſt whom haſt thou exalted thy voice, and lift up thine eyes on high? even againſt the holy One of Iſrael. 23 By thy meſſengers thou haſt reproached the Lord, and haſt ſaid, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the ſides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar-trees thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forreſt of his Carmel. 24 I have digged and drunk ſtrange waters, and with the ſole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of beſieged places. 25 Haſt thou not heard long ago, how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to paſs that thou ſhouldeſt be to lay waſte fenced cities into ruinous heaps. 26 Therefore their inhabitants were of ſmall power, they were diſmayed and confounded, they were as the graſs of the field, and as the green herb, as the graſs on the houſe-tops, and as corn blaſted before it be grown up. 27 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage againſt me. 28 Becauſe thy rage againſt me, and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy noſe, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou cameſt. 29 And this ſhall be a ſign unto thee, Ye ſhall eat this year ſuch things as grow of themſelves, and in the ſecond year that which ſpringeth of the ſame, and in the third year ſow ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof. 30 And the remnant that is eſcaped of the houſe of Judah, ſhall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. 31 For out of Jeruſalem ſhall go forth a remnant, and they that eſcape, out of mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord of hoſts ſhall do this. 32 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord concerning the king of Aſſyria, He ſhall not come into this city, nor ſhoot an arrow there, nor come before it with ſhield, nor caſt a bank againſt it. 33 By the way that he came, by the ſame ſhall he return, and ſhall not come into this city, ſaith the Lord. 34 For I will defend this city to ſave it, for mine own ſake, and for my ſervant Davids ſake. 35 And it came to paſs that night, that the angel of the Lord went out and ſmote in the camp of the Aſſyrians, an hundred fourſcore and five thouſand: and when they aroſe early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpſes. 36 So Sennacherib king of Aſſyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. 37 And it came to paſs as he was worſhipping in the houſe of Niſroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his ſons ſmote him with the ſword: and they eſcaped into the land of Armenia; and Eſarhaddon his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

And it came to paſs that Night, that the Angel of the Lord went out, and ſmote in the Camp of the Aſſyrians, an hundred fourſcore and five Thouſand] As the Scripture has no where ſaid expreſly, in what Manner this Aſſyrian Army was deſtroyed, ſome have thought that it was by a Plague, others by Thunder and Lightning, others by Fire from Heaven, others by a ſcorching Wind, and others upon their falling foul upon one another, in the Obſcurity of the Night: But which way ſoever it was effected, according to the Hebrew Idiom, there is no Impropriety in ſaying, that it was done done by a deſtroying Angel, which is a comprehenſive Phraſe, that reconciles all the Scripture Paſſages wherein this terrible Defeat is mentioned, and all the Sentiments of Commentators upon it.

Adrammelech, and Sharezer his Sons ſmote him with the Sword] When Sennacherib was got home, after the Loſs of ſo great an Army, he demanded of ſome about him, what the Reaſon might be, that the irreſiſtibleGod of Heaven ſo favoured the Jewiſh Nation? To which he was anſwered, that Abraham from whom they were deſcended, by ſacrificing his only Son to him, had purchaſed his Protection to his Progeny; whereupon the King replied, If that will win him, I will ſpare him two of mine to gain him to my Side; which when his two Sons Sharezer and Adrammelech, heard, they reſolved to prevent their own Death, by ſacrificing him. But for all this Fiction, there is no other Foundation, but that ſcarce any Thing elſe can be thought of, that can afford any Excuſe for ſo execrable a Parricide.

CHAP. XX.

Hezekiah, by earneſt Prayer, has his Life prolonged; for a Sign, the Sun goes backward. The King of Babylon ſends Letters and Preſents to Hezekiah, who ſhews the Ambaſſadors all his Treaſures; whereupon Iſaiah foretels him the Babyloniſh Captivity; he dies, and Manaſſeh ſucceeds him.

Ver. 1. IN thoſe days was Hezekiah ſick unto death: and the prophet Iſaiah the ſon of Amoz came to him, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Set thine houſe in order, for thou ſhalt die, and not live. 2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, ſaying, 3 I beſeech thee, O Lord, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy ſight. And Hezekiah wept ſore. 4 And it came to paſs afore Iſaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the Lord came to him, ſaying, 5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus ſaith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have ſeen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee; on the third day thou ſhalt go up unto the houſe of the Lord. 6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years, and I will deliver thee, and this city, out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria, and I will defend this city for mine own ſake, and for my ſervant Davids ſake. 7 And Iſaiah ſaid, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boyl, and he recovered. 8 And Hezekiah ſaid unto Iſaiah, What ſhall be the ſign that the Lord will heal me, and that I ſhall go up into the houſe of the Lord the third day? 9 And Iſaiah ſaid, This ſign ſhalt thou have of the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that he hath ſpoken: ſhall the ſhadow go forward ten degrees, or back ten degrees? 10 And Hezekiah anſwered, It is a light thing for the ſhadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the ſhadow return backward ten degrees. 11 And Iſaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord, and he brought the ſhadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz. 12 At that time Berodachbaladan the ſon of Baladan, king of Babylon, ſent letters and a preſent unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been ſick. 13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and ſhewed them all the houſe of his precious things, the ſilver, and the gold, and the ſpices, and the precious ointment, and all the houſe of his armour, and all that was found in his treaſures: there was nothing in his houſe, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah ſhewed them not. 14 Then came Iſaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and ſaid unto him, What ſaid theſe men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah ſaid, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon. 15 And he ſaid, What have they ſeen in thine houſe? And Hezekiah anſwered, All the things that are in mine houſe have they ſeen: there is nothing among my treaſures, that I have not ſhewed them. 16 And Iſaiah ſaid unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lord. 17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine houſe, and that which thy fathers have laid up in ſtore unto this day, ſhall be carried into Babylon: nothing ſhall be left, ſaith the Lord. 18 And of thy ſons that ſhall iſſue from thee, which thou ſhalt beget, ſhall they take away, and they ſhall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. 19 Then ſaid Hezekiah unto Iſaiah, Good is the word of the Lord which thou haſt ſpoken. And he ſaid, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days? 20 And the reſt of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 21 And Hezekiah ſlept with his fathers: and Manaſſeh his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

And he brought the Shadow ten Degrees backward by which it had gone down in the Dial of Ahaz] Some very conſiderable Writers would endeavour to perſuade us, that, before the Babyloniſh Captivity, the Jews had no Inſtrument whereby to meaſure Time, nor any Terms in their Language, whereby to denote the diſtinct Gradations of it; which, were it true, would effectually deſtroy all that the Scripture relates, but concerning the Sun-dial which Ahaz ſet up, and the famous Miracle which was wrought upon it; but whether the Inventors of ſuch horological Inſtruments were, is not ſo eaſy a Matter to determine.

The Babylonians were a People well verſed in the Parts of Aſtronomy; and it was from them (as Herodotus obſerves) that the Greeks had the Pole, and the Gnomon, and the twelve Parts of the Day. For Anaximander, who firſt taught them to diſtinguiſh Time, travelled into Chaldee for the Improvement of Knowledge, and from thence brought away this uſeful Invention; and, as the Scripture informs us, that there was a good deal of Intimacy between Tiglath-pilezer King of Aſſyria, and Ahaz King of Judah, 'tis not improbable, that, as he was taken with the Figure of a ſtrange Altar, when he went to viſit that Prince at Damaſcus, he might then likewiſe ſee ſome of the Sun-dials which Tiglath-pilezer was accuſtomed to carry along with him, for the Menſuration of Time, wherever he went, and being highly delighted with ſo curious and uſeful an Invention, might either have one made on the Spot, or take the Model of one, to be made at Jeruſalem, and ſet up in his royal Palace.

It is no eaſy Matter to determine of what Form the Sun-dial was; but, if we may be allowed to gather the Thing from the Signification of the Word Maaloth, which is always uſed in this Narration, we may, with the learned Grotius, ſuppoſe, that it was not horizontal, as Sun-dials are commonly made, but of a concave miſpherical Figure; and that therein was a Gnomon of ſome Kind or other, which caſt its Shadow upon the Lines, engraven in its Concavity.

The Account here given of this Event, makes no Mention, indeed, of the Sun's going back, but only of the Shadow upon the Dial; but in the Book of Iſaiah's Prophecy, wherein we have this Miracle more minutely recorded, we are told expreſly, Iſa. xxxviii. 8. that the Sun returned ten Degrees, and from hence the Opinion of the Antients, both Jews and Chriſtians, has been, that the Miracle was wrought, not upon the Shadow, but upon the Body of the Sun, or, that the Sun (as our excellent Archbiſhop Uſher expreſſes it) and all the heavenly Bodies went back, and as much was detracted from the next Night, as was added to this Day.

This Retrogradation, however, was not of ſo long a Continuance, as to cauſe any conſiderable Alteration in the heavenly Bodies; as ſoon as the Miracle was exhibited, they all returned to their proper Stations, as the ſame Author obſerves from the Lunar Eclipſes recorded by Ptolomy, as antecedent to Hezekiah's Reign, which, upon running the Calculation backwards from the preſent, will bring us to the ſame Point of Time wherein the Chaldeans placed them, in the very ſame Manner, as if no retrograde Motion of the Sun had intervened.

Thoſe who embrace the new Philoſophy, which places the Sun in the Centre, and ſuppoſes the Earth to move round it, have from their Hypotheſis, no Difficulty in admitting of this Miracle, whether it be ſaid to conſiſt in the different Determination of the Rays, or in the Retrogradation of the Body of the Sun, becauſe it is the ſame Thing, as to all outward Effects, whether the Earth turn round the Sun, or the Sun round the Earth. But, in both Caſes, there is this Difficulty, that the ſudden and violent Motion, either of the Sun or Earth, to make that Day and Night of no greater Length than the reſt, would be in Danger of ſhocking, or unhinging the whole Frame of Nature, as it certainly would have done, had it not been guided and directed by the ſteady and unerring Hand of the great Creator of the Univerſe, whoſe Motion he can either retard or accelerate, as he pleaſes, without occaſioning any Miſchance; juſt as any human Artificer can cauſe a Machine of his own making, to go ſwifter or ſlower, by the ſole Suſpenſion of a heavier or lighter Weight.

Since the Scripture therefore, in this Caſe, tells us plainly, that the Sun did recede, as in the Caſe of Joſhua, that it did ſtand ſtill in the Firmament of Heaven, we have no other Warrant, but to take the Words in their literal Senſe, even tho' it be attended with ſome Difficulties. Theſe Difficulties are chiefly from the Oppoſition of ſome modern Syſtems of Philoſophy; but whether it be juſt and reaſonable, that Revelation ſhould conform to Philoſophy, or Philoſophy to Revelation; eſpecially when the Expreſſions of Scripture are clear, and the Sentiments of Philoſophers but mere Conjectures; ſince heavenly Bodies, by Reaſon of their vaſt Diſtance, are inacceſſible to our utmoſt Sagacity, and the greater Parts of the Secrets of Nature are not diſcoverable by our moſt indefatigable Search after Truth.

CHAP. XXI.

Manaſſeh's Idolatry. Judgments propheſied againſt Judah. His Death; is ſucceeded by his Son Amon, who is ſlain by his Servants; who are ſlain by the People. Joſiah his Son is made King.

Ver. 1. MAnaſſeh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jeruſalem: and his mother's name was Hephzi-bah. 2 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael. 3 For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had deſtroyed, and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Iſrael, and worſhipped all the hoſt of heaven, and ſerved them. 4 And he built altars in the houſe of the Lord, of which the Lord ſaid, In Jeruſalem will I put my name. 5 And he built altars for all the hoſt of heaven, in the two courts of the houſe of the Lord. 6 And he made his ſon paſs through the fire, and obſerved times, and uſed enchantments, and dealt with familiar ſpirits, and wizards: he wrought much wickedneſs in the ſight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. 7 And he ſet a graven image of the grove that he had made, in the houſe of which the Lord ſaid to David, and to Solomon his ſon, In this houſe, and in Jeruſalem, which I have choſen out of all the tribes of Iſrael, will I put my name for ever. 8 Neither will I make the feet of Iſrael move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will obſerve to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my ſervant Moſes commanded them. 9 But they hearkened not: and Manaſſeh ſeduced them to do more evil than did the nations, whom the Lord deſtroyed before the children of Iſrael. 10 And the Lord ſpake by his ſervants the prophets, ſaying, 11 Becauſe Manaſſeh king of Judah hath done theſe abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah alſo to ſin with his idols: 12 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, Behold, I am bringing ſuch evil upon Jeruſalem and Judah, that whoſoever heareth of it, both his ears ſhall tingle. 13 And I will ſtretch over Jeruſalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the houſe of Ahab: and I will wipe Jeruſalem as a man wipeth a diſh, wiping it, and turning it upſide down. 14 And I will forſake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they ſhall become a prey, and a ſpoil to all their enemies; 15 Becauſe they have done that which was evil in my ſight, and have provoked me to anger ſince the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt even unto this day. 16 Moreover, Manaſſeh ſhed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jeruſalem from one end to another, beſide his ſin wherewith he made Judah to ſin, in doing that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord. 17 Now the reſt of the acts of Manaſſeh, and all that he did, and his ſin that he ſinned, are they are not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 18 And Manaſſeh ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own houſe, in the garden of Uzzah: and Amon his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 19 Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Meſhullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. 20 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, as his father Manaſſeh did. 21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and ſerved the idols that his father ſerved, and worſhipped them: 22 And he forſook the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord. 23 And the ſervants of Amon conſpired againſt him, and ſlew the king in his own houſe. 24 And the people of the land ſlew all them that had conſpired againſt king Amon, and the people of the land made Joſiah his ſon king in his ſtead. 25 Now the reſt of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 26 And he was buried in his ſepulchre, in the garden of Uzzah: and Joſiah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

No Difficulty occurring in this Chapter, that wants Explanation, we ſhall proceed to the next.

CHAP. XXII.

Joſiah's good Reign; his Care for the Repair of the Temple. Hilkiah finds a Book of the Law, and, by Huldah the Propheteſs, enquires of the Lord. She propheſies the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem; but not in Joſiah's Reign.

Ver. 1. JOſiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boſcath. 2 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aſide to the right hand or to the left. 3 And it came to paſs in the eighteenth year of king Joſiah, that the king ſent Shaphan the ſon of Azaliah, the ſon of Meſhullam, the ſcribe, to the houſe of the Lord, ſaying, 4 Go up to Hilkiah the high-prieſt, that he may ſum the ſilver which is brought into the houſe of the Lord, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people. 5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the overſight of the houſe of the Lord: and let them give it to the doers of the work, which is in the houſe of the Lord, to repair the breaches of the houſe, 6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and maſons, and to buy timber and hewed ſtone to repair the houſe. 7 Howbeit, there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, becauſe they dealt faithfully. 8 And Hilkiah the high-prieſt ſaid unto Shaphan the ſcribe, I have found the book of the law in the houſe of the Lord. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. 9 And Shaphan the ſcribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and ſaid, Thy ſervants have gathered the money that was found in the houſe, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the overſight of the houſe of the Lord. 10 And Shaphan the ſcribe ſhewed the king, ſaying, Hilkiah the prieſt hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. 11 And it came to paſs when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes. 12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the prieſt, and Ahikam the ſon of Shaphan, and Achbor the ſon of Michaiah, and Shaphan the ſcribe, and Aſahiah a ſervant of the kings, ſaying, 13 Go ye, enquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled againſt us, becauſe our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us. 14 So Hilkiah the prieſt, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Aſahiah, went unto Huldah the propheteſs, the wife of Shallum the ſon of Tikvah, the ſon of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe, (now ſhe dwelt in Jeruſalem in the colledge) and they communed with her. 15 And ſhe ſaid unto them, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, Tell the man that ſent you to me, 16 Thus ſaith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read. 17 Becauſe they have forſaken me, and have burnt incenſe unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands: therefore my wrath ſhall be kindled againſt this place, and ſhall not be quenched. 18 But to the king of Judah which ſent you to enquire of the Lord, thus ſhall ye ſay to him, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, As touching the words which thou haſt heard; 19 Becauſe thine heart was tender, and thou haſt humbled thyſelf before the Lord, when thou heardeſt what I ſpake againſt this place, and againſt the inhabitants thereof, that they ſhould become a deſolation and a curſe, and haſt rent thy clothes, and wept before me: I alſo have heard thee, ſaith the Lord. 20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou ſhalt be gathered into thy grave in peace, and thine eyes ſhall not ſee all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

I have found the Book of the Law in the Houſe of the Lord] Whether the Book of the Law, which Hilkiah the High-prieſt, found in the Houſe of the Lord, conſiſted of the whole Pentateuch, or only of that Part of it which is called Deuteronomy; and whether it was the authentick Copy which Moſes committed to the Prieſts Cuſtody, or only ſome antient Manuſcript, kept in the Temple for the publick Uſe, viz. for the King to read to the People once every ſeven Years, or for the Prieſts to conſult upon any emergent Difficulty, is a Matter of ſome Debate among the Learned. The Teſtimony of the Author of the Book of Chronicles ſeems, however, to determine the Matter, when he aſſures us, that the Book of the Law, which Hilkiah found, was that which was given by the Hand of Moſes, and, conſequently the whole Pentateuch, which, by his Command, was repoſited in the Side of the Ark, the Covenant.

For great is the Wrath of the Lord, that is kindled againſt us, becauſe our Fathers have not hearkened unto the Words of this Book, to do according to all that is written concerning us] It has been a Queſtion much agitated by the Learned, Why the Kings and People of Iſrael were ſo ſtrangely prone to Idolatry? In Anſwer to this, ſays Stackhouſe, it may be obſerved, that the Difficulty of keeping the Moſaic Law, eſpecially in what related to its Rites and Ceremonies, was very great, and the Profit, which reſulted from thence, by no ways comparable to the Trouble which it occaſioned; and from thence they might be tempted to ſhake off Yoke, which neither they, nor their Forefathers were able to bear, and betake themſelves to the Obſervance of other Laws, more eaſy and commodious in themſelves, and ſuch as were productive of much more Benefit and Proſperity to the Obſervers of them. Nor ſhould it be forgotten, that as a great Part of the Revenues of Paleſtine, according to the Conſtitution of the Moſaic Law, fell to the Lot of the Prieſts and Levites; and the Laity, upon every Occaſion, might grow weary of paying ſo much; and hereupon be inclined to any Innovation in Religion that ſhould offer itſelf, if it could but be ſupported at an eaſier Expence. And accordingly, we may obſerve, that in the wicked Reigns of Ahaz and Manaſſeh, when the Temple was either quite ſhut up, or converted to idolatrous Purpoſes, the Payment of Tythes and Oblations was ſuſpended [illegible] might be a great Gratification to the People, until in the Reigns of Hezekiah and Josiah, they were again restored to the Ministers of God. These, and such Reasons as these, might make the antient Hebrews so unsettled in their Obedience to the Law of Moses, until the Time that a clearer and more perfect Revelation of a future Life extended their Views and Hopes above the Things of this World, and made them more constant and immovable (as the Author to the Hebrews bears them Testimony) in the Worship of the true God.

CHAP. XXIII.

Josiah reads the Law in a solemn Assembly; renews the Covenant of the Lord; destroys Idolatry; breaks down the Altar at Bethel, and burns thereon dead Mens Bones; and keeps the Passover. Is slain in a War with Pharaoh-Nechoh. Jehoahaz his Son is King. He is imprisoned by Pharaoh-Nechoh, who puts Jehoiakim in his Place; who reigns ill.

Ver. 1. AND the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah, and of Jerusalem. 2 And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the Lord. 3 And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant, that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant. 4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high-priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the Lord, all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el. 5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places, in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem, them also that burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. 6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the Lord, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and stampt it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people. 7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites that were by the house of the Lord, where the women wove hangings for the grove. 8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entring in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a mans left hand at the gate of the city. 9 Nevertheless, the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren. 10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. 11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entring in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nathan melech the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sun with fire. 12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, did the king beat down, and brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron. 13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. 14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men. 15 Moreover, the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stampt it small to powder, and burnt the grove. 16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. 17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el. 18 And he said, Let him alone, let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria. 19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el. 20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there, upon the altars, and burnt mens bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem. 21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the Lord your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. 22 Surely there was not holden such a passover, from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah: 23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the Lord in Jerusalem. 24 Moreover, the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah, and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law, which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the Lord. 25 And like unto him was there no king before him that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither neither after him aroſe there any like him. 26 Notwithſtanding, the Lord turned not from the fierceneſs of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled againſt Judah, becauſe of all the provocations that Manaſſeh had provoked him with. 27 And the Lord ſaid, I will remove Judah alſo out of my ſight, as I have removed Iſrael, and will caſt off this city Jeruſalem, which I have choſen, and the houſe of which I ſaid, My name ſhall be there. 28 Now the reſt of the acts of Joſiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up againſt the king of Aſſyria to the river Euphrates: and king Joſiah went againſt him; and he ſlew him at Megiddo, when he had ſeen him. 30 And his ſervants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jeruſalem, and buried him in his own ſepulchre: and the people of the land took Jehoahaz the ſon of Joſiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his fathers ſtead. 31 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 32 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done. 33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah, in the land of Hamath that he might not reign in Jeruſalem, and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of ſilver, and a talent of gold. 34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the ſon of Joſiah king, in the room of Joſiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: and he came to Egypt, and died there. 35 And Jehoiakim gave the ſilver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh; he exacted the ſilver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh. 36 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. 37 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that his father had done.

And he defiled Topheth] It is the general Opinion of the Jews, that the Word Tophet comes from Thop, which in their Language ſignifies a Drum, becauſe Drums, in this Place, were uſed to be beat, in order to deaden the Cries of thoſe Children that were burnt alive to Moloch. But there is one Objection to this Etymology, viz. that it does not appear that the larger Kind of Drums, ſuch as are in Uſe now, were at all known to the Antients. There was a leſſer Sort, indeed, or what we call a Tabor, wherewith they made Muſick in their Dancing; but theſe were not loud enough for the preſent Purpoſe, and the larger Kind we owe to the Arabians, who firſt brought them into Spain, from whence they were diſperſed all Europe over.

And he took away the Horſes which the Kings of Judah had given to the Sun] 'Tis certain, that all the People of the Eaſt worſhipped the Sun, and conſecrated Horſes to it, becauſe they were nimble and ſwift in their Courſe, even as they ſuppoſed it to be. But then the Queſtion is, Whether the People of Judah ſacrificed theſe Horſes to the Sun (as it is certain, that the Armenians, Perſians, and other Nations did) or only led them out in State every Morning, to meet and ſalute the Sun at his riſing? The Antients had a Notion likewiſe, that the Sun itſelf was carried about in a Chariot; and therefore Chariots, as well as Horſes, were dedicated to it. Since then we find theſe Horſes and Chariots ſtanding ſo near together, the Horſes, we may ſuppoſe, were deſigned to draw the Chariots, and the Chariots to carry the King, and his other great Officers (who were Idolaters of this Kind) out of the Eaſt Gate of the City, every Morning to ſalute and adore the Sun, at its coming over the Horizon.

Surely there was not holden ſuch a Paſſover, from the Days of the Judges — nor in all the Days of the Kings of Iſrael, nor of the Kings of Judah] Which, taken in a literal Senſe, muſt denote that this Paſſover, which was celebrated by two Tribes only, was more numerous, and more magnificent, than all thoſe that were obſerved in the Days of David and Solomon, in the moſt happy and flouriſhing State of the Jewiſh Monarchy, and when the whole twelve Tribes were met together, to ſolemnize that Feaſt. It may not be amiſs therefore to allow, that in theſe Expreſſions there is a Kind of Anxeſis, or Exaggeration, not unuſual in ſacred as well as prophane Authors. For nothing is more common, than to ſay, Never was ſuch Splendor and Magnificence ſeen, when we mean no more, than that the Thing we ſpeak of was very ſplendid and magnificent; unleſs we ſuppoſe, with ſome, that a Preference is given to this Paſſover, above all the reſt, in reſpect of the exact Obſervation of the Rites and Ceremonies belonging to it, which, at other Times, were performed according to Cuſtom, and ſo ſeveral Things either altered or omitted; but at this every Thing was performed according to the preſcribed Form of the Law, from which, ſince the finding of this authentick Copy of it, Joſiah enjoined them not to vary one Tittle.

In his Days Pharaoh-Nechoh, King of Egypt— Pharaoh ſignifies no more, in the Egyptian Language, than King, and was therefore given to every one that ſat upon that Throne: But Nechoh (according to Herodotus) was his proper Name, tho' ſome will have it to be an Appellative, which ſignifies lame, becauſe this Pharaoh (as they ſuppoſe) had a Lameneſs, which proceeded from ſome Wound he had received in the Wars. The ſame Hiſtorian tells us, that he was the Son and Succeſſor of Pſamctichus King of Egypt, and a Man of a bold enterprizing Spirit; that he made an Attempt to join the Nile and the Red Sea, by drawing a Canal from one to the other; that tho' he failed in this Deſign, yet by ſending a Fleet from the Red Sea through the Streights of Babel-mandel, he diſcovered the Coaſts of Africa, and in this his Expedition to the Euphrates, reſolved to bid fair, by deſtroying the united Forces of the Babylonians and Medes, for the whole Monarchy of Aſia.

And he ſlew him at Megiddo] Megiddo was a City in the Half-tribe of Manaſſeh, not far from the Mediterranean Sea, which Way Necho was to paſs with his Army, in order to go into Syria, and thence to the Euphrates. In the Valley adjoining to this Place Joſiah was ſlain, while he was at the Head of the Army (as Joſephus tells us) and riding up and down to give Orders from one Wing to the other. This Action Herodotus makes Mention of when he tells us, that Nechoh King of Egypt, having fallen upon the Syrians near the City of Magdol, obtained a great Victory, and made himſelf Maſter of Cadytis: Where the Author plainly miſtakes the Syrians for the Jews; Magdolum, a City in the Lower Egypt, for Megiddo; and Cadytis, for Kadeſh, in the Upper Galilee, by which he was to paſs in his Way to Carchemiſh; or rather for the City Jeruſalem, which, in Herodotus's Time might be called by the neighbouring Nations, Cadyta, or Cadytis, i. e. the holy City, ſince, even to this Day, it is called by the eaſtern People, Al-huds, which is plainly both of the ſame Signification and Original.

But how can Joſiah be ſaid to die in Peace, when he loſt his Life in Battle? Anſw. His Death indeed was ſudden and immature, he fell in Battle againſt the Egyptians; and yet he may be ſaid to have gone to Grave in Peace, becauſe he was recalled from Life, whilſt his Kingdom was in a proſperous Condition, before the Calamities, wherewith it was threatened, were come upon it, and whilſt himſelf was in Peace and Reconciliation with God. Thus, when the Righteous are taken away from the Evil to come, Wiſd. iii. 2. tho' in the Sight of the Unwiſe they ſeemed to die, and their Departure is taken for Miſery, Wiſd. v. 5. yet, in what Manner ſoever their Evil be, they may well be ſaid to die in Peace, who, after their Diſſolution here, are numbered among the Children of God, and their Lot is among the Saints.

CHAP. XXIV.

Jehoiakim, rebelling againſt Nebuchadnezzar, occaſions his own Ruin; his Son is made King in his ſtead. His evil Reign. Jeruſalem ſpoiled, and led into Captivity. Zedekiah's bad Reign; the utter Deſtruction of Judah.

Ver. 1. IN his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his ſervant three years: then he turned and rebelled againſt him. 2 And the Lord ſent againſt him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and ſent them againſt Judah to deſtroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he ſpake by his ſervants the prophets. 3 Surely at the commandment of the Lord came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his ſight, for the ſins of Manaſſeh, according to all that he did: 4 And alſo for the innocent blood that he ſhed, (for he filled Jeruſalem with innocent blood) which the Lord would not pardon. 5 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 6 So Jehoiakim ſlept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt. 8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jeruſalem three months: and his mothers name was Nehuſhta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jeruſalem. 9 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that his father had done. 10 At that time the ſervants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up againſt Jeruſalem, and the city was beſieged. 11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came againſt the city, and his ſervants did beſiege it. 12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his ſervants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. 13 And he carried out thence all the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſures of the kings houſe, and cut in pieces all the veſſels of gold which Solomon king of Iſrael had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had ſaid. 14 And he carried away all Jeruſalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thouſand captives, and all the crafts-men, and ſmiths: none remained, ſave the pooreſt ſort of the people of the land. 15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the kings mother, and the kings wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, thoſe carried he into captivity, from Jeruſalem to Babylon. 16 And all the men of might, even ſeven thouſand, and craftsmen, and ſmiths a thouſand, all that were ſtrong, and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. 17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his fathers brother king in his ſtead, and changed his name to Zedekiah. 18 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 19 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 20 For through the anger of the Lord it came to paſs in Jeruſalem and Judah, until he had caſt them out from his preſence, that Zedekiah rebelled againſt the king of Babylon.

And Jehoiakim ſlept with his Fathers; and Jehoiachin his Son reigned in his ſtead] But how does this agree with that Threat of the Prophet, Jer. xxxvi. 30. He ſhall have none to ſit upon the Throne of David? As Jehoiachin's Reign laſted little more than three Months, during which Time, he was abſolutely ſubject to the Chaldeans, a Reign of ſo ſhort a Continuance, and ſo ſmall Authority, may very juſtly be looked upon as nothing.

Jehoiachin was eighteen Years old when he began to reign] As to the Time, when Jehoiachin came to the Throne, the Difference is very remarkable: For, in 2 Chron. xxxvi. 9. it is ſaid, that he was but eight Years old; but here, that he was eighteen; and yet, conſidering how common a Thing it was for Kings to make their Sons Aſſociates in the Kingdom, thereby to ſecure the Poſſeſſion of it in their Family, and prevent all Contention among the other Brothers, the Difference is eaſily reconciled, by ſuppoſing, that, when his Father had reigned one Year, he took him to reign in Conjunction with him, when he was no more than eight Years old. With his Father he reigned ten Years; ſo that, when his Father died, he was eighteen Years old, and then he began to reign alone, which was no more than three Months. The Author of the Book of Kings makes Mention therefore only of the Years that he reigned alone; but the Author of the Chronicles ſpeaks of all the Years that he reigned, both with his Father, and alone. This is a fair Solution; tho' I cannot ſee, what Injury it can do the Authority of the ſacred Text, if we ſhould acknowledge, that there is an Error in the Tranſcriber of the Book of Chronicles, becauſe two of the moſt antient and venerable Verſions, the Syriack and Arabick, have rendered it, in that Place, not eight, but eighteen, which they were doubtleſs induced to do, by thoſe antient Hebrew Copies, from whence they formed their Tranſlation. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

CHAP. XXV.

Jeruſalem is beſieged; Zedekiah taken; his Sons ſlain; and his Eyes put out; the City and Temple burnt; and the Remnant carried into Captivity; the Nobles ſlain; Gedaliah made Governor, and ſlain; the reſt fly into Egypt. Evil-merodach advances Jehoiachin in his Court.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his hoſt, againſt Jeruſalem, and pitched againſt it, and they built forts againſt it round about. 2 And the city was beſieged unto the eleventh year of king Zezekiah. 3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. 4 And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the gate, between two walls, which is by the kings garden, (now the Chaldees were againſt the city round about) and the king went the way toward the plain. 5 And the army of the Chaldees purſued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were ſcattered from him. 6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah, and they gave judgment upon him. 7 And they ſlew the ſons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of braſs, and carried him to Babylon. 8 And in the fifth month, on the ſeventh day of the month (which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, a ſervant of the king of Babylon, unto Jeruſalem: 9 And he burnt the houſe of the Lord, and the kings houſe, and all the houſes of Jeruſalem, and every great mans houſe burnt he with fire. 10 And all the army of the Chaldees that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jeruſalem round about. 11 Now the reſt of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away. 12 But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land, to be vine-dreſſers, and huſbandmen. 13 And the pillars of braſs that were in the houſe of the Lord, and the baſes, and the brazen ſea that was in the houſe of the Lord, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the braſs of them to Babylon. 14 And the pots, and the ſhovels, and the ſnuffers, and the ſpoons, and all the veſſels of braſs wherewith they miniſtred, took they away. 15 And the fire-pans, and the bowls, and ſuch things as were of gold, in gold, and of ſilver, in ſilver, the captain of the guard took away. 16 The two pillars, one ſea, and the baſes which Solomon had made for the houſe of the Lord, the braſs of all theſe veſſels was without weight. 17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapiter upon it was braſs: and the height of the chapiter three cubits: and the wreathen-work, and pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of braſs: and like unto theſe had the ſecond pillar with wreathen-work. 18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief prieſt, and Zephaniah the ſecond prieſt, and the three keepers of the door. 19 And out of the city he took an officer, that was ſet over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the kings preſence, which were found in the city, and the principal ſcribe of the hoſt, which muſtered the people of the land, and threeſcore men of the people of the land that were found in the city. 20 And Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard took theſe, and brought them to the king of Babylon, to Riblah. 21 And the king of Babylon ſmote them, and ſlew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land. 22 And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the ſon of Ahikam, the ſon of Shaphan, ruler. 23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the ſon of Nethaniah, and Johanan the ſon of Careah, and Seraiah the ſon of Tanhumeth the Netopathite, and Jaazaniah the ſon of a Maachathite, they, and their men. 24 And Gedaliah ſware to them, and to their men, and ſaid unto them, Fear not to be the ſervants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and ſerve the king of Babylon, and it ſhall be well with you. 25 But it came to paſs in the ſeventh month, that Iſhmael the ſon of Nethaniah, the ſon of Eliſhama, of the ſeed royal, came, and ten men with him, and ſmote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah. 26 And all the people both ſmall and great, and the captains of the armies aroſe, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees. 27 And it came to paſs in the ſeven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the ſeven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of priſon. 28 And he ſpake kindly to him, and ſet his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 29 And changed his priſon-garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life. 30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day all the days of his life.

So they took the King, and brought him to the King of Babylon, at Riblah] Riblah, was a City of Syria, the Country of Hamath, which Country is the neare to Judea, and which, according to St. Jerom, was t ſame with that afterwards called Antioch; and, as was the moſt pleaſant Place in all Syria, here Nebuchadnezzar lay, to attend the Succeſs of the Siege Jeruſalem, to ſend his Army proper Supplies, and intercept any Relief that might come to the Beſieged.

And put out the Eyes of Zedekiah] The Proph Ezekiel and Jeremiah, ſeem to vary in their Accou of the Fate of Zedekiah. Ezekiel's Prophecy is de vered in theſe Words, — I will bring him to Ba to the Land of Chaldea, yet he ſhall not ſee it, t there, Ch. xii. 13. and Jeremiah's in theſe Words He ſhall be delivered into the Hands of the King bylon, and ſhall ſpeak with him Mouth to Mouth his Eyes ſhall behold his Eyes, Ch. xxxvii. which were literally accompliſhed: For Zedekiah carried to Riblah, where he ſaw the King of Bab and ſpake to him, and beheld his Children execu but had afterward his Eyes put out, and was then ried to Babylon, where he was incapable of ſeeing City, becauſe he had loſt his Eye-ſight.

AN EXPOSITION OF The First Book of the CHRONICLES.

The ARGUMENT.

The Jews comprehend this and the following Book in one, which the Grecians, becauſe of the Length, divide into two: And they are called Chronicles, becauſe they note briefly the Hiſtory from Adam, to the Return of the Hebrews from their Captivity in Babylon. But theſe are not thoſe Books of Chronicles, mentioned in the Books of the Kings of Judah and Iſrael, wherein at large is related the Story of both the Kingdoms, and which afterwards periſhed in the Captivity; but an Abridgment of thoſe Books, and collected by Ezra, as the Jews affirm, after their Return from Babylon.

This firſt Book contains a brief Genealogy of the Progeny of Adam down to the Jewiſh Patriarchs; and particularly of the principal Families of Judah, and of the Line of David; becauſe Chriſt, according to the Fleſh, deſcended from him. And therefore it enlarges very much upon the Acts of this Prince, both in Relation to Civil Government, and alſo his Adminiſtration, and his Care of Things concerning Religion; for the good Succeſs whereof he rejoices, and pays his grateful Acknowledgments to God.

But as many Things, in theſe Genealogies, may, to us, ſeem doubtful and obſcure, it ſhould be conſidered, that they were not ſo to the Hebrews; and that all the Perſons here named, were known to them by thoſe very particular and exact Genealogies which they kept in their ſeveral Families, and in publick Regiſters, from whence this ſacred Penman, by divine Direction, took thoſe Things that were of the greateſt Importance.

CHAP. I.

Adam's Line to Noah. Noah's Poſterity by Japheth; by Ham; by Shem to Abraham: His Poſterity by Iſhmael; by Keturah; by Iſaac: His Poſterity by Eſau; the Kings and Dukes of Edom.

ver. 1. ADam, Sheth, Enoſh, 2 Kenan, Mahalaleel, Jered, 3 Henoch, Mathuſhelah, Lamech, 4 Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. 5 The ſons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meſhech; and Tiras. 6 And the ſons of Gomer; Aſhchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. 7 And the ſons of Javan; Eliſhah, and Tarſhiſh, Kittim, and Dodanim. 8 The ſons of Ham; Cuſh, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. 9 And the ſons of Cuſh; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: and the ſons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan. 10 And Cuſh begat Nimrod: he began to be mighty upon the earth. 11 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtubim. 12 And Pathruſim, and Caſluhim, (of whom came the Philiſtines) and Caphthorim. 13 And Canaan begat Zidon his firſt-born, and Heth, 14 The Jebuſite alſo, and the Amorite, and the Girgaſhite, 15 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, 16 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. 17 The ſons of Shem; Elam, and Aſhur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meſhech. 18 And Arphaxad begat Shelah, and Shelah begat Eber. 19 And unto Heber were born two ſons: the name of the one was Peleg, (becauſe in his days the earth was divided) and his brothers name was Joktan. 20 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah. 21 Hadoram alſo, and Uzal, and Diklah, 22 And Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba, 23 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All theſe were the ſons of Joktan. 24 Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah, 25 Eber, Peleg, Reu, 26 Serug, Nahor, Terah, 27 Abram, the ſame is Abraham. 28 The ſons of Abraham; Iſaac, and Iſhmael. 29 Theſe are their generations: The firſt-born of Iſhmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibſam, 30 Miſhma, and Duma, Maſſa, Hadad, and Tema, 31 Jetur, Naphiſh, and Kedemah. Theſe are the ſons of Iſhmael. 32 Now the ſons of Keturah, Abrahams concubine: ſhe bare Zimran, and Jokſhan, and Medan, and Midian, and Iſhbak, and Shuah. And the ſons of Jokſhan; Sheba, and Dedan. 33 And the ſons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Henoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All theſe are the ſons of Keturah. 34 And Abraham begat Iſaac. The ſons of Iſaac, Eſau and Iſrael. 35 The ſons of Eſau; Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeuſh, and Jaalam, and and Korah. 36 The ſons of Eliphaz; Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. 37 The ſons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. 38 And the ſons of Seir; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Diſhon, and Ezer, and Diſhan. 39 And the ſons of Lotan; Hori, and Homam: and Timna was Lotans ſiſter. 40 The ſons of Shobal; Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. And the ſons of Zibeon; Aiah, and Anah. 41 The ſons of Anah; Diſhon. And the ſons of Diſhon; Amram, and Eſhban, and Ithran, and Cheran. 42 The ſons of Ezer; Bilhan, and Zaban, and Jakan. The ſons of Diſhan; Uz, and Aran. 43 Now theſe are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the children of Iſrael; Bela the ſon of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah. 44 And when Bela was dead, Jobab the ſon of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in his ſtead. 45 And when Jobab was dead, Huſham of the land of the Temanites, reigned in his ſtead. 46 And when Huſham was dead, Hadad the ſon of Bedad (which ſmote Midian in the field of Moab) reigned in his ſtead: and the name of his city was Avith. 47 And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Maſrekah reigned in his ſtead. 48 And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river, reigned in his ſtead. 49 And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the ſon of Achbor reigned in his ſtead. 50 And when Baal-hanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his ſtead: and the name of his city was Pai; and his wives name was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. 51 Hadad died alſo. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timna, duke Aliah, duke Jetheth, 52 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon, 53 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar, 54 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram. Theſe are the dukes of Edom.

This Chapter, conſiſting wholly of Genealogies, affords nothing very remarkable; we ſhall therefore proceed to the next.

CHAP. II.

The Sons of Iſrael; of Judah by Tamar. The Children of Jeſſe; of Caleb the Son of Hezron; of him by the Daughter of Machir and Jerahmeel; of Sheſham, another Branch of Caleb's Poſterity; and Caleb the Son of Huz.

Ver. 1. THeſe are the ſons of Iſrael; Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Iſſachar, and Zebulun, 2 Dan, Joſeph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Aſher. 3 The ſons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah: which three were born unto him of the daughter of Shua the Canaaniteſs. And Er, the firſt-born of Judah, was evil in the ſight of the Lord, and he ſlew him. 4 And Tamar his daughter-in-law, bare him Pharez, and Zerah. All the ſons of Judah were five. 5 The ſons of Pharez; Hezron, and Hamul. 6 And the ſons of Zerah; Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara: five of them in all. 7 And the ſons of Carmi; Achar, the troubler of Iſrael, who tranſgreſſed in the thing accurſed. 8 And the ſons of Ethan; Azariah. 9 The ſons alſo of Hezron, that were born unto him; Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai. 10 And Ram begat Amminadab; And Amminadab begat Nahſhon, prince of the children of Judah; 11 And Nahſhon begat Salma, and Salma begat Boaz, 12 And Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jeſſe, 13 And Jeſſe begat his firſt-born Eliab, and Abinadab the ſecond, and Shimma the third, 14 Nathaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, 15 Ozem the ſixth, David the ſeventh: 16 Whoſe ſiſters were Zeruiah, and Abigail. And the ſons of Zeruiah: Abiſhai, and Joab, and Aſahel, three. 17 And Abigail bare Amaſa: and the father of Amaſa was Jether the Iſhmeelite. 18 And Caleb the ſon of Hezron begat children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth: her ſons are theſe; Jeſher, and Shobab, and Ardon. 19 And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him Ephrath, which bare him Hur. 20 And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezaleel. 21 And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir, the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was threeſcore years old, and ſhe bare him Segub. 22 And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead. 23 And he took Geſhur, and Aram with the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath and the towns thereof, even threeſcore cities: all theſe belonged to the ſons of Machir, the father of Gilead. 24 And after that Hezron was dead in Caleb-ephratah, then Abiah Hezrons wife bare him Aſhur the father of Tekoah. 25 And the ſons of Jerahmeel the firſt-born of Hezron were, Ram the firſt-born, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, and Ahijah. 26 Jerahmeel had alſo another wife, whoſe name was Atarah, ſhe was the mother of Onam. 27 And the ſons of Ram the firſt-born of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. 28 And the ſons of Onam were, Shammai, and Jada. And the ſons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abiſhur. 29 And the name of the wife of Abiſhur was Abihail, and ſhe bare him Ahban, and Molid. 30 And the ſons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without children. 31 And the ſons of Appaim; Iſhi. And the ſons of Iſhi; Sheſhan. And the children of Sheſhan; Ahlai. 32 And the ſons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether, and Jonathan: and Jether died without children. 33 And the ſons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. Theſe were the ſons of Jerahmeel. 34 Now Sheſhan had no ſons, but daughters: and Sheſhan had a ſervant, an Egyptian, whoſe name was Jarha. 35 And Sheſhan gave his daughter to Jarha his ſervant to wife, and ſhe bare him Attai. 36 And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad, 37 And Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed, 38 And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah, 39 And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleaſah, 40 And Eleaſah begat Siſamai, and Siſamai begat Shallum, 41 And Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Eliſhama. 42 Now the ſons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Meſha his firſt-born, which was the father of Ziph, and the ſons of Mareſhah the father of Hebron. 43 And the ſons of Hebron; Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema. 44 And Shema begat Raham, the father of Jorkoam: and Rekem begat Shammai. 45 And the ſon of Shammai was Maon: and Maon was the father of Beth-zur. 46 And Ephah Caleb's concubine bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez: and Haran begat Gazez. 47 And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Geshan, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph. 48 Maachah Caleb's concubine bare Sheber, and Tirhanah. 49 She bare also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Shevah the father of Machbena, and the father of Gibeah: and the daughter of Caleb was Achsa. 50 These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the first-born of Ephratah; Shobal, the father of Kirjath-jearim, 51 Salma the father of Beth-lehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader. 52 And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim, had sons; Haroeh, and half of the Manahethites. 53 And the families of Kirjath-jearim; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites: of them came the Zareathites, and the Eshtaulites. 54 The sons of Salma; Beth-lehem, and the Netophathites, Ataroth, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahethites, the Zorites. 55 And the families of the scribes which dwelt at Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and Suchathites. These are the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab.

In this Chapter, Mention is made of the Descendants of Wives and of Concubines; the Difference between which was, that the Wife was taken with certain Solemnities in Marriage, and her Children did inherit; the Concubine had no Solemnities in Marriage, neither did her Children inherit, but had a Portion of Goods or Money given them.

And the Families of the Scribes which dwelt at Jabez] These came of Jethro Moses's Father-in-law, and dwelt as Strangers among the People of God. That they might be some way serviceable to the People of God, they were appointed to be Scribes, that is, such as were publick Notaries, who made Contracts, and such-like Deeds and Instruments, and kept Books and Instruments of them. They are here mentioned, because they dwelt among the Tribe of Judah.

CHAP. III.

The Sons of David; his Line to Zedekiah. The Successors of Jeconiah.

Ver. 1. NOW these were the sons of David which were born unto him in Hebron; the first-born Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess: the second Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess: 2 The third, Absalom the son of Maachah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith: 3 The fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife. 4 These six were born unto him in Hebron, and there he reigned seven years, and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years. 5 And these were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bathshua the daughter of Ammiel: 6 Ibhar also, and Elishama, and Eliphelet, 7 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, 8 And Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. 9 These were all the sons of David, beside the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister. 10 And Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abia his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, 11 Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, 12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, 13 Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, 14 Amon his son, Josiah his son, 15 And the sons of Josiah were, the first-born Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum. 16 And the sons of Jehoiakim; Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son. 17 And the sons of Jeconiah; Assir, Salathiel his son, 18 Malchiram also, and Pedaiah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. 19 And the sons of Pedaiah were, Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the sons of Zerubbabel; Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister: 20 And Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushabhesed, five. 21 And the sons of Hananiah; Pelatiah, and Jesaiah: the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shechaniah. 22 And the sons of Shechaniah; Shemaiah: and the sons of Shemaiah; Hattush, and Igeal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six. 23 And the sons of Neariah; Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three. 24 And the sons of Elioneai were Hodaiah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Dalaiah, and Anani, seven.

In this Chapter the Genealogy is returned to, to shew, that Christ came of this Stock; the Kings of Judah, from Solomon to Zedekiah, who was taken Prisoner by Nebuchadnezzar, had his Eyes put out, his City of Jerusalem destroyed, and was the last King of Judah for many Years. Here also Mention is made of the Posterity of Jeconiah, to the seven Sons of Elioenai, Ver. 24.

CHAP. IV.

The Posterity of Judah by Caleb the Son of Hur; by Ashur; by Jabez: His Prayer. The Posterity and Cities of Simeon; their Conquest of Gedor; and of the Amalekites to Mount Seir.

Ver. 1. THE sons of Judah, Pharez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. 2 And Reaiah the son of Shobal, begat Jahath, and Jahath begat Ahumai, and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. 3 And these were of the father of Etam: Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash: and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi. 4 And Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushath. These are the sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephratah, the father of Bethlehem. 5 And Ashur the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah, and Naarah. 6 And Naarah bare him Ahuzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. 7 And the sons of Helah were, Zereth, and Jezoar, and Ethnan. 8 And Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum. 9 And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow. 10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me. And God granted him that which he requested. 11 And Chelub the brother of Shuah, begat Mehir, which was the father of Eshton. 12 And Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah: and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash.

These are the men of Rechab. 13 And the sons of Kenaz, Othniel, and Seraiah: and the sons of Othniel, Hathath. 14 And Meonathai begat Ophrah: and Seraiah begat Joab, the father of the valley of Charashim, for they were craftsmen. 15 And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah, even Kenuz. 16 And the sons of Jehaleleel; Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel. 17 And the sons of Ezra were, Jether, and Mered, and Epher, and Jalon: and she bare Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. 18 And his wife Jehudijah bare Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons of Bethiah the daughter of Pharaoh, which Mered took. 19 And the sons of his wife Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite. 20 And the sons of Shimon were, Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were, Zoheth, and Ben-zoheth. 21 The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were, Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Maresha, and the families of the house of them that wrought fine linen, of the house of Ashbea. 22 And Jochim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had the dominion in Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. And these are antient things. 23 These were the potters, and those that dwelt amongst plants and hedges: there they dwelt with the king for his work. 24 The sons of Simeon were, Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul: 25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. 26 And the sons of Mishma; Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, Shimei his son. 27 And Shimei had sixteen sons, and six daughters; but his brethren had not many children, neither did all their family multiply, like to the children of Judah. 28 And they dwelt at Beer-sheba, and Molada, and Hazar-shual, 29 And at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, 30 And at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag, 31 And at Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susim, and at Beth-birei, and at Shaaraim: These were their cities, unto the reign of David. 32 And their villages were Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities. 33 And all their villages that were round about the same cities, unto Baal. These were their habitations, and their genealogy. 34 And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah, the son of Amaziah, 35 And Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, 36 And Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshoaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, 37 And Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah, 38 These mentioned by their names, were princes in their families: and the house of their fathers increased greatly. 39 And they went to the entrance of Gedor, even unto the east-side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. 40 And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide and quiet, and peaceable: for they of Ham had dwelt there of old. 41 And these written by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their rooms: because there was pasture there for their flocks. 42 And some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. 43 And they smote the rest of the Amalekites that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

In this Chapter are mentioned the Sons and Posterity of Judah, by Caleb the Son of Hur. Altho' Hezron, &c. are mentioned as Sons of Judah, yet they are only Nephews and Kinsmen; for Pharez was the only real Son. The Genealogy of Ashur, the posthumous Son of Hezron, by his two Wives Helah and Naarah. Jabez is said to be more honourable than his Brethren, and called on the God of Israel, and to so good an Effect, that God graciously granted what he requested. The Sons of Shelah, the Son of Judah, were famous for working of fine Linen, and some of their Posterity were Gardeners to King David, and served in his Work. The Posterity, Cities and Villages of Simeon, and how they took Possession of Gedor, and of the Pasture Grounds thereabouts. For the Tribe of Simeon was so great in Number, that in the Time of Hezekiah they sought Dwellings unto Gedor, which is in the Tribe of Dan. The Sons of Simeon smote the rest of the Amalekites, whom Saul had not destroyed, and took Possession of all their Country.

CHAP. V.

The Line of Reuben unto the Captivity; the War against the Hagarites. The chief Families of Gad. The Number of the Reubenites, Gadites, and Half Tribe of Manasseh, that march against the Hagarites, and overcame them; they are all carried captive into Assyria.

Ver. 1. NOW the sons of Reuben the first born of Israel, (for he was the first born, but for as much as he defiled his father's bed, his birth-right was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birth-right. 2 For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler, but the birth-right was Joseph's) 3 The sons, I say, of Reuben the first born of Israel, were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. 4 The sons of Joel; Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son, Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites. 7 And his brethren by their families (when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned) were the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, 8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo, and Baal-meon. 9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entring in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. 10 And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east-land of Gilead. 11 And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Salcah: 12 Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan. 13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers, were, Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven 14 These are the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; 15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers. 16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders. 17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel. 18 The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bowe and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war. 19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab. 20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them, because they put their trust in him. 21 And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand. 22 For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their steads until the captivity. 23 And the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh, dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan, unto Baal-hermon, and Senir, and unto mount Hermon. 24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jadiel, mighty men of valour, famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers. 25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. 26 And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tiglath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, (even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh) and brought them unto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.

For Judah prevailed above his Brethren, and of him came the chief Ruler] The Government was by God's promise and Appointment, to be seated chiefly and most visibly in that Tribe, first in David and his Successors, and then in the Messiah, who sprang out of Judah, Heb. vii. 4. which was a far greater Privilege than the birth-right, or, as the chief Ruler, (i. e. as to the point of Dominion) he was more than he, or preferred before him, i. e. before Joseph, who is named in the first Clause, the Pronoun being referred to the following Noun, which is frequent among the Hebrews.

CHAP. VI.

The Sons of Levi; the Line of the High-Priests from Aaron to the Captivity. The Family of Gershom, Merari, and Kohath. The Office of Aaron, and his Line unto Ahimaaz. The Cities of the Priests and Levites.

1 THE sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 2 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. 3 And the children of Amram; Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. The sons also of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 4 Eleazar begat Phinehas, and Phinehas begat Abishua. 5 And Abishua begat Bukki, and Bukki begat Uzzi. 6 And Uzzi begat Zerahia, and Zerahia begat Meraioth, 7 Meraioth begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub, 8 And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Ahimaaz, 9 And Ahimaaz begat Azariah, and Azariah begat Johanan, 10 And Johanan begat Azariah (he it is that executed the priests office, in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem) 11 And Azariah begat Amariah, and Amariah begat Ahitub. 12 And Ahitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum. 13 And Shallum begat Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begat Azariah, 14 And Azariah begat Seraiah, and Seraiah begat Jehozadak. 15 And Jehozadak went into captivity, when the Lord carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar. 16 The sons of Levi; Gershom, Kohath, and Merari. 17 And these be the names of the sons of Gershom; Libni, and Shimei. 18 And the sons of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. 19 The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. And these are the families of the Levites, according to their fathers. 20 Of Gershom; Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, 21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeaterai his son. 22 The sons of Kohath; Amminadad his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, 23 Elkanah his son, and Abiasaph his son, and Assir his son, 24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Shaul his son, 25 And the sons of Elkanah; Amasai, and Ahimoth. 26 As for Elkanah: the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, 27 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son. 28 And the sons of Samuel; the first-born Vashni, and Abiah. 29 The sons of Merari; Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzza his son, 30 Shimei his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son. 31 And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the Lord, after that the ark had rest. 32 And they ministred before the dwelling-place of the tabernacle of the congregation, with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem: and then they waited on their office, according to their order. 33 And these are they that waited with their children: of the sons of the Kohathites; Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Shemuel, 34 The son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 35 The son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36 The son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37 The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, 39 And his brother Asaph (who stood on his right hand) even Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, 40 The son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchiah, 41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, 42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, 43 The son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi. 44 And their brethren the sons of Merari, stood on the left hand: Ethan

Ethan the ſon of Kiſhi, the ſon of Abdi, the ſon of Malluch, 45 The ſon of Haſhabiah, the ſon of Amaziah, the ſon of Hilkiah, 46 The ſon of Amzi, the ſon of Bani, the ſon of Shamer, 47 The ſon of Mahli, the ſon of Muſhi, the ſon of Merari, the ſon of Levi. 48 Their brethren alſo the Levites were appointed unto all manner of ſervice of the tabernacle of the houſe of God. 49 But Aaron and his ſons offered upon the altar of the burnt-offering, and on the altar of incenſe, and were appointed for all the work of the place moſt holy, and to make an attonement for Iſrael according to all that Moſes the ſervant of God had commanded. 50 And theſe are the ſons of Aaron: Eleazar his ſon, Phinehas his ſon, Abiſhua his ſon, 51 Bukki his ſon, Uzzi his ſon, Zerahiah his ſon. 52 Meraioth his ſon, Amariah his ſon, Ahitub his ſon. 53 Zadok his ſon, Ahimaaz his ſon. 54 Now theſe are their dwelling-places throughout their caſtles in their coaſts of the ſons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites: for theirs was the lot. 55 And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the ſuburbs thereof round about it. 56 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the ſon of Jephunneh. 57 And to the ſons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely, Hebron, the city of refuge, and Libnah with her ſuburbs, and Jattir, and Eſhtemoa, with their ſuburbs. 58 And Hilen with her ſuburbs, Debir with their ſuburbs, 59 And Aſhan with her ſuburbs, and Beth-ſhemeſh with her ſuburbs: 60 And out of the tribe of Benjamin; Geba with her ſuburbs, and Alemeth with her ſuburbs, and Anathoth with her ſuburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities. 61 And unto the ſons of Kohath, which were left of the family of that tribe, were cities given out of the half-tribe, namely out of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, by lot, ten cities. 62 And to the ſons of Gerſhom throughout their families, out of the tribe of Iſſachar, and out of the tribe of Aſher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manaſſeh in Baſhan, thirteen cities. 63 Unto the ſons of Merari, were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. 64 And the children of Iſrael gave to the Levites theſe cities, with their ſuburbs. 65 And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, theſe cities, which are called by their names. 66 And the reſidue of the families of the ſons of Kohath, had cities of their coaſts, out of the tribe of Ephraim. 67 And they gave unto them of the cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim, with their ſuburbs: they gave alſo Gezer with her ſuburbs, 68 And Jokmeam with her ſuburbs, and Beth-horon with her ſuburbs, 69 And Aijalon with her ſuburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her ſuburbs: 70 And out of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh; Aner with her ſuburbs, and Bileam with her ſuburbs, for the family of the remnant of the ſons of Kohath. 71 Unto the ſons of Gerſhom were given out of the family of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, Golan in Baſhan with her ſuburbs, and Aſhtaroth with her ſuburbs: 72 And out of the tribe of Iſſachar; Kedeſh with her ſuburbs, Daberath with her ſuburbs, 73 And Ramoth with her ſuburbs, and Anem with her ſuburbs: 74 And out of the tribe of Aſher, Maſhal with her ſuburbs, and Abdon with her ſuburbs, 75 And Hukok with her ſuburbs, and Rahob with her ſuburbs: 76 And out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedeſh in Galilee with her ſuburbs, and Hammon with her ſuburbs, and Kirjathaim with her ſuburbs. 77 Unto the reſt of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmon with her ſuburbs, Tabor with her ſuburbs: 78 And on the other ſide Jordan by Jericho, on the eaſt-ſide of Jordan were given them out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderneſs with her ſuburbs, and Jahzah with her ſuburbs, 79 Kedemoth alſo with her ſuburbs, and Mephaath with her ſuburbs: 80 And out of the tribe of Gad; Ramoth in Gilead with her ſuburbs, and Mahanaim with her ſuburbs, 81 And Heſhbon with her ſuburbs, and Jazer with her ſuburbs.

The Genealogies are continued in this Chapter, among which is that of the Sons of Levi, and the Poſterity of the High-prieſts from Aaron unto the whole Nation's being carried away to Babylon. The Poſterities of Gerſhom, Merari and Kohath, as likewiſe an Account of the Singers whom David appointed after the Ark was brought to the Place where the Temple ſhould be built, and was no more carried to and fro. The Levites are called the Singers Brethren, becauſe they came of the ſame Stock. The Function and Office of Aaron and his Poſterity, to do the Service of the God of Iſrael, is mentioned from Aaron to Ahimaaz. Cities were at firſt appointed and prepared for the Levites which are here mentioned; and the Iſraelites gave a Portion to the Kohathites that were the Remnant of the Tribe of Levi, out of the Half-tribe of Manaſſeh and out of Ephraim. The Merarites had their Portion of twelve Cities, out of the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, Zebulun, &c. The Gerſhomites had likewiſe ſeveral Cities aſſigned them.

CHAP. VII.

The Sons of Iſſachar, of Benjamin; of Naphtali; of Manaſſeh; of Ephraim: Their Calamity and Habitation. Of Aſher.

Ver. 1. NOW the ſons of Iſſachar were, Tola, and Puah, Jaſhub, and Shimron, four. 2 And the ſons of Tola; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibſam, and Samuel, heads of their fathers houſe, to wit, of Tola: they were valiant men of might in their generations; whoſe number was in the days of David two and twenty thouſand and ſix hundred. 3 And the ſons of Uzzi; Izrahiah: and the ſons of Izrahiah: Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, and Iſhiah, five: all of them chief men. 4 And with them, by their generations after the houſe of their fathers were bands of ſouldiers for war, ſix and thirty thouſand men: for they had many wives and ſons. 5 And their brethren among all the families of Iſſachar, were valiant men of might, reckoned in all by their genealogies, fourſcore and ſeven thouſand. 6 The ſons of Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three. 7 And the ſons of Bela; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of the houſe of their fathers, mighty men of valour, and were reckoned by their genealogies, twenty and two thouſand and thirty and four. 8 And the ſons of Becher; Zemira and Joaſh, and Eliezer, and Elio-

All theſe are the ſons of Becher. 9 And the number of them after their genealogies by their generations, heads of the houſe of their fathers, mighty men of valour, was twenty thouſand and two hundred. 10 The ſons alſo of Jediael; Bilhan: and the ſons of Bilhan; Jeuſh, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tarſhiſh, and Ahiſhahar. 11 All theſe the ſons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, were ſeventeen thouſand and two hundred ſoldiers, fit to go out for war and battle. 12 Shuppim alſo, and Huppim, the children of Ir, and Huſhim the ſons of Aher. 13 The ſons of Naphtali; Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the ſons of Bilhah. 14 The ſons of Manaſſeh; Aſhriel, whom ſhe bare: (but his concubine the Aramiteſs bare Machir the father of Gilead: 15 And Machir took to wife the ſiſter of Huppim and Shuppim, whoſe ſiſters name was Maachah) and the name of the ſecond was Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had daughters. 16 And Maachah the wife of Machir bare a ſon, and ſhe called his name Pereſh; and the name of his brother was Shereſh; and his ſons were Ulam, and Rakem. 17 And the ſons of Ulam Bedan. Theſe were the ſons of Gilead, the ſons of Machir, the ſon of Manaſſeh. 18 And his ſiſter Hamoleketh bare Iſhod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. 19 And the ſons of Shemida were, Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam. 20 And the ſons of Ephraim; Shuthelah, and Bered his ſon, and Tahath his ſon, and Eladah his ſon, and Tahath his ſon. 21 And Zabad his ſon, and Shuthelath his ſon, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath, that were born in that land, ſlew, becauſe they came down to take away their cattel. 22 And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him. 23 And when he went in to his wife ſhe conceived and bare a ſon, and he called his name Beriah, becauſe it went evil with his houſe. 24 (And his daughter was Sherah, who built Beth-horon the nether, and the upper, and Uzzen-ſherah) 25 And Rephah was his ſon, alſo Reſheph, and Telah his ſon, and Tahan his ſon, 26 Laadan his ſon, Ammihud his ſon, Eliſhama his ſon, 27 Non his ſon, Jehoſhua his ſon. 28 And their poſſeſſions and habitations were, Beth-el, and the towns thereof, and eaſt-ward Naaran, and weſt-ward Gezer with the towns thereof, Shechem alſo and her towns thereof, unto Gaza and the towns thereof: 29 And by the borders of the children of Manaſſeh, Beth-ſhean, and her towns, Taanach and her towns, Megiddo and her towns, Dor and her towns. In theſe dwelt the children of Joſeph the ſon of Iſrael. 30 The ſons of Aſher; Imnah and Iſuah, and Iſhui, and Beriah, and Serah their ſiſter. 31 And the ſons of Beriah, Heber, and Malchiel, who is the father of Birzavith. 32 And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shuah their ſiſter. 33 And the ſons of Japhlet; Paſach, and Bimhal, and Aſhvath: theſe are the children of Japhlet. 34 And the ſons of Shamer; Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. 35 And the ſon of his brother Helem, Zophah, and Imna, and Sheleſh, and Amal. 36 The ſons of Zophah; Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, 37 Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilſhah, and Ithran, and Beera. 38 And the ſons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Piſpah, and Ara. 39 And the ſons of Ulla; Arah, and Haniel, and Rezia. 40 All theſe were the children of Aſher, heads of their fathers houſe, choice and mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them that were apt to the war and to battle, was twenty and ſix thouſand men.

The Genealogy of Iſſachar is here mentioned, and in King David's Time, when all the People were numbered, there were two and twenty thouſand and ſix hundred valiant Men of this Tribe. The Number of the valiant Men in the Tribe of Benjamin, after their Genealogy, by their Generations, was twenty thouſand and two hundred. The Genealogy of Naphtali is likewiſe here recited, as is that of Ephraim and Aſher, which Tribes had among them twenty and ſix thouſand Men fit for Battle.

CHAP. VIII.

The Sons and chief Men of Benjamin. The Stock of Saul and Jonathan.

Ver. 1. NOW Benjamin begat Bela his firſtborn, Aſhbel the ſecond, and Aharah the third, 2 Noah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. 3 And the ſons of Bela were, Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, 4 And Abiſhua, and Naaman, and Ahoah, 5 And Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram. 6 And theſe are the ſons of Ehud: theſe are the heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Geba, and they removed them to Manahath: 7 And Naaman, and Ahia, and Gera, he removed them, and begat Uzza, and Ahihud. 8 And Shaharaim begat children in the country of Moab, after he had ſent them away; Huſhim and Baara were his wives. 9 And he begat of Hodeſh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Meſha and Malcham, 10 And Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirma. Theſe were his ſons, heads of the fathers. 11 And of Huſhim he begat Abitub, and Elpaal. 12 The ſons of Elpaal; Eber, and Miſham, and Shamed, who built Ono, and Lod with the towns thereof: 13 Beriah alſo and Shema, who were heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Aijalon who drove away the inhabitants of Gath: 14 And Ahio, Shaſhak, and Jeremoth, 15 And Zebadiah, and Arad, and Adar, 16 And Michael, and Iſpah, and Joha, the ſons of Beriah: 17 And Zebadiah, and Meſhullam, and Hezeki, and Heber. 18 Iſhmerai alſo, and Jezliah, and Jobab the ſons of Elpaal; 19 And Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, 20 And Elienai, and Zilthai, and Eliel, 21 And Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the ſons of Shimhi; 22 And Iſhpan, and Heber, and Eliel, 23 And Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, 24 And Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah. 25 And Iphedeiah and Penuel, the ſons of Shaſhak; 26 And Shamſherai, and Sheharïah, and Athaliah. 27 And Jareſiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, the ſons of Jeroham. 28 Theſe were heads of the fathers by their generations, chief men. Theſe dwelt in Jeruſalem. 29 And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, (whoſe wifes name was Maachah) 30 And his firſt-born ſon Abdon, and Zur, and Kiſh, and Baal, and Nadab. 31 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher. 32 And Mikloth begat Shimeah. And theſe alſo dwelt with their brethren in Jeruſalem, over againſt them. 33 And Ner begat Kiſh, and Kiſh begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchiſhua, and Abinadab, and Eſh-baal. 34 And the ſon of Jonathan was Meribbaal; and Meribbaal begat Micah. 35 And the ſons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. 36 And Ahaz begat Jehoadah, and Jehoadah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza, 37 And Moza begat Binea: Rapha was his ſon, Eleaſah his ſon, Azel his ſon: 38 And Azel had ſix ſons, whoſe names are theſe, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Iſhmael, and Shearíah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All theſe were the ſons of Azel. 39 And the ſons of Eſhek his brother were, Ulam his firſt-born, Jehuſh the ſecond, and Eliphelet the third. 40 And the ſons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many ſons, and ſons ſons, an hundred and fifty. All theſe are of the ſons of Benjamin.

Nothing particular occurring in this Chapter, we paſs on to the next.

CHAP. IX.

The Chief of the Tribes of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim and Manaſſeh, who returned from Captivity, and dwelt at Jeruſalem. As alſo the Prieſts and Levites, and the Manner of executing their Office in the Temple. The Family of Saul.

Ver. 1. SO all Iſrael were reckoned by genealogies, and behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Iſrael and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their tranſgreſſion. 2 Now the firſt inhabitants that dwelt in their poſſeſſions in their cities, were the Iſraelites, the prieſts, Levites, and the Nethinims, 3 And in Jeruſalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manaſſeh: 4 Uthai the ſon of Ammihud, the ſon of Omri, the ſon of Imri the ſon of Bani, of the children of Pharèz, the ſon of Judah. 5 And of the Shilonite; Aſaiah the firſt-born, and his ſons. 6 And of the ſons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, ſix hundred and ninety. 7 And of the ſons of Benjamin; Sallu the ſon of Meſhullam, the ſon of Hodaviah, the ſon of Haſenuah, 8 And Ibneiah the ſon of Jeroham, and Elah, the ſon of Uzzi, the ſon of Michri, and Meſhallam the ſon of Shephatiah, the ſon of Reuel, the ſon of Ibnijah, 9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and ſix. All theſe men were chief of the fathers in the houſe of their fathers. 10 And of the prieſts; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, 11 And Azariah the ſon of Hilkiah, the ſon of Meſhullam, the ſon of Zadok, the ſon of Meraioth, the ſon of Ahitub, the ruler of the houſe of God, 12 And Adaiah the ſon of Jeroham, the ſon of Paſhur, the ſon of Malchijah, and Maaſiai the ſon of Adiel, the ſon of Jehzerah, the ſon of Meſhullam, the ſon of Meſhillemith, the ſon of Immer, 13 And their brethren, heads of the houſe of their fathers, a thouſand and ſeven hundred and threeſcore; very able men for the work of the ſervice of the houſe of God. 14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the ſon of Haſhub, the ſon of Azrikam, the ſon of Haſhabiah, of the ſons of Merari, 15 And Bakbakkar, Hereſh, and Galal, and Mattaniah, the ſon of Micah, the ſon of Zichri, the ſon of Aſaph. 16 And Obadiah the ſon of Shemaiah, the ſon of Galal, the ſon of Jeduthun, and Berechiah, the ſon of Aſa, the ſon of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Nethophathites. 17 And the porters were Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief. 18 (Who hitherto waited in the kings gate eaſt-ward) They were porters in the companies of the children of Levi. 19 And Shallum the ſon of Kore, the ſon of Ebiaſaph, the ſon of Korah, and his brethren; (of the houſe of his father) the Korahites were over the work of the ſervice, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers being over the hoſt of the Lord, were keepers of the entry. 20 And Phinehas the ſon of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time paſt, and the Lord was with him. 21 And Zechariah the ſon of Meſhelemiah, was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. 22 All these which were choſen to be porters in the gates, were two hundred and twelve. Theſe were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages: whom David and Samuel the ſeer did ordain in their ſet office. 23 So they and their children had the over-ſight of the gates of the houſe of the Lord, namely the houſe of the tabernacle, by wards. 24 In four quarters were the porters toward the eaſt, weſt, north and ſouth. 25 And their brethren which were in their villages, were to come after ſeven days, from time to time with them. 26 For theſe Levites, the four chief porters were in their ſet office, and were over the chambers and treaſuries of the houſe of God. 27 And they lodged round about the houſe of God, becauſe the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them. 28 And certain of them had the charge of the miniſtring veſſels, that they ſhould bring them in and out by tale. 29 Some of them alſo were appointed to overſee the veſſels, and all the inſtruments of the ſanctuary, and the fine flour and the wine and the oyl, and the frankincenſe and the ſpices. 30 And ſome of the ſons of the prieſts made the ointment of the ſpices. 31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites (who was the firſt-born of Shallum the Korahite) had the ſet office over the things that were made in the pans. 32 And other of their brethren of the ſons of the Kohathites, were over the ſhew-bread to prepare it every ſabbath. 33 And theſe are the ſingers chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers, were free: for they were imployed that work, day and night. 34 Theſe chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; theſe dwelt at Jeruſalem. 35 And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whoſe wifes name was Maacha: 36 And his firſt-born ſon Abdon, then Zur, and Kiſh, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Ge-and Ahio, and Zachariah, and Mikloth. 38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam: and they alſo dwelt with their brethren at Jeruſalem, over againſt their brethren. 39 And Ner begat Kiſh, and Kiſh begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchiſhua, and Abinadab, and Eſh-baal. 40 And the ſon of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah. 41 And the ſons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz. 42 And Ahaz begat Jarah, and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza, 43 And Moza begat Binea: and Rephaiah his ſon, Eleaſah his ſon, Azel his ſon. 44 And Azel had ſix ſons, whoſe names are theſe, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Iſhmael, and Shearíah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. Theſe were the ſons of Azel.

I don't obſerve any Thing in this Chapter that wants Explanation; let us therefore ſee what the next affords.

CHAP. X.

Saul's Overthrow and Death; the Philiſtines triumph. The Kindneſs of the Inhabitants of Jabeſh-Gilead towards Saul and his Sons.

Ver. 1. NOW the Philiſtines fought againſt Iſrael, and the men of Iſrael fled from before the Philiſtines, and fell down ſlain in mount Gilboa. 2 And the Philiſtines followed hard after Saul, and after his ſons, and the Philiſtines ſlew Jonathan and Abinadab, and Malchi-ſhua, the ſons of Saul. 3 And the battle went ſore againſt Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers. 4 Then ſaid Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy ſword and thruſt me through therewith; leſt theſe uncircumciſed come, and abuſe me. But his armour-bearer would not, for he was ſore afraid. So Saul took a ſword, and fell upon it. 5 And when his armour-bearer ſaw that Saul was dead, he fell likewiſe on the ſword, and died. 6 So Saul died, and his three ſons, and all his houſe died together. 7 And when all the men of Iſrael that were in the valley, ſaw that they fled, and that Saul and his ſons were dead; then they forſook their cities, and fled: and the Philiſtines came and dwelt in them. 8 And it came to paſs on the morrow, when the Philiſtines came to ſtrip the ſlain, that they found Saul and his ſons fallen in mount Gilboa. 9 And when they had ſtripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and ſent into the land of the Philiſtines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people. 10 And they put his armour in the houſe of their gods, and faſtened his head in the temple of Dagon. 11 And when all Jabeſh-gilead heard all that the Philiſtines had done to Saul; 12 They aroſe, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his ſons, and brought them to Jabeſh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabeſh, and faſted ſeven days. 13 So Saul died for his tranſgreſſion which he committed againſt the Lord, even againſt the word of the Lord which he kept not, and alſo for aſking counſel of one that had a familiar ſpirit, to enquire of it. 14 And enquired not of the Lord: therefore he ſlew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the ſon of Jeſſe.

CHAP. XI.

Ver. 1. THEN all Iſrael gathered themſelves to David unto Hebron, ſaying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy fleſh. 2 And moreover in time paſt, even when Saul was king, thou waſt he that leddeſt out, and broughteſt in Iſrael: and the Lord thy God ſaid unto thee, Thou ſhalt feed my people Iſrael, and thou ſhalt be ruler over my people Iſrael. 3 Therefore came all the elders of Iſrael to the king to Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Iſrael, according to the word of the Lord, by Samuel. 4 And David and all Iſrael went to Jeruſalem which is Jebus, where the Jebuſites were the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus ſaid to David, Thou ſhalt not come hither. Nevertheleſs, David took the caſtle of Zion, which is the city of David. 6 And David ſaid, Whoſoever ſmiteth the Jebuſites firſt, ſhall be chief and captain. So Joab the ſon of Zeruiah went firſt up, and was chief. 7 And David dwelt in the caſtle, therefore they called it, The city of David. 8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the reſt of the city. 9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the Lord of hoſts was with him. 10 Theſe alſo are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who ſtrengthened themſelves with him in his kingdom, and with all Iſrael to make him king according to the word of the Lord, concerning Iſrael. 11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jaſhobeam an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lift up his ſpear againſt three hundred, ſlain by him at one time. 12 And after him was Eleazar the ſon of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties. 13 He was with David at Paſdammim, and there the Philiſtines were gathered together to battel, where was a parcel of ground full of barley, and the people fled from before the Philiſtines. 14 And they ſet themſelves in the midſt of that parcel, and delivered it, and ſlew the Philiſtines; and the Lord ſaved them by a great deliverance. 15 Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, and the hoſt of the Philiſtines encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philiſtines gariſon was then at Beth-lehem. 17 And David longed and ſaid, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate! 18 And the three brake through the hoſt of the Philiſtines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the Lord. 19 And ſaid, My God forbid it me, that I ſhould do this thing: ſhall I drink the blood of theſe men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it: therefore he would not not drink it. Theſe things did theſe three mightieſt. 20 And Abiſhai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his ſpear againſt three hundred, he ſlew them, and had a name among the three. 21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, for he was their captain; howbeit, he attained not unto the firſt three. 22 Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, the ſon of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he ſlew two lion-like men of Moab; alſo he went down and ſlew a lion in a pit in a ſnowy day. 23 And he ſlew an Egyptian, a man of great ſtature, five cubits high, and in the Egyptians hand was a ſpear like a weavers beam, and he went down to him with a ſtaff, and pluckt the ſpear out of the Egyptians hand, and ſlew him with his own ſpear. 24 Theſe things did Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighties. 25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the firſt three: and David ſet him over his guard. 26 Alſo the valiant men of the armies, were Aſahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the ſon of Dodo of Beth-lehem, 27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, 28 Ira the ſon of Ikkeſh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Antothite, 29 Sibbecai the Huſhathite, Ilai the Ahohite, 30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the ſon of Baanah the Netophathite, 31 Ithai the ſon of Ribai of Gibeah, that pertained to the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, 32 Hurai of the brooks of Gaaſh, Abiel the Arbathite, 33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, 34 The ſons of Haſhem the Gizonite, Jonathan the ſon of Shage the Hararite, 35 Ahiam the ſon of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the ſon of Ur, 36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, 37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the ſon of Ezbai, 38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the ſons of Haggeri, 39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armour-bearer of Joab the ſon of Zeruiah, 40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, 41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the ſon of Ahlai, 42 Adina the ſon of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, 43 Hanan the ſon of Maachah, and Joſhaphat the Mithnite, 44 Uzzia the Aſhterathite, Shamma and Jehiel the ſons of Hothan the Aroerite, 45 Jediael the ſon of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, 46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joſhaviah, the ſons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, 47 Eliel, and Obed, and Jaſiel the Meſobaite.

The Contents of this Chapter you will find related 2 Sam. v. 1, &c. and xxiii. 8, &c. together with the Obſervations we then made upon this Part of ſacred Hiſtory.

CHAP. XII.

The Companies that came to David at Ziklag, when purſued by Saul; ſome of Saul's own Family; ſome of the Tribe of Gad; of Benjamin, Judah, and Manaſſeh. The Armies that came to him at Hebron. Their Feaſt.

Ver. 1. NOW theſe are they that came to David to Ziglak while he yet kept himſelf cloſe, becauſe of Saul the ſon of Kiſh: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war. 2 They were armed with bows, and could uſe both the right hand and the left, in hurling ſtones, and ſhooting arrows out of a bow, even of Sauls brethren of Benjamin. 3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joaſh, the ſons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the ſons of Azmaveth, and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite, 4 And Iſmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Joſabad the Gederathite, 5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, 6 Elkanah, and Jeſiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jaſhobeam, the Korhites, 7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah the ſons of Jeroham of Gedor. 8 And of the Gadites there ſeparated themſelves unto David, into the hold to the wilderneſs, men of might, and men of war fit for the battel, that could handle ſhield and buckler, whoſe faces were like the faces of lions, and were as ſwift as roes upon the mountains: 9 Ezer the firſt, Obadiah the ſecond, Eliab the third, 10 Miſhmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 Attai the ſixth, Eliel the ſeventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh. 14 Theſe were of the ſons of Gad, captains of the hoſt: one of the leaſt was over an hundred, and the greateſt over a thouſand. 15 Theſe are they that went over Jordan in the firſt month, when it had overflown all his banks, and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the eaſt, and toward the weſt. 16 And there came of the children of Benjamin, and Judah to the hold unto David. 17 And David went out to meet them, and anſwered and ſaid unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart ſhall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, ſeeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. 18 Then the ſpirit came upon Amaſai, who was chief of the captains, and he ſaid, Thine are we, David, and on thy ſide, thou ſon of Jeſſe: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. 19 And there fell ſome of Manaſſeh to David (when he came with the Philiſtines againſt Saul to battel, but they helped them not, for the lords of the Philiſtines, upon adviſement, ſent him away, ſaying, He will fall to his maſter Saul, to the jeopardy of our heads) 20 As he went to Ziglak there fell to him of Manaſſeh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thouſands that were of Manaſſeh. 21 And they helped David againſt the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the hoſt. 22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great hoſt, like the hoſt of God. 23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord. 24 The children of Judah that bare ſhield and ſpear, were ſix thouſand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war. 25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, ſeven thouſand and one hundred

dred. 26 Of the children of Levi, four thousand and six hundred. 27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred. 28 And Zadok a young man mighty of valour, and of his fathers house twenty and two captains. 29 And of the children of Benjamin the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. 30 And of the children of Ephraim, twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers: 31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand which were expressed by name, to come and make David king. 32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do: the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandment. 33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battel, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank, they were not of double heart. 34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty and seven thousand. 35 And of the Danites expert in war, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. 36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battel, expert in war, forty thousand. 37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battel, an hundred and twenty thousand. 38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel, were of one heart to make David king. 39 And there they were with David three days, eating, and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. 40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar, and Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

Nothing material is offered to our Consideration in this Chapter; we will therefore proceed to the next.

CHAP. XIII.

David fetches the Ark from Kirjath-jearim. Uzzah is smitten, and the Ark, therefore, left at the House of Obed-Edom.

1 AND David consulted with the captains of thousands, and hundreds, and with every leader. 2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us. 3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul. 4 And all the congregation said, that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. 5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt, even unto the entring of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim. 6 And David went up, and all Israel to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the Lord, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it. 7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart, out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart. 8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. 9 And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark for the oxen stumbled. 10 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God. 11 And David was displeased, because the Lord had made a breach upon Uzza; wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day. 12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me? 13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the Lord blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIV.

Hiram's Kindness to David. His Felicity in People, Wives, and Children. His two Victories over the Philistines.

1 NOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters to build him an house. 2 And David perceived that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lift up on high, because of his people Israel. 3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters. 4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, 5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, 6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, 7 And Elishama, and Beliada, and Eliphalet. 8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. 9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. 10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord said unto him, Go up, for I will deliver them into thine hand. 11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand, like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place, Baal-perazim. 12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burnt with fire. 13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. 14 Therefore

David enquired again of God, and God said unto him, Go not up after them, turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees. 15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battel: for God is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines. 16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer. 17 And the fame of David went out into all lands, and the Lord brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAP. XV.

David orders the Priests and Levites to bring the Ark from Obed-Edom; and performs the Solemnity thereof with great Joy.

Ver. 1. AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. 2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God, but the Levites: for them hath the Lord chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever. 3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Lord unto his place, which he had prepared for it. 4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites. 5 Of the sons of Kohath: Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty. 6 Of the sons of Merari: Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty. 7 Of the sons of Gershom: Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty. 8 Of the sons of Elizaphan: Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred. 9 Of the sons of Hebron: Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore. 10 Of the sons of Uzziel: Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve. 11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctifie your selves both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it. 13 For because ye did it not at the first, the Lord our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order. 14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel. 15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded, according to the word of the Lord. 16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy. 17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel: and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah: and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah. 18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel the porters. 19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass; 20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth; 21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel. 22 And Chenaniah chief of the Levites was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful. 23 And Berechiah, and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark. 24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zachariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom, and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark. 25 So David and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord, out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. 26 And it came to pass when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they offered seven bullocks, and seven rams. 27 And David was cloathed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song, with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen. 28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and the trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps. 29 And it came to pass as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out a window, saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem to bring up the Ark unto his Place, which he had prepared for it] But why did he not fetch the Tabernacle of Moses from Gibeon, where it now was, that he might put the Ark into its proper Place? Answ. Partly, because he had no Motion or Direction from God concerning the Ark; and, partly, because he thought the Tabernacle was not so necessary for that End, as formerly, since he intended to set about the building of the Temple out of Hand, as appears from Ch. xvii.

CHAP. XVI.

David's festival Sacrifice. A Psalm of Thanksgiving to be sung by a Choir. Ministers, Priests and Musicians appointed to attend the Ark continually.

Ver. 1. SO they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt-sacrifices, and peace-offerings before God. 2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord. 3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. 4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, and to reco record, and to thank and praiſe the Lord God of Iſrael: 5 Aſaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeil, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel with pſalteries, and with harps: but Aſaph made a ſound with cymbals. 6 Benaiah alſo and Jahaziel the prieſt, with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God. 7 Then on that day, David delivered firſt this pſalm to thank the Lord, into the hand of Aſaph and his brethren. 8 Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people. 9 Sing unto him, ſing pſalms unto him, talk you of all his wondrous works. 10 Glory ye in his holy name, let the heart of them rejoice that ſeek the Lord. 11 Seek the Lord and his ſtrength, ſeek his face continually. 12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth. 13 O ye ſeed of Iſrael his ſervant, ye children of Jacob his choſen ones. 14 He is the Lord our God, his judgments are in all the earth. 15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant: the word which he commanded to a thouſand generations; 16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Iſaac: 17 And hath confirmed the ſame to Jacob for a law, and to Iſrael for an everlaſting covenant, 18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance, 19 When ye were but few, even a few, and ſtrangers in it: 20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people: 21 He ſuffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their ſakes, 22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. 23 Sing unto the Lord all the earth: ſhew forth from day to day his ſalvation. 24 Declare his glory among the heathen: his marvellous works among all nations. 25 For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praiſed: he alſo is to be feared above all gods. 26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the Lord made the heavens. 27 Glory and honour are in his preſence, ſtrength and gladneſs are in his place. 28 Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and ſtrength. 29 Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; bring an offering and come before him, worſhip the Lord in the beauty of holineſs. 30 Fear before him all the earth: the world alſo ſhall be ſtable, that it be not moved. 31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men ſay among the nations, The Lord reigneth. 32 Let the ſea roar, and the fulneſs thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein. 33 Then ſhall the trees of the wood ſing out at the preſence of the Lord, becauſe he cometh to judge the earth. 34 O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. 35 And ſay ye, Save us, O God of our ſalvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praiſe. 36 Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael for ever and ever: and all the people ſaid, Amen, and praiſed the Lord. 37 So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, Aſaph and his brethren, to miniſter before the ark continually, as every day's work required: 38 And Obed-edom, with their brethren, threeſcore and eight: Obed-edom alſo the ſon of Jeduthan, and Hoſah to be porters: 39 And Zadok the prieſt, and his brethren the prieſts, before the tabernacle of the Lord, in the high place that was at Gibeon. 40 To offer burnt-offerings unto the Lord, upon the altar of the burnt-offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the Lord, which he commanded Iſrael: 41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the reſt that were choſen, who were expreſſed by name, to give thanks to the Lord, becauſe his mercy endureth for ever: 42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals, for thoſe that ſhould make a ſound, and with muſical inſtruments of God: and the ſons of Jeduthun were porters. 43 And all the people departed every man to his houſe: and David returned to bleſs his houſe.

CHAP. XVII.

David's Deſign to build an Houſe to God, is forbidden; Bleſſings promiſed to his Seed. David's Prayer and Thankſgiving.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs, as David ſat in his houſe, that David ſaid to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an houſe of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord remaineth under curtains. 2 Then Nathan ſaid unto David, Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee. 3 And it came to paſs the ſame night, that the word of God came to Nathan, ſaying, 4 Go and tell David my ſervant, Thus ſaith the Lord, Thou ſhalt not build me an houſe to dwell in. 5 For I have not dwelt in an houſe ſince the day that I brought up Iſrael, unto this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. 6 Whereſoever I have walked with all Iſrael, ſpake I a word to any of the judges of Iſrael, (whom I commanded to feed my people) ſaying, Why have ye not built me an houſe of cedars? 7 Now therefore thus ſhalt thou ſay unto my ſervant David, Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſts, I took thee from the ſheep-cote, even from following the ſheep, that thou ſhouldeſt be ruler over my people Iſrael: 8 And I have been with thee whitherſoever thou haſt walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth. 9 Alſo I will ordain a place for my people Iſrael, and will plant them, and they ſhall dwell in their place and ſhall be moved no more; neither ſhall the children of wickedneſs waſte them any more: (as at the beginning, 10 And ſince the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Iſrael) moreover I will ſubdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee, that the Lord will build thee an houſe. 11 And it ſhall come to paſs, when thy days be expired that thou muſt go to be with thy fathers, that I will raiſe up thy ſeed after thee, which ſhall be of thy ſons, and I will eſtabliſh his kingdom. 12 He ſhall build me an houſe, and I will will ſtabliſh his throne for ever. 13 I will be his father, and he ſhall be my ſon, and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee. 14 But I will ſettle him in mine houſe, and in my kingdom for ever, and his throne ſhall be eſtabliſhed for evermore. 15 According to all theſe words, and according to all this viſion, ſo did Nathan ſpeak unto David. 16 And David the king came, and ſat before the Lord, and ſaid, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine houſe, that thou haſt brought me hitherto? 17 And yet this was a ſmall thing in thine eyes, O God, for thou haſt alſo ſpoken of thy ſervants houſe for a great while to come, and haſt regarded me according to the eſtate of a man of high degree, O Lord God. 18 What can David ſpeak more to thee for the honour of thy ſervant? for thou knoweſt thy ſervant. 19 O Lord, for thy ſervants ſake, and according to thine own heart haſt thou done all this greatneſs, in making known all theſe great things. 20 O Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beſides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Iſrael, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatneſs and terribleneſs, by driving out nations from before thy people whom thou haſt redeemed out of Egypt? 22 For thy people Iſrael didſt thou make thine own people for ever, and thou, Lord, becameſt their God. 23 Therefore now, Lord, let the thing that thou haſt ſpoken concerning thy ſervant, and concerning his houſe, be eſtabliſhed for ever, and do as thou haſt ſaid. 24 Let it even be eſtabliſhed, that thy name may be magnified for ever, ſaying, The Lord of hoſts is the God of Iſrael, even a God to Iſrael: and let the houſe of David thy ſervant be eſtabliſhed before thee. 25 For thou, O my God, haſt told thy ſervant, that thou wilt build him an houſe: therefore thy ſervant hath found in his heart to pray before thee. 26 And now, Lord, (thou art God and haſt promiſed this goodneſs unto thy ſervant) 27 Now therefore let it pleaſe thee to bleſs the houſe of thy ſervant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou bleſſeſt, O Lord, and it ſhall be bleſſed for ever.

The Contents of this Chapter are recorded, with very little Variation, in 2 Sam. vii.

CHAP. XVIII.

David ſubdues the Philiſtines and Moabites; ſmites Hadarezer and the Syrians. Tou ſends Hadoram with Preſents to bleſs David; the Preſents and Spoil David dedicates to God; he puts Garriſons in Edom: David's Officers.

Ver. 1. NOW after this, it came to paſs, that David ſmote the Philiſtines, and ſubdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philiſtines. 2 And he ſmote Moab; and the Moabites became Davids ſervants, and brought gifts. 3 And David ſmote Hadarezer king of Zobah, unto Hamath, as he went to ſtabliſh his dominion by the river Euphrates. 4 And David took from him a thouſand chariots, and ſeven thouſand horſemen, and twenty thouſand footmen: David alſo houghed all the chariot-horſes, but reſerved of them an hundred chariots. 5 And when the Syrians of Damaſcus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David ſlew of the Syrians two and twenty thouſand men. 6 Then David put gariſons in Syria-damaſcus, and the Syrians became Davids ſervants, and brought gifts. Thus the Lord preſerved David whitherſoever he went. 7 And David took the ſhields of gold that were on the ſervants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jeruſalem. 8 Likewiſe from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much braſs, wherewith Solomon made the braſen ſea, and the pillars, and the veſſels of braſs. 9 Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had ſmitten all the hoſt of Hadarezer king of Zobah: 10 He ſent Hadoram his ſon to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, becauſe he had fought againſt Hadarezer, and ſmitten him, (for Hadarezer had warred with Tou) and with him all manner of veſſels of gold, and ſilver, and braſs. 11 Them alſo king David dedicated unto the Lord, with the ſilver and the gold that he brought from all theſe nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philiſtines, and from Amalek. 12 Moreover, Abiſhai the ſon of Zeruiah ſlew of the Edomites in the valley of ſalt, eighteen thouſand. 13 And he put gariſons in Edom; and all the Edomites became Davids ſervants. Thus the Lord preſerved David whitherſoever he went. 14 So David reigned over all Iſrael, and executed judgment and juſtice among all his people. 15 And Joab the ſon of Zeruiah was over the hoſt, and Jehoſhaphat the ſon of Ahilud, recorder. 16 And Zadok the ſon of Ahitub, and Abimelech the ſon of Abiathar, were the prieſts, and Shavſha was ſcribe. 17 And Benaiah the ſon of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and the Pelethites: and the ſons of David were chief about the king.

This whole Chapter is related and explained in 2 Sam. viii.

CHAP. XIX.

David's Meſſengers to Hanun ignominiouſly treated. The Ammonites and Syrians are overcome by Joab and Abiſhai; and by David.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs after this, that Nahaſh the king of the children of Ammon died, and his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 2 And David ſaid, I will ſhew kindneſs unto Hanun the ſon of Nahaſh, becauſe his father ſhewed kindneſs to me. And David ſent meſſengers to comfort him concerning his father. ſo the ſervants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanun, to comfort him. 3 But the princes of the children of Ammon ſaid to Hanun, Thinkeſt thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath ſent comforters unto thee? are not his ſervants come unto thee for to ſearch, and to overthrow, and to ſpie out the land? 4 Wherefore Hanun took Davids ſervants, and ſhaved them, and cut off their garments in the midſt hard by their buttocks, and ſent them away. 5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were ſerved: and he ſent to meet them (for the men were greatly aſhamed) and the king ſaid, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return. 6 And when the children of Ammon ſaw that they had made themſelves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon ſent a thouſand talents of ſilver to hire them chariots and horſemen out of Meſopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah. 7 So they hired thirty and two thouſand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themſelves together from their cities, and came to battle. 8 And when David heard of it, he ſent Joab, and all the hoſt of the mighty men. 9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in aray before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come, were by themſelves in the field. 10 Now when Joab ſaw that the battel was ſet againſt him, before and behind, he choſe out of all the choice of Iſrael, and put them in aray againſt the Syrians. 11 And the reſt of the people, he delivered unto the hand of Abiſhai his brother, and they ſet themſelves in aray againſt the children of Ammon. 12 And he ſaid, If the Syrians be too ſtrong for me, then thou ſhalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too ſtrong for thee, then I will help thee. 13 Be of good courage, and let us behave our ſelves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the Lord do that which is good in his ſight. 14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle: and they fled before him. 15 And when the children of Ammon ſaw that the Syrians were fled, they likewiſe fled before Abiſhai his brother, and entred into the city. Then Joab came to Jeruſalem. 16 And when the Syrians ſaw that they were put to the worſe before Iſrael, they ſent meſſengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the hoſt of Hadarezer, went before them. 17 And it was told David, and he gathered all Iſrael, and paſſed over Jordan, and came upon them, and ſet the battle in aray againſt them: and when David had put the battle in aray againſt the Syrians, they fought with him. 18 But the Syrians fled before Iſrael, and David ſlew of the Syrians ſeven thouſand men, which fought in chariots, and forty thouſand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the hoſt. 19 And when the ſervants of Hadarezer ſaw that they were put to the worſe before Iſrael, they made peace with David, and became his ſervants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XX.

Rabbah beſieged, ſpoiled, and the Inhabitants tortured by David. Three Giants ſlain.

1 AND it came to paſs, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and waſted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and beſieged Rabbah, but David tarried at Jeruſalem) and Joab ſmote

Rabbah and deſtroyed it. 2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious ſtones in it, and it was ſet upon Davids head; and he brought alſo exceeding much ſpoil out of the city. 3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with ſaws and with harrows of iron, and with axes: even ſo dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jeruſalem. 4 And it came to paſs after this, that there aroſe war at Gezer with the Philiſtines, at which time Sibbechai the Huſhathite ſlew Sippai that was of the children of the giant, and they were ſubdued. 5 And there was war again with the Philiſtines, and Elhanan the ſon of Jair, ſlew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whoſe ſpears ſtaff was like a weavers-beam. 6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great ſtature, whoſe fingers and toes were four and twenty, ſix on each hand, and ſix on each foot: and he alſo was the ſon of the giant. 7 But when he defied Iſrael, Jonathan the ſon of Shimea, Davids brother ſlew him. 8 Theſe were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his ſervants.

CHAP. XXI.

David numbers the People; repents; of three Judgments propounded, he chuſes Peſtilence; builds an Altar, and ſacrifices; the Plague is ſtayed.

Ver. 1. AND Satan ſtood up againſt Iſrael, and provoked David to number Iſrael. 2 And David ſaid to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Iſrael from Beer-ſheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it. 3 And Joab anſwered, The Lord make his people an hundred times ſo many more as they be: but my lord the king, are they not all my lords ſervants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cauſe of treſpaſs to Iſrael? 4 Nevertheleſs, the kings word prevailed againſt Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Iſrael, and came to Jeruſalem. 5 And Joab gave the ſum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Iſrael were a thouſand thouſand and an hundred thouſand men that drew ſword: and Judah was four hundred threeſcore and ten thouſand men that drew ſword. 6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the kings word was abominable to Joab. 7 And God was diſpleaſed with this thing, therefore he ſmote Iſrael. 8 And David ſaid unto God, I have ſinned greatly, becauſe I have done this thing: but now, I beſeech thee, do away the iniquity of thy ſervant, for I have done very fooliſhly. 9 And the Lord ſpake unto Gad, Davids ſeer, ſaying, 10 Go and tell David, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, I offer thee three things, chooſe thee one of them that I may do it unto thee. 11 So Gad came to David, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, Chooſe thee 12 Either three years famine, or three months to be deſtroyed before thy foes, (while that the ſword of thine enemies overtake thee) or elſe three days the ſword of the Lord, even the peſtilence in the land, and the angel of the Lord deſtroying throughout all the coaſts of Iſrael: now therefore adviſe thyſelf, what word I ſhall bring again to him that ſent me. 13 And David ſaid unto Gad, I am in a great ſtrait: let me fall now into the hand of the Lord: (for very great are his mercies) but let me not fall into the hand of man. 14 So the Lord ſent peſtilence upon Iſrael: and there fell of Iſrael ſeventy thouſand men. 15 And God ſent an angel unto Jeruſalem to deſtroy it: and as he was deſtroying, the Lord beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and ſaid to the angel that deſtroyed, It is enough, ſtay now thine hand. And the angel of the Lord ſtood by the threſhing-floor of Ornan the Jebuſite. 16 And David lift up his eyes, and ſaw the angel of the Lord ſtand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn ſword in his hand ſtretched out over Jeruſalem: then David and the elders of Iſrael, who were clothed in ſackcloth, fell upon their faces. 17 And David ſaid unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbred? even I it is that have ſinned and done evil indeed; but as for theſe ſheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O Lord my God, be on me, and on my fathers houſe, but not on thy people, that they ſhould be plagued. 18 Then the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to ſay to David, that David ſhould go up and ſet up an altar unto the Lord, in the threſhing-floor of Ornan the Jebuſite. 19 And David went up at the ſaying of Gad, which he ſpake in the name of the Lord. 20 And Ornan turned back, and ſaw the angel; and his four ſons with him hid themſelves. Now Ornan was threſhing wheat. 21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and ſaw David, and went out of the threſhing-floor, and bowed himſelf to David with his face to the ground. 22 Then David ſaid to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threſhing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the Lord: thou ſhalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be ſtayed from the people. 23 And Ornan ſaid unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen alſo for burnt-offerings, and the threſhing inſtruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering, I give it all. 24 And king David ſaid to Ornan, Nay, but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt-offerings without coſt. 25 So David gave to Ornan for the place, ſix hundred ſhekels of gold by weight, 26 And David built there an altar unto the Lord, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the Lord, and he anſwered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering. 27 And the Lord commanded the angel, and he put up his ſword again into the ſheath thereof. 28 At that time, when David ſaw that the Lord had anſwered him in the threſhing-floor of Ornan the Jebuſite, then he ſacrificed there. 29 For the tabernacle of the Lord which Moſes made in the wilderneſs, and the altar of the burnt-offering were at that ſeaſon in the high place at Gibeon. 30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God; for he was afraid, becauſe of the ſword of the angel of the Lord.

The Variations and ſeeming Contradictions between the Narrative contained in this Chapter, and that in Samuel, Chap. xxiv. are there explained and reconciled.

CHAP. XXII.

David prepares for the building of the Temple; inſtructs Solomon in God's Promiſes, and his Duty; he charges the Princes to aſſiſt his Son.

Ver. 1. THEN David ſaid, This is the houſe of the Lord God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Iſrael. 2 And David commanded to gather together the ſtrangers that were in the land of Iſrael, and he ſet maſons to hew wrought ſtones to build the houſe of God. 3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joynings; and braſs in abundance without weight. 4 Alſo cedar-trees in abundance: for the Zidonians, and they of Tyre, brought much cedar wood to David. 5 And David ſaid, Solomon my ſon is young and tender, and the houſe that is to be builded for the Lord, muſt be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countrys: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death. 6 Then he called for Solomon his ſon, and charged him to build an houſe for the Lord God of Iſrael. 7 And David ſaid to Solomon, My ſon, as for me, it was in my mind to build an houſe unto the name of the Lord my God: 8 But the word of the Lord came to me, ſaying, Thou haſt ſhed blood abundantly, and haſt made great wars: thou ſhalt not build an houſe unto my name, becauſe thou haſt ſhed much blood upon the earth in my ſight. 9 Behold, a ſon ſhall be born to thee, who ſhall be a man of reſt, and I will give him reſt from all his enemies round about: for his name ſhall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietneſs unto Iſrael in his days. 10 He ſhall build an houſe for my name, and he ſhall be my ſon, and I will be his father, and I will eſtabliſh the throne of his kingdom over Iſrael for ever. 11 Now my ſon, the Lord be with thee, and proſper thou, and build the houſe of the Lord thy God, as he hath ſaid of thee. 12 Only the Lord give thee wiſdom and underſtanding, and give thee charge concerning Iſrael, that thou mayeſt keep the law of the Lord thy God. 13 Then ſhalt thou proſper, if thou takeſt heed to fulfil the ſtatutes and judgments which the Lord charged Moſes with concerning Iſrael: be ſtrong and of good courage, dread not, nor be diſmayed. 14 Now behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the houſe of the Lord an hundred thouſand talents of gold, and a thouſand thouſand talents of ſilver; and of braſs, and iron, without weight (for it is in abundance:) timber alſo and ſtone have I prepared, and thou mayeſt add thereto. 15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers, and workers of ſtone, and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work. 16 Of the gold, the ſilver, and the braſs, and the iron, there is no number. Ariſe therefore, and be doing, and the Lord be with thee. 17 David alſo commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, 18 Is not the Lord your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people. 19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God, arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the Lord God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the Lord.

The Contents of this Chapter having already been related and explained, we will proceed to the next.

CHAP. XXIII.

David makes Solomon King. The Number and Distribution of the Levites, according to their Families; their Office.

Ver. 1. SO when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel. 2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. 3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years, and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand. 4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the Lord: and six thousand were officers and judges. 5 Moreover, four thousand were porters, and four thousand praised the Lord with the instruments which I made (said David) to praise therewith. 6 And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 7 Of the Gershonites were Laadan and Shimei. 8 The sons of Laadan the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three. 9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan. 10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. 11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush, and Beriah had not many sons: therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their fathers house. 12 The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. 13 The sons of Amram; Aaron, and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctifie the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the Lord, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever. 14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. 15 The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer. 16 Of the sons of Gershom; Shebuel was the chief. 17 And the sons of Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. 18 Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief. 19 Of the sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jehaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. 20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah the first, and Jesiah the second. 21 The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi: the sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish: 22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons but daughters: their brethren the sons of Kish took them. 23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. 24 These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of their fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the Lord from the age of twenty years and upward. 25 For David said, The Lord God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever; 26 And also unto the Levites: they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof. 27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were numbred from twenty years old and above; 28 Because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of the Lord, in the course, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God; 29 Both for the shew-bread, and for the fine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size: 30 And to stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord, and likewise at even: 31 And to offer all burnt-sacrifices unto the Lord in the sabbaths, in the new-moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them continually before the Lord: 32 And that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the Lord.

Concerning the Offices, and several Employments of the Levites, here treated of, see Numb. iv.

CHAP. XXIV.

The Priests are divided by Lots into four Orders. Ministers allotted them out of the Levites, and of the Families of the Kohathites and Merarites.

Ver. 1. NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron; The sons of Aaron; Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. 2 But Nadab and Abihu, died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priests office. 3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service. 4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar, than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar, according to the house of their fathers. 5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governours of the sanctuary, and governours of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. 6 And Shemaia the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites wrote them before the king and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests, and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar. 7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, 8 The third to Harim, the

the fourth to Seorim, 9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, 10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, 11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah, 12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, 13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, 14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, 15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses. 16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel. 17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. 19 These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of the Lord, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded him. 20 And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeial. 21 Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah. 22 Of the Izharites; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath. 23 And the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. 24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah: of the sons of Micah; Shamir. 25 The brother of Micah was Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah. 26 The sons of Merari were, Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno. 27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; and Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. 28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons. 29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel. 30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli and Eder, and Jeremoth. These were the sons of the Levites, after the house of their fathers. 31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, and Zadok and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

It's observable, that, in this Chapter David divides the Priests into twenty-four Companies or Classes, for the Execution of their Offices, the Division was made by Lot, to take away all Occasion of Envy or Grudging one against another. The ninth Lot fell to Abijah, of whom came Zechary, the Father of John Baptist. As there were four and twenty Orders of Priests, there were just so many Levites, who ministred unto them, whose Heads are here set down. Every one had that Dignity which fell unto him by Lot, without observing, in their Order of relieving one another, any Precedency; either by Reason of Eldership, or Greatness of Number or Power.

CHAP. XXV.

The Number and Offices of the Singers out of the Sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun. Their Divisions by Lot into twenty four Orders.

Ver. 1. MOreover, David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesie with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen, according to their service was: 2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king. 3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the Lord. 4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth: 5 All these were the sons of Heman, the kings seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons, and three daughters. 6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the Lord with cymbals, psalteries, and harps for the service of the house of God, according to the kings order, to Asaph, to Jeduthun, and Heman. 7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the Lord, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight. 8 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar. 9 Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph, the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve: 10 The third to Zaccur, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 14 The seventh to Jesharelah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 15 The eighth to Jeshaiah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 16 The ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 17 The tenth to Shimei, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve. 18 The eleventh to Azareel, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 19 The twelfth to Hashabiah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 20 The thirteenth to Shubael, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 21 The fourteenth to Mattithiah, he, his sons and brethren were twelve: 22 The fifteenth to Jeremoth, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 23 The sixteenth to Hananiah, he, sons and his brethren were twelve: 24 The seventeenth to Joshbekashah, he, his sons and brethren were twelve: 25 The eighteenth Hanani, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 26 The nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 27 The twentieth to Eliathah, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 28 The one and twentieth to Hothir, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 29 The two and twentieth to Giddalti, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 30 The three and twentieth to Mahazioth, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve: 31 The four and twentieth to Romamtiezer, he, his sons and his brethren were twelve:

CHAP. XXVI.

The Division of the Porters. The Gates of the Temple by Lot. The Levites have Charge of the Offices of the Temple. Officers and Judges.

Ver. 1. CONcerning the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. 2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were Zechariah the first-born, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jethniel the fourth. 3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh. 4 Moreover, the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the first-born, Jehozabab the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth, 5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed him. 6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour. 7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men; Elihu and Semachiah. 8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they, and their sons, and their brethren, able men for strength, for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom. 9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen. 10 Also Hosah of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the first-born, yet his father made him the chief) 11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen. 12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the Lord. 13 And they cast lots as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers for every gate. 14 And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah: then for Zechariah his son (a wise counsellor) they cast lots, and his lot came out northward. 15 To Obed-edom southward, and to his sons, the house of Asuppim. 16 To Shuppim and Hosah, by lot came forth westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causey of the going up, ward against ward. 17 Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two and two. 18 At Parbar westward, four at the causey, and two at Parbar. 19 These are the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari. 20 And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasuries of the house of God, and over the treasuries of the dedicate things. 21 As concerning the sons of Laadan: the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers even of Laadan the Gershonite were, Jehieli. 22 The sons of Jehieli; Zetham, and Joel his brother, which were over the treasuries of the house of the Lord. 23 Of the Amramites, and the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites: 24 And Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasuries. 25 And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. 26 Which Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicate things, which David the king and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host had dedicated. 27 Out of the spoils won in battles, did they dedicate to maintain the house of the Lord. 28 And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, and whosoever had dedicated any thing, it was under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren. 29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. 30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers, among them of Israel on this side Jordan west-ward, in all business of the Lord, and in the service of the king. 31 Among the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David, they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour, at Jazer of Gilead. 32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

It's observable that the Hebrews made both the Books of Chronicles but one, and that the twenty fourth Verse of this Chapter, makes the Midst of the Book, as touching the Number of Verses.

CHAP. XXVII.

The twelve Captains for every several Month. The Princes of the twelve Tribes. The chief Keepers of David's Treasures. His Counsellors and Friends.

Ver. 1. NOW the children of Israel after their number, to wit, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course were twenty and four thousand. 2 Over the first course for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 3 Of the children Perez, was the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. 4 And over the course of the second month was Dodai an Ahohite, and of his course was Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise were twenty and four thousand. 5 The third captain of the host for the third month, was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada a chief priest: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 6 This is that Benaiah, who was mighty among the thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course was Ammizabad his son. 7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 8 The fifth captain for the fifth month, was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 9 The sixth captain for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 10 The seventh captain for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course were twenty and four thousand. 11 The eighth captain for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

12 The ninth captain for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anetothite, of the Benjamites; and in his courſe were twenty and four thouſand. 13 The tenth captain for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites: and in his courſe were twenty and four thouſand. 14 The eleventh captain for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his courſe were twenty and four thouſand. 15 The twelfth captain for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his courſe were twenty and four thouſand. 16 Furthermore, over the tribes of Iſrael: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the ſon of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the ſon of Maachah: 17 Of the Levites, Haſhabiah the ſon of Kemuel: of the Aaronites, Zadok: 18 Of Judah, Elihu one of the brethren of David: of Iſſachar, Omri the ſon of Michael: 19 Of Zebulun, Iſhmaiah, the ſon of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the ſon of Azriel: 20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoſhea the ſon of Azaziah: of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh, Joel the ſon of Pedaiah: 21 Of the half-tribe of Manaſſeh in Gilead, Iddo the ſon of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaaſiel the ſon of Abner: 22 Of Dan, Azareel the ſon of Jeroham. Theſe were the princes of the tribes of Iſrael. 23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: becauſe the Lord had ſaid, he would increaſe Iſrael like to the ſtars of the heavens. 24 Joab the ſon of Zeruiah began to number, but he finiſhed not, becauſe there fell wrath for it againſt Iſrael, neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David. 25 And over the kings treaſures was Azmaveth the ſon of Adiel: and over the ſtore-houſes in the fields, in the cities and in the villages, and in the caſtles, was Jehonathan the ſon of Uzziah. 26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground, was Ezri the ſon of Chelub. 27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increaſe of the vineyards for the wine-cellars, was Zabdi the Shiphmite. 28 And over the olive-trees, and the ſycomore-trees that were in the low plains, was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oyl was Joaſh. 29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon, was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys, was Shaphat the ſon of Adlai. 30 Over the camels alſo, was Obil the Iſhmeelite: and over the aſſes, was Jedeiah the Meronothite. 31 And over the flocks, was Jaziz the Hagerite. All theſe were the rulers of the ſubſtance which was king Davids. 32 Alſo Jonathan Davids uncle was a counſellor, a wiſe man, and a ſcribe: and Jehiel the ſon of Hachmoni was with the kings ſons. 33 And Ahithophel was the kings counſellor, and Huſhai the Archite was the kings companion. 34 And after Ahithophel, was Jehoiada the ſon of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the general of the kings army was Joab.

According to the Diviſion made by David, the twelve Chieftains with their Men, were to keep their Guards, and their Marchings forth for a Month together, changing their Courſes every Month. Whatever Buſineſs or Difficulty occurred, whereto military Strength was required, thoſe were to be in Readineſs in whoſe Month and Turn it was; ſo that they were like Legions or Bands of Militia, always ready to ſerve their King and Country.

CHAP. XXVIII.

David, in a ſolemn Aſſembly, declares God's Favour to him, and Promiſe to his Son Solomon; exhorts them to fear God; encourages Solomon to build the Temple; gives him a Pattern for the Form, and Gold and Silver for the Materials.

Ver. 1. AND David aſſembled all the princes of Iſrael, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that miniſtred to the king by courſe, and the captains over the thouſands, and captains over the hundreds, and the ſtewards over all the ſubſtance and poſſeſſion of the king, and of his ſons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men unto Jeruſalem. 2 Then David the king ſtood up upon his feet, and ſaid, Hear me, my brethren, and my people, As for me, I had in mine heart to build an houſe of reſt for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footſtool of our God, and had made ready for the building: 3 But God ſaid unto me, Thou ſhalt not build an houſe for my name, becauſe thou hast been a man of war, and haſt ſhed blood. 4 Howbeit, the Lord God of Iſrael choſe me before all the houſe of my father, to be king over Iſrael for ever: for he hath choſen Judah to be the ruler; and of the houſe of Judah, the houſe of my father; and among the ſons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Iſrael: 5 And of all my ſons (for the Lord hath given me many ſons) he hath choſen Solomon my ſon, to ſit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Iſrael. 6 And he ſaid unto me, Solomon thy ſon, he ſhall build my houſe and my courts: for I have choſen him to be my ſon, and I will be his father. 7 Moreover, I will eſtabliſh his kingdom for ever, if he be conſtant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day. 8 Now therefore in the ſight of all Iſrael the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and ſeek for all the commandments of the Lord your God: that ye may poſſeſs this good land: and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever. 9 And thou, Solomon my ſon, know thou the God of thy father, and ſerve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the Lord ſearcheth all hearts, and underſtandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou ſeek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forſake him, he will caſt thee off for ever. 10 Take heed now, for the Lord hath choſen thee to build an houſe for the ſanctuary: be ſtrong and do it. 11 Then David gave to Solomon his ſon the pattern of the porch, and of the houſes thereof, and of the treaſuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy-ſeat. 12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the houſe of the Lord, and of all the chambers round about, of the treaſuries of the houſe of God, and of the treaſuries of the dedicate things: 13 Alſo for the courſes of the prieſts and Levites, and for all the work of the ſervice

the house of the Lord, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the Lord. 14 He gave of gold by weight, for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service, silver also for all instruments of silver, by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service: 15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use for every candlestick. 16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shew-bread, for every table, and likewise silver for the tables of silver; 17 Also pure gold for the fleſh-hooks, and the bowls and the cups: and for the golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver: 18 And for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the Lord. 19 All this, said David, the Lord made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern. 20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed, for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee, he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord. 21 And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God, and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship, every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

It's to be observed, that David, in ordering the Courses of the Priests and Levites, by which Alterations were made in the Service of God, did not do this out of an absolute royal Authority, ordaining the Service of God according to his own Fancy and Good-liking, but he did it as a Prophet of God, by the Instinct and Suggestion of the Holy Ghost, and also by the Instigation and Persuasion of Gad and Nathan. Thus God shewed unto Moses a Pattern of all he should make, Exod. xxv. 40. and xxvi. 32. and Heb. viii. 5.

CHAP. XXIX.

David, by his Example and Entreaty, causes the Princes and People to offer willingly. David's Thanksgiving and Prayer. The People having blessed God and sacrificed, make Solomon King. David's Reign and Death.

Ver. 1. FUrthermore, David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God. 2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God, the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx-stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble-stones in abundance. 3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, 4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withall: 5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord? 6 Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the kings work, offered willingly. 7 And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold, five thousand talents, and ten thousand drams; and of silver, ten thousand talents; and of brass, eighteen thousand talents; and one hundred thousand talents of iron. 8 And they with whom precious stones were found, gave them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. 9 Then the people rejoyced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly unto the Lord: and David the king also rejoyced with great joy. 10 Wherefore David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel, our father, for ever and ever. 11 Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth, is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. 12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all, and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. 13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. 14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. 15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. 16 O Lord our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name, cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own. 17 I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hath pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy, thy people which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee. 18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and of Israel our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee. 19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace for the which I have made provision. 20 And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the Lord your God. And all the congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the Lord and the king. 21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the Lord, and offered burnt-offerings unto the Lord on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, lambs, with their drink-offerings, and ſacrifices in abundance for all Iſrael: 22 And did eat and drink before the Lord on that day with great gladneſs, and they made Solomon the ſon of David king the ſecond time, and anointed him unto the Lord to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be prieſt. 23 Then Solomon ſat on the throne of the Lord as king in ſtead of David his father, and proſpered, and all Iſrael obeyed him. 24 And all the princes and the mighty men, and all the ſons likewiſe of king David ſubmitted themſelves unto Solomon the king. 25 And the Lord magnified Solomon exceedingly in the ſight of all Iſrael, and beſtowed upon him ſuch royal majeſty as had not been on any king before him in Iſrael. 26 Thus David the ſon of Jeſſe, reigned over all Iſrael. 27 And the time that he reigned over Iſrael, was forty years; ſeven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jeruſalem. 28 And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 29 Now the acts of David the king, firſt and laſt, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the ſeer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the ſeer, 30 With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Iſrael, and over all the kingdoms of the countrys.

Then Solomon ſat on the Throne of the Lord] That is, on the Throne of Iſrael, which is called the Throne of the Lord, either more generally, as all Thrones are the Lord's, by whom Kings reign, Prov. viii. 15. and Magiſtrates are ordained, Rom. xiii. 1, 2. or more eſpecially and peculiarly; either, 1. Becauſe the Lord himſelf was, in a peculiar Manner, the King and Governor of Iſrael, not only in the Time of the Judges, but afterwards; or, 2. Becauſe it was the Throne of Chriſt the Lord, whoſe Vicegerents David and Solomon, and their Succeſſors, were; for whom this Throne was reſerved, and by whom it was to be eſtabliſhed and enjoyed for ever. Or, 3. Becauſe it was the Throne which fell to Solomon, not by Right of Inheritance, for he had elder Brethren, but by ſpecial Appointment and Gift of the Lord. And for this, of the Lord, is the Genitive Caſe of the Efficient, as the Learned call it, and ſignifies, which the Lord gave him.

The ARGUMENT.

In this second Book of Chronicles is briefly comprehended what is contained in the second Book of Kings; that is, from the Reign of Solomon, to the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem, and the carrying away of the People captive into Babylon. In this Story are certain Things more copiouſly related than in the Book of the Kings, and therefore ſerve greatly to the underſtanding of the Prophets. But three Things are here chiefly to be conſidered. 1. That the godly Kings, when they ſaw the divine Vengeance prepared againſt their Country for Sin, had Recourſe to the Lord, and by earneſt Prayer were heard, and the Plagues were removed. 2. That it greatly offends God, that ſuch as fear him, and profeſs his Religion, ſhould be joined in Amity with the Wicked. And, 3. How the good Rulers ever love the Prophets of God, and were very zealous in promoting his Religion throughout all their Dominions; and on the contrary, that the Wicked hate his Miniſters, depoſe them, and, for the true Religion and Word of God, ſet up Idolatry and ſerved God according to the Humour of Men.

Thus have we, in an orderly hiſtorical Way, related the principal Occurrences from the Beginning of the World, to the Rebuilding of Jeruſalem, containing, in the Whole, three Thouſand five hundred and eighteen Years and ſix Months.

CHAP. I.

Solomon's ſolemn Offering at Gibeon. His Choice of Wiſdom. Is bleſſed of God. His Strength and Wealth.

v. 1. AND Solomon the ſon of David, was ſtrengthned in his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly. 2 Then Solomon ſpake unto all Iſrael, to the captains of thouſands, and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor, in all Iſrael, the chief of the fathers. 3 So Solomon and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moſes the ſervant of the Lord had made in the wilderneſs. 4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jeruſalem. 5 Moreover the braſen altar that Bezaleel the ſon of Uri, the ſon of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation ſought unto it. 6 And Solomon went up thither to the braſen altar before the Lord, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offer'd a thouſand burnt-offerings upon it. 7 In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and ſaid unto him, Aſk what I ſhall give thee. 8 And Solomon ſaid unto God, Thou haſt ſhewed great mercy unto David my father, and haſt made me to reign in his ſtead. 9 Now, O Lord God, let thy promiſe unto David my father be eſtabliſhed: for thou haſt made me king over a people, like the duſt of the earth in multitude. 10 Give me now wiſdom and knowledge that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people that is ſo great? 11 And God ſaid to Solomon, Becauſe this was in thine heart, and thou haſt not aſked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet haſt aſked long life; but haſt aſked wiſdom and knowledge for thy ſelf, that thou mayeſt judge my people over whom I have made thee king: 12 Wiſdom and knowledge is granted unto thee, and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, ſuch as none of the kings have had, that have been before thee, neither ſhall there any after thee have the like. 13 Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon, to Jeruſalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Iſrael. 14 And Solomon gathered chariots, and horſe-men: and he had a thouſand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thouſand horſemen, which he placed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jeruſalem. 15 And the king made ſilver and gold at Jeruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, and cedar-trees made he as the ſycomore-trees that are in the vale for abundance. 16 And Solomon had horſes brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the kings merchants received the linen yarn at a price. 17 And they fetcht up, and brought forth out of Egypt, a chariot for ſix hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and an horſe for an hundred and fifty:

fifty: and ſo brought they out horſes for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria by their means.

Moreover, the brazen Altar, which Bezaleel, the Son of Uri, the Son of Hur, had made, he put before the Tabernacle of the Lord] By the He here mentioned, is to be underſtood, either Moſes, named Ver. 3. or Bezaleel, in this Verſe, by the Command and Direction of Moſes; or David, who may be ſaid to put it (the braſen Altar) there, becauſe he continued it there, and did not remove it, as he did the Ark from the Tabernacle.

Solomon appoints Workmen to build the Temple. His Embaſſy to King Hiram, for Workmen and Materials; promiſing to furniſh him with Proviſion. Hiram's Kindneſs. Solomon numbers and divides the Workmen.

Ver. 1. AND Solomon determined to build an houſe for the name of the Lord, and an houſe for his kingdom. 2 And Solomon told out threeſcore and ten thouſand men to bear burdens, and fourſcore thouſand to hew in the mountain, and three thouſand and ſix hundred to overſee them. 3 And Solomon ſent to Huram the king of Tyre, ſaying, As thou didſt deal with David my father, and didſt ſend him cedars to build him an houſe to dwell therein, even ſo deal with me. 4 Behold, I build an houſe to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him ſweet incenſe, and for the continual ſhew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening on the ſabbaths, and on the new-moons, and on the ſolemn feaſts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Iſrael. 5 And the houſe which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods. 6 But who is able to build him an houſe, ſeeing the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then that I ſhould build him an houſe, ſave only to burn ſacrifice before him? 7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in ſilver, and in braſs, and in iron, and in purple, and crimſon, and blue, and that can ſkill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jeruſalem, whom David my father did provide. 8 Send me alſo cedar-trees, fir-trees and algum-trees out of Lebanon: (for I know that thy ſervants can ſkill to cut timber in Lebanon) and behold my ſervants ſhall be with thy ſervants. 9 Even to prepare mè timber in abundance: for the houſe which I am about to build ſhall be wonderful great. 10 And behold, I will give to thy ſervants the hewers that cut timber, twenty thouſand meaſures of beaten wheat, and twenty thouſand meaſures of barley, and twenty thouſand baths of wine, and twenty thouſand baths of oyl. 11 Then Huram the king of Tyre anſwered in writing which he ſent to Solomon, Becauſe the Lord hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them. 12 Huram ſaid moreover, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king, a wiſe ſon, endued with prudence and underſtanding, that might build an houſe for the Lord, and an houſe for his kingdom. 13 And now I have ſent a cunning man (endued with underſtanding) of Huram my fathers; 14 The ſon of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, ſkilful to work in gold, and in ſilver, in braſs, in iron, in ſtone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimſon: alſo to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which ſhall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father. 15 Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oyl, and the wine which my Lord hath ſpoken of, let him ſend unto his ſervants: 16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou ſhalt need, and we will bring it to thee in flotes by ſea to Joppa, and thou ſhalt carry it up to Jeruſalem. 17 And Solomon numbred all the ſtrangers that were in the land of Iſrael, after the numbring wherewith David his father had numbred them: and they were found an hundred and fifty thouſand and three thouſand and ſix hundred. 18 And he ſet threeſcore and ten thouſand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourſcore thouſand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thouſand, and ſix hundred overſeers to ſet the people a work.

CHAP. III.

The Place and Time of building the Temple. The Meaſure and Ornaments of it. The Cherubim. The Veil and the Pillars.

Ver. 1. THEN Solomon began to build the houſe of the Lord at Jeruſalem in mount Moriah, where the Lord appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threſhing-floor of Ornan the Jebuſite. And he began to build in the ſecond day of the ſecond month, in the fourth year of his reign. Now theſe are the things wherein Solomon was inſtructed for the building of the houſe of God. The length by cubits after the firſt meaſure were threeſcore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. 4 And the porch that was in the front of the houſe, the length of it was according to the breadth of the houſe, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold. 5 And the greater houſe he cieled with fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and ſet thereon palm-trees and chains. 6 And he garniſhed the houſe with precious ſtones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. 7 He overlaid alſo the houſe, the beams, the poſts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof with gold, and graved cherubims on the walls. 8 And he made the moſt holy houſe, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the houſe, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold amounting to ſix hundred talents. 9 And the weight of the nails was fifty ſhekels of gold: and he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. 10 And in the moſt holy houſe he made two cherubims of image-work, and overlaid them with gold. 11 And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the houſe, and the other wing likewiſe five cubits, reaching to the wing of other cherub. 12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the houſe: and the other wing was five cubits alſo, joining to the wing of the other cherub. 13 The wings of theſe cherubims ſpread themſelves forth twenty cubits: and they ſtood on their feet, and their faces were inward. 14 And he made the vail of blue, and purple, and crimſon, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon. 15 Alſo he made before the houſe two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. 16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars, and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. 17 And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand, Jachin, and the name of that on the left, Boaz.

The Subſtance of this Chapter is contained in 1 Kings vi. as are likewiſe the Contents of the next Chapter.

CHAP. IV.

The Altar of Braſs. The Molten Sea. The ten Lavers, Candleſticks, and Tables. The Inſtruments of Gold.

Ver. 1. MOreover, he made an altar of braſs, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof. 2 Alſo he made a molten ſea of ten cubits, from brim to brim, round in compaſs, and five cubits the height thereof, and a line of thirty cubits did compaſs it round about. 3 And under it was the ſimilitude of oxen, which did compaſs it round about: ten in a cubit compaſſing the ſea round about. Two rows of oxen were caſt, when it was caſt. 4 It ſtood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the weſt, and three looking toward the ſouth, and three looking toward the eaſt: and the ſea was ſet above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. 5 And the thickneſs of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held three thouſand baths. 6 He made alſo ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to waſh in them: ſuch things as they offered for the burnt-offering, they waſhed in them; but the ſea was for the prieſts to waſh in. 7 And he made ten candleſticks of gold according to their form, and ſet them in the temple five on the right hand, and five on the left. 8 He made alſo ten tables, and placed them in the temple five on the right ſide, and five on the left: and he made an hundred baſons of gold. 9 Furthermore, he made the court of the prieſts, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with braſs. 10 And he ſet the ſea on the right ſide of the eaſt-end, over againſt the ſouth. 11 And Huram made the pots and the ſhovels, and the baſons: and Huram finiſhed the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the houſe of God: 12 To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapiters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which were on the top of the pillars: 13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters, which were upon the pillars. 14 He made alſo baſes; and lavers made he upon the baſes; 15 One ſea, and twelve oxen under it: 16 The pots alſo and the ſhovels, and the fleſh-hooks, and all their inſtruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the houſe of the Lord, of bright braſs. 17 In the plain of Jordan did the king caſt them, in the clay-ground, between Succoth and Zeredathah. 18 Thus Solomon made all theſe veſſels in great abundance: for the weight of the braſs could not be found out. 19 And Solomon made all the veſſels that were for the houſe of God, the golden altar alſo, and the tables whereon the ſhew-bread was ſet; 20 Moreover, the candleſticks with their lamps, that they ſhould burn after the manner, before the oracle, of pure gold; 21 And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs made he of gold, and that perfect gold. 22 And the ſnuffers, and the baſons, and the ſpoons, and the cenſers of pure gold: and the entry of the houſe, the inner doors thereof for the moſt holy place, and the doors of the houſe of the temple, were of gold.

The dedicated Treaſures. The Ark of the Covenant brought into its Place. The Muſick plays, and the Cloud fills the Houſe of the Lord.

Ver. 1. THUS all the work that Solomon made for the houſe of the Lord was finiſhed: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the ſilver, and the gold, and all the inſtruments, put he among the treaſures of the houſe of God. 2 Then Solomon aſſembled the elders of Iſrael, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Iſrael unto Jeruſalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord, out of the city of David, which is Zion. 3 Wherefore all the men of Iſrael aſſembled themſelves unto the king in the feaſt, which was in the ſeventh month. 4 And all the elders of Iſrael came, and the Levites took up the ark. 5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy veſſels that were in the tabernacle, theſe did the prieſts and the Levites bring up. 6 Alſo king Solomon and all the congregation of Iſrael that were aſſembled unto him before the ark, ſacrificed ſheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbred for multitude. 7 And the prieſts brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, to the oracle of the houſe into the moſt holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims. 8 For the cherubims ſpread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the ſtaves thereof, above. 9 And they drew out the ſtaves of the ark, that the ends of the ſtaves were ſeen from the ark before the oracle, but they were not ſeen without. And there it is unto this day. 10 There was nothing in the ark ſave the two tables which Moſes put therein at Horeb, when the Lord made a covenant with the children of Iſrael when they came out of Egypt.

Egypt. 11 And it came to pass when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course. 12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons, and their brethren; being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals, and psalteries, and harps, stood at the east-end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests, sounding with trumpets) 13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters, and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord; and when they lift up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals, and instruments of musick, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord; 14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God.

CHAP. VI.

Solomon blesses the People, and praises God. His excellent Prayer, wherein he shews the right Use of the Temple.

Ver. 1. THen said Solomon, The Lord hath said, that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever. 3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, (and all the congregation of Israel stood) 4 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying, 5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there, neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel: 6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there, and have chosen David to be over my people Israel. 7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. 8 But the Lord said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart: 9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house, but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loyns, he shall build the house for my name. 10 The Lord therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. 11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel. 12 And he stood before the altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands; 13 (For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court, and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven, 14 And said, O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts: 15 Thou which has kept with thy servant David my father, that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and has fulfilled it with thine hand as it is this day. 16 Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father, that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne in Israel; yet so, that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. 17 Now then, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David. 18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven, and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built?) 19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee: 20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said, that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer, which thy servant prayeth towards this place. 21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive. 22 If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house: 23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head, and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness. 24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house: 25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sins of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them, and to their fathers. 26 When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name and turn from their sin when thou dost afflict them: 27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance. 28 If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillers, if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore, or whatsoever sickness there be: 29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore, and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house: 30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest: (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men) 31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy way so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers. 32 Moreover, concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great names sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house: 33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built, is called by thy name. 34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name: 35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. 36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near; 37 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whether they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly; 38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray towards their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name: 39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee. 40 Now, my God, let (I beseech thee) thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. 41 Now therefore arise, O Lord God, into thy resting-place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness. 42 O Lord God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAP. VII.

Fire from Heaven, and a visible Glory in the Temple, witness the divine Presence and Acceptance. The People worship. Solomon's solemn Sacrifice; having kept the Feast of Tabernacles and of Dedication, he dismisses the People. God appears to Solomon; promises his Favour on Obedience; else threatens grievous Judgments.

1 NOW when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. 2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lords house. 3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever. 4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord. 5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. 6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the Lord, which David the king had made to praise the Lord, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry: and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. 7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat. 8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, unto the river of Egypt. 9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. 10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month, he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the Lord had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. 11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the kings house: and all that came into Solomons heart to make in the house of the Lord, and in his own house, he prosperously effected. 12 And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice. 13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; 14 If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways: then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. 16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. 17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments: 18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel. 19 But if ye turn away and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them: 20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house which I have ſanctified for my name, will I caſt out of my ſight, and will make it to be a proverb, and a by-word among all nations. 21 And this houſe which is high, ſhall be an aſtoniſhment to every one that paſſeth by it; ſo that he ſhall ſay, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and unto this houſe? 22 And it ſhall be anſwered, Becauſe they forſook the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worſhipped them, and ſerved them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

Solomon's Buildings. The Heathen, who remained in the Land, he makes tributary; but the Iſraelites Rulers. His yearly ſolemn Sacrifices. He appoints the Prieſts and Levites their proper Places. His Navy fetches Gold from Ophir.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs (at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the houſe of the Lord and his own houſe) 2 That the cities which Huram had reſtored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and cauſed the children of Iſrael to dwell there. 3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed againſt it. 4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderneſs and all the ſtore-cities, which he built in Hamath. 5 Alſo he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars: 6 And Baalath, and all the ſtore-cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horſemen, and all that Solomon deſired to build in Jeruſalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion. 7 As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebuſites which were not of Iſrael; 8 But of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Iſrael conſumed not; them did Solomon make to pay tribute, until this day. 9 But of the children of Iſrael did Solomon make no ſervants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horſemen. 10 And theſe were the chief of king Solomons officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people. 11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh, out of the city of David, unto the houſe that he had built for her: for he ſaid, My wife ſhall not dwell in the houſe of David king of Iſrael, becauſe the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the Lord hath come. 12 Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the Lord on the altar of the Lord, which he had built before the porch: 13 Even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moſes, on the ſabbaths, and on the new-moons, and on the ſolemn feaſts, three times in the year, even in the feaſt of unleavened bread, and in the feaſt of weeks, and in the feaſt of tabernacles. 14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courſes of the prieſts to their ſervice, and the Levites to their charges, to praiſe and miniſter before the prieſts, as the duty of every man required: the porters alſo by their courſes, at every gate: for ſo had David the man of God commanded. 15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the prieſts and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treaſures. 16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the houſe of the Lord, and until it was finiſhed: ſo the houſe of the Lord was perfected. 17 Then went Solomon to Eziongeber, and to Eloth, at the ſea-ſide in the land of Edom. 18 And Huram ſent him by the hands of his ſervants, ſhips, and ſervants that had knowledge of the ſea; and they went with the ſervants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

And Solomon brought up the Daughter of Pharaoh out of the City of David, unto the Houſe that he had built for her] The Reaſon of his doing this was, firſt, becauſe ſhe was a Woman, and attended by many other Women, who, beſides the common Pollutions of all are ſubject to many and frequent ceremonial Pollutions peculiar to their Sex; and, either ſhe, or at leaſt many of her Followers, might be Heathens at this Time; and therefore he thought it indecent, that ſuch Perſons ſhould come, as it were, in God's ſtead, and ſucceed him in the Place where he had dwelt. Or ſecondly, he ſpeaks not of the Time when the Ark was gone, but while it was there; and theſe Words contain a Reaſon, not of the more remote Words when he now brought her up thither, but of the Words immediately preceding, why he built this Houſe for her, becauſe the Ark was now in the Houſe of David, which ought therefore to be kept pure, and from the very Danger and Appearance of Pollution.

CHAP. IX.

The Queen of Sheba's Viſit to Solomon. His Gold; Targets; Throne of Ivory; Veſſels; Preſents; Chariots and Horſes; Tributes; Reign and Death.

Ver. 1. AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, ſhe came to prove Solomon with hard queſtions at Jeruſalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare ſpices, and gold in abundance, and precious ſtones: and when ſhe was come to Solomon, ſhe communed with him of all that was in her heart. 2 And Solomon told her all her queſtions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not. 3 And when the queen of Sheba had ſeen the wiſdom of Solomon, and the houſe that he had built, 4 And the meat of his table, and the ſitting of his ſervants, and the attendance of his miniſters, and their apparel, his cup-bearers alſo, and their apparel, and his aſcent by which he went up into the houſe of the Lord; there was no more ſpirit in her. 5 And ſhe ſaid to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land, of thine acts, and of thy wiſdom: 6 Howbeit, I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had ſeen it: and behold, the one half of the greatneſs of thy wiſdom was not told me: for thou exceedeſt the fame that I heard. 7 Happy are thy men, and happy are theſe thy ſervants, which ſtand continually before thee, and hear thy wiſdom. 8 Bleſſed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee to ſet thee on his throne, to be king for the Lord thy God: becauſe thy God loved Iſrael, to eſtabliſh them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and juſtice. 9 And ſhe gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of ſpices great abundance, and precious ſtones: neither was there any ſuch ſpice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon. 10 And the ſervants alſo of Huram, and the ſervants of Solomon which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum-trees, and precious ſtones. 11 And the king made of the algum-trees, terriſes to the houſe of the Lord, and to the kings palace, and harps and pſalteries for ſingers: and there were none ſuch ſeen before in the land of Judah. 12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba, all her deſire, whatſoever ſhe aſked, beſides that which ſhe had brought unto the king: ſo ſhe turned, and went away to her own land, ſhe and her ſervants. 13 Now the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year, was ſix hundred and threeſcore and ſix talents of gold; 14 Beſides that which chapmen and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia, and governours of the country, brought gold, and ſilver to Solomon. 15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: ſix hundred ſhekels of beaten gold went to one target. 16 And three hundred ſhields made he of beaten gold: three hundred ſhekels of gold went to one ſhield: and the king put them in the houſe of the foreſt of Lebanon. 17 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 And there were ſix ſteps to the throne with a foot-ſtool of gold which were faſtened to the throne, and ſtays on each ſide of the ſitting-place, and two lions ſtanding by the ſtays. 19 And twelve lions ſtood there on the one ſide and on the other, upon the ſix ſteps. There was not the like made in any kingdom. 20 And all the drinking veſſels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the veſſels of the houſe of the foreſt of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of ſilver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon. 21 For the kings ſhips went to Tarſhiſh with the ſervants of Huram: every three years once came the ſhips to Tarſhiſh bringing gold, and ſilver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. 22 And king Solomon paſſed all the kings of the earth in riches and wiſdom. 23 And all the kings of the earth ſought the preſence of Solomon, to hear his wiſdom, that God had put in his heart. 24 And they brought every man his preſent, veſſels of ſilver, and veſſels of gold, and raiment, harneſs, and ſpices, horſes, and mules a rate year by year. 25 And Solomon had four thouſand ſtalls for horſes and chariots, and twelve thouſand horſemen, whom he beſtowed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jeruſalem. 26 And he reigned over all the kings, from the river, even unto the land of the Philiſtines, and to the border of Egypt. 27 And the king made ſilver in Jeruſalem as ſtones, and cedar-trees made he as the ſycomore-trees, that are in the low plains, in abundance. 28 And they brought unto Solomon horſes out of Egypt, and out of all lands. 29 Now the reſt of the acts of Solomon, firſt and laſt, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the viſions of Iddo the ſeer, againſt Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat? 30 And Solomon reigned in Jeruſalem over all Iſrael forty years. 31 And Solomon ſlept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father, and Rehoboam his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

Rehoboam made King. The Iſraelites, by Jeroboam, require a Relaxation of their Taxes. Rehoboam, refuſing the old Mens Counſel, by the Advice of young Men, anſwers them roughly. Ten Tribes revolt; kill Hadoram; and make Rehoboam fly.

Ver. 1. AND Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Iſrael come to make him king. 2 And it came to paſs when Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat (who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the preſence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. 3 And they ſent and called him: ſo Jeroboam and all Iſrael came, and ſpake to Rehoboam, ſaying, 4 Thy father made our yoke grievous, now therefore eaſe thou ſomewhat the grievous ſervitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will ſerve thee. 5 And he ſaid unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed. 6 And king Rehoboam took counſel with the old men that had ſtood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, ſaying, What counſel give ye me, to return anſwer to this people? 7 And they ſpake unto him, ſaying, If thou be kind to this people, and pleaſe them, and ſpeak good words to them, they will be thy ſervants for ever. 8 But he forſook the counſel which the old men gave him, and took counſel with the young men that were brought up with him, that ſtood before him. 9 And he ſaid unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return anſwer to this people, which have ſpoken to me, ſaying, Eaſe ſomewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us? 10 And the young men that were brought up with him, ſpake unto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou anſwer the people that ſpake unto thee, ſaying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it ſomewhat lighter for us: thus ſhalt thou ſay unto them, My little finger ſhall be thicker than my fathers loyns. 11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions. 12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, ſaying, Come again to me on the third day. 13 And the king anſwered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forſook the counſel of the old men, 14 And anſwered them after the advice of the young men, ſaying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions. 15 So the king hearkened not unto the people, for the cauſe was of God, that the Lord might perform his word, which he ſpake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat. 16 And when all Iſrael ſaw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people anſwered the king, ſaying, What portion have we in in David? and we have none inheritance in the ſon of Jeſſe: every man to your tents, O Iſrael, and now David, ſee to thine own houſe. So all Iſrael went to their tents. 17 But as for the children of Iſrael that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. 18 Then king Rehoboam ſent Hadoram that was over the tribute, and the children of Iſrael ſtoned him with ſtones, that he did: but king Rehoboam made ſpeed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jeruſalem. 19 And Iſrael rebelled againſt the houſe of David unto this day.

The Prieſts and* Levites, and ſuch as feared God, forſaken by Jeroboam, who turns Idolater, ſtrengthen the Kingdom of Judah. The Wives and Children of Rehoboam.

Ver. 1. AND when Rehoboam was come to Jeruſalem, he gathered of the houſe of Judah and Benjamin, an hundred and fourſcore thouſand choſen men which were warriors, to fight againſt Iſrael, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. 2 But the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, ſaying, 3 Speak unto Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon king of Judah, and to all Iſrael in Judah and Benjamin, ſaying, 4 Thus ſaith the Lord, Ye ſhall not go up, nor fight againſt your brethren: return every man to his houſe, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the Lord, and returned from going againſt Jeroboam. 5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jeruſalem, and built cities for defence in Judah. 6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, 7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam, 8 And Gath, and Mareſhah, and Ziph, 9 And Adoraim, and Lachiſh, and Azekah, 10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah, and in Benjamin, fenced cities. 11 And he fortified the ſtrong holds, and put captains in them, and ſtore of victual, and of oil, and wine. 12 And in every ſeveral city he put ſhields and ſpears, and made them exceeding ſtrong, having Judah and Benjamin on his ſide. 13 And the prieſts and the Levites that were in all Iſrael, reſorted to him out of all their coaſts. 14 (For the Levites left their ſuburbs, and their poſſeſſion, and came to Judah and Jeruſalem: for Jeroboam and his ſons had caſt them off from executing the prieſts office unto the Lord. 15 And he ordained him prieſts for the high-places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made) 16 And after them out of all the tribes of Iſrael, ſuch as ſet their hearts to ſeek the Lord God of Iſrael, came to Jeruſalem to ſacrifice unto the Lord God of their fathers. 17 So they ſtrengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon ſtrong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon. 18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jeremoth the ſon of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab, the ſon of Jeſſe: 19 Which bare him children; Jeuſh, and Shamariah, and Zaham. 20 And after her, he took Maachah the daughter of Abſalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. 21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Abſalom, above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threeſcore concubines, and begat twenty and eight ſons, and threeſcore daughters) 22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the ſon of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king. 23 And he dealt wiſely, and diſperſed of all his children throughout all the countrys of Judah and Benjamin unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance: and he deſired many wives.

CHAP. XII.

Rehoboam forſakes the Lord, and is puniſhed by Shiſhak. Shemaiah reproves him; he and his Princes repent; he is preſerved in his Kingdom, but ſpoiled of the Treaſures of the Temple, and of his royal Palace. His Reign and Death. Abijah his Son is made King.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs when Rehoboam had eſtabliſhed the kingdom, and had ſtrengthned himſelf, he forſook the law of the Lord, and all Iſrael with him. 2 And it came to paſs, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shiſhak king of Egypt came up againſt Jeruſalem (becauſe they had tranſgreſſed againſt the Lord) 3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threeſcore thouſand horſemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians. 4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jeruſalem. 5 Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jeruſalem becauſe of Shiſhak, and ſaid unto them, Thus ſaith the Lord, Ye have forſaken me, and therefore have I alſo left you in the hand of Shiſhak. 6 Whereupon the princes of Iſrael, and the king humbled themſelves, and they ſaid, The Lord is righteous. 7 And when the Lord ſaw that they humbled themſelves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, ſaying, They have humbled themſelves, therefore I will not deſtroy them, but I will grant them ſome deliverance, and my wrath ſhall not be poured out upon Jeruſalem by the hand of Shiſhak. 8 Nevertheleſs, they ſhall be his ſervants; that they may know my ſervice, and the ſervice of the kingdoms of the countries. 9 So Shiſhak king of Egypt came up againſt Jeruſalem, and took away the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſures of the king's houſe, he took all: he carried away alſo the ſhields of gold which Solomon had made. 10 Inſtead of which, king Rehoboam made ſhields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard that kept the entrance of the king's houſe. 11 And when the king entred into the houſe of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber. 12 And when he humbled himſelf, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not deſtroy him altogether: and alſo in Judah things went well. 13 So king Rehoboam ſtrengthened himſelf in Jeruſalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ſeventeen years in Jeruſalem, the city which the Lord had choſen out of all the tribes of Iſrael, to put his name there: and his mothers name was Naamah, an Ammoniteſs. 14 And he did evil, becauſe he prepared not his heart to ſeek the Lord. 15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, firſt and laſt, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the ſeer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. 16 And Rehoboam ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and Abijah reigned in his ſtead.

CHAP. XIII.

Abijah wars againſt Jeroboam, King of Iſrael; declares the Right of his Cauſe; truſts in God; overcomes Jeroboam; his Wives and Children.

Ver. 1. NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam, began Abijah to reign over Judah. 2 He reigned three years in Jeruſalem: (his mothers name alſo was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah) and there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. 3 And Abijah ſet the battle in array, with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thouſand choſen men: Jeroboam alſo ſet the battle in array againſt him with eight hundred thouſand choſen men, being mighty men of valour. 4 And Abijah ſtood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and ſaid, Hear me thou Jeroboam, and all Iſrael. 5 Ought you not to know, that the Lord God of Iſrael gave the kingdom over Iſrael to David for ever, even to him and to his ſons by a covenant of ſalt? 6 Yet Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat, the ſervant of Solomon the ſon of David, is riſen up, and hath rebelled againſt his lord. 7 And there are gathered unto him vain men the children of Belial, and have ſtrengthened themſelves againſt Rehoboam the ſon of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withſtand them. 8 And now ye think to withſtand the kingdom of the Lord, in the hand of the ſons of David; and ye be a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. 9 Have ye not caſt out the prieſts of the Lord the ſons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you prieſts after the manner of the nations of other lands? ſo that whoſoever cometh to conſecrate himſelf with a young bullock and ſeven rams, the ſame may be a prieſt of them that are no gods. 10 But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not forſaken him; and the prieſts which miniſter unto the Lord, are the ſons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their buſineſs. 11 And they burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening, burnt-ſacrifices and ſweet incenſe: the ſhew-bread alſo ſet they in order upon the pure table, and the candleſtick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the Lord our God; but ye have forſaken him. 12 And behold, God himſelf is with us for our captain, and his prieſts with ſounding trumpets to cry alarm againſt you: O children of Iſrael, fight ye not againſt the Lord God of your fathers, for you ſhall not proſper. 13 But Jeroboam cauſed an ambuſhment to come about behind them: ſo they were before Judah, and the ambuſhment was behind them. 14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the Lord, and the prieſts ſounded with the trumpets. 15 Then the men of Judah gave a ſhout: and as the men of Judah ſhouted, it came to paſs, that God ſmote Jeroboam and all Iſrael before Abijah and Judah. 16 And the children of Iſrael fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand. 17 And Abijah and his people ſlew them with a great ſlaughter: ſo there fell down ſlain of Iſrael, five hundred thouſand choſen men. 18 Thus the children of Iſrael were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, becauſe they relied upon the Lord God of their fathers. 19 And Abijah purſued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeſhanah with the towns thereof, and Ephrain with the towns thereof. 20 Neither did Jeroboam recover ſtrength again in the days of Abijah: and the Lord ſtrook him, and he died. 21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two ſons, and ſixteen daughters. 22 And the reſt of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his ſayings, are written in the ſtory of the prophet Iddo.

And Abijah ſtood up upon Mount Zemarim, — and ſaid, Hear me, &c.] None of the great Captains and Commanders, whoſe Speeches are recorded in heathen Authors, ever expreſſed themſelves more movingly than this King of Judah did. But ſome have found Fault with him, for ſpeaking not ſo honourably of his Father's military Skill and Courage, which he might have as well have omitted; becauſe, allowing it to be true, he ſeems to have ſerved no Purpoſe in mentioning it: But this notwithſtanding, the Speech is very lively, and excellently well calculated to cauſe a Revolt in Jeroboam's Army. Joſephus, who was no mean Orator, and who, in ſome Speeches, has improved upon the ſacred Hiſtorian, is quite outdone and ſurpaſſed in this; inſomuch that there is no Room to introduce him, unleſs it be by Way of Foil to the Original.

So there fell down ſlain in Iſrael five hundred thouſand fighting Men] This is indeed a vaſt Number; but it has been obſerved and recorded by ſacred and prophane Hiſtorians, that in thoſe antient Times were very numerous Armies, and frequently very great Slaughters; and that this Slaughter was more than ordinary, there is nothing in it ſtrange or incredible, becauſe Almighty God fought againſt Iſrael.

CHAP. XIV.

Aſa is made King; he deſtroys Idolatry. Being in Peace, he ſtrengthens his Kingdom with Forts and Armies. In a great Strait, he calls upon God, and overthrows Zerah, and ſpoils the Ethiopians.

Ver. 1. SO Abijah ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David, and Aſa his ſon reigned in his ſtead: in his days the land was quiet ten years. 2 And Aſa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God. 3 For he took away the altars of the ſtrange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves: 4 And commanded Judah to ſeek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law, and the commandment. 5 Alſo he took away out of all the cities of Judah, the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. 6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had reſt, and he had no war in thoſe years: becauſe the Lord had given him reſt. 7 Therefore he ſaid unto Judah, Let us build theſe cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; becauſe we have ſought the Lord our God, we have ſought him, and he hath given us reſt on every ſide: ſo they built and proſpered. 8 And Aſa had an army of men that bare targets, and ſpears, out of Judah three hundred thouſand, and out of Benjamin, that bare ſhields and drew bows, two hundred and fourſcore thouſand: all theſe were mighty men of valour. 9 And there came out againſt them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an hoſt of a thouſand thouſand, and three hundred chariots, and came unto Mareſhah. 10 Then Aſa went out againſt him, and they ſet the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareſhah. 11 And Aſa cried unto the Lord his God, and ſaid, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we reſt on thee, and in thy name we go againſt this multitude: O Lord, thou art our God, let not man prevail againſt thee. 12 So the Lord ſmote the Ethiopians before Aſa, and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled. 13 And Aſa and the people that were with him purſued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themſelves, for they were deſtroyed before the Lord and before his hoſt; and they carried away very much ſpoil. 14 And they ſmote all the cities round about Gerar, for the fear of the Lord came upon them: and they ſpoiled all the cities, for there was exceeding much ſpoil in them. 15 They ſmote alſo the tents of cattle, and carried away ſheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jeruſalem.

And he took away out of all the Cities of Judah, the high Places and the Images] Yet 1 Kings xv. 14. it is ſaid, that the high Places were not removed. For the right underſtending and reconciling of this, we may obſerve, that there were two Kinds of high Places; the one tolerated for religious Purpoſes, the other abominable from their firſt Inſtitution; the one frequented by devout Worſhippers, the other made the Receptacle of the wicked and idolatrous only. Now theſe were the high Places which Aſa took away, even where the People ſacrificed to ſtrange Gods; but thoſe, where God alone was worſhipped, had obtained ſo long, and were looked upon with ſo ſacred a Veneration, that, for fear of giving a general Offence (tho' he knew they were contrary to a divine Injunction) he durſt not adventure to aboliſh them. The Truth is, theſe high Places were famous either for the Apparition of Angels, or ſome other miraculous Event; had either been Places of Abode for the Ark of the Lord, or ſuch as ſome Prophets, or Patriarchs of old, had been accuſtomed to pray and ſacrifice in; and therefore they were looked upon as conſecrated to the Service of God, nor was there Strength enough in the Government to overcome this inveterate Prejudice, till Hezekiah aroſe, who (to prevent the Calamities that were coming upon the Nation) had the Courage to effect a thorough Reformation.

And there came up againſt them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an Hoſt of a thouſand thouſand] The Scripture takes no Notice of what was the Cauſe of this War between Zerah and Aſa, nor are Interpreters well agreed what the Country was from whence this Enemy came. The Country, in the Original, is called Chus, tho' we tranſlate it Ethiopia. Now there are three Countries, different from one another, all called by the Name of Cuſh. 1. The Land of Cuſh upon the River Gihon. 2. Cuſh upon the Eaſtern Shore of the Red-Sea. 3. Cuſh ſituate about Thebais, and in the Upper Egypt. It is very probable then, that the Country here ſpoken of, muſt not be Ethiopia, properly ſo called, becauſe we can hardly imagine, how an Army of a Million of Men ſhould be permitted to march through Egypt, (as they muſt have done) without ſome Oppoſition: And therefore the Country muſt be that Land of Cuſh which lay in Arabia Petræa, upon the Eaſt Shore of the Red-Sea, and, at its Extremity, to the Point of that Sea, inclined towards Egypt and Judea: Tho' ſome have made it a Doubt, how ſo ſmall a Country could have produced ſo large an Army, without conſidering, that a great Part of the Army might perhaps be Mercenaries.

CHAP. XV.

Aſa with Judah and many of Iſrael, moved by Azariah the Prophet, renew a ſolemn Covenant with God. He removes Maachah, his Mother, for Idolatry; brings the hallowed Things again into the Temple; enjoys a long Peace.

Ver. 1. AND the Spirit of God came upon Azariah, the ſon of Oded. 2 And he went out to meet Aſa, and ſaid unto him, Hear ye me, Aſa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye ſeek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forſake him, he will forſake you. 3 Now for a long ſeaſon Iſrael hath been without the true God, and without a teaching prieſt, and without law. 4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the Lord God of Iſrael, and ſought him, he was found of them. 5 And in thoſe times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries. 6 And nation was deſtroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adverſity. 7 Be ye ſtrong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work ſhall be rewarded. 8 And when Aſa heard theſe words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the Lord that was before the porch of the Lord. 9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the ſtrangers with them out of Ephraim and Manaſſeh, and out of Simeon: (for they fell to him out of Iſrael in abundance, when they ſaw that the Lord his God was with him) 10 So they gathered themſelves together at Jeruſalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Aſa. 11 And they offered unto the Lord the ſame time, of the ſpoil which they had brought, ſeven hundred oxen, and ſeven thouſand ſheep. 12 And they entred into a covenant to ſeek the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their ſoul; 13 That whoſoever would not ſeek the Lord God of Iſrael, ſhould be put to death, whether ſmall or great, whether man or woman. 14 And they ſware unto the Lord with a loud voice, and with ſhouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. 15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had ſworn with all their heart, and ſought him with their whole deſire, and he was found of them: and the Lord gave them reſt round about. 16 And alſo concerning Maachah the mother of Aſa the king, he removed her from being queen, becauſe ſhe had made an idol in a grove: and Aſa cut down her idol, and ſtamped it, and burnt it, at the brook Kidron. 17 But the high places were not taken away out of Iſrael: nevertheleſs, the heart of Aſa was perfect all his days. 18 And he brought into the houſe of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himſelf had dedicated, ſilver, and gold, and veſſels. 19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Aſa.

CHAP. XVI.

Aſa makes a League with the Syrians againſt the King of Iſrael, for which the Prophet reproves him, and is put into Priſon. He is ſick, and applies to the Phyſicians, and not to God. His Death and Burial.

Ver. 1. IN the ſix and thirtieth year of the reign of Aſa, Baaſha king of Iſrael came up againſt Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Aſa king of Judah. 2 Then Aſa brought out ſilver and gold, out of the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and out of the kings houſe, and ſent to Benhadad king of Syria that dwelt at Damaſcus, ſaying, 3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have ſent thee ſilver and gold; go, break thy league with Baaſha king of Iſrael, that he may depart from me. 4 And Benhadad hearkned unto king Aſa, and ſent the captains of his armies againſt the cities of Iſrael; and they ſmote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the ſtore-cities of Naphtali. 5 And it came to paſs, when Baaſha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work ceaſe. 6 Then Aſa the king took all Judah, and they carried away the ſtones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baaſha was a building, and he built therewith Geba, and Mizpah. 7 And at that time Hanani the ſeer came to Aſa king of Judah, and ſaid unto him, becauſe thou haſt relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the Lord thy God, therefore is the hoſt of the king of Syria eſcaped out of thine hand. 8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge hoſt, with very many chariots and horſemen? yet, becauſe thou didſt rely on the Lord, he delivered them into thine hand. 9 For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to ſhew himſelf ſtrong in the behalf of them, whoſe heart is perfect towards him. Herein thou haſt done fooliſhly; therefore from henceforth thou ſhalt have wars. 10 Then Aſa was wroth with the ſeer, and put him in a priſon-houſe; for he was in a rage with him, becauſe of this thing. And Aſa oppreſſed ſome of the people the ſame time. 11 And behold, the acts of Aſa, firſt and laſt, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Iſrael. 12 And Aſa, in the thirty and ninth year of his reign, was diſeaſed in his feet, until his diſeaſe was exceeding great: yet in his diſeaſe he ſought not to the Lord, but to the phyſicians. 13 And Aſa ſlept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. 14 And they buried him in his own ſepulchres which he had made for himſelf in the city of David, and laid him in the bed, which was filled with ſweet odours and divers kinds of ſpices prepared by the apothecaries art: and they made a very great burning for him.

In the ſix and thirtieth Year of the Reign of Aſa, Baaſha King of Iſrael came up againſt Judah, and built Ramah] In 1 Kings xvi. 8. it is ſaid, that in the twenty ſixth Year of Aſa, Baaſha died; and yet Baaſha's Expedition againſt Aſa, in order to build Ramah, is here ſaid to be in the ſix and thirtieth Year of the Reign of Aſa; which ſeems a Contradiction: To reconcile which, ſome would have that ſix and thirtieth Year to relate, not to Aſa's Reign, but to the Date of the Kingdom of Judah, from the Diviſion of the Kingdom of Iſrael, at Rehoboam's coming to the Crown, and to be, in Fact, no more than the fourteenth Year of the Reign of Aſa. But that cannot be, ſince this Expedition of Baaſha was ſome Time after Aſa had defeated the King of Ethiopia or Arabia, and yet this Defeat happened in the fifteenth Year of King Aſa's Reign: So that that ſix and thirtieth Year of Baaſha's going up to build Ramah, can, by no good Computation, be the fourteenth Year of King Aſa's Reign: And therefore, without any more to do, we may, with Joſephus and others, adventure to ſay, that the Occaſion of this Difference proceeds from the Miſtake of ſome Tranſcriber.

And they laid him in the Bed, which was filled with ſweet Odours, and divers Kinds of Spices prepared by the Apothecaries Art; and they made a great Burning for him] But then the Queſtion is, Whether the Body itſelf was burnt, or only ſome Spices and odoriferous Drugs, to prevent any bad Smell that might attend the Corpſe? The Greeks and Romans, indeed, when they burnt any dead Bodies, threw Frankincenſe, Myrrh, Caſſia, and other fragrant Things into the Fire, and this in ſuch Abundance, that Pliny repreſents it as a Piece of Prophaneneſs to beſtow ſuch Heaps of Frankincenſe upon a dead Body, when they offered it ſo ſparingly to their Gods. The Jews, however, (ſay the Maintainers of this Side of the Queſtion) were accuſtomed to inter, and not burn their Dead, tho' they might poſſibly learn, from the Egyptians, the Uſage of burning many Spices at their Funerals, as we find they did at the Funeral of Hezekiah, Jer. xxxiv. 5. But, notwithſtanding this, ſome very able Commentators are of Opinion, that all theſe Spices and Perfumes were burnt along with Aſa's Body; and they remark, that among the Offences the ſacred Hiſtory takes Notice of, this Vanity of his, in ordering his Body to be diſpoſed of, according to the Manner of the Gentiles, and not of his own People. Tho' therefore they ſuppoſe, that Aſa was the firſt who introduced this Cuſtom; yet, in After-ages, it became very frequent, and was thought the more honourable Ceremony of the two.

CHAP. XVII.

Jehoſhaphat is made King; reigns well and proſpers. He ſends Levites, with the Princes, to teach Judah. He is feared by the Nations round about, who brings him Preſents and Tribute. His Greatneſs, Captains, and Armies.

Ver. 1. AND Jehoſhaphat his ſon reigned in his ſtead, and ſtrengthned himſelf againſt Iſrael. 2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and ſet garriſons in the land land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. 3 And the Lord was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim; 4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel: 5 Therefore the Lord stablished the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents, and he had riches and honour in abundance. 6 And his heart was lift up in the ways of the Lord: moreover, he took away the high places and groves out of Judah. 7 Also in the third year of his reign, he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. 8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishamah, and Jehoram, priests. 9 And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the Lord with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people. 10 And the fear of the Lord fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. 11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute-silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. 12 And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah, castles, and cities of store. 13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem. 14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour, three hundred thousand. 15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand. 16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the Lord; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour. 17 And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him armed men with bow and shield, two hundred thousand. 18 And next him was Jehozabad, and with him an hundred and fourscore thousand, ready prepared for the war. 19 These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fenced cities, throughout all Judah.

He sent to his Princes — to teach in the Cities of Judah. And with them he sent Levites] What the Business of these Princes, in their Circuit round the Kingdom was, is a Matter of some Dispute among the Learned. Grotius is of Opinion, that their Commission extended to the Instruction of the People, which, in Cases extraordinary, is every one's Business, and could never be done with more Probability of Success, than by Persons who were of the King's Council, and invested with his Authority. There is Reason to think, however, that they did not act in the very same Capacity with the Priests and Levites that did attend them; but that as Judges and Justices of the Peace, among us, teach and instruct the People in the Laws of the Land, when they deliver their Charges from the Bench; so these great Men in the King's Name, did only admonish and require the People to observe the Laws of God, which were the Municipal Laws of the Land, and left the particular Explication and Inforcement of them, to those of the sacred Order, who went along with them; supporting them in the mean Time, in the Execution of their Office, and obliging the People to receive them with Respect, to hear them with Attention, and to practise what they taught them.

CHAP. XVIII.

Jehoshaphat joins in Affinity with Ahab; is perswaded to go with him against Ramoth-Gilead. Ahab, seduced by false Prophets, according to the Word of Micaiah, is slain there.

Ver. 1. NOW Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab. 2 And after certain years, he went down to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and perswaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead. 3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people, as thy people, and we will be with thee in the war. 4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord to day. 5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of the prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battel, or shall I forbear? and they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the kings hand. 6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord besides, that we might enquire of him? 7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the Lord: but I hate him, for he never prophesieth good unto me, but always evil, the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. 9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a void place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophesied before them. 10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the Lord, With these thou shalt push Syria, until they be consumed. 11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead and prosper: for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king. 12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah, spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one assent, let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speak that good. 13 And Micaiah said, As the lord liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak. 14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead, to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand. 15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me, in the name of the Lord? 16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the Lord said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace. 17 (And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil?) 18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the Lord, I saw the Lord sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand, and on his left. 19 And the Lord said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake, saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. 20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will entice him. And the Lord, said unto him, Wherewith? 21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out and do even so. 22 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken evil against thee. 23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah, came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to speak unto thee? 24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day, when thou shalt go into an inner-chamber to hide thy self. 25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governour of the city, and to Joash the kings son: 26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. 27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the Lord spoken by me. And he said, Hearken all ye people. 28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. 29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise my self, and will go to the battel, but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went to the battel. 30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel. 31 And it came to pass when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel: therefore they compassed about him to fight. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord helped him, and God moved them to depart from him. 32 For it came to pass, that when the captains of the chariots preceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him. 33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host, for I am wounded. 34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians: until the even: and about the time of the sun-going down, he died.

This Chapter is, for Substance, the same with 1 Kings 22. where it is explained.

CHAP. XIX.

Jehoshaphat is reproved by the Prophet Jehu; visits his Kingdom; he appoints Judges; his Instructions to them and the Levites.

Ver. 1. AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. 2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord. 3 Nevertheless, there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God. 4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people, from-Beersheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the Lord God of their fathers. 5 And he set judges in the land, throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city. 6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the Lord, who is with you in the judgment. 7 Wherefore now, let the fear of the Lord be upon you, take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the Lord our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts. 8 Moreover, in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the Lord, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. 9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. 10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandments, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the Lord, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. 11 And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the Lord; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the kings matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal couragiously, and the Lord shall be with the good.

And he said to the Judges, Take heed what ye do; for ye judge not for Man, but for the Lord] It is a remarkable Saying of Cicero, that Judges, being sworn to do Justice, should remember, when they come to pass Sentence, that they have God to be their Witness, that is (he thinks) their Conscience, than which God has given more divine to Man. And has left us this excellent Instruction likewise, that a Man must lay aside the Person of a Friend, when he puts on the Person of a Judge. In like Manner, there are several Passages in Hesiod, admonishing those who have the Administration of Justice, to retain in their Minds the Consideration of their Gods Inspection.

CHAP. XX.

Jehoshaphat proclaims a Fast. His Prayer. His Reign and Behaviour. His Enemies destroyed. Joins with Ahaziah in fitting out a Fleet of Ships; which displeases the Lord, and the Ships are broken in the Harbour.

Ver. 1. IT came to pass after this also that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. 2

Then there came ſome that told Jehoſhaphat, ſaying, There cometh a great multitude againſt thee from beyond the ſea on this ſide Syria, and behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is Engedi. 3 And Jehoſhaphat feared, and ſet himſelf to ſeek the Lord, and proclaimed a faſt throughout all Judah. 4 And Judah gathered themſelves together, to aſk help of the Lord: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to ſeek the Lord. 5 And Jehoſhaphat ſtood in the congregation of Judah and Jeruſalem, in the houſe of the Lord before the new court, 6 And ſaid, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and ruleſt not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, ſo that none is able to withſtand thee? 7 Art not thou our God, who didſt drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Iſrael, and gaveſt it to the ſeed of Abraham thy friend for ever? 8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a ſanctuary therein for thy name, ſaying, 9 If when evil cometh upon us, as the ſword, judgment, or peſtilence, or famine, we ſtand before this houſe, and in thy preſence, (for thy name is in this houſe) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. 10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon, and Moab, and mount Seir, whom thou wouldeſt not let Iſrael invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and deſtroyed them not: 11 Behold, I ſay, how they reward us, to come to caſt us out of the poſſeſſion, which thou haſt given us to inherit. 12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might againſt this great company that cometh againſt us: neither know we what to do, but our eyes are upon thee. 13 And all Judah ſtood before the Lord with their little ones, their wives, and their children. 14 Then upon Jahaziel the ſon of Zechariah, the ſon of Benaiah, the ſon of Jeiel, the ſon of Mattaniah, a Levite of the ſons of Aſaph, came the Spirit of the Lord in the midſt of the congregation: 15 And he ſaid, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and thou king Jehoſhaphat, Thus ſaith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid, nor diſmayed by reaſon of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but Gods. 16 To morrow go ye down againſt them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz, and ye ſhall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderneſs of Jeruel. 17 Ye ſhall not need to fight in this battle; ſet your ſelves, ſtand ye ſtill, and ſee the ſalvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jeruſalem: fear not, nor be diſmayed; to morrow go out againſt them: for the Lord will be with you. 18 And Jehoſhaphat bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem fell before the Lord, worſhipping the Lord. 19 And the Levites of the children of the Cohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, ſtood up to praiſe the Lord God of Iſrael with a loud voice on high. 20 And they roſe early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderneſs of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoſhaphat ſtood and ſaid, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jeruſalem, Believe in the Lord your God, ſo ſhall you be eſtabliſhed; believe his prophets, ſo ſhall ye proſper. 21 And when he had conſulted with the people, he appointed ſingers unto the Lord, and that ſhould praiſe the beauty of holineſs, as they went out before the army, and to ſay, Praiſe the Lord, for his mercy endureth for ever. 22 And when they began to ſing and to praiſe, the Lord ſet ambuſhments againſt the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come againſt Judah and they were ſmitten. 23 For the children of Ammon and Moab ſtood up againſt the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to ſlay and deſtroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to deſtroy another. 24 And when Judah came toward the watch-tower in the wilderneſs, they looked unto the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none eſcaped. 25 And when Jehoſhaphat and his people came to take away the ſpoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels (which they ſtript off for themſelves) more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the ſpoil, it was ſo much. 26 And on the fourth day they aſſembled themſelves in the valley of Berachah; for there they bleſſed the Lord: therefore the name of the ſame place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day. 27 Then they returned every man of Judah and Jeruſalem, and Jehoſhaphat in the fore front of them, to go again to Jeruſalem with joy; for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies. 28 And they came to Jeruſalem with pſalteries, and harps, and trumpets unto the houſe of the Lord. 29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of thoſe countries when they had heard that the Lord fought againſt the enemies of Iſrael. 30 So the realm of Jehoſhaphat was quiet; for his God gave him reſt round about. 31 And Jehoſhaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 32 And he walked in the way of Aſa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the ſight of the Lord: 33 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away; for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers. 34 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoſhaphat, firſt and laſt, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the ſon of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Iſrael. 35 And after this did Jehoſhaphat king of Judah join himſelf with Ahaziah king of Iſrael, who did very wickedly: 36 And he joined himſelf with him to make ſhips to go to Tarſhiſh: and they made the ſhips in Ezion-gaber. 37 Then Eliezer the ſon of Dodavah of Mareſhah, prophecied againſt Jehoſhaphat, ſaying, Because thou haſt joined thy ſelf with Ahaziah, the Lord hath broken thy works. And the ſhips were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarſhiſh.

The Lord ſet Ambuſhments againſt the Children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, which were come againſt Judah, and they were ſmitten.] There are two Ways, ſays Pool, wherein this Slaughter may be ſaid to be happened: Either, 1ſt, By the Miniſtry of God's Angels, who might appear in the Shape of Men, and ting on the Appearance of Moabites and Ammonites, might ſmite ſome other Part of the Army privately, and they, ſuppoſing this to be done by their Neighbours, might turn about, and fall upon them like Enemies, and ſo break forth into mutual Slaughters: Or, 2*dly*, By ſome Jealouſies and Animoſities among themſelves, which, by Degrees, brake forth, firſt into ſecret Ambuſhments, which one Party laid for another, and then into open Hoſtilities and Outrages to their total Deſtruction. So eaſy a Thing it is for God to defeat his Enemies, who can, when he pleaſes, infatuate their Deſigns, or arm their own Paſſions and Miſtakes againſt them.

CHAP. XXI.

Jehoram ſucceeds Jehoſhaphat. His wicked Reign. Elijah's Letter to him. He is ſmitten with an incurable Diſeaſe in his Bowels, which falling out, he dies.

Ver. 1. NOW Jehoſhaphat ſlept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 2 And he had brethren the ſons of Jehoſhaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all theſe were the ſons of Jehoſhaphat king of Iſrael. 3 And their father gave them great gifts of ſilver and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, becauſe he was the firſt-born. 4 Now when Jehoram was riſen up to the kingdom of his father, he ſtrengthened himſelf, and ſlew all his brethren with the ſword, and divers alſo of the princes of Iſrael. 5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jeruſalem. 6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Iſrael, like as did the houſe of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord. 7 Howbeit the Lord would not deſtroy the houſe of David, becauſe of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promiſed to give a light to him, and to his ſons for ever. 8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themſelves a king. 9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he roſe up by night, and ſmote the Edomites which compaſſed him in, and the captains of the chariots. 10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The ſame time alſo did Libnah revolt from under his hand; becauſe he had forſaken the Lord God of his fathers. 11 Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and cauſed the inhabitants of Jeruſalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto. 12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord God of David thy father, becauſe thou haſt not walked in the ways of Jehoſhaphat thy father, nor in the way of Aſa king of Judah, 13 But haſt walked in the way of the kings of Iſrael, and haſt made Judah and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the houſe of Ahab, and alſo haſt ſlain thy brethren of thy father's houſe, which were better than thyſelf: 14 Behold, with a great plague will the Lord ſmite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods. 15 And thou ſhalt have great ſickneſs by diſeaſe of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out, by reaſon of the ſickneſs day by day. 16 Moreover, the Lord ſtirred up againſt Jehoram the ſpirit of the Philiſtines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians, 17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the ſubſtance that was found in the king's houſe, and his ſons alſo and his wives; ſo that there was never a ſon left him, ſave Jehoahaz the youngeſt of his ſons. 18 And after all this the Lord ſmote him in his bowels with an incurable diſeaſe. 19 And it came to paſs that in proceſs of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reaſon of his ſickneſs: ſo he died of ſore diſeaſes: and his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. 20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jeruſalem eight years, and departed without being deſired: howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the ſepulchres of the kings.

And there came a Writing to him from Elijah the Prophet] Now ſince it is plain, from 2 Kings ii. 11, &c. that Elijah was taken up into Heaven in the Time of Jehoſhaphat, the Queſtion is, How could Elijah ſend his Son a Letter? For Reſolution to this, Joſephus and others imagine, that this Writing was indicted in Heaven, where Elijah now is, and ſent to Jehoram by the Miniſtry of Angels. But there is no Reaſon to ſuppoſe, that ſo ſingular a Miracle was wrought in Favour of an idolatrous Prince, who had Moſes and the Prophets, which (in our Saviour's Opinion) were ſufficient to inſtruct him in all Points neceſſary to Salvation, and needed not any additional Writing to be ſent him from the other World. Others therefore are of Opinion, that this Letter was written before Elijah's Aſcenſion into Heaven; that, foreſeeing by the Spirit of Propheſy the great Wickedneſs Jehoram would fall into, he dictated the Contents hereof to one of the Prophets, charging him to put them down in Writing, to ſend them in a Letter to Jehoram, when he grew as impious as is here related, and to let him know withal, that Elijah commanded this Writing to be delivered to him, upon Preſumption that it would affect him the more, as it came from a Perſon that was tranſlated into Heaven. But this Notion has no better Foundation than the other: For Prophets were ſent to thoſe who liv'd in their own Age, to declare unto them the Will of God, not to write Letters, fit to be delivered only when they had departed out of this Life. God never left himſelf without a Witneſs; and at this Time more eſpecially, there were Prophets in Abundance: And therefore, others have ſuppoſed, that there has been a Miſtake in the Tranſcriber, and the Name of Elijah put for that of Eliſha; or that Elijah, by whom this Letter was ſent, was not the Prophet who was taken up to Heaven, but another of that Name, who lived in the ſubſequent Age, and was contemporary with Jehoram. Which of theſe Conjectures (for Conjectures they are all) ſeems moſt feaſible, we are at Liberty to chuſe, ſince any of them is ſufficient to ſolve the above-mentioned Difficulty. See Le Clerc's and Patrick's Com.

It is obſerved of this wicked Prince, that there was no Calamity that could be thought of, which did not befal him. His Kingdom was deſtroyed, and depopulated by the fierceſt Nations; his Treaſures ranſacked; his Wives carried into Captivity; his Children ſlain; himſelf afflicted with a ſore Diſeaſe for two Years; and, when he was dead, denied the Honour of a Royal Sepulchre, ſuch as his Father had; all which Calamities were threatened in this Writing ſent him in the Name of Elijah, that he might not think that they came by Chance, but by the ſpecial Direction of Almighty God,

CHAP. XXII.

Ahaziah reigns wickedly; is slain by Jehu. Athaliah destroys all the Seed Royal, except Joash, and usurps the Kingdom.

Ver. 1. AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son, king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp, had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. 2 Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. 3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly. 4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel, to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram. 6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel, because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick. 7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the Lord had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. 8 And it came to pass that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministred to Ahaziah, he slew them. 9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him, because (said they) he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the Lord with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom. 10 But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah. 11 But Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the kings sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not. 12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years, and Athaliah reigned over the land.

See 2 Kings ix, xi.

CHAP. XXIII.

Jehoiada makes Joash King. Athaliah is slain. Jehoiada restores the Worship of God.

Ver. 1. AND in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthned himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. 2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. 3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God: and he said unto them, Behold the kings son shall reign, as the Lord hath said of the sons of David. 4 This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entring on the sabbath of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors; 5 And a third part shall be at the kings house: and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the Lord. 6 But let none come into the house of the Lord save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites, they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the Lord. 7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand, and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be you with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out. 8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath day: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses. 9 Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds, spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king Davids, which were in the house of God. 10 And he sat all the people (every man having his weapon in his hand) from the right side of the temple, to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about. 11 Then they brought out the kings son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king. 12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people, running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the Lord. 13 And she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar, at the entring in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instrumens of musick; and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her cloaths, and said, Treason, treason. 14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord. 15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entring of the horse-gate, by the kings house, they slew her there. 16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the Lords people. 17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars, and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. 18 Also Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the Lord by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the Lord, to offer the burnt-offerings of the Lord, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoycing and with singing, as it was ordained by David. 19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the Lord, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in. 20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governours of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the Lord: and they came through the high gate into the kings house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. 21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

Jehoiada the Priest delivered to the Captains of Hundreds, Spears, and Bucklers, and Shields that had been King David's, which were in the House of the Lord] The Captains and other Officers, who were admitted to the Knowledge of Jehoiada's Design, came into the Temple unarm'd, for fear of giving Suspicion: But, as David had erected a Kind of sacred Armory in one of the Apartments of the Temple, wherein the Weapons and other Trophies, which he, and several other Generals, had gain'd from their Enemies, and as Monuments of their Victories, had dedicated them to the Lord, were deposited; Jehoiada took Care, upon this Occasion, to have this Magazine of military Provisions opened, so that there was no Want of any Sort of Arms.

And she looked, and behold the King stood at his Pillar] Now there were two famous Pillars, which Solomon erected in the Porch of the Temple, whereof that on the right-hand was called Jachin, and that on the Left Boaz, and were each of them (according to the Account we have) eighteen Cubits high, 1 Kings vii. 15, 21. Solomon's Design in setting up these two Pillars, is generally supposed to have been, in order to represent the Pillar of Cloud, and the Pillar of Fire, which went before the Israelites, and conducted them in the Wilderness. The Pillar on the Right-hand represented the Pillar of the Cloud, and that on the Left the Pillar of Fire; and near one of these Pillars, in all Probability, the Throne was erected: Unless we can suppose, that, what is here called a Pillar, was that brazen Scaffold, Ten Cubits long, five broad, and five high, which Solomon made at first, upon his dedicating the Temple, but was afterwards continued for the King, upon any common Occasion to appear upon, and where doubtless there was a Throne of State. CHAP. XXIV.

1 JOash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. 2 And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, all the days of Jehoiada the priest. 3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he begat sons and daughters. 4 And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to repair the house of the Lord. 5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God, from year to year, and see that ye hast the matter: howbeit the Levites hastened it not. 6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites, to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, the collection according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the Lord, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness? 7 For the sons of Athaliah that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God, and also all the dedicate things of the house of the Lord did they bestow upon Baalim. 8 And at the kings commandment they made a chest, and set it without, at the gate of the house of the Lord. 9 And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the Lord, the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel, in the wilderness. 10 And all the princes, and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. 11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the kings office, by the hand of the Levites; and when they saw that there was much money, the kings scribe, and the high priests officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. 12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such, as did the work of the service of the house of the Lord, and hired masons, and carpenters to repair the house of the Lord, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the Lord. 13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthned it. 14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the Lord, even vessels to minister and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver: and they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the Lord continually, all the days of Jehoiada. 15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died. 16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both towards God, and towards his house. 17 Now after the death of Jehoiada, came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king: then the king hearkened unto them. 18 And they left the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. 19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the Lord, and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. 20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you. 21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king, in the court of the house of the Lord. 22 Thus Joash the king remembred not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son: and when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and require it. 23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host hoſt of Syria came up againſt him: and they came to Judah and Jeruſalem, and deſtroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and ſent all the ſpoil of them unto the king of Damaſcus. 24 For the army of the Syrians came with a ſmall company of men, and the Lord delivered a very great hoſt into their hand, becauſe they had forſaken the Lord God of their fathers: ſo they executed judgment againſt Joaſh. 25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diſeaſes) his own ſervants conſpired againſt him, for the blood of the ſons of Jehoiada the prieſt, and ſlew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the ſepulchres of the kings. 26 And theſe are they that conſpired againſt him; Zabad the ſon of Shimeath an Ammoniteſs, and Jehozabad the ſon of Shimrith a Moabiteſs. 27 Now concerning his ſons, and the greatneſs of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the houſe of God, behold, they are written in the ſtory of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

Now after the Death of Jehoiada, came the Princes of Judah, and made Obeiſance to the King; then the King hearkened to them] Jehoiada, the High-prieſt, is ſuppoſed to die in, or near the three and twentieth Year of King Joaſh's Reign; ſo that Joaſh might be about thirty Years old, when the Princes of Judah ſeduced him to Idolatry. And this makes it the more wonderful, what poſſibly could give Occaſion to ſuch a Change in ſo advanced an Age, unleſs we can ſuppoſe, that the Conduct of the Prieſts in embezzeling the Money, collected for the Reparation of the Temple (whereof he complains to Jehoiada, Ver. 6.) might curdle his Temper, and give him ſome Diſguſt. See Calmet's Com. and Howell's Hiſt.

And they conſpired againſt him, and ſtoned him with Stones at the Commandment of the King, in the Court of the Houſe of the Lord]. This Sin, beſides the Contempt of God's Prophet, and of the ſacred Place, where he was murthered, had an horrid Ingratitude in it, ſince Zechariah was the Son of him, to whom the King owed his Life and Kingdom, and who himſelf aſſiſted his Father in his Unction, as ſome think; becauſe it is ſaid, that Jehoiada and his Sons anointed him, Ch. xxiii. 11. But if Jehoiada was High-prieſt, this Son is not reckoned among the Succeſſors of Aaron, 1 Chron. vi. and therefore, it is likely, that he was a younger Son of that Family; for, had he been the eldeſt, he would have had ſufficient Authority, without the Spirit of Prophecy, to have reproved Joaſh for his Idolatry. Ludovicus Capellus therefore thinks it probable, that his Brother, the High-prieſt, connived at the King's Apoſtaſy, and that this younger Brother was inſpired by God to reprove it; which Boldneſs Joaſh, and his Courtiers, thought they might puniſh with ſome Colour, by alledging, that he was not moved to it by the Spirit of God, but by a raſh, pragmatical Temper of his own, which they incited the People to chaſtize. Patrick's Com.

His own Servants conſpired againſt him — and ſlew him on his Bed] Theſe two Murderers (mongrel Fellows, whoſe Fathers were Jews, but their Mothers Aliens, Ver. 26.) perhaps were of the Bed-chamber; and, having conſtant Acceſs to the King, might more eaſily accompliſh their Deſign: However, he was ſo weak and feeble, that he could make no Reſiſtance, and had fallen into that Contempt and Diſeſteem, that his Guards minded not what became of him. See Patrick's Com.

But they buried him not in the Sepulchres of the Kings] Tho' the People could not puniſh wicked Kings for their Impiety, while they lived, yet they fixed an Odium upon their Memory, when they were dead; whereby they both preſerved the Sacredneſs of the Supreme Power (as Grotius has it) and kept Kings, in ſome Meaſure, under Awe, for Fear of what might befal them after their Deceaſe. Patrick's Com.

CHAP. XXV.

Amaziah begins his Reign well, executes Juſtice on the Traitors; having hired an Army of Iſraelites, at the Word of the Prophet, he diſmiſſes them, who, in their Return home, plunder the Country. He worſhips the Gods of the Edomites whom he conquered; challenges Joaſh, and is overthrown; and is ſlain by Conſpiracy.

Ver. 1. AMaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Jehoaddan of Jeruſalem. 2 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, but not with a perfect heart. 3 Now it came to paſs when the kingdom was eſtabliſhed to him, that he ſlew his ſervants that had killed the king his father. 4 But he ſlew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moſes, where the Lord commanded, ſaying, The fathers ſhall not die for the children, neither ſhall the children die for the fathers, but every man ſhall die for his own ſin. 5 Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thouſands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houſes of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbred them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thouſand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle ſpear and ſhield. 6 He hired alſo an hundred thouſand mighty men of valour out of Iſrael, for an hundred talents of ſilver. 7 But there came a man of God to him, ſaying, O king, let not the army of Iſrael go with thee; for the Lord is not with Iſrael, to wit with all the children of Ephraim. 8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be ſtrong for the battle: God ſhall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to caſt down. 9 And Amaziah ſaid to the man of God, But what ſhall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Iſrael? And the man of God anſwered, The Lord is able to give thee much more than this. 10 Then Amaziah ſeparated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled againſt Judah, and they returned home in great anger. 11 And Amaziah ſtrengthned himſelf, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of ſalt, and ſmote the childen of Seir, ten thouſand. 12 And other ten thouſand left alive, did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and caſt them down from the top of the rock, that they were broken all to pieces. 13 But the ſoldiers of the army which Amaziah ſent back, that they ſhould not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and ſmote three thouſand of them, and took much ſpoil. 14 Now it came to paſs after that Amaziah was come from the ſlaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and ſet them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. 15 Wherefore the anger of the Lord was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? 16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the kings counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel. 17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face. 18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon, sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. 19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home, why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou and Judah with thee? 20 But Amaziah would not hear, for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. 21 So Joash the king of Israel went up, and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah. 22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. 23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner-gate, four hundred cubits. 24 And he took all the gold, and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the kings house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. 25 And Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, fifteen years. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? 27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the Lord, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. 28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

He hired also an hundred thousand mighty Men of Valour out of Israel, for an hundred Talents of Silver] If these be reckoned for Talents of Silver (as they generally are) each Talent at an hundred and twenty five Pounds Weight, and each Pound Weight at four Pounds Value, the whole will amount to 50,000*l.* Sterling, which will be but ten Shillings to each Man, Officers included. Very low Pay? Unless we suppose that this whole Sum was given to the King of Israel for the Loan of so many Men, and that the Men were to have their Wages besides; or rather that they were to have no other Booty but the Booty which they took from the Enemy, that this was the true Reason, why they were so exasperated at their Dismission, as to fall upon the Cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth-horon, Ver. 13. They went very probably first to Samaria, where they complained to their own King of the bad Treatment they had received from Amaziah, and desired some Reparation to be made them for the Affront put upon them, and the Loss of the Profit which they might have made in the War; but, not finding him inclinable to make them Satisfaction, they immediately fell foul upon the Territories of Judah, and, from Samaria (for that is the Place of their setting out) even to Beth-horon, a Town not far distant from Jerusalem, ravaged the Country, and did the Mischief here mentioned; which they might more easily do, because the War with Edom had drained the Country of all the Forces, that should have opposed them. See Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

And cast them down from the Top of the Rock, that they were all broken in Pieces] That this was an antient Punishment among the Romans, we may learn from Livy, Plutarch, and several others; as Mr. Selden observes, that it was in Use among other Nations; but we do not find it commonly practised among the Jews. It is not in the Catalogue of Punishments which Moses enacts; neither was it ever inflicted by any regular Judicature: And therefore one would think, that the Edomites, either by some such like Cruelty to the People of Judah, had provoked them to make a Retaliation in this Manner, or that they were, in their very Disposition, so apt to revolt, that there could be no keeping them in Subjection, without some such sad exemplary Punishment as this. Calmet's Dissert. and Com.

Why hast thou sought after the Gods of the People, which could not deliver their own People out of thine Hand] Idolatry, at the best, can no ways be apologized for; but no Reason can be invented, why any Person should make the Objects of his Adoration, such Gods as could not deliver their own People out of the Enemies Hands, as this Prophet very justly reproves Amaziah; unless we suppose, that the Images of these Gods were so very beautiful, that he perfectly fell in Love with them, or that he worshipped them for Fear they should owe him a Spite, and do him some Mischief, in Revenge for what he had done against the Edomites. How much more wise were the Sentiments of Fabricius Maximus, upon the like Occasion, who, having conquered Tarentum, and being asked, what should be done with their Gods? Bid them leave them with the Tarentines; for what Madness is it (as he adds) to hope for any Safety from those, that cannot preserve themselves? Patrick's Com.

They made a Conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there] What provoked the People of Jerusalem, more than any other Part of the Nation, against their King, was, their seeing their City spoiled of its best Ornaments, exposed to Reproach, upon Account of the great Breach that was made in their Wall, and several of their Children carried away as Hostages, for their good Behaviour; all which they imputed to their King's Male-administration. Whereupon they entered into a Conspiracy against him, which makes some Commentators say, that he lived in a State of Exile at Lachish, the Space of twelve Years, not daring to continue long at Jerusalem after the Defeat which Joash had given him. But our learned Usher has placed this Conspiracy in the last Year of Amaziah's Reign, as Jacobus Capellus supposes, that it was set on foot by the great Men of Jerusalem, upon the specious Pretence of being Guardians to the young Prince, and taking better Care of him than his Father was likely to do. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

CHAP. XXVI.

Ver. 1. THEN all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. 2 He built Eloth, and reſtored it to Judah, after that the king ſlept with his fathers. 3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah, when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jeruſalem: his mothers name alſo was Jecholiah of Jeruſalem. 4 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did. 5 And he ſought God in the days of Zechariah, who had underſtanding in the viſions of God: and as long as he ſought the Lord, God made him to proſper, 6 And he went forth and warred againſt the Philiſtines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Aſhdod, and built cities about Aſhdod, and among the Philiſtines. 7 And God helped him againſt the Philiſtines, and againſt the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims. 8 And the Ammorites gave gifts to Uzziah, and his name ſpread abroad even to the entring in of Egypt, for he ſtrengthned himſelf exceedingly. 9 Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jeruſalem, at the corner-gate, and at the valley-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. 10 Alſo he built towers in the deſert, and digged many wells, for he had much cattle both in the low-country, and in the plains: huſbandmen alſo, and vine-dreſſers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved huſbandry. 11 Moreover, Uzziah had an hoſt of fighting men, that went out to war by bands according to the number of their account, by the hand of Jeiel the ſcribe, and Maaſeiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the kings captains. 12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour, were two thouſand and ſix hundred. 13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thouſand and ſeven thouſand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king againſt the enemy. 14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the hoſt, ſhields, and ſpears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and ſlings to caſt ſtones. 15 And he made in Jeruſalem engines invented by cunning men, to be on the towers, and upon the bulwarks to ſhoot arrows and great ſtones withal: and his name ſpread far abroad, for he was marvellouſly helped till he was ſtrong. 16 But when he was ſtrong, his heart was lifted up to his deſtruction: for he tranſgreſſed againſt the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord, to burn incenſe upon the altar of incenſe. 17 And Azariah the prieſt went in after him, and with him fourſcore prieſts of the Lord, that were valiant men: 18 And they withſtood Uzziah the king, and ſaid unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incenſe unto the Lord, but to the prieſts the ſons of Aaron, that are conſecrated to burn incenſe: go out of the ſanctuary, for thou haſt treſpaſſed, neither ſhall it be for thine honour from the Lord God. 19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a cenſer in his hand, to burn incenſe: and while he was wroth with the prieſts, the leproſie even roſe up in his forehead, before the prieſts in the houſe of the Lord, from beſide the incenſe-altar. 20 And Azariah the chief prieſt, and all the prieſts looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thruſt him out from thence, yea, himſelf haſtened alſo to go out, becauſe the Lord had ſmitten him. 21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a ſeveral houſe, being a leper, for he was cut off from the houſe of the Lord: and Jotham his ſon was over the kings houſe, judging the people of the land. 22 Now the reſt of the acts of Uzziah firſt and laſt, did Iſaiah the prophet the ſon of Amoz write. 23 So Uzziah ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial, which belonged to the kings; for they ſaid, He is a leper: and Jotham his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

Then all the People of Judah took Uzziah] He is called Azariah, 2 Kings xiv. But the Words are much of the ſame Signification; for Uzziah ſignifies the Strength, and Azariah the Help of God.

Who was ſixteen Years old, and made him King] Which is ſaid to be in the twenty and ſeventh Year of the Reign of Jeroboam King of Iſrael, 2 Kings xvi. Commentators have been at a great deal of Trouble to reconcile a ſeeming Contradiction in this Computation. For if Amaziah, the Father of Azariah, lived but fifteen Years, after the Beginning of Jeroboam's Reign (as appears from 2 Kings xiv. 17.) then Azariah muſt begin his Reign, not in the twenty ſeventh, but (if he ſucceeded his Father immediately) in the ſixteenth, or fifteenth rather of Jeroboam: But our learned Dr. Lightfoot ſolves this at once, by ſuppoſing that there was an Interregnum, wherein the Throne was vacant eleven or rather twelve Years, between the Death of Amaziah and the Inauguration of his Son Azariah, who, being left an Infant of four Years old, took the Adminiſtration of publick Affairs upon themſelves, and when he was become ſixteen, devolved it upon him; ſo that when he came in to the full Poſſeſſion of the Throne it was in the ſeven and twentieth Year of Jeroboam. Patrick's Com.

For he treſpaſſed againſt the Lord God, and went into the Temple, to burn Incenſe upon the Altar of Incenſe] What it was that tempted the King to this extravagant Folly, 'tis hard to imagine, but the moſt likely Conjecture is, that he had a vain Ambition to imitate Heathen Princes, who, in ſeveral Countries, joined both the Regal and Sacerdotal Offices together. But, however, it may be in other Countries, the Prieſthood in Judea was confined to the Houſe of Aaron only, and every one that pretended to that Office, was, by the Law of the Land to be put to Death, Numb. xviii. 7.

And while he was wroth with the Prieſts, the Leproſie roſe up even in his Forehead] The Puniſhment of ſuch, as would intrude into Divine Miniſtrations, was capital, we ſee; and therefore God ſmote Uzziah with ſuch a Diſeaſe, as was a Kind of Death; becauſe it ſeparated the Perſon that was afflicted with it, from the Commerce and Society of Men, even as if he had departed this World, and (as the Pſalmiſt expreſſes it) become free among the Dead, Pſ. lxxxviii. 5.

CHAP. XXVII.

Jotham reigns well and proſpers. He ſubdues the Ammonites. His Death and Burial. Ahaz ſucceeds him.

Ver. 1. JOtham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem: his mother's name alſo was Jeruſha, the daughter of Zadok. 2 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that Uzziah his father did: howbeit he entred not into the temple of the Lord. And the people did yet corruptly. He built the high gate of the houſe of the Lord, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Ju-

Judah, and in the foreſts he built caſtles and towers. 5 He fought alſo with the king of Ammonites, and prevailed againſt them. And the children of Ammon gave him the ſame year, an hundred talents of ſilver, and ten thouſand meaſures of wheat, and ten thouſand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the ſecond year, and the third. 6 So Jotham became mighty becauſe he prepared his ways before the Lord his God. 7 Now the reſt of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Iſrael, and Judah. 8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem. 9 And Jotham ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

And he did that which was right in the Sight of the Lord] Solomon Jarchi here obſerves, that all the Kings of Judah had ſome Crime or other laid to their Charge, except this Jotham. That David himſelf ſinned grievouſly in the Matter of Uriah; that Solomon by his Wives was drawn into Idolatry; that Rehoboam forſook the Law of the Lord, and Abijah walked in his Steps; that Aſa ſent the Treaſures of the Temple to the King of Syria, and put the Prophet in the Stocks; that Jehoſhaphat entered into Society with the Idolatrous; and ſo he goes on with all the reſt: But in Jotham, ſays he, there is no Fault found, (which, in an Age of general Corruption, is pretty wonderful) unleſs we may ſuppoſe, that the People's ſacrificing and burning Incenſe ſtill in high Places, 2 Kings xv. 35. (which he, by his Authority might have removed) be imputable to him.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Ahaz reigns wickedly, and is afflicted by the Syrians; he dies, and is ſucceeded by Hezekiah.

Ver. 1. AHAZ was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ſixteen years in Jeruſalem: but he did not that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, like David his father. 2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Iſrael, and made alſo molten images for Baalim. 3 Moreover, he burnt incenſe in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the Lord had caſt out before the children of Iſrael. 4 He ſacrificed alſo, and burnt incenſe in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. 5 Wherefore the Lord his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria, and they ſmote him and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damaſcus: and he was alſo delivered into the hand of the king of Iſrael, who ſmote him with a great ſlaughter. 6 For Pekah the ſon of Remaliah ſlew in Judah an hundred and twenty thouſand in one day, which were all valiant men; becauſe they had forſaken the Lord God of their fathers. 7 And Zichri a mighty man of Ephraim, ſlew Maaſeiah the king's ſon, and Azrikam the governour of the houſe, and Elkanah that was next to the king. 8 And the children of Iſrael carried away captive of their brethren, two hundred thouſand women, ſons and daughters, and took alſo away much ſpoil from them, and brought the ſpoil to Samaria. 9 But a prophet of the Lord was there, whoſe name was Oded: and he went out before the hoſt that came to Samaria, and ſaid unto them, Behold, becauſe the Lord God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have ſlain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven. 10 And now ye purpoſe to keep under the children of Judah and Jeruſalem for bond-men and for bond-women unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, ſins againſt the Lord your God? 11 Now hear me, therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the Lord is upon you. 12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the ſon of Johanan, Berechiah the ſon of Meſhillemoth, and Jehizkiah, the ſon of Shallum, and Amaſa the ſon of Hadlai, ſtood up againſt them that came from the war. 13 And ſaid unto them Ye ſhall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended againſt the Lord already, ye intend to add more to our ſins, and to our treſpaſs: for our treſpaſs is great, and there is fierce wrath againſt Iſrael. 14 So the armed men left the captives and the ſpoil, before the princes and all the congregation. 15 And the men which were expreſſed by name, roſe up, and took the captives, and with the ſpoil cloathed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and ſhod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon aſſes, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria. 16 At that time did king Ahaz ſend unto the kings of Aſſyria, to help him. 17 For again the Edomites had come and ſmitten Judah, and carried away captives. 18 The Philiſtines alſo had invaded the cities of the low-country, and of the ſouth of Judah, and had taken Beth-ſhemeſh, and Ajalon and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo alſo and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there. 19 For the Lord brought Judah low, becauſe of Ahaz king of Iſrael; for he made Judah naked, and tranſgreſſed ſore againſt the Lord. 20 And Tilgath-pilneſer king of Aſſyria came unto him, and diſtreſſed him, but ſtrengthed him not. 21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the houſe of the Lord, and out of the houſe of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Aſſyria: but he helped him not. 22 And in the time of his diſtreſs, did he treſpaſs yet more againſt the Lord: this is that king Ahaz. 23 For he ſacrificed unto the gods of Damaſcus, which ſmote him: and he ſaid, Becauſe the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I ſacrifice to them, that they may help me: but they were the ruin of him and of all Iſrael. 24 And Ahaz gathered together the veſſels of the houſe of God, and cut in pieces the veſſels of the houſe of God, and ſhut up the doors of the houſe of the Lord, and he made him altars in every corner of Jeruſalem. 25 And in every ſeveral city of Judah he made high places to burn incenſe unto other gods, and provoked to anger the Lord God of his fathers. 26 Now the reſt of his acts, and of all his ways, firſt and laſt, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Iſrael. 27 And Ahaz ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city,

He burnt Incenſe in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom] Hinnom, in all Probability, was ſome eminent Perſon in antient Times, to whom this Valley belonged, and to whoſe Poſterity it deſcended, and therefore is ſometimes called the Valley of the Children of Hinnom. It was a famous Plot of Ground on the Eaſt Side of Jeruſalem, and ſo delightfully ſhaded, that it invited the People to make it a Place of idolatrous Worſhip, whereby it became infamous, and was, at laſt, turned into a publick Dunghil, or Receptacle, where all the Filth and Excrements of the City were brought and burnt; for which Purpoſe there was a perpetual Fire kept, which made it a Kind of Image, or Repreſentation of Hell. Patrick's Com.

And Tiglath-pileſer, King of Aſſyria, came unto him, and diſtreſſed him, but ſtrengthened him not] And yet in 2 Kings xvi. 9. it is ſaid, that he did help him; and how then can he be ſaid to have diſtreſſed him? Very well, ſays Patrick; for, as he came to his Aſſiſtance againſt the King of Syria, ſo he took Damaſcus, carried the People captive, and deliver'd Ahaz from the Power of the Syrians; but this did Ahaz little good, for he help'd him not to recover the Cities which the Philiſtines had taken from him. He lent him no Forces, nor enabled him to recruit his own; on the contrary, he rather weakened him, by exhauſting his Treaſures, and deſtroying Samaria, which opened a Way for the Invaſion of his Country with more Facility, as it happened in the next Reign. For it is no uncommon Thing, even in latter Ages, to hear of Kingdoms, that have called in the Help of ſome foreign Prince againſt their Enemies, over-run and conquered by thoſe who came to their Aſſiſtance.

And he ſaid, Becauſe the Gods of the Kings of Syria help them, therefore will I ſacrifice to them] This was a monſtrous Stupidity, to think, that theſe Gods had any Power over him, who could not defend themſelves from the Arms of Tiglath-pileſer! Thinking however, that they had diſtreſſed him, he ſacrificed to them, in order to appeaſe their Wrath, that they might do him no further Hurt; in the ſame Manner, as the antient Romans were wont to bribe the Gods of their Enemies, with larger Sacrifices than ordinary, in Hopes of bringing them over to their Party, and making them their Friends. Patrick's Com.

CHAP. XXIX.

Hezekiah's good Reign. He reſtores Religion. The Houſe of God cleanſed.

Ver. 1. HEzekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jeruſalem: and his mothers name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah. 2 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done. 3 He, in the firſt year of his reign, in the firſt month, opened the doors of the houſe of the Lord, and repaired them. 4 And he brought in the prieſts, and the Levites, and gathered them together into the eaſt-ſtreet, 5 And he ſaid unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, ſanctifie now your ſelves and ſanctifie the houſe of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthineſs out of the holy place. 6 For our fathers have treſpaſſed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forſaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the Lord, and turned their backs. 7 Alſo they have ſhut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incenſe, nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place, unto the God of Iſrael. 8 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was upon Judah and Jeruſalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to aſtoniſhment, and to hiſſing, as ye ſee with your eyes. 9 For lo, our fathers have fallen by the ſword, and our ſons, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for this. 10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the Lord God of Iſrael, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. 11 My ſons, be not now negligent: for the Lord hath choſen you to ſtand before him, to ſerve him, and that you ſhould miniſter unto him, and burn incenſe. 12 Then the Levites aroſe, Mahath, the ſon of Amaſai, and Joel the ſon of Azariah, of the ſons of the Kohathites: and of the ſons of Merari; Kiſh the ſon of Abdi, and Azariah the ſon of Jehalelel: and of the Gerſhonites; Joah the ſon of Zimmah, and Eden the ſon of Joah: 13 And of the ſons of Elizaphan; Shimri and Jehiel: and of the ſons of Aſaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: 14 And of the ſons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the ſons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel. 15 And they gathered their brethren, and ſanctified themſelves, and came according to the commandment of the king by the words of the Lord, to cleanſe the houſe of the Lord. 16 And the prieſts went into the inner part of the houſe of the Lord, to cleanſe it, and brought out all the uncleanneſs that they found in the temple of the Lord, into the court of the houſe of the Lord. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron. 17 Now they began on the firſt day of the firſt month to ſanctifie, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the Lord: ſo they ſanctified the houſe of the Lord in eight days, and in the ſixteenth day of the firſt month they made an end. 18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and ſaid, We have cleanſed all the houſe of the Lord, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the veſſels thereof, and the ſhew-bread table, with all the veſſels thereof. Moreover, all the veſſels which king Ahaz in his reign did caſt away in his tranſgreſſion, have we prepared and ſanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord. 20 Then Hezekiah the king, roſe early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the houſe of the Lord. And they brought ſeven bullocks, and ſeven rams, and ſeven lambs, and ſeven he-goats, for a ſin offering for the kingdom, and for the ſanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the prieſts the ſons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the Lord. 22 So they killed the bullocks, and the prieſts received the blood, and ſprinkled it on the altar: likewiſe when they had killed the rams, they ſprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed alſo the lambs, and they ſprinkled the blood upon the altar. 23 And they brought forth the he-goats for the ſin-offering, before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands upon them: 24 And the prieſts killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Iſrael: for the king commanded that the burnt offering, and the ſin-offering ſhould be made for all Iſrael. 25 And he ſet the Levites in the houſe of the Lord, with cymbals, with pſalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the kings ſeer, and Nathan the prophet: for ſo was the commandment of the Lord by his prophets. 26 And the Levites ſtood with the inſtruments of David, and the prieſts with the trumpets. 27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar: and when the burnt-offering began, the ſong of the Lord began alſo with the trumpets, and with the inſtruments ordained by David king of Iſrael. 28 And all the congregation worſhipped, and the ſingers ſang, and the trumpeters ſounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finiſhed. 29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were preſent with him, bowed themſelves and worſhipped. 30 Moreover, Hezekiah the king, and the princes commanded the Levites to ſing praiſe unto the Lord, with the words of David, and of Aſaph the ſeer: and they ſang praiſes with gladneſs, and they bowed their heads and worſhipped. 31 Then Hezekiah anſwered and ſaid, Now ye have conſecrated yourſelves unto the Lord, come near and bring ſacrifices, and thank-offerings into the houſe of the Lord. And the congregation brought in ſacrifices, and thank-offerings, and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings. 32 And the number of the burnt-offerings which the congregation brought, was threeſcore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all theſe were for a burnt-offering to the Lord. 33 And the conſecrated things were ſix hundred oxen, and three thouſand ſheep. 34 But the prieſts were too few, ſo that they could not ſlay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them till the work was ended, and until the other prieſts had ſanctified themſelves: for the Levites were more upright in heart, to ſanctifie themſelves, than the prieſts. 35 And alſo the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the ſervice of the houſe of the Lord was ſet in order. 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done ſuddenly.

For a Sin-offering for the Kingdom] That is, for the King's Sins, and thoſe of his Predeceſſors; for the Sanctuary, for the Prieſt's Sins, and the Profanations of the Temple; and for Judah, that is, for all the People, who have followed the Examples of their impious Kings. Now this Offering, which the Law preſcribed for the tranſgreſſions of the People, was a young Bullock; and for the Offences of the Prince, was a Goat, Levit. iv. &c. but good Hezekiah, we find, was willing to do more than the Law commanded. He was ſenſible, that both Prince and People had been guilty, not only of Sins of Ignorance, (for which theſe Sacrifices were inſtituted) but of wilful and preſumptuous Crimes, of Idolatry, a Profanation of the Temple, and an Extinction of the Worſhip of God; and therefore appointed ſeven Bullocks for a Burnt-offering, and as many Goats for a Sin-offering; upon Preſumption, that theſe numerous Sacrifices were, if not neceſſary, at leaſt highly fit and becoming, upon the Account of the great and long Neglect of Divine Service, and the Multitude, and long Continuance of their other Offences againſt God, for which they were now to beg Forgiveneſs. Calmet's and Patrick's Com.

And he ſet the Levites in the Houſe of the Lord with Cymbals, with Pſalteries, and with Harps, according to the Commandment of David, &c.] Moſes, in the Service of the Tabernacle, did not appoint the Uſe of any muſical Inſtruments; only he cauſed ſome Trumpets to be made, which, upon ſolemn Occaſions, were to be ſounded, at the Time when the Burnt-offering, and Peace-offering were upon the Altar, Numb. x. 10. But David, by the Advice of the Prophets, Gad and Nathan, introduced ſeveral Kinds of Muſick into the Service of the Temple, as a Thing highly conducive to inſpire the People with Reſpect, with Joy, and with Affection for the Solemnities and Aſſemblies of Religion, 1 Chron. xxiii. 5. and xxv. 1. and 'tis further obſervable, that the Inſtitution of Muſick, in religious Aſſemblies, is not a Matter of human Invention, but what was ordained by God, and has the Sanction and Authority of his Prophets to confirm it; for ſo was the Commandment of the Lord by his Prophets.

Moreover, Hezekiah the King, and the Princes commanded the Levites to ſing Praiſe unto the Lord, with the Words of David, and of Aſaph the Seer] David was both a great Poet, and Maſter of Muſick, and therefore might modulate, and compoſe his own Hymns; but whether the Muſick of them might not be altered or improved by After-ages (becauſe the Words only are here taken Notice of) is a Matter of ſome Uncertainty. The Aſaph here mentioned, was the Perſon who lived in David's Days, ſo famous for his Skill in Muſick, and the ſeveral devout Pieces which he compoſed, are thoſe which we meet with in the Collection of the Pſalms; but others will needs have it, (but for what Reaſon, ſays Patrick, I cannot tell) that the Author of the Pſalms aſcribed to Aſaph, was another Perſon, who lived in After-times, tho' perhaps of the ſame Family, as well as Name with this famous Aſaph, who lived in David's Time.

CHAP. XXX.

Hezekiah proclaims a Paſſover. The Aſſembly deſtroy the Altars of Idolatry. Great Joy in Jeruſalem.

Ver. 1. AND Hezekiah ſent to all Iſrael and Judah, and wrote letters alſo to Ephraim and Manaſſeh, that they ſhould come to the houſe of the Lord at Jeruſalem, to keep the paſſover unto the Lord God of Iſrael. 2 For the king had taken counſel, and his princes, and all the congregations in Jeruſalem, to keep the paſſover in the ſecond month. 3 For they could not keep it at that time, becauſe the prieſts had not ſanctified themſelves ſufficiently, neither had the people gathered themſelves together to Jeruſalem. 4 And the thing pleaſed the king, and all the congregation. 5 So they eſtabliſhed a decree, to make proclamation throughout all Iſrael, from Beer-ſheba even to Dan, that they ſhould come to keep the Paſſover unto the Lord God of Iſrael at Jeruſalem: for they had not done it of a long time in ſuch ſort as it was written. 6 So the poſts went with the letters from the king, and his princes throughout all Iſrael and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, ſaying, Ye children of Iſrael, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Iſaac, and Iſrael, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are eſcaped out of the hand of the kings of Aſſyria. 7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which treſpaſſed againſt the Lord God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to deſolation, as ye ſee. 8 Now be ye not ſtiffnecked as your fathers were, but yield your ſelves unto the Lord, and enter into his ſanctuary, which he hath ſanctified for ever: and ſerve the Lord your God, that the fierceneſs of his wrath may may turn away from you. 9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren, and your children ſhall find compaſſion before them that lead them captive, ſo that they ſhall come again into this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and mericiful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him. 10 So the poſts paſſed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manaſſeh, even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to ſcorn, and mocked them. 11 Nevertheleſs, divers of Aſher, and Manaſſeh, and of Zebulun humbled themſelves, and came to Jeruſalem. 12 Alſo in Judah, the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the Lord. 13 And there aſſembled at Jeruſalem much people, to keep the feaſt of unleavened bread in the ſecond month, a very great congregation. 14 And they aroſe, and took away the altars that were in Jeruſalem, and all the altars for incenſe took they away, and caſt them into the brook Kidron. 15 Then they killed the paſſover on the fourteenth day of the ſecond month: and the prieſts and the Levites were aſhamed, and ſanctified themſelves and brought in the burnt-offerings into the houſe of the Lord. 16 And they ſtood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moſes the man of God: the prieſts ſprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the congregation that were not ſanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the paſſovers, for every one that was not clean, to ſanctifie them unto the Lord. 18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manaſſeh, Iſſachar, and Zebulun, had not cleanſed themſelves, yet did they eat the paſſover, otherwiſe than it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, ſaying, The good Lord pardon every one, 19 That prepareth his heart to ſeek God, the Lord God of his fathers, though he be not cleanſed according to the purification of the ſanctuary. 20 And the Lord hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. 21 And the children of Iſrael that were preſent at Jeruſalem, kept the feaſt of unleavened bread ſeven days with great gladneſs: and the Levites, and the prieſts praiſed the Lord day by day, ſinging with loud inſtruments unto the Lord. 22 And Hezekiah ſpake comfortably unto all the Levites, that taught the good knowledge of the Lord: and they did eat throughout the feaſt ſeven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confeſſion to the Lord God of their fathers. 23 And the whole aſſembly took counſel to keep other ſeven days: and they kept other ſeven days with gladneſs. 24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thouſand bullocks, and ſeven thouſand ſheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thouſand bollocks, and ten thouſand ſheep: and a great number of prieſts ſanctified themſelves. 25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the prieſts and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Iſrael, and the ſtrangers that came out of the land of Iſrael, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. 26 So there was great joy in Jeruſalem: for ſince the time of Solomon the ſon of David king of Iſrael, there was not the like in Jeruſalem. 27 Then the prieſts the Levites aroſe, and bleſſed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

And Hezekiah ſent to all Iſrael and Judah, and wrote Letters alſo to Ephraim, and Manaſſeh, that they ſhould come to the Houſe of the Lord at Jeruſalem] Hezekiah, 'tis certain, had no Right to invite Hoſhea's Subjects to repair to Jeruſalem to the Celebration of his Paſſover; yet, for the doing of this, we may well preſume, he had Encouragement from Hoſhea himſelf, who, as to the Matter of Religion, has a better Character in Scripture than any of his Predeceſſors from the Diviſion of the two Kingdoms. But the Truth of the Matter was, that both the Golden Calves (which had made this political Separation) were now taken away, that of Dan, by Tiglath-pileſer, and the other of Bethel, by his Son Salmaneſer; and therefore the apoſtate Jews, being thus deprived of their Idols, began to return to the Lord, and to go up to Jeruſalem to worſhip for ſome Time, before Hezekiah made them this Invitation to his Paſſover. See Prideaux's Connect.

CHAP. XXXI.

The People forward in deſtroying Idolatry. Hezekiah appoints the Courſes of the Prieſts, and orders the Payment of Tithes and Firſt-fruits; his Reformation is general.

Ver. 1. NOW when all this was finiſhed, all Iſrael that were preſent, went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places, and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim alſo and Manaſſeh, until they had utterly deſtroyed them all. Then all the children of Iſrael returned every man to his poſſeſſion into their own cities. And Hezekiah appointed the courſes of the prieſts and the Levites after their courſes, every man according to his ſervice, the prieſts and Levites for burnt-offerings, and for peace-offerings, to miniſter and to give thanks, and to praiſe in the gates of the tents of the Lord. 3 He appointed alſo the kings portion of his ſubſtance, for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the ſabbaths, and for the new-moons, and for the ſet feaſts, as it is written in the law of the Lord. 4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jeruſalem, to give the portion of the prieſts, and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the Lord. 5 And aſſoon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Iſrael brought in abundance the firſt fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increaſe of the field, and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. 6 And concerning the children of Iſrael and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they alſo brought in the tithe of oxen and ſheep, and the tithe of holy things, which were conſecrated unto the Lord their God, and laid them by heaps. 7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finiſhed them in the ſeventh month. 8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and ſaw the heaps, they bleſſed the Lord, and his people Iſrael. 9 Then Hezekiah queſtioned with the prieſts and the Levites concerning the heaps. 10 And Azariah the chief prieſt of the houſe of Zadok, anſwered him, and ſaid, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the houſe of the Lord, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the Lord hath bleſſed his people: and that which is left, is this great ſtore. 11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the houſe of the Lord; and they prepared them, 12 And brought in the offerings, and the tithes, and the dedicate things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next. 13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Aſahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Iſmachiah and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overſeers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the houſe of God. 14 And Kore the ſon of Imnah the Levite the porter toward the eaſt, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to diſtribute the oblations of the Lord, and the moſt holy things. 15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeſhua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the prieſts, in their ſet office, to give to their brethren by courſes, as well to the great as to the ſmall. 16 Beſides their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entreth into the houſe of the Lord, his daily portion for their ſervice in their charges, according to their courſes: 17 Both to the genealogy of the prieſts by the houſe of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courſes: 18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their ſons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their ſet office they ſanctified themſelves in holineſs. 19 Alſo the ſons of Aaron the prieſts, which were in the fields of the ſuburbs of their cities, in every ſeveral city, the men that were expreſſed by name, to give portions to all the males among the prieſts, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies, among the Levites. 20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the Lord his God. 21 And in every work that he began in the ſervice of the houſe of God, and in the law, and in the commandments to ſeek his God, he did it with all his heart, and proſpered.

All Iſrael that was preſent, went out to the Cities of Judah, and brake the Images in Pieces, &c.] This, the Text tells us, was done not only in the Tribes of Judah and Benjamin, but in thoſe of Ephraim alſo, and Manaſſeh; which, tho' they were Part of Hoſhea's Dominions, yet Hezekiah might direct this Abolition of Idolatry in them, in Virtue of a Law, which bound Iſrael, as well as Judah, and required the Extirpation of theſe Things in the whole Land of Canaan; by the ſpecial Impulſe, and Direction of God's Spirit, which inſpires Men upon heroic Actions, tho' not to be drawn into Imitation; or out of a firm Perſuaſion, that his Neighbour Hoſhea, who had permitted his Subjects to repair to the Paſſover, would approve and conſent to what he did in this Reſpect. Pool's Annot.

He appointed alſo the King's Portion of his Subſtance for the Burnt-offerings, &c.] After that David had brought the Ark of the Lord into the Tent, which he had pitched for it, near his own Palace, the Scripture ſeems to intimate, 1 Chron. xvi. 1. that he divided the Prieſts and Levites into two Bodies; one of which he left at Gibeah, to attend in the Tabernacle which Moſes had made; and the other he took with him to Jeruſalem. And, from this Time, 'tis highly probable, that of his own Eſtate, he ſupplied whatever was neceſſary for the ſacred Miniſtry of this his domeſtic Tabernacle on Mount Sion. When Solomon had built a Temple, he obliged himſelf to defray all the Expences, both ordinary and extraordinary, of the Altar, 2 Chron. viii. 13. And, in like Manner, upon the Re-building of the Temple, at the Return from the Captivity, Ezekiel aſſigns a proper Revenue to the King, to anſwer the Expence of all Sacrifices, both ſtated and occaſional, Ch. xlvi. So that Hezekiah in this, did properly no more than what was incumbent on him; tho' ſeveral of his idolatrous Predeceſſors had doubtleſs withdrawn the Fund appropriated to that Purpoſe, which is ſo commendable in him to reſtore it to its proper Channel. Calmet's and Patrick's Com.

Sennacherib invades Judah. An Angel deſtroys the Aſſyrians. Hezekiah's Sickneſs and Recovery. His Death, and is ſucceeded by Manaſſeh.

Ver. 1. AFTER theſe things and the eſtabliſhment thereof, Sennacherib king of Aſſyria came, and entred into Judah, and encamped againſt the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himſelf. 2 And when Hezekiah ſaw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purpoſed to fight againſt Jeruſalem; 3 He took counſel with his princes, and his mighty men, to ſtop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city: and they did help him. 4 So there was gathered much people together, who ſtopt all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midſt of the land, ſaying, Why ſhould the kings of Aſſyria come, and find much water? 5 Alſo he ſtrengthned himſelf, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raiſed it up to the towers, and another wall without, aud repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and ſhields in abundance. 6 And he ſet captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the ſtreet of the gate of the city, and ſpake comfortably to them, ſaying, 7 Be ſtrong and couragious, be not afraid nor diſmayed for the king of Aſſyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us, than with him. 8 With him is an arm of fleſh, but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, and to fight our battels. And the people reſted themſelves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. 9 After this did Sennacherib king of Aſſyria ſend his ſervants to Jeruſalem (but he himſelf laid ſiege againſt Lachiſh, and all his power with him) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah, that were at Jeruſalem, ſaying, 10 Thus ſaith Sennacherib king of Aſſyria, Whereon do ye truſt, that ye abide in the ſiege in Jeruſalem? 11 Doth not Hezekiah perſwade you to give over your ſelves to die by famine, and by thirſt, ſaying, The Lord our God ſhall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria? 12 Hath not the ſame Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jeruſalem, ſaying, Ye ſhall worſhip before one altar, and burn incenſe upon it? 13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of thoſe lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand? 14 Who was there among all the gods of thoſe nations, that my my fathers utterly deſtroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God ſhould be able to deliver you out of mine hand? 15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor perſwade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much leſs ſhall your God deliver you out of mine hand? 16 And his ſervant ſpake yet more againſt the Lord God, and againſt his ſervant Hezekiah. 17 He wrote alſo letters to rail on the Lord God of Iſrael, and to ſpeak againſt him, ſaying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, ſo ſhall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. 18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews ſpeech unto the people of Jeruſalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city. 19 And they ſpake againſt the God of Jeruſalem, as againſt the gods of the people of the earth which were the work of the hands of man. 20 And for this cauſe Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Iſaiah the ſon of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. 21 And the Lord ſent an angel which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Aſſyria: ſo he returned with ſhame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the houſe of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels, ſlew him there with the ſword. 22 Thus the Lord ſaved Hezekiah, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Aſſyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every ſide. 23 And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Jeruſalem, and preſents to Hezekiah king of Judah: ſo that he was magnified in the ſight of all nations, from thenceforth. 24 In thoſe days Hezekiah was ſick to the death, and prayed unto the Lord: and he ſpake unto him, and he gave him a ſign. 25 But Hezekiah rendred not again, according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was lifted up; therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jeruſalem. 26 Notwithſtanding, Hezekiah humbled himſelf for the pride of his heart (both he and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem) ſo that the wrath of the Lord came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah. 27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himſelf treaſuries for ſilver and for gold, and for precious ſtones, and for ſpices, and for ſhields, and for all manner of pleaſant jewels; 28 Store-houſes alſo for the increaſe of corn, and wine, and oyl: and ſtalls for all manner of beaſts, and cotes for flocks. 29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and poſſeſſions of flocks, and herds in abundance: for God had given him ſubſtance very much. 30 This ſame Hezekiah alſo ſtopped the upper water-courſe of Gihon, and brought it ſtraight down to the weſt-ſide of the city of David. And Hezekiah proſpered in all his works. 31 Howbeit, in the buſineſs of the embaſſadours of the princes of Babylon, who ſent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. 32 Now the reſt of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodneſs, behold, they are written in the viſion of Iſaiah the prophet, the ſon of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Iſrael. 33 And Hezekiah ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefeſt of the ſepulchres of the ſons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem did him honour at his death: and Manaſſeh his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

He took Counſel with his Princes, and his mighty Men, to ſtop the Waters of the Fountains, which were without the City] It is an old Stratagem in War, to diſtreſs an Enemy by the Want of Water, but this is what the Beſiegers do generally practiſe againſt the Beſieged. In this Manner it was Holofornes intended to diſtreſs Bethuliah, Jud. vii. and of Semiramis, Cyrus, and Alexander, it is reported, that they all took Babylon by diverting the Currents of the Euphrates. But Hezekiah here takes another Method. He is for preventing the Aſſyrians from carrying on the Siege of Jeruſalem by intercepting the Water, i. e. by filling up the Fountain-heads by Earth, that the Enemy might not perceive where any Water was; and ſo carrying it from their Enemies thro' Pipes, and ſubterranean Channels, into the City, there to be received in Baſons, and large Pools, for the Benefit of the Beſieged: And this he might do with more Facility to himſelf, and Prejudice to the Enemy, becauſe (except the Springs and Brooks that were juſt contiguous to the City) the whole Country, (according to Strabo) for the Space of ſixty Furlongs round about, was all barren and waterleſs. Le Clerc's Com.

And the Brook that ran through the Midſt of the Land] This muſt be the Brook Kidron, which ran in a Valley of that Name, between the City and the Mount of Olivet, when it had any Water in it; for, except in the Caſe of any great Rains, or the Snows diſſolving from the Mountains, it was generally dry. However if it had any Fountain-head, by ſtopping up that, and diverting its Current by Conveyances under Ground, Hezekiah might, in like Manner, make it of no Uſe to the Beſiegers. Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

In thoſe Days Hezekiah was ſick] In the Courſe of the ſacred Hiſtory, this Sickneſs of Hezekiah is placed immediately after the Defeat and Death of Sennacherib; whereas, it plainly happened before that Time, becauſe in the Meſſage which God ſent him upon his Bed of Sickneſs by the Prophet Iſaiah, he promiſes to deliver Jeruſalem out of the Hands of the King of Aſſyria, 2 Kings xx. 6. The Truth of the Matter is,—Hezekiah reigned in all, nine and twenty Years, 2 Kings xviii. 2. He had already reigned fourteen Years, when Sennacherib invaded him, 2 Kings xviii. 13. and after his Sickneſs, he continued to reign fifteen Years, 2 Kings xx. 6. ſo that his Sickneſs muſt have happened in the very ſame Year that the King of Aſſyria invaded his Kingdom; but the ſacred Penman deferred the Account he was to give of that, until he had finiſhed the Hiſtory of Sennacherib, which he was willing to give the Reader at one View; and this is the true Reaſon of the Miſplacation. Calmet's Com.

CHAP. XXXIII.

Manaſſeh's wicked Reign. He is carried to Babylon. Upon his Prayer he is releaſed. Amon ſucceeds him. He is ſlain by his Servants, and ſucceeded by Joſiah.

Ver. 1. MAnaſſeh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jeruſalem: 2 But did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had caſt out before the children of Iſrael. 3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worſhipped all the hoſt of heaven, and ſerved them. 4 Alſo he built altars in the houſe of the Lord, whereof the Lord had ſaid, In Jeruſalem ſhall my name be for ever. 5 And he built altars for all the hoſt of heaven, in the two courts of the houſe of the Lord. 6 And he cauſed his children to paſs through the fire in the valley of the ſon of Hinnom: alſo he obſerved times, and uſed enchantments, and uſed witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar ſpirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the ſight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. 7 And he ſent a carved image, (the idol which he had made) in the houſe of God, of which God had ſaid to David, and to Solomon his ſon, In this houſe, and in Jeruſalem, which I have choſen before all the tribes of Iſrael, will I put my name for ever. 8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Iſrael from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: ſo that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law, and the ſtatutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moſes. 9 So Manaſſeh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem to err, and to do worſe than the heathen, whom the Lord had deſtroyed before the children of Iſrael. 10 And the Lord ſpake to Manaſſeh, and to his people: but they would not hearken. 11 Wherefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the hoſt of the king of Aſſyria, which took Manaſſeh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. 12 And when he was in affliction, he beſought the Lord his God, and humbled himſelf greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him, and he was intreated of him, and heard his ſupplication, and brought him again to Jeruſalem, into his kingdom. Then Manaſſeh knew that the Lord he was God. 14 Now after this, he built a wall, without the city of David, on the weſt-ſide of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entring in at the fiſh-gate, and compaſſed about Ophel, and raiſed it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. 15 And he took away the ſtrange gods, and the idol out of the houſe of the Lord, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the houſe of the Lord, and in Jeruſalem, and caſt them out of the city. 16 And he repaired the altar of the Lord and ſacrificed thereon peace-offerings, and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to ſerve the Lord God of Iſrael. 17 Nevertheleſs, the people did ſacrifice ſtill in the high places, yet unto the Lord their God only. 18 Now the reſt of the acts of Manaſſeh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the ſeers that ſpake to him in the name of the Lord God of Iſrael, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Iſrael. 19 His prayer alſo, and how God was entreated of him, and all his ſin, and his treſpaſs, and the places wherein he built high places, and ſet up groves and graven images before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the ſayings of the ſeers. 20 So Manaſſeh ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own houſe: and Amon his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 21 Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jeruſalem. 22 But he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord, as did Manaſſeh his father: for Amon ſacrificed unto all the carved images, which Manaſſeh his father had made, and ſerved them; 23 And humbled not himſelf before the Lord as Manaſſeh his father had humbled himſelf; but Amon treſpaſſed more and more. 24 And his ſervants conſpired againſt him, and ſlew him in his own houſe. 25 But the people of the land ſlew all them that had conſpired againſt king Amon, and the people of the land made Joſiah his ſon king in his ſtead.

But he did that which was Evil in the Sight of the Lord, like unto the Abominations of the Heathen] Manaſſeh was certainly in the former Part of his Reign, a very impious Prince. The Scripture ſeems to imply, that, till his Miſeries had rectified his Notions, he did not believe at all in the God of Iſrael, nor in the Hiſtory of his Forefathers; but he is not the only Son that has degenerated from the good Example of a pious Father, neither were his Subjects the only People, that, even in the groſſeſt Irreligion and Profaneneſs, have imitated the Example of their Prince. The Wonder is, how both Prince and People became, upon every Occaſion, ſo prone to fall from the Religion of their Anceſtors, into Idolatry, notwithſtanding the frequent Remonſtrances on God's Part to the contrary? Now, to this Purpoſe it may be obſerved, that, in the whole Compaſs of the Law, there is no expreſs Revelation made of a future Life; that the Hints which are given of it, are too obſcure for every common Reader to interpret; and that this Obſcurity might be a Means of throwing the antient Iſraelites into idolatrous Practices. For, as they had no certain Hopes of another Life to rely on, they could not ſee neighbouring Nations in a more flouriſhing Condition, without ſome Uneaſineſs and Perturbation of Mind; and from hence, by Degrees, they might fall into this Opinion, — That the Gods of theſe Nations muſt needs be more mighty, and powerful, than the God of Iſrael, ſince their Worſhippers were manifeſtly more proſperous; and from hence they were induced to forſake the God of their Anceſtors, and to worſhip the Gods of the Heathen. See Stackhouſe's Diſſert.

CHAP. XXXIV.

Joſiah's good Reign. He deſtroys Idolatry; repairs the Temple; cauſes the Law to be read, and renews his Covenant with God.

Ver. 1. JOſiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jeruſalem one and thirty years. 2 And he did that which was right in the ſight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand nor to the left, 3 For in the eighth year of his reign while he was yet young, he began to ſeek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jeruſalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. 4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his preſence; and the images that were on high above them, he cut down, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images he brake in pieces, and made duſt of them, and ſtrowed it upon the graves of them that had ſacrificed unto them. 5 And he burnt the bones of the prieſts, upon their altars, and cleanſed Judah and Jeruſalem. 6 And ſo did he in the cities of Manaſſeh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Napthali, Naphtali, with their mattocks round about. 7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Iſrael, he returned to Jeruſalem. 8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the houſe, he ſent Shaphan the ſon of Azaliah, and Maaſeiah the governour of the city, and Joah the ſon of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the houſe of the Lord his God. 9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high prieſt, they delivered the money that was brought into the houſe of God, which the Levites that kept the doors, had gathered of the hand of Manaſſeh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Iſrael, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and they returned to Jeruſalem. 10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen, that had the overſight of the houſe of the Lord, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the houſe of the Lord to repair and mend the houſe: 11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewen ſtone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houſes, which the kings of Judah had deſtroyed. 12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overſeers of them were Jahath, and Obadiah, the Levites of the ſons of Merari: and Zechariah, and Meſhullam of the ſons of the Kohathites, to ſet it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could ſkill of inſtruments of muſick. 13 Alſo they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overſeers of all that wrought the work in any manner of ſervice: and of the Levites that were ſcribes, and officers, and porters. 14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the houſe of the Lord, Hilkiah the prieſt found a book of the law of the Lord, given by Moſes. 15 And Hilkiah anſwered and ſaid to Shaphan the ſcribe, I have found the book of the law in the houſe of the Lord. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan: 16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, ſaying, All that was committed to thy ſervants, they do it. 17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the houſe of the Lord, and have delivered it into the hand of the overſeers, and to the hand of the workmen. 18 Then Shaphan the ſcribe told the king, ſaying, Hilkiah the prieſt hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. 19 And it came to paſs when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his cloaths. 20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the ſon of Shaphan, and Abdon the ſon of Micah, and Shaphan the ſcribe, and Aſaiah a ſervant of the kings, ſaying, 21 Go, enquire of the Lord for me, and for them that were left in Iſrael, and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord, that is poured out upon us, becauſe our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do after all that is written in this book. 22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the propheteſs, the wife of Shallum the ſon of Tikvah, the ſon of Haſrah, keeper of the wardrobe: (now ſhe dwelt in Jeruſalem in the college) and they ſpake to her to that effect. 23 And ſhe anſwered them, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael, Tell ye the man that ſent you to me. 24 Thus ſaith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curſes that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah: 25 Becauſe they have forſaken me, and have burned incenſe unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath ſhall be poured out upon this place, and ſhall not be quenched. 26 And as for the king of Juda, who ſent you to enquire of the Lord, ſo ſhall ye ſay unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſrael concerning the words which thou haſt heard: 27 Becauſe thine heart was tender, and thou didſt humble thy ſelf before God, when thou heardeſt his words againſt this place, and againſt the inhabitants thereof, and humbledſt thy ſelf before me, and didſt rend thy cloaths, and weep before me; I have even heard thee alſo, ſaith the Lord. 28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou ſhalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither ſhall thine eyes ſee all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the ſame. So they brought the king word again. 29 Then the king ſent, and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jeruſalem. 30 And the king went up into the houſe of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and the prieſts, and the Levites, and all the people, great and ſmall: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant, that was found in the houſe of the Lord. 31 And the king ſtood in his place, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his teſtimonies, and his ſtatutes, with all his heart, and with all his ſoul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. 32 And he cauſed all that were preſent in Jeruſalem and Benjamin to ſtand to it. And the inhabitants of Jeruſalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 33 And Joſiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Iſrael, and made all that were preſent in Iſrael to ſerve, even to ſerve the Lord their God. And all his days they departed not from following the Lord, the God of their fathers.

The Hiſtory of this and the following Chapter, the Reader will find related, and explained 2 Kings xxii. xxiii.

CHAP. XXXV.

Joſiah keeps a ſolemn Paſſover. In his Expedition againſt Pharaoh-necho is ſlain at Megiddo. Jeremiah's Lamentation for him.

Ver. 1. MOreover, Joſiah kept a paſſover unto the Lord in Jeruſalem: and they killed the paſſover on the fourteenth day of the firſt month. 2 And he ſet the prieſts in their charges, and encouraged them to the ſervice of the houſe of the Lord. 3 And ſaid unto the Levites that taught all Iſrael which were holy unto the Lord, Put the holy ark in the houſe, which Solomon the ſon of David king of Iſrael did build; it ſhall not be a burden upon your ſhoulders: ſerve now the Lord your

God, and his people Israel. 4 And prepare your selves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. 5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families, of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites. 6 So kill the passover, and sanctifie your selves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the Lord, by the hand of Moses. 7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the kings substance. 8 And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings, two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. 9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah, and Jehiel, and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover-offerings, five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen. 10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the kings commandment. 11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them. 12 And they removed the burnt-offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people to offer unto the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and so did they with the oxen. 13 And they roasted the passover with fire, according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people. 14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron. 15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the kings seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. 16 So all the service of the Lord was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josiah. 17 And the children of Israel that were present, kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. 18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet, neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah, this passover kept. 20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. 21 But he sent embassadours to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. 22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. 23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away, for I am sore wounded. 24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers: and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. 25 And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah, and all the singing-men and the singing-women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and behold, they are written in the lamentations. 26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the Lord, 27 And his deeds first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah] The Jews were used to make Lamentations, or mournful Songs, upon the Death of great Men, Princes, and Heroes, who had distinguished themselves in Arms, or by any civil Arts had merited well of their Country. From the Expression, Ver. 25. Behold they are written in the Lamentations, one may infer, that they had certain Collections of this Kind of Composition. The Author of the Book of Samuel has preserved those which David made upon the Death of Saul and Jonathan, Abner and Absalom. But this mournful Poem, which the disconsolate Prophet made upon the immature Death of good Josiah, we no where have; which is a Loss the more to be deplored, because, in all Probability, it was a Master-piece in its Kind; since never was there an Author more deeply affected with his Subject, or more capable of carrying it through all the tender Sentiments of Sorrow and Compassion. See Calmet's Com.

CHAP. XXXVI.

Jehoahaz succeeding, is deposed by Pharaoh. Jehoiakim reigns ill, and is carried to Babylon. Zedekiah's wicked Reign; is slain by the Chaldeans; and the People, and holy Vessels conveyed to Babylon. Cyrus's Proclamation for the re-building of the Temple.

Ver. 1. THEN the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his fathers stead in Jerusalem. 2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. 3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. 4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt. 5 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jeruſalem: and he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord his God. 6 Againſt him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters to carry him to Babylon. 7 Nebuchadnezzar alſo carried of the veſſels of the houſe of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. 8 Now the reſt of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Iſrael and Judah: and Jehoiachin his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jeruſalem, and he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord. 10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar ſent, and brought him to Babylon with the goodly veſſels of the houſe of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his brother, king over Judah and Jeruſalem. 11 Zezekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jeruſalem. 12 And he did that which was evil in the ſight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himſelf before Jeremiah the prophet, ſpeaking from the mouth of the Lord. 13 And he alſo rebelled againſt king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him ſwear by God: but he ſtiffned his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord God of Iſrael. 14 Moreover, all the chief of the prieſts, and the people tranſgreſſed very much, after all the abominantions of the heathen, and polluted the houſe of the Lord which he had hallowed in Jeruſalem. 15 And the Lord God of their fathers ſent to them by his meſſengers, riſing up betimes, and ſending; becauſe he had compaſſion on his people, and on his dwelling place; 16 But they mocked the meſſengers of God, and deſpiſed his words, and miſuſed his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord aroſe againſt his people, till there was no remedy. 17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who ſlew their young men with the ſword, in the houſe of their ſanctuary, and had no compaſſion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that ſtooped for age: he gave them all into his hand. 18 And all the veſſels of the houſe of God, great and ſmall, and the treaſuries of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſuries of the king, and of his princes; all theſe he brought to Babylon. 19 And they burnt the houſe of God, and brake down the wall of Jeruſalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and deſtroyed all the goodly veſſels thereof. 20 And them that had eſcaped from the ſword, carried he away to Babylon: where they were ſervants to him and his ſons, until the reign of the kingdom of Perſia: 21 To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah; until the land had enjoyed her ſabbaths: for as long as ſhe lay deſolate, ſhe kept ſabbath, to fulfil threeſcore and ten years. 22 Now in the firſt year of Cyrus king of Perſia (that the word of the Lord ſpoken by the mouth of Jeremiah, might be accompliſhed) the Lord ſtirred up the ſpirit of Cyrus king of Perſia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it alſo in writing, ſaying, 23 Thus ſaith Cyrus king of Perſia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me, and he hath charged me to build him an houſe in Jeruſalem, which is in Judah: who is there among you of all his people? the Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

Then the People of the Land took Jehoahaz, the Son of Joſiah, and made him King] Jehoahaz was not the eldeſt Son of Joſiah, as appears from this, — That he was but three and twenty Years old when he began to reign, and reigned but three Months; after which his Brother Jehoiakim, when he was made King, was five and twenty Years old, 2 Kings xxiii. 31, 32. For this Reaſon, 'tis ſaid, that the People anointed him, becauſe, as he did not come to the Crown by Right of Succeſſion, his Title might have been otherwiſe diſputed; for, in all diſputed Caſes, and where the Kingdom came to be conteſted, Anointing was ever thought to give a Preference. At this Time, however, the Jews might have ſome Reaſon to prefer the younger Brother, becauſe, very probably, he was of a more martial Spirit, and better qualified to defend their Liberties againſt the King of Egypt. His proper Name, 'tis thought, was Shallum; but our learned Uſher ſuppoſes, that the People looking upon this as ominous, (becauſe Shallum, King of Iſrael, reigned but one Month) changed it to Jehoahaz, which proved not much more fortunate to him, for he reigned but three See Patrick's and Calmet's Com.

And they burnt the Houſe of God] The Temple was burnt, from the Time that it was built, four hundred Years, ſays Sir John Marſham; four hundred and twenty-four Years, three Months and eight Days ſays Primate Uſher; four hundred and thirty Years, ſay Abarbinel, and other learned Jews: But Joſephus computes the Thing ſtill higher; for he tells us, that the Temple was burnt four hundred and ſeventy Years ſix Months, and ten Days, from the Building of it; one Thouſand and ſixty Years, ſix Months, and ten Days, from the Iſraelites coming out of the Land of Egypt; one Thouſand, nine hundred and fifty Years ſix Months, and ten Days, from the Deluge; and three Thouſand five hundred and thirty Years, ſix Months, and ten Days, from the Creation of the World. Joſephus ſtands amazed, that the ſecond Temple ſhould be burnt by the Romans on the ſame Month and on the very ſame Day of the Month, that this was ſet on Fire by the Chaldeans, and, as ſome of the Jewiſh Doctors ſay, when the Levites were ſinging the ſame Pſalm in both Deſtructions, viz. xciv. 23. He ſhall bring upon them their own Iniquity, and ſhall cut them off in their own Wickedneſs; yea, the Lord our God ſhall cut them off. See Patrick's Com. and Jewiſh Antiq.

The Book of EZRA.

The ARGUMENT.

That the Book of Ezra is Part of the Canonical Scripture, is evident; partly, from the Teſtimony of the Jewiſh Church, to which were committed the Oracles of God, Rom. iii. 2. who alſo carefully kept them, and faithfully tranſmitted them to us, and are not once charged by Chriſt or his Apoſtles with Breach of that Truſt; and, partly, by the unanimous Conſent of both Jews and Chriſtians at this Day. And, that Ezra was the Writer of this Book, is, and ever was, the Opinion of the Jews, who had the beſt Means of knowing this, and is moſt agreeable to his Quality; for he was Son or Grandſon (as the Word is elſewhere uſed) of Seraiah, Ch. vii. 6. who was the High-prieſt, 2 Kings xxv. 18. 1 Chron. vi. 14. and he was a ready Scribe in the Law of Moſes, Ezra vii. 6. and endowed with a much more than ordinary Meaſure of God's Spirit, as it is evident from this Book; and was himſelf an Eye-witneſs of theſe Tranſactions. In his Time alſo there lived divers other holy Men of God, as Daniel, Nehemiah, Mordecai, Zorobabel, and Joſhua: Which makes that probable which the Jews report, That theſe Prophets, and other holy and learned Men, did review the Canonical Books of the Old Teſtament, and added here and there ſome few Paſſages in the hiſtorical Books, and digeſted them into that Order in which we now have them in our Hebrew Bibles: This being a Work moſt ſuitable to the Prudence and Piety, and ſacred Functions of theſe Perſons, and to the Eſtate of the Jewiſh Nation at that Time, which had been long in Captivity at Babylon, where it was to be feared that many of them were ignorant or corrupt in the Principles of Religion, and who were yet in a broken Condition, and likely to be expoſed to farther Diſtreſſes, Calamities, and Diſperſions; which alſo might be ſignified to ſome of them: And it was ſuitable alſo to that Care which the wiſe and ſagacious God hath ever uſed for the Guidance of his Church, according to their ſeveral Neceſſities and Occaſions.

Ezra returned to Jeruſalem the ſixth Year of Darius, who ſucceeded Cyrus; that is, about fifty Years after the Return of the firſt Jews under Zorobabel, when the Temple was built. He brought with him a great Company, and much Treaſure, with Letters to the King's Officers for all ſuch Things as ſhould be neceſſary for the Temple; and, at his Coming, redreſſed what was amiſs, and ſet Things in good Order that wanted to be reformed.

CHAP. I.

The Proclamation of Cyrus for the Building of the Temple. The Chief of the People prepare for their Return. Cyrus reſtores the Veſſels of the Temple to Shezbazzar, Prince of Judah.

1 NOW in the firſt year of Cyrus king of Perſia, (that the word of the rd by the mouth of Jeremiah, might be fulfilled) the Lord ſtirred up the ſpirit of Cyrus g of Perſia, that he made a proclamation oughout all his kingdom, and put it alſo in ting, ſaying, 2 Thus ſaith Cyrus king of ſia, The Lord God of heaven hath given all the kingdoms of the earth, and he hath rged me to build him an houſe at Jeru- m, which is in Judah. 3 Who is there ong you of all his people? his God be with , and let him go up to Jeruſalem, which is Judah, and build the houſe of the Lord God Iſrael (he is the God) which is in Jeruſalem. And whoſoever remaineth in any place where he ſojourneth, let the men of his place help him with ſilver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beaſts, beſides the free-will-offering for the houſe of God that is in Jeruſalem. 5 Then roſe up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the prieſts and the Levites, with all them whoſe ſpirit God had raiſed to go up to build the houſe of the Lord which is in Jeruſalem. 6 And all they that were about them, ſtrengthned their hands with veſſels of ſilver, with gold, with goods, and with beaſts, and with precious things, beſides all that was willingly offered. 7 Alſo Cyrus the king brought forth the veſſels of the houſe of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jeruſalem, and had put them in the houſe of his gods: 8 Even thoſe did Cyrus king of Perſia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treaſurer, and numbred them unto Sheſhbazzar the prince of Judah. 9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thouſand chargers of ſilver, nine and twenty knives, 10 Thirty baſons of of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. 11 All the vessels of gold, and of silver, were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity, that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

... The Lord stirred up the Spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, that he made a Proclamation throughout all his Kingdom] It is a great deal more than probable, that this Decree in Favour of the Jews was in a great Measure owing to Daniel's good Offices. Cyrus, at his first coming to Babylon, after he had taken the City, found him there an old Minister of State, famed for his great Wisdom over all the East, and, in many Things, for a Knowledge superior to the rest of Mankind; and, accordingly, we find, that he not only employed him as such, but, upon the setling of the Government of the whole Empire, made him first Super-intendant, or prime Minister of State, over all the Provinces of it. In this Station of Life, Daniel must have been a Person of great Authority at Court, and highly in the Esteem of his Prince, and therefore, as we find him earnest in his Prayer to God for the Restoration of his People, Dan. ix. we cannot but think, but he would be equally warm in his Intercession for it with the King. To which Purpose, it is not improbable that he might shew him those Prophecies in Isaiah, which speak of him by Name, an hundred and fifty Years before he was born, as a great Prince, and Conqueror, the Ruler of many Nations, and the Restorer of his People, by causing his Temple, and the City of Jerusalem to be re-inhabited. For, that Cyrus had seen those Prophecies, the Thing is plain, not only from the Testimony of Josephus, but from the Recital that is made in the Decree itself, Ver. 2. and, if so, who should be so proper to shew them to him, and to recommend the Accomplishment of them to his Princely Care, as Daniel, who had so great Credit with him, and so passionate a Concern for the Restoration of Sion? See Prideaux's Connect.

All the Vessels of Gold and of Silver, were five thousand and four hundred] And yet in the two preceding Verses, where the Particulars are enumerated, they don't amount to half that Number. Some have therefore thought, that there must be a numerical Error, either in one Place, or the other; whilst others suppose, that, as in 2 Chron. xxxvi. 18. Nebuchadnezzar is said to have carried away all the Vessels, both great and small, in this Detail the larger Vessels only, and such as were of great Value, are mention'd, but that the gross Sum comprehends all, and amounts to the Number specified. Patrick's Com.

CHAP. II.

The Number of the People that returned; and of the Priests; Levites; Singers; Porters; Nethinims; and of Solomon's Servants. Of the Priests that could not shew their Pedigree; the whole Number of them, and their Substance. Their Oblations.

Ver. 1. NOW these are the children of the province that went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city; 2 Which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel. 3 The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two. 4 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. 5 The children of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five. 6 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshuah and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. 7 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. 8 The children of Zattu, nine hundred forty and five. 9 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. 10 The children of Bani, six hundred forty and two. 11 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three. 12 The children of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two. 13 The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and six. 14 The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty and six. 15 The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four. 16 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. 17 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three. 18 The children of Jorah, an hundred and twelve. 19 The children of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three. 20 The children of Gibbar, ninety and five. 21 The children of Beth-lehem, an hundred twenty and three. 22 The men of Netophah, fifty and six. 23 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight. 24 The children of Azmaveth, forty and two. 25 The children of Kirjath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three. 26 The children of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one. 27 The men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two. 28 The men of Beth-el and Ai, two hundred twenty and three. 29 The children of Nebo, fifty and two. 30 The children of Magbish, an hundred fifty and six. 31 The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four. 32 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty. 33 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five. 34 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. 35 The children of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty. 36 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three. 37 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two. 38 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven. 39 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. 40 The Levites: the children of Jeshua, and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy and four. 41 The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred twenty and eight. 42 The children of the porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, all, an hundred thirty and nine. 43 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth, 44 The children of Keros, the children of Siaha, the children of Padon, 45 The children of Lebana, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub, 46 The children of Hagab, the children of Shalmai, the children of Hanan, 47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah, 48 The children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai, 50 The children of Asnah, the children of Mehunim, the children of Nephusim, 51 The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, 52 The children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, 53 The children of

Which came with Zerubbabel] In the Time of the Captivity, it was a common Thing for the great Men of Judah to have two Names; one of their own Country, which was domestick, and another of the Chaldeans, which was used at Court. Zerubbabel was born in Babylon; and his Name, which signifies an Exile, or Stranger in Babylon, imports the Misery of the People of Israel at that Time; but Sheshbazzar, (which was the Babylonish Name) which is a Compound of two Words, signifying fine Linen and Gold, seems to be a Name of a better Omen, and to denote their future more flourishing Condition. Patrick's Com.

The Children of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five] But in Nehem. vii. 10. their Number is only 652. To reconcile this Difference, it must be observed, that 775 marched out of Babylon, or gave in their Names; but some of them died, others changed their Minds, others were hindered by Sickness, or other Casualties, happening to themselves or near Relations; and so there came only 652 to Jerusalem. And the like may be said in the like Differences; which it suffices to hint once for all.

They gave after their Ability, unto the Treasure of the Work, threescore and one thousand Drams of Gold, and five thousand Pound of Silver] Every Dram of Gold is worth ten Shillings of our Money, and every Mina, or Pound of Silver nine Pounds; for it contained sixty Shekels, and every Shekel of Silver is worth three Shillings of our Money. From whence it appears, that the Jews were not made such poor Slaves in Babylon, as wrought for their Lords and Masters, but had some of them very considerable Offices at Court, and all Liberty to Trade, and get Estates for themselves; and, consequently, that there may not be all the Truth imaginable in that common Saying among them, viz. that they were only the Bran, i. e. the Dregs of the People, who returned to Jerusalem, after the End of the Captivity, and that all the fine Flour staid behind at Babylon. See Prideaux's Connect.

CHAP. III.

The Altar set up. The Feast of the Tabernacles kept. Their continual Offerings. Workmen hired. Priests and Levites appointed to forward the Work. The Foundation of the Temple laid, with Joy and Mourning.

Ver. 1. AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together, as one man, to Jerusalem. 2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. 3 And they set the altar upon his bases, (for fear was upon them, because of the people of those countrys) and they offered burnt-offering thereon unto the Lord, even burnt-offerings morning and evening; 4 They kept also the feast of the tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required; 5 And afterward offered the continual burnt-offering, both of the new-moons, and of all the set feasts of the Lord, that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the Lord. 6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord: but the foundation of the temple of the Lord was not yet laid. 7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oyl, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa: according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia. 8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the Lord. 9 Then stood Jeshua, with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons; the sons of Judah together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadab, with their sons and their brethren the Levites. 10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the Lord, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the ſons of Aſaph, with cymbals to praiſe the Lord, after the ordinance of David king of Iſaael. 11 And they ſung together by courſe, in praiſing and giving thanks unto the Lord, becauſe he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Iſrael. And all the people ſhouted with a great ſhout when they praiſed the Lord; becauſe the foundation of the houſe of the Lord was laid. 12 But many of the prieſts and Levites, and chief of the fathers who were ancient men that had ſeen the firſt houſe, when the foundation of this houſe was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many ſhouted aloud for joy: 13 So that the people could not diſcern the noiſe of the ſhout of joy, from the noiſe of the weeping of the people: for the people ſhouted with a loud ſhout, and the noiſe was heard afar off.

But many of the Prieſts and Levites, and chief of the Fathers, who were antient Men, that had ſeen the firſt Houſe, when the Foundation of this Houſe was laid before their Eyes, wept with a loud Voice, and many ſhouted aloud for Joy] It muſt be remembered, that the Reaſon of their Weeping was, not ſo much becauſe it was like to prove far inferior to that of Solomon, as to its outward Structure, but becauſe it was to want thoſe extraordinary Marks of the divine Favour, wherewith the other Temple was honoured. The ſecond Temple was built upon the ſame Foundation as the firſt; and therefore the different Meaſures that we find of them in the Books of Kings and Ezra, are to be underſtood in Reſpect of the different Diſtances, between which the ſaid Meaſures were taken. The twenty Cubits Breadth, which is ſaid of Solomon's Temple, was from the Inſide of the Wall on the one Side, to the Inſide of the Wall on the other; but the ſixty Cubits Breadth of that to be built by Zerubbabel, was the Breadth of the whole Building, from the Inſide of the outer Wall to the other. For beſides the Temple itſelf, which contained the Holy Place, and the Holy of Holies, each twenty Cubits broad, there were thick Walls encloſing it on each Side; and without them, Chambers on each Side, then another Wall; then a Gallery; and then the outer Walls of all, encloſing the whole Building, which in the Decree of Darius, is called the Temple, and might in the Whole (even without the outer Walls of all) amount to threeſcore Cubits. So that the Difference of the ſaid twenty Cubits, is no more than this, — That one is meant of the Temple, ſtrictly ſo called, the other of the Temple with its appertaining Buildings. Both the Temples then, without all Doubt, were of the ſame Dimenſions. But then here was the Difference, which drew Tears from the Eyes of the Elders, that not only the Materials and Ornaments of the ſecond Temple, were even as nothing, in Compariſon of the firſt; but that the Ark of the Covenant, and the Mercy-Seat which was upon it, the Holy Fire upon the Altar, the Urim and Thummim, the Spirit of Prophecy, and the Shechinah, or Divine Preſence, the five great Things for which the former Temple was ſo renowned, were loſt and gone, and never to be recovered to this other.

This was a juſt Matter of Lamentation to thoſe that had ſeen theſe ſingular Tokens of the divine Favour in the former Temple, and a Diſcouragement for their proceeding with the Building of the preſent; and therefore the Prophet Haggai was ſent to inform them, that all theſe Wants and Defects ſhould be abundantly repaired by the Coming of the Meſſiah, the true Schechinah of the divine Majeſty, in the Time of the ſecond Temple. I will ſhake all Nations, and the Deſire of all Nations ſhall come, and I will fill this Houſe with Glory, the Glory of this latter Houſe, ſhall be greater than of the former, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts, Hag. ii. 7, 9.

The Adverſaries, not being accepted in the Building with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it; their falſe and malicious Letter to Artaxerxes, upon whoſe Decree the Building is ſtopped.

Ver. 1. NOW when the adverſaries of Judah and Benjamin, heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Iſrael: 2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and ſaid unto them, Let us build with you; for we ſeek your God, as ye do, and we do ſacrifice unto him, ſince the days of Eſar-haddon king of Aſſur, which brought us up hither. 3 But Zerubbabel and Jeſhua, and the reſt of the chief of the fathers of Iſrael, ſaid unto them, You have nothing to do with us, to build an houſe unto our God, but we our ſelves together will build unto the Lord God of Iſrael, as king Cyrus the king of Perſia hath commanded us. 4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, 5 And hired counſellors againſt them, to fruſtrate their purpoſe, all the days of Cyrus king of Perſia, even until the reign of Darius king of Perſia. 6 And in the reign of Ahaſuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accuſation againſt the inhabitants of Judah and Jeruſalem. 7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Biſhlam, Mithridath, Tabeel, and the reſt of their companions unto Artaxerxes king of Perſia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue. 8 Rehum the chancellour, and Shimſhai the ſcribe, wrote a letter againſt Jeruſalem to Artaxerxes the king in this ſort: 9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellour, and Shimſhai the ſcribe, and the reſt of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharſathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharſites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Suſanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites, 10 And the reſt of the nations whom the great and noble Aſnappar brought over, and ſet in the cities of Samaria, and the reſt that are on this ſide the river, and at ſuch a time. 11 This is the copy of the letter that they ſent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king, Thy ſervants the men on this ſide the river, and at ſuch a time. 12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us, are come unto Jeruſalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have ſet up the walls thereof, and joyned the foundations. 13 Be it known now unto the king, that if this city be builded, and the wall ſet up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and cuſtom, and ſo thou ſhalt endamage the revenue of the kings. 14 Now becauſe we have maintenance from the kings palace, and it was not meet for us to ſee the kings diſhonour: therefore have we ſent and certified the king, 15 That ſearch may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: ſo ſhalt thou find in the book of the records, and know, that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved ſedition within the ſame of old time: for which cauſe was this city deſtroyed. 16 We certifie the king that if city be builded again, and the walls thereof ſet up, by this means thou ſhalt have no portion on this ſide the river. 17 Then ſent the king an anſwer unto Rehum the chancellour, and to Shimſhai the ſcribe, and to the reſt of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the reſt beyond the river, Peace, and at ſuch a time. 18 The letter which ye ſent unto us, hath been plainly read before me. 19 And I commanded, and ſearch hath been made, and it is found, that this city of old time hath made inſurrection againſt kings, and that rebellion and ſedition have been made therein. 20 There have been mighty kings alſo over Jeruſalem, which have ruled over all countrys beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and cuſtom was paid unto them. 21 Give ye now commandment, to cauſe theſe men to ceaſe, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment ſhall be given from me. 22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why ſhould damage grow to the hurt of the kings? 23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum and Shimſhai the ſcribe, and their companions, they went up in haſte to Jeruſalem, unto the Jews, and made them to ceaſe by force and power. 24 Then ceaſed the work of the houſe of God, which is at Jeruſalem. So it ceaſed unto the ſecond year of the reign of Darius king of Perſia.

Let us build with you; for we ſeek your God, as ye] Theſe were Idolaters; for, tho' from the Time ey had been infeſted with Lions, in the Days of Eſar-addon, they had worſhipped the God of Iſrael, yet it as only in Conjunction with their falſe Gods, whom ey worſhipped before; and therefore, notwithſtand-g their Worſhip of the true God, ſince they wor-ipped falſe Gods too at the ſame Time, they were, this Reſpect, Idolaters, which was Reaſon enough r the true Worſhippers of God to have no Communion ith them. See Prideaux's Connect.

And in the Reign of Ahaſuerus] He was, as the earned think, the firſt Prince of that Name, and that ers of the ſucceeding Kings of Perſia took the Name om him; which makes it ſomewhat doubtful who s Prince was. He was either, 1. Xerxes, the fourth d rich King of Perſia, as he is called, Dan. xi. 2. rather, 2. Cambyſes, the Son and Succeſſor of Cyrus, may appear, 1. Becauſe none but he and Smerdis, s known to be no Friend to the Jewiſh Nation or ligion; and therefore it was very improbable that ſe crafty, malicious, and induſtrious Enemies of Jews, would omit ſo great an Opportunity when as put into their Hands.

And in the Days of Artaxerxes] He was either, 1. axerxes the Son of Xerxes; or, 2. Smerdis the Ma-n. Or, 3. The ſame Cambyſes, called by his Chal- Name, Ahaſuerus, Ver. 6. and here by his Perſian me Artaxerxes: By which Name he is here called in Inſcription of this Letter, becauſe ſo he was called himſelf and others, in the Letters written either by or to him.

The great and noble Arſnappar] He was either E-addon, or ſome other Perſon then of great Emi-y, and eſpecially with his Subjects and Followers, was Captain of this Colony, and conducted them er.

e it known unto the King, that the Jews] After Return from the Captivity, the People in general e to be called Jews, becauſe tho' there were many lites among them, yet they chiefly conſiſted of the es of Judah and Benjamin; and tho' the Edict of gave them Permiſſion to return when they pleaſed, he ſacred Writing takes Notice only of thoſe who ned in a Body.

en will they not pay Toll, Tribute, and Cuſtom] By the firſt of theſe, Grotius underſtands that which every Head paid to the King, which we call Poll-money; by the ſecond the Exciſe (as we now call it) that was upon Commodities and Merchandize; and by the laſt, the Land-tax. But Watſius is of Opinion, that the firſt Word rather ſignifies that Part which every Man paid out of his Eſtate, according as it was valued; the ſecond, that which was paid for every Head; and the third, that which was paid upon the High-ways, by every Traveller that went about the Country with any Kind of Merchandize.

So it ceaſed unto the ſecond Year of the Reign of Darius King of Perſia] There are ſome who take the Darius here mentioned, not to be Darius II. who was the Son of Hyſtaſpes, but the Darius who is called Nothus; but then they are preſſed with this Difficulty, which may well be called inſurmountable. For, from the firſt Year of Cyrus, who gave Orders for building of the Temple, to the ſixth Year of Darius Nothus, in which they ſuppoſe that it was finiſhed, there were, at leaſt, one hundred and thirteen Years; according to ſome, an hundred and ſeventeen; and according to others, an hundred and forty two. But now, if all this Time Zerubbabel was in the Government of Judea, and Jeſhua in the High Prieſthood, ſo long an Authority in Church and State was never heard of in any Age before. Nor muſt it be forgotten, what the Prophet Haggai ſuppoſes, viz. That ſome, then alive, remembered the Glory of the firſt Temple, and compared it with the Glory of the ſecond; which, upon the Supoſition, that this was in the ſixth Year of Darius Nothus, will make them, at leaſt, an hundred and fourſcore Years old, a Thing almoſt incredible. And therefore the moſt probable Opinion is, that the Darius here meant, was Darius Hyſtaſpes, whoſe ſecond Year, was the eighteenth, after the firſt of Cyrus.

CHAP. V.

Zerubbabel, being encouraged by Haggai and Zechariah the Prophets, ſets forward the Work. The Adverſaries oppoſe them again. Their Letter to Darius concerning this Matter.

Ver. 1. THEN the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the ſon of Iddo, propheſied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jeruſalem, in the name of the God of Iſrael, even unto them. 2 Then roſe up Zerubbabel the ſon of Shealtiel, and Jeſhua the ſon of Jozadak, and began to build the houſe of God, which is at Jeruſalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them. 3 At the ſame time came to them Tatnai, governour on this ſide the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and ſaid thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this houſe, and to make up this wall? 4 Then ſaid we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building? 5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cauſe him to ceaſe, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned anſwer by letter concerning this matter. 6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governour on this ſide the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharſachites, which were on this ſide the river, ſent unto Darius the king: 7 They ſent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace. 8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the houſe of the great God, which is builded with great ſtones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth faſt on, and proſpereth in their hands.

9 Then

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? 10 We asked their names also, to certifie thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them. 11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded, and set up. 12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. 13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. 14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governour: 15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place. 16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And since that time even until now, hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished. 17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the kings treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so that a decree was made of Cyrus the king, to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

As this Chapter affords nothing that calls for any particular Remark, let us proceed to the next.

CHAP. VI.

Darius answers the Governor's Letter, and makes a new Decree. By the Help of those who had been their Adversaries, and the Directions of the Prophets, the Temple is finished; the Feasts of Dedication, and the Passover are kept.

Ver. 1. THEN Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. 2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written: 3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid, the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits: 4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of the kings house. 5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God. 6 Now therefore Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence: 7 Let the work of this house of God alone, let the governour of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in his place. 8 Moreover, I make a decree, what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: that of the kings goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not hindred. 9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oyl, according to the appointment of the priests, which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail: 10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. 11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon, and let his house be made a dunghil for this. 12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there, destroy all kings and people that shall put to their hand, to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem: I Darius have made a decree, let it be done with speed. 13 Then Tatnai, governour on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily. 14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo; and they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. 15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. 16 And the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God, an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel, 18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. 19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. 20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. 21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the Lord God of Israel, did eat. 22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, with joy: for the Lord had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Chap. 7.

The Height thereof threescore Cubits, and the Breadth thereof threescore Cubits] The Word render'd Breadth, may be, and is by some render'd more generally Extension, or Amplitude, or the Length of it; it being improbable that the King should give Orders about the Breadth, and none about the Length of it.

Let Timber be pulled down from his House, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon] Lud. de Dieu observes, that in the Words which we here render being set up, there is no proper Construction, and therefore he would rather have them translated according to the Septuagint, And standing let him be beat upon it, i. e. whipped, as we say, at a Post, for that was a Punishment among the Persians and other Nations. But if a greater Punishment than this should be here intended, then he makes the first Words refer to the Timber, and the latter to the Man, in this Manner, And from above let it fall upon him, i. e. the Stake being lifted up, shall be struck into his Body, and shall come out at his Fundament, which was a cruel Punishment among the Eastern People.

The Artaxerxes, mentioned Ver. 14. is thought to be either, 1. Xerxes, the Son and Successor of Darius, who was also called Artaxerxes, who is here joined with his Father Darius, possibly because he favoured the Jews, and promoted their Cause with his Father, and took Care to see his Father's Decree executed, and was his Father's Viceroy, if not made Co-Emperor with him in his Life-time, which was not unusual. Or, 2. Artaxerxes Longimanus, the Son of Xerxes, who was best known by the Name of Artaxerxes; who is here joined with Cyrus and Darius, because, tho' the Temple was finished, as to the Substance of the Work, in Darius's Reign, Ver. 15. yet it was afterwards more fully compleated and adorned by Artaxerxes, as is evident from Ch. vii. 20, 27. by whom Nehemiah was sent to Jerusalem, with a large Commission and full Power to take Care about the Building of the City, and all other Things about the Jewish Nation and Religion.

CHAP. VII.

Ezra's Genealogy. The Priests, Levites, and Ezra go up to Jerusalem. The gracious Commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra, who blesses God for his Favour to his People.

Ver. 1. NOW after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, 2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, 3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, 4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, 5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest: 6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the Lord his God upon him. 7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. 8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. 9 For upon the first day of the first month, began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. 10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgment. 11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the Lord, and of his statutes to Israel. 12 Artaxerxes king of kings, Unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time. 13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests, and Levites in my realm, which are minded of their own free-will to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee. 14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven councellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand: 15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellers have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, 16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God, which is in Jerusalem: 17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money, bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat-offerings, and their drink-offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. 18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and gold, that do after the will of your God. 19 The vessels also that are given thee, for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem. 20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the kings treasure-house. 21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily; 22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oyl, and salt without prescribing how much. 23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done, for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? 24 Also we certifie you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom upon them. 25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not. 26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. 27 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the kings heart, to beautifie the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem: 28 And hath extended mercy unto me, before the king, and his counsellers, and before all the kings mighty princes: and I was strengthened as the hand of the Lord my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

And the King granted him all his Requeſt] If we reflect a little on the Eaſe and Indolence, and, in a Manner, total Sequeſtration from all Buſineſs, wherein theſe great Monarchs of the Eaſt were uſed to indulge themſelves, we ſhall find Reaſon to believe, that Artaxerxes knew nothing of the Matter. If he be the ſame who goes under the Name of Ahaſuerus, in the Book of Eſther, he had been impoſed on by Haman, to conſent to a bloody Decree againſt the Jews, with ſo little Thought and Conſideration of what he was about, that he did not ſo much as remember the Perſon at whoſe Inſtigation it was done: And yet, notwithſtanding the great Miſchief which this great Negligence of his might have brought upon him, we find him inſtantly ſinking into the like ſleepy Temper. Eſther viii. 8. Write ye for the Jews (ſays he to Mordecai and Eſther) as it liketh you, in the King's Name, and ſeal it with the King's Ring, and whatſoever is thus wrote and ſealed, no Man may reverſe: And, by Parity of Reaſon, why may we not ſuppoſe, that when Ezra applied to Court for his Commiſſion, the whole Form of drawing it up was referred to him and ſuch other Jews as he thought proper to take into his Counſel: For, write ye, as it liketh you, in the King's Name, might, in one Caſe, as well as in the other, be all the King had to ſay to the Matter. And, indeed, if we look into the Contents of the Commiſſion itſelf, we ſhall ſoon perceive that it muſt have been drawn by ſomething more than an Heathen Hand. For if Ezra himſelf had been to dictate the Words, how could he have expreſſed the Tenor of his Commiſſion more fully than in theſe: Foraſmuch as thou art ſent by the King, and his ſeven Counſellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jeruſalem, according to the Law of thy God, which is in thine Hand? What Jewiſh King could have given more pious Inſtructions than theſe, — And thou Ezra, after the Wiſdom of thy God, ſet Magiſtrates and Judges, ſuch as know the Laws of thy God, and teach ye them that know them not? And where can we find a lively Senſe of God's ſupreme Authority, and of that Regard which is due from the greateſt Kings and Potentates to his Commands, more emphatically expreſſed than here, Whatſoever is commanded by the God of Heaven? O Verba (as Jacobus Capellus, in a Kind of Rapture, cries out) Literis aureis Regum Palatiis inſcribenda, atque ideò ſtylo adamantino fidelium omnium animis inſculpanda! Words fit to be writ on the Palaces of Kings in Letters of Gold, and engraven on the Minds of all the Faithful with a Graver of Adamant!

CHAP. VIII.

Ezra's Companions who returned with him. He ſends to Iddo for Levites. Keeps a Faſt at Ahava. Commits the Treaſures to the Cuſtody of the Prieſts. They come to Jeruſalem. The Commiſſion is delivered to the Adverſaries, who help forward the Work of the Houſe of God.

Ver. 1. THESE are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. 2 Of the ſons of Phinehas; Gerſhom: of the ſons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the ſons of David; Hattuſh. 3 Of the ſons of Shechaniah, of the ſons of Pharoſh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males, an hundred and fifty. 4 Of the ſons of Pahathmoab; Elihoenai the ſon of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males. 5 Of the ſons of Shechaniah; the ſon of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. 6 Of the ſons alſo of Aden; Ebed the ſon of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. 7 And of the ſons of Elam; Jeſhaiah the ſon of Athaliah, and with him ſeventy males. 8 And of the ſons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah, the ſon of Michael, and with him fourſcore males. 9 Of the ſons of Joab; Obadiah the ſon of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. 10 And of the ſons of Shelomith; the ſon of Joſiphiah, and with him an hundred and threeſcore males. 11 And of the ſons of Bebai; Zechariah the ſon of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males. 12 And of the ſons of Azgad; Johanan, the ſon of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males. 13 And of the laſt ſons of Adonikam, whoſe names are theſe, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threeſcore males. 14 Of the ſons alſo of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them ſeventy males. 15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the prieſts, and found there none of the ſons of Levi. 16 Then ſent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meſhullam, chief men; alſo for Joiarib and for Elnathan, men of underſtanding. 17 And I ſent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Caſiphia, and I told them what they ſhould ſay unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims at the place Caſiphia, that they ſhould bring unto us miniſters for the houſe of our God. 18 And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of underſtanding, of the ſons of Mahli, the ſon of Levi, the ſon of Iſrael; and Sherebiah, with his ſons and his brethren, eighteen; 19 And Haſhabiah, and with him Jeſhaiah of the ſons of Merari, his brethren and their ſons, twenty; 20 Alſo of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the ſervice of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expreſſed by name. 21 Then I proclaimed a faſt there, at the river Ahava, that we might afflict ourſelves before our God, to ſeek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our ſubſtance. 22 For I was aſhamed to require of the king a band of ſouldiers and horſemen to help us againſt the enemy in the way: because we had ſpoken unto the king, ſaying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that ſeek him, but his power and his wrath is againſt all them that forſake him. 23 So we faſted and beſought our God for this, and he was entreated of us. 24 Then I ſeparated twelve of the chief of the prieſts, Sherebiah, Haſhabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, 25 And weighed unto them the ſilver, and the gold, and the veſſels, even the offering of the houſe of our God, which the king, and his counſellers, and his lords, and all Iſrael there preſent, had offered: 26 I even weighed unto their hand ſix hundred and fifty talents of ſilver, and ſilver veſſels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents; 27 Alſo twenty baſons of gold, of a thouſand drams, and two veſſels of fine copper, precious as gold. 28 And I ſaid unto them, Ye are holy unto the Lord, the veſſels are holy alſo; and the ſilver and the gold are a free-will offering unto the Lord God of your fathers. 29 Watch ye, and keep them until ye weigh them before the chief of the prieſts, and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Iſrael at Jeruſalem, in the chambers of the houſe of the Lord. 30 So took the prieſts and the Levites, the weight

the ſilver and the gold, and the veſſels to bring them to Jeruſalem unto the houſe of our God. 31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava, on the twelfth day of the firſt month, to go unto Jeruſalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of ſuch as lay in wait by the way. 32 And we came to Jeruſalem, and abode there three days. 33 Now on the fourth day was the ſilver and the gold, and the veſſels weighed in the houſe of our God, by the hand of Meremoth the ſon of Uriah the prieſt, and with him was Eleazar the ſon of Phinehas, and with them was Jozabad the ſon of Jeſhua, and Noadiah the ſon of Binnui, Levites: 34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time. 35 Alſo the children of thoſe that had been carried away which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt-offerings unto the God of Iſrael, twelve bullocks for all Iſrael, ninety and ſix rams, ſeventy and ſeven lambs, twelve he-goats for a ſin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the Lord. 36 And they delivered the kings commiſſions unto the kings lieutenants, and to the govenours on this ſide the river, and they furthered the people, and the houſe of God.

And I gathered them together to the River that runneth to Ahava] It may be render'd the River Ahava, as it is called, Ver. 21, 31. By comparing theſe Places, it ſeems that Ahava was the Name both of the River, and of the Town or Place by which it ran. Either this is that River which others call Adiava, that runs to Aſſyria, which thence is called Adiabene; or ſome other River running into the Euphrates.

At the Place Caſiphia] This Place did not ſtand on the Caſpian Lake, as ſome imagine, from the Similitude of the Names; for that was at too great a Diſtance for Ezra's preſent Purpoſe, but ſome other Place not far from Aheva, where he knew that there was a College, or a conſiderable Company of Levites got together.

CHAP. IX.

Ezra, hearing of the unlawful Marriages of the People with Strangers, mourns for it. He prays, and confeſſes their Sins, eſpecially his own.

Ver. 1. NOW when theſe things were done, the princes came to me, ſaying, The people of Iſrael and the prieſts, and the Levites have not ſeparated themſelves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebuſites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. 2 For they have taken of their daughters for themſelves, and for their ſons: ſo that the holy ſeed have mingled themſelves with the people of thoſe lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers have been chief in this treſpaſs. 3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment, and my mantle, and pluckt off the hair of my head, and of my beard, and ſat down aſtonied. 4 Then were aſſembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Iſrael because of the tranſgreſſion of thoſe that had been carried away, and I ſat aſtonied until the evening ſacrifice. 5 And at the evening ſacrifice I aroſe up from my heavineſs, and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and ſpread out my hands unto the Lord my God, 6 And ſaid, O my God, I am aſhamed and bluſh to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increaſed over our head, and our treſpaſs is grown up unto the heavens. 7 Since the days of our fathers, have we been in a great treſpaſs unto this day, and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our prieſts been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the ſword, to captivity, and to a ſpoil, and to confuſion of face, as it is this day. 8 And now for a little ſpace grace hath been ſhewed from the Lord our God, to leave us a remnant to eſcape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. 9 For we were bond-men, yet our God hath not forſaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the ſight of the kings of Perſia, to give us a reviving to ſet up the houſe of our God, and to repair the deſolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jeruſalem. 10 And now, O our God, what ſhall we ſay after this? for we have forſaken thy commandments, 11 Which thou haſt commanded by thy ſervants the prophets, ſaying, The land unto which ye go to poſſeſs it, is an unclean land with the filthineſs of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another, with their uncleanneſs. 12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their ſons, neither take their daughters unto your ſons, nor ſeek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be ſtrong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. 13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great treſpaſs, ſeeing that thou our God haſt puniſhed us leſs than our iniquities deſerve, and haſt given us ſuch deliverance as this: 14 Should we again break thy commandments, and joyn in affinity with the people of theſe abominations? wouldeſt thou not be angry with us till thou hadſt conſumed us, ſo that there ſhould be no remnant nor eſcaping? 15 O Lord God of Iſrael, thou art righteous, for we remain yet eſcaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our treſpaſſes: for we cannot ſtand before thee, becauſe of this.

The Contents of this Chapter are ſo plain and eaſy to be underſtood, that we ſhall not take up the Reader's Time with uſeleſs Remarks, but proceed to the next.

CHAP. X.

Schecaniah encourages Ezra to reform the ſtrange Marriages. All Iſrael ſwear to do accordingly. Ezra aſſembles the People, and exhorts them; they repent, promiſe Amendment, and perform it. The Names of them that married ſtrange Wives.

Ver. 1. NOW when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confeſſed, weeping and caſting himſelf down before the houſe of God, there aſſembled unto him out of Iſrael, a very great congregation of men and women, and children: for the people wept very ſore. 2 And Shecaniah the ſon of Jehiel, one of the ſons of Elam, anſwered and ſaid unto Ezra, We have treſpaſſed againſt our God, and have taken ſtrange wives, of the people of the land: yet

now there is hope in Iſrael concerning this thing. 3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God, to put away all the wives, and ſuch as are born of them, according to the counſel of my lord, and of thoſe that tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the law: 4 Ariſe: for this matter belongeth unto thee; we alſo will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it. 5 Then aroſe Ezra, and made the chief prieſts, the Levites, and all Iſrael to ſwear, that they ſhould do according to this word: and they ſware. 6 Then Ezra roſe up from before the houſe of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the ſon of Eliaſhib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned becauſe of the tranſgreſſion of them that had been carried away. 7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jeruſalem, unto all the children of the captivity, that they ſhould gather themſelves together unto Jeruſalem; 8 And that whoſoever would not come within three days, according to the counſel of the princes, and the elders, all his ſubſtance ſhould be forfeited, and himſelf ſeparated from the congregation of thoſe that had been carried away. 9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin, gathered themſelves together unto Jeruſalem, within three days: it was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month, and all the people ſat in the ſtreet of the houſe of God, trembling becauſe of this matter, and for the great rain. 10 And Ezra the prieſt ſtood up, and ſaid unto them, Ye have tranſgreſſed, and have taken ſtrange wives to increaſe the treſpaſs of Iſrael. 11 Now therefore make confeſſion unto the Lord God of your fathers, and do his pleaſure: and ſeparate yourſelves from the people of the land, and from the ſtrange wives. 12 Then all the congregation anſwered, and ſaid with a loud voice, As thou haſt ſaid, ſo muſt we do. 13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to ſtand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have tranſgreſſed in this thing. 14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation ſtand, and let all them which have taken ſtrange wives in our cities, come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter, be turned from us. 15 Only Jonathan the ſon of Aſahel, and Jahaziah the ſon of Tikvah, were employed about this matter: and Meſhullam, and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. 16 And the children of the captivity did ſo: and Ezra the prieſt, with certain chief of the fathers, after the houſe of their fathers, and all of them by their names were ſeparated, and ſat down in the firſt day of the tenth month to examine the matter. 17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken ſtrange wives, by the firſt day of the firſt month. 18 And among the ſons of the prieſts, there were found that had taken ſtrange wives; namely, of the ſons of Jeſhua the ſon of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaſeiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah, 19 And they gave their hands, that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their treſpaſs. 20 And of the ſons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah. 21 And of the ſons of Harim; Maaſeiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah. 22 And of the ſons of Paſhur; Elioenai, Maaſeiah, Iſhmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elaſah. 23 Alſo of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (the ſame is Kelita) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. 24 Of the ſingers alſo; Eliaſhib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. 25 Moreover of Iſrael: of the ſons of Paroſh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. 26 And of the ſons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah. 27 And of the ſons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliaſhib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. 28 Of the ſons alſo of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai. 29 And of the ſons of Bani; Meſhullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jaſhub, and Sheal, and Ramoth. 30 And of the ſons of Pahathmoab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaſeiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manaſſeh. 31 And of the ſons of Harim; Eliezer, Iſhijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. 33 Of the ſons of Haſhum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manaſſeh, and Shimei. 34 Of the ſons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel. 35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chellub. 36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliaſhib. 37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaaſau, 38 And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei. 39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, 40 Machnadebai, Shaſhai, Sharai, 41 Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, 42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joſeph. 43 Of the ſons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jedau, and Joel, Benaiah. 44 All theſe had taken ſtrange wives: and ſome of them had wives by whom they had children.

Now therefore let us make a Covenant with our God to put away all the Wives, and ſuch as are born of them] The Jewiſh Law, againſt marrying with Heathens, we read Deut. vii. 1, 2, 3, &c. Here is an expreſs Law, enforced with weighty Reaſons, againſt theſe Pagan Marriages; and therefore, ſince whatever is done contrary to Law, is, ipſo facto, null and void, theſe Marriages with idolatrous Women, which were ſtrictly forbidden by God, were, properly ſpeaking, no Marriages at all; and the Children which proceeded from them, were in no better Condition than thoſe whom we call Baſtards. No Interpoſition of Civil Authority was therefore needful to diſſolve theſe Marriages: The Infidelity of the Party eſpouſed was as much an Interdiction, as any the moſt proximate Degree of Conſanguinity, which by the Laws of all civilized Nations, is known to vacate the Marriage.

And tho' it may ſeem a little hard, that the Children ſhould be included in the Mother's Divorce, yet the Laws of moſt Nations have determined this Point, that Children are to follow the Condition of their Mother, be it what it will, and, conſequently as they are unlawfully born, they muſt of Courſe be alienated from the Family, and at the ſame Time that the Mother is repudiated, and, in Virtue of that very Law which declares the Marriage to be null. So that it was no arbitrary Act in Ezra to abdicate the Children as well as the Mother, tho' to prevent their corrupting the other Children of the Family (if they were allowed to ſtay) and of inſinuating themſelves ſo far into their Father's Affections, as to prevail with them in Time to recal their ejected Wives, might be Motive enough to a prudent Ruler (conſidering the then Situation of Affairs) to put the Law rigidly in Execution. As this, however, was an Act of the Government, wherein Ezra and other Men, who feared the Lord, were concerned, we may reasonably presume, that some Provision was made for the Maintenance, and perhaps the Education of the poor Children, in the Principles of the Jewish Religion, at the publick Charge.

Who the Author of the six first Chapters of Ezra was, is a Matter of some Uncertainty, tho' it is generally agreed, that the same Hand which composed the two Books of Chronicles, was concern'd in writing that Part of Ezra, because the Chronicles concludes with the same Words, wherewith the History begins, which, in antient Authors, to connect the Thread of the Discourse (as Grotius observes) is no unusual Thing. The Jewish Doctors indeed are chiefly of Opinion, that these Chronicles were written by Ezra: But this can hardly be, because the Author, whoever he was, continues the Genealogy of Zerubbabel to the twelfth Generation, which is lower than Ezra lived. Nor can Ezra be the Author of the six first Chapters of the Book which bears his Name, because the Person who wrote it, is said to have been at Jerusalem in the Time of Darius Hystaspes; whereas he did not go thither until the Reign of Artaxerxes. It is most likely therefore, that Ezra, upon his Coming to Jerusalem, might meet with certain Annals, or Memoirs, kept of the several Transactions that had happened, since the Time of the People's Return from Captivity, and that, to these, (after he had made an Extract of such as were true and authentick) he added a farther Continuation of the History of his own Government. For, that the four last Chapters of the Book were of his own composing, is evident from this Testimony. And at Evening Sacrifice, I arose up from my Heaviness, and having rent my Garment, and my Mantle, I fell upon my Knees, I spread my Hands unto the Lord, Ch. ix. 5. Then follows the Prayer which he made, and immediately it is subjoined, Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, and cast him down before the House of God: Which plainly shews, that he was the Author of that Part of the Book, which speaks of himself in the first Person.

AN EXPOSITION OF The Book of NEHEMIAH.

The ARGUMENT.

Nehemiah, the Author and Penman of this Book, was a Courtier in the Court of Artaxerxes, t*ſecond King of* Perſia, *and his Cup-bearer. This good Man having underſtood the lamentable Cond*tion of his own Nation, as alſo the ruinous State of the City Walls and Gates of Jeruſalem, w*greatly affected therewith; and in Conſideration thereof, humbled himſelf before God by Faſting a*Prayer. Not long after, God ſo ordering it in his Providence, he obtained Leave of the King to Jeruſalem, in Quality of his Lord Lieutenant of the Holy Land, *and Governor of the City, a particular Charge and Commiſſion to reſide there for ſome Time, and to rebuild the City and Temp*giving him full Power *to ſettle and regulate all Things, according to the Wiſdom of God vouchſaf*to him. All which Nehemiah *accordingly performed, being inſpired by an extraordinary Zeal f*the Glory of God, *prudently and religiouſly, and with great Conſtancy and Reſolution, overcoming t*many Difficulties *that were caſt in his Way, as well by Enemies from abroad, as falſe Brethren a*Hypocrites *from within. This Book bears the Name of Nehemiah, *partly, becauſe it contains the Hiſtory of Matters which h*pen'd in Judea, *during the Time of his Government; and, partly, becauſe he was the P*thereof, as it clearly appears from ſeveral Paſſages in this Book, writ under the Conduct, and by Inſpiration *of the Spirit of God. CHAP. I.

Ver. 1. THE words of Nehemiah the ſon of Hachaliah. And it came to paſs in the month Chiſleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shuſhan the palace, 2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah, and I aſked them concerning the Jews that had eſcaped, which were left of the captivity and concerning Jeruſalem. 3 And they ſaid unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jeruſalem alſo is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire. 4 And it came to paſs when I heard theſe words, that I ſat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and faſted, and prayed before the God of heaven, 5 And ſaid, I beſeech thee, O Lord God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and obſerve commandments: 6 Let thine ear now be att tive, and thine eyes open that thou mayeſt h the prayer of thy ſervant, which I pray be thee now, day and night, for the children Iſrael thy ſervant, and confeſs the ſins of children of Iſrael, which we have ſinned ag thee: both I, and my fathers houſe have ſin 7 We have dealt very corruptly againſt t and have not kept the commandments nor ſtatutes nor the judgments which thou comm edſt thy ſervant Moſes. 8 Remember, I be thee, the word that thou commandedſt ſervant Moſes, ſaying, If ye tranſgreſs, I ſcatter you abroad among the nations: if ye turn unto me, and keep my comm ments, and do them; though there were you caſt out unto the uttermoſt part of the yet will I gather them from thence, a bring them unto the place that I have cho ſet my name there. 10 Now theſe are th vants and thy people, whom thou haſt red by thy great power, and by thy ſtrong hand. 11 O Lord, I beſeech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy ſervant, and to the prayer of thy ſervants, who deſire to fear thy name: and proſper, I pray thee, thy ſervant this day, and grant him mercy in the ſight of this man. For I was the kings cup-bearer.

The Words of Nehemiah] It may well be queſtioned, whether this Nehemiah be the ſame that is mentioned in Ezra, (Ch. ii. 2. and Nehem. vii. 7.) as one that returned from the Babyloniſh Captivity under Zerubbabel; ſince from the firſt Year of Cyrus, to the twentieth of Artaxerxes Longimanus, there are no leſs than ninety-two Years intervening; ſo that Nehemiah muſt, at this Time, have been a very old Man; upon the loweſt Computation, above an hundred, and, conſequently, utterly incapable of being the King's Cup-bearer, of taking a Journey from Shuſhan to Jeruſalem, and behaving there with all the Courage and Activity that is recorded of him. Upon this Preſumption therefore, we may conclude, that this was a different Perſon, tho' of the ſame Name; and that Tirſhatha, (the other Name by which he is called, Ezra ii. 63. and Nehem. vii. 65.) ſignifies the Title of his Office, and both in the Perſian and Chaldean Tongues, was the general Name given to all the King's Governors and Deputies. See Le Clerc's and Pool's Annot.

The Wall of Jeruſalem alſo is broken down] The Commiſſions, which had hitherto been granted to the Jews, were ſuppoſed to extend no farther than to the Re-building of the Temple, and their own private Houſes; and therefore the Walls and Gates of their City lay in the ſame ruinous Condition, in which the Chaldeans left them, after that Devaſtation. See Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

CHAP. II.

Artaxerxes being informed of the Cauſe of Nehemiah's Sadneſs, ſends him with Letters and a Commiſſion to repair the Walls and Gates of Jeruſalem.

Ver. 1. AND it came to paſs in the month Niſan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him; and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime ſad in his preſence. 2 Wherefore the king ſaid unto me, Why is thy countenance ſad, ſeeing thou art not ſick? this is nothing elſe but ſorrow of heart. Then I was very ſore afraid, 3 And ſaid unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why ſhould not my countenance be ſad, when the city, the place of my fathers ſepulchres, lieth waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fire? 4 Then the king ſaid unto me, For what doſt thou make requeſt? So I prayed to the God of heaven. 5 And I ſaid unto the king, If it pleaſe the king, and if thy ſervant have found favour in thy ſight, that thou wouldeſt ſend me unto Judah unto the city of my fathers ſepulchres, that I may build it, 6 And the king ſaid unto me, (the queen alſo ſitting by him) For how long ſhall thy journey be; and when wilt thou return? So it pleaſed the king to ſend me, and I ſet him a time. 7 Moreover, I ſaid unto the king, If it pleaſe the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah; 8 And a letter unto Aſaph the keeper of the kings foreſt, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the houſe, and for the wall of the city, and for the houſe that I ſhall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. 9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the kings letters. (Now the king had ſent captains of the army, and horſemen with me) 10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the ſervant the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to ſeek the welfare of the children of Iſrael. 11 So I came to Jeruſalem, and was there three days. 12 And I aroſe in the night, I and ſome few men with me, neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jeruſalem: neither was there any beaſt with me, ſave the beaſt that I rode upon. 13 And I went out by night, by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jeruſalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were conſumed with fire. 14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the kings pool: but there was no place for the beaſt that was under me to paſs. 15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entred by the gate of the valley, and ſo returned. 16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the prieſts, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the reſt that did the work. 17 Then ſaid I unto them, Ye ſee the diſtreſs that we are in, how Jeruſalem lieth waſte, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jeruſalem, that we be no more a reproach. 18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as alſo the kings words that he had ſpoken unto me. And they ſaid, Let us riſe up and build. So they ſtrengthened their hands for this good work. 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the ſervant the Ammonite, and Geſhem the Arabian heard it, they laughed us to ſcorn, and deſpiſed us, and ſaid, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel againſt the king? 20 Then anſwered I them, and ſaid unto them, The God of heaven, he will proſper us; therefore we his ſervants will ariſe and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial in Jeruſalem.

And I took up the Wine and gave it unto the King] The King's Cup-bearer was a Place of great Honour and Profit in the Perſian Court, becauſe of the Privilege which it gave him, that was in it, of being daily in the King's Preſence, and the Opportunity which he had thereby, of gaining his Favour, for the obtaining of any Petition that he ſhould make to him. And that it was a Place of great Advantage, ſeems evident by Nehemiah's gaining thoſe immenſe Riches, which enabled him, for ſo many Years, Neh. v. 14, 19. out of his own private Purſe only, to live in his Government, with all that Splendor and Expence (hereafter related) without burthening the People at all for it. See Prideaux's Connect.

If it pleaſe the King — that thou wouldeſt ſend me unto Judah] Commentators have generally obſerved, that it was about four Months between his hearing of the diſconſolate Condition wherein Jeruſalem lay, and his requeſting Leave of the King to go thither. But (beſides that it might not come to his own Turn of waiting ſooner) there might be theſe farther Reaſons aſſigned for this his long Silence and Delay: As, that he could not undertake ſo long and dangerous a Journey in in the Winter; that he could no ſooner meet with a ſeaſonable Opportunity of ſpeaking with the King upon ſo critical an Affair; or (as others will have it) that he retired all this intermediate while, and ſpent it in Faſting and Prayer. Pool's Ann. and Patrick's Com.

So it pleaſed the King to ſend me, and I ſet him a Time] How long this was, it is not certain. It is ſaid indeed, that he was Governor in the Land of Judah for twelve Years, Ch. v. 14. and xiii. 6. But conſidering what Haſte he made in diſpatching the Building of the Walls, which he finiſhed in two and fifty Days, the Leave which he aſked might be but for a Year, or perhaps half ſo much; after which Time it is likely, that he returned to Shuſhan according to his Promiſe; but ſome Time after was ſent back again by the King, (who found his Preſence there ſerviceable, or perhaps neceſſary, for the better Regulation of that Province) to be his Governor for twelve Years. See Patrick's Com.

CHAP. III.

The Names and Order of them that built the Walls.

Ver. 1. THEN Eliaſhib the high prieſt roſe up with his brethren the prieſts, and they built the ſheep-gate, they ſanctified it, and ſet up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah, they ſanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel. 2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho: and next to them builded Zaccur the ſon of Imri. 3 But the fiſh-gate did the ſons of Haſſenaah build, who alſo laid the beams thereof, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. 4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the ſon of Urijah, the ſon of Koz: and next unto them repaired Meſhullum the ſon of Berechiah, the ſon of Meſhezabeel: and next unto them repaired Zadok the ſon of Baana. 5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord. 6 Moreover, the old gate repaired Jehoiada the ſon of Paſeah, and Meſhullam the ſon of Beſodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and ſet up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. 7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Merothonite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this ſide the river. 8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the ſon of Harhaiah, of the gold-ſmiths: next unto him alſo repaired Hananiah, the ſon of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jeruſalem unto the broad wall. 9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the ſon of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jeruſalem. 10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the ſon of Harumaph, even over againſt his houſe: and next unto him repaired Hattuſh the ſon of Haſhabnia. 11 Malchijah the ſon of Harim, and Haſhub the ſon of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces. 12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the ſon of Halohеſh, the ruler of the half part of Jeruſalem, he and his daughters. 13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thouſand cubits on the wall unto the dung-gate. 14 But the dung-gate repaired Malchiah the ſon of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem: he built it, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. 15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the ſon of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and ſet up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the kings garden, and unto the ſtairs that go down from the city of David. 16 After him repaired Nehemiah the ſon of Azbuk the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over againſt the ſepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the houſe of the mighty. 17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the ſon of Bani: next unto him repaired Haſhabiah the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part. 18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the ſon of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah. 19 And next to him repaired Ezer the ſon of Jeſhua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over againſt the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall. 20 After him Baruch the ſon of Zabbai, earneſtly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the houſe of Eliaſhib the high prieſt. 21 After him repaired Meremoth the ſon of Urijah, the ſon of Koz, another piece, from the door of the houſe of Eliaſhib, even to the end of the houſe of Eliaſhib. 22 And after him repaired the prieſts, the men of the plain, 23 After him repaired Benjamin and Haſhub, over againſt their houſe. after him repaired Azariah the ſon of Maaſeiah the ſon of Ananiah, by his houſe. 24 After him repaired Bennui the ſon of Henadad, another piece from the houſe of Azariah, unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner. 25 Palal the ſon of Uzai, over againſt the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the kings high houſe, that was by the court of the priſon: after him, Pedaiah the ſon of Parosh. 26 Moreover, the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel unto the place over againſt the water-gate toward the eaſt, and the tower that lieth out. 27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over againſt the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel. 28 From above the horſe gate repaired the prieſts, every one over againſt his houſe. 29 After them repaired Zadok the ſon of Immer, over againſt his houſe: after him repaired alſo Shemaiah, the ſon of Shechaniah the keeper of the eaſt-gate. 30 After him repaired Hananiah the ſon of Shelemiah, and Hanun the ſixth ſon of Zalaph, another piece after him repaired Meſhullam the ſon of Berechiah, over againſt his chamber. 31 After him repaired Malchiah, the gold-ſmiths ſon, unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants over againſt the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner. 32 And between the going up of the corner unto the ſheep-gate, repaired the gold-ſmiths and the merchants.

Every Thing in this Chapter is ſo plain and eaſy that nothing wants Explanation.

CHAP. IV.

Sanballat is angry with the Jews, and mocks their Works. He and others confederate together to demoliſh the Works, and put the People to the Sword. Nehemiah prays, and takes Meaſures to defeat their Deſigns.

Ver. 1. BUT it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. 2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortifie themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish, which are burnt? 3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. 4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: 5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders. 6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work. 7 But it came to pass that when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, 8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. 9 Nevertheless, we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. 10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall. 11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. 12 And it came to pass that when the Jews which dwelt by them, came, they said unto us ten times, From all places, whence ye shall return unto us, they will be upon you. 13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. 14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses. 15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. 16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. 17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. 18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded: and he that sounded the trumpet was by me. 19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. 20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. 21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning, till the stars appeared. 22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. 23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

As there is nothing in this Chapter that wants Explanation, we shall proceed to the next.

CHAP. V.

Various Complaints of the poorer Sort against their rich Brethren for their heavy Oppressions. Nehemiah's Regulations hereupon. He supports, by his own private Purse, his Dignity as Governor.

Ver. 1. AND there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the Jews. 2 For there were that said, We, our sons and our daughters are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat and live. 3 Some also there were that said, We have morgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. 4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the kings tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards. 5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters, to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them: for other men have our lands and vineyards. 6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry, and these words. 7 Then I consulted with myself, and rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, you exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. 8 And I said unto them, We, after our ability, have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer. 9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do; ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? 10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you let us leave off this usury. 11 Restore, I pray you to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oyl, that ye exact of them. 12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. 13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied.

And all the congregation ſaid, Amen, and praiſed the Lord. And the people did according to this promiſe. 14 Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governour in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year, even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. 15 But the former governors that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beſides forty ſhekels of ſilver, yea, even their ſervants bare rule over the people: but ſo did not I, becauſe of the fear of God. 16 Yea, alſo I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my ſervants were gathered thither unto the work. 17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beſides thoſe that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us. 18 Now that which was prepared for me daily, was one ox and ſix choice ſheep; alſo fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days, ſtore of all ſorts of wine; yet for all this required not I the bread of the governour, becauſe the bondage was heavy upon this people. 19 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

You exact Uſury, every one of his Brother] This Uſury was the more grievous, becauſe it was not only contrary to the Law, and demanded at a Time when they were hard at Work, and their Enemies threatning to deſtroy them all; but (as ſome have obſerv'd) that the twentieth of Abaſuerus (wherein this was done) began about the End of a Sabbatical Year, after the Law, which forbad every Creature to exact any Debt of his Neighbour, or his Brother, Deut. xv. 2. had been ſo frequently read. This rais'd the Cry of the Poor to a greater Height, having been forc'd to ſell their Children, and depriv'd now of all Power of redeeming them, becauſe their Lands were mortgaged to theſe Oppreſſors. Patrick's Com.

Yet for all this required not I the Bread of the Governor] For this great and daily Expence, it ſeems moſt probable, either that Nehemiah had large Remittances from the Perſian Court (even beſides his own Eſtate) to anſwer it; or that he did not continue at Jeruſalem for the whole twelve Years together; or that, if he did, that he did not continue this expenſive Way of Houſe-keeping all the Time, but only during the great and preſent Exigences and Diſtreſſes of the Jews, which ceas'd in a good Meaſure, after that the Walls were built, the Act againſt Uſury paſs'd, and the People diſcharg'd to their ordinary Courſe of maintaining themſelves and Families. Poole's Annot. and Le Clerc's Com.

CHAP. VI.

Sanballat's fruitleſs Endeavours to terrify Nehemiah. The Wall is finiſhed. A Correſpondence is carried on betwixt the Nobles of Judah and Tobiah.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geſhem the Arabian, and the reſt of our enemies heard that I had builded the wall, and that there were no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not ſet up the doors upon the gates) 2 That Sanballat and Geſhem ſent unto me, ſaying, Come, let us meet together in ſome one of the villages in the plain of Ono: but they thought to do me miſchief. 3 And I ſent meſſengers unto them, ſaying, I am doing a great work, ſo that I cannot come down: why ſhould the work ceaſe, whilſt I leave it and come down to you? 4 Yet they ſent unto me four times after this ſort; and I anſwered them after the ſame manner. 5 Then ſent Sanballat his ſervant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand: 6 Wherein was written; It is reported among the heathen, and Gaſhmu ſaith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cauſe thou buildeſt the wall, that thou mayeſt be their king, according to theſe words. 7 And thou haſt alſo appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jeruſalem, ſaying, There is a king in Judah: and now ſhall it be reported to the king, according to theſe words. Come now therefore, and let us take counſel together. 8 Then I ſent unto him, ſaying, There are no ſuch things done as thou ſayeſt, but thou feigneſt them out of thine own heart. 9 For they all made us afraid ſaying, Their hand ſhall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, ſtrengthen my hands. 10 Afterward I came unto the houſe of Shemaiah the ſon of Delaiah, the ſon of Mehetabeel, who was ſhut up; and he ſaid, Let us meet together in the houſe of God, within the temple, and let us ſhut the doors of the temple; for they will come to ſlay thee, yea, in the night will they come to ſlay thee. 11 And I ſaid, Should ſuch a man as I flee? and who is there that being as I am, would go into the temple to ſave his life? I will not go in. 12 And lo, I perceived that God had not ſent him, but that he pronouced this prophecy againſt me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13 Therefore was he hired, that I ſhould be afraid, and do ſo, and ſin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. 14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat, according to theſe their works, and on the propheteſs Noadiah, and the reſt of the prophets, that would have put me in fear. 15 So the wall was finiſhed, in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. 16 And it came to paſs that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about ſaw theſe things, they were much caſt down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. 17 Moreover in thoſe days the nobles of Judah ſent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. 18 For there were many in Judah ſworn unto him, becauſe he was the ſon in-law of Shecaniah the ſon of Arah; and his ſon Johanan had taken the daughter of Meſhullam, the ſon of Berechiah. 19 Alſo they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him: and Tobiah ſent letters to put me in fear.

Should ſuch a Man as I flee] Theſe Words of Nehemiah, are very ſignificant, as well as magnanimous. ‘ I, the chief Governor, upon whoſe Preſence, ‘ Counſel, and Conduct, the very Life and Being ‘ the whole City and Nation, in a great Meaſure ‘ pend: I, who have profeſſed ſuch Reſolution, C ‘ rage, and Confidence in God: I, who have ‘ ſuch eminent Experience of God's gracious ‘ powerful Aſſiſtances, of his calling me to this Imp ‘ ment, and carrying me through it, when the D ‘ ger was greater than now; ſhall I diſhonour G

'and Religion, and betray the People and City of
'God by my Cowardice? God forbid!'

CHAP. VII.

Nehemiah commits the Charge of Jeruſalem to Hanani and Hananiah. Regiſter of the Genealogy of thoſe that returned from the Captivity at the firſt; of the People; of the Prieſts; of the Levites; of the Nethinims, &c.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs when the wall was built, and I had ſet up the doors, and the porters, and the ſingers and the Levites were appointed, 2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jeruſalem: (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many) 3 And I ſaid unto them, Let not the gates of Jeruſalem be opened, until the ſun be hot; and while they ſtand by, let them ſhut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over againſt his houſe. 4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houſes were not builded. 5 And my God put into mine heart, to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy: and I found a regiſter of the genealogy of them: which came up at the firſt, and found written therein, 6 Theſe are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of thoſe that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jeruſalem, and to Judah, every one unto his city? 7 Who came with Zerubbabel: Jeſhua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilſhan, Miſpereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah; the number, I ſay, of the men of the people of Iſrael, was this; 8 The children of Paroſh, two thouſand an hundred ſeventy and two. 9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred ſeventy and two. 10 The children of Arah, ſix hundred fifty and two. 11 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeſhua and Joab, two thouſand and eight hundred and eighteen. 12 The children of Elam, a thouſand two hundred fifty and four. 13 The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five. 14 The children of Zaccai, ſeven hundred and threeſcore. 15 The children of Binnui, ſix hundred forty and eight. 16 The children of Bebai, ſix hundred twenty and eight. 17 The children of Azgad, two thouſand three hundred twenty and two. 18 The children of Adonikam, ſix hundred threeſcore and ſeven. 19 The children of Bigvai, two thouſand threeſcore and ſeven. 20 The children of Adin, ſix hundred fifty and five. 21 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. 22 The children of Haſhum, three hundred twenty and eight. 23 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four. 24 The children of Hariph, an hundred and twelve. 25 The children of Gibeon, ninety and five. 26 The men of Beth-lehem and Netophah, an hundred fourſcore and eight. 27 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty and eight. 28 The men of Beth-azmaveth, forty and two. 29 The men of Kirjath-jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, ſeven hundred forty and three. 30 The men of Ramah and Gaba, ſix hundred twenty and one. 31 The men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and two. 32 The men of Bethel, And Ai, an hundred twenty and three. 33 The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two. 34 The children of the other Elam, a thouſand two hundred fifty and four. 35 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty. 36 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five. 37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, ſeven hundred twenty and one. 38 The children of Senaah, three thouſand nine hundred and thirty. 39 The prieſts: the children of Jedaiah, of the houſe of Jeſhua, nine hundred ſeventy and three. 40 The children of Immer, a thouſand fifty and two. 41 The children of Paſhur, a thouſand two hundred forty and ſeven, 42 The children of Harim, a thouſand and ſeventeen. 43 The Levites: the children of Jeſhua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of Hodevah, ſeventy and four. 44 The ſingers: the children of Aſaph, an hundred forty and eight. 45 The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, an hundred thirty and eight. 46 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Haſhupha, the children of Tabaoth, 47 The children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon, 48 The children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Shalmai, 49 The children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, 50 The children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, 51 The children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Phaſeah, 52 The children of Beſai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephiſheſim, 53 The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, 54 The children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harſha, 55 The children of Barkos, the children of Siſera, the children of Tamah, 56 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha. 57 The children of Solomons ſervants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, 58 The children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel. 59 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon. 60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomons ſervants, were three hundred ninety and two. 61 And theſe were they which went up alſo from Telme-lah, Telhareſha, Cherub, Addon and Immer: but they could not ſhew their fathers houſe nor their ſeed, whether they were of Iſrael. 62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, ſix hundred forty and two. 63 And of the prieſts: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. 64 Theſe ſought their regiſter among thoſe that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the prieſthood. 65 And the Tirſhatha ſaid unto them, that they ſhould not eat of the moſt holy things, till there ſtood up a prieſt with Urim and Thummim. 66 The whole congregation together, was forty and two thouſand thouſand three hundred and threeſcore, 67 Beſide their man-ſervants and their maid-ſervants, of whom there were ſeven thouſand three hundred thirty and ſeven: and they had two hundred forty and five ſinging-men and ſinging-women. 68 Their horſes, ſeven hundred thirty and ſix: their mules, two hundred forty and five: 69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: ſix thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty aſſes. 70 And ſome of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work: the Tirſhatha gave to the treaſure, a thouſand drams of gold, fifty baſons, five hundred and thirty prieſts garments. 71 And ſome of the chief of the fathers gave to the treaſure of the work, twenty thouſand drams of gold, and two thouſand and two hundred pound of ſilver. 72 And that which the reſt of the people gave, was twenty thouſand drams of gold, and two thouſand pound of ſilver, and threeſcore and ſeven prieſts garments. 73 So the prieſts, and the Levites, and the porters, and the ſingers, and ſome of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Iſrael, dwelt in their cities; and when the ſeventh month came, the children of Iſrael were in their cities.

That I gave my Brother Hanani, and Hanani the Ruler of the Palace, Charge over Jeruſalem.] Nehemiah, very likely, was now returning to Shuſhan, to give the King an Account of the State of Affairs in Judea; and therefore he took Care to place ſuch Men in the City, as he knew would faithfully ſecure it in his Abſence. Hanani is ſaid to be his Brother; but he choſe his Officers, not out of partial Views to his own Kindred, but becauſe he knew that they would acquit themſelves in their Employment with a ſtrict Fidelity. Hanani had given Proof of his Zeal for God and his Country, in his taking a tedious Journey from Jeruſalem to Shuſhan, to inform Nehemiah of the ſad Eſtate of Jeruſalem, and to implore his helping Hand to relieve it, Ch. i. And the Reaſon why Nehemiah put ſuch Truſt and Confidence in Hananiah, was, becauſe he was a Man of Conſcience, and acted upon religious Principles, which would keep him from thoſe Temptations to Perfidiouſneſs, which he might probably meet with in his Abſence, and againſt which, a Man, deſtitute of the Fear of God, has no ſufficient Fence. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

The religious Manner of reading and hearing the Law.

Ver. 1. AND all the people gathered themſelves together as one man, into the ſtreet that was before the water-gate, and they ſpake unto Ezra the ſcribe, to bring the book of the law of Moſes, which the Lord had commanded to Iſrael. 2 And Ezra the prieſt brought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could hear with underſtanding, upon the firſt day of the ſeventh month. 3 And he read therein before the ſtreet that was before the water-gate, from the morning until midday, before the men and the women and thoſe that could underſtand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. 4 And Ezra the ſcribe ſtood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpoſe, and beſide him ſtood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaſeiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Miſhael, and Malchiah, and Haſhum, and Haſhbadana, Zechariah, and Meſhullam. 5 And Ezra opened the book in the ſight of all the people, (for he was above all the people) and when he opened it, all the people ſtood up: 6 And Ezra bleſſed the Lord the great God: and all the people anſwered, Amen, amen, with lifting up their hands: And they bowed their heads, and worſhipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. 7 Alſo Jeſhua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaſeiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites caufed the people to underſtand the law: and the people ſtood in their place. 8 So they read in the book in the law of God diſtinctly, and gave the ſenſe, and cauſed them to underſtand the reading. 9 And Nehemiah which is the Tirſhatha, and Ezra the prieſt, the ſcribe, and the Levites that taught the people, ſaid unto all the people, This day is holy unto the Lord your God, mourn not nor weep: for all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10 Then he ſaid unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the ſweet, and ſend portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be you ſorry, for the joy of the Lord is your ſtrength. 11 So the Levites ſtilled all the people, ſaying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy, neither be ye grieved. 12 And all the people went their way to eat and to drink, and to ſend portions, and to make great mirth, becauſe they had underſtood the words that were declared unto them. 13 And on the ſecond day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the prieſts and the Levites, unto Ezra the ſcribe, even to underſtand the words of the law. 14 And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moſes, that the children of Iſrael ſhould dwell in booths, in the feaſt of the ſeventh month: 15 And that they ſhould publiſh and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jeruſalem, ſaying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. 16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themſelves booths, every one upon the roof of his houſe, and in their courts, and in the courts of the houſe of God, and in the ſtreets of the water-gate, and in the ſtreet of the gate of Ephraim. 17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity, made booths, and ſat under the booths: for ſince the days of Jeſhua the ſon of Nun, unto that day, had not the children of Iſrael done ſo: and there was very great gladneſs. 18 Alſo day by day, from the firſt day unto the laſt day, he read in the book of the law of God: and they kept the feaſt ſeven days, and on the eighth day was a ſolemn aſſembly, according unto the manner.

And they ſpake unto Ezra the Scribe] This Ezra, without all Controverſy, was the ſame Ezra who came from Babylon, in the ſeventh of Artaxerxes, with a Commiſſion to Jeruſalem, to aſſiſt Zerubbabel in the Reformation of the whole State of the Jewiſh Church. After the Death of Zerubbabel, the whole Adminiſtration devolved upon him; but as his Commiſſion [illegible] but for twelve Years, upon its Expiration, Nehemiah ſucceeded ſucceeded to the Government, and we hear no more of Ezra, until he is here called upon to read and expound the Law to the People; whether (as ſome think) he returned to Babylon, to give the People an Account of Affairs in the Province of Judea, or whether, in this intermediate Time, he employed himſelf (in ſome Retirement) in the great Work of preparing a new and current Edition of the Holy Scriptures. See Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

And Ezra the Scribe ſtood upon a Pulpit of Wood] This Pulpit was to raiſe him up higher than the People, the better to be ſeen and heard by them; but we are not to think, that it was made in the Faſhion of ours, which will hold no more than one Perſon, for (as we may obſerve by the very next Words) it was made large, and long enough to contain fourteen People at once. See Patrick's Com.

Since the Days of Joſhua, the Son of Nun, unto that Day, had not the Children of Iſrael done ſo] But it can hardly be thought, ſays Patrick, that this Feſtival had never been obſerved ſince Joſhua's Time; becauſe we read in the foregoing Book of Ezra, that it was kept at their Return from Babylon; but the Meaning is, that the Joy, ſince that Time, had never been ſo great, as it was upon this Occaſion; for which the Jews themſelves aſſign this Reaſon, viz. That in the Days of Joſhua, they rejoiced, becauſe they had got Poſſeſſion of the Land of Canaan, and now they equally rejoiced, becauſe they were reſtored, and quietly ſetled in it, after they had been long caſt out of it.

CHAP. IX.

A ſolemn Faſt; the People repent, and confeſs their Sins. The Levites acknowledge God's Goodneſs, and their own Wickedneſs.

Ver. 1. NOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month, the children of Iſrael were aſſembled with faſting, and with ſackcloths, and earth upon them. 2 And the ſeed of Iſrael ſeparated themſelves from all ſtrangers, and ſtood and confeſſed their ſins, and the iniquities of their fathers. 3 And they ſtood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God, one fourth part of the day, and another fourth part they confeſſed, and worſhipped the Lord their God. 4 Then ſtood up upon the ſtairs of the Levites, Jeſhua and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the Lord their God. 5 Then the Levites, Jeſhua and Kadmiel, Bani, Haſhabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, ſaid, Stand up and bleſs the Lord your God for ever and ever; and bleſſed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all bleſſing and praiſe. 6 Thou, even thou art Lord alone, thou haſt made heaven, the heaven of heavens with all their hoſt, the earth and all things that are therein, the ſeas and all that is therein, and thou preſerveſt them all, and the hoſt of heaven worſhippeth thee. 7 Thou art the Lord the God, who didſt chooſe Abram, and broughteſt him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gaveſt him the name of Abraham: 8 And foundeſt his heart faithful before thee, and madeſt a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebuſites, and the Girgaſhites, to give it, I ſay, to his ſeed, and haſt performed thy words, for thou art righteous: 9 And didſt ſee the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardeſt their cry by the Red ſea: 10 And ſhewedſt ſigns and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his ſervants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knoweſt that they dealt proudly againſt them: ſo didſt thou get thee a name, as it is this day. 11 And thou didſt divide the ſea before them, ſo that they went through the midſt of the ſea on the dry land, and their perſecutors thou threweſt into the deeps, as a ſtone into the mighty waters. 12 Moreover, thou leddeſt them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they ſhould go. 13 Thou cameſt down alſo upon mount Sinai, and ſpakeſt with them from heaven, and gaveſt them right judgments, and true laws, good ſtatutes and commandments: 14 And madeſt known unto them thy holy ſabbath, and commandeſt them precepts, ſtatutes and laws, by the hand of Moſes thy ſervant: 15 And gaveſt them bread from heaven, for their hunger, and broughteſt forth water for them out of the rock, for their thirſt, and promiſedſt them that they ſhould go in to poſſeſs the land, which thou hadſt ſworn to give them. 16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refuſed to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didſt among them: but hardned their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain, to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, ſlow to anger, and of great kindneſs, and forſookeſt them not. 18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and ſaid, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations: 19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies, forſookeſt them not in the wilderneſs: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to ſhew them light, and the way wherein they ſhould go. 20 Thou gaveſt alſo thy good Spirit to inſtruct them, and with-heldeſt not thy manna from their mouth, and gaveſt them water for their thirſt. 21 Yea, forty years didſt thou ſuſtain them in the wilderneſs, ſo that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not old, and their feet ſwelled not. 22 Moreover, thou gaveſt them kingdoms and nations, and didſt divide them into corners: ſo they poſſeſſed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heſhbon, and the land of Og king of Baſhan. 23 Their children alſo multipliedſt thou as the ſtars of heaven, and broughteſt them into the land, concerning which thou hadſt promiſed to their fathers, that they ſhould go in to poſſeſs it. 24 So the children went in and poſſeſſed the land, and thou ſubdueſt before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gaveſt them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would. 25 And they took ſtrong cities, and a fat land, and poſſeſſed houſes full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards and olive-yards, and fruit-trees in abundance: ſo they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themſelves in thy great goodneſs. 26 Neverthelefs they were diſobedient, and rebelled againſt thee, and caſt thy law behind their backs, and ſlew thy prophets which teſtified againſt them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations. 27 Therefore thou deliveredſt them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble when they cried unto thee, thou heardeſt them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gaveſt them ſaviours, who ſaved them out of the hand of their enemies. 28 But after they had reſt, they did evil again before thee: therefore lefteſt thou them in the hand of their enemies, ſo that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned and cried unto thee, thou heardeſt them from heaven, and many times didſt thou deliver them, according to thy mercies: 29 And teſtifiedſt againſt them, that thou mighteſt bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkned not unto thy commandments, but ſinned againſt thy judgments, (which if a man do, he ſhall live in them) and withdrew the ſhoulder, and hardned their neck, and would not hear. 30 Yet many years didſt thou forbear them, and teſtifiedſt againſt them by thy Spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gaveſt thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. 31 Nevertheleſs for thy great mercies ſake, thou didſt not utterly conſume them, nor forſake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God. 32 Now therefore our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepeſt covenant and mercy; let not all the trouble ſeem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our prieſts, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, ſince the time of the kings of Aſſyria, unto this day. 33 Howbeit, thou art juſt in all that is brought upon us, for thou haſt done right, but we have done wickedly: 34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our prieſts, nor our fathers kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments, and thy teſtimonies wherewith thou didſt teſtify againſt them. 35 For they have not ſerved thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodneſs that thou gaveſt them, and in the large and fat land which thou gaveſt before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. 36 Behold, we are ſervants this day, and for the land that thou gaveſt unto our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are ſervants in it. 37 And it yieldeth much increaſe unto the kings, whom thou haſt ſet over us becauſe of our ſins: alſo they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattel, at their pleaſure, and we are in great diſtreſs. 38 And becauſe of this, we make a ſure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and prieſts ſeal unto it.

And becauſe of all this, we make a ſure Covenant with thee] The Obſervances, which they chiefly obliged themſelves to in this Covenant, were, 1*ſt*, Not to make Intermarriages with the Gentiles. 2*dly*, To obſerve the Sabbaths, and ſabbatical Years. 3*dly*, To pay their annual Tribute, for the Reparation and Service of the Temple. And, 4*thly*, To pay their Tithes and Firſt-fruits, for the Maintenance of the Prieſts and Levites: From which Particulars, thus nam'd in this Covenant, we may learn, what were the Laws of God, which hitherto they had been moſt neglective of, ſince their Return from the Captivity. See Prideaux's Connection.

CHAP. X.

The Names of thoſe that ſealed the Covenant. The particular Points of the Covenant.

Ver. 1. NOW thoſe that ſealed were Nehemiah the Tirſhatha, the ſo of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, 2 Seraiah, Azariah Jeremiah, 3 Paſhur, Amariah, Malchijah, 4 Hatuſh, Shebaniah, Malluch, 5 Harim, Meremoth Obadiah, 6 Daniel, Gennethon, Baruch, 7 Meſhullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8 Maaziah, Bilgai Shemaiah: theſe were the prieſts. 9 And th Levites: both Jeſhua the ſon of Azaniah, Binnui the ſons of Henadad, Kadmiel; 10 And the brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah Hanan. 11 Micha, Rehob, Haſhabiah, 12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, 13 Hodijah, Bani Beninu. 14 The chief of the people; Parosh Pahath-moab, Elam, Zatthu, Bani, 15 Bunni Azgad, Bebai, 16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, 17 Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur, 18 Hodijah, Haſhum Bezai, 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, 20 Magpiaſh, Meſhullam, Hezir, 21 Meſhezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua, 22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, 23 Hoſhea, Hananiah, Haſhub. 24 Hallohesh Pileha, Shobek, 25 Rehum, Haſhabnah, Maaſeiah, 26 And Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, 27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah. 28 And the reſt of the people, the prieſts, the Levites, the porters, the ſingers, the Nethinims, and all they that had ſeparated themſelves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their ſons and their daughters, every one having knowledge and having underſtanding: 29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entred into a curſe and into an oath, to walk in Gods law which was given by Moſes the ſervant of God and to obſerve and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments and his ſtatutes: 30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our ſons: 31 And if the people of the land bring ware, or any victuals on the ſabbath-day, to ſell, that we would not buy it of them on the ſabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the ſeventh year, and the exaction of every debt. 32 Alſo we made ordinances for us, to charge our ſelves yearly with a third part of a ſhekel, for the ſervice of the houſe of our God: 33 For the ſhew-bread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt-offering of the ſabbaths, of the new moons, for the ſet feaſts, and for the holy things, and for the ſin-offerings, to make an atonement for Iſrael, and for all the work of the houſe of our God. 34 And we caſt the lots among the prieſts, the Levites, and the people for the wood-offering, to bring it into the houſe of our God, after the houſes of our fathers, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the law: 35 And to bring the firſt-fruits of our ground, and the firſt fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the houſe of the Lord: 36 Alſo the firſtborn of our ſons and of our cattle, (as it is written in the law) and the firſtlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the houſe of our God, unto the prieſts that miniſter in the houſe of our God: 37 And that we ſhould bring the firſt-fruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and oyl, unto the prieſt, to the chambers of the houſe of our God, and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the ſame Levites had have the tithes, in all the cities of our tillage. 38 And the prieſt the ſon of Aaron, ſhall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites ſhall bring up the tithe of the tithes, unto the houſe of our God, to the chambers, into the treaſure-houſe. 39 For the children of Iſrael, and the children of Levi, ſhall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oyl, unto the chambers, where are the veſſels of the ſanctuary, and the prieſts that miniſter, and the porters, and the ſingers: and we will not forſake the houſe of our God.

And entered into a Curſe, and into an Oath, to walk in God's Law] It ſignified little indeed what ſuch untoward People promiſed; for what Regard would they have to their own Hand-writing (for they ſet their Hands and Seals to the Covenant) who regarded not the Ten Commandments, written on Tables of Stone by the Finger of God? It was very uſeful however, that there ſhould be a publick Inſtrument to convince them of their Impiety, and that they might be publickly confounded, when they proved perfidious Deſerters, by ſhewing them, under their own Hands, their Engagements to future Fidelity.

CHAP. XI.

The Rulers voluntarily dwell at Jeruſalem; but the People are choſen by Lot for that Purpoſe. A Catalogue of their Names.

ver. 1. AND the rulers of the people dwelt at Jeruſalem: the reſt of the people alſo caſt lots, to bring one of ten, to dwell in Jeruſalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. 2 And the people bleſſed all the men, that willingly offered themſelves to dwell at Jeruſalem. 3 Now theſe are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jeruſalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his poſſeſſion in their cities, to wit, Iſrael, the prieſts, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomons ſervants. 4 And at Jeruſalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin: of the children of Judah; Athaiah the ſon of Uzziah, the ſon of Zechariah, the ſon of Amariah, the ſon of Shephatiah, the ſon of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez; 5 And Maaſeiah the ſon of Baruch, the ſon of Col-hozeh, the ſon of Hazaiah, the ſon of Adaiah, the ſon of Joiarib, the ſon of Zechariah, the ſon of Shiloni. 6 All the ſons of Perez that dwelt at Jeruſalem, were four hundred threeſcore and eight valiant men. 7 And theſe are the ſons of Benjamin; Sallu the ſon of Meſhullam, the ſon of Joed, the ſon of Pedaiah, the ſon of Kolaiah, the ſon of Maaſeiah, the ſon of Ithiel, the ſon of Jeſaiah. 8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. 9 And Joel the ſon of Zichri was their over-ſeer: and Judah the ſon of Senuah, was ſecond over the city. 10 Of the prieſts: Jedaiah the ſon of Joarib, Jachin. 11 Seraiah the ſon of Hilkiah, the ſon of Meſhullam, the ſon of Zadok, the ſon of Meraioth, the ſon of Ahitub, was the ruler of the houſe of God. 12 And their brethren that did the work of the houſe, were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the ſon of Jeroham, the ſon of Pelaliah, the ſon of Amzi, the ſon of Zechariah, the ſon of Pashur, the ſon of Malchiah, 13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amaſhai, the ſon of Azareel, the ſon of Ahaſai, the ſon of Meſhillemoth, the ſon of Immer, 14 And their brethren mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overſeer was Zabdiel, the ſon of one of the great men. 15 Alſo of the Levites: Shemaiah the ſon of Haſhub, the ſon of Azrikam, the ſon of Haſhabiah, the ſon of Bunni. 16 And Shabbethai, and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the overſight of the outward buſineſs of the houſe of God. 17 And Mattaniah the ſon of Micha, the ſon of Zabdi, the ſon of Aſaph, was the principal to begin the thankſgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the ſecond among his brethren, and Abda the ſon of Shammua, the ſon of Galal, the ſon of Jeduthun. 18 All the Levites in the holy city, were two hundred fourſcore and four. 19 Moreover, the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred ſeventy and two. 20 And the reſidue of Iſrael, of the prieſts, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. 21 But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Zia, and Giſpa were over the Nethinims. 22 The overſeer alſo of the Levites at Jeruſalem, was Uzzi the ſon of Bani, the ſon of Haſhabiah, the ſon of Mattaniah, the ſon of Micah: of the ſons of Aſaph, the ſingers were over the buſineſs of the houſe of God. 23 For it was the kings commandment concerning them, that a certain portion ſhould be for the ſingers, due for every day. 24 And Pethaiah the ſon of Meſhezabeel, of the children of Zerah the ſon of Judah, was at the kings hand in all matters concerning the people. 25 And for the villages, with their fields, ſome of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjath-arba and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel and in the villages thereof. 26 And at Jeſhua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-phelet, 27 And at Hazar-ſhual, and at Beer-ſheba, and in the villages thereof, 28 And at Ziklag, and at Mekonah and in the villages thereof, 29 And at En-rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth, 30 Zanoah, Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachiſh, and the fields thereof, at Azekah and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beer-ſheba, unto the valley of Hinnom. 31 The children alſo of Benjamin from Geba, dwelt at Michmaſh, and Aija, and Beth-el, and in their villages, 32 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, 33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, 35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftſmen. 36 And of the Levites, were diviſions in Judah and in Benjamin.

The reſt of the People alſo caſt Lots] Tho' the caſting of Lots be certainly forbidden, where the Thing is done out of a Spirit of Superſtition, or with a Deſign to tempt God; yet, on ſome Occaſions, it is enjoined by God himſelf; and the moſt holy Perſons, both in the Old and New Teſtament, in particular Caſes, have practiſed it. The Wiſe Man acknowledges the Uſefulneſs of this Cuſtom, when he tells us, that the Lot cauſed Contention to ceaſe, Prov. xviii. 18. and therefore it was no bad Policy (as Things now ſtood) to take this Method of Deciſion, ſince the Lot (which all allowed was under the Divine Direction) falling upon ſuch a Perſon, rather than another, would be a great Means, no doubt, to make him remove more contentedly to the City. Patrick's Com. and Calmet's Dict.

dah, and of the Children of Benjamin] These were the two Tribes that antiently poſſeſſed Jeruſalem, which ſtood, partly in one Tribe, and partly in the other; for which Reaſon, in ſome Places of Scripture, Jeruſalem is reckoned as belonging to the Children of Judah, Joſh. xv. 63. and Judg. xviii. and in others, to the Children of Benjamin, Judg. xxi. 28. but what Part of the City belonged to the one, and what to the other, is not ſo well agreed among learned Men. Since theſe two Tribes, however, were the antient Inhabitants of the City, there was all the Reaſon in the World, why, in this Scarcity of Inmates, they, above any others, ſhould be obliged to come and dwell there. Patrick's Com.

CHAP. XII.

The Prieſts and Levites that returned with Zerubbabel. The Dedication of the Wall obſerved in a very ſolemn Manner.

Ver. 1. NOW theſe are the prieſts and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the ſon of Shealtiel, and Jeſhua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2 Amariah, Maluſh, Hattuſh, 3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4 Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah, 5 Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, 6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah, 7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah: theſe were the chief of the prieſts, and of their brethren in the days of Jeſhua. 8 Moreover the Levites: Jeſhua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over the thankſgiving, he and his brethren. 9 Alſo Bakbukiah, and Unni, their brethren, were over againſt them in the watches. 10 And Jeſhua begat Joiakim, Joiakim alſo begat Eliaſhib, and Eliaſhib begat Joiada. 11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua. 12 And in the days of Joiakim, were prieſts, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah: of Jeremiah, Hananiah: 13 Of Ezra, Meſhullam: of Amariah, Jehohanan: 14 Of Melicu, Jonathan: of Shebaniah, Joſeph: 15 Of Harim, Adna: of Meraioth, Helkai: 16 Of Iddo, Zechariah: of Ginnethon, Meſhullam: 17 Of Abijah, Zichri: of Miniamim, of Moadiah, Piltai: 18 Of Bilgah, Shammua: of Shemaiah, Jehonathan: 19 And of Joarib, Mattenai: of Jedaiah, Uzzi: 20 Of Sallai, Kallai: of Amok, Eber: 21 Of Hilkiah, Haſhabiah: of Jedaiah, Nethaneel. 22 The Levites in the days of Eliaſhib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: alſo the prieſts, to the reign of Darius the Perſian. 23 The ſons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the ſon of Eliaſhib. 24 And the chief of the Levites: Haſhabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeſhua the ſon of Kadmiel, with their brethren over againſt them, to praiſe and to give thanks according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over againſt ward. 25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meſhullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward, at the threſholds of the gates. 26 Theſe were in the days of Joiakim the ſon of Jeſhua, the ſon of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the prieſt, the ſcribe. 27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jeruſalem, they ſought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jeruſalem, to keep the dedication with gladneſs, both with thankſgivings, and with ſinging, with cymbals, pſalteries, and with harps. 28 And the ſons of the ſingers gathered themſelves together, both out of the plain country round about Jeruſalem, and from the villages of Netophathi, 29 Alſo from the houſe of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba, and Azmaveth: for the ſingers had builded them villages round about Jeruſalem. 30 And the prieſts and the Levites purified themſelves and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. 31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung-gate: 32 And after them went Hoſhaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra and Meſhullam, 34 Judah and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, 35 And certain of the prieſts ſons with trumpets: namely, Zechariah the ſon of Jonathan, the ſon of Shemaiah, the ſon of Mattaniah, the ſon of Michaiah, the ſon of Zaccur, the ſon of Aſaph: 36 And his brethren Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maani, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the muſical inſtruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the ſcribe before them. 37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over againſt them, they went up by the ſtairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the houſe of David, even unto the water-gate eaſtward. 38 And the other company of them that gave thanks, went over againſt them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall from beyond the tower of the furnaces, even unto the broad wall: 39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fiſh-gate, and the tower of Hananeel and the tower of Meah, even unto the ſheep gate; and they ſtood ſtill in the priſon-gate. 40 So ſtood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the houſe of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me: 41 And the prieſts; Eliakim, Maaſeiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with trumpets: 42 And Maaſeiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan; and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer: and the ſingers ſang loud, with Jezrahiah their overſeer. 43 Alſo that day they offered great ſacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the wives alſo and the children rejoiced: ſo that the joy of Jeruſalem was heard even afar off. 44 And at that time were ſome appointed over the chambers for the treaſures, for the offerings, for the firſt-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the prieſts and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the prieſts, and for the Levites that waited. 45 And both the ſingers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his ſon, 46 For in the days of David and Aſaph of old, there were chief of the ſingers, and ſongs of praiſe and thankſgiving unto God. 47 And all Iſrael in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the ſingers and the porters, every day his portion, and they ſanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites ſanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

And at the Dedication of the Wall of Jeruſalem] Dedication is a religious Ceremony, whereby any Temple, Altar and Veſſel thereunto belonging, is, by the Pronunciation of a certain Form of Bleſſing, conſecrated to the Service of God; and this Dedication, we may obſerve, extends not only to Things ſacred, but to Cities and their Walls, and ſometimes to private Houſes, Deut. xx. 5. As therefore Moſes in the Wilderneſs dedicated the Tabernacle, and Solomon the Temple, when he had finiſhed it; ſo Nehemiah, having put Things in good Order, built the Walls, and ſet up the Gates, thought proper to dedicate the City, as a Place which God himſelf had choſen, and ſanctified by his Temple, and gracious Preſence; and, by this Dedication, to reſtore it to him again after it had been laid waſte, and profaned by the Devaſtation of the Heathens. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

CHAP. XIII.

Upon reading of the Law, a Separation is made from the mixt Multitude. Nehemiah returns to Jeruſalem, and rectifies ſome Diſorders that had happened in his Abſence, particularly with Regard to the Breach of the Sabbath, and mixed Marriages.

Ver. 1. ON that day they read in the book of Moſes in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite ſhould not come into the congregation of God for ever: 2 Becauſe they met not the children of Iſrael with bread and with water, but hired Balaam againſt them, that he ſhould curſe them: howbeit our God turned the curſe into a bleſſing. 3 Now it came to paſs when they had heard the law, that they ſeparated from Iſrael all the mixed multitude. 4 And before this, Eliaſhib the prieſt, having the overſight of the chamber of the houſe of our God, was allied unto Tobiah: 5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincenſe, and the veſſels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oyl, (which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the ſingers and the porters) and the offerings of the prieſts. 6 But in all this time was not I at Jeruſalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king: 7 And I came to Jeruſalem, and underſtood of the evil that Eliaſhib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the houſe of God. 8 And it grieved me ſore; therefore I caſt forth all the houſhold-ſtuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. 9 Then I commanded, and they cleanſed the chambers; and thither brought I again the veſſels of the houſe of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincenſe. 10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the ſingers that did the work, were fled every one to his field. 11 Then contended I with the rulers, and ſaid, Why is the houſe of God forſaken? And I gathered them together, and ſet them in their place. 12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn, and the new wine, and the oyl, unto the treaſuries. 13 And I made treaſurers over the treaſuries, Shelemiah the prieſt, and Zadok the ſcribe, and of the Levites, Pedeiah: and next to them was Hanan the ſon of Zaccur, the ſon of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to diſtribute unto their brethren. 14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the houſe of my God, and for the offices thereof. 15 In thoſe days ſaw I in Judah ſome treading wine-preſſes on the ſabbath, and bringing in ſheaves, and lading aſſes; as alſo wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jeruſalem on the ſabbath-day: and I teſtified againſt them in the day wherein they ſold victuals. 16 There dwelt men of Tyre alſo therein, which brought fiſh, and all manner of ware, and ſold on the ſabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jeruſalem. 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and ſaid unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the ſabbath-day? 18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Iſrael by profaning the ſabbath. 19 And it came to paſs, that when the gates of Jeruſalem began to be dark before the ſabbath, I commanded that the gates ſhould be ſhut, and charged that they ſhould not be opened till after the ſabbath: and ſome of my ſervants ſet I at the gates, that there ſhould no burden be brought in on the ſabbath-day. 20 So the merchants, and ſellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jeruſalem once or twice. 21 Then I teſtified againſt them, and ſaid unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do ſo again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the ſabbath. 22 And I commanded the Levites, that they ſhould cleanſe themſelves, and that they ſhould come and keep the gates to ſanctifie the ſabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this alſo, and ſpare me according to the greatneſs of thy mercy. 23 In thoſe days alſo ſaw I Jews that had married wives of Aſhdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: 24 And their children ſpake half in the ſpeech of Aſhdod, and could not ſpeak in the Jews language, but according to the language of each people. 25 And I contended with them, and curſed them, and ſmote certain of them, and pluckt off their hair, and made them ſwear by God, ſaying, Ye ſhall not give your daughters unto their ſons, nor take their daughters unto your ſons, or for your ſelves. 26 Did not Solomon king of Iſrael ſin by theſe things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Iſrael: nevertheleſs even him did outlandiſh women cauſe to ſin. 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to tranſgreſs againſt our God, in marrying ſtrange wives? 28 And one of the ſons of Joiada, the ſon of Eliaſhib the high prieſt, was ſon in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chaſed him from me. 29 Remember them, O my God, becauſe they have defiled the prieſthood, and the covenant of the prieſthood, and of the Levites. 30 Thus cleanſed I them from all ſtrangers, and appointed the wards of the prieſts and the Levites, every one in his buſineſs: 31 And for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the firſt-fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

And therein it was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite ſhould not come into the Congregation for ever] Deut. xxiii. 3. They, who, by the Congregation of God, in this Place, do underſtand the publick Aſſemblies for divine Worſhip, lie under a great Miſtake; for no Man of any Nation was forbidden to come and pray unto God in the Temple. Men of all Nations indeed, that were willing to become Proſelites, were admitted into the Jewiſh Communion; and, if they ſubmitted to be circumciſed, were allowed to eat the Paſſover, and to enjoy all the Privileges that true Iſraelites did, except only in the Caſe of Marriage; and therefore this Phraſe, of not entering into the Congregation of the Lord, muſt be underſtood to mean no more than a Prohibition of Marriage: For this (according to the Rabbins) was the Caſe of ſuch Prohibitions. None of the Houſe of Iſrael, of either Sex, were to enter into Marriage with any Gentiles, of what Nation ſoever, unleſs they were firſt converted to their Religion, and became entire Proſelites to it; and, even in that Caſe, ſome were debarr'd from it for ever; others, only in part; and others again, only for a limited Time. Of the firſt Sort, were all of the ſeven Nations of the Canaanites, mention'd in Deut. vii. Of the ſecond Sort were the Moabites and the Ammonites, whoſe Males were excluded for ever, but not their Females; and of the third Sort were the Edomites and Egyptians, with whom the Jews might not marry until the third Generation: But with all others, who were not of theſe three excepted Sorts, they might freely make Inter-marriages, whenever they became thorough Proſelytes to their Religion. At preſent, however, becauſe, through the Confuſions which have ſince happen'd in all Nations, it is not to be known who is an Ammonite, who an Edomite, a Moabite, or an Egyptian, they hold this Prohibition to be long out of Date, and that now, any Gentile, as ſoon as proſelyted to their Religion, may be immediately admitted to make Intermarriages with them. Prideaux's Connect.

Eliaſhib the Prieſt, having the Overſight of the Chamber of the Houſe of the Lord] From hence ſome are apt to imagine, that this Eliaſhib was no more than a common Prieſt; becauſe this was an Office too mean (as they think) for the High-prieſt. But we cannot ſee, why the Overſight of the Chambers of the Houſe of God, may not import the whole Government of the Temple, which certainly belonged to the High-prieſt only; nor can we conceive how any one, that was leſs than abſolute Governor of the whole Temple, could make ſo great an Innovation in it. He was Aſſiſtant indeed in the Reparation of the Walls of the City; but, excepting this one Act, where do we read of his doing any Thing worthy of Memory, towards reforming of what was amiſs, either in Church or State, in the Times either of Ezra or Nehemiah? And yet we cannot but preſume, that, had he joined with them in ſo good a Work, ſome Mention would have been made of it by the Books written by them. Since therefore, inſtead of this, we find it recorded in Ezra, Ch. x. 18. that the Pontifical Houſe was, in his Time, grown very corrupt, and, not improbably, by his Connivance began to marry into heathen Families, (Ver. 28. of this Chapter) it ſeems moſt likely, that it was Eliaſhib the High-prieſt, who was the Author of this great Profanation of the Houſe of God; but as he might die before Nehemiah returned from Babylon, for this Reaſon we hear nothing of the Governor's reprehending him for it. Prideaux. Connect.

And their Children ſpake half in the Language of Aſhdod, and could not ſpeak in the Jews Language] What the natural Language of the Jews at this Time was, whether the Hebrew, or Chaldee, is Matter of ſome Enquiry among the Learned. Thoſe, who ſuppoſe it was Hebrew, produce the Books of Ezra, Nehemiah, and Eſther, beſides the Prophecies of Daniel, which, for the moſt part, were written in Hebrew, and which, they ſuppoſe, the Authors of them would not have done, if Hebrew, at that Time, had not been the vulgar Language. But to this it is replied, that the Jewiſh Authors might make Uſe of the Hebrew Language in what they wrote, not only becauſe the Books which they recorded, concern'd the Jewiſh Nation only, among whom there were learned Men enough to explain them; but chiefly, becauſe they were minded to conceal what they wrote from the Chaldeans, who, at that Time, were their Lords and Maſters; and conſidering all Circumſtances, might not perhaps have been ſo well pleas'd with them, had they underſtood the Contents of their Writings. Since it appears then, ſay they, by ſeveral Words, occurring in the Books of the Maccabees, the New Teſtament, and Joſephus, that the Language which the Jews then ſpoke, was Chaldee, and that this Language they learned in their Captivity, and, after their Return from it, never aſſumed the antient Hebrew Tongue, ſo as to ſpeak it again; hence muſt follow, that what is here called the Language of the Jews, and their native Tongue, was at that Time no other than the Chaldee, for the antient Hebrew was only preſerved among the Learned. Le Clerc's Com.

And I contended with them, and curſed them, and ſmote certain of them, and pluck'd off their Hair] Some of theſe Things, as they are made to proceed from Nehemiah's Mouth, ſound a little oddly: But the Senſe of the Words is no more than this: — I contended with them, i. e. I expoſtulated the Matter with them. I curſed them, i. e. excommunicated them, in the doing of which, I denounced God's Judgments againſt them. I ſmote certain of them, i. e. order'd the Officers to beat ſome of the moſt notorious Offenders either with Rods, or with Scourges, according to Deut. xxv. 2. And I plucked off their Hair, i. e. I commanded them to be ſhaved, thereby to put them to Shame and make them look like vile Slaves: For, as the Hair was eſteem'd a great Ornament among the Eaſtern Nations, ſo Baldneſs was accounted a great Diſgrace; and, to inflict theſe ſeveral Puniſhments upon them, Nehemiah had a ſufficient Provocation, becauſe, in their marrying with Heathen Nations, they had acted contrary, not only to the expreſs Law of God, but to their own late ſolemn Covenant and Promiſe, Ezra x. 19. Pool's Ann.

Therefore I chaſed him from me] Joſephus relates the Matter, as if this Expulſion had been effected by the Power of the great Sanhedrim: But whether the great Sanhedrim was at this Time in Being, or not (as we have no clear Footſteps of it, until the Time of Judas Maccabeus) there was no Occaſion for its interpoſing, ſince Nehemiah, no doubt, as Governor of the Province, had Authority enough to banish him out of Judea, as Bertram expounds the Phraſe, I chaſed him from me.

AN EXPOSITION OF The Book of ESTHER.

The ARGUMENT.

This Book bears the Name of Eſther, becauſe her Character, Conduct, and Tranſactions are the principal Subjects therein treated of. She who lived in Obſcurity, and was privately brought up under the Eye and Tuition of her Kinſman Mordecai, is advanced to a Copartnerſhip in the Throne of Perſia; that, by this Means, ſhe might be made an Inſtrument in the Hands of Providence, to defeat the moſt notorious and deſtructive Conſpiracy that ever was formed againſt her Countrymen the Jews. The various Incidents related in the Story, contribute to ſet off and embelliſh the Characters of the ſeveral Actors in it, and to conduct the Whole to its final Cataſtrophe, the wonderful Deliverance of the Jews out of the Hands of their Enemies. Upon which Occaſion the Jews inſtituted a ſolemn Feſtival, annually to be obſerved, called Purim, to commemorate this great and unexpected Favour which God vouchſafed his People.

This Hiſtory, according to ſome, contains the Events of twenty Years, tho' others reduce the Term to twelve.

CHAP. I.

Ahaſuerus makes a Royal Feaſt, and ſends for his Queen Vaſhti, who refuſes to come. The King, by the Advice of his Wiſemen, degrades her from her Dignity, and publiſhes a Decree thereupon.

ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs in the days of Ahaſuerus, (this is Ahaſuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over a hundred and ſeven and twenty provinces) 2 That in thoſe days, when the king Ahaſuerus ſat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shuſhan the palace, 3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feaſt unto all his princes, and his ſervants; the power of Perſia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces being before him. 4 When he ſhewed the riches of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his excellent majeſty, many days, even an hundred and fourſcore days. 5 And when theſe days were expired, the king made a feaſt unto all the people that were preſent in Shuſhan the palace, both unto great and ſmall, ſeven days, in the court of the garden of the kings palace, 6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, faſtened with cords of fine linen and purple, to ſilver rings, and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold, and ſilver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble. 7 And they gave them drink in veſſels of gold, (the veſſels being divers one from another) and royal wine in abundance, according to the ſtate of the king. 8 And the drinking was according to the law, none did compel: for ſo the king had appointed to all the officers of his houſe, that they ſhould do according to every mans pleaſure. 9 Alſo Vaſhti the queen made a feaſt for the women in the royal houſe which belonged to king Ahaſuerus. 10 On the ſeventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the ſeven chamberlains that ſerved in the preſence of Ahaſuerus the king, 11 To bring Vaſhti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to ſhew the people and the princes her beauty: for ſhe was fair to look on. 12 But the queen Vaſhti refuſed to come at the kings commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him. 13 Then the king ſaid to the wiſe men, which knew the times, (for ſo was the kings manner towards all that knew law and judgment: 14 And next unto him was Carſhena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarſhiſh, Meres, Marſena, and Memucan, the ſeven princes of Perſia, and Media, which ſaw the kings face, and which ſat the firſt in the kingdom) 15 What ſhall we do unto the queen Vaſhti, according to law, becauſe ſhe hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahaſuerus, by the chamberlains? 16 And Memucan anſwered before the king and the princes, Vaſhti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but alſo to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahaſuerus. 17 For this deed of the queen ſhall come abroad unto all women, ſo that they ſhall deſpiſe their huſbands in their eyes, when it ſhall be reported, The king Ahaſuerus commanded Vaſhti the queen to be brought in before him, but ſhe came not. 18 Likewiſe ſhall the ladies ladies of Perſia and Media ſay this day unto all the kings and princes; which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus ſhall there ariſe too much contempt and wrath. 19 If it pleaſe the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Perſians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vaſhti come no more before king Ahaſuerus, and let the king give her royal eſtate unto another that is better than ſhe. 20 And when the kings decree which he ſhall make, ſhall be publiſhed throughout all his empire, (for it is great) all the wives ſhall give to their husbands honour, both to great and ſmall. 21 And the ſaying pleaſed the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan: 22 For he ſent letters into all the kings provinces, into every province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man ſhould bare rule in his own houſe, and that it ſhould be publiſhed according to the language of every people.

Which was in Shuſhan the Palace] Cyrus and the reſt of the Perſian Kings, after the Conqueſt of the Medes (whoſe Country lay remote) ſetled their Royal Seat at Shuſhan, that they might not be too far from Babylon, and made it the Capital of Perſia. It ſtood upon the River Ulai, and was a Place of ſuch Renown, that Strabo calls it a City moſt worthy to be praiſed. The whole Country about it was wonderfully fruitful, producing an hundred, and ſometimes two hundred Fold, as the ſame Author informs us, L. xv. Pliny, indeed, ſuppoſes, that Darius Hyſtaſpes was the firſt Founder of it, but he only enlarged and beautify'd it with a moſt magnificent Palace, which Ariſtotle calls a wonderful Royal Palace, ſhining with Gold, Amber, and Ivory. Nor is it foreign to this Purpoſe, what our learned Lightfoot tells us, viz. that the outward Gate of the Eaſtern Wall of the Temple, was called the Gate of Shuſhan, and had the Figure of that City carv'd on it, in Acknowledgment of the Decree, which this Darius granted in that Place, in order to permit, and encourage the Jews to rebuild their Temple at Jeruſalem. Patrick's Com. and Calmet's Dict.

Alſo Vaſhti the Queen made a Feaſt for the Women] It has been a great Enquiry among the Learned, who this Vaſhti was. Thoſe, who make the Ahaſuerus in Scripture to be Darius the Son of Hyſtaſpes, ſuppoſe that ſhe was Atoſſa, the Daughter of Cyrus, who was firſt married to Cambyſes, her own Brother, then to the Magian, who would have paſſed for Smerdis, and laſt of all, to Darius. Others ſuppoſe, that ſhe was the own Siſter of Ahaſuerus, becauſe the Perſians, in thoſe Days, made no Scruple of theſe Kind of Marriages; tho' there is much more Reaſon to think, that before her Marriage, there had been ſuch a Collection of Virgins, made for the Uſe of the King, as was before Eſther's, (this is implied in Ch. ii. 19.) and that having the good Fortune then of obtaining the Preference in the King's Eſteem, ſhe was created Queen; but being perhaps a Woman of an high Deſcent, her Family Extraction, for that Reaſon, might be concealed. Calmet's Dict.

The wiſe Men which knew the Times] From whence ſome have obſerved, that, as the Perſian Kings did nothing without their Magi, who were great Pretenders to Aſtrology, Men of this Sort were called, to know whether it was a proper Time to ſet about the Thing, which the King might have then in his Mind. For ſuch was the Superſtition of the Eaſtern People, that (as the Satyriſt obſerves) what the Aſtrologer affirmed, was believed as tho' pronounced by an Oracle. The Explication, however, which Vitringa gives us of the original Words, Jodehe habitim, is far from being improper, viz. That they were Men well verſed in antient Hiſtories, and in the Laws and Cuſtoms, and were therefore able to give the King Counſel in all extraordinary and perplexed Caſes, as this certainly was. Patrick and Le Clerc's Com.

CHAP. II.

A Collection of young Virgins out of all the Provinces of the Kingdom, out of whom the King might chuſe one for his Queen. Eſther choſen. A Conſpiracy againſt the King diſcovered by Mordecai, and the Traytors executed.

Ver. 1. AFTER theſe things, when the wrath of king Ahaſuerus was appeaſed, he remembered Vaſhti, and what ſhe had done, and what was decreed againſt her. Then ſaid the kings ſervants, that miniſtred unto him, Let there be fair young virgins ſought for the king. 3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shuſhan the palace, to the houſe of the women, unto the cuſtody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women, and let their things for purification be given them: 4 And let the maiden which pleaſeth the king, be queen inſtead of Vaſhti. And the thing pleaſed the king, and he did ſo. 5 Now in Shuſhan the palace there was a certain Jew, whoſe name was Mordecai, the ſon of Jair, the ſon of Shimei, the ſon of Kiſh, a Benjamite: 6 Who had been carried away from Jeruſalem, with the captivity which had been carried away with Jechonias king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. 7 And he brought up Hadaſſah (that is Eſther) his uncles daughter: for ſhe had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful, whom Mordecai (when her father and mother were dead) took for his own daughter. 8 So it came to paſs, when the kings commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shuſhan the palace, to the cuſtody of Hegai, that Eſther was brought also unto the kings houſe, to the cuſtody of Hegai keeper of the women. 9 And the maiden pleaſed him, and ſhe obtained kindneſs of him, and he ſpeedily gave her her things for the purification with ſuch things as belonged to her, and ſeven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the kings houſe, and he preferred her and her maids unto the beſt place of the houſe of the women. Eſther had not ſhewed her people, nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that ſhe ſhould not ſhew it. 11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens houſe, to know how Eſther did, and what ſhould become of her. Now when every maids turn was come, to go in to king Ahaſuerus, after that ſhe had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for ſo were the days of their purifications accompliſhed, to wit, ſix months with oil of myrrhe, and ſix months with ſweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women) 13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatſoever ſhe deſired was given her, to go with her out of the houſe of the women, unto the king's houſe. 14 In the evening ſhe went, and on the morrow ſhe returned into the ſecond houſe of the women, to the cuſtody of Shaaſhgaz, the kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines: ſhe came in unto the king no more, except ing delighted in her, and that she were called by name. 15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had taken her for his daughter) was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing, but what Hegai the kings chamberlain, the keeper of the women appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. 16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus, unto his house royal, in the tenth month (which is the month Tebeth) in the seventh year of his reign. 17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight, more than all the virgins; so that he sat the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen in stead of Vashti. 18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esthers feast, and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. 19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the kings gate. 20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred, nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai like as when she was brought up with him. 21 In those days (while Mordecai sat in the kings gate) two of the kings chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. 22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen, and Esther certified the king thereof, in Mordecai's name. 23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

Now in Shushan the Palace, there was a certain Jew, whose Name was Mordecai] He seems to have been one of the Porters of the royal Palace; or perhaps an Officer of an higher Rank; because it was an Order instituted by Cyrus, that all Persons whatever, who had any Employment at Court, should attend at the Palace Gate, (where there was, doubtless, a proper Waiting-Room for their Reception) that they might be in Readiness, whenever they were wanted, or called for: And that this Custom was afterwards continued, we may learn from Herodotus, L. iii. C. 120. Le Clerc's Com.

And he brought up Hadassah, that is Esther] This Woman was born in Babylon, and therefore, in Analogy to that Language, they gave her the Name of Hadassah, which, in Chaldee, signifies a Myrtle; but her Persian Name was Esther, which some (a little ingruously) derive from After, a Star, and others from Satar, which signifies hidden, because she was concealed in Mordecai's House; or rather, because her Relation was concealed, and she not known, until Mordecai's Merit and Services to the Crown came to be rewarded. Patrick's Com.

For so were the Days of their Purification accomplished, that is, six Months with Oil of Myrrh, and six Months with sweet Odours] Myrrh, besides the Fragrancy of its Smell, was good to make the Skin soft and smooth, and clear it from all Manner of Scurf; and sweet Odours were necessary in these hot Countries, to take off all ill Scents, and, as some think, to make the Body more vigorous. But, besides this, there might be something of State in making those Vassals (for so they were accounted) wait, before they were admitted to the Honour of the King's Bed; and something of Caution too, in keeping them secluse for so long a time, that the King might be satisfied, that he was not imposed upon by a Child begotten by any other Man. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

CHAP. III.

Haman's Advancement. Mordecai pays him no Honours; which Haman resents, and resolves to be revenged upon all the Jews.

Ver. 1. AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him. 2 And all the kings servants that were in the kings gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence. 3 Then the kings servants, which were in the kings gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the kings commandment? 4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai his matters would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. 5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. 6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone: for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai. 7 In the first month (that is the month Nisan) in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman, from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is the month Adar. 8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad, and dispersed among the people, in all the provinces of thy kingdom, and their laws are divers from all people, neither keep they the kings laws; therefore it is not for the kings profit to suffer them. 9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the kings treasuries. 10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews enemy. 11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. 12 Then were the kings scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the kings lieutenants, and to the governours that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language: in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written and sealed with the kings ring. 13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the kings provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, (which is the month Adar) and to take the spoil of them for a prey. 14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day. 15 The posts went out, being hastened by the kings commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace: and the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city Shushan was perplexed.

In the first Month (that is the Month Nisan) in the twelfth Year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the Lot] It was in the first Month in the Year, when Haman was to cast Lots, and the Time, for the Execution of the Jews, was, by these Lots, delayed until the last Month of the Year, which plainly shews, That tho' the Lot be cast into the Lap, yet the whole disposing thereof is from the Lord, Prov. xv. 33. For hereby almost a whole Year interven'd between the Design and its Execution, which gave Time for Mordecai to acquaint Queen Esther with it, and for her to intercede with the King for revoking or suspending the Decree, and thereby disappointing the Conspiracy: For we can hardly think, (what Le Clerc suggests) that Haman gave the Jews all this Time, that they might make their Escape out of the Kingdom, and not stay to be slain, which might possibly bring an Odium upon himself, when it came to be known by whose Instigation this Massacre was committed. Patrick's and Le Clerc's Com.

And I will pay ten thousand Talents of Silver] This, says Stackhouse, is, no doubt, a prodigious Sum for any private Man to be Owner of; but we read of several such Persons in History, who, in those antient Times, were Possessors of much greater. Pithius the Lydian, for Instance, when Xerxes passed into Greece, was possessed of two thousand Talents of Silver, and four Millions of Daricks in Gold, which together amounted to near five Millions and an half of our Sterling Money: And Marcus Crassus, the Roman, after he had consecrated the Tenth of what he had to Hercules, feasted all the People of Rome at ten Thousand Tables, and given a Donative of Corn to every Citizen, as much as would last him three Months, found the Remainder of his Estate to be seven Thousand one hundred Roman Talents, which amount to above a Million and an half of our Money. This may seem a little strange to us at present; but our Wonder will cease, if we consider, that, from the Time of David and Solomon, and for fifteen hundred Years afterwards, the Riches of this Kind were in much greater Plenty, than they are now. The prodigious Quantities of Gold and Silver, which Alexander found in the Treasures of Darius; the vast Loads of them, which were often carried before the Roman Generals, when they returned from conquered Provinces; and the excessive Sums which certain of their Emperors expended in Donatives, Feasts, Shews, and other Instances of Luxury and Prodigality, are, of this, Proof sufficient: But, at length, the Mines of the antient Ophir, which furnished all this Plenty, being exhausted, and, by the burning of Cities, and Devastation of Countries, which followed upon the Eruptions of the Goths, Vandals, and Huns, and other barbarous Nations in the West, and of the Saracens, Turks, and Tartars, in the East, a great Part of the Gold and Silver, which the World then abounded with, being wasted and destroyed by this Means, the great Scarcity of both, which afterwards ensued, was occasioned; nor have the Mines of Mexico, Peru, and Brasil, been as yet, able fully to repair.

CHAP. IV.

Mordecai and the Jews mourn. Esther appoints a Fast.

Ver. 1. WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry: 2 And came even before the kings gate: for none might enter into the kings gate cloathed with sackloth. 3 And in every province whithersoever the kings commandment, and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping and wailing, and many lay in sackloth and ashes, 4 So Esthers maids, and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved, and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not. 5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the kings chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. 6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the city, which was before the kings gate. 7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the kings treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. 8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree, that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. 9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. 10 Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai; 11 All the kings servants and the people of the kings provinces do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king, these thirty days. 12 And they told to Mordecai Esthers words. 13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thy self that thou shalt escape in the kings house, more than all the Jews. 14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but thou and thy fathers house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth, whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? 15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer, 16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink, three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish. 17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Whosoever, whether Man or Woman, shall come in unto the King in the inner Court, who is not called, there is one Law of his to put him to Death] Ever since the Reign of Dejoces, King of Media, Herodotus informs us, that, for the Preservation of his Royal Majesty, was enacted, 'That no one should be admitted in 'the King's Presence, but that, if he had any Busine 'with him, he should transact it by the Intercourse 'his Ministers.' The Custom pass'd from the Me to the Persians, and therefore we find it in the Jew Historian, after the seven Persian Princes had killed t Magian, who had usurped the Throne, they came this Agreement, that whoever should be elected Kin should allow the others to have at all Times a rea Access to his Presence, (which is an Implication, th they had it not before) whenever they should desire except only when he should be accompanying with a of his Wives. This therefore was the antient Law the Country, and not procured by Haman, as so imagi imagine; tho' it cannot be denied, that the Reaſon of the Law at firſt might be, not only the Preſervation of the Majeſty, and Safety of the King's Perſon, but a Contrivance likewiſe of the great Officers of State, that they might engroſs the King to themſelves, by allowing Admittance to none, but whom they ſhould think proper to introduce. Pool's Ann. and Le Clerc's Com.

CHAP. V.

Eſther appears before the King, and finds Favour, and invites him and Haman to a Banquet. Haman builds a Gallows for Mordecai.

Ver. 1. NOW it came to paſs on the third day, that Eſther put on her royal apparel, and ſtood in the inner court of the kings houſe, over againſt the kings houſe: and the king ſat upon his royal throne in the royal houſe over againſt the gate of the houſe. 2 And it was ſo when the king ſaw Eſther the queen ſtanding in the court, that ſhe obtained favour in his ſight: and the king held out to Eſther the golden ſceptre that was in his hand: ſo Eſther drew near, and touched the top of the ſceptre. 3 Then ſaid the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Eſther? and what is thy requeſt? it ſhall be even given thee, to the half of the kingdom. 4 And Eſther anſwered, If it ſeem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. 5 Then the king ſaid, Cauſe Haman to make haſte, that he may do as Eſther hath ſaid. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Eſther had prepared. 6 And the king ſaid unto Eſther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it ſhall be granted thee: and what is thy requeſt? even to the half of the kingdom it ſhall be performed. 7 Then anſwered Eſther and ſaid, My petition, and my requeſt is; 8 If I have found favour in the ſight of the king, and if it pleaſe the king to grant my petition, and to perform my requeſt, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I ſhall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath ſaid. 9 Then went Haman forth that day, joyful, and with a glad heart: but when Haman ſaw Mordecai in the kings gate, that he ſtood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation againſt Mordecai. 10 Nevertheleſs, Haman refrained himſelf, and when he came home, he ſent and called for his friends, and Zereſh his wife. 11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and ſervants of the king. 12 Haman ſaid moreover, Yea, Eſther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that ſhe had prepared, but my ſelf; and to morrow am I invited unto her alſo with the king. 13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, ſo long as I ſee Mordecai the Jew ſitting at the kings gate. 14 Then ſaid Zereſh his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow ſpeak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleaſed Haman, and he cauſed the gallows to be made.

Let the King and Haman come to the Banquet that I ſhall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the King hath ſaid] Her Intention, in deſiring to entertain the King twice at a Banquet, before ſhe made known her Petition, was, that thereby ſhe might the more endear herſelf to him, and diſpoſe him the better to grant her Requeſt; for which Reaſon, ſhe thought it a Piece of no bad Policy to invite his firſt Favourite to come along with him. But, in the whole Matter, the ſingular Providence of God is not a little conſpicuous, which ſo diſpoſed her Mind, that the high Honour, which the King beſtowed upon Mordecai the next Day, might fall out in the mean Time, and ſo make way for her Petition, which would come in very ſeaſonably at the Banquet of Wine: For as then it was moſt likely for the King to be in a pleaſant Humour, ſo it was moſt uſual for the Perſians to enter upon Buſineſs of State, when they began to drink. Le Clerc's and Patrick's Com. and Prideaux's Connect.

CHAP. VI.

Ahaſuerus not being able to ſleep, commands the publick Records to be read; and obſerving that Mordecai had not been rewarded according to his Merit, is adviſed, unwittingly, by Haman, to do him the greateſt Honours; from whence Haman's Downfal is predicted by his Friends. He attends Eſther's Banquet.

Ver. 1. ON that night could not the king ſleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles: and they were read before the king. 2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana, and Tereſh, two of the kings chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who ſought to lay hand on the king Ahaſuerus. 3 And the king ſaid, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then ſaid the kings ſervants that miniſtred unto him, There is nothing done for him. 4 And the king ſaid, Who is in the court? (Now Haman was come into the outward court of the kings houſe, to ſpeak unto the king, to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him) 5 And the kings ſervants ſaid unto him, Behold, Haman ſtandeth in the court. And the king ſaid, Let him come in. 6 So Haman came in: and the king ſaid unto him, What ſhall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? (Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to my ſelf) 7 And Haman anſwered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour, 8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king uſeth to wear, and the horſe that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is ſet upon his head: 9 And let this apparel and horſe be delivered to the hand of one of the kings moſt noble princes, that they may aray the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horſe-back through the ſtreet of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus ſhall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. 10 Then the king ſaid to Haman, Make haſte, and take the apparel, and the horſe, as thou haſt ſaid, and do even ſo to Mordecai the Jew, that ſitteth at the kings gate: let nothing fail of all that thou haſt ſpoken. 11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horſe, and arayed Mordecai, and brought him on horſe-back through the ſtreet of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus ſhall it be done unto the

the man whom the king delighteth to honour. 12 And Mordecai came again to the kings gate: but Haman hasted to his house, mourning, and having his head covered. 13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men, and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him. 14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the kings chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

For the Man whom the King delighteth to honour, let the royal Apparel be brought which the King useth to wear] To form a Notion of the Height of Pride and Arrogance, to which Haman (who thought all the Honours he specified, were designed for him) was arrived, we may observe, that, for any one to put on the Royal Robe, without the Privity and Consent of the King, was, among the Persians, accounted a capital Crime. To which Purpose Plutarch, in the Life of Artaxerxes, has related this Story: — 'That one Day, when in 'hunting, the King happened to tare his Garment, 'and Teribazus was telling him of it, the King asked 'him what he should do? Why, put on another, says 'Teribazus, and give that to me. That I will, says 'the King, but then I enjoin you not to wear it. Te'ribazus however, (who was a good Kind of a Man 'enough, but a little weak and silly) adventur'd to 'put it on, with all its fine Ornaments; and, when 'some of the Nobles began to resent it, as a Thing 'not lawful for any Subject to do, I allow him, says 'the King, laughing at the Figure he made, to wear 'the fine Trinkets as a Woman, and the Robe as a Mad'man.' Le Clerc's Com.

And the Horse that the King rideth upon, and the Crown royal which is set upon his Head] Commentators are not agreed, whether this Crown was placed upon the King's Head, or his Horse's. Those who refer it to the King, will have it to be what we call a Turbant, made of fine white and purple Linen, which it was Death for any one to put on his Head, without the King's express Order; to which Purpose Arrian tells us this Story: — 'That, as Alexander was sailing on 'the Euphrates, and his Turbant happened to fall off 'among some Reeds, one of the Watermen immedi'ately jump'd in, and swam to it; but as he could 'not bring it back in his Hand without wetting it, 'he put it upon his Head, and so returned with it. 'Whereupon most Historians, that have wrote of Alex'ander, (says he) tell us, that he gave him a Talent 'of Silver for this Expression of his Zeal to serve him, 'but, at the same Time, ordered his Head to be struck 'off, for presuming to put on the Royal Diadem.' Other Commentators are of Opinion, that this Keter, which we render Crown, being a Word of a large Signification, will equally denote that Ornament, which the Horse, that the King rode, wore upon his Head: And it must be acknowledged, that this Application of the Thing agrees better with the Signification and Order of the Hebrew Words; with the following Verses, wherein no Mention is made of the Keter, but only of the Robe, and the Horse, to which this Crown belonged; and with the Custom of the Persians, who used to put a certain Ornament (in Italian called Fiocco) upon the Head of that Horse whereon the King was mounted. Le Clerc's and Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

CHAP. VII.

Esther petitions for her own and her People's Lives, accuses Haman; the King, in a Rage, orders him to be hanged on the Gallows which he had erected for Mordecai.

Ver. 1. SO the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 And the king said again to Esther, on the second day, at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed even to the half of the kingdom. 3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. 4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we have had been sold for bond-men and bond-women, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the kings damage. 5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he? and where is he that durst presume in his heart to do so? 6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. 7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace-garden; and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen: for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. 8 Then the king returned out of the palace-garden, into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the kings mouth, they covered Hamans face. 9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon. 10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

And the King arising from the Banquet of Wine in his Wrath, went into the Palace-garden] Partly, as disdaining the Company of so audacious and ungrateful a Person; partly, to cool and allay his Spirit, boiling and struggling with such a Variety of Passions; and partly, to consider within himself the Heinousness of Haman's Crime, the Mischief, which himself had like to have done by his own Rashness, and what Punishment was fit to be inflicted on so vile a Miscreant. Patrick's Com. and Pool's Ann.

And Haman was fallen on the Bed where Esther was] It was a Custom among the Persians, as well as other Nations, to sit, or, rather, to lie upon Beds, when they eat or drank; and therefore when Haman fell down as a Supplicant, at the Feet of Esther, and (as the Manner was among the Greeks and Romans, and improbably among the Persians) embraced her Knees, the King might pretend, that he was offering Violence to the Queen's Chastity. Not that he believed, that this was his Intention, but, in his furious Passion, turned every Thing to the worst Sense, and made use of it to aggravate his Crime. Patrick's Com.

ON that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews enemy, unto Esther the queeen: and Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her. 2 And the king took off his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. 3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears, to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. 4 Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. 5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the kings provinces: 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred? 7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. 8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the kings name, and seal it with the kings ring: for the writing which is written in the kings name, and sealed with the kings ring, may no man reverse. 9 Then were the kings scribes called at that time in the third month (that is the month Sivan) on the three and twentieth day thereof, and it was written (according to all that Mordecai commanded) unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. 10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kings ring, and sent letters by post on horse-back, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: 11 Wherein the king granted the Jews, which were in every city, to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish all the power of the people and province, that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey: 12 Upon one day, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. 13 The copy of the writing, for commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day, to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the kings commandment; and the decree was given at Shushan the palace. 15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king, in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen, and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad: 16 The Jews had light and gladness, and joy, and honour. 17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the kings commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day; and many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

For the Writing which is written in the King's Name, and sealed with the King's Ring, may no Man reverse.] This Reason may belong either, 1. To the writing of these present Letters; and so the Sense is, These Letters will be most effectual, being no less irrevocable than the former, and coming last will repeal the former. Or, 2. To the former Letters, as a Reason why he could not grant their Desires in recalling them, because they were irrevocable by the Laws of the Medes and Persians. And this Sense, rejected by many, seems to be the truest, because here is no Mention of reversing Haman's Letters, which Esther had desired, Ver. 5. and the King denied, for the Reason here alledged; and because the following Letter doth not contain one Word about the reversing of the former, nor does it take away that Power which was given to all Rulers to destroy all the Jews, Ch. iii. 12, 13. but only gives the Jews Power and Authority to stand up in their own Defence, Ver. 11. which, all Circumstances consider'd, was sufficient for their Preservation.

CHAP. IX.

The Jews slay their Enemies, with the ten Sons of Haman. Ahasuerus, at Esther's Request, grants another Day of Slaughter. The Days of Purim made a Festival.

Ver. 1. NOW in the twelfth month (that is the month Adar) on the thirteenth day of the same, when the kings commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them) 2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt; and no man could withstand them: for the fear of them fell upon all people. 3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews: because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. 4 For Mordecai was great in the kings house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them. 6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. 7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, 8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, 9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, 10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hamedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand. 11 On that day, the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace, was brought before the king. 12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the kings provinces? now what is thy petition?

petition? and it ſhall be granted thee: or what is thy requeſt further? and it ſhall be done. 13 Then ſaid Eſther, If it pleaſe the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Suſhan, to do to morrow alſo according unto this days decree, and let Hamans ten ſons be hanged upon the gallows. 14 And the king commanded it ſo to be done; and the decree was given at Shuſhan, and they hanged Hamans ten ſons. 15 For the Jews that were in Shuſhan, gathered themſelves together on the fourteenth day alſo of the month Adar, and ſlew three hundred men at Shuſhan; but on the prey they laid not their hand. 16 But the other Jews that were in the kings provinces, gathered themſelves together, and ſtood for their lives, and had reſt from their enemies, and ſlew of their foes ſeventy and five thouſand; but they laid not their hands on the prey. 17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the ſame, reſted they, and made it a day of feaſting and gladneſs. 18 But the Jews that were at Shuſhan, aſſembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth day thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the ſame they reſted, and made it a day of feaſting and gladneſs. 19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar, a day of gladneſs and feaſting, and a good day, and of ſending portions one to another. 20 And Mordecai wrote theſe things, and ſent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahaſuerus, both nigh and far. 21 To ſtabliſh this among them, that they ſhould keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the ſame yearly: 22 As the days wherein the Jews reſted from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from ſorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they ſhould make them days of feaſting and joy, and of ſending portions one to another and gifts to the poor. 23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them. 24 Becauſe Haman the ſon of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had deviſed againſt the Jews to deſtroy them, and had caſt Pur (that is, the lot) to conſume them, and to deſtroy them. 25 But when Eſther came before the king, he commanded, by letters, that his wicked device which he deviſed againſt the Jews, ſhould return upon his own head, and that he and his ſons ſhould be hanged on the gallows. 26 Wherefore they called theſe days Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had ſeen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, 27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their ſeed, and upon all ſuch as joyned themſelves unto them, ſo as it ſhould not fail, that they would keep theſe two days, according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year: 28 And that theſe days ſhall be remembred, and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that theſe days of Purim ſhould not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them periſh from their ſeed. 29 Then Eſther the queen the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this ſecond letter of Purim. 30 And he ſent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and ſeven provinces of the kingdom of Ahaſuerus, with words of peace and truth: 31 To confirm theſe days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew, and Eſther the queen had enjoyned them, and as they had decreed for themſelves and for their ſeed, the matters of the faſtings and their cry. 32 And the decree of Eſther confirmed theſe matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

And ſlew of their Foes ſeventy and five Thouſand] This, no doubt, is a vaſt Number; but the great Sum, which Haman would have given, to gratify his Revenge againſt the Jewiſh Nation, was an additional Provocation to them, very likely, to ſlay every one that came to annoy them; but then it muſt be conſidered, that in this they acted by Virtue of an Edict, which authorized them to ſtand upon their own Defence, that they were not the firſt Aggreſſors, but only oppoſed them that openly aſſaulted them, and were for putting any unjuſt Decree in Execution againſt them; and as the Amalekites, who might be diſperſed throughout the Perſian Dominions, were the known and inveterate Enemies of the Jews, and following now the Fortune of Haman, might be forward enough to execute the Decree which he had procured againſt them, it is therefore reaſonably preſumed, that moſt of thoſe, whom the Jews, in their neceſſary Defence, both in Shuſhan, and in the Provinces, did deſtroy, were of that devoted Nation. And by this their Slaughter, the Prophecies againſt Amalek were accompliſhed.

Wherefore they called theſe Days Purim, after the Name of Pur] Pur, in the Perſian Language, ſignifies a Lot, and the Feaſt of Purim, or Lots (which had its Name from Haman's caſting Lots, in order to divine which Day would be moſt lucky to prefix the Murther of all the Jews in the whole Perſian Dominions) is, to this very Day, celebrated by the Jews, with ſome peculiar Ceremonies, but moſt of them reduceable to theſe three Things, Reading, Reſting, and Feaſting. Before the Reading, which is perform'd in the Synagogue, and begins in the Evening, as ſoon as the Stars appear, they make uſe of three Forms of Prayer: In the firſt of theſe, they praiſe God for counting them worthy to attend this Divine Service; in the ſecond, they thank him for the miraculous Preſervation of their Anceſtors; and in the third, they bleſs his holy Name, for having continued their Lives to the Celebration of another Feſtival in Commemoration of it. Then they read over the whole Hiſtory of Haman, from the Beginning to the End, but not out of any printed Book, (for that is not lawful) but out of an Hebrew Manuſcript, written on Parchment. There are five Places in the Text, wherein the Reader raiſes his Voice with all his Might: When he comes to the Place that mentions the Names of the Sons of Haman, he repeats them very quick, to ſhew, that they were all deſtroyed in a Moment; and every Time that the Name of Haman is pronounced, the Children, with great Fury, ſtrike againſt the Benches of the Synagogue with the Mallets that they bring for that Purpoſe. After that the Reading is finiſhed, they return Home and have a Supper, not of Fleſh, but of Spoon-meat; and early next Morning they ariſe, and return to the Synagogue; where, after they have read that Paſſage in Exodus, which makes Mention of the War of Amalek, they begin again to read the Book of Eſther, with the ſame Ceremonies as before; and ſo conclude the Service of the Day, with Curſes againſt Haman and his Wife Zereth, with Bleſſings upon Mordecai and Eſther, and with Praiſes to God, for having preſerved his People. Their Reſting on this Day is obſerved ſo religiouſly that they will not ſo much as ſet or ſow any Thing in their Gardens, with full Perſuaſion that it would not come up, if they did; and therefore they either play at Cheſs, and ſuch like Games, or ſpend the Time

Muſick and Dancing, until it be proper to begin their Feaſting, wherein they indulge themſelves to ſuch an immoderate Degree, that their Feaſt of Purim has, with great Juſtice, been called the Bacchanals of the Jews. They allow themſelves to drink Wine to Exceſs, nay, even to ſuch a Pitch, as not to be able to diſtinguiſh between the Bleſſing of Mordecai, and the Curſe of Haman, as themſelves ſpeak; and, amidſt the other Sports and Diverſions of the Day, they uſed formerly to erect a Gibbet and burn upon it a Man of Straw, whom they called Haman; but herein it was thought, that they might have a Deſign to inſult Chriſtians, upon the Death of our crucified Saviour, and therefore Theodoſius II. (A. D. 408.) forbad them to uſe this Ceremony, under the Penalty of forfeiting all their Privileges. We have only further to remark concerning this Feſtival, that it is always kept for two Days together, and the Reaſon hereof is this: — The Jews at Shuſhan had two Days allowed them to revenge themſelves of their Enemies, Ch. ix. 13. but the reſt of the Jews in other Nations had but one. This cauſed, at firſt, ſome Difference in their Time of Feaſting; for the Jews, in all other Parts of the Kingdom, having done Execution on their Enemies on the thirteenth Day, kept their Rejoicing Feaſt on the fourteenth; but the Jews at Shuſhan, being engaged in this Work, both on the thirteenth and fourteenth Days, kept their Feſtival for their Deliverance, on the fifteenth. When Mordecai however, had made a Record of this great Deliverance, he ſent Letters to all the Jews throughout the Dominions of Ahaſuerus, to eſtabliſh it as a ſtanding Ordinance among them, that they ſhould keep both the fourteenth and fifteenth of the Month Adar every Year, as the Days whereon the Jews reſted from their Enemies: And this is the Reaſon why the Feſtival continues for two Days, tho' the former of them is only kept with great Solemnity. Patrick's Com. Howell's Hiſt. and Calmet's Dict.

CHAP. X.

Ahaſuerus his Greatneſs. Mordecai in high Eſteem both by the King and his own People the Jews.

Ver. 1. AND the king Ahaſuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the iſles of the ſea. 2 And all the acts of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the greatneſs of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Perſia? 3 For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahaſuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, ſeeking the wealth of his people, and ſpeaking peace to all his ſeed.

As this Chapter contains only a ſhort Account of Ahaſuerus's Greatneſs, and Mordecai's Power in the Perſian Court; upon which we have already been very particular, we ſhall cloſe this Chapter and Book without any farther Remarks.

AN

The ARGUMENT.

In this Hiſtory is ſhewn the Example of a ſingular Patience and Piety; for this Man Job was not only extremely afflicted in outward Things, and in his Body, but alſo in his Soul by the ſharp Temptations of his Wife and Friends; who, by their vehement Words and ſubtil Diſputations, brought him almoſt to Deſpair: For they ſet forth God as a ſevere Judge and mortal Enemy to him, and having caſt him off; therefore in vain would he ſeek unto him for Succour. Theſe Friends came to viſit him under a Pretence of condoling with, comforting and ſupporting him under his heavy Afflictions; and yet they tormented him more than all his Misfortunes.

In this Story we may obſerve, that Job maintains a good Cauſe, but handles it ill. Again, his Adverſaries (for ſuch his Friends prov'd to be on this Occaſion) ſupport a bad Cauſe, but defend it cravingly: For Job held, that God did not always puniſh Men according to their Sins, but that he had ſecret Judgments, whereof Men know not the Cauſe, and therefore Man could not reaſon againſt God, but he ſhould be convicted. Moreover, he was aſſured that God had not rejected him, yet through his great Torments and Affliction, he breaks out into ſeveral Exceſſes in Expreſſion; and this is his Cauſe which he does not handle well. Again, his Adverſaries maintain, with many plauſible Arguments, that God puniſhes continually, according to the Treſpaſs, grounding their Reaſons upon God's Providence, his Juſtice, and Man's Sins, yet their Intention is evil; for they labour'd to bring Job into Deſpair; and ſo they maintained a bad Cauſe.
